PREFACE

This Code is the official restatement in convenient form of the general and permanent laws of the United States in force December 7, 1925, now scattered in 25 volumes—i. e., the Revised Statutes of 1878, and volumes 20 to 43, inclusive, of the Statutes at Large. No new law is enacted and no law repealed. It is prima facie the law. It is presumed to be the law. The presumption is rebuttable by production of prior unrepealed Acts of Congress at variance with the Code. Because of such possibility of error in the Code and of appeal to the Revised Statutes and Statutes at Large, a table of statutes repealed prior to December 7, 1925, is published herein together with the Articles of Confederation; The Declaration of Independence; Ordinance of 1787; the Constitution with amendments and index; tables of cross references to the Revised Statutes, the Statutes at Large, the United States Compiled Statutes, Annotated, of the West Publishing Co., and the Federal Statutes, Annotated, of the Edward Thompson Co.; an appendix with the general and permanent laws of the first session of the Sixty-ninth Congress; and finally an exhaustive index of the laws in the Code and appendix.

The first official codification of the general and permanent laws of the United States was made in 1874 and followed by a perfected edition in 1878. From 1897 to 1907 a commission was engaged in an effort to codify the great mass of accumulating legislation. The work of the commission involved an expenditure of over $300,000, but was never carried to completion. More recently the task of codification was undertaken by the late Hon. Edward C. Little as chairman of the Committee on the Revision of the Laws of the House of Representatives, who labored indefatigably from 1919 to the day of his death, June 24, 1924. The volumes which represented the result of his labors were embodied in bills which passed the House of Representatives in three successive Congresses unanimously but failed of action in the Senate.

The Code now set forth has resulted from the hearty cooperation of the Committee of the House of Representatives on the Revision of the Laws, and the Select Committee of the United States Senate consisting of Richard P. Ernst, chairman, George Wharton Pepper, and William Cabell Bruce. Under the auspices of the committees of the House and the Senate the actual work of assembling and classifying the mass of material has been done by the West Publishing Co. and the Edward Thompson Co. These two houses have subordinated their private interests to the public good and have produced a result which would have been impossible without them. Acknowledgment of valuable assistance is given to W. H. McClenon, of the Legislative Reference Division of the Library of Congress, and to the law officers and other representatives of the several departments, bureaus, and commissions of the Government. Appreciation is also expressed of the interest in the work taken by the Committee on the Revision of the Federal Statutes of the American Bar Association.

Scrutiny of this Code is invited. Constructive criticism is solicited. It is the ambition of the Committee on the Revision of the Laws of the House of Representatives gradually to perfect the Code by correcting errors, eliminating obsolete matter, and restating the law with logical completeness and with precision, brevity, and uniformity of expression.

Address criticisms to Chairman of the Committee on the Revision of the Laws of the House of Representatives, Washington, D. C.

WASHINGTON, June 30, 1926.

ROY G. FITZGERALD, Chairman.

THE CODE OF THE LAWS

OF THE

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

OF A GENERAL AND PERMANENT CHARACTER IN FORCE DECEMBER SEVENTH, NINETEEN HUNDRED AND TWENTY-FIVE, CONSOLIDATED, CODIFIED, SET FORTH, AND PUBLISHED IN NINETEEN HUNDRED AND TWENTY-SIX, IN THE ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTIETH YEAR OF THE REPUBLIC, AT ITS FIRST SESSION, BY THE

SIXTY-NINTH CONGRESS

AN ACT

To consolidate, codify, and set forth the general and permanent laws of the United States in force December seventh, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the fifty titles hereinafter set forth are intended to embrace the laws of the United States, general and permanent in their nature, in force on the 7th day of December, 1925, compiled into a single volume under the authority of Congress, and designated "The Code of the Laws of the United States of America."

SEC. 2. In all courts, tribunals, and public offices of the United States, at home or abroad, of the District of Columbia, and of each State, Territory, or insular possession of the United States—

(a) The matter set forth in the Code, evidenced as hereinafter in this section provided, shall establish prima facie the laws of the United States, general and permanent in their nature, in force on the 7th day of December, 1925; but nothing in this Act shall be construed as repealing or amending any such law, or as enacting as new law any matter contained in the Code. In case of any inconsistency arising through omission or otherwise between the provisions of any section of this Code and the corresponding portion of legislation heretofore enacted effect shall be given for all purposes whatsoever to such enactments.

(b) Copies of this Act printed at the Government Printing Office and bearing its imprint shall be conclusive evidence of the original of the Code in the custody of the Secretary of State.

(c) The Code may be cited as "U. S. C."

THE CODE OF THE LAWS OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

TITLE 1.—GENERAL PROVISIONS

Chapter	Sec.
1. RULES OF CONSTRUCTION	1
2. ACTS AND RESOLUTIONS OF THE CONGRESS; FORMALITIES OF ENACTMENT; REPEALS; SEALING OF INSTRUMENTS	21

Chapter 1.—RULES OF CONSTRUCTION.

Sec.
1. Words importing singular number, masculine gender, etc.; extended application.
2. "County" as including "parish," etc.
3. "Vessel" as including all means of water transportation.
4. "Vehicle" as including all means of land transportation.
5. "Company" and "association" as including successors and assigns.

Section 1. Words importing singular number, masculine gender, etc.; extended application.—In determining the meaning of any Act or resolution of Congress, words importing the singular number may extend and be applied to several persons or things; words importing the plural number may include the singular; words importing the masculine gender may be applied to females; the words "insane person" and "lunatic" shall include every idiot, non compos, lunatic, and insane person; the word "person" may extend and be applied to partnerships and corporations, and the reference to any officer shall include any person authorized by law to perform the duties of such office, unless the context shows that such words were intended to be used in a more limited sense; and a requirement of an "oath" shall be deemed complied with by making affirmation in judicial form. (R. S. § 1.)

2. "County" as including "parish," etc.—The word "county" includes a parish, or any other equivalent subdivision of a State or Territory of the United States. (R. S. § 2.)

3. "Vessel" as including all means of water transportation.—The word "vessel" includes every description of water craft or other artificial contrivance used, or capable of being used, as a means of transportation on water. (R. S. § 3.)

4. "Vehicle" as including all means of land transportation.—The word "vehicle" includes every description of carriage or other artificial contrivance used, or capable of being used, as a means of transportation on land. (R. S. § 4.)

5. "Company" and "association" as including successors and assigns.—The word "company" or "association," when used in reference to a corporation, shall be deemed to embrace the words "successors and assigns of such company or association," in like manner as if these last-named words, or words of similar import, were expressed. (R. S. § 5.)

Chapter 2.—ACTS AND RESOLUTIONS OF THE CONGRESS; FORMALITIES OF ENACTMENT; REPEALS; SEALING OF INSTRUMENTS.

Sec.
21. Enacting clause.
22. Resolving clause.
23. Enacting or resolving words after first section.
24. Numbering of sections; single proposition.
25. Title of appropriation Acts.
26. Printing bills and joint resolutions.
27. Parchment or paper for printing enrolled bills or resolutions.
28. Effect of repeal of repealing Act.
29. Repeal of statute as affecting existing liabilities.
30. Pamphlet copies of Acts and Statutes at Large; contents; admissibility in evidence.
31. Sealing of instruments.

Section 21. Enacting clause.—The enacting clause of all Acts of Congress shall be in the following form: "Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled." (R. S. § 7.)

22. Resolving clause.—The resolving clause of all joint resolutions shall be in the following form: "Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled." (R. S. § 8.)

23. Enacting or resolving words after first section.—No enacting or resolving words shall be used in any section of an Act or resolution of Congress except in the first. (R. S. § 9.)

24. Numbering of sections; single proposition.—Each section shall be numbered, and shall contain, as nearly as may be, a single proposition of enactment. (R. S. § 10.)

25. Title of appropriation Acts.—The style and title of all Acts making appropriations for the support of Government shall be as follows: "An Act making appropriations (here insert the object) for the year ending June 30 (here insert the calendar year)." (R. S. § 11.)

26. Printing bills and joint resolutions.—Every bill or joint resolution in each House of Congress shall, when such bill or resolution passes either House, be printed, and such printed copy shall be called the engrossed bill or resolution as the case may be. Said engrossed bill or resolution shall be signed by the Clerk of the House or the Secretary of the Senate, and shall be sent to the other House, and in that form shall be dealt with by that House, and its officers and, if passed, returned signed by said Clerk or Secretary. When such bill, or joint resolution shall have passed both Houses, it shall be printed and shall then be called the enrolled bill, or joint resolution as the case may be, and shall be signed by the presiding officers of both Houses and sent to the President of the United States. During the last six days of a session such engrossing and enrolling of bills and joint resolutions may be done otherwise than as above prescribed, upon the order of Congress by concurrent resolution. (Nov. 1, 1893, 28 Stat. Appendix 5; Mar. 2, 1895, c. 177, § 1, 28 Stat. 769.)

27. Parchment or paper for printing enrolled bills or resolutions.—Enrolled bills and resolutions of either House of Congress shall be printed on parchment or paper of suitable quality as shall be determined by the Joint Committee on Printing. (Mar. 6, 1920, c. 94, § 1, 41 Stat. 520.)

28. Effect of repeal of repealing Act.—Whenever an Act is repealed, which repealed a former Act, such former Act shall not thereby be revived, unless it shall be expressly so provided. (R. S. § 12.)

29. Repeal of statutes as affecting existing liabilities.—The repeal of any statute shall not have the effect to release or extinguish any penalty, forfeiture, or liability incurred under such statute, unless the repealing Act shall so expressly provide, and such statute shall be treated as still remaining in force for the purpose of sustaining any proper action or prosecution for the enforcement of such penalty, forfeiture, or liability. (R. S. § 13.)

30. Pamphlet copies of Acts and Statutes at Large; contents; admissibility in evidence.—The pamphlet copies of the statutes and the bound copies of the Acts of each Congress shall be legal evidence of the laws and treaties therein contained in all the courts of the United States and of the several States therein. The said pamphlet and the Statutes at Large shall contain all laws, joint and concurrent resolutions passed by Congress, and also all conventions, treaties, proclamations, and agreements. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 73, 28 Stat. 615.)

31. Sealing of instruments.—In all cases where a seal is necessary by law to any commission, process, or other instrument provided for by the laws of Congress, it shall be lawful to affix the proper seal by making an impression therewith directly on the paper to which such seal is necessary; which shall be as valid as if made on wax or other adhesive substance. (R. S. § 6.)

(Aug. 8, 1911, c. 5, §§ 1, 2, 37 Stat. 13, 14; Jan. 6, 1912, 37 Stat. 1723; Feb. 14, 1912, 37 Stat. 1728.)

3. Election by districts.—In each State entitled under this apportionment to more than one Representative, the Representatives to Congress shall be elected by districts composed of a contiguous and compact territory, and containing as nearly as practicable an equal number of inhabitants. The said districts shall be equal to the number of Representatives to which such State may be entitled in Congress, no district electing more than one Representative. (Aug. 8, 1911, c. 5, § 3, 37 Stat. 14.)

4. Additional Representatives at large.—In case of an increase in the number of Representatives in any State under this apportionment such additional Representative or Representatives shall be elected by the State at large and the other Representatives by the districts prescribed by law on August 8, 1911, until such State shall be redistricted in the manner provided by the laws thereof and in accordance with the rules enumerated in section 3; and if there be no change in the number of Representatives from a State, the Representatives thereof shall be elected from the districts prescribed by law on August 8, 1911, until such State shall be redistricted as herein prescribed. (Aug. 8, 1911, c. 5, § 4, 37 Stat. 14.)

5. Nominations for Representatives at large.—Candidates for Representative or Representatives to be elected at large in any State shall be nominated in the same manner as candidates for governor, unless otherwise provided by the laws of such State. (Aug. 8, 1911, c. 5, § 5, 37 Stat. 15.)

6. Reduction of representation.—Should any State deny or abridge the right of any of the male inhabitants thereof, being twenty-one years of age, and citizens of the United States, to vote at any election named in the amendment to the Constitution, article 14, section 2, except for participation in the rebellion or other crime, the number of Representatives apportioned to such State shall be reduced in the proportion which the number of such male citizens shall have to the whole number of male citizens twenty-one years of age in such State. (R. S. § 22.)

7. Time of election.—The Tuesday next after the 1st Monday in November, in every even numbered year, is established as the day for the election, in each of the States and Territories of the United States, of Representatives and Delegates to the Congress commencing on the 4th day of March next thereafter. This section shall not apply to any State that has not yet changed its day of election, and whose constitution must be amended in order to effect a change in the day of the election of State officers in said State. (R. S. § 25; Mar. 3, 1875, c. 130, § 6, 18 Stat. 400.)

8. Vacancies.—The time for holding elections in any State, District, or Territory for a Representative or Delegate to fill a vacancy, whether such vacancy is caused by a failure to elect at the time prescribed by law, or by the death, resignation, or incapacity of a person elected, may be prescribed by the laws of the several States and Territories respectively. (R. S. § 26.)

9. Voting for Representatives.—All votes for Representatives in Congress must be by written or printed ballot, or voting machine the use of which has been duly authorized by the State law; and all votes received or recorded contrary to this section shall be of no effect. (R. S. § 27; Feb. 14, 1899, c. 154, 30 Stat. 836.)

Chapter 2.—ORGANIZATION OF CONGRESS.

Sec.
21. Oath of Senators.
22. Oath of President of Senate.
23. Presiding officer of Senate may administer oaths.
24. Secretary of Senate or Chief Clerk may administer oaths.
25. Oath of Speaker, Members, and Delegates.
26. Roll of Representatives-elect.
27. Change of place of meeting.

Section 21. Oath of Senators.—The oath of office shall be administered by the President of the Senate to each Senator who shall be elected, previous to his taking his seat. (R. S. § 28.)

22. Oath of President of Senate.—When a President of the Senate has not taken the oath of office, it shall be administered to him by any Member of the Senate. (R. S. § 29.)

23. Presiding officer of Senate may administer oaths.—The presiding officer, for the time being, of the Senate of the United States, shall have power to administer all oaths and affirmations that are or may be required by the Constitution, or by law, to be taken by any Senator, officer of the Senate, witness, or other person, in respect to any matter within the jurisdiction of the Senate. (Apr. 18, 1876, c. 66, § 1, 19 Stat. 34.)

24. Secretary of Senate or Chief Clerk may administer oaths.—The Secretary of the Senate, and the Chief Clerk thereof, shall, respectively, have power to administer any oath or affirmation required by law, or by the rules or orders of the Senate, to be taken by any officer of the Senate, and to any witness produced before it. (Apr. 18, 1876, c. 66, § 2, 19 Stat. 34.)

25. Oath of Speaker, Members, and Delegates.—At the first session of Congress after every general election of Representatives, the oath of office shall be administered by any Member of the House of Representatives to the Speaker; and by the Speaker to all the Members and Delegates present, and to the Clerk, previous to entering on any other business; and to the Members and Delegates who afterward appear, previous to their taking their seats. (R. S. § 30:)

26. Roll of Representatives-elect.—Before the first meeting of each Congress the Clerk of the next preceding House of Representatives shall make a roll of the Representatives-elect, and place thereon the names of those persons, and of such persons only, whose credentials show that they were regularly elected in accordance with the laws of their States respectively, or the laws of the United States. In case of a vacancy in the office of Clerk of the House of Representatives, or of the absence or inability of the Clerk to discharge the duties imposed on him by law or custom relative to the preparation of the roll of Representatives or the organization of the House, those duties shall devolve on the Sergeant at Arms of the next preceding House of Representatives. In case of vacancies in the offices of both the Clerk and the Sergeant at Arms, or of the absence or inability of both to act, the duties of the Clerk relative to the preparation of the roll of the House of Representatives or the organization of the House shall be performed by the Doorkeeper of the next preceding House of Representatives. (R. S. §§ 31, 32, 33.)

27. Change of place of meeting.—Whenever Congress is about to convene, and from the prevalence of contagious sickness, or the existence of other circumstances, it would, in the opinion of the President, be hazardous to the lives or health of the members to meet at the seat of Government, the President is authorized, by proclamation, to convene Congress at such other place as he may judge proper. (R. S. § 34.)

Chapter 3.—COMPENSATION OF MEMBERS.

Sec.
31. Compensation of Members of Congress.
32. Compensation of President of Senate.
33. Senators' salaries payable monthly.
34. Representatives' salaries payable monthly.
35. Salaries payable monthly after taking oath.

37. Salaries of Representatives, Delegates, and Resident Commissioners elected for unexpired terms.
38. Pay of Member dying after commencement of Congress.
39. Deductions for absence.
40. Deductions for withdrawal.
41. Newspapers.
42. Postage.
43. Mileage of Senators, Representatives, and Delegates.
44. Mileage allowance to Delegate from Alaska.
45. Mileage allowance to Resident Commissioners from Philippine Islands.
46. Mileage allowance to Resident Commissioner from Porto Rico.
47. Mode of payment.
48. Certification of salary and mileage accounts.
49. Certificate of salary during recess.
50. Substitute to sign certificates for salary and accounts.
51. Monuments to deceased Senators or Members of House.

Section 31. Compensation of Members of Congress.—The compensation of the Speaker of the House of Representatives shall be at the rate of $15,000 per annum, and the compensation of Senators, Representatives in Congress, Delegates from Territories, Resident Commissioner from Porto Rico, and Resident Commissioners from the Philippine Islands shall be at the rate of $10,000 per annum each. (Mar. 4, 1925, c. 549, § 4, 43 Stat. 1301.)

32. Compensation of President of Senate.—Whenever there is no Vice President, the President of the Senate for the time being is entitled to the compensation provided by law for the Vice President. (R. S. § 36.)

33. Senators' salaries payable monthly.—Senators elected, whose term of office begins on the 4th day of March, and whose credentials in due form of law shall have been presented in the Senate, but who have had no opportunity to be qualified, may receive their compensation monthly, from the beginning of their term, until there shall be a session of the Senate. (Mar. 3, 1833, c. 143, 22 Stat. 632.)

34. Representatives' salaries payable monthly.—Representatives and Delegates elect to Congress, whose credentials in due form of law have been duly filed with the Clerk of the House of Representatives, in accordance with the provisions of section 26 of this title, may receive their compensation monthly, from the beginning of their term until the beginning of the first session of each Congress, upon a certificate in the form now in use to be signed by the Clerk of the House, which certificate shall have the like force and effect as is given to the certificate of the Speaker. (R. S. § 38; Mar. 3, 1875, c. 130, § 1, 18 Stat. 389.)

35. Salaries payable monthly after taking oath.—Each Member and Delegate, after he has taken and subscribed the required oath, is entitled to receive his salary at the end of each month. (R. S. § 39.)

36. Salaries of Senators appointed or elected to fill vacancies.—Salaries of Senators appointed to fill vacancies in the Senate shall commence on the day of their appointment and continue until their successors are elected and qualified; and salaries of Senators elected to fill vacancies in the Senate shall commence on the day they qualify: Provided, That where no appointments have been made to fill such vacancies, the salaries of Senators elected to fill such vacancies shall commence on the day following their election. (Feb. 10, 1923, c. 68, 42 Stat. 1225.)

37. Salaries of Representatives, Delegates, and Resident Commissioners elected for unexpired terms.—The salaries of Representatives in Congress, Delegates from Territories, and Resident Commissioners, elected for unexpired terms, shall commence on the date of their election and not before. (R. S. § 51; July 16, 1914, c. 141, § 1, 38 Stat. 458.)

38. Pay of Member dying after commencement of Congress.—When any person who has been elected a Member of or Delegate in Congress dies after the commencement of the Congress to which he has been elected, his salary shall be computed and paid to his widow, or, if no widow survive him, to his heirs at law, for the period that has elapsed from the commencement of such Congress, or from the last payment received by him to the time of his death, at the rate of

$10,000 a year, with any mileage remaining due for actually going to or returning from any session of Congress. Salaries so allowed shall be computed and paid in all cases, for a period of not less than three months from the commencement of the Congress. (R. S. §§ 49, 50; Jan. 20, 1874, c. 11, 18 Stat. 4.)

39. Deductions for absence.—The Secretary of the Senate and Sergeant at Arms of the House, respectively, shall deduct from the monthly payments of each Member or Delegate the amount of his salary for each day that he has been absent from the Senate or House, respectively, unless such Member or Delegate assigns as the reason for such absence the sickness of himself or of some member of his family. (R. S. § 40.)

40. Deductions for withdrawal.—When any Member or Delegate withdraws from his seat and does not return before the adjournment of Congress, he shall, in addition to the sum deducted for each day, forfeit a sum equal to the amount which would have been allowed by law for his mileage in returning home; and such sum shall be deducted from his compensation, unless the withdrawal is with the leave of the Senate or House of Representatives respectively. (R. S. § 41.)

41. Newspapers.—No Member or Delegate is entitled to any allowance for newspapers. (R. S. § 43.)

42. Postage.—No compensation or allowance shall be made to Senators, Representatives, or Delegates on account of postage. (R. S. § 44.)

43. Mileage of Senators, Representatives, and Delegates.—Each Senator, Representative, and Delegate shall receive mileage at the rate of 20 cents per mile, to be estimated by the nearest route usually traveled in going to and returning from each regular session. (July 28, 1866, c. 296, § 17, 14 Stat. 323; Jan. 20, 1874, c. 11, 18 Stat. 4.)

44. Mileage allowance to Delegate from Alaska.—The Delegate from Alaska, in lieu of all other allowances, shall, in addition to his salary, receive the sum of $1,500 per annum, which shall cover all mileage and other expenses, except stationery allowance and compensation for clerk hire. (May 7, 1906, c. 2083, § 1, 34 Stat. 170.)

45. Mileage allowance to Resident Commissioners from Philippine Islands.—Each of the Resident Commissioners from the Philippine Islands shall, in addition to the salary allowed by law, receive $2.000 each per annum, in lieu of mileage. (July 1, 1902, c. 1369, § 8, 32 Stat. 694; Aug. 29, 1916, c. 416, § 20, 39 Stat. 552.)

46. Mileage allowance to Resident Commissioner from Porto Rico.—The Resident Commissioner from Porto Rico shall be allowed the sum of $500 as mileage for each session of the House of Representatives. (Mar. 2, 1917, c. 145, § 36, 39 Stat. 963.)

47. Mode of payment.—The compensation of Members and Delegates shall be passed as public accounts, and paid out of the public Treasury. (R. S. § 46.)

48. Certification of salary and mileage accounts.—Salary and mileage accounts of Senators shall be certified by the President of the Senate, and those of Representatives and Delegates by the Speaker of the House of Representatives; and such certificates shall be conclusive upon all the departments and officers of the Government. (R. S. §§ 47, 48; July 28, 1866, c. 296, § 17, 14 Stat. 323; Jan. 20, 1874, c. 11, 18 Stat. 4.)

49. Certificate of salary during recess.—The Clerk of the House of Representatives is authorized and directed to sign, during the recess of Congress after the first session and until the first day of the second session, the certificates for the monthly compensation of Members and Delegates in Congress, which certificate shall be in the form in use on August 15, 1876, and shall have the like force and effect as is given to the certificate of the Speaker. (Aug. 15, 1876, c. 287, § 1, 19 Stat. 145.)

50. Substitute to sign certificates for salary and accounts.—The Speaker is authorized to designate from time to time some one from among those appointed by him and appropriated for and employed in his office, whose duty it shall be under the direction of the Speaker to sign in his name and for him all certificates required by section 48 of this title for salary and accounts for traveling expenses in going to and returning from Congress of Representatives and Delegates. (Nov 12, 1903, No. 1, 33 Stat. 1.)

51. Monuments to deceased Senators or Members of House.—Whenever any deceased Senator or Member of the House of Representatives shall be actually interred in the Congressional Cemetery, so-called, it shall be the duty of the Sergeant at Arms of the Senate, in the case of a Senator, and of the Sergeant at Arms of the House of Representatives, in the case of a Member of the House, to have a monument erected, of granite, with suitable inscriptions, and the cost of the same shall be a charge upon and paid out either from the contingent funds of the Senate or of the House of Representatives, to whichever the deceased may have belonged, and any existing omissions of monuments or inscriptions, as aforesaid, are directed and authorized to be supplied in like manner. (May 23, 1876, c. 103, 19 Stat. 54.)

67. Clerks to Senators elect.—Senators elected, whose term of office begins on the fourth day of March, and whose credentials in due form of law shall have been presented to the Senate, or filed with the Secretary, but who have not been qualified, are authorized to appoint a clerk to serve from the date of the commencement of their terms, respectively, whose compensation shall be paid out of the appropriation for clerks to Senators who are not chairmen of committees. (Mar. 2, 1895, c. 177, § 1, 28 Stat. 766; Feb. 20, 1923, c. 98, 42 Stat. 1266.)

68. Payments from contingent fund of Senate.—No payment shall be made from the contingent fund of the Senate unless sanctioned by the Committee to Audit and Control the Contingent Expenses of the Senate. Payments made upon vouchers approved by said Committee shall be deemed, held, and taken, and are hereby declared to be conclusive upon all the department and officers of the Government: Provided, That no payment shall be made from said contingent fund as additional salary or compensation to any officer or employee of the Senate. (Oct. 2, 1888, c. 1069, § 1, 25 Stat. 546.)

69. Same; for expenses of committees.—When any duty is imposed upon a committee of the Senate involving expenses which are ordered to be paid out of the contingent fund of the Senate, upon vouchers to be approved by the chairman of the committee charged with such duty, the receipt of the chairman of such committee for any sum paid to him or his order out of said contingent fund by the Secretary of the Senate shall be taken and passed by the General Accounting Office as a full and sufficient voucher; but it shall be the duty of such chairman, as soon as practicable, to furnish vouchers in detail for the disbursement of such moneys to the Secretary of the Senate, who shall file them with the General Accounting Office. (Mar. 3, 1879, c. 183, § 1, 20 Stat. 419.)

70. Same; Senate resolutions for payment for clerical and messenger service.—All Senate resolutions passed prior to July 1, 1914, authorizing the payment for clerical and messenger services from the contingent fund of the Senate are hereby repealed. (July 16, 1914, c. 141, § 1, 38 Stat. 456.)

71. Motor equipment for Senate.—The Secretary of War is authorized in his discretion to transfer without charge to the Sergeant at Arms of the United States Senate such motor equipment as is suitable to the needs of the Senate and which is no longer required for the use of the War Department. (July 11, 1919, c. 6, § 1, 41 Stat. 57.)

72. Committee employees after termination of Congress.—Appropriations for committee employees shall not be available for the payment of any clerk or assistant clerk to a committee who does not, after the termination of the Congress during which he was appointed, perform his duties under the direction of the Clerk of the House. This provision shall not apply to the Committee on Accounts. (Mar. 4, 1925, c. 549, § 1, 43 Stat. 1291.)

73. Clerk for minority members of Committee on Ways and Means.—The position of a clerk for the minority members of the Committee on Ways and Means is hereby established at such rate of compensation as Congress may from time to time appropriate and incumbents thereof shall be appointed by and be subject to the direction of the ranking minority member of that committee. During the period between the expiration of a Congress and the election of the members of the Committee on Ways and Means at the succeeding Congress such clerk shall be appointed by and be subject to the direction of that ranking minority member of the committee of the expiring Congress who is also a member elect of the succeeding Congress. (Mar. 4, 1925, c. 549, § 1, 43 Stat. 1292.)

74. Clerk hire, Members, Delegates, and Resident Commissioners.—The clerk hire for clerks necessarily employed by each Member, Delegate, and Resident Commissioner, in the discharge of his official and representative duties, shall be at the rate of $4,000 per annum and shall be paid in accordance with section 92 of this title, but no person shall receive a salary from such clerk hire at a rate in excess of $3,300 per annum. (R. S. §§ 56, 54; Mar. 3, 1893, No. 21, 27 Stat. 757;

July 16, 1914, c. 141, §§ 1, 6, 38 Stat. 454, 509; Mar. 4, 1915, c. 141, §§ 1, 6, 38 Stat. 997, 1049; May 24, 1924, c. 183, § 1, 43 Stat. 149; June 7, 1924, c. 303, § 1, 43 Stat. 581; Mar. 4, 1925, c. 549, § 1, 43 Stat. 1286.)

75. Bond of Clerk of House of Representatives.—The Clerk of the House of Representatives shall, within thirty days after entering upon the duties of his office, and before making any requisition upon the Treasury to draw any portion of the moneys appropriated for the contingent expenses of the House, give a bond to the United States, with one or more sureties, to be approved by the Secretary of the Treasury, in the penal sum of $20,000, with condition for the faithful application and disbursement of such portions of the contingent fund of the House as shall come into his hands, which bond shall be deposited in the office of the Secretary of the Treasury. (R. S. §§ 58, 59; Mar. 2, 1895, c. 177, § 5, 28 Stat. 807.)

76. Duties of Doorkeeper of House of Representatives.—The Doorkeeper of the House of Representatives shall perform the usual services pertaining to his office during the session of Congress, and shall in the recess, under the direction of the Clerk of the House of Representatives, take care of the apartments occupied by the House of Representatives. (R. S. § 73.)

77. Sergeant at Arms of House of Representatives; additional compensation.—The Sergeant at Arms of the House of Representatives shall receive, directly or indirectly, no fees or other compensation or emolument whatever for performing the duties of the office, or in connection therewith, otherwise than the salary prescribed by law. (June 20, 1874, c. 328, § 1, 18 Stat. 87; Mar. 3, 1875, c. 129, § 1, 18 Stat. 346.)

78. Same; duties.—It shall be the duty of the Sergeant at Arms of the House of Representatives to attend the House during its sittings, to maintain order under the direction of the Speaker, and, pending the election of a Speaker or Speaker pro tempore, under the direction of the Clerk, execute the commands of the House and all processes issued by authority thereof, directed to him by the Speaker, keep the accounts for the pay and mileage of Members and Delegates, and pay them as provided by law. (Oct. 1, 1890, c. 1256, § 1, 26 Stat. 645.)

79. Same; symbol of office.—The symbol of his office shall be the mace, which shall be borne by him while enforcing order on the floor. (Oct. 1, 1890, c. 1256, § 2, 26 Stat. 645.)

80. Same; disbursement of compensation of Members and Delegates.—The moneys which have been, or may be, appropriated for the compensation and mileage of Members and Delegates shall be paid at the Treasury on requisitions drawn by the Sergeant at Arms of the House of Representatives, and shall be kept, disbursed, and accounted for by him according to law, and he shall be a disbursing officer, but he shall not be entitled to any compensation additional to the salary fixed by law. (Oct. 1, 1890, c. 1256, § 3, 26 Stat. 645.)

81. Same; fiscal year for adjustment of accounts.—The fiscal year for the adjustment of the accounts of the Sergeant at Arms of the House of Representatives for compensation and mileage of Members and Delegates shall extend to and include the 3d day of July. (R. S. § 237; Oct. 1, 1890, c. 1256, § 9, 26 Stat. 646.)

82. Same; bond.—The Sergeant at Arms shall, within twenty days after entering upon the duties of his office, and before receiving any portion of the moneys appropriated for the compensation or mileage of Members and Delegates, give a bond to the United States, with two or more sureties, to be approved by the Secretary of the Treasury in the sum of $50,000, with condition for the proper discharge of the duties of his office, and the faithful keeping, application, and disbursement of such moneys as may be drawn from the Treasury and paid to him as disbursing officer of the United States, and shall, from time to time, renew his official bond as the Secretary of the Treasury shall direct. No Member of Congress shall be approved as surety on such bond. The bond given pursuant to this section shall be deposited in the office of the Secretary of the Treasury. (Oct. 1, 1890, c. 1256, §§ 4, 5, 26 Stat. 646; Mar. 2, 1895, c. 177, § 5, 28 Stat. 807.)

83. Same; tenure of office.—Any person duly elected and qualified as Sergeant at Arms of the House of Representatives shall continue in said office until his successor is chosen and qualified, subject, however, to removal by the House of Representatives. (Oct. 1, 1890, c. 1256, § 6, 26 Stat. 646.)

84. Same; statement of disbursements.—The Sergeant at Arms of the House of Representatives shall prepare and submit to the House of Representatives, at the commencement of each regular session of Congress, a statement in writing exhibiting the several sums drawn by him pursuant to sections 78 and 80 of this title, the application and disbursement of the same, and the balance, if any, remaining in his hands. (Oct. 1, 1890, c. 1256, § 7, 26 Stat. 646.)

85. Performance of duties by employees of House.—Employees of the House of Representatives under the Clerk, Sergeant at Arms, Doorkeeper, and Postmaster shall only be assigned to and engaged upon the duties of the positions to which they are appointed and for which compensation is provided, except that in cases of emergency or congestion of public business incident to the close of a session of Congress or other like cause an employee or employees may be assigned or required to aid in the discharge of the duties of any other employee or employees, and in the discretion of the Doorkeeper not more than one folder may, if necessary, be assigned to do clerical work under the direction of the foreman of the folding room, but all assignments made hereunder shall be without additional compensation and shall not constitute the basis of a claim therefor. (Mar. 3, 1901, c. 830, § 1, 31 Stat. 968.)

86. Division of salaries of employees of House of Representatives.—It shall not be lawful to appoint or employ in any position under the House of Representatives more than one person at any one time, or to require or permit any such person to divide with another any portion of his salary or compensation while so employed. (Mar. 3, 1901, c. 830, § 1, 31 Stat. 968.)

87. Subletting of duties of employees of House of Representatives forbidden.—It shall not be lawful to require or permit any person in the employ of the House of Representatives to sublet to another the discharge of any portion of the duties of the position to which he is appointed. (Mar. 3, 1901, c. 830, § 1, 31 Stat. 968.)

88. Limit of age of pages in House of Representatives.—No person shall be appointed or employed as a page in the service of the House of Representatives who is under twelve years or more than eighteen years of age; but this provision shall not apply to chief pages, riding pages, and telephone pages. (Mar. 3, 1901, c. 830, § 1, 31 Stat. 968.)

89. Certificates to pay rolls of employees in House of Representatives.—The Clerk, Sergeant at Arms, Doorkeeper, and Postmaster of the House of Representatives shall make certificate each month to their respective pay rolls, stating whether the persons named in such pay rolls and employed in their respective departments have been actually present at their respective places of duty and have actually performed the services for which compensation is provided in said pay rolls, and in each case where a person carried on such pay roll has been absent and has not performed the services in whole or in part for which payment is proposed, the reason for such absence and for such nonperformance of services shall be stated. (Mar. 3, 1901, c. 830, § 1, 31 Stat. 968.)

90. Removal from office of employees of House of Representatives.—The violation of any of the provisions of sections 85 to 89 of this title shall, upon ascertainment thereof, be deemed to be cause for removal from office. (Mar. 3, 1901, c. 830, § 1, 31 Stat. 968.)

91. Inquiry by Committee on Accounts of House of Representatives.—It shall be the duty of the Committee on Accounts of the House of Representatives from time to time to inquire into the enforcement or violation of any of the provisions of sections 85 to 90 of this title; and for this purpose they are authorized to send for persons and papers, and to administer oaths; and they shall report to the House at least once every session their compliance with the duty herein imposed. (Mar. 3, 1901, c. 830, § 1, 31 Stat. 968.)

92. Payment of appropriations for clerk hire for Members, Delegates, and Resident Commissioners.—Appropriations made by Congress for clerk hire for Members, Delegates, and Resident Commissioners shall be paid by the Clerk of the House of Representatives to one or two persons to be designated by each Member, Delegate, or Resident Commissioner, the names of such persons to be placed upon the roll of employees of the House of Representatives, together with the amount to be paid each; and Representatives, Delegates, and Resident Commissioners elect to Congress shall likewise be entitled to make such designations: Provided, That such persons shall be subject to removal at any time by such Member, Delegate, or Resident Commissioner with or without cause. (Jan. 25, 1923, c. 43, 42 Stat. 1217.)

93. Time of beginning of compensation of clerks to committees of House of Representatives paid during session only.—The pay of the clerks to committees of the House of Representatives which have been or may be authorized by the House, who are paid during the session only shall begin from the time such clerks entered upon the discharge of their duties, which shall be ascertained and evidenced by the certificate of the chairman of the several committees employing clerks for the session only. (June 28, 1886, No. 15, 24 Stat. 342.)

94. Appointment, duties, and removal of janitors to committees of House of Representatives.—Janitors to committees of the House of Representatives shall be appointed by the chairmen, respectively, of said committees, and shall perform under the direction of the Doorkeeper all of the duties required of messengers detailed to said committees by the Doorkeeper, and shall be subject to removal by the Doorkeeper at any time after the termination of the Congress during which they were appointed. (Mar. 4, 1925, c. 549, § 1, 43 Stat. 1291.)

95. Payments from contingent fund of House of Representatives.—No payment shall be made from the contingent fund of the House of Representatives unless sanctioned by the Committee on Accounts of the House of Representatives. Payments from the contingent fund made upon vouchers approved by said committee shall be deemed, held, and taken, and are hereby declared to be conclusive upon all the departments and officers of the Government. No payment shall be made from said contingent fund as additional salary or compensation to any officer or employee of the House of Representatives. (Oct. 2, 1888, c. 1069, § 1, 25 Stat. 546; Mar. 4, 1911, c. 240, 36 Stat. 1318.)

96. Payment from moneys of House of Representatives of certain bills.—It shall be unlawful for the Clerk of the House to pay out of any moneys of the House of Representatives any bills for laundry, furniture, supplies, or utensils used in the barber shops of the House Office Building or the House side of the Capitol. (July 16, 1914, c. 141, § 1, 38 Stat. 462.)

97. Temporary committee on accounts of House of Representatives.—The Speaker of the House of Representatives of each Congress shall, before the termination of the last session of each Congress, appoint, from the Representatives-elect, a temporary committee on accounts, of three members, which said committee on accounts shall have the same powers and perform the same duties in reference to payments made from the contingent fund of the House of Representatives of the next Congress as are authorized by law and the rules of the preceding House of Representatives. Said temporary committee on accounts shall begin to exercise its powers immediately upon the termination of the previous Congress, and shall continue to exercise and discharge said duties until after the meeting and organization of the House of Representatives of the succeeding Congress, and until the appointment of the regular committee on accounts.

All payments made out of the contingent fund of the House of Representatives upon vouchers approved by said temporary committee on accounts shall be deemed, held, and taken, and are hereby declared to be conclusive upon all the departments and auditing officers of the Government. (Mar. 2, 1895, c. 177, § 1, 28 Stat. 768.)

98. Contracts for horses for service of House of Representatives.—In all contracts made for service for the House of Representatives involving the employment of horses, the expense of keeping such horses shall be covered by the contract; and no money appropriated for contingent or other expenses of the House of Representatives shall be expended for stables or forage. (Mar. 3, 1885, c. 360, 23 Stat. 512.)

99. Contracts for horses and mail wagons for House of Representatives.—The appropriations for hire of horses and mail wagons for carrying the mails for the House of Representatives shall be expended under the direction of the Postmaster of the House, under contracts to be let annually to the lowest responsible bidder therefor after due advertisement. (Mar. 3, 1891, c. 541, § 1, 26 Stat. 914.)

100. Contracts for packing boxes for House of Representatives.—Packing boxes for the use of the House of Representatives shall be procured after advertisement for proposals therefor, under specifications to be prepared by the Clerk of the House, and from the lowest and best bidder to furnish the same. (Mar. 3, 1901, c. 830, § 1, 31 Stat. 967.)

101. Subletting duties of employees of Senate or House of Representatives.—No employee of Congress, either in the Senate or House, shall sublet to, or hire, another to do or perform any part of the duties or work attached to the position to which he was appointed. (Mar. 2, 1895, c. 177, § 1, 28 Stat. 771.)

102. Statements of Secretary of Senate and Clerk of House of Representatives.—The Secretary of the Senate and the Clerk of the House of Representatives shall prepare and submit to the two Houses, respectively, at the commencement of each session of Congress, the following statements in writing:

First. A statement showing the names of all the clerks and other persons who have been, during the preceding year or any part thereof, employed in their respective offices, and those of the messengers of the respective Houses; together with the time that each clerk or other person and each messenger was actually employed, and the sums paid to each. This statement must also show whether such clerks or other persons, or such messengers, have been usefully employed; whether the services of any of them can be dispensed with without detriment to the public service, and whether the removal of any particular persons, and the appointment of others in their stead, is required for the better dispatch of business.

Second. A detailed statement, by items, of the manner in which the contingent fund for each House has been expended during the preceding year. This statement must give the names of every person to whom any portion of the fund has been paid; and if for anything furnished, the quantity and price; and if for any services rendered, the nature of such service, and the time employed, and the particular occasion or cause, in brief, that rendered such service necessary, and the amount of all former appropriations in each case on hand, either in the Treasury or in the hands of any disbursing officer or agent.

Such statements shall exhibit, also, the several sums drawn by the Secretary and Clerk, respectively, from the Treasury, and the balances, if any, remaining in their hands. (R. S. §§ 60, 61.)

103. Reports of subordinate disbursing officers of Senate and House of Representatives.—The Secretary of the Senate and the Clerk of the House of Representatives shall each require of the disbursing officers acting under their direction or authority, the return of precise and analytical statements and receipts for all the moneys which may have been from time to time, during the next preceding year, expended by them; and the results of such returns and the sums total shall be communicated annually to Congress, by the Secretary and Clerk, respectively. (R. S. § 62.)

104. Reports of all expenditures of Senate and House of Representatives.—All expenditures of the Senate and House of Representatives shall be made up to the end of each fiscal year, and shall be reported to Congress at the commencement of each regular session. (R. S. § 63.)

105. Preparation and contents of statement of appropriations.—The statement of all appropriations made during each session of Congress shall be prepared under the direction of the Committees on Appropriations of the Senate and House of Representatives, and said statement shall contain a chronological history of the regular appropriation bills passed during the session for which it is prepared. The statement shall indicate the amount of contracts authorized by appropriation Acts in addition to appropriations made therein, and shall also contain specific reference to all indefinite appropriations made each session and shall contain such additional information concerning estimates and appropriations as the committees may deem necessary. (R. S. § 64; Oct. 19, 1888, c. 1210, § 1, 25 Stat. 587; July 19, 1897, c. 9, § 1, 30 Stat. 136; June 7, 1924, c. 303, § 1, 43 Stat. 586.)

106. Stationery for Senate and House of Representatives; advertisements for.—The Secretary of the Senate and Clerk of the House of Representatives shall annually advertise, once a week for at least four weeks, in one or more of the principal papers published in the District of Columbia, for sealed proposals for supplying the Senate and House of Representatives, respectively, during the next session of Congress with the necessary stationery. The advertisement must describe the kind of stationery required, and must require the proposals to be accompanied with sufficient security for their performance. (R. S. §§ 65, 66; Feb. 18, 1875, c. 80, § 1, 18 Stat. 316.)

107. Same; notice of acceptance of proposals for.—All such proposals shall be kept sealed until the day specified in such advertisement for opening the same, when the same shall be opened in the presence of at least two persons, and the contract shall be given to the lowest bidder, provided he shall give satisfactory security to perform the same, under a forfeiture not exceeding double the contract price in case of failure; and in case the lowest bidder shall fail to enter into such contract and give such security, within a time to be fixed in such advertisement, then the contract shall be given to the next lowest bidder, who shall enter into such contract, and give such security. And in case of failure by the person entering into such contract to perform the same, he and his sureties shall be liable for the forfeiture specified in such contract, as liquidated damages, to be sued for in the name of the United States. (R. S. § 67; Feb. 18, 1875, c. 80, § 1, 18 Stat. 316.)

108. Same; contracts for separate parts of stationery.—Sections 106 and 107 of this title shall not prevent either the Secretary or the Clerk from contracting for separate parts of the supplies of stationery required to be furnished. (R. S. § 68.)

109. American goods to be preferred in purchases for Senate and House of Representatives.—The Secretary of the Senate and the Clerk of the House of Representatives shall, in disbursing the public moneys for the use of the two Houses, respectively, purchase only articles the growth and manufacture of the United States, provided the articles required can be procured of such growth and manufacture upon as good terms as to quality and price as are demanded for like articles of foreign growth and manufacture. (R. S. § 69.)

110. Purchase of paper, envelopes, etc., for stationery rooms of Senate and House of Representatives.—Paper, envelopes, and blank books required by the stationery rooms of the Senate and House of Representatives for sale to Senators and Members for official use may be purchased from the Public Printer at actual cost thereof and payment therefor shall be made before delivery. (June 5, 1920, c. 253, § 1, 41 Stat. 1036.)

111. Purchase of supplies for Senate and House of Representatives.—Supplies for use of the Senate and the House of Representatives may be purchased in accordance with the schedule of contract articles and prices of the General Supply Committee authorized by section 7 of Title 41. (June 5, 1920, c. 253, § 1, 41 Stat. 1036.)

112. Purchases of stationery and materials for folding.—Purchases of stationery and materials for folding shall be made in accordance with sections 106 to 109 of this title.

All contracts and bonds for purchases made under the authority of this section shall be filed with the Committee to Audit and Control the Contingent Expenses of the Senate or the Committee on Accounts of the House of Representatives respectively. (Mar. 3, 1887, c. 392, § 1, 24 Stat. 596.)

113. Detailed reports of receipts and expenditures by Secretary of Senate and Clerk of House of Representatives.—The Secretary of the Senate and the Clerk of the House of Representatives, respectively, shall report to Congress on the first day of each regular session, and at the expiration of their terms of service, a full and complete statement of all their receipts and expenditures as such officers, showing in detail the items of expense, classifying them under the proper appropriations, and also showing the aggregate thereof, and exhibiting in a clear and concise manner the exact condition of all public moneys by them received, paid out, and remaining in their possession as such officers. (R. S. § 70.)

114. Fees for copies from Senate and House Journals.—The Secretary of the Senate and the Clerk of the House of Representatives, respectively, are entitled, for transcribing and certifying extracts from the Journal of the Senate or the executive Journal of the Senate when the injunction of secrecy has been removed, or from the Journal of the House of Representatives, except when such transcripts are required by an officer of the United States in a matter relating to the duties of his office, to receive from the persons for whom such transcripts are prepared the sum of 10 cents for each sheet containing one hundred words. (R. S. § 71.)

115. Index to House daily calendar.—The index to the daily calendar of business shall be printed only on Monday of each week. (Mar. 1, 1921, c. 89, § 1, 41 Stat. 1181.)

116. Accounts of property.—The Secretary of the Senate, the Clerk of the House of Representatives, the Sergeant at Arms, the Postmasters of the Senate and House of Representatives, and the Doorkeeper of the House of Representatives, shall, severally, make out and return to Congress, on the first day of each regular session, and at the expiration of their respective terms of service, a full and complete account of all property belonging to the United States in their possession, respectively, at the time of returning such account. (R. S. § 72.)

117. Sale of waste paper.—It shall be the duty of the Clerk and Doorkeeper of the House of Representatives and the Secretary and Sergeant at Arms of the Senate to cause to be sold all waste paper and useless documents and condemned furniture that may accumulate, in their respective departments or offices, under the direction of the Committee on Accounts of their respective houses and cover the proceeds thereof into the Treasury; and they shall, at the beginning of each regular session of Congress, report to their respective houses the amount of said sales. (Aug. 7, 1882, c. 433, § 1, 22 Stat. 337.)

118. Actions against officers for official acts.—In any action brought against any person for or on account of anything done by him while an officer of either House of Congress in the discharge of his official duty, in executing any order of such House, the district attorney for the district within which the action is brought, on being thereto requested by the officer sued, shall enter an appearance in behalf of such officer; and all provisions of the eighth section of the Act of July 28, 1866, entitled "An Act to protect the revenue, and for other purposes," and also all provisions of the sections of former Acts therein referred to, so far as the same relate to the removal of suits, the withholding of executions, and the paying of judgments against revenue or other officers of the United States, shall become applicable to such action and to all proceedings and matters whatsoever connected therewith, and the defense of such action shall thenceforth be conducted under the supervision and direction of the Attorney General. (Mar. 3, 1875, c. 130, § 8, 18 Stat. 401.)

Section 131. Collections composing Library.—The Library of Congress, composed of the books, maps, and other publications which on December 1, 1873 remained in existence, from the collections theretofore united under authority of law and those added from time to time by purchase, exchange, donation, reservation from publications ordered by Congress, deposit to secure copyright, and otherwise, shall be preserved in the Library Building. The law library shall be preserved in the Capitol in the rooms which were on July 4, 1872 appropriated to its use, and in such others as may hereafter be assigned thereto. (R. S. § 80; Feb. 19, 1897, c. 265, § 1, 29 Stat. 545, 546.)

132. Departments of Library.—The Library of Congress shall be arranged in two departments, a general library and a law library. (R. S. § 81.)

133. Joint Committee during recess of Congress.—The portion of the Joint Committee of Congress upon the Library on the part of the Senate remaining in office as Senators shall during the recess of Congress exercise the powers and discharge the duties conferred by law upon the Joint Committee of Congress upon the Library. (Mar. 3, 1883, c. 141, § 2, 22 Stat. 592.)

134. Incidental expenses of law library.—The incidental expenses of the law library shall be paid out of the appropriations for the Library of Congress. (R. S. § 83.)

135. Purchase of books for law library.—The Librarian shall make the purchases of books for the law library, under the direction of and pursuant to the catalogue furnished him by the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court. (R. S. § 84.)

136. Librarian of Congress; appointment; bond; rules and regulations.—The Librarian of Congress shall be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate. He shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, give a bond payable to the United States, in the sum of $20,000, with sureties approved by the Secretary of the Treasury, for the faithful discharge of his duties according to law, which bond shall be deposited in the office of the Secretary of the Senate. He shall make rules and regulations for the government of the Library. (R. S. § 89; Feb. 19, 1897, c. 265, § 1, 29 Stat. 544, 546.)

137. Use and regulation of law library.—The justices of the Supreme Court shall have free access to the law library; and they are authorized to make regulations, not inconsistent with law, for the use of the same during the sittings of the court. But such regulations shall not restrict any person authorized to take books from the Library from having access to the law library, or using the books therein in the same manner as he may be entitled to use the books of the general Library. (R. S. § 95.)

138. Law library open, when.—The law library shall be kept open every day so long as either House of Congress is in session. (July 11, 1888, c. 615, § 1, 25 Stat. 262.)

139. Report of Librarian of Congress.—The Librarian of Congress shall make to Congress at the beginning of each regular session, a report for the preceding fiscal year, as to the affairs of the Library of Congress, including the copyright business, and said report shall also include a detailed statement of all receipts and expenditures on account of the Library and said copyright business. (Feb. 19, 1897, c. 265, § 1, 29 Stat. 546.)

140. Employees; fitness.—All persons employed in and about said Library of Congress under the Librarian shall be appointed solely with reference to their fitness for their particular duties. (Feb. 19, 1897, c. 265, § 1, 29 Stat. 545; June 29, 1922, c. 251, § 1, 42 Stat. 715.)

141. Duties of Architect of the Capitol and Librarian of Congress.—The Architect of the Capitol shall have charge of all structural work at the Library Building and on the grounds, including all necessary repairs, the operation, maintenance, and repair of the mechanical plant and elevators, the care and maintenance of the grounds, and the purchasing and supplying of all furniture and equipment for the building. The employees required for the performance of the foregoing duties shall be appointed by the Architect of the Capitol. All other duties required to be performed on June 29, 1922 by the Superintendent of the Library Building and Grounds shall be performed under the direction of the Librarian of Congress, who shall appoint the employees necessary therefor. (June 29, 1922, c. 251, § 1, 42 Stat. 715.)

142. Office of administrative assistant and disbursing officer in Library of Congress created; appointment; duties; bond.—The position of administrative assistant and disbursing officer is created in the Library of Congress. Appointments thereto shall be made by the librarian. The administrative assistant and disbursing officer shall disburse the appropriations for the Library of Congress and the Botanic Garden and shall perform such services in connection with the duties imposed by sections 141 to 143 of this title upon the librarian as he may direct, and shall give bond payable to the United States in the sum of $30,000, with sureties approved by the Secretary of the Treasury for the faithful discharge of his duties. (June 29, 1922, c. 251, § 1, 42 Stat. 715.)

143. Appropriations for Library Building and Grounds.—All appropriations made to the Architect of the Capitol on account of the Library Building and Grounds shall be disbursed for that purpose in the same manner as other appropriations under his control. (June 29, 1922, c. 251, § 3, 42 Stat. 715.)

144. Copies of Statutes at Large.—Ten of the copies of the Statutes at Large, published by Little, Brown & Co., which were deposited in the Library prior to February 5, 1850, shall be retained by the librarian for the use of the justices of the Supreme Court, during the terms of court. (R. S. § 96.)

145. Copies of Journals and documents.—Two copies of the Journals and Documents, and of each book printed by either House of Congress, bound as provided in section 116 of Title 44, PUBLIC PRINTING AND DOCUMENTS, shall be deposited in the Library, and must not be taken therefrom. (R. S. § 97.)

146. Deposit of Journals of Senate and House.—Twenty-five copies of the public Journals of the Senate, and of the House of Representatives, shall be deposited in the Library of the United States, at the seat of government, to be delivered to Members of Congress during any session, and to all other persons authorized by law to use the books in the Library, upon their application to the librarian, and giving their responsible receipts for the same, in like manner as for other books. (R. S. § 98.)

147. Bound volumes from files of House of Representatives.—The Clerk of the House of Representatives is authorized and directed to deliver to the Librarian of Congress all bound volumes of original papers, general petitions, printed matter, books, and manuscripts on June 6, 1900, in, or that may thereafter have come into or may come into, the files of the House, which in his judgment are not required to be retained in the immediate custody of the file clerk; and it shall be the duty of the Librarian of Congress to cause all such matter so delivered to him to be properly classified by Congress and arranged for preservation and ready reference. All of such matter to be held as a part of the files of the House of Representatives, subject to its orders and rules. (June 6, 1900, c. 791, § 1, 31 Stat. 642.)

148. Transfer to Library of books from executive departments.—The head of any executive department or bureau or any commission of the Government is authorized from time to time to turn over to the Librarian of Congress, for the use of the Library of Congress, any books, maps, or other material in the library of the department, bureau, or commission no longer needed for its use, and in the judgment of the Librarian of Congress appropriate to the uses of the Library of Congress. (Feb. 25, 1903, c. 755, § 1, 32 Stat. 865.)

149. Transfer of books to other libraries.—The Librarian of Congress may from time to time transfer to other governmental libraries within the District of Columbia, including the Public Library, books and material in the possession of the Library of Congress in his judgment no longer necessary to its uses, but in the judgment of the custodians of such other collections likely to be useful to them, and may dispose of or destroy such material as has become useless. (Mar. 4, 1909, c. 297, § 1, 35 Stat. 858.)

150. Sale of copies of card indexes and other publications.—The Librarian of Congress is hereby authorized to furnish to such institutions or individuals as may desire to buy them, such copies of the card indexes and other publications of the Library as may not be required for its ordinary transactions, and charge for the same a price which will cover their cost and ten per centum added, and all moneys received by him shall be deposited in the Treasury. (June 28, 1902, c. 1301, § 1, 32 Stat. 480.)

151. Smithsonian Library.—The library collected by the Smithsonian Institution under the provisions of the Act of August 10, 1846, chapter 25, and removed from the building of that institution, with the consent of the Regents thereof, to the Library of Congress, shall, while there deposited, be subject to the same regulations as the Library of Congress, except as hereinafter provided. (R. S. § 99.)

152. Same; how kept and used.—The Smithsonian Institution shall have the use thereof in like manner as before its removal. All the books, maps, and charts of the Smithsonian Library shall be properly cared for and preserved in like manner as are those of the Congressional Library; from which the Smithsonian Library shall not be removed except on reimbursement by the Smithsonian Institution to the Treasury of the United States of expenses incurred in binding and in taking care of the same, or upon such terms and conditions as shall be mutually agreed upon by Congress and the Regents of the Institution. (R. S. § 100.)

153. Control of library of House of Representatives.—The library of the House of Representatives shall be under the control and direction of the Librarian of Congress, who shall provide all needful books of reference therefor. The librarian, two assistant librarians, and assistant in the library, shall be appointed by the Clerk of the House, with the approval of the Speaker of the House of Representatives. No removals shall be made from the said positions except for cause reported to and approved by the Committee on Rules. (Mar. 3, 1901, c. 830, § 1, 31 Stat. 964.)

154. Library of Congress Trust Fund Board; members; quorum; seal; rules and regulations.—A board is hereby created and established, to be known as the Library of Congress Trust Fund Board (hereinafter referred to as the board), which shall consist of the Secretary of the Treasury, the chairman of the Joint Committee on the Library, the Librarian of Congress, and two persons appointed by the President for a term of five years each (the first appointments being for three and five years, respectively). Three members of the board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and the board shall have an official seal, which shall be judicially noticed. The board may adopt rules and regulations in regard to its procedure and the conduct of its business. (Mar. 3, 1925, c. 423, § 1, 43 Stat. 1107.)

155. Same; expenses.—No compensation shall be paid to the members of the board for their services as such members, but they shall be reimbursed for the expenses necessarily incurred by them, out of the income from the fund or funds in connection with which such expenses are incurred. The voucher of the chairman of the board shall be sufficient evidence that the expenses are properly allowable. Any expenses of the board, including the cost of its seal, not properly chargeable to the income of any trust fund held by it, shall be estimated for in the annual estimates of the librarian for the maintenance of the Library of Congress. (Mar. 3, 1925, c. 423, § 1, 43 Stat. 1107.)

156. Same; gifts, etc., to.—The board is hereby authorized to accept, receive, hold, and administer such gifts or bequests of personal property for the benefit of, or in connection with, the Library, its collections, or its service, as may be approved by the board and by the Joint Committee on the Library. (Mar. 3, 1925, c. 423, § 1, 43 Stat. 1107.)

157. Same; trust funds; management of.—The moneys or securities composing the trust funds given or bequeathed to the board shall be receipted for by the Secretary of the Treasury, who shall invest, reinvest, or retain investments as the board may from time to time determine. The income as and when collected shall be deposited with the Treasurer of the United States, who shall enter it in a special account to the credit of the Library of Congress and subject to disbursement by the librarian for the purposes in each case specified; and the Treasurer of the United States is hereby authorized to honor the requisitions of the librarian made in such manner and in accordance with such regulations as the Treasurer may from time to time prescribe: Provided, however, That the board is not authorized to engage in any business nor to exercise any voting privilege which may be incidental to securities in its hands, nor shall the board make any investments that could not lawfully be made by a trust company in the District of Columbia, except that it may make any investments directly authorized by the instrument of gift, and may retain any investments accepted by it. (Mar. 3, 1925, c. 423, § 1, 43 Stat. 1107.)

158. Same; deposits with Treasurer of United States.—Should any gift or bequest so provide, the board may deposit the principal sum, in cash, with the Treasurer of the United States as a permanent loan to the United States Treasury, and the Treasurer shall thereafter credit such deposit with interest at the rate of 4 per centum per annum, payable semiannually, such interest, as income, being subject to disbursement by the Librarian of Congress for the purposes specified: Provided, however, That the total of such principal sums at any time so held by the Treasurer under this authorization shall not exceed the sum of $5,000,000. (Mar. 3, 1925, c. 423, § 1, 43 Stat. 1107.)

159. Same; perpetual succession; suits by or against.—The board shall have perpetual succession, with all the usual powers and obligations of a trustee, except as herein limited, in respect of all property, moneys, or securities which shall be conveyed, transferred, assigned, bequeathed, delivered, or paid over to it for the purposes above specified. The board may be sued in the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, which is hereby given jurisdiction of such suits, for the purpose of enforcing the provisions of any trust accepted by it. (Mar. 3, 1925, c. 423, § 3, 43 Stat. 1108.)

160. Same; gifts, etc., to Library not affected.—Nothing in sections 154 to 163 of this title shall be construed as prohibiting or restricting the Librarian of Congress from accepting in the name of the United States gifts or bequests of money for immediate disbursement in the interest of the Library, its collections, or its service. Such gifts or bequests, after acceptance by the librarian, shall be paid by the donor or his representative to the Treasurer of the United States, whose receipts shall be their acquittance. The Treasurer of the United States shall enter them in a special account to the credit of the Library of Congress and subject to disbursement by the librarian for the purposes in each case specified. (Mar. 3, 1925, c. 423, § 4, 43 Stat. 1108.)

161. Same; gifts, etc., exempt from Federal taxes.—Gifts or bequests to or for the benefit of the Library of Congress, including those to the board, and the income therefrom, shall be exempt from all Federal taxes. (Mar. 3, 1925, c. 423, § 5, 43 Stat. 1108.)

162. Same; employees; compensation.—Employees of the Library of Congress who perform special functions for the performance of which funds have been entrusted to the board or the librarian, or in connection with cooperative undertakings, in which the Library of Congress is engaged, shall not be subject to section 70 of Title 5; nor shall any additional compensation so paid to such employees be construed as a double salary under the provisions of section 63 of Title 5. (Mar. 3, 1925, c. 423, § 6, 43 Stat. 1108.)

163. Same; report to Congress.—The board shall submit to the Congress an annual report of the moneys or securities received and held by it and of its operations. (Mar. 3, 1925, c. 423, § 7, 43 Stat. 1108.)

Chapter 6.—CONGRESSIONAL INVESTIGATIONS.

Sec.
191. Oaths to witnesses.
192. Refusal of witness to testify.
193. Privilege of witnesses.
194. Witnesses failing to testify.
195. Fees of witnesses in District of Columbia.

Section 191. Oaths to witnesses.—The President of the Senate, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, or a chairman of a Committee of the Whole, or of any committee of either House of Congress, is empowered to administer oaths to witnesses in any case under their examination. Any Member of either House of Congress may administer oaths to witnesses in any matter depending in either House of Congress of which he is a Member, or any committee thereof. (R. S. § 101; June 26, 1884, c. 123, 23 Stat. 60.)

192. Refusal of witness to testify.—Every person who having been summoned as a witness by the authority of either House of Congress, to give testimony or to produce papers upon any matter under inquiry before either House, or any committee of either House of Congress, willfully makes default, or who, having appeared, refuses to answer any question pertinent to the question under inquiry, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine of not more than $1,000 nor less than $100, and imprisonment in a common jail for not less than one month nor more than twelve months. (R. S. § 102.)

193. Privilege of witnesses.—No witness is privileged to refuse to testify to any fact, or to produce any paper, respecting which he shall be examined by either House of Congress, or by any committee of either House, upon the ground that his testimony to such fact or his production of such paper may tend to disgrace him or otherwise render him infamous. (R. S. § 103.)

194. Witnesses failing to testify.—Whenever a witness summoned as mentioned in section 192 of this title fails to testify, and the facts are reported to either House, the President of the Senate or the Speaker of the House, as the case may be, shall certify the fact under the seal of the Senate or House to the district attorney for the District of Columbia, whose duty it shall be to bring the matter before the grand jury for their action. (R. S. § 104.)

195. Fees of witnesses in District of Columbia.—Witnesses residing in the District of Columbia and not in the service of the government of said District or of the United States, who shall be summoned to give testimony before any committee of the House of Representatives, shall not be allowed exceeding $2 for each day's attendance before said committee. (May 1, 1876, c. 88, 19 Stat. 41.)

223. Testimony sent to Clerk of House of Representatives; printing testimony; briefs.
224. Fees of witnesses.
225. Fees of officers.
226. Limitation of expenses of contest for seat in House.

Section 201. Notice of intention to contest.—Whenever any person intends to contest an election of any Member of the House of Representatives of the United States, he shall, within thirty days after the result of such election shall have been determined by the officer or board of canvassers authorized by law to determine the same, give notice, in writing, to the Member whose seat he designs to contest, of his intention to contest the same, and, in such notice, shall specify particularly the grounds upon which he relies in the contest. (R. S. § 105.)

202. Time for answer.—Any Member upon whom the notice mentioned in the preceding section may be served shall, within thirty days after the service thereof, answer such notice, admitting or denying the facts alleged therein, and stating specifically any other grounds upon which he rests the validity of his election; and shall serve a copy of his answer upon the contestant. (R. S. § 106.)

203. Time for taking testimony.—In all contested-election cases the time allowed for taking testimony shall be ninety days, and the testimony shall be taken in the following order: The contestant shall take testimony during the first forty days, the returned Member during the succeeding forty days, and the contestant may take testimony in rebuttal only during the remaining ten days of said period. This section shall be construed as requiring all testimony in cases of contested election to be taken within ninety days from the day on which the answer of the returned Member is served upon the contestant. (R. S. § 107; Mar. 2, 1875, c. 119, § 2, 18 Stat. 338.)

204. Notice of depositions; service.—The party desiring to take a deposition under the provisions of this chapter shall give the opposite party notice, in writing, of the time and place, when and where the same will be taken, of the name of the witnesses to be examined and their places of residence, and of the name of an officer before whom the same will be taken. The notice shall be personally served upon the opposite party, or upon any agent or attorney authorized by him to take testimony or cross-examine witnesses in the matter of such contest, if, by the use of reasonable diligence, such personal service can be made; but if, by the use of such diligence, personal service can not be made, the service may be made by leaving a duplicate of the notice at the usual place of abode of the opposite party. The notice shall be served so as to allow the opposite party sufficient time by the usual route of travel to attend, and one day for preparation, exclusive of Sundays and the day of service. Testimony in rebuttal may be taken on five days' notice. (R. S. § 108.)

205. Testimony taken at several places at same time.—Testimony in contested-election cases may be taken at two or more places at the same time. (R. S. § 109.)

206. Who may issue subpœnas.—When any contestant or returned Member is desirous of obtaining testimony respecting a contested election, he may apply for a subpœna to either of the following officers who may reside within the congressional district in which the election to be contested was held:

First. Any judge of any court of the United States.

Second. Any chancellor, judge, or justice of a court of record of any State.

Third. Any mayor, recorder, or intendent of any town or city.

Fourth. Any referee in bankruptcy or notary public. (R. S. § 110; June 7, 1878, c. 160, 20 Stat. 99; July 1, 1898, c. 541, § 38, 30 Stat. 555.)

207. Contents of subpœna.—The officer to whom the application authorized by the preceding section is made shall thereupon issue his writ of subpœna, directed to all such witnesses as shall be named to him, requiring their attendance before him, at some time and place named in the subpœna, in order to be examined respecting the contested election. (R. S. § 111.)

208. When justices of the peace may act.—In case none of the officers mentioned in section 206 of this title are residing in the congressional district from which the election is proposed to be contested, the application thereby authorized may be made to any two justices of the peace residing within the district; and they may receive such application, and jointly proceed upon it. (R. S. § 112.)

209. Depositions by consent.—It shall be competent for the parties, their agents or attorneys authorized to act in the premises, by consent in writing, to take depositions without notice; also, by such written consent, to take depositions (whether upon or without notice) before any officer or officers authorized to take depositions in common law, or civil actions, or in chancery, by either the laws of the United States or of the State in which the same may be taken, and to waive proof of the official character of such officer or officers. Any written consent given as aforesaid shall be returned with the depositions. (R. S. § 113.)

210. Service of subpœna.—Each witness shall be duly served with a subpœna, by a copy thereof delivered to him or left at his usual place of abode, at least five days before the day on which the attendance of the witness is required. (R. S. § 114.)

211. Witnesses need not attend out of county.—No witness shall be required to attend an examination out of the county in which he may reside or be served with a subpœna. (R. S. § 115.)

212. Penalty for failure to attend or testify.—Any person who, having been summoned in the manner above directed, refuses or neglects to attend and testify, unless prevented by sickness or unavoidable necessity, shall forfeit the sum of $20, to be recovered, with costs of suit, by the party at whose instance the subpœna was issued, and for his use, by an action of debt, to any court of the United States, and shall also be liable to an indictment for a misdemeanor, and punishment by fine and imprisonment. (R. S. § 116.)

213. Witnesses outside of district.—Depositions of witnesses residing outside of the district and beyond the reach of a subpœna may be taken before any officer authorized by law to take testimony in contested-election cases in the district in which the witness to be examined may reside. (R. S. § 117.)

214. Party notified may select officer.—The party notified as aforesaid, his agent or attorney, may, if he see fit, select an officer (having authority to take depositions in such cases) to officiate, with the officer named in the notice, in the taking of the depositions; and if both such officers attend, the depositions shall be taken before them both, sitting together, and be certified by them both. But if only one of such officers attend, the depositions may be taken before and certified by him alone. (R. S. § 118.)

215. Depositions taken by party or agent.—At the taking of any desposition under this chapter, either party may appear and act in person, or by agent or attorney. (R. S. § 119.)

216. Examination of witnesses.—All witnesses who attend in obedience to a subpœna, or who attend voluntarily at the time and place appointed, of whose examination notice has been given, as provided by this chapter, shall then and there be examined on oath by the officer who issued the subpœna, or, in case of his absence, by any other officer who is authorized to issue such subpœna, or by the officer before whom the depositions are to be taken by written consent, or before whom the depositions of witnesses residing outside of the district are to be taken as the case may be, touching all such matters respecting the election about to be contested as shall be proposed by either of the parties or their agents. (R. S. § 120.)

217. Testimony, to what confined.—The testimony to be taken by either party to the contest shall be confined to the proof or disproof of the facts alleged or denied in the notice and answer mentioned in sections 201 and 202 of this title. (R. S. § 121.)

218. Testimony, written out and attested.—The officer shall cause the testimony of the witnesses, together with the questions proposed by the parties or their agents, to be reduced to writing in his presence, and in the presence of the parties or their agents, if attending, and to be duly attested by the witnesses respectively. (R. S. § 122.)

219. Production of papers.—The officer shall have power to require the production of papers; and on the refusal or neglect of any person to produce and deliver up any paper or papers in his possession pertaining to the election, or to produce and deliver up certified or sworn copies of the same in case they may be official papers, such person shall be liable to all the penalties prescribed in section 212 of this title. All papers thus produced, and all certified or sworn copies of official papers, shall be transmitted by the officer, with the testimony of the witnesses, to the Clerk of the House of Representatives. (R. S. § 123.)

220. Adjournments.—The taking of the testimony may, if so stated in the notice, be adjourned from day to day. (R. S. § 124.)

221. Notice attached to depositions.—The notice to take depositions, with the proof or acknowledgment of the service thereof, and a copy of the subpœna, where any has been served, shall be attached to the depositions when completed. (R. S. § 125.)

222. Copy of notice and answer to accompany testimony.—A copy of the notice of contest, and of the answer of the returned Member, shall be prefixed to the depositions taken, and transmitted with them to the Clerk of the House of Representatives. (R. S. § 126.)

223. Testimony sent to Clerk of House of Representatives; printing testimony; briefs.—All officers taking testimony to be used in a contested-election case, whether by deposition or otherwise, shall, when the taking of the same is completed, and without unnecessary delay, certify and carefully seal and immediately forward the same, by mail or by express, addressed to the Clerk of the House of Representatives of the United States, Washington, District of Columbia; and shall also indorse upon the envelope containing such deposition or testimony the name of the case in which it is taken, together with the name of the party in whose behalf it is taken, and shall subscribe such indorsement.

The Clerk of the House of Representatives, upon the receipt of such deposition or testimony, shall notify the contestant and the contestee, by registered letter through the mails, to appear before him at the Capitol, in person or by attorney, at a reasonable time to be named, not exceeding twenty days from the mailing of such letter, for the purpose of being present at the opening of the sealed packages of testimony and of agreeing upon the parts thereof to be printed. Upon the day appointed for such meeting the said Clerk shall proceed to open all the packages of testimony in the case, in the presence of the parties or their attorneys, and such portions of the testimony as the parties may agree to have printed shall be printed by the Public Printer, under the direction of the said Clerk; and in case of disagreement between the parties as to the printing of any portion of the testimony, the said Clerk shall determine whether such portion of the testimony shall be printed; and the said Clerk shall prepare a suitable index to be printed with the record. And the notice of contest and the answer of the sitting Member shall also be printed with the record.

If either party, after having been duly notified, should fail to attend, by himself or by an attorney, the Clerk shall proceed to open the packages, and shall cause such portions of the testimony to be printed, as he shall determine.

He shall carefully seal up and preserve the portions of the testimony not printed, as well as the other portions when returned from the Public Printer, and lay the same before the Committee on Elections at the earliest opportunity. As soon as the testimony in any case is printed the Clerk shall forward by mail, if desired, two copies thereof to the contestant and the same number to the contestee; and shall notify the contestant to file with the Clerk, within thirty days, a brief of the facts and the authorities relied on to establish his case. The Clerk shall forward by mail two copies of the contestant's brief to the contestee, with like notice.

Upon receipt of the contestee's brief the Clerk shall forward two copies thereof to the contestant, who may, if he desires, reply to new matter in the contestee's brief within like time. All briefs shall be printed at the expense of the parties respectively, and shall be of like folio as the printed record; and sixty copies thereof shall be filed with the Clerk for the use of the Committee on Elections. (R. S. § 127; Mar. 2, 1875, c. 119, § 1, 18 Stat. 338; Mar. 2, 1887, c. 318, 24 Stat. 445.)

224. Fees of witnesses.—Every witness attending by virtue of any subpœna herein directed to be issued shall be entitled to receive the sum of 75 cents for each day's attendance, and the further sum of 5 cents for every mile necessarily traveled in going and returning. Such allowance shall be ascertained and certified by the officer taking the examination, and shall be paid by the party at whose instance such witness was summoned. (R. S. § 128.)

225. Fees of officers.—Each judge, justice, chancellor, chief executive officer of a town or city, referee in bankruptcy, notary public, and justice of the peace, who shall be necessarily employed pursuant to the provisions of this chapter, and all sheriffs, constables, or other officers who may be employed to serve any subpœna or notice herein authorized, shall be entitled to receive from the party at whose instance the service shall have been performed such fees as are allowed for similar services in the State wherein such service may be rendered. (R. S. § 129.)

226. Limitation of expenses of contest for seat in House.—No contestee or contestant for a seat in the House of Representatives shall be paid exceeding $2,000 for expenses in election contests; and before any sum whatever shall be paid to a contestant or contestee for expenses of election contest, he shall file with the clerk of the Committee on Elections a full and detailed account of his expenses, accompanied by the vouchers and receipts for each item, which account and vouchers shall be sworn to by the party presenting the same, and no charges for witness fees shall be allowed in said accounts unless made in strict conformity to section 224 of this title. (R. S. § 130; Mar. 3, 1879, c. 182, § 1, 20 Stat. 400.)

Section 241. Definitions.—When used in this chapter—

(a) The term "election" includes a general or special election, and, in the case of a Resident Commissioner from the Philippine Islands, an election by the Philippine Legislature, but does not include a primary election or convention of a political party;

(b) The term "candidate" means an individual whose name is presented at an election for election as Senator or Representative in, or Delegate or Resident Commissioner to, the Congress of the United States, whether or not such individual is elected;

(c) The term "political committee" includes any committee, association, or organization which accepts contributions or makes expenditures for the purpose of influencing or attempting to influence the election of candidates or presidential and vice presidential electors (1) in two or more States, or (2) whether or not in more than one State if such committee, association, or organization (other than a duly organized State or local committee of a political party) is a branch or subsidiary of a national committee, association, or organization;

(d) The term "contribution" includes a gift, subscription, loan, advance, or deposit, of money, or anything of value, and includes a contract, promise, or agreement, whether or not legally enforceable to make a contribution;

(e) The term "expenditure" includes a payment, distribution, loan, advance, deposit, or gift, of money, or any thing of value, and includes a contract, promise, or agreement, whether or not legally enforceable, to make an expenditure;

(f) The term "person" includes an individual, partnership, committee, association, corporation, and any other organization or group of persons;

(g) The term "Clerk" means the Clerk of the House of Representatives of the United States;

(h) The term "Secretary" means the Secretary of the Senate of the United States;

(i) The term "State" includes Territory and possession of the United States. (June 25, 1910, c. 392, §§ 1, 8, 36 Stat. 822; Aug. 19, 1911, c. 33, § 2, 37 Stat. 26; Aug. 23, 1912, c. 349, 37 Stat. 360; Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, Title III, § 302, 43 Stat. 1070.)

242. Chairman and treasurer of political committee; duties as to contributions; accounts and receipts.—(a) Every political committee shall have a chairman and a treasurer. No contribution shall be accepted, and no expenditure made, by or on behalf of a political committee for the purpose of influencing an election until such chairman and treasurer have been chosen.

(b) It shall be the duty of the treasurer of a political committee to keep a detailed and exact account of—

(1) All contributions made to or for such committee;

(2) The name and address of every person making any such contribution, and the date thereof;

(3) All expenditures made by or on behalf of such committee; and

(4) The name and address of every person to whom any such expenditure is made, and the date thereof.

(c) It shall be the duty of the treasurer to obtain and keep a receipted bill, stating the particulars, for every expenditure by or on behalf of a political committee exceeding $10 in amount. The treasurer shall preserve all receipted bills and accounts required to be kept by this section for a period of at least two years from the date of the filing of the statement containing such items. (June 25, 1910, c. 392, §§ 2, 3, 36 Stat. 823; Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, Title III, § 303, 43 Stat. 1071.)

243. Accounts of contributions received.—Every person who receives a contribution for a political committee shall, on demand of the treasurer, and in any event within five days after the receipt of such contribution, render to the treasurer a detailed account thereof, including the name and address of the person making such contribution, and the date on which received. (June 25, 1910, c. 392, § 4, 36 Stat. 823; Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, Title III, § 304, 43 Stat. 1071.)

244. Statements by treasurer filed with Clerk of House of Representatives.—(a) The treasurer of a political committee shall file with the Clerk between the 1st and 10th days of March, June, and September, in each year, and also between the 10th and 15th days, and on the 5th day, next preceding the date on which a general election is to be held, at which candidates are to be elected in two or more States, and also on the 1st day of January, a statement containing, complete as of the day next preceding the date of filing—

(1) The name and address of each person who has made a contribution to or for such committee in one or more items of the aggregate amount or value, within the calendar year, of $100 or more, together with the amount and date of such contribution;

(2) The total sum of the contributions made to or for such committee during the calendar year and not stated under paragraph (1);

(3) The total sum of all contributions made to or for such committee during the calendar year;

(4) The name and address of each person to whom an expenditure in one or more items of the aggregate amount or value, within the calendar year, of $10 or more has been made by or on behalf of such committee, and the amount, date, and purpose of such expenditure;

(5) The total sum of all expenditures made by or on behalf of such committee during the calendar year and not stated under paragraph (4);

(6) The total sum of expenditures made by or on behalf of such committee during the calendar year.

(b) The statements required to be filed by subdivision (a) shall be cumulative during the calendar year to which they relate, but where there has been no change in an item reported in a previous statement only the amount need be carried forward.

(c) The statement filed on the 1st day of January shall cover the preceding calendar year. (June 25, 1910, c. 392, §§ 5, 6, 36 Stat. 823; Aug. 19, 1911, c. 33, § 1, 37 Stat. 25; Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, Title III, § 305, 43 Stat. 1071.)

245. Statements by others than political committee filed with Clerk of House of Representatives.—Every person (other than a political committee) who makes an expenditure in one or more items, other than by contribution to a political committee, aggregating $50 or more within a calendar year for the purpose of influencing in two or more States the election of candidates, shall file with the Clerk an itemized detailed statement of such expenditure in the same manner as required of the treasurer of a political committee by section 244 of this title. (June 25, 1910, c. 392, § 7, 36 Stat. 824; Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, Title III, § 306, 43 Stat. 1072.)

246. Statements by candidates for Senator, Representative, Delegate, or Resident Commissioner filed with Secretary of Senate and Clerk of House of Representatives.—(a) Every candidate for Senator shall file with the Secretary and every candidate for Representative, Delegate, or Resident Commissioner shall file with the Clerk not less than ten nor more than fifteen days before, and also within thirty days after, the date on which an election is to be held, a statement containing, complete as of the day next preceding the date of filing—

(1) A correct and itemized account of each contribution received by him or by any person for him with his knowledge or consent, from any source, in aid or support of his candidacy for election, or for the purpose of influencing the result of the election, together with the name of the person who has made such contribution;

(2) A correct and itemized account of each expenditure made by him or by any person for him with his knowledge or consent, in aid or support of his candidacy for election, or for the purpose of influencing the result of the election, together with the name of the person to whom such expenditure was made; except that only the total sum of expenditures for items specified in subdivision (c) of section 248 of this title need be stated;

(3) A statement of every promise or pledge made by him or by any person for him with his consent, prior to the closing of the polls on the day of the election, relative to the appointment or recommendation for appointment of any person to any public or private position or employment for the purpose of procuring support in his candidacy, and the name, address, and occupation of every person to whom any such promise or pledge has been made, together with the description of any such position. If no such promise or pledge has been made, that fact shall be specifically stated.

(b) The statements required to be filed by subdivision (a) shall be cumulative, but where there has been no change in an item reported in a previous statement only the amount need be carried forward.

(c) Every candidate shall inclose with his first statement a report, based upon the records of the proper State official, stating the total number of votes cast for all candidates for the office which the candidate seeks, at the general election next preceding the election at which he is a candidate. (June 25, 1910, c. 392, § 8, 36 Stat. 824; Aug. 19, 1911, c. 33, § 2, 37 Stat. 26; Aug. 23, 1912, c. 349, 37 Stat. 360; Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, Title III, § 307, 43 Stat. 1072.)

247. Statements; verification; filing; preservation; inspection.—A statement required by this chapter to be filed by a candidate or treasurer of a political committee or other person with the Clerk or Secretary, as the case may be—

(a) Shall be verified by the oath or affirmation of the person filing such statement, taken before any officer authorized to administer oaths;

(b) Shall be deemed properly filed when deposited in an established post office within the prescribed time, duly stamped, registered, and directed to the Clerk or Secretary at Washington, District of Columbia, but in the event it is not received, a duplicate of such statement shall be promptly filed upon notice by the Clerk or Secretary of its nonreceipt;

(c) Shall be preserved by the Clerk or Secretary for a period of two years from the date of filing, shall constitute a part of the public records of his office, and shall be open to public inspection. (June 25, 1910, c. 392, § 8, 36 Stat. 824; Aug. 19, 1911, c. 33, § 2, 37 Stat. 26; Aug. 23, 1912, c. 349, 37 Stat. 360; Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, Title III, § 308, 43 Stat. 1072.)

248. Limitation upon amount of expenditures by candidate.—(a) A candidate, in his campaign for election, shall not make expenditures in excess of the amount which he may lawfully make under the laws of the State in which he is a candidate, nor in excess of the amount which he may lawfully make under the provisions of this title.

(b) Unless the laws of his State prescribe a less amount as the maximum limit of campaign expenditures, a candidate may make expenditures up to—

(1) The sum of $10,000 if a candidate for Senator, or the sum of $2,500 if a candidate for Representative, Delegate, or Resident Commissioner; or

(2) An amount equal to the amount obtained by multiplying three cents by the total number of votes cast at the last general election for all candidates for the office which the candidate seeks, but in no event exceeding $25,000 if a candidate for Senator or $5,000 if a candidate for Representative, Delegate, or Resident Commissioner.

(c) Money expended by a candidate to meet and discharge any assessment, fee, or charge made or levied upon candidates by the laws of the State in which he resides, or expended for his necessary personal, traveling, or subsistence expenses, or for stationery, postage, writing, or printing (other than for use on billboards or in newspapers), for distributing letters, circulars, or posters, or for telegraph or telephone service, shall not be included in determining whether his expenditures have exceeded the sum fixed by paragraph (1) or (2) of subdivision (b) as the limit of campaign expenses of a candidate. (June 25, 1910, c. 392, §§ 8, 9, 36 Stat. 824; Aug. 19, 1911, c. 33, § 2, 37 Stat. 26; Aug. 23, 1912, c. 349, 37 Stat. 360; Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, Title III, § 309, 43 Stat. 1073.)

251. Contributions by national banks or other Federal corporations; penalty.—It is unlawful for any national bank, or any corporation organized by authority of any law of Congress, to make a contribution in connection with any election to any political office, or for any corporation whatever to make a contribution in connection with any election at which presidential and vice presidential electors or a Senator or Representative in, or a Delegate or Resident Commissioner to, Congress are to be voted for, or for any candidate, political committee, or other person to accept or receive any contribution prohibited by this section. Every corporation which makes any contribution in violation of this section shall be fined not more than $5,000; and every officer or director of any corporation who consents to any contribution by the corporation in violation of this section shall be fined not more than $1,000, or imprisoned not more than one year, or both. (Jan. 26, 1907, c. 420, 34 Stat. 864; Mar. 4, 1909, c. 321, § 83, 35 Stat. 1103; Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, Title III, § 313, 43 Stat. 1074.)

252. General penalties for violations.—(a) Any person who violates any of the foregoing provisions of this chapter, except those for which a specific penalty is imposed by section 208 of Title 18, and section 251 of this title, shall be fined not more than $1,000 or imprisoned not more than one year, or both.

(b) Any person who willfully violates any of the foregoing provisions of this chapter, except those for which a specific penalty is imposed by section 208 of Title 18, and section 251 of this title, shall be fined not more than $10,000 and imprisoned not more than two years. (June 25, 1910, c. 392, § 11, 36 Stat. 824; Aug. 19, 1911, c. 33, § 2, 37 Stat. 26; Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, Title III, § 314, 43 Stat. 1074.)

253. Expenses of election contests.—This chapter shall not limit or affect the right of any person to make expenditures for proper legal expenses in contesting the results of an election. (June 25, 1910, c. 392, § 10, 36 Stat. 824; Aug. 19, 1911, c. 33, § 2, 37 Stat. 26; Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, Title III, § 315, 43 Stat. 1074.)

254. State laws not affected.—This chapter shall not be construed to annul the laws of any State relating to the nomination or election of candidates, unless directly inconsistent with the provisions of this title, or to exempt any candidate from complying with such State laws. (June 25, 1910, c. 392, § 8, 36 Stat. 824; Aug. 19, 1911, c. 33, § 2, 37 Stat. 26; Aug. 23, 1912, c. 349, 37 Stat. 360; Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, Title III, § 316, 43 Stat. 1074.)

255. Partial invalidity.—If any provision of this chapter or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of the chapter and of the application of such provision to other persons and circumstances shall not be affected thereby. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, Title III, § 317, 43 Stat. 1074.)

256. Citation.—This chapter may be cited as the "Federal Corrupt Practices Act." (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, Title III, § 301, 43 Stat. 1070.)

Chapter 9.—OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL.

Sec.
271. Creation of office.
272. Appointment of legislative counsel; qualifications.
273. Compensation of legislative counsel.
274. Assistant legislative counsel; clerks and employees; office equipment and supplies.
275. Duties of office; rules and regulations.
276. Disbursement of appropriations.
277. Official mail matter.

Section 271. Creation of office.—There shall be an office to be known as the office of the legislative counsel, and to be under the direction of two legislative counsel. (Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 1303, 40 Stat. 1141; June 2, 1924, c. 234, § 1101, 43 Stat. 353.)

272. Appointment of legislative counsel; qualifications.—One of the legislative counsel shall be appointed by the President of the Senate, and one by the Speaker of the House of Representatives, without reference to political affiliations and solely on the ground of fitness to perform the duties of the office. (Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 1303, 40 Stat. 1141; June 2, 1924, c. 234, § 1101, 43 Stat. 353.

273. Compensation of legislative counsel.—The positions of legislative counsel shall be allocated from time to time by the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives, jointly, to the appropriate grade in the compensation schedules of section 673 of Title 5. The rate of compensation of each of the two legislative counsel shall be fixed from time to time, within the limits of such grade, by the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives, respectively. (June 2, 1924, c. 234, § 1101, 43 Stat. 353.)

274. Assistant legislative counsel; clerks and employees; office equipment and supplies.—The legislative counsel shall, subject to the approval of the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives, employ and fix the compensation of such assistant counsel, clerks, and other employees, and purchase such furniture, office equipment, books, stationery, and other supplies, as may be necessary for the proper performance of the duties of the office and as may be appropriated for by Congress. (Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 1303, 40 Stat. 1141; June 2, 1924, c. 234, § 1101, 43 Stat. 353.)

275. Duties of office; rules and regulations.—The office of the legislative counsel shall aid in drafting public bills and resolutions or amendments thereto on the request of any committee of either House of Congress, but the Library Committee of the Senate and the Library Committee of the House of Representatives, respectively, may determine the preference, if any, to be given to such requests of the committees of either House, respectively. The legislative counsel shall, from time to time, prescribe rules and regulations for the conduct of the work of the office for the committees of each House, subject to the approval of the Library Committee of each House, respectively. (Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 1303, 40 Stat. 1141; June 2, 1924, c. 234, § 1101, 43 Stat. 353.)

276. Disbursement of appropriations.—One-half of all appropriations for the office shall be disbursed by the Secretary of the Senate and one-half by the Clerk of the House of Representatives. (Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 1303, 40 Stat. 1141; June 2, 1924, c. 234, § 1101, 43 Stat. 353.)

277. Official mail matter.—The legislative counsel shall have the same privilege of free transmission of official mail matter as other officers of the United States Government. (June 2, 1924, c. 234, § 1101, 43 Stat. 353.)

12. Time for transmission of certificates to President of Senate.
13. District judge's list.
14. Absence of President of Senate.
15. Mileage of messengers.
16. Forfeiture for messenger's neglect of duty.
17. Counting electoral votes in Congress.
18. Preservation of order in joint meeting.
19. Limit of debate in each House.
20. Seats for officers and Members of two Houses in joint meeting.
21. Vacancy in offices of both President and Vice President.
22. Officers eligible to act as President in case of vacancy.
23. Resignation or refusal of office.

Section 1. Time of appointing electors.—The electors of President and Vice President shall be appointed, in each State, on the Tuesday next after the first Monday in November, in every fourth year succeeding every election of a President and Vice President. (R. S. § 131; Jan. 19, 1886, c. 4, § 3, 24 Stat. 2.)

2. Number of electors.—The number of electors shall be equal to the number of Senators and Representatives to which the several States are by law entitled at the time when the President and Vice President to be chosen come into office; except, that where no apportionment of Representatives has been made after any enumeration, at the time of choosing electors, the number of electors shall be according to the then existing apportionment of Senators and Representatives. (R. S. § 132.)

3. Vacancies in electoral college.—Each State may, by law, provide for the filling of any vacancies which may occur in its college of electors when such college meets to give its electoral vote. (R. S. § 133.)

4. Failure to make choice on appointed day.—Whenever any State has held an election for the purpose of choosing electors, and has failed to make a choice on the day prescribed by law, the electors may be appointed on a subsequent day in such a manner as the legislature of such State may direct. (R. S. § 134.)

5. Meeting and vote of electors.—The electors of each State shall meet and give their votes on the second Monday in January next following their appointment, at such place in each State as the legislature of such State shall direct. (Feb. 3, 1887, c. 90, § 1, 24 Stat. 373.)

6. Determination of controversy as to appointment of electors.—If any State shall have provided, by laws enacted prior to the day fixed for the appointment of the electors, for its final determination of any controversy or contest concerning the appointment of all or any of the electors of such State, by judicial or other methods or procedures, and such determination shall have been made at least six days before the time fixed for the meeting of the electors, such determination made pursuant to such law so existing on said day, and made at least six days prior to the said time of meeting of the electors, shall be conclusive, and shall govern in the counting of the electoral votes as provided in the Constitution, and as hereinafter regulated, so far as the ascertainment of the electors appointed by such State is concerned. (Feb. 3, 1887, c. 90, § 2, 24 Stat. 373.)

7. Certificates of appointment of electors.—It shall be the duty of the executive of each State as soon as practicable after the conclusion of the appointment of electors in such State, by the final ascertainment under and in pursuance of the laws of such State providing for such ascertainment, to communicate, under the seal of the State, to the Secretary of State of the United States, a certificate of such ascertainment of the electors appointed, setting forth the names of such electors and the canvass or other ascertainment under the laws of such State of the number of votes given or cast for each person for whose appointment any and all votes have been given or cast; and it shall also thereupon be the duty of the executive of each State to deliver to the electors of such State, on or before the day on which they are required by section 6 of this title to meet, the same certificate, in triplicate, under the seal of the State; and such certificate shall be inclosed and transmitted by the electors at the same time and in the same manner as is provided by law for transmitting by such electors to the seat of government the lists of all persons voted for as President and of all persons voted for as Vice President; and if there shall have been any final determination in a State of a controversy or contest as provided for in section 6 of this title, it shall be the duty of the executive of such State, as soon as practicable after such determination, to communicate, under the seal of the State, to the Secretary of State of the United States, a certificate of such determination, in form and manner as the same shall have been made; and the Secretary of State of the United States, as soon as practicable after the receipt at the State Department of each of the certificates hereinbefore directed to be transmitted to the Secretary of State, shall publish, in such public newspaper as he shall designate, such certificates in full; and at the first meeting of Congress thereafter he shall transmit to the two Houses of Congress copies in full of each and every such certificate so received theretofore at the State Department. (Feb. 3, 1887, c. 90, § 3, 24 Stat. 373.)

8. Manner of voting.—The electors shall vote for President and Vice President, respectively, in the manner directed by the Constitution. (R. S. § 137.)

9. Making and signing certificates.—The electors shall make and sign three certificates of all the votes given by them, each of which certificates shall contain two distinct lists, one of the votes for President, and the other of the votes for Vice President, and shall annex to each of the certificates one of the lists of the electors which shall have been furnished to them by direction of the executive of the State. (R. S. § 138.)

10. Sealing and indorsing certificates.—The electors shall seal up the certificates so made by them, and certify upon each that the lists of all the votes of such State given for President, and of all the votes given for Vice President, are contained therein. (R. S. § 139.)

11. Transmission of certificates.—The electors shall dispose of the certificates thus made by them in the following manner:

One. They shall, by writing under their hands, or under the hands of a majority of them, appoint a person to take charge of and deliver to the President of the Senate, at the seat of government, one of the certificates.

Two. They shall forthwith forward by the post office to the President of the Senate, at the seat of government, one other of the certificates.

Three. They shall forthwith cause the other of the certificates to be delivered to the judge of that district in which the electors shall assemble. (R. S. § 140; Oct. 19, 1888, c. 1216, § 1, 25 Stat. 613.)

12. Time for transmission of certificates to President of Senate.—The certificates and lists of votes for President and Vice President of the United States mentioned in this chapter shall be forwarded, in the manner herein provided, to the President of the Senate forthwith after the second Monday in January, on which the electors shall give their votes. (Oct. 19, 1888, c. 1216, § 1, 25 Stat. 613.)

13. District judge's list.—Whenever a certificate of votes from any State has not been received at the seat of government on the fourth Monday of the month of January in which their meeting shall have been held, the Secretary of State shall send a special messenger to the district judge in whose custody one certificate of the votes from that State has been lodged, and such judge shall forthwith transmit that list to the seat of government. (R. S. § 141; Oct. 19, 1888, c. 1216, § 2, 25 Stat. 613.)

14. Absence of President of Senate.—In case there shall be no President of the Senate at the seat of government on the arrival of the persons intrusted with the certificates of the votes of the electors, then such persons shall deliver such certificates into the office of the Secretary of State, to be safely kept, and delivered over as soon as may be to the President of the Senate. (R. S. § 143.)

15. Mileage of messengers.—Each of the persons appointed by the electors to deliver the certificates of votes to the President of the Senate shall be allowed, on the delivery of the list intrusted to him, 25 cents for every mile of the estimated distance, by the most usual road, from the place of meeting of the electors to the seat of government of the United States. (R. S. § 144.)

16. Forfeiture for messenger's neglect of duty.—Every person who, having been appointed, pursuant to subdivision 1 of section 11 of this title or to section 13 of this title, to deliver the certificates of the votes of the electors to the President of the Senate, and having accepted such appointment, shall neglect to perform the services required from him, shall forfeit the sum of $1,000. (R. S. § 145.)

17. Counting electoral votes in Congress.—Congress shall be in session on the second Wednesday in February succeeding every meeting of the electors. The Senate and House of Representatives shall meet in the Hall of the House of Representatives at the hour of one o'clock in the afternoon on that day, and the President of the Senate shall be their presiding officer. Two tellers shall be previously appointed on the part of the Senate and two on the part of the House of Representatives, to whom shall be handed, as they are opened by the President of the Senate, all the certificates and papers purporting to be certificates of the electoral votes, which certificates and papers shall be opened, presented, and acted upon in the alphabetical order of the States, beginning with the letter A; and said tellers, having then read the same in the presence and hearing of the two Houses, shall make a list of the votes as they shall appear from the said certificates; and the votes having been ascertained and counted in the manner and according to the rules in this chapter provided, the result of the same shall be delivered to the President of the Senate, who shall thereupon announce the state of the vote, which announcement shall be deemed a sufficient declaration of the persons, if any, elected President and Vice President of the United States, and, together with a list of the votes, be entered on the Journals of the two Houses. Upon such reading of any such certificate or paper, the President of the Senate shall call for objections, if any. Every objection shall be made in writing, and shall state clearly and concisely, and without argument, the ground thereof, and shall be signed by at least one Senator and one Member of the House of Representatives before the same shall be received. When all objections so made to any vote or paper from a State shall have been received and read, the Senate shall thereupon withdraw, and such objections shall be submitted to the Senate for its decision; and the Speaker of the House of Representatives shall, in like manner, submit such objections to the House of Representatives for its decision; and no electoral vote or votes from any State which shall have been regularly given by electors whose appointment has been lawfully certified to according to section 7 of this title from which but one return has been received shall be rejected, but the two Houses concurrently may reject the vote or votes when they agree that such vote or votes have not been so regularly given by electors whose appointment has been so certified. If more than one return or paper purporting to be a return from a State shall have been received by the President of the Senate, those votes, and those only, shall be counted which shall have been regularly given by the electors who are shown by the determination mentioned in section 6 of this title to have been appointed, if the determination in said section provided for shall have been made, or by such successors or substitutes, in case of a vacancy in the board of electors so ascertained, as have been appointed to fill such vacancy in the mode provided by the laws of the State; but in case there shall arise the question which of two or more of such State authorities determining what electors have been appointed, as mentioned in section 6 of this title, is the lawful tribunal of such State, the votes regularly given of those electors, and those only, of such State shall be counted whose title as electors the two Houses, acting separately, shall concurrently decide is supported by the decision of such State so authorized by its laws; and in such case of more than one return or paper purporting to be a return from a State, if there shall have been no such determination of the question in the State aforesaid, then those votes, and those only, shall be counted which the two Houses shall concurrently decide were cast by lawful electors appointed in accordance with the laws of the State, unless the two Houses, acting separately, shall concurrently decide such votes not to be the lawful votes of the legally appointed electors of such State. But if the two Houses shall disagree in respect of the counting of such votes, then, and in that case, the votes of the electors whose appointment shall have been certified by the executive of the State, under the seal thereof, shall be counted. When the two Houses have voted, they shall immediately again meet, and the presiding officer shall then announce the decision of the questions submitted. No votes or papers from any other State shall be acted upon until the objections previously made to the votes or papers from any State shall have been finally disposed of. (Feb. 3, 1887, c. 90, § 4, 24 Stat. 373.)

18. Preservation of order in joint meeting.—While the two Houses shall be in meeting as provided in sections 5 to 7 and 17 to 20, the President of the Senate shall have power to preserve order; and no debate shall be allowed and no question shall be put by the presiding officer except to either House on a motion to withdraw. (Feb. 3, 1887, c. 90, § 5, 24 Stat. 374.)

19. Limit of debate in each House.—When the two Houses separate to decide upon an objection that may have been made to the counting of any electoral vote or votes from any State, or other question arising in the matter, each Senator and

Representative may speak to such objection or question five minutes, and not more than once; but after such debate shall have lasted two hours it shall be the duty of the presiding officer of each House to put the main question without further debate. (Feb. 3, 1887, c. 90, § 6, 24 Stat. 375.)

20. Seats for officers and Members of two Houses in joint meeting.—At such joint meeting of the two Houses seats shall be provided as follows: For the President of the Senate, the Speaker's chair; for the Speaker, immediately upon his left; the Senators, in the body of the Hall upon the right of the presiding officer; for the Representatives, in the body of the Hall not provided for the Senators; for the tellers, Secretary of the Senate, and Clerk of the House of Representatives, at the Clerk's desk; for the other officers of the two Houses, in front of the Clerk's desk and upon each side of the Speaker's platform. Such joint meeting shall not be dissolved until the count of electoral votes shall be completed and the result declared; and no recess shall be taken unless a question shall have arisen in regard to counting any such votes, or otherwise under this chapter, in which case it shall be competent for either House, acting separately, in the manner hereinbefore provided, to direct a recess of such House not beyond the next calendar day, Sunday excepted, at the hour of ten o'clock in the forenoon. But if the counting of the electoral votes and the declaration of the result shall not have been completed before the fifth calendar day next after such first meeting of the two Houses, no further or other recess shall be taken by either House. (Feb. 3, 1887, c. 90, § 7, 24 Stat. 375.)

21. Vacancy in offices of both President and Vice President.—In case of removal, death, resignation, or inability of both the President and Vice President of the United States, the Secretary of State, or if there be none, or in case of his removal, death, resignation, or inability, then the Secretary of the Treasury, or if there be none, or in case of his removal, death, resignation, or inability, then the Secretary of War, or if there be none, or in case of his removal, death, resignation, or inability, then the Attorney General, or if there be none, or in case of his removal, death, resignation, or inability, then the Postmaster General, or if there be none, or in case of his removal, death, resignation, or inability, then the Secretary of the Navy, or if there be none, or in case of his removal, death, resignation, or inability, then the Secretary of the Interior, shall act as President until the disability of the President or Vice President is removed or a President shall be elected: Provided, That whenever the powers and duties of the office of President of the United States shall devolve upon any of the persons named herein, if Congress be not then in session, or if it would not meet in accordance with law within twenty days thereafter, it shall be the duty of the person upon whom said powers and duties shall devolve to issue a proclamation convening Congress in extraordinary session, giving twenty days' notice of the time of meeting. (Jan. 19, 1886, c. 4, § 1, 24 Stat. 1.)

22. Officers eligible to act as President in case of vacancy.—Section 21 of this title shall only be held to describe and apply to such officers as shall have been appointed by the advice and consent of the Senate to the offices therein named, and such as are eligible to the office of President under the Constitution, and not under impeachment by the House of Representatives of the United States at the time the powers and duties of the office shall devolve upon them respectively. (Jan. 19, 1886, c. 4, § 2, 24 Stat. 1.)

23. Resignation or refusal of office.—The only evidence of a refusal to accept, or of a resignation of the office of President or Vice President, shall be an instrument in writing, declaring the same, and subscribed by the person refusing to accept or resigning, as the case may be, and delivered into the office of the Secretary of State. (R. S. § 151.)

50. Annual statement of public property.
51. Inventory of public property.
52. Annual statement and inventory of stationary and fuel.
53. Protection of the President.

41. Commencement of term of office.—The term of four years for which a President and Vice President shall be elected, shall, in all cases, commence on the 4th day of March next succeeding the day on which the votes of the electors have been given. (R. S. § 152.)

42. President's salary.—The President shall receive in full for his services during the term for which he shall have been elected the sum of $75,000 a year, to be paid monthly, and shall be entitled to the use of the furniture and other effects belonging to the United States and kept in the Executive Mansion. (R. S. § 153; Mar. 4, 1909, c. 297, § 1, 35 Stat. 859.)

43. President's traveling expenses.—There may be expended for or on account of the traveling expenses of the President of the United States such sum as Congress may from time to time appropriate, not exceeding $25,000 per annum, such sum when appropriated to be expended in the discretion of the President and accounted for on his certificate solely. (June 23, 1906, c. 3523, 34 Stat. 454.)

44. Vice President's salary.—The Vice President shall receive in full for his services during the term for which he shall have been elected the sum of $15,000 a year, to be paid monthly. (R. S. § 154; Feb. 26, 1907, c. 1635, § 4, 34 Stat. 993; Mar. 4, 1925, c. 549, § 4, 43 Stat. 1301.)

45. Salary of Secretary to President.—The salary of the Secretary to the President shall be at the rate of $7,500 per annum. (R. S. § 155; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 149, 37 Stat. 913; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 468, § 1, 43 Stat. 1198.)

46. Detail of employees of executive departments to office of President.—Employees of the executive departments and other establishments of the executive branch of the Government may be detailed from time to time to the office of the President of the United States for such temporary assistance as may be necessary. (June 12, 1922, c. 218, 42 Stat. 636; Feb. 13, 1923, c. 72, 42 Stat. 1227; June 7, 1924, c. 292, § 1, 43 Stat. 521; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 468, § 1, 43 Stat. 1198.)

47. Accommodations for horses, carriages, etc.—The Quartermaster General of the Army shall provide suitable accommodations for the horses, carriages, and other vehicles of the President and of the Executive Office, in the stables maintained in the District of Columbia by and for the use of his department. (Mar. 4, 1911, c. 285, § 1, 36 Stat. 1404.)

48. Public property in and belonging to Executive Mansion.—The steward, housekeeper, or such other employee of the Executive Mansion as the President may designate, shall, under the direction of the President, have the charge and custody of and be responsible for the plate, furniture, and public property therein, and shall, before entering upon the duties of the office, give bond for the faithful discharge thereof, said bond to be in the sum of $10,000, and to be approved by the Secretary of War. A complete inventory, in proper books, shall be made annually in the month of June, under the direction of the officer in charge of public buildings and grounds, of all the public property in and belonging to the Executive Mansion, showing when purchased, its cost, condition, and final disposition. This inventory shall be submitted to the President for his approval, and shall then be kept for reference in the office of the Director of Public Buildings and Public Parks of the National Capital, which shall furnish a copy thereof to the steward, housekeeper, or other employee responsible for the property. (June 25, 1910, c. 384, § 9, 36 Stat. 773; Feb. 26, 1925, c. 339, § 1, 43 Stat. 983.)

49. Furniture for White House.—All furniture purchased for the use of the President's House shall be, as far as practicable, of domestic manufacture. With a view to conserving in the White House the best specimens of the early American furniture and furnishings, and for the purpose of maintaining the interior of the White House in keeping with its original design, the officer in charge of public buildings and grounds is authorized and directed, with the approval of the President, to accept donations of furniture and furnishings for use in the White House, all such articles thus donated to become the property of the United States and to be accounted for as such. The said officer in charge of public buildings and grounds is further authorized and directed, with the approval of the President, to appoint a temporary committee composed of one representative of the American Federation of Arts, one representative of the National Commission of Fine Arts, one representative of the National Academy of Design, one member of the American Institute of Architects, and five members representing the public at large; the said committee to have full power to select and pass on the articles in question and to recommend the same for acceptance. (R. S. § 1829; Feb. 23, 1925, c. 377, 43 Stat. 1091.)

50. Annual statement of public property.—It shall be the duty of the officer or officers having in charge the property of the United States in and about the White House to furnish an annual statement to the Architect of the Capitol by the 1st day of December, setting forth the public property in all the buildings, rooms, and grounds under their charge, purchased during each year, and an account of the disposition of such property during the same period, whether by sale or otherwise. (R. S. § 1832.)

51. Inventory of public property.—The Architect of the Capitol shall make out and keep in proper books a complete inventory of all public property in and about the White House, adding thereto, from time to time, an account of such property as may be procured, subsequently to the taking of the first inventory, as well as an account of the sale or other disposal of such property. He shall submit an annual report of such inventories and accounts, on the first Monday of December, to Congress. (R. S. § 1833.)

52. Annual statement and inventory of stationery and fuel.—Sections 50 and 51 of this title shall not apply to the supplies of stationery and fuel in the White House. (R. S. § 1834.)

53. Protection of the President.—The protection of the person of the President and the members of his immediate family and of the person chosen to be President of the United States is authorized. (June 23, 1913, c. 3, § 1, 38 Stat. 23; Jan. 22, 1925, c. 87, Title I, 43 Stat. 774; Feb. 27, 1925, c. 364, Title II, 43 Stat. 1026.)

Chapter 3.—WHITE HOUSE POLICE.

Sec.

61. Police force established; control and supervision; privileges, powers, and duties.
62. Personnel; appointment; vacancies.
63. Grades of appointees; salaries; transfers.
64. Members entitled to participate in policemen and firemen's relief fund of District of Columbia.
65. Refunds to members of United States park police force appointed to White House police force.
66. Transfer of members to other departments.
67. Disbursement of funds.

61. Police force established; control and supervision; privileges, powers, and duties.—There is hereby created and established for the protection of the Executive Mansion and Grounds in the District of Columbia a permanent police force, to be known as the White House police. Such force shall be under the sole control of the President and under the direct supervision of such officer as he may designate. The members of such force shall possess privileges and powers and perform duties similar to those of the members of the Metropolitan police of the District of Columbia, and such additional privileges, powers, and duties as the President may prescribe. (Sept. 14, 1922, c. 308, § 1, 42 Stat. 841.)

62. Personnel; appointment; vacancies.—(a) The White House police force shall consist of one first sergeant with grade corresponding to that of detective sergeant (Metropolitan police), two sergeants with grade corresponding to that of sergeant (Metropolitan police), and thirty privates with grade corresponding to that of private, class three (Metropolitan police), appointed under the direction of the President from the members of the Metropolitan police force and the United States park police force from lists furnished by the officers in charge of such forces. Vacancies shall be filled in the same manner.

(b) Any vacancy in the Metropolitan police force or in the United States park police force caused by appointments to the White House police force shall be filled in the manner provided by law. (Sept. 14, 1922, c. 308, § 2, 42 Stat. 841.)

63. Grades of appointees; salaries; transfers.—(a) No person shall be appointed a member of the White House police force at a grade lower than the grade held by him as a member of the Metropolitan police force or of the United States park police force at the time of his appointment.

(b) A member of the White House police force shall receive a salary at the rate provided for the corresponding grade in the Metropolitan police force, and he shall be furnished with uniforms and other necessary equipment similar to the uniforms and equipment furnished the United States park police, and he shall be entitled to the same leave allowances as a member of the United States park police force.

(c) The President may transfer a member of the White House police force to the organization of which he was a member at the time of his appointment to such force. (Sept. 14, 1922, c. 308, § 3, 42 Stat. 842.)

64. Members entitled to participate in policemen and firemen's relief fund of District of Columbia.—(a) A member of the United States park police force appointed to the White House police force shall be included within the provisions of section 12 of the act entitled "An Act making appropriations to provide for the expenses of the government of the District of Columbia for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1917, and for other purposes," approved September 1, 1916, as amended, upon payment into the policemen and firemen's relief fund, District of Columbia, of an amount equal to 1½ per centum of the total basic salary received by him since September 1, 1916, as a member of such United States park police force and as a watchman of the United States in any public square or reservation of the District of Columbia.

(b) For the purposes of retirement under such Act service with the United States park police force and service as a watchman of the United States in any public square or reservation of the District of Columbia shall be deemed service with the White House police force.

(c) Any member of the Metropolitan police force appointed to the White House police force shall continue to be subject to the provisions of section 12 of such Act, and appointment of such member to the White House police force or transfer of such member to his former organization shall not affect any right, privilege, or duty of such member under the provisions of such section of such Act. (Sept. 14, 1922, c. 308, § 4, 42 Stat. 842.)

65. Refunds to members of United States park police force appointed to White House police force.—A member of the United States park police force appointed to the White House police force shall be paid a refund as provided for in section 724 of Title 5, and upon transfer to the United States park police force he shall be paid a refund from the policemen and firemen's relief fund of all money paid by him as salary deductions into such fund, and he shall be reinstated and included within the provisions of chapter 14 of Title 5 upon payment to the Secretary of the Treasury of an amount equal to the amount refunded to him, at the time of such appointment, under the provisions of section 724 of Title 5, plus an amount equal to 2½ per centum of the total basic salary received by him during the period of his service as a member of the White House police force. For the purposes of retirement under chapter 14 of Title 5, service with the White House police force shall be deemed service with the United States park police force. (Sept. 14, 1922, c. 308, § 5, 42 Stat. 842.)

66. Transfer of members to other departments.—The provisions of section 670 of Title 5 shall not apply to persons appointed or transferred under the provisions of this chapter. (Sept. 14, 1922, c. 308, § 6, 42 Stat. 842.)

67. Disbursement of funds.—The amounts necessary for the payment of salaries and for the purchase of uniforms and other equipment of the White House police force shall be disbursed by the officer in charge of public buildings and grounds, and there is hereby authorized to be appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, such sums as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this chapter. (Sept. 14, 1922, c. 308, § 7, 42 Stat. 843.)

TITLE 4.—FLAG AND SEAL, SEAT OF GOVERNMENT, AND THE STATES

Section 1. Flag; stripes and stars on.—The flag of the United States shall be thirteen horizontal stripes, alternate red and white; and the union of the flag shall be forty-eight stars, white in a blue field. (R. S. § 1791.)

2. Same; additional stars.—On the admission of a new State into the Union one star shall be added to the union of the flag; and such addition shall take effect on the fourth day of July then next succeeding such admission. (R. S. § 1792.)

3. Use of flag for advertising purposes; mutilation of flag.—Any person who, within the District of Columbia, in any manner, for exhibition or display, shall place or cause to be placed any word, figure, mark, picture, design, drawing or any advertisement of any nature upon any flag, standard, colors or ensign of the United States of America; or shall expose or cause to be exposed to public view any such flag, standard, colors or ensign upon which shall have been printed, painted or otherwise placed, or to which shall be attached, appended, affixed or annexed any word, figure, mark, picture, design or drawing, or any advertisement of any nature; or who, within the District of Columbia, shall manufacture, sell, expose for sale or to public view or give away or have in possession for sale or to be given away or for use for any purpose, any article or substance being an article of merchandise, or a receptacle for merchandise or article or thing for carrying or transporting merchandise, upon which shall have been printed, painted, attached or otherwise placed a representation of any such flag, standard, colors or ensign, to advertise, call attention to, decorate, mark or distinguish the article or substance on which so placed; or who, within the District of Columbia, shall publicly mutilate, deface, defile or defy, trample upon or cast contempt, either by word or act, upon any such flag, standard, colors or ensign, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $100 or by imprisonment for not more than thirty days, or both, in the discretion of the court. The words "flag, standard, colors, or ensign," as used herein, shall include any flag, standard, colors, ensign or any picture or representation of either, or of any part or parts of either, made of any substance or represented on any substance, of any size evidently purporting to be either of said flag, standard, colors or ensign of the United States of America or a picture or a representation of either, upon which shall be shown the colors, the stars and the stripes, in any number of either thereof, or of any part or parts of either, by which the average person seeing the same without deliberation may believe the same to represent the flag, colors, standard or ensign of the United States of America. (Feb. 8, 1917, c. 34, 39 Stat. 900.)

4. Seal of United States.—The seal heretofore used by the United States in Congress assembled is declared to be the seal of the United States. (R. S. § 1793.)

5. Same; custody and use of.—The Secretary of State shall have the custody and charge of such seal, and shall make out and record, and shall affix the same to, all civil commissions for officers of the United States, to be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, or by the President alone. But the seal shall not be affixed to any commission before the same has been signed by the President of the United States, nor to any other instrument, without the special warrant of the President therefor. (R. S. §§ 203, 1794.)

6. Permanent seat of government.—All that part of the territory of the United States included within the present limits of the District of Columbia shall be the permanent seat of government of the United States. (R. S. § 1795.)

8. Same; removal from seat of government.—In case of the prevalence of a contagious or epidemic disease at the seat of government, the President may permit and direct the removal of any or all the public offices to such other place or places as he shall deem most safe and convenient for conducting the public business. (R. S. § 4798.)

9. Oath by members of legislatures and officers.—Every member of a State legislature, and every executive and judicial officer of a State, shall, before he proceeds to execute the duties of his office, take an oath in the following form, to wit: "I, A B, do solemnly swear that I will support the Constitution of the United States." (R. S. § 1836.)

10. Same; by whom administered.—Such oath may be administered by any person who, by the law of the State, is authorized to administer the oath of office; and the person so administering such oath shall cause a record or certificate thereof to be made in the same manner as, by the law of the State, he is directed to record or certify the oath of office. (R. S. § 1837.)

11. Assent to purchase of lands for forts.—The President of the United States is authorized to procure the assent of the legislature of any State, within which any purchase of land has been made for the erection of forts, magazines, arsenals, dockyards, and other needful buildings, without such consent having been obtained. (R. S. § 1838.)

Section 1. Application of provisions of chapter.—The provisions of this chapter shall apply to the following executive departments:

First. The Department of State.
Second. The Department of War.
Third. The Department of the Treasury.
Fourth. The Department of Justice.
Fifth. The Post Office Department.
Sixth. The Department of the Navy.
Seventh. The Department of the Interior.
Eighth. The Department of Agriculture.
Ninth. The Department of Commerce.
Tenth. The Department of Labor. (R. S. § 158; Feb. 9, 1889, c. 122, § 1, 25 Stat. 659; Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, § 1, 32 Stat. 825; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, § 1, 37 Stat. 736.)

2. Word "department."—The word "department" when used alone in this chapter, and chapters 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, and 11 of this title, means one of the executive departments enumerated in the preceding section. (R. S. § 159; Feb. 9, 1889, c. 122, § 1, 25 Stat. 659; Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, § 1, 32 Stat. 825; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, § 1, 37 Stat. 736.)

3. Salaries of heads of executive departments.—The compensation of the heads of executive departments who are members of the President's Cabinet shall be at the rate of $15,000 per annum each. (R. S. § 160; Feb. 26, 1907, c. 1635, § 4, 34 Stat. 993; Mar. 4, 1925, c. 549, § 4, 43 Stat. 1301.)

4. Vacancies in office of department heads; temporarily filling.—In case of the death, resignation, absence, or sickness of the head of any department, the first or sole assistant thereof shall, unless otherwise directed by the President, as provided by section 6 of this title, perform the duties of such head until a successor is appointed, or such absence or sickness shall cease. (R. S. § 177.)

5. Vacancies in subordinate offices.—In case of the death, resignation, absence, or sickness of the chief of any bureau, or of any officer thereof, whose appointment is not vested in the head of the department, the assistant or deputy of such chief or of such officer, or if there be none, then the chief clerk of such bureau, shall, unless otherwise directed by the President, as provided by section 6 of this title, perform the duties of such chief or of such officer until a successor is appointed or such absence or sickness shall cease. (R. S. § 178.)

6. Discretionary authority of President as to vacancies.—In any of the cases mentioned in the sections 4 and 5 of this title except the death, resignation, absence, or sickness of the Attorney General, the President may, in his discretion, authorize and direct the head of any other department or any other officer in either department, whose appointment is vested in the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, to perform the duties of the vacant office until a successor is appointed, or the sickness or absence of the incumbent shall cease. (R. S. § 179.)

7. Temporary appointments to vacancies limited.—A vacancy occasioned by death or resignation must not be temporarily filled under the provisions of sections 4, 5, and 6 of this title for a longer period than thirty days. (R. S. § 180; Feb. 6, 1891, c. 113, 26 Stat. 733.)

8. Restriction on manner of temporary appointments to fill vacancies.—No temporary appointment, designation, or assignment of one officer to perform the duties of another, in the cases covered by sections 4 and 5 of this title, shall be made otherwise than as provided by those sections, except to fill a vacancy happening during a recess of the Senate. (R. S. § 181.)

9. Extra compensation for duties performed while filling vacancies.—An officer performing the duties of another office, during a vacancy, as authorized by sections 4, 5 and 6 of this title, is not by reason thereof entitled to any other compensation than that attached to his proper office. (R. S. § 182.)

10. Commissions.—The President is authorized to make out and deliver, after the adjournment of the Senate, commissions for all officers whose appointments have been advised and consented to by the Senate. (R. S. § 1773.)

11. Same; officers under Secretaries of departments.—The commissions of all officers under the direction and control of the Secretary of the Treasury, the Secretary of War, the Secretary of the Navy, the Secretary of the Interior, the Postmaster General, the Secretary of Commerce, the Secretary of Labor, and the Secretary of Agriculture shall be made out and recorded in the respective departments under which they are to serve, and the department seal affixed thereto, any laws to the contrary notwithstanding. The said seal shall not be affixed to any such commission before the same shall have been signed by the President of the United States. (Mar. 3, 1875, c. 131, § 14, 18 Stat. 420; Mar. 28, 1896, c. 73, 29 Stat. 75; Mar. 3, 1905, c. 1422, 33 Stat. 990; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, 37 Stat. 736.)

12. Same; judicial officers and other officers under Attorney General.—The commissions of all judicial officers, including marshals and attorneys of the United States, appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, and all other commissions prepared prior to August 8, 1888, at the Department of State upon the requisition of the Attorney General, shall be made out and recorded in the Department of Justice, and shall be under the seal of said department and countersigned by the Attorney General, any laws to the contrary notwithstanding. The said seal shall not be affixed to any such commission before the same shall have been signed by the President of the United States. (Aug. 8, 1888, c. 786, 25 Stat. 387.)

13. Notification of appointments.—Whenever the President, without the advice and consent of the Senate, designates, authorizes, or employs any person to perform the duties of any office, he shall forthwith notify the Secretary of the Treasury thereof, and the Secretary of the Treasury shall thereupon communicate such notice to the General Accounting Office. (R. S. § 1774; June 10, 1921, c. 18, §§ 301-318, 42 Stat. 23-27.)

14. Notification of nominations or rejections.—The Secretary of the Senate shall, at the close of each session thereof, deliver to the Secretary of the Treasury, and to each of the Assistant Secretaries of the Treasury, and to the General Accounting Office, and to the Treasurer, and to the Register of the Treasury, a full and complete list, duly certified, of all the persons who have been nominated to and rejected by the Senate during such session, and a like list of all the offices to which nominations have been made and not confirmed and filled at such session. (R. S. § 1775.)

15. Disability imposed by the fourteenth amendment removed.—The disability imposed by section three of the fourteenth amendment to the Constitution of the United States incurred prior to June 6, 1898, is hereby removed. (June 6, 1898, c. 389, 30 Stat. 432.)

16. Oath of office.—The oath to be taken by any person elected or appointed to any office of honor or profit either in the civil, military, or naval service, except the President of the United States shall be as follows: "I, A B, do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will support and defend the Constitution of the United States against all enemies, foreign and domestic; that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the same; that I take this obligation freely, without any mental reservation or purpose of evasion; and that I will well and faithfully discharge the duties of the office on which I am about to enter. So help me God." This section shall not affect the oaths prescribed by existing statutes in relation to the performance of duties in special or particular subordinate offices and employments. The provisions of this section shall in no manner affect any right, duty, claim, obligation, or penalty existing or incurred on or before May 13, 1884; and all and every such right, duty, claim, obligation, and penalty shall be heard, tried and determined, and effect shall be given thereto, in the same manner as if this section had not been passed. (R. S. §§ 1756, 1757; May 13, 1884, c. 46, §§ 2, 3, 23 Stat. 22.)

17. Same; renewal by Department of Agriculture employees.—Employees of the Department of Agriculture who, upon original appointment, have subscribed to the oath of office required by section 16 of this title shall not be required to renew the said oath because of any change in status so long as their services are continuous, unless, in the opinion of the Secretary of Agriculture the public interests require such renewal. (Jan. 31, 1925, c. 124, § 3, 43 Stat. 803.)

18. Same; who may administer.—The oath of office required by section 16 of this title may be taken before any officer who is authorized either by the laws of the United States or by the local municipal law, to administer oaths, in the State, Territory, or District where such oath may be administered. (R. S. § 1758.)

19. Same; chief clerks of departments to administer without compensation.—The chief clerks of the several executive departments and of the various bureaus and offices thereof in Washington, District of Columbia, are authorized and directed, on application and without compensation therefor, to administer oaths of office to employees required to be taken on their appointment or promotion. (Aug. 29, 1890, c. 820, 26 Stat. 371.)

20. Same; to employees administered without compensation.—No officer, clerk, or employee of any executive department who is also a notary public or other officer authorized to administer oaths, shall charge or receive any fee or compensation for administering oaths of office to employees of such department required to be taken on appointment or promotion therein. (Aug. 29, 1890, c. 820, 26 Stat. 371.)

21. Same; custody of.—The oath of office taken by any person pursuant to the requirements of section 16 of this title, shall be delivered in by him to be preserved among the files of the House of Congress, department, or court to which the office in respect to which the oath is made may appertain. (R. S. § 1759.)

22. Departmental regulations.—The head of each department is authorized to prescribe regulations, not inconsistent with law, for the government of his department, the conduct of its officers and clerks, the distribution and performance of its business, and the custody, use, and preservation of the records, papers, and property appertaining to it. (R. S. § 161.)

23. Supervision of subordinate clerks.—Each chief clerk in the several departments, and bureaus, and other offices connected with the departments, shall supervise, under the direction of his immediate superior, the duties of the other clerks therein, and see that they are faithfully performed. (R. S. § 173.)

24. Distribution of duties.—Each chief clerk shall take care, from time to time, that the duties of the other clerks are distributed with equality and uniformity, according to the nature of the case. He shall revise such distribution from time to time, for the purpose of correcting any tendency to undue accumulation or reduction of duties, whether arising from individual negligence or incapacity, or from increase or diminution of particular kinds of business. He shall report monthly to his superior officer any existing defect that he may be aware of in the arrangement or dispatch of business. (R. S. § 174.)

25. Duty of chief on receipt of report.—Each head of a department, chief of a bureau, or other superior officer, shall, upon receiving each monthly report of his chief clerk, rendered pursuant to the preceding section, examine the facts stated therein, and take such measures, in the exercise of the powers conferred upon him by law, as may be necessary and proper to amend any existing defects in the arrangement or dispatch of business disclosed by such report. (R. S. § 175.)

26. Hours of business.—From the 1st day of October until the 1st day of April, in each year, all the bureaus and offices in the State, War, Treasury, Navy, and Post Office Departments and in the General Land Office, shall be open for the transaction of the public business at least eight hours in each day; and from the 1st day of April until the 1st day of October, in each year, at least ten hours in each day; except Sundays and days declared public holidays by law. (R. S. § 162.)

27. Recording clocks.—No recording clocks for recording time of clerks or other employees in any of the executive departments at Washington, shall be used in any of such departments at Washington. (Feb. 24, 1899, c. 187, § 1, 30 Stat. 864.)

28. Closing department on decease of ex-official.—The executive departments of the Government shall not be closed as a mark to the memory of any deceased ex-official of the United States. (Mar. 3, 1893, c. 211, § 4, 27 Stat. 715.)

29. Hours of labor in executive departments.—It shall be the duty of the heads of the several executive departments, in the interest of the public service, to require of all clerks and other employees, of whatever grade or class, in their respective departments, not less than seven hours of labor each day, except Sundays and days declared public holidays by law or Executive order. The heads of the departments may, by special order, stating the reason, further extend the hours of any clerk or employee in their departments, respectively; but in case of an extension it shall be without additional compensation. (Mar. 3, 1893, c. 211, § 5, 27 Stat. 715; Mar. 15, 1898, c. 68, § 7, 30 Stat. 316.)

30. Leaves of absence; annual leave; sick leave.—The head of any department may grant thirty days' annual leave with pay in any one year to each clerk or employee, such leave to be exclusive of Sundays and legal holidays. Where some member of the immediate family of a clerk or employee is afflicted with a contagious disease and requires the care and attendance of such employee, or where his or her presence in the department would jeopardize the health of fellow clerks, and in exceptional and meritorious cases, where a clerk or employee is personally ill, and where to limit the annual leave to thirty days in any one calendar year would work peculiar hardship, it may be extended, in the discretion of the head of the department, with pay, not exceeding thirty days in any one case or in any one calendar year. This section shall not be construed to prevent the head of any executive department from granting thirty days' annual leave with pay in any one year to a clerk or employee, notwithstanding such clerk or employee may have had during such year not exceeding thirty days' leave with pay on account of sickness. Nor shall it be construed to mean that so long as a clerk or employee is borne upon the rolls of the department in excess of the time herein provided for or granted that he or she shall be entitled to pay during the period of such excessive absence, but that the pay shall stop upon the expiration of the granted leave. (Mar. 3, 1893, c. 211, § 5, 27 Stat. 715; Mar. 15, 1898, c. 68, § 7, 30 Stat. 316; July 7, 1898, c. 571, § 1, 30 Stat. 653; Feb. 24, 1899, c. 187, § 4, 30 Stat. 890.)

31. Monthly reports as to condition of business; extension of hours of service of employees.—It shall be the duty of the head of each executive department to require monthly reports to be made to him as to the condition of the public business in the several bureaus or offices of his department at Washington; and in each case where such reports disclose that the public business is in arrears, the head of the department in which such arrears exist shall require, as provided herein, an extension of the hours of service to such clerks or employees as may be necessary to bring up such arrears of public business. (Mar. 15, 1898, c. 68, § 7, 30 Stat. 316.)

32. Quarterly reports as to condition of business.—It shall be the duty of the head of each executive department, or other Government establishment at the seat of government, not under an executive department, to make at the expiration of each quarter of the fiscal year a written report to the President as to the condition of the public business in his executive department or Government establishment, and whether any branch thereof is in arrears. (Mar. 15, 1898, c. 68, § 7, 30 Stat. 316.)

33. Women clerks.—Women may, in the discretion of the head of any department, be appointed to any of the clerkships therein authorized by law, upon the same requisites and conditions, and with the same compensations, as are prescribed for men. (R. S. § 165.)

34. Restoration to positions of employees called into active military service.—All officers and enlisted men of the National Guard and of the Medical Reserve Corps of the Army who are Government employees and who respond to the call of the President for service shall, at the expiration of the military service to which they are called, be restored to the positions occupied by them at the time of the call. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 418, § 1, 39 Stat. 624.)

35. Preference in appointments to honorably discharged soldiers, sailors, and marines, and widows and wives thereof.—Persons honorably discharged from the military or naval service by reason of disability resulting from wounds or sickness incurred in the line of duty, shall be preferred for appointments to civil offices, provided they are found to possess the business capacity necessary for the proper discharge of the duties of such offices. In making appointments to clerical and other positions in the executive branch of the Government in the District of Columbia or elsewhere preference shall be given to honorably discharged soldiers, sailors, and marines, and widows of such and to the wives of injured soldiers, sailors and marines who themselves are not qualified, but whose wives are qualified to hold such positions. (R. S. § 1754; Mar. 3, 1919, c. 97, § 6, 40 Stat. 1293; July 11, 1919, c. 6, § 1, 41 Stat. 37.)

36. Employment of wives of soldiers and sailors.—The wife of a soldier or sailor who served in the World War shall not be disqualified for any position or appointment under the Government because she is a married woman. (Aug. 31, 1918, c. 166, § 5, 40 Stat. 956.)

37. Diminution or increase of number of clerks.—In making any reduction of force in any of the executive departments, the head of such department shall retain those persons who may be equally qualified who have been honorably discharged from the military or naval service of the United States and the widows and orphans of deceased soldiers and sailors. (Aug. 15, 1876, c. 287, § 3, 19 Stat. 169.)

38. Details of officers, employees, or clerks within department.—Each head of a department may, from time to time, alter the distribution among the various bureaus and offices of his department, of the clerks and other employees allowed by law, except such clerks or employees as may be required by law to be exclusively engaged upon some specific work, as he may find it necessary and proper to do, but all details hereunder shall be made by written order of the head of the department, and in no case be for a period of time exceeding one hundred and twenty days. Details so made may, on expiration, be renewed from time to time by written order of the head of the department, in each particular case, for periods of not exceeding one hundred and twenty days. (R. S. § 166; May 28, 1896, c. 252, § 3, 29 Stat. 179.)

39. Same; outside District for duty within District.—It shall be unlawful to detail civil officers, clerks, or other subordinate employees who are authorized or employed under or paid from appropriations made for the Military or Naval Establishments, or any other branch of the public service outside of the District of Columbia, except those officers and employees whose details are specially provided by law, for duty in any bureau, office, or other division of any executive department in the District of Columbia, except temporary details for duty connected with their respective offices. (Aug. 5, 1882, c. 389, § 4, 22 Stat. 255; June 22, 1906, c. 3514, § 6, 34 Stat. 449.)

40. Same; details for duty in Treasury Department.—Nothing in section 39 of this title shall be construed to prevent the Secretary of the Treasury from detailing one officer from the Special Agency Service, and one from the Customs Service, respectively, for duty at the Treasury Department at Washington, nor to prevent the Commissioner of Internal Revenue from detailing one revenue agent for duty in his office. (Aug. 5, 1882, c. 389, § 1, 22 Stat. 229.)

41. Same; detail of officers of Coast Guard.—Nothing in section 39 of this title shall be construed to prohibit the detailing of officers of the Coast Guard in the District of Columbia for such periods as the Secretary of the Treasury may deem necessary, but the number of officers so detailed shall not exceed ten. (Mar. 4, 1907, c. 2918, § 1, 34 Stat. 1309.)

42. Same; persons in classified service in District for service outside District.—Persons in the classified service in the District of Columbia shall not be detailed for service outside of the District of Columbia except for or in connection with work pertaining directly to the service at the seat of government of the department or other Government establishment from which the detail is made. This section shall not be deemed to apply to the investigation of any matter or the preparation, prosecution, or defense of any suit by the Department of Justice. (Mar. 3, 1917, c. 163, § 5, 39 Stat. 1121; Mar. 3, 1921, c. 124, § 5, 41 Stat. 1308.)

43. Authority to employ clerks and other employees.—Each head of a department is authorized to employ in his department such number of employees of the various classes recognized by chapter 13 of this title as may be appropriated for by Congress from year to year. (R. S. § 169; Mar. 4, 1923, c. 265, 42 Stat. 1488.)

44. Disbursing clerks.—The disbursing clerks authorized by law in the several departments shall be appointed by the heads of the respective departments; and shall each give a bond to the United States for the faithful discharge of the duties of his office according to law in such amount as shall be directed by the Secretary of the Treasury, and with sureties to the satisfaction of the Solicitor of the Treasury; and shall from time to time renew, strengthen, and increase his official bond, as the Secretary of the Treasury may direct. (R. S. § 176; Mar. 3, 1883, c. 128, § 1, 22 Stat. 553.)

45. Officers, clerks, and employees.—No civil officer, clerk, agent, draughtsman, copyist, messenger, assistant messenger, mechanic, engineer, watchman, laborer, or other employee shall be employed in any of the executive departments, or subordinate bureaus or offices thereof at the seat of government, except as provided by section 43 of this title. (Aug. 15, 1876, c. 287, § 5, 19 Stat. 169; Aug. 5, 1882, c. 389, § 4, 22 Stat. 255; Mar. 4, 1923, c. 265, 42 Stat. 1488.)

46. Payment for services from appropriations for contingent expenses or for specific or general purposes.—No civil officer, clerk, draughtsman, copyist, messenger, assistant messenger, mechanic, watchman, laborer, or other employee shall be employed at the seat of government in any executive department or subordinate bureau or office thereof or be paid from any appropriation made for contingent expenses, or for any specific or general purpose, unless such employment is authorized and payment therefor provided in the law granting the appropriation, and then only for services actually rendered in connection with and for the purposes of the appropriation from which payment is made, and at the rate of compensation provided for in chapter 13 of this title. (Aug. 5, 1882, c. 389, § 4, 22 Stat. 255; Mar. 4, 1923, c. 265, 42 Stat. 1488.)

47. Penalty for violations of sections 45 and 46 of this title.—Any person violating the provisions of sections 45 and 46 of this title shall be summarily removed from office, and may also upon conviction thereof be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year. (Aug. 23, 1912, c. 350, § 5, 37 Stat. 414.)

48. Legal assistance in examination of witnesses.—Whenever any head of a department or bureau having made application pursuant to section 94 of this title, for a subpœna to procure the attendance of a witness to be examined, is of opinion that the interests of the United States require the attendance of counsel at the examination, or require legal investigation of any claim pending in his department or bureau, he shall give notice thereof to the Attorney General and of all facts necessary to enable the Attorney General to furnish proper professional service in attending such examination, or making such investigation, and it shall be the duty of the Attorney General to provide for such service. (R. S. § 187.)

49. Employment of attorneys or counsel.—No head of a department shall employ attorneys or counsel at the expense of the United States; but when in need of counsel or advice, shall call upon the Department of Justice, the officers of which shall attend to the same. (R. S. § 189.)

50. Disposition of moneys accruing from lapsed salaries or unused appropriations for salaries.—All moneys accruing from lapsed salaries, or from unused appropriations for salaries, shall be covered into the Treasury. Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be summarily removed from office, and may also upon conviction thereof be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year. (Aug. 5, 1992, c. 389, § 4, 22 Stat. 255; Aug. 23, 1912, c. 350, § 5, 37 Stat. 414.)

51. Extra compensation to clerks.—No money shall be paid to any clerk employed in any department at an annual salary, as compensation for extra services, unless expressly authorized by law. (R. S. § 170.)

52. Unauthorized office, no salary for.—No money shall be paid from the Treasury to any person acting or assuming to act as an officer, civil, military, or naval, as salary, in any office when the office is not authorized by some previously existing law, unless such office is subsequently sanctioned by law. (R. S. § 1760.)

53. Detective agency employees not to be employed.—No employee of the Pinkerton Detective Agency, or similar agency, shall be employed in any Government service or by any officer of the District of Columbia. (Mar. 3, 1893, c. 208, § 1, 27 Stat. 591.)

54. Publicity experts not to be employed without specific appropriation.—No money appropriated by any act shall be used for the compensation of any publicity expert unless specifically appropriated for that purpose. (Oct. 22, 1913, c. 32, 38 Stat. 212.)

55. Experts; compensated without specific provision for.—Except as otherwise provided in section 53 of Title 31, no part of any money appropriaetd in any Act shall be used for compensation or payment of expenses of accountants or other experts inaugurating new or changing old methods of transacting the business of the United States or the District of Columbia, unless authority for employment of such services or payment of such expenses is stated in specific terms in the Act making provision therefor and the rate of compensation for such services or expenses is specifically fixed therein, or be used for compensation of or expenses for persons, aiding or assisting such accountants or other experts, unless the rate of compensation of or expenses for such assistants is fixed by officers or employees of the United States or District of Columbia having authority to do so, and such rates of compensation or expenses so fixed shall be paid only to the person so employed. (Apr. 6, 1914, c. 52, § 5, 38 Stat. 335.)

56. Salaries to certain recess appointees.—No money shall be paid from the Treasury, as salary, to any person appointed during the recess of the Senate, to fill a vacancy in any existing office, if the vacancy existed while the Senate was in session and was by law required to be filled by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, until such appointee has been confirmed by the Senate. The provisions of this section shall not apply to any person appointed as an original member of the Board of Tax Appeals, if such appointment was made prior to December 1, 1924. (R. S. § 1761; June 7, 1924, c. 377, 43 Stat. 669.)

57. Apportionment of compensation.—All officers, agents, and employees of the United States, serving for a less period than a year, shall not be paid for the entire year, but shall be allowed in no case a greater than a pro rata of the maximum compensation of such officers respectively for the time only which they actually serve, whether the same be under one or more appointments, or before or after confirmation. And no such officer, agent, or employee shall, in any case, receive for his services, either as fees, salary, fines, penalties, forfeitures, or otherwise, for the time he may be in service, beyond the maximum pro rata rate, provided by law. This section shall be applied and enforced in regard to all officers, agents, and employees of the United States whomsoever, as well as those whose compensation is determined by a commission on disbursements, not to exceed an annual maximum, as those paid by salary or otherwise. (R. S. § 2687.)

58. Double salaries.—Unless otherwise specifically authorized by law, no money appropriated by any act shall be available for payment to any person receiving more than one salary when the combined amount of said salaries exceeds the sum of $2,000 per annum. (R. S. § 1763; May 10, 1916, c. 117, § 6, 39 Stat. 120; Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 582.)

59. Same; exceptions; retired officers and enlisted men of Army, Navy, Marine Corps, or Coast Guard, or officers and enlisted men of militia.—Section 58 of this title shall not apply to retired officers or enlisted men of the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, or Coast Guard, or to officers and enlisted men of the Organized Militia and Naval Militia in the several States, Territories, and the District of Columbia. (May 10, 1916, c. 117, § 6, 39 Stat. 120; Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 582.)

60. Same; exceptions; employees of Library of Congress.—No additional compensation paid to employees of the Library of Congress who perform special functions for the performance of which funds have been entrusted to the Library of Congress Trust Fund Board or the Librarian of Congress, or in connection with cooperative undertakings, in which the Library of Congress is engaged, shall be construed as a double salary under the provisions of section 58 of this title. (Mar. 3, 1925, c. 423, § 6, 43 Stat. 1108.)

61. Same; school teachers and employees in District of Columbia.—Section 58 of this title shall not apply to teachers of the public schools of the District of Columbia when employed by any of the executive departments or independent establishments of the United States Government; nor to teachers in the public schools of the District of Columbia who are also employed as teachers of night schools and vocation schools; nor to employees of the school garden department of the public schools of the District of Columbia; nor to employees of the community center department of the public schools of the District of Columbia. (Oct. 6, 1917, c. 79, § 9, 40 Stat. 384; July 8, 1918, c. 139, § 1, 40 Stat. 823; June 5, 1920, c. 253, § 1, 41 Stat. 1017.)

62. Holding other lucrative office.—No person who holds an office the salary or annual compensation attached to which amounts to the sum of two thousand five hundred dollars shall be appointed to or hold any other office to which compensation is attached unless specially authorized thereto by law; but this shall not apply to retired officers of the Army or Navy whenever they may be elected to public office or whenever the President shall appoint them to office by and with the advice and consent of the Senate. Retired enlisted men of the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, or Coast Guard retired for any cause, and retired officers of the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, or Coast Guard who have been retired for injuries received in battle or for injuries or incapacity incurred in line of duty shall not, within the meaning of this section, be construed to hold or to have held an office during such retirement. (July 31, 1894, c. 174, § 2, 28 Stat. 205; May 31, 1924, c. 214, 43 Stat. 245.)

63. Same; retired officers of Army or Navy employed on river and harbor improvements.—Section 62 of this title shall not be so construed as to prevent the employment of any retired officer of the Army or Navy to do work under the direction of the Chief of Engineers of the United States Army in connection with the improvement of rivers and harbors of the United States, or the payment by the proper officer of the Treasury of any amounts agreed upon as compensation for such employment. (June 3, 1896, c. 314, § 7, 29 Stat. 235.)

64. Same; retired officers of Army, etc., in Bureau of the Budget.—Section 62 of this title shall not be construed as having application to retired officers of the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, or Coast Guard who may be appointed to the offices created by section 16 of Title 31, within the meaning of precluding payment to such officers of the difference in pay prescribed for such offices and their retired pay. (Feb. 17, 1922, c. 55, 42 Stat. 373.)

65. Same; employees of Library of Congress.—Employees of the Library of Congress who perform special functions for the performance of which funds have been entrusted to the Library of Congress Trust Fund Board or the Librarian of Congress, or in connection with cooperative undertakings, in which the Library of Congress is engaged, shall not be subject to the provisions of section 62 of this title. (Mar. 3, 1925, c. 423, § 6, 43 Stat. 1108.)

66. Receiving salary from source other than United States.—No Government official or employee shall receive any salary in connection with his services as such an official or employee from any source other than the Government of the United States, except as may be contributed out of the treasury of any State, county, or municipality, and no person, association, or corporation shall make any contribution to, or in any way supplement the salary of, any Government official or employee for the services performed by him for the Government of the United States. Any person violating any of the terms of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than $1,000 or imprisonment for not less than six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment as the court may determine. (Mar. 3, 1917, c. 163, § 1, 39 Stat. 1106.)

67. Same; employees of Department of Agriculture and Forest Service.—Officials and employees of the Department of Agriculture engaged in activities of the Department of Agriculture described in section 563 of this title, and paid in whole or in part out of funds contributed as provided in said section 563, and the persons, corporations, or associations making contributions as provided in said section 563 shall not be subject to the provisions of section 66 of this title; nor shall any official or employee engaged in the cooperative activities of the Forest Service, or the persons, corporations, or associations contributing to such activities be subject to said section 66. (July 24, 1919, c. 26, 41 Stat. 270.)

68. Same; immigration officials.—Nothing in section 66 of this title shall prevent receiving reimbursements for services of immigration officials incident to the inspection of aliens in foreign contiguous territory, and such reimbursements shall be credited to the appropriation, "Expenses of regulating immigration." (Mar. 4, 1921, c. 161, § 1, 41 Stat. 1424.)

69. Extra services.—No allowance or compensation shall be made to any officer or clerk, by reason of the discharge of duties which belong to any other officer or clerk in the same or any other department; and no allowance or compensation shall be made for any extra services whatever, which any officer or clerk may be required to perform, unless expressly authorized by law. (R. S. § 1764.)

70. Extra allowances.—No officer in any branch of the public service, or any other person whose salary, pay, or emoluments are fixed by law or regulations, shall receive any additional pay, extra allowance, or compensation, in any form whatever, for the disbursement of public money, or for any other service or duty whatever, unless the same is authorized by law, and the appropriation therefor explicitly states that it is for such additional pay, extra allowance, or compensation. (R. S. § 1765.)

71. Extra compensation or perquisites.—No civil officer of the Government shall receive any compensation or perquisites, directly or indirectly, from the Treasury or property of the United States beyond his salary or compensation allowed by law. This section shall not be construed to prevent the employment and payment by the Department of Justice of district attorneys as allowed by law for the performance of services not covered by their salaries or fees. (June 20, 1874, c. 328, § 3, 18 Stat. 109.)

72. Additional compensation to persons employed under general or lump-sum appropriation.—It shall not be lawful to pay to any person, employed in the service of the United States under any general or lump-sum appropriation, any sum additional to the regular compensation received for or attached to any employment held prior to an appointment or designation as acting for or instead of an occupant of any other office or employment. This section shall not be construed as prohibiting regular and permanent appointments by promotion from lower to higher grades of employments. (Aug. 1, 1914, c. 223, § 12, 38 Stat. 680.)

73. Actual traveling expenses only allowed.—Except as otherwise provided by law, only actual traveling expenses shall be allowed to any person holding employment or appointment under the United States, except marshals, district attorneys, and clerks of the courts of the United States and their deputies. All allowances for mileages and transportation in excess of the amount actually paid, except as above excepted, are declared illegal; and no credit shall be allowed to any of the disbursing officers of the United States for payment or allowances in violation of this section. (Mar. 3, 1875, c. 133, § 1, 18 Stat. 452; June 30, 1876, c. 159, 19 Stat. 65; June 10, 1922, c. 212, § 12, 42 Stat. 631.)

74. Expenses for subsistence; traveling on duty.—Unless otherwise expressly provided by law, no officer or employee of the United States shall be allowed or paid any sum in excess of expenses actually incurred for subsistence while traveling on duty outside of the District of Columbia and away from his designated post of duty, nor any sum for such expenses actually incurred in excess of $5 per day; nor shall any allowance or reimbursement for subsistence be paid to any officer or employee in any branch of the public service of the United States in the District of Columbia unless absent from his designated post of duty outside of the District of Columbia, and then only for the period of time actually engaged in the discharge of official duties. (Apr. 6, 1914, c. 52, § 1, 38 Stat. 318.)

75. Same; engaged in field work or traveling on official business.—Except as otherwise expressly provided by law, the heads of executive departments and other Government establishments are authorized to prescribe per diem rates of allowance not exceeding $4 in lieu of subsistence to persons engaged in field work or traveling on official business outside of the District of Columbia and away from their designated posts of duty when not otherwise fixed by law. The annual estimates of appropriations from which per diem allowances are to be paid shall specifically state the rates of such allowances. (Aug. 1, 1914, c. 223, § 13, 38 Stat. 680.)

76. Free tuition in schools for children of employees of United States.—The children of employees of the United States stationed outside of the District of Columbia shall be admitted to the public schools without payment of tuition. (June 29, 1922, c. 249, § 1, 42 Stat. 689; Feb. 28, 1923, c. 148, § 1, 42 Stat. 1347; June 7, 1924, c. 302, § 1, 43 Stat. 558; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 477, § 1, 43 Stat. 1233.)

77. Restrictions on payment of expenses of carriages or vehicles for personal or official use.—No part of any money appropriated by any Act shall be used for purchasing, maintaining, driving, or operating any carriage or vehicle (other than those for the use of the President of the United States, the heads of the executive departments, and the Secretary to the President, and other than those used for transportation of property belonging to or in the custody of the United States), for the personal or official use of any officer or employee of any of the executive departments or other Government establishments at Washington, District of Columbia, unless the same shall be specifically authorized by law or provided for in terms by appropriation of money, and all such carriages and vehicles so procured and used for official purposes shall have conspicuously painted thereon at all times the full name of the executive department or other branch of the public service to which the same belong and in the service of which the same are used. (Mar. 18, 1904, c. 716, § 3, 33 Stat. 142; Feb. 3, 1905, c. 297, § 4, 33 Stat. 687.)

78. Restrictions on payments for purchase or operation of passenger-carrying vehicles.—No appropriation made in any Act shall be available for the purchase of any motor-propelled or horse-drawn passenger-carrying vehicle for the service of any of the executive departments or other Government establishments, or any branch of the Government service, unless specific authority is given therefor. There shall not be expended out of any appropriation made by Congress any sum for purchase, maintenance, repair, or operation of motor-propelled or horse-drawn passenger-carrying vehicles for any branch of the public service of the United States unless the same is specifically authorized by law. In the estimates for each fiscal year there shall be submitted in detail estimates for such necessary appropriations as are intended to be used for purchase, maintenance, repair, or operation of all motor-propelled or horse-drawn passenger-carrying vehicles, specifying the sums required, the public purposes for which said vehicles are intended, and the officials or employees by whom the same are to be used. (July 16, 1914, c. 141, § 5, 38 Stat. 508.)

79. Same; river and harbor improvements.—Section 78 of this title shall not be construed as applying to the purchase, maintenance, and repair of motor boats, trucks, and other vehicles needed in carrying out the various projects adopted by Congress for the improvement, preservation, and protection of rivers and harbors. (Mar. 4, 1915, c. 142, § 10, 38 Stat. 1054.)

80. Same; field work of Department of Agriculture.—Nothing in section 78 of this title shall be construed to apply to the hire of motor-propelled and horse-drawn passenger-carrying vehicles and motor boats necessary in the field work of the Department of Agriculture, or to the maintenance, repair, or operation of vehicles so hired. (Aug. 11, 1916, c. 313, 39 Stat. 491.)

81. Same; vehicles transferred by Secretary of War to Secretary of Agriculture.—Section 78 of this title shall not apply to vehicles transferred by the Secretary of War to the Department of Agriculture, under the provisions of section 5 of Title 23 and section 561 of Title 16. (Mar. 15, 1920, c. 100, § 6, 41 Stat. 531.)

82. Officers in arrears.—No money shall be paid to any person for his compensation who is in arrears to the United States, until he has accounted for and paid into the Treasury all sums for which he may be liable. In all cases where the pay or salary of any person is withheld in pursuance of this section, the General Accounting Office, if required to do so by the party, his agent or attorney, shall report forthwith to the Solicitor of the Treasury the balance due; and the solicitor shall, within sixty days thereafter, order suit to be commenced against such delinquent and his sureties. (R. S. § 1766; June 10, 1921, c. 18, 42 Stat. 23.)

83. Restrictions on paying fees or dues in societies.—No money appropriated by any Act shall be expended for membership fees or dues of any officer or employee of the United States or of the District of Columbia in any society or association or for expenses of attendance of any person at any meeting or convention of members of any society or association, unless such fees, dues, or expenses are authorized to be paid by specific appropriations for such purposes or are provided for in express terms in some general appropriation. This section shall not be so construed as to prohibit the payment from the appropriations for the Department of Agriculture of expenses incidental to the delivery of lectures, the giving of instruction, or the acquiring of information at meetings by its employees on subjects relating to the work of the department authorized by law. (June 26, 1912, c. 182, § 8, 37 Stat. 184; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 145, 37 Stat. 854.)

84. Annual or monthly compensation.—Where the compensation of any person in the service of the United States is annual or monthly the following rules for division of time and computation of pay for services rendered are established: Annual compensation shall be divided into twelve equal installments, one of which shall be the pay for each calendar month; and in making payments for a fractional part of a month one-thirtieth of one of such installments, or of a monthly compensation, shall be the daily rate of pay. For the purpose of computing such compensation and for computing time for services rendered during a fractional part of a month in connection with annual or monthly compensation, each and every month shall be held to consist of thirty days, without regard to the actual number of days in any calendar month, thus excluding the 31st of any calendar month from the computation and treating February as if it actually had thirty days. Any person entering the service of the United States during a thirty-one day month and serving until the end thereof shall be entitled to pay for that month from the date of entry to the 30th day of said month, both days inclusive; and any person entering said service during the month of February and serving until the end thereof shall be entitled to one month's pay, less as many thirtieths thereof as there were days elapsed prior to date of entry. For one day's unauthorized absence on the 31st day of any calendar month one day's pay shall be forfeited. (June 30, 1906, c. 3914, § 6, 34 Stat. 763.)

85. Compensation for clerks or secretaries of retired officials.—Except as provided by chapter 14 of this title, no allowance or compensation for clerks or secretaries of officials of the United States retired from active service shall be authorized. (July 1, 1898, c. 546, § 1, 30 Stat. 644.)

86. Holidays; for per diem employees.—The employees of the Navy Yard, Government Printing Office, Bureau of Printing and Engraving, and all other per diem employees of the Government on duty at Washington, or elsewhere in the United States, shall be allowed the following holidays, to wit: The 1st day of January, the 22d day of February, the day of each year which is celebrated as "Memorial" or "Decoration Day," the 4th day of July, the 25th day of December, and such days as may be designated by the President as days for national thanksgiving, and shall receive the same pay as on other days. (Jan. 6, 1885, No. 5, 23 Stat. 516; Feb. 23, 1887, No. 6, 24 Stat. 644.)

87. Same; Labor Day.—The first Monday of September in each year, being the day celebrated and known as Labor's Holiday, is made a legal public holiday, to all intents and purposes, in the same manner as Christmas, the 1st day of January, the 22d day of February, the 30th day of May, and the 4th day of July are now made by law public holidays. (June 28, 1894, c. 118, 28 Stat. 96.)

88. Removal of office.—Whenever any public office is removed by reason of sickness which may prevail in the town or city where it is located, a particular account of the cost of such removal shall be laid before Congress. (R. S. § 1776.)

89. Preservation of copies of Statutes at Large.—The various officers of the United States, to whom, in virtue of their offices and for the uses thereof, copies of the United States Statutes at Large have been or may be distributed at the public expense, by authority of law, shall preserve such copies, and deliver them to their successors respectively as a part of the property appertaining to the office. A printed copy of this section shall be inserted in each volume of the statutes distributed to any such officers. (R. S. § 1777.)

90. Statutes furnished judges to remain public property.—All statutes furnished by the United States to district judges, district attorneys, and clerks of the United States courts under this or any other law, shall not become the property of these officers, but on the expiration of their official term shall be by them turned over and delivered to their respective successors in office. (Aug. 7, 1882, c. 433, § 1, 22 Stat. 336.)

91. Evidence furnished by departments in suits in Court of Claims.—In all suits brought against the United States in the Court of Claims founded upon any contract, agreement, or transaction with any department, or any bureau, officer, or agent of a department, or where the matter or thing on which the claim is based has been passed upon and decided by any department, bureau, or officer authorized to adjust it, the Attorney General shall transmit to such department, bureau, or officer, a printed copy of the petition filed by the claimant, with a request that the department, bureau, or officer, shall furnish to the Attorney General all facts, circumstances, and evidence touching the claim in the possession or knowledge of the department, bureau, or officer. Such department, bureau, or officer shall, without delay, and within a reasonable time, furnish the Attorney General with a full statement, in writing, of all such facts, information, and proofs. The statement shall contain a reference to or description of all such official documents or papers, if any, as may furnish proof of facts referred to in it, or may be necessary and proper for the defense of the United States against the claim, mentioning the department, office, or place where the same is kept or may be procured. If the claim has been passed upon and decided by the department, bureau, or officer, the statement shall succinctly state the reasons and principles upon which such decision was based. In all cases where such decision was founded upon any Act of Congress, or upon any section or clause of such Act, the same shall be cited specifically; and if any previous interpretation or construction has been given to such Act, section, or clause by the department, bureau, or officer, the same shall be set forth succinctly in the statement, and a copy of the opinion filed, if any, shall be annexed to it. Where any decision in the case has been based upon any regulation of a department, or where such regulation has, in the opinion of the department, bureau, or officer transmitting such statement, any bearing upon the claim in suit, the same shall be distinctly quoted at length in the statement. But where more than one case, or a class of cases, is pending, the defense to which rests upon the same facts, circumstances, and proofs, the department, bureau, or officer shall only be required to certify and transmit one statement of the same, and such statement shall be held to apply to all such cases, as if made out, certified, and transmitted in each case respectively. (R. S. § 188.)

92. Taking oaths or acknowledgments.—In all cases in which, under the laws of the United States, oaths or acknowledgments might be taken or made on June 22, 1874, before any justice of the peace of any State or Territory, or in the District of Columbia, they may be also taken or made by or before any notary public duly appointed in any State, District, or Territory, or any of the United States commissioners, and, when certified under the hand and official seal of such notary or commissioner, shall have the same force and effect as if taken or made by or before such justice of the peace. (R. S. § 1778.)

93. Oaths to witnesses.—Any officer or clerk of any of the departments lawfully detailed to investigate frauds on, or attempts to defraud, the Government, or any irregularity or misconduct of any officer or agent of the United States, and any officer of the Army, Navy, Marine Corps or Coast Guard, detailed to conduct an investigation, and the recorder, and if there be none the presiding officer, of any military, naval, or Coast Guard board appointed for such purpose, shall have authority to administer an oath to any witness attending to testify or depose in the course of such investigation. (R. S. § 183; Mar. 2, 1901, c. 809, § 3, 31 Stat. 951; Feb. 13, 1911, c. 43, 36 Stat. 898; Jan. 28, 1915, c. 20, § 1, 38 Stat. 800.)

94. Subpœnas to witnesses.—Any head of a department or bureau in which a claim against the United States is properly pending may apply to any judge or clerk of any court of the United States, in any State, District, or Territory, to issue a subpœna for a witness being within the jurisdiction of such court, to appear at a time and place in the subpœna stated, before any officer authorized to take depositions to be used in the courts of the United States, there to give full and true answers to such written interrogatories and cross-interrogatories as may be submitted with the application, or to be orally examined and cross-examined upon the subject of such claim. (R. S. § 184.)

95. Witnesses' fees.—Witnesses subpœnaed pursuant to the preceding section shall be allowed the same compensation as is allowed witnesses in the courts of the United States. (R. S. § 185.)

96. Compelling testimony.—If any witness, after being duly served with such subpœna, neglects or refuses to appear, or, appearing, refuses to testify, the judge of the district in which the subpœna issued may proceed, upon proper process, to enforce obedience to the subpœna, or to punish the disobedience, in like manner as any court of the United States may do in case of process of subpœna ad testificandum issued by such court. (R. S. § 186.)

97. Oaths to expense accounts.—Chief clerks of the various executive departments and bureaus, or clerks designated by them for the purpose, and chiefs of field parties, are required, empowered, and authorized, when requested, to administer oaths, required by law or otherwise, to accounts for travel or other expenses against the United States, with like force and effect as officers having a seal; for such services when so rendered, or when rendered on demand by notaries public, who at the time are also salaried officers or employees of the United States, no charge shall be made; and no fee or money paid for the services herein described shall be paid or reimbursed by the United States. (Aug. 24, 1912, c. 355, § 8, 37 Stat. 487.)

98. Civil pension roll prohibited.—Except as provided in chapter 14 of this title, the establishment of an honorable service roll, or the exemption of any of the officers, clerks, and persons in the public service from the existing laws respecting employment in such service, is prohibited. (Feb. 24, 1899, c. 187, § 4, 30 Stat. 890.)

99. Ex-officers or employees not to prosecute claims in departments.—It shall not be lawful for any person appointed as an officer, clerk, or employee in any of the departments, to act as counsel, attorney, or agent for prosecuting any claim against the United States which was pending in either of said departments while he was such officer, clerk, or employee, nor in any manner, nor by any means, to aid in the prosecution of any such claim, within two years next after he shall have ceased to be such officer, clerk, or employee. (R. S. § 190.)

100. Prosecution of claims for supplies for Military Establishment.—It shall be unlawful for any person who, as a commissioned officer of the Army, or officer or employee of the United States, has at any time since April 6, 1917, been employed in any bureau of the Government and in such employment been engaged on behalf of the United States in procuring or assisting to procure supplies for the Military Establishment, or who has been engaged in the settlement or adjustment of contracts or agreements for the procurement of supplies for the Military Establishment, within two years next after his discharge or other separation from the service of the Government, to solicit employment in the presentation or to aid or assist for compensation in the prosecution of claims against the United States arising out of any contracts or agreements for the procurement of supplies for said bureau, which were pending or entered into while the said officer or employee was associated therewith. A violation of this provision of this chapter shall be punished by a fine of not more than $10,000 or imprisonment for not more than one year, or both. (July 11, 1919, c. 8, subchapter IV, 41 Stat. 131.)

101. Advertising practice before departments or offices of Government.—It shall be unlawful for any person, firm, or corporation practicing before any department or office of the Government to use the name of any Member of either House of Congress or of any officer of the Government in advertising the said business. (Apr. 27, 1916, c. 89, § 1, 39 Stat. 54.)

102. Expenditures for newspapers.—The amount expended in any one year for newspapers, for any department, except the Department of State, including all the bureaus and offices connected therewith, shall not exceed $100, except where otherwise specifically authorized by law. No executive officer, other than the heads of departments, shall apply more than $30, annually, out of the contingent fund under his control, to pay for newspapers, pamphlets, periodicals, or other books or prints not necessary for the business of his office. (R. S. §§ 192, 1779; June 22, 1906, c. 3514, § 7, 34 Stat. 449.)

103. Expenditures for transportation of remains of deceased employees.—The heads of departments shall not authorize any expenditure in connection with transportation of remains of deceased employees, except when otherwise specifically provided by law. (June 7, 1897, c. 3, § 1, 30 Stat. 86.)

104. Annual reports of expenditure of contingent funds.—The head of each department, and any bureau of the Government, shall make a report to Congress, at the beginning of each regular session, giving a detailed statement of the manner in which the contingent fund for his department, and for the bureaus and offices therein, has been expended, giving the names of every person to whom any portion thereof has been paid; and if for anything furnished, the quantity and price; and if for any service rendered, the nature of such service, and the time employed, and the particular occasion or cause, in brief, that rendered such service necessary; and the amount of all former appropriations in each case on hand, either in the Treasury or in the hands of any disbursing officer or agent. He shall require of the disbursing officers, acting under his direction and authority, the return of precise and analytical statements and receipts for all the moneys which may have been from time to time during the next preceding year expended by them, and shall communicate the results of such returns and the sums total, annually, to Congress. (R. S. § 193; Mar. 3, 1877, c. 102, § 1, 19 Stat. 306; May 29, 1920, c. 214, § 1, 41 Stat. 654.)

105. Reports of traveling expenses of officers and employees at Washington.—It shall be the duty of the head of each executive department and other Government establishment at Washington to submit to Congress at the beginning of each regular session a statement showing in detail what officers or employees (other than special agents, inspectors, or employees, who in the discharge of their regular duties are required to constantly travel) of such executive department or other Government establishment have traveled on official business from Washington to points outside of the District of Columbia during the preceding fiscal year, giving in each case the full title of the official or employee, the destination or destinations of such travel, the business or work on account of which the same was made, and the total expense to the United States charged in each case. (May 22, 1908, c. 186, § 4, 35 Stat. 244.)

106. Time of making annual reports.—Except where a different time is expressly prescribed by law, the various annual reports required to be submitted to Congress by the heads of departments shall be made at the commencement of each regular session, and shall embrace the transactions of the preceding year. (R. S. § 195.)

107. Department reports; furnishing to printer.—The head of each department, except the Department of Justice, shall furnish to the Public Printer copies of the documents usually accompanying his annual report. (R. S. § 196.)

108. Copy for annual reports and accompanying documents.—Appropriations made for printing and binding shall not be used for any annual report or the accompanying documents unless the copy therefor is furnished to the Public Printer in the following manner: Copies of the documents accompanying such annual reports on or before the 15th day of October of each year; copies of the annual reports on or before the 15th day of November of each year; complete revised proofs of the accompanying documents and the annual reports on the 10th and 20th days of November of each year, respectively. All of said annual reports and accompanying documents shall be printed, made public, and available for distribution not later than within the first five days after the assembling of each regular session of Congress. The provisions of this section shall not apply to the annual reports of the Smithsonian Institution, the Commissioner of Patents or the Comptroller of the Currency. (July 1, 1916, c. 209, § 3, 39 Stat. 336.)

109. Inventories of property.—The Secretary of State, the Secretary of the Treasury, the Secretary of the Interior, the Secretary of War, the Secretary of the Navy, the Postmaster General, the Attorney General, the Secretary of Agriculture, the Secretary of Commerce, and the Secretary of Labor shall keep, in proper books, a complete inventory of all the property belonging to the United States in the buildings, rooms, offices, and grounds occupied by them, respectively, and under their charge, adding thereto, from time to time, an account of such property as may be procured subsequently to the taking of such inventory, as well as an account of the sale or other disposition of any of such property, except supplies of stationery and fuel in the public offices and books, pamphlets, and papers in the Library of Congress. (R. S. § 197; Feb. 27, 1877, c. 69, § 1, 19 Stat. 241; Feb. 9, 1889, c. 122, § 1, 25, Stat. 659; Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, § 1, 32 Stat. 825; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, § 1, 37 Stat. 736.)

110. Transfer of miscellaneous books to District Public Library.—Any books of a miscellaneous character no longer required for the use of any executive department, or bureau, or commission of the Government, and not deemed an advisable addition to the Library of Congress, shall, if appropriate to the uses of the Free Public Library of the District of Columbia, be turned over to that library for general use as a part thereof. (Feb. 25, 1903, c. 755, § 1, 32 Stat. 865.)

111. Custody of files and records of war agencies.—Except as otherwise provided by law the President is authorized to transfer to the custody and care of such of the departments or independent establishments as he may determine the files and records of the agencies created for the period of the World War upon the discontinuance of such activities. (July 19, 1919, c. 24, § 4, 41 Stat. 233.)

112. Disposition of useless papers.—Except as otherwise provided by law, whenever there shall be in any one of the executive departments of the Government, or in the various public buildings under the control of such departments, an accumulation of files of papers, which are not needed or useful in the transaction of the current business of such department and have no permanent value or historical interest, it shall be the duty of the head of such department to submit to Congress a report of that fact, accompanied by a concise statement of the condition and character of such papers.

Upon the submission of such report, it shall be the duty of the presiding officer of the Senate to appoint two Senators, and of the Speaker of the House of Representatives to appoint two Representatives, and the Senators and Representatives so appointed shall constitute a joint committee, to which shall be referred such report, with the accompanying statement of the condition and character of such papers, and such joint committee shall meet and examine such report and statement and the papers therein described, and submit to the Senate and House, respectively, a report of such examination and their recommendation.

If such joint committee report that such files of papers, or any part thereof are not needed or useful in the transaction of the current business of such department, and have no permanent value or historical interest, then it shall be the duty of such head of the department to sell as waste paper, or otherwise dispose of such files of papers upon the best obtainable terms after due publication of notice inviting proposals therefor, and receive and pay the proceeds thereof into the Treasury of the United States, and make report thereof to Congress. (Mar. 3, 1881, c. 130, § 1, 21 Stat. 412; Aug. 5, 1882, c. 389, § 1, 22 Stat. 228; Feb. 16, 1889, c. 171, 25 Stat. 672; Mar. 2, 1895, c. 189, § 1, 28 Stat. 933.)

113. Prohibition of contributions or presents to superiors.—No officer, clerk, or employee in the United States Government employ shall at any time solicit contributions from other officers, clerks, or employees in the Government service for a gift or present to those in a superior official position; nor shall any such officials or clerical superiors receive any gift or present offered or presented to them as a contribution from persons in Government employ receiving a less salary than themselves; nor shall any officer or clerk make any donation as a gift or present to any official superior. Every person who violates this section shall be summarily discharged from the Government employ. (R. S. § 1784.)

114. Foreign decorations.—Except as otherwise provided in chapter 33 of Title 10, no decoration, or other thing, the acceptance of which may be authorized by consent of Congress, by any officer of the United States, from any foreign government, shall be publicly shown or exposed upon the person of the officer so receiving the same. (Jan. 31, 1881, c. 32, § 2, 21 Stat. 604.)

115. Same; delivery through State Department.—Any present, decoration, or other thing, which shall be conferred or presented by any foreign government to any officer of the United States, civil, naval, or military, shall be tendered through the Department of State, and not to the individual in person, but such present, decoration, or other thing shall not be delivered by the Department of State unless so authorized by act of Congress. (Jan. 31, 1881, c. 32, § 3, 21 Stat. 604.)

Cross reference: See also section 1423 of Title 10.

116. Medals for services; duplicates on loss or destruction.—In any case where the President of the United States has, under any Act or resolution of Congress, caused any medal to be made and presented to any officer or person in the United States on account of distinguished or meritorious services, on a proper showing made by such person to the satisfaction of the President that such medal has been lost or destroyed through no fault of the beneficiary, and that diligent search has been made therefor, the President is authorized to cause to be prepared and delivered to such person a duplicate of such medal, the cost of which shall be paid out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated. (Apr. 15, 1904, No. 23, 33 Stat. 588.)

117. United States Geographic Board; payment of expenditures.—All expenditures of United States Geographic Board shall be paid upon vouchers approved by it and signed by its secretary, who shall act as its disbursing agent without bond. (Feb. 13, 1923, c. 72, 42 Stat. 1241.)

168. Same; copies for States.

Section 151. Establishment of department.—There shall be at the seat of government an executive department to be known as the Department of State, and a Secretary of State, who shall be the head thereof. (R. S. § 199.)

Cross reference: Salary of Secretary; see section 3 of this title.

152. Undersecretary of State and Assistant Secretaries of State.—There shall be in the Department of State an Undersecretary of State and four Assistant Secretaries of State, each of whom shall be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate. The Assistant Secretaries of State shall be without numerical distinction of rank. (R. S. § 200; June 20, 1874, c. 328, § 1, 18 Stat. 90; Mar. 3, 1917, c. 163, § 1, 39 Stat. 1082; Mar. 1, 1919, c. 86, § 1, 40 Stat. 1224; Jan. 3, 1923, c. 21, 42 Stat. 1068; May 24, 1924, c. 182, § 22, 43 Stat. 146.)

153. Chief of Bureau of Accounts as disbursing clerk.—The Chief of the Bureau of Accounts may be appointed by the head of the department disbursing clerk of the Department of State. (Mar. 3, 1875, c. 129, § 1, 18 Stat. 349.)

154. Distribution of duties of officers, clerks, and employees.—The Secretary of State may prescribe duties for the Undersecretary of State, the Assistant Secretaries, and the solicitor, not interfering with his duties as an officer of the Department of Justice, and the clerks of bureaus, as well as for all the other employees in the department, and may make changes and transfers therein when, in his judgment, it becomes necessary. (June 20, 1874, c. 328, § 1, 18 Stat. 90.)

155. Personal services other than those provided for.—There shall not be employed in the Department of State or in connection with said department in the District of Columbia any personal services other than those which shall be appropriated for. (June 22, 1906, c. 3514, § 1, 34 Stat. 402; Mar. 4, 1923, c. 265, 42 Stat. 1488.)

156. Management of foreign affairs.—The Secretary of State shall perform such duties as shall from time to time be enjoined on or intrusted to him by the President relative to correspondences, commissions, or instructions to or with public ministers or consuls from the United States, or to negotiations with public ministers from foreign states or princes, or to memorials or other applications from foreign public ministers or other foreigners, or to such other matters respecting foreign affairs as the President of the United States shall assign to the department, and he shall conduct the business of the department in such manner as the President shall direct. (R. S. § 202.)

157. Foreign trade relations.—Estimates for appropriations for defraying the necessary expenses incurred in connection with foreign trade relations which come within the jurisdiction of the Department of State, under tariff legislation and otherwise, and in the negotiation and preparation of treaties, arrangements, and agreements for the advancement of commercial and other interests of the United States, and for the maintenance of a division of far eastern affairs in the Department of State, including the payment of necessary employees, at the seat of government or elsewhere, to be expended under the direction of the Secretary of State, shall include in detail salaries for all persons to be employed and paid in the Department of State at Washington, District of Columbia. (Aug. 5, 1909, c. 7, 36 Stat. 119.)

158. Custody of seals and property.—The Secretary of State shall have the custody and charge of the seal of the Department of State, and of all the books, records, papers, furniture, fixtures, and other property which on June 22, 1874, remained in and appertained to the department, or thereafter acquired for it. (R. S. § 203.)

159. Promulgation of laws.—Whenever a bill, order, resolution or vote of the Senate and House of Representatives, having been approved by the President, or not having been returned by him with his objections, becomes a law or takes effect, it shall forthwith be received by the Secretary of State from the President; and whenever a bill, order, resolution or vote is returned by the President with his objections, and, on being reconsidered, is agreed to be passed, and is approved by two-thirds of both Houses of Congress, and thereby becomes a law or takes effect, it shall be received by the Secretary of State from the President of the Senate, or Speaker of the House of Representatives in whichsoever House it shall last have been so approved, and he shall carefully preserve the originals. (R. S. § 204; Dec. 28, 1874, c. 9, § 2, 18 Stat. 294.)

160. Amendments to Constitution.—Whenever official notice is received at the Department of State that any amendment proposed to the Constitution of the United States has been adopted, according to the provisions of the Constitution, the Secretary of State shall forthwith cause the amendment to be published, with his certificate, specifying the States by which the same may have been adopted, and that the same has become valid, to all intents and purposes, as a part of the Constitution of the United States. (R. S. § 205.)

161. State statutes to be procured.—The Secretary of State shall procure from time to time such of the statutes of the several States as may not be in his office. (R. S. § 206.)

162. Information as to work of Department of Commerce.—A person, to be designated by the Secretary of State, shall be appointed to formulate, under his direction, for the instruction of consular officers, the requests of the Secretary of Commerce; and to prepare from the dispatches of consular officers, for transmission to the Secretary of Commerce, such information as pertains to the work of the Department of Commerce; and such person shall have the rank and salary of a chief of bureau, and be furnished with such clerical assistants as may from time to time be authorized by law. (Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, § 11, 32 Stat. 830.)

163. Reports of information relating to commerce.—The Secretary of State shall annually lay before Congress:

First. A statement, in a compendious form, of all such changes and modifications in the commercial systems of other nations, whether by treaties, duties on imports and exports, or other regulations, as shall have been communicated to the department, including all commercial information contained in the official publications of other governments, which he shall deem sufficiently important.

Second. A synopsis of so much of the information which may have been communicated to him by diplomatic and consular officers during the preceding year as he may deem valuable for public information; specifying the names of any consuls or commercial agents who may have been remiss in transmitting commercial information.

Third. A full list of all consular officers.

Fourth. A report of any rates or tariffs of fees to be received by diplomatic or consular officers, which may have been prescribed by the President during the year preceding.

Fifth. A statement of such fees as may have been collected, accounted for, and reported by the various diplomatic and consular officers during the preceding year.

Sixth. A statement of the lists of passengers arriving in the United States from foreign places, returned to him quarterly by the collectors of customs.

Seventh. A statement of the names of any consular officers, not citizens of the United States, to whom salaries have been paid during the year preceding, together with the circumstances under which they were appointed. (R. S. § 208.)

164. Statement of expenditures from contingent fund.—The annual statement of expenditures from the contingent fund required to be made by the Secretary of State, must include all the contingent expenses of foreign intercourse and of all the missions abroad, except such expenditures as are settled upon the certificate of the President. (R. S. § 209.)

165. Copies of Acts and treaties furnished to printer.—The Secretary of State shall furnish to the Public Printer a correct copy of every Act and joint resolution, as soon as possible after its approval by the President, or after it has become a law in accordance with the Constitution without such approval; also of every treaty between the United States and any foreign government as soon as possible after it has been duly ratified and has been proclaimed by the President; and also of every postal convention made between the Postmaster General, by and with the advice and consent of the President, on the part of the United States and foreign countries, as soon as possible after copies of such conventions have been transmitted to him by the Postmaster General. (R. S. § 210.)

166. Fees for copies of records.—For making out and authenticating copies of records in the Department of State, a fee of 10 cents for each sheet containing one hundred words shall be paid by the person requesting such copies, except where they are requested by an officer of the United States in a matter relating to his office. (R. S. § 213.)

167. Territorial papers; collection, etc., for States by chief of division of publications; clerical assistants.—The chief of division of publications of the Department of State (hereinafter referred to as the editor), under the direction of the Secretary of State, and upon the request of the governor of any State or of any organization duly authorized by him, is authorized and directed to have collected, edited, copied, and suitably arranged for publication, the official papers of the Territory from which such State was formed, on March 3, 1925, in the national archives, as listed in Parker's "Calendar of Papers in Washington Archives Relating to the Territories of the United States (to 1873)," being publication numbered 148 of the Carnegie Institution of Washington, together with such additional papers of like character that may be found. The heads of the several executive departments and independent establishments are directed to cooperate with the editor in such work by giving access to the records and by providing facilities for having them copied. The editor is authorized to employ such clerical assistants as may be necessary, and, under the direction of the Secretary of State and without regard to the Classification Act of 1923 and the civil service laws and regulations made thereunder, to engage the services of not more than five persons who are specially qualified for the editorial work necessary in arranging such Territorial papers for publication. For the salaries of such persons and assistants and all other expenses incurred in connection with such work, there is authorized to be appropriated the sum of $20,000 for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1926, and the same sum for each of the two succeeding fiscal years. (Mar. 3, 1925, c. 419, § 1, 43 Stat. 1104.)

168. Same; copies for States.—The Secretary of State shall, upon application, furnish without charge to the proper authorities of the several States for publication, a copy of such papers, or any part thereof, as arranged by the editor. (Mar. 3, 1925, c. 419, § 2, 43 Stat. 1104.)

Section 181. Establishment of department.—There shall be at the seat of government an executive department to be known as the Department of War, and a Secretary of War, who shall be the head thereof. (R. S. § 214.)

Cross reference: Salary of Secretary; see section 3 of this title.

182. Assistant Secretary of War.—There shall be in the Department of War an Assistant Secretary of War, who shall be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate. He shall receive a salary of $10,000 per annum, payable monthly. He shall perform such duties in the Department of War as shall be prescribed by the Secretary of War, or as may be required by law. (Mar. 5, 1890, c. 26, 26 Stat. 17; June 3, 1916, c. 134, § 5 [5a]; June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter 1, § 5, 41 Stat. 765; Feb. 12, 1925, c. 225, Title I, 43 Stat. 802.)

Cross reference: See also section 1193 of Title 10, ARMY.

183. Temporary performance of duties of Secretary of War.—The President may authorize and direct the commanding general of the Army or the chief of any military bureau of the War Department to perform the duties of the Secretary of War under the provisions of section 6 of this title, and section 576 of Title 10 shall not be held or taken to apply to the officer so designated by reason of his temporarily performing such duties. (Aug. 5, 1882, c. 389, § 1, 22 Stat. 238.)

184. The War Council.—The Secretary of War, the Assistant Secretary of War, the General of the Army, and the Chief of Staff shall constitute the War Council of the War Department, which council shall from time to time meet and consider policies affecting both the military and munitions problems of the War Department. Such questions shall be presented to the Secretary of War in the War Council, and his decision with reference to such questions of policy, after consideration of the recommendations thereon by the several members of the War Council, shall constitute the policy of the War Department with reference thereto. (June 3, 1916, c. 134, § 5 [5b]; June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter 1, § 5, 41 Stat. 765.)

185. Assistant and chief clerk; duties.—There shall be in the Department of War an assistant and chief clerk, who shall be appointed by the Secretary of War. The assistant and chief clerk shall be employed in the department as the Secretary may deem proper. The assistant and chief clerk shall sign such official papers and documents as the Secretary may direct. (R. S. § 215; Feb. 27, 1877, c. 69, § 1, 19 Stat. 241; Mar. 3, 1917, c. 163, § 1, 39 Stat. 1094; June 30, 1922, c. 253, Title I, 42 Stat. 716; Mar. 2, 1923, c. 178, Title I, 42 Stat. 1377.)

186. Same; duties when vacancy exists in office of Secretary of War.—The assistant and chief clerk, whenever the Secretary of War shall be removed from office by the President of the United States, or in any other case of vacancy, shall during such vacancy, have the charge and custody of all records, books, and papers, appertaining to the department. (R. S. § 215; Feb. 27, 1877, c. 69, § 1, 19 Stat. 241.)

187. Same; duties during absence of Secretary.—When, from illness or other cause, the Secretary of War is temporarily absent from the War Department, he may authorize the assistant and chief clerk of the department to sign requisitions upon the Treasury Department, and other papers requiring the signature of the Secretary; the same, when signed by the assistant and chief clerk during such temporary absence, to be of the same force and effect as if signed by the Secretary of War himself. (Mar. 4, 1874, c. 44, 18 Stat. 19.)

188. Detail of clerks and employees.—It shall not be lawful to detail clerks or other civilian employees authorized for the Office of the General Staff for duty, temporary or otherwise, in any office or bureau of the War Department at Washington, District of Columbia, or to detail clerks or other employees from the War Department for service in the Office of the General Staff. (June 22, 1906, c. 3514, § 1, 34 Stat. 418.)

189. Assignment of clerks and employees to duty in War Department.—No clerk, messenger, or laborer at headquarters of tactical divisions, military departments, brigades, service schools, and office of the Chief of Staff shall be assigned to duty in any bureau of the War Department. (June 15, 1917, c. 29, § 1, 40 Stat. 189; June 30, 1922, c. 253, Title I, 42 Stat. 724; Mar. 2, 1923, c. 178, Title I, 42 Stat. 1384; June 7, 1924, c. 291, Title I, 43 Stat. 482; Feb. 12, 1925, c. 225, Title I, 43 Stat. 896.)

190. Management of military affairs.—The Secretary of War shall perform such duties as shall from time to time be enjoined on or intrusted to him by the President relative to military commissions, the military forces, the warlike stores of the United States, or to other matters respecting military affairs; and he shall conduct the business of the department in such manner as the President shall direct. (R. S. § 216.)

191. Custody of departmental records and property.—The Secretary of War shall have the custody and charge of all the books, records, papers, furniture, fixtures, and other property appertaining to the department. (R. S. § 217.)

192. Record and Pension Office of War Department; chief; pay, rank, and allowances; charge of military and hospital records, etc.—The Record and Pension Office of the War Department is established. The President is authorized to select an officer of the Army whom he may consider to be especially well qualified for the performance of the duties hereinafter specified and, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, to appoint him in the Army to be chief of said office, who shall have the rank, pay, and allowances of a colonel, and shall, under the Secretary of War, have charge of the military and hospital records of the volunteer armies and the pension and other business of the War Department connected therewith. (May 9, 1892, c. 62, 27 Stat. 27.)

193. Same; military records of Revolution and of War of 1812.—The military records of the American Revolution and of the War of 1812 shall be transferred to and be preserved in the Record and Pension Office of the War Department, and they shall be properly indexed and arranged for use. All military records, such as muster and pay rolls, orders, and reports relating to the personnel or the operations of the armies of the Revolutionary War and of the War of 1812, on August 18, 1894 in any of the executive departments, shall be transferred to the Secretary of War to be preserved, indexed and prepared for publication. The Secretary of War is authorized and directed to collect or copy and classify, with a view to publication, the scattered military records of the Revolutionary War, including all troops acting under State authority. All such military records in the possession or custody of any official of the United States shall be transferred to the War Department. (July 27, 1892, c. 267, 27 Stat. 275; Aug. 18, 1894, c. 301, § 1, 28 Stat. 403; Mar. 2, 1913, c. 94, §§ 1, 2, 37 Stat. 723.)

194. Same; military records of wars prior to Civil War.—The military rolls and records of the Indian wars or any other wars prior to the Civil War, preserved on April 28, 1904 in the Interior or other departments, are transferred to the War Department, to be preserved in the Record and Pension Office of that department, and that they shall be properly indexed and arranged for use. (Apr. 28, 1904, No. 35, 33 Stat. 591.)

195. Same; roster of Union and Confederate Armies.—Under the direction of the Secretary of War the Chief of the Record and Pension Office shall compile, from such official records as are in the possession of the United States and from such other authentic records as may be obtained by loan from the various States and other official sources, a complete roster of the officers and enlisted men of the Union and Confederate Armies. (Feb. 25, 1903, c. 755, § 1, 32 Stat. 884.)

196. Returns and muster rolls of volunteer forces.—All returns and muster rolls of organizations of the volunteer forces and of militia organizations while in the service of the United States shall be rendered to The Adjutant General of the Army, and upon the muster out of such organizations the records pertaining to them shall be transferred to and filed in The Adjutant General's Office. And regimental and all other medical officers serving with volunteer troops, or with militia organizations in the service of the United States, in the field or elsewhere, shall keep a daily record of all soldiers reported sick or wounded, as shown by the morning calls or reports, and shall deposit such reports, with other reports provided for in this section, in The Adjutant General's Office, as provided for herein for other reports, returns, and muster rolls. (Apr. 25, 1914, c. 71, § 9, 38 Stat. 350.)

197. Transcripts of military history for governors.—The Secretary of War shall, upon the application of the governor of any State, furnish to such governor a transcript of the military history of any regiment or company of his State, under such regulations as the Secretary of War may prescribe, at the expense of such State. (Mar. 2, 1895, c. 177, § 1, 28 Stat. 788.)

198. Collecting flags.—The Secretary of War shall from time to time cause to be collected and transmitted to him, at the seat of government, all such flags, standards, and colors as are taken by the Army from the enemies of the United States. (R. S. § 218.)

199. Duplicates of lost or destroyed certificates of discharge from military service.—Whenever satisfactory proof shall be furnished to the War Department that any officer or enlisted man who has been or shall hereafter be honorably discharged from the military service of the United States has lost his certificate of discharge, or the same has been destroyed without his privity or procurement, the Secretary of War shall be authorized to furnish to such officer or enlisted man, or to the widow of such officer or enlisted man, a certificate of such discharge, to be indelibly marked, so that it may be known as a certificate in lieu of a lost or destroyed discharge. Such certificate shall not be accepted as a voucher for the payment of any claim against the United States for pay, bounty, or other allowance, or as evidence in any other case. (R. S. § 224; July 1, 1902, c. 1353, 32 Stat. 629.)

200. Certificates of discharge in true names of persons enlisting or serving under assumed names.—The Secretary of War is authorized and required to issue certificates of discharge or orders of acceptance of resignation, upon application and proof of identity, in the true name of such persons as enlisted or served under assumed names, while minors or otherwise, in the Army during the War of the Rebellion, or any war between the United States and any other nation or people, and were honorably discharged therefrom. Applications for said certificates of discharge or amended orders of resignation may be made by, or on behalf of, persons entitled to them; but no such certificate or order shall be issued where a name was assumed to cover a crime or to avoid its consequence. (Apr. 14, 1890, c. 80, 26 Stat. 55; June 25, 1910, c. 393, 36 Stat. 824; Aug. 22, 1912, c. 329, 37 Stat. 324.)

201. Sale of surplus charts.—Any surplus charts of the northwestern lakes may be sold to navigators upon such terms as the Secretary of War may prescribe. (R. S. § 226.)

202. Disposition of colors, standards, and guidons of demobilized organizations of United States Army.—The Secretary of War is authorized to dispose of all colors, standards, and guidons of demobilized organizations of the United States Army in the following manner: Any which were used during their service by such organizations and which were brought into the service of the United States from the National Guard of any State may be returned to that State upon request therefor from the governor thereof; and all others may be sent, upon request of the governor thereof, to whatever State the Secretary of War may determine to have furnished the majority of men to any such organization at the time of its formation. Where it is impossible to determine what State furnished a majority of the men of an organization at the time of its formation, or where any organization was so cosmopolitan in its original makeup that it is impossible to identify it with any particular State, the colors of such organization will be turned in to the Quartermaster General for such national use as the Secretary of War may direct. The title to all such colors, standards, and guidons shall remain in the United States. The Secretary of War shall require assurance that proper provision has been or will be made for the care and preservation of such colors, standards, and guidons before returning or sending the same as herein authorized. (Mar. 4, 1921, c. 166, § 2, 41 Stat. 1438.)

203. Distribution of captured war devices and trophies; method of distribution; exceptions.—The Secretary of War is authorized and directed to apportion and distribute pro rata among the several States and Territories, and possessions of the United States and the District of Columbia in corresponding ratio as the total number of men serving in the armed forces of the United States, as hereinafter provided, from each State, Territory, or possession of the United States and the District of Columbia bears to the total number of men so serving from all States, Territories, possessions, and the District of Columbia, all guns and howitzers with their respective carriages, machine guns, and other war devices and trophies suitable for distribution and captured by or surrendered to the armed forces of the United States from the armed forces of Germany and allied nations, with the exception of such guns, howitzers, carriages, machine guns, and other war devices and trophies as may be required for experimental purposes, or for actual use by the armed forces of the United States; and the further exception of such of the devices aforementioned as may be required for display in national museums, at national homes for disabled volunteer soldiers, or for monumental purposes in Arlington National Cemetery and in other national cemeteries, national parks, and national monuments wheresoever situated. (June 7, 1924, c. 312, § 1, 43 Stat. 597.)

204. Same; basis of distribution; notice to States, etc.—For the purposes of sections 203 to 207 of this title the reports compiled prior to June 7, 1924 under the direction of the Secretary of War, showing the number of men in the armed forces of the United States accredited to each State, Territory, and possession of the United States, and to the District of Columbia, either by enlistment or by the process of the selective service act, or otherwise drawn into and becoming an integral part of the armed forces of the United States during the period April 7, 1917 to November 11, 1918, and the allotment of war trophies suitable for distribution among the several States, Territories, and possessions, and the District of Columbia, shall serve as the basis of distribution. As soon as practicable after June 7, 1924, the Secretary of War shall cause the chief executive of each of the several States, Territories, and possessions, and the Commissioners of the District of Columbia to be informed of the character and quantity of war devices and trophies apportioned thereto, and shall invite each such chief executive and the Commissioners of the District of Columbia to designate such material as will be accepted free on board common carrier at the point of storage and to designate the point or points to which the accepted material is to be shipped without expense to the United States, other than that of packing and loading at the point of storage. (June 7, 1924, c. 312, § 2, 43 Stat. 597.)

205. Same; shipments; how made.—Shipment of the apportionment of each State, Territory, and possession, and the District of Columbia accepted shall be made as soon as practicable after the chief executive, or the commissioners thereof, as the case may require, shall have informed the Secretary of War that such State, Territory, possession, or District will accept and take possession thereof as hereinbefore provided for and will relieve the United States of all responsibility for the safe delivery of the material and of all charges, costs, and expenses whatsoever connected with the transportation thereof. If the chief executive or the commissioners of any State, Territory, possession, or District, shall not, within one year after notification of the character and quantity of the apportionment, file with the Secretary of War such acceptance and agreement, such apportionment, or any part thereof, shall be sold as surplus property as it then is and where it then is, or shall be destroyed—all as the Secretary of War, in his discretion, shall determine; and like action shall be taken in respect of the rejected portion of any apportionment accepted in part only, and war devices and trophies considered by the Secretary of War as unsuitable for distribution. (June 7, 1924, c. 312, § 3, 43 Stat. 598.)

206. Same; charges for shipment.—All charges for apportioning, segregating, packing, and loading war trophies and devices for distribution to the designated point or points within each of the several States, Territories, and possessions, and the District of Columbia, as provided for herein, and for transportation to national museums, national homes for disabled volunteer soldiers, national cemeteries, and national parks, and for the disposition of undistributed war devices and trophies shall be paid by the United States Government from an appropriation to be made for that purpose; but no part of such appropriation shall be expended in cleaning, painting, or otherwise reconditioning war devices and trophies prior to shipment. (June 7, 1924, c. 312, §§ 4, 6, 43 Stat. 598.)

207. Same; rules and regulations.—The Secretary of War is authorized to make all rules and regulations to carry into effect sections 203 to 206 of this title. (June 7, 1924, c. 312, § 5, 43 Stat. 598.)

208. Claims for damages to private property from military operations; adjustment.—The Secretary of War is authorized to consider, ascertain, adjust, and determine the amounts due on all claims for damages to and loss of private property when the amount of the claim does not exceed the sum of one thousand dollars, occasioned by heavy gunfire and target practice of troops, and for damages to vessels, wharves, and other private property, found to be due to maneuvers or other military operations for which the Government is responsible, and report the amounts so ascertained and determined to be due the claimants to Congress at each session thereof through the Treasury Department for payment as legal claims out of appropriations that may be made by Congress therefor. (Aug. 24, 1912, c. 391, § 1, 37 Stat. 586.)

209. Same; duties of General Accounting Office.—Settlement of claims for damages to and loss of private property incident to the training, practice, and operations of the Army shall be made by the General Accounting Office, upon the approval and recommendation of the Secretary of War, where the amount of damages has been ascertained by the War Department, and payment thereof will be accepted by the owners of the property in full satisfaction of such damages. (Oct. 6, 1917, c. 79, § 1, 40 Stat. 364; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

210. Same; presentation and approval.—Claims of inhabitants of France or of any other European country not an enemy or ally of an enemy for damages caused by American military forces may be presented to any officer designated by the President, and when approved by such an officer shall be paid under regulations made by the Secretary of War. Such claims shall not be approved unless they would be payable according to the law or practice governing the military forces of the country in which they occur. Appropriations for the incidental expenses of the Quartermaster Corps shall be available for paying the claims herein described. This section does not supersede other modes of indemnity in existence and does not diminish responsibility of any member of the military forces to the person injured or to the United States. (Apr. 18, 1918, c. 57, 40 Stat. 532.)

211. Sale of surplus motor trucks and automobiles.—In addition to the delivery of the property authorized, to be delivered to the Public Health Service, the Department of Agriculture and the Post Office Department of the Government, the Secretary of War is authorized to sell any surplus supplies including motor trucks and automobiles on July 11, 1919, owned by and in the possession of the Government for the use of the War Department to any State or municipal subdivision thereof, or to any corporation or individual upon such terms as may be deemed best. (July 11, 1919, c. 8, 41 Stat. 105.)

212. Sale of dental outfits.—The Secretary of War is authorized and directed to sell at public or private sale, under such rules and regulations as he may prescribe, all dental outfits in excess of the needs of the Government, preferentially to persons who served in the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Coast Guard, or the American Red Cross of the United States during the World War and who are at the time of such sale licensed to practice dentistry; but not more than one set of dental supplies shall be sold at private sale to any one person. (Apr. 17, 1920, c. 150, 41 Stat. 554.)

213. Transfer of motor vehicles to branches of Government service; payment for from appropriations.—The Secretary of War is authorized to transfer any unused and surplus motor-propelled vehicles and motor equipment of any kind, the payment for same to be made as provided herein, to any branch of the Government service having appropriations available for the purchase of said vehicles and equipment. In case of the transfers herein authorized a reasonable price not to exceed actual cost, and if the same have been used, at a reasonable price based upon length of usage, shall be determined upon and an equivalent amount of each appropriation available for said purchase shall be covered into the Treasury as a miscellaneous receipt, and the appropriation in each case reduced accordingly. It shall be the duty of each official of the Government having such purchases in charge to procure the same from any such unused or surplus stock if possible. No transfer of motor-propelled vehicles and motor equipment, unless specifically authorized by law, shall be made free of charge to any branch of the Government service. (July 19, 1919, c. 24, § 5, 41 Stat. 233.)

214. Equipment for Metropolitan Police.—The War Department may, in its discretion, furnish the commissioners, for use of the police, upon requisition, such worn mounted equipment as may be required. (June 29, 1922, c. 249, § 1, 42 Stat. 692; Feb. 28, 1923, c. 148, § 1, 42 Stat. 1349; June 7, 1924, c. 302, § 1, 43 Stat. 560; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 477, § 1, 43 Stat. 1235.)

215. Reports of Secretary of War; unexpended balances to Congress.—The Secretary of War shall make an annual report to Congress containing a statement of the appropriations of the preceding fiscal year for the Department of War, showing the amount appropriated under each specific head of appropriation, the amount expended under each head, and the balance which, on the thirtieth day of June preceding such report, remained unexpended. Such reports shall be accompanied by estimates of the probable demands which may remain on each appropriation. (R. S. § 228.)

216. Same; annual statement of expenditures for contingent expenses.—The annual report of the Secretary of War as to the expenditure of contingent funds required by section 104 of this title shall include a statement of the expenditure of the moneys appropriated for the contingent expenses of the military establishment. (R. S. § 229; Mar. 2, 1895, c. 177, § 1, 28 Stat. 787.)

217. Same; bids for works.—Whenever the Secretary of War invites proposals for any works, or for any materials or labor for any work, he shall report to Congress, at its next session, all bids therefor, with the names of the bidders. (R. S. § 230.)

218. War Department contracts; regulations for bids.—The Secretary of War is hereby authorized to prescribe rules and regulations to be observed in the preparation and submission and opening of bids for contracts under the War Department. And he may require every bid to be accompanied by a written guarantee, signed by one or more responsible persons, to the effect that he or they undertake that the bidder, if his bid is accepted, will, at such time as may be prescribed by the Secretary of War or the officer authorized to make a contract in the premises, give bond, with good and sufficient sureties, to furnish the supplies proposed or to perform the service required. If after the acceptance of a bid and a notification thereof to the bidder he fails within the time prescribed by the Secretary of War or other duly authorized officer to enter into a contract and furnish a bond with good and sufficient security for the proper fulfillment of its terms, the Secretary or other authorized officer shall proceed to contract with some other person to furnish the supplies or perform the service required, and shall forthwith cause the difference between the amount specified by the bidder in default in the proposal and the amount for which he may have contracted with another party to furnish the supplies or perform the service for the whole period of the proposal to be charged up against the bidder and his guarantor or guarantors, and the sum may be immediately recovered by the United States for the use of the War Department in an action of debt against either or all of such persons. (Apr. 10, 1878, c. 58, 20 Stat. 36; Mar. 3, 1883, c. 120, 22 Stat. 487.)

Section 241. Establishment of department.—There shall be at the seat of government an executive department to be known as the Department of the Treasury, and a Secretary of the Treasury, who shall be the head thereof. (R. S. § 233.)

Cross reference: Salary of secretary; see section 3 of this title.

242. General duties of Secretary of Treasury.—The Secretary of the Treasury shall, from time to time, digest and prepare plans for the improvement and management of the revenue, and for the support of the public credit; shall superintend the collection of the revenue; shall, from time to time, prescribe the forms of keeping and rendering all public accounts and making returns; shall grant, under the limitations herein established, or to be provided, all warrants for moneys to be issued from the Treasury in pursuance of appropriations by law; shall make report and give information to either branch of the legislature in person or in writing, as may be required, respecting all matters referred to him by the Senate or House of Representatives, or which shall appertain to his office; and generally shall perform all such services relative to the finances as he shall be directed to perform. (R. S. § 248.)

243. Restrictions upon Secretary of Treasury.—No person appointed to the office of Secretary of the Treasury, or Treasurer, or Register, shall directly or indirectly be concerned or interested in carrying on the business of trade or commerce, or be owner in whole or in part of any sea vessel, or purchase by himself, or another in trust for him, any public lands or other public property, or be concerned in the purchase or disposal of any public securities of any State, or of the United States, or take or apply to his own use any emolument or gain for negotiating or transacting any business in the Treasury Department, other than what shall be allowed by law; and every person who offends against any of the prohibitions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a high misdemeanor and forfeit to the United States the penalty of three thousand dollars, and shall upon conviction be removed from office, and forever thereafter be incapable of holding any office under the United States; and if any other person than a public prosecutor shall give information of any such offense, upon which a prosecution and conviction shall be had, one-half the aforesaid penalty of three thousand dollars, when recovered, shall be for the use of the person giving such information. (R. S. § 243.)

244. Undersecretary of Treasury; salary; duties.—There shall be in the Department of the Treasury an Undersecretary of the Treasury, to be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate. The compensation of the Undersecretary of the Treasury shall be at the rate of $10,000 per annum. He shall perform such duties in the office of the Secretary as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury or by law. (Feb. 17, 1922, c. 55, 42 Stat. 366; Jan. 3, 1923, c. 22, 42 Stat. 1087; Apr. 4, 1924, c. 84, Title I, 43 Stat. 64; Jan. 22, 1925, c. 87, Title I, 43 Stat. 764.)

245. Same; performance of duties of Secretary.—The Undersecretary of the Treasury, in case of the death, resignation, absence, or sickness of the Secretary of the Treasury, shall perform the duties of the Secretary until a successor is appointed or such absence or sickness shall cease. (Feb. 17, 1922, c. 55, 42 Stat. 366; Jan. 3, 1923, c. 22, 42 Stat. 1087; Apr. 4, 1924, c. 84, Title I, 43 Stat. 64.)

246. Assistant Secretaries of Treasury.—There shall be in the Department of the Treasury three Assistant Secretaries of the Treasury, who shall be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate. (R. S. § 234; July 11, 1890, c. 667, § 1, 26 Stat. 236; Mar. 3, 1917, c. 163, § 1, 39 Stat. 1083; Oct. 6, 1917, c. 79, § 1, 40 Stat. 347.)

247. Same; duties.—The Assistant Secretaries of the Treasury shall examine letters, contracts, and warrants prepared for the signature of the Secretary of the Treasury, and perform such other duties in the office of the Secretary of the Treasury as may be prescribed by the Secretary or by law. (R. S. § 245.)

248. Same; signing warrants.—The Secretary of the Treasury may, by an appointment under his hand and official seal, delegate authority to the Assistant Secretaries of the Treasury to sign in his stead, and he may in like manner delegate such authority to a clerk in his office to sign in his name, all warrants for the payment of money into the Public Treasury and all warrants for the disbursement from the Public Treasury of money certified by the General Accounting Office to be due upon accounts duly audited and settled by them; also all accountable warrants placing money in the Treasury to the credit of disbursing and other fiscal officers, and all appropriations, repay, and transfer warrants. The warrants so signed by either of the Assistant Secretaries of the Treasury or by the designated clerk shall be in all cases of the same validity as if they had been signed by the Secretary of the Treasury himself. (R. S. § 246; Mar. 2, 1910, c. 71, § 1, 36 Stat. 231; June 10, 1921, c. 18 § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

249. Chief clerk and superintendent to be chief executive officer of department.—The chief clerk and superintendent of the Treasury Department, shall be the chief executive officer of the department, and may be designated by the Secretary of the Treasury to sign official papers and documents during the temporary absence of the Secretary, Undersecretary, and Assistant Secretaries of the department. (Mar. 3, 1917, c. 163, § 1, 39 Stat. 1083; Feb. 17, 1922, c. 55, 42 Stat. 367; Jan. 3, 1923, c. 22, 42 Stat. 1088; Apr. 4, 1924, c. 84, Title I, 43 Stat. 64; Jan. 22, 1925, c. 87, Title I, 43 Stat. 764.)

250. Deputy disbursing clerk.—The deputy disbursing clerk shall have authority to sign checks in the name of the disbursing clerk; he shall give bond to the disbursing clerk in such sum as the said disbursing clerk may require, and when so acting for the disbursing clerk shall be subject to all the liabilities and penalties prescribed by law for the official misconduct in like cases of the disbursing clerk for whom he acts, and the official bond of the disbursing clerk executed hereunder shall be made to cover and apply to the acts of the deputy disbursing clerk. (June 17, 1910, c. 297, § 1, 36 Stat. 487.)

251. Government actuary; salary.—The salary of the Government actuary, so long as the position is held by the incumbent on June 2, 1924, shall be at the rate of $7,500 a year. (June 2, 1924, 4:01 p. m., c. 234, § 1102, 43 Stat. 353.)

252. Salaries to Treasury Department officers holding over.—The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay to all officers under the Treasury Department whose terms of office have expired or shall expire before the appointment and qualification of their successors, and who have been performing or shall perform the duties of their respective offices after the date of such expiration, the salary, compensation, fees, or emoluments authorized or provided by law in each case for the respective incumbents of the offices. No such payment shall be made for any services rendered by any such officer wrongfully holding after the appointment and qualification of his successor. (Mar. 2, 1895, c. 187, § 1, 28 Stat. 843.)

253. Enforcement of laws relating to Treasury Department; detail of persons paid from certain appropriations for.—The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to use for, and in connection with, the enforcement of the laws relating to the Treasury Department and the several branches of the public service under its control, not exceeding at any one time four persons paid from the appropriation for the collection of customs, four persons paid from the appropriation for salaries and expenses of internal-revenue agents or from the appropriation for the foregoing purpose, and four persons paid from the appropriation for suppressing counterfeiting and other crimes, but not exceeding six persons so detailed shall be employed at any one time hereunder. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to deprive the Secretary of the Treasury from making any detail otherwise authorized by existing law. (June 12,

254. Restrictions upon clerks in department.—Every clerk employed in the Treasury Department who carries on any trade or business in the funds or debts of the United States, or of any State, or in any kind of public property, or who takes or applies to his own use any emolument or gain for negotiating or transacting any business in the department, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and punished by a fine of $500 and removal from office. (R. S. § 244.)

255. Division of bookkeeping and warrants.—There shall be in the office of the Secretary of the Treasury a division of bookkeeping and warrants, which shall be under the direction of the Secretary of the Treasury. Upon the books of this division shall be kept all accounts of receipts and expenditures of public money except those relating to the postal revenues and expenditures therefrom. It shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Treasury to make appropriate rules and regulations for carrying out the provisions of this section. (July 31, 1894, c. 174, §§ 10, 22, 28 Stat. 208, 210.)

256. Commencement of fiscal year.—The fiscal year of the Treasury of the United States in all matters of accounts, receipts, expenditures, estimates, and appropriations, except accounts of the Secretary of the Senate for compensation and traveling expenses of Senators, and accounts of the Sergeant at Arms of the House of Representatives for compensation and mileage of Members and Delegates, shall commence on the first day of July in each year; and all accounts of receipts and expenditures required by law to be published annually shall be prepared and published for the fiscal year, as thus established. (R. S. § 237; Oct. 1, 1890, c. 1256, § 9, 26 Stat. 646.)

257. Contingent expenses of Treasury Department; control of appropriations for.—The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to place the control and expenditure of the various appropriations made for contingent expenses of the Treasury Department at Washington, District of Columbia, under such officer or officers of the Treasury Department as he may from time to time determine proper or necessary. (June 25, 1910, c. 385, 36 Stat. 776.)

258. Same; accounts of expenditures for.—No account for contingent expenses at any of the bureaus of the Department of the Treasury shall be allowed, except on the certificate of the officer or officers designated by the preceding section that such expenses are necessary and proper, and that the prices paid are just and reasonable; and the superintendent shall keep a full, just, and accurate account in detail of all amounts expended under the head of contingent expenses for the several bureaus of the Department of the Treasury. (R. S. § 240; June 25, 1910, c. 385, 36 Stat. 776.)

259. Accounts of receipts of internal revenue.—Separate accounts shall be kept at the Department of the Treasury of all moneys received from internal duties or taxes in each of the respective States, Territories, and collection districts, and of the amount of each species of duty and tax that shall accrue; so as to exhibit, as far as may be, the amount collected from each source of revenue, with the moneys paid as compensation and for allowances to the collectors and deputy collectors, inspectors, and other officers employed in each of the respective States, Territories, and collection districts. The said Secretary shall annually, in the month of December, lay before Congress an abstract, in tabular form, of said accounts. (R. S. § 239, 261; Feb. 18, 1875, c. 80. § 1, 18 Stat. 317.)

260. Accounts of expenditures for furniture and repairs.—The expenditure for furniture and repairs for the bureaus of the Department of the Treasury shall be made by the officer or officers designated by section 257 of this title, subject to the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury; and it shall be the duty of such officer or officers to keep a just and accurate account in detail of all the amounts paid for the purchase of furniture, and also for the repairs thereof, as well as a full statement of the disposal of the old furniture. (R. S. § 241; June 25, 1910, c. 385, 36 Stat. 776.)

261. Rules for government of agents representing claimants.—The Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe rules and regulations governing the recognition of agents, attorneys, or other persons representing claimants before his department, and may require of such persons, agents and attorneys, before being recognized as representatives of claimants, that they shall show that they are of good character and in good repute, possessed of the necessary qualifications to enable them to render such claimants valuable service, and otherwise competent to advise and assist such claimants in the presentation of their cases. And such Secretary may after due notice and opportunity for hearing suspend, and disbar from further practice before his department any such person, agent, or attorney shown to be incompetent, disreputable, or who refuses to comply with the said rules and regulations, or who shall with intent to defraud, in any manner willfully and knowingly deceive, mislead, or threaten any claimant or prospective claimant, by word, circular, letter, or by advertisement. (July 7, 1884, c. 334, § 3, 23 Stat. 258.)

262. Reports of Secretary of Treasury.—The Secretary of the Treasury shall make the following annual reports to Congress:

First. A report on the subject of finance, containing estimates of the public revenue and public expenditures for the fiscal year then current, and plans for improving and increasing the revenues from time to time, for the purpose of giving information to Congress in adopting modes of raising the money requisite to meet the public expenditures.

Second. A report containing a statement of all contracts for supplies or services which have been made by him or under his direction during the year preceding, and also a statement of the expenditure of the moneys appropriated for the discharge of miscellaneous claims not otherwise provided for, paid at the Treasury. (R. S. § 257.)

263. Same; postal revenues and expenditures.—The Secretary of the Treasury shall include in his annual report, in the statements of actual and estimated receipts and expenditures of the Government, the revenues from and expenditures on account of the postal service. (Sept. 30, 1890, c. 1126, § 1, 26 Stat. 511.)

264. Same; receipts and expenditures of public moneys.—It shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Treasury annually to lay before Congress, on the first day of the regular session thereof, an accurate, combined statement of the receipts and expenditures during the last preceding fiscal year of all public moneys, including those of the Post-Office Department, designating the amount of the receipts, whenever practicable, by ports, districts, and States, and the expenditures, by each separate head of appropriation. (July 31, 1894, c. 174, § 15, 28 Stat. 210.)

265. Same; estimates of revenue and expenditures.—The Secretary of the Treasury shall each year prepare and submit in his annual report to Congress estimates of the public revenue and the public expenditures for the fiscal year current, and also for the fiscal year next ensuing at the time said report is submitted, together with a statement of the receipts and expenditures of the Government for the preceding completed fiscal year. (Feb. 26, 1907, c. 1635, 34 Stat. 949.)

266. Same; claims allowed.—The Secretary of the Treasury shall, at the commencement of each session of Congress, report the amount due each claimant whose claim has been allowed in whole or in part to the Speaker of the House of Representatives and the presiding officer of the Senate, who shall lay the same before their respective Houses for consideration. (July 7, 1884, c. 334, § 1, 23 Stat. 254.)

267. Same; officers delinquent in rendering accounts.—The Secretary of the Treasury shall, on the first Monday of January in each year, make report to Congress of such officers and administrative departments and offices of the Government as were, respectively, at any time during the last preceding fiscal year delinquent in rendering or transmitting accounts to the proper offices in Washington and the cause therefor, and in each case indicating whether the delinquency was waived, together with such officers, including postmasters and officers of the Post Office Department, as were found upon final settlement of their accounts to have been indebted to the Government, with the amount of such indebtedness in each case, and who, at the date of making report, had failed to pay the same into the Treasury of the United States. (July 31, 1894, c. 174, § 12, 28 Stat. 209; May 28, 1896, c. 252, § 4, 29 Stat. 179.)

268. Same; appropriations for Departments of War and Navy.—The Secretary of the Treasury shall lay before Congress at the commencement of each regular session, accompanying his annual statement of the public expenditure, the reports which may be made to him by the officers charged with the examination of the accounts of the Department of War and the Department of the Navy, respectively, showing the application of the money appropriated for those departments for the preceding year. (R. S. § 260.)

269. Accounts of amounts expended for contingent expenses of Treasury buildings.—The Secretary of the Treasury shall transmit to Congress, at the commencement of each regular session, a copy of each of the accounts kept by the officer or officers designated under section 257 of this title of all amounts expended under the head of contingent expenses for the several bureaus of the Department of the Treasury, and of all amounts paid for furniture and repairs of furniture, and of the disposal of old furniture. (R. S. § 262.)

270. Quarterly publication of statement of receipts and expenditures.—The Secretary of the Treasury at the expiration of thirty days from the end of each quarter, shall cause to be published in some newspaper at the seat of government a statement of the whole receipts of such quarter, specifying the amount received from customs, from public lands, and from miscellaneous sources, and, also, the whole amount of payments made during the said quarter, specifying the general head of appropriation, whether for the civil list, the Army, the Navy, Indian Affairs, fortifications, or pensions. (R. S. § 266.)

271. Monthly publication of weekly statement of Treasurer.—The Secretary of the Treasury shall cause to be published in some newspaper at the seat of government, on the first day of each month, the last preceding weekly statement of the Treasurer of the United States, showing the amount to his credit in the different banks, in the mint, or other depositories, the amount for which drafts have been given, and those remaining unpaid, and the balance remaining subject to his draft; and he shall also specially note any changes that have been made in the depositories of the Treasury during the preceding month, and report to Congress, at the commencement of its next session, the reasons for such changes. (R. S. § 267.)

272. Statements of receipts and expenditures in naval service.—It shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Treasury to transmit to Congress, annually, a tabular statement showing in detail the receipts and expenditures in the naval service under each appropriation, as made up and determined by the General Accounting Office, upon the accounts of disbursing-officers rendered for settlement. (June 19, 1878, c. 311, § 1, 20 Stat. 167.)

273. Balances in hands of disbursing agents; report of amounts lost or unaccounted for.—There shall be appended to statements mentioned in section 272 of this title an account of balances in the hands of disbursing agents at the close of each fiscal year, and a report of any amounts lost or unaccounted for by voucher. (June 19, 1878, c. 311, § 2, 20 Stat. 167.)

Section 291. Establishment of department.—There shall be at the seat of government an executive department to be known as the Department of Justice, and an Attorney General, who shall be the head thereof. (R. S. § 346.)

Cross reference: Salary of Attorney General, see section 3 of this title.

292. Seal.—The seal heretofore provided for the office of the Attorney General shall be, with such change as the President shall approve, the seal of the Department of Justice. (R. S. § 353.)

293. Solicitor General.—There shall be in the Department of Justice an officer learned in the law, to assist the Attorney General in the performance of his duties, called the Solicitor General, who shall be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, and shall be entitled to a salary of $10,000 a year. In case of a vacancy in the office of Attorney General, or of his absence or disability, the Solicitor General shall have power to exercise all the duties of that office. (R. S. § 347; Mar. 3, 1917, c. 163, § 1, 39 Stat. 1110; Feb. 27, 1925, c. 364, Title II, 43 Stat. 1025.)

294. Assistant to Attorney General.—The President is authorized to appoint, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, an assistant to the Attorney General, whose salary shall be at the rate of $9,000 per annum. (Mar. 3, 1903, c. 1006, § 1, 32 Stat. 1062; Oct. 22, 1913, c. 32, 38 Stat. 218; Feb. 27, 1925, c. 364, Title II, 43 Stat. 1025.)

295. Assistant Attorneys General.—There shall be in the Department of Justice six officers, learned in the law, called the Assistant Attorneys General, who shall be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, and shall assist the Attorney General and Solicitor General in the performance of their duties. Each of them is entitled to a salary of $7,500 a year. (R. S. § 348; July 11, 1890, c. 667, § 1, 26 Stat. 265; July 16, 1914, c. 141, § 1, 38 Stat. 497; Mar. 3, 1917, c. 163, § 1, 39 Stat. 1110; Mar. 1, 1919, c. 86, § 1, 40 Stat. 1254.)

296. Assistant Attorney General in charge of customs matters; deputy; special attorneys.—There shall be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, an Assistant Attorney General, who shall exercise the functions of his office under the supervision and control of the Attorney General of the United States, and who shall be paid a salary of $8,000 per annum; and there shall also be appointed by the Attorney General of the United States a Deputy Assistant Attorney General, and four attorneys. Said attorneys shall act under the immediate direction of said Assistant Attorney General, or, in case of his absence or a vacancy in his office, under the direction of said Deputy Assistant Attorney General, and said Assistant Attorney General, Deputy Assistant Attorney General, and attorneys shall have charge of the interests of the Government in all matters of reappraisement and classification of imported goods and of all litigation incident thereto, and shall represent the Government in all the courts and before all tribunals wherein the interests of the Government require such representation.

But the Attorney General may, whenever in his opinion the public interest requires it, employ and retain, in the name of the United States, such special attorneys and counselors at law in the conduct of customs cases as he may think necessary to assist said Assistant Attorney General in the discharge of any of the duties incumbent upon him and his said subordinates, and shall stipulate with such attorneys and counsel the amount of compensation and shall have supervision of their conduct and proceedings. (June 10, 1890, c. 407, § 30, 26 Stat. 142; Aug. 5, 1909, c. 6, § 28, 36 Stat. 108; Feb. 27, 1925, c. 364, 43 Stat. 1014.)

297. Solicitors for departments.—There shall be in the Department of Justice a solicitor for each of the State, Treasury, Interior, Commerce, and Labor Departments, and a Solicitor of Internal Revenue, who shall be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate. The officers named in this section shall exercise their functions under the supervision and control of the head of the Department of Justice. (R. S. §§ 349, 350; June 19, 1878, c. 329, § 1, 20 Stat. 205; Mar. 3, 1891; c. 541, § 1, 26 Stat. 945; Mar. 18, 1904, c. 716, § 1, 33 Stat. 135; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, § 7, 37 Stat. 738; July 16, 1914, c. 141, § 1, 38 Stat. 497.)

298. Special assistant to Attorney General to assist in postal cases.—The employment of a special assistant to the Attorney General to assist in the defense of cases against the United States arising out of the transportation of the mails, and in other cases or matters affecting the postal revenues, is authorized. (July 28, 1916, c. 261, § 1, 39 Stat. 413.)

299. Officials for investigation of official matters in Departments of Justice and State.—For investigations regarding official matters under the control of the Department of Justice and the Department of State as may be directed by the Attorney General, the Attorney General is authorized to appoint officials who shall be vested with the authority necessary for the execution of such duties. (Mar. 1, 1921, c. 89, § 1, 41 Stat. 1175; Mar. 4, 1921, c. 161, § 1, 41 Stat. 1410; June 1, 1922, c. 204, Title II, 42 Stat. 613; Jan. 3, 1923, c. 21, Title II, 43 Stat. 217; Feb. 27, 1925, c. 364, Title II, 43 Stat. 1027.)

300. Officials for detection and prosecution of crimes.—For the detection and prosecution of crimes against the United States, and for the acquisition, collection, classification, and preservation of criminal identification records and their exchange with the officials of States, cities, and other institutions, the Attorney General is authorized to appoint officials who shall be vested with the authority necessary for the execution of such duties. (Mar. 1, 1921, c. 89, § 1, 41 Stat. 1175; Mar. 4, 1921, c. 161, § 1, 41 Stat. 1410; June 1, 1922, c. 204, Title II, 42 Stat. 613; Jan. 3, 1923, c. 21, Title II, 43 Stat. 217; Feb. 27, 1925, c. 364, Title II, 43 Stat. 1027.)

301. Officials for investigation of official acts, records, and accounts of marshals, attorneys, clerks of courts, United States commissioners, referees, and trustees.—For the investigation of the official acts, records, and accounts of marshals, attorneys, and clerks of the United States courts, and the territorial courts, and United States commissioners, for which purpose all the official papers, records, and dockets of said officers, without exception, shall be examined by the agents of the Attorney General at any time, and for the investigation of the official acts, records, and accounts of referees and trustees, when requested by the presiding judge of such courts, the Attorney General is authorized to appoint officials who shall be vested with the authority necessary for the execution of such duties. (Mar. 1, 1921, c. 89, § 1, 41 Stat. 1175; Mar. 4, 1921, c. 161, § 1, 41 Stat. 1410; June 1, 1922, c. 204, Title II, 42 Stat. 613; Jan. 3, 1923, c. 21, Title II, 43 Stat. 217; Feb. 27, 1925, c. 364, Title II, 43 Stat. 1027.)

302. Traveling expenses and subsistence of officers.—Whenever the Solicitor General, an attorney, an assistant attorney, a special assistant to the Attorney General, or any other officer of the Department of Justice is sent by the Attorney General to any State, District, Territory, or country to attend to any interest of the United States the person so sent shall receive, in addition to his salary and the necessary expenses of travel, his actual expenses incurred for subsistence, not to exceed $6 per day while absent from the seat of government, the account thereof to be verified by affidavit. (R. S. § 370; March 4, 1923, c. 273, 42 Stat. 1503.)

303. Opinions and advice of Attorney General; to President.—The Attorney General shall give his advice and opinion upon questions of law, whenever required by the President. (R. S. § 354; Feb. 27, 1877, c. 69, § 1, 19 Stat. 241.)

304. Same; to heads of executive departments.—The head of any executive department may require the opinion of the Attorney General on any questions of law arising in the administration of his department. (R. S. § 356.)

305. Publication of opinions.—The Attorney General shall from time to time cause to be edited, and printed at the Government Printing Office, an edition of one thousand copies of such of the opinions of the law officers herein authorized to be given as he may deem valuable for preservation in volumes, which shall be, as to size, quality of paper, printing, and binding, of uniform style and appearance, as nearly as practicable, with volume 8 of such opinions, published, by Robert Farnham, in the year 1868. Each volume shall contain proper headnotes, a complete and full index, and such footnotes as the Attorney General may approve. Such volumes shall be distributed in such manner as the Attorney General may from time to time prescribe. (R. S. § 383.)

306. Legal services for departments.—The officers of the Department of Justice, under the direction of the Attorney General, shall give all opinions and render all services requiring the skill of persons learned in the law necessary to enable the President and heads of departments, and the heads of bureaus and other officers in the departments, to discharge their respective duties; and shall, on behalf of the United States, procure the proper evidence for, and conduct, prosecute, or defend all suits and proceedings in the Supreme Court and in the Court of Claims, in which the United States, or any officer thereof, as such officer, is a party or may be interested; and no fees shall be allowed or paid to any other attorney or counselor at law for any service herein required of the officers of the Department of Justice, except in the cases provided by section 312 of this title. (R. S. § 361.)

307. Legal advice to War and Navy Departments.—Whenever a question of law arises in the administration of the Department of War or the Department of the Navy, the cognizance of which is not given by statute to some other officer from whom the head of the department may require advice, it shall be sent to the Attorney General, to be by him referred to the proper officer in his department, or otherwise disposed of as he may deem proper. (R. S. § 357.)

308. Reference of questions to subordinates.—Any question of law submitted to the Attorney General for his opinion, except questions involving a construction of the Constitution of the United States, may be by him referred to such of his subordinates as he may deem appropriate, and he may require the written opinion thereon of the officer to whom the same may be referred. If the opinion given by such officer is approved by the Attorney General, such approval indorsed thereon shall give the opinion the same force and effect as belong to the opinions of the Attorney General. (R. S. § 358.)

309. Conduct and argument of cases by Attorney General and Solicitor General.—Except when the Attorney General in particular cases otherwise directs, the Attorney General and Solicitor General shall conduct and argue suits and writs of error and appeals in the Supreme Court and suits in the Court of Claims in which the United States is interested, and the Attorney General may, whenever he deems it for the interest of the United States, either in person conduct and argue any case in any court of the United States in which the United States is interested, or may direct the Solicitor General or any officer of the Department of Justice to do so. (R. S. § 359.)

310. Conduct of legal proceedings.—The Attorney General or any officer of the Department of Justice, or any attorney or counselor specially appointed by the Attorney General under any provision of law, may, when thereunto specifically directed by the Attorney General, conduct any kind of legal proceeding, civil or criminal, including grand jury proceedings and proceedings before committing magistrates, which district attorneys may be by law authorized to conduct, whether or not he or they be residents of the district in which such proceeding is brought. (June 30, 1906, c. 3935, 34 Stat. 816.)

311. Performance of duty by officers of department.—The Attorney General may require any solicitor or officer of the Department of Justice to perform any duty required of the department or any officer thereof. (R. S. § 360.)

312. Counsel to aid district attorneys.—The Attorney General shall, whenever in his opinion the public interest requires it, employ and retain, in the name of the United States, such attorneys and counselors at law as he may think necessary to assist the district attorneys in the discharge of their duties, and shall stipulate with such assistant attorneys and counsel the amount of compensation, and shall have supervision of their conduct and proceedings. (R. S. § 363.)

313. Attendance of counsel.—Whenever the head of a department or bureau gives the Attorney General due notice that the interests of the United States require the service of counsel upon the examination of witnesses touching any claim, or upon the legal investigation of any claim, pending in such department or bureau, the Attorney General shall provide for such service. (R. S. § 364.)

314. Counsel fees restricted.—No compensation shall be allowed to any person, besides the respective district attorneys and assistant district attorneys for services as an attorney or counselor to the United States, or to any branch or department of the Government thereof, except in cases specially authorized by law, and then only on the certificate of the Attorney General that such services were actually rendered, and that the same could not be performed by the Attorney General, or Solicitor General, or the officers of the Department of Justice, or by the district attorneys. (R. S. § 365.)

315. Appointment and oath of special attorneys or counsel.—Every attorney or counselor who is specially retained, under the authority of the Department of Justice, to assist in the trial of any case in which the Government is interested, shall receive a commission from the head of such department, as a special assistant to the Attorney General, or to some one of the district attorneys, as the nature of the appointment may require; and shall take the oath required by law to be taken by the district attorneys, and shall be subject to all the liabilities imposed upon them by law. Foreign counsel employed by the Attorney General in special cases shall not be required to take the oath required by this section. (R. S. § 366; Feb. 27, 1925, c. 364, Title II, 43 Stat. 1029.)

316. Interest of United States in pending suits.—The Solicitor General, or any officer of the Department of Justice, may be sent by the Attorney General to any State or district in the United States to attend to the interests of the United States in any suit pending in any of the courts of the United States, or in the courts of any State, or to attend to any other interest of the United States. (R. S. § 367.)

317. Superintending district attorneys and marshals.—The Attorney General shall exercise general superintendence and direction over the attorneys and marshals of all the districts in the United States and the Territories as to the manner of discharging their respective duties; and the several district attorneys and marshals are required to report to the Attorney General an account of their official proceedings, and of the state and condition of their respective offices, in such time and manner as the Attorney General may direct. (R. S. § 362.)

318. Accounts of district attorneys.—The Attorney General shall exercise general supervisory powers over the accounts of district attorneys, marshals, clerks, and other officers of the courts of the United States. (R. S. § 368.)

319. Requisitions.—The Attorney General shall sign all requisitions for the advance or payment of moneys appropriated for the Department of Justice, out of the Treasury, subject to the same control as is exercised on like estimates or accounts by the General Accounting Office. (R. S. § 369.)

320. Disbursement of moneys.—All moneys drawn out of the Treasury upon the requisition of the Attorney General shall be disbursed by such one of the clerks in the Department of Justice as the Attorney General may designate. (R. S. § 371.)

321. Disbursement of salaries of judges.—Except as otherwise provided in section 505 of Title 28, judges receiving salaries from the Treasury of the United States shall be paid monthly by the disbursing officer of the Department of Justice and to him all certificates of nonabsence or of the cause of absence of judges in the Territories shall be sent. Interstate Commerce Commissioners and other officers, who on July 31, 1894 were paid as judges are, shall be paid monthly by the proper disbursing officer or officers. (July 31, 1894, c. 174, § 13, 28 Stat. 210.)

322. Records of office of Solicitor of Treasury.—The Solicitor of the Treasury shall have charge, within the Department of Justice, of the books, papers, and records formerly appertain-ing to the office of agent of the Treasury, or to the superintendence of the collection of outstanding direct taxes and internal duties which have been transferred to him by the act of May 29, 1830, and remain in his charge; and of the seal adopted for the office of the Solicitor of the Treasury. (R. S. § 372.)

323. Bonds for suit; liability of district attorney on receiving.—Whenever the Solicitor of the Treasury receives information from a collector of duties that such collector has delivered any bond for duties to a district attorney for suit, the Solicitor of the Treasury shall make such entry thereof as that the attorney may duly appear chargeable therewith, until the amount has been paid to the United States, or he has obtained judgment thereon and delivered execution to the marshal, or otherwise been duly discharged therefrom. (R. S. § 373.)

324. Same; examination of reports of district attorneys and collectors.—The Solicitor of the Treasury shall make constant and strict examinations and comparisons of the reports made by collectors of bonds for duties delivered by them to district attorneys for suit, and of the returns made by district attorneys of such bonds so received by them. (R. S. § 374.)

325. Same; false reports of.—Whenever it appears that any collector has made return of any bond as in suit, or delivered for suit, which is not, at the time, in suit, or delivered for suit, or has returned any bond as in suit for the whole amount thereof, when part thereof has been paid to him, or as in suit for more than is actually due thereon, the Solicitor of the Treasury shall, immediately upon discovery thereof, communicate the facts to the President of the United States. (R. S. § 375.)

326. Discovery of frauds.—The Solicitor of the Treasury, under the direction of the Secretary of the Treasury, shall take cognizance of all frauds or attempted frauds upon the revenue, and shall exercise a general supervision over the measures for their prevention and detection, and for the prosecution of persons charged with the commission thereof. (R. S. § 376.)

327. Solicitor of Treasury; rules respecting suits.—The Solicitor of the Treasury shall establish such regulations, not inconsistent with law, with the approbation of the Secretary of the Treasury, for the observance of collectors of the customs, and, with the approbation of the Attorney General, for the observance of district attorneys and marshals respecting suits in which the United States are parties, as may be deemed necessary for the just responsibility of those officers, and the prompt collection of all revenues and debts due and accruing to the United States. This section shall not apply to suits for taxes, forfeitures, or penalties arising under the internal-revenue laws. (R. S. § 377.)

328. Same; report of moneys recovered.—The Solicitor of the Treasury shall report all moneys recovered or collected under his direction to the officer from whom the bond or other evidence of debt was received, who shall give proper credit therefor; and he shall report in like manner all credits allowed by due course of law on any suits under his direction. (R. S. § 378.)

329. Same; instructions to district attorneys.—The Solicitor of the Treasury shall have power to instruct the district attorneys, marshals, and clerks of the district courts in all matters and proceedings appertaining to suits in which the United States is a party or interested, except suits for taxes, penalties, or forfeitures under the internal-revenue laws, and to cause them, or either of them, to report to him from time to time any information he may require in relation to the same. (R. S. § 379.)

330. Same; suits involving national banks.—All suits and proceedings arising out of the provisions of law governing national banking associations, in which the United States or any of its officers or agents shall be parties, shall be conducted by the district attorneys of the several districts under the direction and supervision of the Solicitor of the Treasury. (R. S. § 380.)

331. Duties of United States attorneys.—In the prosecution of any suit for money due the Post Office Department, the United States attorney conducting the same shall obey the directions which may be given him by the Department of Justice. (R. S. § 381.)

332. Proceedings in equity in cases of Post Office Department.—When proceedings at law for money due the Post Office Department are fruitless, the Department of Justice may direct the institution of a suit in chancery, in any United States district court, to set aside fraudulent conveyances or trusts, or attach debts due the defendant, or obtain any other proper exercise of the powers of equity to have satisfaction of any judgment against such defendant. (R. S. § 382.)

333. Report of business and statistics.—It shall be the duty of the Attorney General to make to Congress, at the commencement of each regular session, a report of the business of the Department of Justice for the last preceding fiscal year, and of any other matters appertaining thereto that he may deem proper, including a statement of the several appropriations which may be placed under its control, the amount appropriated, and a detailed statement of the amounts used for defraying the expenses of the United States courts in each judicial district; also the statistics of crime under the laws of the United States, and a statement of the number of causes, civil and criminal, pending during the preceding year in each of the several courts of the United States. (R. S. § 384.)

334. Report of expenditure of contingent fund.—The Attorney General shall annually report to Congress, in detail, the items, amounts, and causes of expenditure of the contingent expenses of this department. (June 20, 1874, c. 328, § 1, 18 Stat. 109.)

335. Report of payments from appropriations.—The Attorney General shall include in his annual report a statement of all payments or expenditures during any fiscal year out of any appropriation fund subject to requisitions by him. (June 30, 1879, c. 52, § 3, 21 Stat. 44.)

336. Report of additional attorneys and counsel employed.—The Attorney General shall make an annual report to Congress of the names of all persons employed or retained as attorneys or counselors at law to assist any district attorneys in the performance of their duties, stating where and upon what business each was employed, and the compensation paid to each. (R. S. § 385.)

337. Report of assistants to district attorneys.—The Attorney General shall, in his annual report to Congress each year, except as provided in section 591 of Title 28, include a statement in detail showing for the preceding fiscal year the number of assistant district attorneys employed, the salaries of each; the number of clerical assistants employed for each district attorney, the salaries of each; the amount expended for necessary subsistence, and actual and necessary traveling expenses of each district attorney and his assistants; the number of office deputies and clerical assistants employed for each marshal, the salaries paid to each; the amount expended for necessary subsistence and actual and necessary traveling expenses of each marshal and his office deputies, and the number of field deputy marshals employed by each marshal and the amount of fees earned by and the compensation paid to each of them out of such fees. (May 28, 1896, c. 252, § 23, 29 Stat. 185.)

338. Distribution of statutes and reports to judges.—The Department of Justice shall be charged with the distribution to the various judges and courts of the statutes, reports, and other judicial documents provided by law. (R. S. § 386.)

339. Register of statutes and reports distributed.—A register of the statutes of the United States and reports of the Supreme Court shall be kept, under the authority of the head of the Department of Justice, showing the quantity of each kind received by him from the Secretary of the Interior; and it shall be his duty to cause to be entered in such register, and at the proper time, when, where, and to whom the same, or any part of them, have been distributed and delivered, and to report the same to Congress in his annual report. (R. S. § 387.)

Section 361. Establishment.—There shall be at the seat of government an executive department to be known as the Post Office Department, and a Postmaster General, who shall be the head thereof, and who shall be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, and who may be removed in the same manner; and the term of the Postmaster General shall be for and during the term of the President by whom he is appointed, and for one month thereafter, unless sooner removed. (R. S. § 388.)

Cross reference: Salary of Postmaster General, see section 8 of this title.

362. Seal.—The Postmaster General shall keep the seal adopted for his department, which shall be affixed to all commissions of postmasters and others, and used to authenticate all transcripts and copies which may be required from his department. (R. S. § 395.)

363. Assistant Postmasters General.—There shall be in the Post Office Department four Assistant Postmasters General, who shall be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, and who may be removed in the same manner. (R. S. § 389; Mar. 3, 1891, c. 841, § 1, 26 Stat. 944.)

364. Solicitor for Post Office Department.—There shall be employed in the Post Office Department a Solicitor for the Post Office Department, who shall be appointed by the Postmaster General. (R. S. § 390; July 16, 1914, c. 141, § 1, 38 Stat. 497.)

Cross reference: Special assistant to Attorney General to assist in postal cases; see section 298 of this title.

365. Oath of office.—Before entering upon the duties, and before they shall receive any salary, the Postmaster General, and all persons employed in the postal service, shall respectively take and subscribe before some magistrate or other competent officer authorized to administer oaths by the laws of the United States, or of any State or Territory, the following oath or affirmation:

"I, A. B. do hereby solemnly swear (or affirm, as the case may be,) that I will faithfully perform all the duties required of me and abstain from everything forbidden by the laws in relation to the establishment of post offices and post roads within the United States; and that I will honestly and truly account for and pay over any money belonging to the said United States which may come into my possession or control; and I also further swear (or affirm) that I will support the Constitution of the United States; so help me God."

This oath or affirmation may be taken before any officer civil or military holding a commission under the United States, and such officer is authorized to administer and certify such oath or affirmation. (R. S. §§ 391, 392; Mar. 5, 1874, c. 46, 18 Stat. 19.)

366. Purchasing agent.—There shall be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, a purchasing agent for the Post Office Department, who shall hold office for four years unless sooner removed by the President, and who shall give bond to the United States in such sum as the Postmaster General may determine, and report direct to the Postmaster General; and who shall, under such regulations, not inconsistent with existing law, as the Postmaster General shall prescribe, and subject to his direction and control, have supervision of the purchase of all supplies for the Postal Service.

The purchasing agent, in making purchases for supplies necessary for the Post Office Department, shall advertise, as provided by law, and award contracts for such supplies to the lowest responsible bidder in pursuance of existing law. The purchasing agent shall have recorded in a book to be kept for that purpose a true and faithful abstract of all bids made for furnishing supplies to the Post Office Department, giving the name of the party bidding, the terms of the offer, the sum to be paid, and he shall keep on file and preserve all such bids until the end of the contract term to which they relate. Each bidder shall have the right to be present, either in person or by attorney, when the bids are opened, and shall have the right to examine and inspect all bids. All purchases, advertisements, and contracts for supplies for the Post Office Department shall be made by the purchasing agent in the name of the Postmaster General subject to his approval, and in purchasing such supplies preference shall be given to articles of domestic production and manufacture, conditions of price and quality being equal. There shall be separate proposals and separate contracts for each class of material furnished. These records shall be open at all times for the inspection of Congress, and for the inspection of those who may be interested in such contracts made, or to be made, to furnish supplies to the Post Office Department. (Apr. 28, 1904, c. 1759, § 3, 33 Stat. 440.)

367. No postal material or supplies manufactured by convict labor.—No contract shall be entered into by the Post Office Department for purchase of material or supplies to be manufactured by convict labor. (Apr. 28, 1904, c. 1759, § 1, 33 Stat. 435.)

368. District and central offices for distribution of supplies.—In order to promote economy in the distribution of supplies, and in auditing and accounting, the Postmaster General may designate districts and central offices in such districts through which supplies shall be distributed and accounts audited, but in no case shall the postmaster at the central station be given authority to abolish offices, to change officers or employees in offices included in such district. (Mar. 3, 1917, c. 163, § 1, 39 Stat. 1110.)

369. Duties of Postmaster General.—It shall be the duty of the Postmaster General:

First. To establish and discontinue post offices.

Second. To instruct all persons in the Postal Service with reference to their duties.

Third. To decide on the forms of all official papers.

Fourth. To prescribe the manner of keeping and stating accounts.

Fifth. To enforce the prompt rendition of returns relative to accounts.

Sixth. To control, according to law, and subject to the settlement of the General Accounting Office, all expenses incident to the service of the department.

Seventh. To superintend the disposal of the moneys of the department.

Eighth. To direct the manner in which balances shall be paid over; issue warrants to cover money into the Treasury; and to pay out the same.

Ninth. To superintend generally the business of the department and execute all laws relative to the Postal Service. (R. S. § 396; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

370. Detail of clerks from Postal Service to department.—It shall not be lawful to detail clerks or other employees, paid from general appropriations for the postal service, from any branch of said postal service, whether located at the seat of government or elsewhere, to any of the offices or bureaus of the Post Office Department at Washington. (Mar. 15, 1898, c. 68, § 9, 30 Stat. 317.)

371. Property in charge of department.—The Postmaster General shall make out and keep, in proper books, full and complete inventories and accounts of all the property belonging to the United States in the buildings, rooms, offices, and grounds occupied by him and under his charge; and shall add thereto, from time to time, an account of such property as may be procured subsequently to the taking of the same, and also an account of the sale or disposal of any such property, and to report the same to Congress during the first week of each annual session. But this section shall not apply to the supplies of stationery and fuel. (R. S. § 397.)

372. Postal arrangements with foreign countries.—For the purpose of making better postal arrangements with foreign countries, or to counteract their adverse measures affecting our postal intercourse with them, the Postmaster General, by and with the advice and consent of the President, may negotiate and conclude postal treaties or conventions, and may reduce or increase the rates of postage on mail matter conveyed between the United States and foreign countries. (R. S. § 398.)

373. Same; publication.—The Postmaster General shall transmit a copy of each postal convention concluded with foreign governments to the Secretary of State, who shall furnish a copy of the same to the Public Printer for publication; and the printed proof sheets of all such conventions shall be revised at the Post Office Department. (R. S. § 399.)

374. Blank agency.—The Postmaster General may establish a blank agency for the Post Office Department, to be located at Washington, District of Columbia. (R. S. § 400.)

375. Foreign dead letters.—The action of the Post Office Department respecting foreign dead letters shall be subject to conventional stipulations with the respective foreign administrations. (R. S. § 401.)

376. Date of orders, entries, contracts.—Every order, entry, or memorandum whatever, on which any action is to be based, allowance made, or money paid, and every contract, paper, or obligation made by or with the Post Office Department, shall have its true date affixed to it; and every paper relating to contracts or allowances filed in the department shall have the date when it was filed indorsed upon it. (R. S. § 402.)

377. Form of bonds and contracts.—All bonds taken and contracts entered into by the Post Office Department shall be made to and with the United States of America. (R. S. § 403.)

378. Orders and regulations as to accounts.—All orders and regulations of the Postmaster General which may originate a claim, or in any manner affect the accounts of the Postal Service, shall be certified to the General Accounting Office. (R. S. § 405; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

379. Warrant on quarterly statement of General Accounting Office.—Upon the certified quarterly statement by the General Accounting Office of the payments by postmasters on account of the Postal Service, the Postmaster General shall issue his warrant to the Treasurer to carry the amount to the credit of the postal revenues and to the debit of the proper appropriations upon the books of the Bureau of Accounts in the Post Office Department. (R. S. § 406; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

380. Revenues and collections.—The postal revenues and all debts due the Post Office Department shall, when collected, be paid into the Treasury of the United States under the direction of the Postmaster General, and the Treasurer, Assistant Treasurer, or designated depository receiving such payment shall give the depositor a duplicate receipt therefor, to be retained by him in his office as a voucher, and shall forward the original to the Bureau of Accounts in the Post Office Department, to be placed to the credit of the depositor in audit of his accounts by the General Accounting Office. (R. S. § 407; Jan. 22, 1894, c. 17, 28 Stat. 28; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

381. Deposits into Treasury.—All deposits on account of the Postal Service shall be brought into the Treasury by warrants of the Postmaster General, countersigned by the Comptroller General of the United States; and no credit shall be allowed for any deposit until such warrant has been issued. (R. S. § 408; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

382. Signing warrants and drafts.—The Postmaster General may from time to time designate any officer in the Post Office Department and employees in the office of the Third Assistant Postmaster General to sign warrants, collection and transfer drafts in his stead, and such warrants and drafts when so signed shall be of the same validity as if signed by the Postmaster General. (Mar. 3, 1903, c. 1009, § 6, 32 Stat. 1176; Mar. 2, 1907, c. 2513, 34 Stat. 1206.)

383. Remitting fines, penalties, and forfeitures.—In all cases of fine, penalty, forfeiture, or disability, or alleged liability for any sum of money by way of damages or otherwise, under any provision of law in relation to the officers, employees, operations, or business of the Postal Service, the Postmaster General may prescribe such general rules and modes of proceeding as shall appear to be expedient, for the government of the Bureau of Accounts in the Post Office Department, in ascertaining the fact in each case in which the Comptroller of the Bureau of Accounts shall certify to him that the interests of the department probably require the exercise of his powers over fines, penalties, forfeitures and liabilities; and upon the fact being ascertained, the General Accounting Office may, with the written consent of the Postmaster General, mitigate or remit such fine, penalty, or forfeiture, remove such disability, or compromise, release, or discharge such claim for such sum of money and damages, and on such terms as the Comptroller of the Bureau of Accounts in the Post Office Department shall deem just and expedient. (R. S. § 409; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 306, 42 Stat. 24.)

384. Same; balances due United States for public moneys under laws relating to Postal Service.—The provisions of section 383 of this title shall extend in all cases pending on March 4, 1925, or which may thereafter arise to balances due to the United States through accountability for public moneys under any provision of law in relation to the officers, employees, operations, or business of the Postal Service, excepting the class of cases cognizable under section 49 of Title 39. (Mar. 4, 1925, c. 531, 43 Stat. 1266.)

385. Discharge of judgment debtors.—The Postmaster General may discharge from imprisonment any person confined in jail on any judgment in a civil case, obtained in behalf of the department, if it be made to appear that the defendant has no property of any description. (R. S. § 410.)

386. Same; subsequent execution.—The release provided for by section 385 of this title shall not bar a subsequent execution against the property of the defendant on the same judgment. (R. S. § 411.)

387. Reports of Postmaster General.—The Postmaster General shall make the following annual reports to Congress:

First. A report of the finances of the department for the preceding year, showing the amount of balance due the department at the beginning of the year, the amount of postage which accrued within the year, the amount of engagements and liabilities and the amount actually paid during the year for carrying the mail, showing how much of the amount was for carrying the mail in preceding years.

Second. A report of the amount expended in the department for the preceding fiscal year, including detailed statements of expenditures made from the contingent fund.

The Postmaster General shall cause all of such reports to be printed at the Government Printing Office, either together or separately, and in such numbers as may be required by the exigencies of the service or by law. (R. S. § 413; Mar. 3, 1897, c. 385, § 1, 29 Stat. 647.)

388. Same; estimates of revenues and expenditures.—The Postmaster General shall each year prepare and submit in his annual report to Congress estimates of the revenue and expenditures in the Postal Service for the fiscal year current, and also for the fiscal year next ensuing at the time said report is submitted, together with a statement of the receipts and expenditures for the preceding completed fiscal year. (May 27, 1908, c. 206, 35 Stat. 418.)

389. Same; mail transportation.—The Postmaster General shall request all railroad companies transporting the mails to furnish, under seal, such data relating to the operating, receipts and expenditures of such roads as may, in his judgment be deemed necessary to enable him to ascertain the cost of mail transportation and the proper compensation to be paid for the same; and he shall, in his annual report to Congress, make such recommendations, founded on the information obtained under this section, as shall, in his opinion, be just and equitable. (Mar. 3, 1879, c. 180, § 6, 20 Stat. 358.)

390. Same; cost of mail matter franked by departments and independent establishments.—The Postmaster General shall in his annual report submit a detailed statement of the cost to the postal establishment of the matter mailed under frank by each department and independent establishment of the Government and the revenue which would be derived therefrom if carried at the ordinary rates of postage. (June 5, 1920, c. 253, § 1, 41 Stat. 1037.)

391. Same; publication in Official Postal Guide.—The annual report of the Postmaster General shall not be published in the Official Postal Guide. (Aug. 5, 1882, c. 389, § 1, 22 Stat. 253.)

392. Adjustment and settlement of certain claims for damages to person or property by Postmaster General.—When any damage is done to person or property by or through the operation of the Post Office Department in any branch of its service and such damage is found by the Postmaster General upon investigation to be a proper charge against the United States, the Postmaster General is invested with power to adjust and settle any claim for such damage when his award for such damage in any case does not exceed $500. (June 16, 1921, c. 23, § 4, 42 Stat. 63.)

ANNUAL REPORTS TO CONGRESS

466. Duty of Secretary to make; in general.
467. As to expenditures for civilian employees.
468. As to repairs or changes on vessels.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section 411. Establishment of department.—There shall be at the seat of government an executive department, to be known as the Department of the Navy, and a Secretary of the Navy, who shall be the head thereof. (R. S. § 415.)

Cross reference: Salary of Secretary; see section 3 of this title.

412. Duties of Secretary generally.—The Secretary of the Navy shall execute such orders as he shall receive from the President relative to the procurement of naval stores and materials, and the construction, armament, equipment, and employment of vessels of war, as well as all other matters connected with the Naval Establishment. (R. S. § 417.)

413. Custody of records and property.—The Secretary of the Navy shall have the custody and charge of all the books, records, and other property remaining in and appertaining to the Department of the Navy on December 1, 1873, or thereafter acquired by it. (R. S. § 418.)

414. Transfer, collection, and classification of naval records.—All naval records, such as muster and pay rolls, orders, and reports relating to the personnel and operations of the Navy of the United States, from the beginning of the Navy Department to the War of the Rebellion, 1861, including operations against the French Navy, Tripolitan war, War of 1812, operations against pirates in the West Indies, Florida war, and the war with Mexico, in any of the executive departments, on April 27, 1904, shall be transferred to the Secretary of the Navy, to be preserved.

All records (such as muster and pay rolls and reports) relating to the personnel and operations of public and private armed vessels of the North American colonies in the War of the Revolution in any of the executive departments on June 29, 1906, shall be transferred to the Secretary of the Navy, to be preserved, indexed, and prepared for publication.

The Secretary of the Navy is authorized and directed to collect or copy and classify, with a view to publication, the scattered naval records of the Revolutionary War. All such records in the possession or custody of any official of the United States shall be transferred to the Navy Department. (Apr. 27, 1904, c. 1630, § 1, 33 Stat. 403; June 29, 1906, c. 3590, 34 Stat. 579; Mar. 2, 1913, c. 94, § 1, 37 Stat. 723.)

415. Employment of civilian expert aids.—It shall not be lawful for the Secretary of the Navy to employ in the Navy Department, at Washington, District of Columbia, and pay out of the appropriations for new ships, any civilian expert aids, additional draftsmen, writers, copyists, and model makers, except as may be specifically authorized. (Mar. 18, 1904, c. 716, § 1, 33 Stat. 117.)

416. Payment of cash rewards to civilian employees for useful suggestions.—The Secretary of the Navy is authorized, in his discretion and under such rules and regulations as he may prescribe, to pay cash rewards to civilian employees of the Navy Department or the Naval Establishment or other persons in civil life when due to a suggestion or series of suggestions by them there results an improvement or economy in manufacturing process or plant or naval material. Such sums as may be awarded to employees or other persons in civil life in accordance with this section shall be paid them out of current naval appropriations in addition to their usual compensation. No employee or other person in civil life shall be paid a reward under this section until he has properly executed an agreement to the effect that the use by the United States of the suggestion or series of suggestions made by him shall not form the basis of a further claim of any nature from the United States by him, his heirs, or assigns. (July 1, 1918, c. 114, 40 Stat. 718.)

417. Loan of scientific instruments.—The Secretary of the Navy is authorized, in his discretion, to loan any scientific instruments in the possession of any of the bureaus under his charge, and not in use, to persons taking observations, or making investigations in connection with, or for the use of, the Signal Service under such regulations as he may prescribe, taking such security for the safe-keeping and return of such instruments on demand as he may deem necessary. (Oct. 19, 1888, c. 1210, § 3, 25 Stat. 600.)

418. Collection, preservation, and display of captured flags.—The Secretary of the Navy shall from time to time cause to be collected and transmitted to him at the seat of government all flags, standards, and colors taken by the Navy from the enemies of the United States. All such flags, standards, and colors shall be delivered to the President, for the purpose of being, under his direction, preserved and displayed in such public place as he may deem proper. (R. S. §§ 428, 1554, 1555.)

419. Acceptance, care, and preservation of gifts to vessels.—The Secretary of the Navy is authorized to accept and care for such gifts in the form of silver, colors, books, or other articles of equipment or furniture as, in accordance with custom, may be presented to vessels of the Navy by States, municipalities, or otherwise. The necessary expense incident to the care and preservation of gifts of this character which have been or may be accepted shall be defrayed from the appropriation "Equipment of vessels." (May 20, 1908, c. 182, 35 Stat. 171.)

420. Assistant Secretary of Navy; appointment.—An Assistant Secretary of the Navy shall be appointed, from civil life, by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate. (July 11, 1890, c. 667, § 1, 26 Stat. 254.)

421. Duties of Assistant Secretary.—The Assistant Secretary of the Navy shall perform such duties as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Navy or required by law. (Mar. 3, 1891, c. 541, § 1, 26 Stat. 934.)

CHIEF OF NAVAL OPERATIONS

422. Appointment, powers, and duties generally.—There shall be a Chief of Naval Operations, who shall be an officer on the active list of the Navy appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, from among the officers of the line of the Navy not below the grade of captain for a period of four years, who shall, under the direction of the Secretary of the Navy, be charged with the operations of the fleet, and with the preparation and readiness of plans for its use in war. (Mar. 3, 1915, c. 83, 38 Stat. 929.)

423. Acting as Secretary of Navy.—During the temporary absence of the Secretary and the Assistant Secretary of the Navy, the Chief of Naval Operations shall be next in succession to act as Secretary of the Navy. (Mar. 3, 1915, c. 83, 38 Stat. 929.)

424. Rank, title, and pay.—The Chief of Naval Operations, while so serving as such Chief of Naval Operations, shall have the rank and title of admiral, to take rank next after the Admiral of the Navy, and shall, while so serving as Chief of Naval Operations, except as otherwise provided in section 12 of Title 37, Pay and Allowances, receive the pay of $10,000 per annum, and shall receive the allowances which are or may be prescribed by or in pursuance of law for the grade of general in the Army. If an officer of the grade of captain be appointed Chief of Naval Operations, he shall have the rank and title of admiral, as above provided, while holding that position. (Mar. 3, 1915, c. 83, 38 Stat. 929; Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 558; July 1, 1918, c. 114, 40 Stat. 716.)

425. Retired rank and pay.—Should an officer, while serving as Chief of Naval Operations, be retired from active service, he shall be retired with the lineal rank and the retired pay to which he would be entitled had he not been serving as Chief of Naval Operations. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 558.)

426. Assistants.—To assist the Chief of Naval Operations in performing the duties of his office there shall be assigned for this exclusive duty not less than fifteen officers of and above the rank of lieutenant commander of the Navy or major of the Marine Corps. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 558.)

427. Force and effect of orders.—All orders issued by the Chief of Naval Operations in performing the duties assigned him shall be performed under the authority of the Secretary of the Navy, and his orders shall be considered as emanating from the Secretary, and shall have full force and effect as such. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 558.)

JUDGE ADVOCATE GENERAL AND BUREAUS

428. Judge Advocate General; appointment; term; duties.—The President of the United States is authorized to appoint, for the term of four years, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, from the officers of the Navy or the Marine Corps, a Judge Advocate General of the Navy. And the office of the said Judge Advocate General shall be in the Navy Department, where he shall, under the direction of the Secretary of the Navy, receive, revise, and have recorded the proceedings of all courts-martial, courts of inquiry, and boards for the examination of officers for retirement and promotion in the naval service, and perform such other duties as have heretofore been performed by the Solicitor and Naval Judge Advocate General. (June 8, 1880, c. 129, 21 Stat. 164; June 5, 1896, c. 331, 29 Stat. 251; July 1, 1918, c. 114, 40 Stat. 717.)

429. Bureaus; establishment and distribution of business.—Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, the business of the Department of the Navy shall be distributed in such manner as the Secretary of the Navy shall judge to be expedient and proper among the following bureaus:

First. A Bureau of Yards and Docks.

Second. A Bureau of Navigation.

Third. A Bureau of Ordnance.

Fourth. A Bureau of Construction and Repair.

Fifth. A Bureau of Engineering.

Sixth. A Bureau of Supplies and Accounts.

Seventh. A Bureau of Medicine and Surgery.

430. Duties of bureaus; orders; records.—The several bureaus shall retain the charge and custody of the books of records and accounts pertaining to their respective duties, and all of the duties of the bureaus shall be performed under the authority of the Secretary of the Navy, and their orders shall be considered as emanating from him, and shall have full force and effect as such. (R. S. § 420.)

431. Estimates for expenses.—All estimates for specific, general, and contingent expenses of the department, and of the several bureaus, shall be furnished to the Secretary of the Navy by the chiefs of the respective bureaus. (R. S. § 430.)

432. Chiefs of bureaus; appointments generally.—The chiefs of the several bureaus in the Department of the Navy shall be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, from the classes of officers mentioned in sections 433 to 438 of this title, or from officers having the rank of captain in the staff corps of the Navy, on the active list, and shall hold their offices for the term of four years. (R. S. § 421; Mar. 3, 1889, c. 413, § 7, 30 Stat. 1006.)

433. Yards and Docks.—The Chief of the Bureau of Yards and Docks shall be selected from the members of the Corps of Civil Engineers of the Navy having not less than seven years' active service. (R. S. § 422; June 29, 1906, c. 3590, 34 Stat. 564.)

434. Navigation and Ordnance.—The Chiefs of the Bureau of Navigation, and of the Bureau of Ordnance, shall be appointed from the list of officers of the Navy, not below the grade of commander. (R. S. § 422; June 30, 1914, c. 130, 38 Stat. 408.)

435. Construction and Repair.—The Chief of the Bureau of Construction and Repair shall be appointed from the list of officers of the Navy, not below the rank of lieutenant commander, and shall be a skillful naval constructor. Any naval constructor having the rank of captain, commander, or lieutenant commander shall be eligible as Chief of the Bureau of Construction and Repair. (R. S. § 423; Mar. 3, 1893, c. 212, § 1, 27 Stat. 716.)

436. Engineering.—The Chief of the Bureau of Engineering shall be appointed from the line of officers of the Navy not below the grade of lieutenant commander, and shall be a skillful engineer. (R. S. § 424; June 7, 1900, c. 859, § 1, 31 Stat. 702; June 4, 1920, c. 228, 41 Stat. 828.)

437. Supplies and Accounts.—The Chief of the Bureau of Supplies and Accounts shall be appointed from the list of paymasters of the Navy of not less than ten years' standing. (R. S. § 425; July 19, 1892, c. 206, 27 Stat. 243.)

438. Medicine and Surgery.—The Chief of the Bureau of Medicine and Surgery shall be appointed from the list of the surgeons of the Navy. (R. S. § 426.)

439. Aeronautics.—There shall be a Chief of the Bureau of Aeronautics, appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, from among the officers of the active list of the Navy or Marine Corps who shall within one year after his appointment qualify as an aircraft pilot or observer, for a period of four years, and who shall, while holding such position, have the corresponding rank and receive the same pay and allowances as are or may be prescribed by or in pursuance of law for chiefs of bureaus of the Department of the Navy. (July 12, 1921, c. 44, § 8, 42 Stat 140.)

440. Chiefs of bureaus; titles of.—The chiefs of the Bureau of Medicine and Surgery, Supplies and Accounts, Engineering, and Construction and Repair shall have, respectively, the title of Surgeon General, Paymaster General, Engineer in Chief, and Chief Constructor. (R. S. § 1471; July 19, 1892, c. 206, 27 Stat. 243, 245; June 4, 1920, c. 228, 41 Stat. 828.)

441. Rank, pay, and allowances of chiefs of bureaus and Judge Advocate General.—Chiefs of bureaus of the Navy Department, including the Judge Advocate General of the Navy, shall, while so serving, have corresponding rank and shall receive the same pay and allowances as are now or may hereafter be prescribed by or in pursuance of law for chiefs of bureaus of the War Department and the Judge Advocate General of the Army. (July 1, 1918, c. 114, 40 Stat. 717.)

442. Officers retired from position of chief of bureau.—Officers who have been or who shall be retired from the position of chiefs of the bureaus in the Navy Department shall have the rank of rear admiral. (R. S. § 1473; May 13, 1908, c. 166, 35 Stat. 128.)

443. Chief of bureau subsequently retired.—Any officer of the Navy who is now serving or shall hereafter serve as chief of a bureau in the Navy Department, and shall subsequently be retired, shall be retired with the rank, pay and allowances authorized by law for the retirement of such bureau chief, and any officer of the Navy who prior to July 1, 1922, has served four years as chief of a bureau in the Navy Department and shall be retired subsequent to the completion of such period of service for physical disability due to wounds inflicted by the enemy while in the performance of his duty shall be retired with the rank, pay, and allowances now authorized by law for the retirement of a chief of bureau. (May 13, 1908, c. 166, 35 Stat. 128; July 1, 1922, c. 259, 42 Stat. 811.)

444. Assistant to Judge Advocate General.—An officer of the line of the Navy or Marine Corps may be detailed as assistant to the Judge Advocate General of the Navy, who shall, under similar conditions to those prescribed in section 445, perform the duties of the Judge Advocate General. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 558.)

445. Assistants to chiefs of bureaus; Yards and Docks and Construction and Repair.—An officer of the Corps of Civil Engineers may be detailed as assistant to the Chief of the Bureau of Yards and Docks and an officer of the Corps of Naval Constructors as assistant to the Chief of Bureau of Construction and Repair; and, in case of death, resignation, absence, or sickness of the chief of bureau, shall, unless otherwise directed by the President, as provided by section 6 of this title, perform the duties of such chief until his successor is appointed or such absence or sickness shall cease. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 558.)

446. Navigation.—An officer of the Navy not below the rank of commander may be detailed as assistant to the Chief of the Bureau of Navigation in the Navy Department, and, in case of the death, resignation, absence, or sickness of the chief of the bureau, shall, unless otherwise directed by the President, as provided by section 6 of this title, perform the duties of such chief until his successor is appointed or such absence or sickness shall cease. (Mar. 3, 1893, c. 212, § 1, 27 Stat. 717.)

447. Ordnance.—A line officer of the Navy may be detailed temporarily as assistant to the Chief of the Bureau of Ordnance in the Navy Department, and in the case of the death, resignation, absence, or sickness of the chief of the bureau shall, unless otherwise directed by the President, as provided by section 6 of this title, perform the duties of such chief until his successor is appointed or such absence or sickness shall cease, provided that, in case of the death, sickness, or absence on duty of the chief of the bureau and the assistant thereto, the chief clerk shall act as chief of the bureau. (May 4, 1898, c. 234, § 1, 30 Stat. 373.)

448. Engineering.—A line officer of the Navy may be detailed as assistant to the Chief of the Bureau of Engineering in the Navy Department, and in case of death, resignation, absence, or sickness of the chief of the bureau shall, unless otherwise directed by the President, as provided by section 6 of this title, perform the duties of such chief until his successor is appointed or such absence or sickness shall cease. (Mar. 3, 1905, c. 1481, 33 Stat. 1111; June 4, 1920, c. 228, 41 Stat. 828.)

449. Supplies and Accounts.—An officer of the Supply Corps of the Navy may be detailed as assistant to the Chief of the Bureau of Supplies and Accounts in the Navy Department, and such officer shall, in case of the death, resignation, absence, or sickness of the chief of the bureau, unless otherwise directed by the President, as provided by section 6 of this title, perform the duties of such chief until his successor is appointed or such absence or sickness shall cease. (July 26, 1894, c. 165, § 1, 28 Stat. 132; July 11, 1919, c. 9, 41 Stat. 147.)

450. Civilian assistant to Chief of Bureau of Supplies and Accounts.—There shall be a civilian assistant to the Chief of the Bureau of Supplies and Accounts, who shall perform the duties of chief clerk, and in case of the death, resignation, sickness, or absence of both the Paymaster General of the Navy and his assistant, unless otherwise directed by the President, as provided by section 6 of this title, such civilian assistant shall become the acting chief of the bureau. (Mar. 18, 1904, c. 716, § 1, 33 Stat. 121.)

451. Assistant to Bureau of Medicine and Surgery.—A surgeon, assistant surgeon, or passed assistant surgeon, may be detailed as assistant to the Bureau of Medicine and Surgery. (R. S. § 1375.)

452. Assistant Chief of Bureau of Aeronautics.—An officer of the active list of the Navy, or Marine Corps, may be detailed as Assistant Chief of the Bureau of Aeronautics, and, in case of the death, resignation, absence, or sickness of the chief of the bureau shall, until otherwise directed by the President, as provided by section 6 of this title, perform the duties of such chief until his successor is appointed or such absence or sickness shall cease. (July 12, 1921, c. 44, § 8, 42 Stat. 140.)

453. Pay of assistants to chiefs of bureaus and Judge Advocate General.—Any officer of the naval service who is, pursuant to law, detailed to duty as assistant to a chief of bureau of the Navy Department or as assistant to the Judge Advocate General of the Navy, shall, while so serving, receive the highest pay of his rank. (Mar. 4, 1925, c. 536, § 15, 43 Stat. 1275.)

454. Bureau of Supplies and Accounts; duty as to accounts and reports.—It shall be the duty of the Bureau of Supplies and Accounts to cause property accounts to be kept of all the supplies pertaining to the Navy Establishment, and to report annually to Congress the money value of the supplies on hand at the various stations at the beginning of the fiscal year, the dispositions thereof, and of the purchases, and the expenditures of supplies for the year, and the balances remaining on hand at the end thereof. (Mar. 2, 1889, c. 371, § 1, 25 Stat. 817.)

455. Bureau of Aeronautics; duties.—The Bureau of Aeronautics shall be charged with matters pertaining to naval aeronautics as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Navy, and all of the duties of said bureau shall be performed under the authority of the Secretary of the Navy, and its orders shall be considered as emanating from him, and shall have full force and effect as such. (July 12, 1921, c. 44, § 8, 42 Stat. 140.)

456. Detail of officers to Bureau of Aeronautics.—Not to exceed 30 per centum of the officers in each grade below that of rear admiral who fail to qualify as aircraft pilots or as aircraft observers within one year after the date of their detail into the Bureau of Aeronautics shall be permitted to remain detailed in this bureau. (July 12, 1921, c. 44, 42 Stat. 141.)

HYDROGRAPHIC OFFICE

457. Establishment and duties.—There shall be a Hydrographic Office attached to the Bureau of Navigation in the Navy Department, for the improvement of the means for navigating safely the vessels of the Navy and of the mercantile marine, by providing, under the authority of the Secretary of the Navy, accurate and cheap nautical charts, sailing directions, navigators, and manuals of instructions for the use of all vessels of the United States, and for the benefit and use of navigators generally. (R. S. § 431; May 4, 1898, c. 234, 30 Stat. 374; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 148, 37 Stat. 899; June 30, 1914, c. 130, 38 Stat. 408.)

458. Sale of maps, charts, and books.—The Secretary of the Navy is authorized to cause to be prepared, at the Hydrographic Office attached to the Bureau of Navigation, in the Navy Department, maps, charts, and nautical books relating to and required in navigation, and to publish and furnish them to navigators at the cost of printing and paper, and to purchase the plates and copyrights of such existing maps, charts, navigators' sailing directions and instructions, as he may consider necessary, and when he may deem it expedient to do so, and under such regulations and instructions as he may prescribe. (R. S. § 432; Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 77, 28 Stat. 621.)

459. Disposition of receipts from sale of maps, charts, etc.—All sums received from the sale of maps, charts, and other publications issued by the Hydrographic Office after June 30, 1921, shall be covered into the Treasury of the United States as miscellaneous receipts. (May 29, 1920, c. 214, § 1, 41 Stat. 665.)

460. Branch hydrographic offices.—The Secretary of the Navy is authorized to establish branch hydrographic offices at

Duluth, in the State of Minnesota, Sault Sainte Marie, in the State of Michigan, and Buffalo, in the State of New York, the same to be conducted under the provisions of sections 457 to 459 of this title. (June 4, 1897, c. 2, 30 Stat. 39.)

NAVAL OBSERVATORY AND NAUTICAL ALMANAC

461. Naval Observatory; appointment of superintendent.—The Superintendent of the Naval Observatory shall be, until further legislation by Congress, a line officer of the Navy of a rank not below that of captain. (Mar. 8, 1901, c. 852, § 1, 31 Stat. 1122.)

462. Pay of superintendent.—The officer of the Navy employed as Superintendent of the Naval Observatory at Washington shall be entitled to receive the shore-duty pay of his grade, and no other. (R. S. § 434.)

463. Nautical Almanac; supervision.—The Secretary of the Navy may place the supervision of the Nautical Almanac in charge of any officer or professor of mathematics in the Navy who is competent for that service. Such officer or professor, when so employed, shall be entitled to receive the shore-duty pay of his grade, and no other. (R. S. § 436.)

464. Exchange of data; employees.—The Secretary of the Navy is hereby authorized to arrange for the exchange of data with such foreign almanac offices as he may from time to time deem desirable with a view to reducing the amount of duplication of work in preparing the different national nautical and astronomical almanacs and increasing the total data which may be of use to navigators and astronomers available for publication in the American Ephemeris and Nautical Almanac: Provided, That any such arrangement shall be terminable on one year's notice: Provided further, That the work of the Nautical Almanac office during the continuance of any such arrangement shall be conducted so that in case of emergency the entire portion of the work intended for the use of navigators may be computed by the force employed by that office, and without any foreign cooperation whatsoever: Provided further, That any employee of the Nautical Almanac office who may be authorized in any annual appropriation bill and whose services in whole or in part can be spared from the duty of preparing for publication the annual volumes of the American Ephemeris and Nautical Almanac may be employed by said office in the duty of improving the tables of the planets, moon, and stars, to be used in preparing for publication the annual volumes of the office. (Aug. 22, 1912, c. 335, 37 Stat. 342.)

465. Board of Visitors, Naval Observatory; appointment of director of Nautical Almanac.—There shall be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, from persons not officers of the United States a board of six visitors to the Naval Observatory, four to be astronomers of high professional standing and two to be eminent citizens of the United States. Appointments to this board shall be made for periods of three years, but provision shall be made by initial appointments for shorter terms so that two members shall retire in each year. Members of this board shall serve without compensation, but the Secretary of the Navy shall pay the actual expenses necessarily incurred by members of the board in the discharge of such duties as are assigned to them by the Secretary of the Navy or are otherwise imposed upon them. The Board of Visitors shall make an annual visitation to the observatory at a date to be determined by the Secretary of the Navy, and may make such other visitations not exceeding two in number annually by the full board or by a duly appointed committee as may be deemed needful or expedient by a majority of the board. The Board of Visitors shall report to the Secretary of the Navy at least once in each year the result of its examinations of the Naval Observatory as respects the condition of buildings, instruments, and apparatus, and the efficiency with which its scientific work is prosecuted, and shall also report as respects the expenditures in the administration of the observatory. The Board of Visitors shall prepare and submit to the Secretary of the Navy regulations prescribing the scope of the astronomical and other researches of the observatory and the duties of its staff with reference thereto. When an appointment or detail is to be made to the office of astronomical director, director of the Nautical Almanac, astronomer, or assistant astronomer, the Board of Visitors may recommend to the Secretary of the Navy a suitable person to fill such office, but such recommendation shall be determined only by a majority vote of the members present at a regularly called meeting of the board held in the city of Washington. (Mar. 3, 1901, c. 852, § 1, 31 Stat. 1122.)

ANNUAL REPORTS TO CONGRESS

466. Duty of Secretary to make; in general.—The Secretary of the Navy shall make annual reports to Congress upon the following subjects:

A statement of the appropriations of the preceding fiscal year for the Department of the Navy, showing the amount appropriated under each specific head of appropriation, the amount expended under each head, and the balance which, on the 30th day of June preceding such report, remained unexpended. Such report shall be accompanied by estimates of the probable demands which may remain on each appropriation. A statement showing the amounts expended during the preceding fiscal year for wages of mechanics and laborers employed in building, repairing, or equipping vessels of the Navy, or in receiving and securing stores and materials for those purposes, and for the purchase of material and stores for the same purpose; and showing the cost or estimated value of the stores on hand, under this appropriation, in the navy yards, at the commencement of the next preceding fiscal year; and the cost or estimated value of articles received and expended during the year; and the cost or estimated value of the articles belonging to this appropriation which may be on hand in the navy yards at the close of the next preceding fiscal year. A statement of all acts done by him in making sale of any vessel or materials of the Navy; specifying all vessels and materials sold, the parties buying the same, and the amount realized therefrom, together with such other facts as may be necessary to a full understanding of his acts. (R. S. § 429; June 22, 1910, c. 331, 36 Stat. 591.)

467. As to expenditures for civilian employees.—The Secretary of the Navy shall report to Congress, at each regular session, the amount expended during the prior fiscal year, from the appropriations for the pay of the Navy, Bureaus of Navigation, Ordnance, Yards and Docks, Medicine and Surgery, Supplies and Accounts, Construction and Repair, Engineering, and Aeronautics, for civilians employed on clerical duty, or in any other capacity than as ordinary mechanics and workingmen, and to submit, under the estimates for pay of the Navy and for the respective bureaus enumerated above, specific estimates for such civilian employees for each fiscal year. (Jan. 30, 1883, c. 43, § 3, 23 Stat. 295; July 19, 1892, c. 206, § 1, 27 Stat. 243, 245; June 30, 1914, c. 130, 38 Stat. 408; June 4, 1920, c. 228, § 1, 41 Stat. 828; July 12, 1921, c. 44, § 8, 42 Stat. 140.)

468. As to repairs or changes on vessels.—The Secretary of the Navy shall report to Congress, at the commencement of each regular session, the number of vessels and their names upon which any repairs or changes are proposed which in any case shall amount to more than $300,000, the extent of such proposed repairs or changes, and the amounts estimated to be needed for the same in each vessel; and expenditures for such repairs or changes so limited shall be made only after appropriations in detail are provided for by Congress. It shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Navy to report to Congress at the beginning of each regular session thereof, in addition to the report directed to be made as above, a detailed statement showing the amount expended from each of the appropriations for the repair of every ship where such repairs exceed for any one ship the sum of $300,000 in any one fiscal year. (Mar. 2, 1907, c. 2512, 34 Stat. 1195; Mar. 3, 1909, c. 255, 35 Stat. 769; Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 605.)

(R. S. § 444; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

488. Records; copies.—The Secretary of the Interior, the head of any bureau, office, or institution, or any officer of that department, may, when not prejudicial to the interests of the Government, furnish authenticated or unauthenticated copies of any official books, records, papers, documents, maps, plats, or diagrams within his custody, and charge therefor the following fees: For all written copies, at the rate of 15 cents for each hundred words therein; for each photolithographic copy, 25 cents where such copies are authorized by law; for photographic copies, 15 cents for each sheet; and for tracings or blue prints the cost of the production thereof to be determined by the officer furnishing such copies, and in addition to these fees the sum of 25 cents shall be charged for each certificate of verification and the seal attached to authenticated copies. There shall be no charge for the making or verification of copies required for official use by the officers of any branch of the Government. Only a charge of 25 cents shall be made for furnishing authenticated copies of any rules, regulations, or instructions printed by the Government for gratuitous distribution. (Aug. 24, 1912, c. 370, § 1, 37 Stat. 497.)

489. Same; inspection and copying.—Nothing in sections 488 to 492 of this title shall be construed to limit or restrict in any manner the authority of the Secretary of the Interior to prescribe such rules and regulations as he may deem proper governing the inspection of the records of said department and its various bureaus by the general public, and any person having any particular interest in any of such records may be permitted to take copies of such records under such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Interior. (Aug. 24, 1912, c. 370, § 2, 37 Stat. 498.)

490. Same; authenticated copies as evidence.—All authenticated copies furnished under section 488 of this title shall be admitted in evidence equally with the originals thereof. (Aug. 24, 1912, c. 370, § 3, 37 Stat. 498.)

491. Same; attestation of copies by official seal.—All officers who furnish authenticated copies under section 488 of this title shall attest their authentication by the use of an official seal, which is hereby authorized for that purpose. (Aug. 24, 1912, c. 370, § 4, 37 Stat. 498.)

492. Same; disposition of receipts.—All sums received under the provisions of section 488 of this title shall be deposited in the Treasury to the credit of miscellaneous receipts. (Aug. 24, 1912, c. 370, § 6, 37 Stat. 498.)

493. Agents or attorneys representing claimants before department.—The Secretary of the Interior may prescribe rules and regulations governing the recognition of agents, attorneys, or other persons representing claimants before his department, and may require of such persons, agents, and attorneys, before being recognized as representatives of claimants, that they shall show that they are of good moral character and in good repute, possessed of the necessary qualifications to enable them to render such claimants valuable service, and otherwise competent to advise and assist such claimants in the presentation of their claims and such Secretary may, after notice and opportunity for a hearing, suspend or exclude from further practice before his department any such person, agent or attorney shown to be incompetent, disreputable, or who refuses to comply with the said rules and regulations, or who shall with intent to defraud in any manner, deceive, mislead, or threaten any claimant, or prospective claimant, by word, circular, letter, or by advertisement. (July 4, 1884, c. 181, § 5, 23 Stat. 101.)

494. Exchange of automobiles.—The Secretary of the Interior may exchange automobiles in part payment for new machines used for the same purpose as those proposed to be exchanged. (Mar. 2, 1917, c. 146, § 1, 39 Stat. 973.)

495. Annual reports of department and its bureaus.—The annual reports of the department and of all its bureaus and establishments, including the Bureau of Reclamation, shall not exceed a total of one thousand two hundred and fifty pages. (May 24, 1922, c. 199, 42 Stat. 554; Jan. 24, 1923, c. 42, 42 Stat. 1176; June 5, 1924, c. 264, 43 Stat. 392; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 462, 43 Stat. 1143.)

496. Purchase of supplies and equipment or procurement of services for bureaus and offices of Interior Department.—The purchase of supplies and equipment or the procurement of services for the Department of the Interior, the bureaus and offices thereof, including Howard University and the Columbia Institution for the Deaf, at the seat of government, as well as those located in the field outside the District of Columbia, may be made in open market without compliance with sections 5 and 16 of Title 41, in the manner common among business men, when the aggregate amount of the purchase or the service does not exceed $100 in any instance. (May 24, 1922, c. 199, 42 Stat. 553; Jan. 24, 1923, c. 42, 42 Stat. 1176; June 5, 1924, c. 264, 43 Stat. 392; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 462, 43 Stat. 1143.)

Section 511. Establishment of department.—There shall be at the seat of government a Department of Agriculture, the general design and duties of which shall be to acquire and to diffuse among the people of the United States useful information on subjects connected with agriculture, in the most general and comprehensive sense of that word, and to procure, propagate, and distribute among the people new and valuable seeds and plants. (R. S. § 520.)

512. Executive department; Secretary.—The Department of Agriculture shall be an executive department, under the supervision and control of a Secretary of Agriculture, who shall be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent to the Senate. The provisions of chapter 1 of this title shall be applicable to said department; and all laws and parts of laws relating to the Department of Agriculture in existence February 9, 1889, as far as the same are applicable and not in conflict with this chapter, and only so far, are continued in full force and effect. (Feb. 9, 1889, c. 122, §§ 1, 4, 25 Stat. 659.)

Cross reference: Salary of Secretary; see section 3 of this title.

513. Seal.—The Secretary of Agriculture is authorized and directed to procure a proper seal, with such suitable inscriptions and devices as he may approve, to be known as the official seal of the Department of Agriculture, and to be kept and used to verify official documents, under such rules and regulations as he may prescribe. (Aug. 8, 1894, c. 238, § 1, 28 Stat. 272.)

514. General duties of Secretary.—The Secretary of Agriculture shall procure and preserve all information concerning agriculture which he can obtain by means of books and correspondence, and by practical and scientific experiments, accurate records of which experiments shall be kept in his office, by the collection of statistics, and by any other appropriate means within his power; he shall collect new and valuable seeds and plants; shall test, by cultivation, the value of such of them as may require such tests; shall propagate such as may be worthy of propagation; and shall distribute them among agriculturists. (R. S. § 526.)

515. Duties of former Commissioner of Agriculture transferred to Secretary.—The authority granted to the Commissioner of Agriculture by the act of May 29, 1884, establishing the Bureau of Animal Industry, and by the provisions of the appropriation act for the Agricultural Department, approved July 18, 1888, relating to said bureau, is vested in the Secretary of Agriculture; and the said Secretary is authorized and directed to perform all the duties named in said acts. (July 14, 1890, c. 707, 26 Stat. 288.)

516. Custody of property and records.—The Secretary of Agriculture shall have charge, in the building and premises appropriated to the department, of the library, furniture, fixtures, records, and other property appertaining to it, or acquired for use in its business. (R. S. § 525.)

517. Assistant Secretary.—There shall be in the Department of Agriculture an Assistant Secretary of Agriculture, to be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, who shall perform such duties as may be required by law or prescribed by the Secretary. The Assistant Secretary of Agriculture is authorized to perform such duties in the conduct of the business of the Department of Agriculture as may be assigned by the Secretary of Agriculture. (Feb. 9, 1889, c. 122, § 2, 25 Stat. 659; June 30, 1906, c. 3913, 34 Stat. 670.)

518. Solicitor to supervise legal work.—The legal work of the Department of Agriculture shall be performed under the supervision and direction of the solicitor. (May 26, 1910, c. 256, 36 Stat. 416.)

519. Chief clerk.—The Secretary of Agriculture shall appoint a chief clerk. (R. S. § 523; Feb. 10, 1925, c. 200, 43 Stat. 822.)

520. Same; bond.—The chief clerk, before entering upon his duties, shall give bond to the Treasurer of the United States, in the sum of five thousand dollars, conditioned to render a true and faithful account to the Treasurer quarter-yearly of all moneys which shall be by him received by virtue of his office, with sureties to be approved by the Solicitor of the Treasury. Such bond shall be filed in the office of the Secretary of the Treasury, to be by him put in suit upon any breach of the conditions thereof. (R. S. § 524; Mar. 2, 1895, c. 177, § 5, 28 Stat. 807.)

521. Oaths, affirmations, and affidavits taken by officers, agents, or employees of department; use and effect of.—Such officers, agents, or employees of the Department of Agriculture of the United States as are designated by the Secretary of Agriculture for the purpose are authorized and empowered to administer to or take from any person an oath, affirmation, or affidavit whenever such oath, affirmation, or affidavit is for use in any prosecution or proceeding under or in the enforcement of any law committed to or which may be committed to the Secretary of Agriculture or the Department of Agriculture or any bureau or subdivision thereof for administration. Any such oath, affirmation, or affidavit administered or taken by or before such officer, agent, or employee when certified under his hand and authenticated by the seal of the Department of Agriculture may be offered or used in any court of the United States and shall have like force and effect as if administered or taken before a clerk of such court without further proof of the identity or authority of such officer, agent, or employee. (Jan. 31, 1925, c. 124, § 1, 43 Stat. 803.)

522. Same; fee for administering or taking.—No officer, agent, or employee of the Department of Agriculture shall demand or accept any fee or compensation whatsoever for administering or taking any oath, affirmation, or affidavit under the authority conferred by this section and sections 17 and 521 of this title. (Jan. 31, 1925, c. 124, § 2, 43 Stat. 803.)

523. Watchmen.—All duly and lawfully constituted and appointed watchmen of the Department of Agriculture stationed in and upon the buildings and premises of said department in the city of Washington, District of Columbia, shall have and perform the same powers and duties, while on duty in and about said premises, as the Metropolitan police of the District of Columbia. (Mar. 4, 1909, c. 301, 35 Stat. 1057.)

524. Bureaus; laws relating to Plant Industry.—All existing statutes relating to the Division of Soils, reorganized into the Bureau of Soils; the Division of Forestry, reorganized into the Bureau of Forestry; the Division of Chemistry, reorganized into the Bureau of Chemistry; and the Division of Botany, the Division of Pomology, the Division of Vegetable Physiology and Pathology, the Division of Agrostology and Experimental Gardens and Grounds, reorganized into the Bureau of Plant Industry, not otherwise repealed, shall remain in effect as applying to the respective bureaus into which the divisions named have been reorganized. (June 3, 1902, c. 985, 32 Stat. 303.)

525. Disbursing clerk; deputy.—The Chief of Division of Accounts and Disbursements in the Department of Agriculture shall be the administrative officer of the fiscal affairs of the department.

The deputy disbursing clerk shall have authority to sign checks in the name of the disbursing clerk; he shall give bond to the United States in such sum as the Secretary of the Treasury may require, and when so acting for the disbursing clerk shall be subject to all the liabilities and penalties prescribed by law for the official misconduct in like cases of the disbursing clerk for whom he acts, and the official bond of the disbursing clerk executed shall also be made to cover and apply to the acts of the deputy disbursing clerk. (Mar. 4, 1911, c. 238, 36 Stat. 1258.)

526. Promotions of laborers without examination.—All classified laborers whose positions were transferred from the lump funds to the statutory rolls by Act March 3, 1905, c. 1405, 33 Stat. 861, and who were by the last clause of such Act placed in the classified service without further examination in the grades and at the rates of compensation provided therein, are eligible for promotion without further examination. (June 30, 1906, c. 3913, 34 Stat. 695.)

527. Appointments, promotions, and changes in salaries.—The Secretary of Agriculture is authorized to make such appointments, promotions, and changes in salaries, to be paid out of the lump funds of the several bureaus, divisions, and offices of the department as may be for the best interests of the service. (Mar. 4, 1907, c. 2907, 34 Stat. 1280.)

528. Salaries; how paid.—The Secretary of Agriculture is authorized and directed to pay the salary of each employee from the roll of the bureau, independent division, or office in which the employee is working, and no other. (Mar. 4, 1907, c. 2907, 34 Stat. 1280.)

529. Assignment of pay.—The Secretary of Agriculture is authorized to permit employees of the Department of Agriculture to make assignments of their pay, under such regulations as he may prescribe, during such time as they may be in the employ of the said department. (Mar. 4, 1909, c. 301, 35 Stat. 1057.)

530. Details; employees from office of Secretary.—Details may be made from or to the office of the Secretary when necessary and the services of the person whom it is proposed to detail are not required in that office. (Mar. 4, 1907, c. 2907, 34 Stat. 1280.)

531. Same; law clerks.—Law clerks may be detailed by the Secretary of Agriculture for service in or out of Washington. (Mar. 4, 1911, c. 238, 36 Stat. 1236.)

532. Same; from and to library and bureaus and offices.—Employees of the library may be temporarily detailed by the Secretary of Agriculture for library service in the bureaus and offices of the department, and employees of the bureaus and officers of the department engaged in library work may also be temporarily detailed to the library. (Mar. 4, 1911, c. 238, 36 Stat. 1261.)

533. Same; from and to Division of Accounts and Disbursements and bureaus and offices.—Employees of the Division of Accounts and Disbursements may be detailed by the Secretary of Agriculture for accounting and disbursing work in any of the bureaus and offices of the department for duty in or out of the city of Washington, and employees of the bureaus and offices of the department may also be detailed to the Division of Accounts and Disbursements for duty in or out of the city of Washington, traveling expenses of employees so detailed to be paid from the appropriation of the bureau or office in connection with which such travel is performed. (Aug. 10, 1912, c. 284, 37 Stat. 294.)

534. Leaves of absence; employees outside Washington.—The employees of the Department of Agriculture, outside of the city of Washington, may, in the discretion of the Secretary of Agriculture, be granted leave of absence not to exceed fifteen days in any one year, which leave may in exceptional and meritorious cases where such an employee is ill, be extended, in the discretion of the Secretary of Agriculture, not to exceed fifteen days additional in any one year. (May 23, 1908, c. 192, 35 Stat. 267.)

535. Same; employees in Alaska, Hawaii, Porto Rico, and Guam.—Employees of the Department of Agriculture assigned to permanent duty in Alaska, Hawaii, Porto Rico, and Guam may, in the discretion of the Secretary of Agriculture, without additional expense to the Government, be granted leave of absence not to exceed thirty days in any one year, which leave may, in exceptional and meritorious cases where an employee is ill, be extended, in the discretion of the Secretary of Agriculture, not to exceed thirty days additional in any one year. (June 30, 1914, c. 131, 38 Stat. 441.)

536. Same; employees assigned to duty in Virgin Islands.—Employees of the Department of Agriculture assigned to permanent duty in the Virgin Islands shall be entitled to the same privileges as to leave of absence as are conferred upon employees assigned to Alaska, Hawaii, Porto Rico, and Guam by section 535 of this title, and if any employee of the agricultural experiment stations of the United States in Alaska, Hawaii, Porto Rico, Guam, or the Virgin Islands shall elect to postpone the taking of any or all of the annual leave to which he may be entitled under said section 535, he may, in the discretion of the Secretary of Agriculture, subject to the interests of the public service, be allowed to take at one time unused annual leave which may have accumulated within not to exceed four years, and be paid at the rate prevailing during the year such leave of absence has accumulated. (July 24, 1919, c. 26, 41 Stat. 262.)

537. Leave of absence to agricultural experiment station employees in Alaska, Hawaii, and Porto Rico.—The employees of the experiment stations in Alaska, Hawaii, and Porto Rico may in the discretion of the Secretary of Agriculture, without additional expense to the Government, be granted leave of absence not to exceed fifteen days in any one year, which leave may, in exceptional and meritorious cases where such an employee is ill, be extended in the discretion of the Secretary of Agriculture not to exceed fifteen days additional in any one year. (June 30, 1906, c. 3913, 34 Stat. 694.)

538. Traveling expenses.—The Secretary of Agriculture is authorized to purchase from appropriations made for traveling expenses for employees of the Department of Agriculture, mileage and mileage books, at commercial rates, in the manner in which such mileage or mileage books are usually purchased. (Mar. 4, 1907, c. 2907, 34 Stat. 1281.)

539. Same; on transfer between stations.—Officers and employees of the Department of Agriculture transferred from one official station to another for permanent duty, when authorized by the Secretary of Agriculture, may be allowed actual traveling expenses, including charges for the transfer of their effects and personal property used in official work, under such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Agriculture. (Mar. 4, 1911, c. 238, 36 Stat. 1265.)

540. Same; per diem in lieu of subsistence, etc.—When officials and employees of the Department of Agriculture are traveling on official business in the United States, they may be allowed necessary railroad and steamboat fares, sleeping berth, and stateroom on steamboats, livery hire and stage fare, and other means of conveyance between points not accessible by railroad, but in lieu of subsistence and all other traveling expenses they may receive a per diem allowance, to be fixed by the Secretary in each case, in addition to their regular salaries, subject to such rules and regulations as the Secretary of Agriculture may prescribe. (Aug. 10, 1912, c. 284, 37 Stat. 300.)

541. Same; reimbursement for street-car fares.—Officials and employees of the Department of Agriculture may, when authorized by the Secretary of Agriculture, receive reimbursement for moneys expended for street-car fares at their official headquarters when expended in the transaction of official business. (Aug. 10, 1912, c. 284, 37 Stat. 300.)

542. Purchases for bureaus from appropriations for contingent expenses.—The Secretary of Agriculture may purchase stationery, supplies, furniture, and miscellaneous materials from this appropriation for contingent expenses and transfer the same at actual cost to the various bureaus, divisions, and offices of the Department of Agriculture in the city of Washington, reimbursement therefor to be made to such appropriation by said bureaus, divisions, and offices from their lump-fund appropriations by transfer settlements through the Treasury Department. (Aug. 10, 1912, c. 284, 37 Stat. 296.)

543. Reimbursement of appropriation for salaries and compensation of employees in mechanical shops.—The Secretary of Agriculture may, by transfer settlements through the General Accounting Office, reimburse any appropriation made for the salaries and compensation of employees in the mechanical shops of the department from the appropriation made for the bureau, office, or division for which any work in said shops is performed, and such reimbursement shall be at the actual cost of labor for such work. (May 11, 1922, c. 185, 42 Stat. 508.)

544. Sale of waste paper.—The Secretary of Agriculture is authorized to sell as waste paper, or otherwise to dispose of the accumulation of department files which do not constitute permanent records, and all other documents and publications which have become obsolete or worthless. (Mar. 4, 1907, c. 2907, 34 Stat. 1281.)

545. Exchange of typewriters and computing machines.—The Secretary of Agriculture may exchange typewriters and computing, addressing, and duplicating machines purchased from any lump-fund appropriation of the Department of Agriculture. (Aug. 10, 1912, c. 284, 37 Stat. 296.)

546. Exchange of scientific apparatus and laboratory equipment.—The Secretary of Agriculture may exchange general scientific apparatus and laboratory equipment purchased from any appropriation of the Department of Agriculture. (June 30, 1914, c. 131, 38 Stat. 441.)

547. Exchange of motor-propelled vehicles.—The Secretary of Agriculture may exchange motor-propelled and horse-drawn vehicles and boats in part payment for new motor-propelled or horse-drawn passenger-carrying vehicles authorized to be purchased by him, to be used for the same purposes as those proposed to be exchanged. He shall, on the first day of each regular session of Congress, make a report to Congress, for the fiscal year last closed showing, as to each exchange hereunder, the make of the vehicle, the period of its use, the allowance therefor, and the vehicle, make thereof, and price, including exchange value, paid or to be paid, for each vehicle procured through such exchange. The Secretary of Agriculture may also exchange used parts, accessories, tires, or equipment of motor-propelled and horse-drawn vehicles in part payment for new parts, accessories, tires, or equipment of such vehicles authorized to be purchased by him, to be used for the same purposes as those proposed to be exchanged. (Mar. 4, 1917, c. 179, 39 Stat. 1167; May 31, 1920, c. 217 41 Stat. 728; Feb. 10, 1925, c. 200, 43 Stat. 850.)

548. Exchange of books.—The Secretary of Agriculture may exchange books and periodicals of the library not needed for permanent use for other books and periodicals. (Mar. 4, 1915, c. 144, 38 Stat. 1107.)

549. Sale or exchange of animals or animal products.—The Secretary of Agriculture is authorized to sell in the open market or to exchange for other livestock such animals or animal products as cease to be needed in the work of the department, and all moneys received from the sale of such animals or animal products or as a bonus in the exchange of the same shall be deposited in the Treasury of the United States as miscellaneous receipts. (Mar. 4, 1915, c. 144, 38 Stat. 1114.)

550. American bison for municipalities or public institutions.—The Secretary of Agriculture may, in his discretion and under such conditions as he may prescribe, supply to any municipality or public institution not more than one American bison from any surplus which may exist in any herd under the control of the Department of Agriculture; and, in order to aid in the propagation of the species, animals may be loaned to or exchanged with other owners of American bison. (July 24, 1919, c. 26, 41 Stat. 270.)

551. Sale of copies of card index of publications.—The Secretary of Agriculture may furnish to such institutions or individuals as may care to buy them, copies of the card index of the publications of the department and of other agricultural literature prepared by the library, and charge for the same a price covering the additional expense involved in the preparation of these copies. He may furnish to such institutions or individuals as may care to buy them copies of the card index of agricultural literature prepared by the Office of Experiment Stations, and charge for the same a price covering the additional expense involved in the preparation of these copies, the money received from such sales to be deposited in the Treasury of the United States as miscellaneous receipts. He may furnish to such institutions or individuals as may care to buy them copies of the card index of agricultural literature prepared by the Department of Agriculture in connection with its administration of sections 362, 363, 366, 368, 369, and 371 of Title 7, and charge for the same a price covering the additional expenses involved in the preparation of these copies, the money received from such sales to be deposited in the Treasury of the United States as miscellaneous receipts. (May 23, 1908, c. 192, 35 Stat. 264, 266; Mar. 4, 1915, c. 144, 38 Stat. 1109.)

552. Sale of photographic prints and maps.—The Secretary of Agriculture may dispose of photographic prints (including bromide enlargements), lantern slides, transparencies, blue prints, and forest maps at cost and 10 per centum additional, and condemned property or materials under his charge in the same manner as provided by law for other bureaus. (Mar. 4, 1907, c. 2907, 34 Stat. 1260.)

553. Sale of prints and lantern slides.—The Secretary of Agriculture is authorized to furnish, upon application, prints and lantern slides from negatives in the possession of the department and to charge for the same a price to cover the cost of preparation, such price to be determined and established by the Secretary of Agriculture, and the money received from such sales to be deposited in the Treasury of the United States. (Mar. 4, 1907, c. 2907, 34 Stat. 1281.)

554. Loan, rental or sale of films.—The Secretary of Agriculture is authorized, under such rules and regulations and subject to such conditions as he may prescribe, to loan, rent, or sell copies of films. In the sale or rental of films educational institutions or associations for agricultural education not organized for profit shall have preference. All moneys received from such rentals or sales to be covered into the Treasury of the United States as miscellaneous receipts. (Mar. 4, 1917, c. 179, 39 Stat. 1157; May 31, 1920, c. 217, 41 Stat. 718.)

555. Sale of samples of pure sugars.—The Secretary of Agriculture may furnish, upon application, samples of pure sugars, naval stores, microscopical specimens, and other products to State and municipal officers, educational institutions, and other parties and charge for the same a price to cover the cost thereof, such price to be determined and established by the Secretary, and the money received from sales to be deposited in the Treasury of the United States as miscellaneous receipts. (Mar. 4, 1915, c. 144, 38 Stat. 1101.)

556. Sale of kelp.—The product obtained from experimentation at the Government kelp plant at Summerfield, California, may be sold at a price to be determined by the Secretary of Agriculture, and the amount obtained from the sale thereof shall be covered into the Treasury as miscellaneous receipts. (May 31, 1920, c. 217, 41 Stat. 714.)

557. Reports.—The Secretary of Agriculture shall annually make a general report in writing of his acts to the President and to Congress, in which he may recommend the publication of papers forming parts of or accompanying his report, which shall also contain an account of all moneys received and expended by him. He shall also make special reports on particular subjects whenever required to do so by the President or either House of Congress, or when he shall think the subject in his charge requires it. His report in detail of moneys expended by him or under his direction shall be made to Congress on or before the 15th day of December in each year. (R. S. §§ 528, 529.)

558. Same; additional statement of expenditures.—In addition to the proper vouchers and accounts for the sums appropriated for the Department of Agriculture to be furnished to the accounting officers of the Treasury, the Secretary of Agriculture shall, at the commencement of each regular session, present to Congress a detailed statement of the expenditure of all appropriations for said department for the last preceding fiscal year. (Mar. 3, 1885, c. 338, § 2, 23 Stat. 356; Aug. 11, 1916, c. 313, 39 Stat. 492.)

559. Same; amount paid for quarters.—The Secretary of Agriculture shall submit annually to Congress in his estimates of appropriations a statement showing what proportion of this appropriation is paid for the quarters occupied by the various branches of the department. (Aug. 11, 1916, c. 313, 39 Stat. 469.)

560. Same; suppression of contagious diseases among domestic animals.—The Secretary of Agriculture shall report annually to Congress, at the commencement of each session, a list of the names of all persons employed, an itemized statement of all expenditures under section 391 of title 7 and sections 112 to 115, 117 to 119, and 130 of title 21, and full particulars of the means adopted and carried into effect for the suppression of contagious, infectious, or communicable diseases among domestic animals. (May 29, 1884, c. 60, § 11, 23 Stat. 33.)

561. Same; estimates for executive officers.—The Secretary of Agriculture shall annually transmit to the Secretary of the Treasury for submission to Congress in the Book of Estimates detailed estimates for all executive officers, clerks, and employees below the grade of clerk, indicating the salary or compensation of each, necessary to be employed by the various bureaus, offices, and divisions of the Department of Agriculture, and shall include with such estimates a statement of all executive officers, clerks, and employees below the grade of clerk who may have been employed during the last completed fiscal year on any lump-fund appropriation for the department and the salary or compensation of each. (Aug. 11, 1916, c. 313, 39 Stat. 492.)

562. Same; completed investigations; report of duplicated services.—The Secretary of Agriculture is to submit to Congress at the beginning of each regular session a report showing what investigations devolved upon the Department of Agriculture have been completed during the preceding fiscal year, and also showing what services, if any, devolved upon the department are being performed or duplicated, in whole or in part, by any other department, bureau, or agency of the Government. (Aug. 11, 1916, c. 313, 39 Stat. 492; Mar. 3, 1921, c. 127, 41 Stat. 1347.)

563. Cooperation with State and other agencies; expenditures.—In carrying on the activities of the Department of Agriculture involving cooperation with State, county and municipal agencies, associations of farmers, individual farmers, universities, colleges, boards of trade, chambers of commerce, or other local associations of business men, business organizations, and individuals within the State, Territory, district or insular possession in which such activities are to be carried on, moneys contributed from such outside sources, except in the case of the authorized activities of the Forest Service, shall be paid only through the Secretary of Agriculture or through State, county or municipal agencies, or local farm bureaus or like organizations, cooperating for the purpose with the Secretary of Agriculture. (July 24, 1919, c. 26, 41 Stat. 270.)

564. Same; salaries of employees of department.—The officials and the employees of the Department of Agriculture engaged in the activities described in section 563 of this title and paid in whole or in part out of funds contributed as provided therein, and the persons, corporations, or associations making contributions as therein provided, shall not be subject to section 66 of this title; nor shall any official or employee engaged in the cooperative activities of the Forest Service, or the persons, corporations, or associations contributing to such activities be subject to said section 66. (July 24, 1919, c. 26, 41 Stat. 270.)

(Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, §§ 4, 12, 32 Stat. 826, 830; June 17, 1910, c. 301, § 4, 36 Stat. 537; Aug. 23, 1912, c. 350, 37 Stat. 407; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, § 3, 37 Stat. 757; Jan. 5, 1923, c. 23, § 1, 42 Stat. 1109.)

598. Same; records, etc.—The official records and papers on file in and pertaining exclusively to the business of any bureau, office, department, or branch of the public service transferred to the Department of Commerce, together with the furniture in use in such bureau, office, department, or branch of the public service, are transferred to the Department of Commerce. (Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, § 4, 32 Stat. 826.)

599. Duties and powers vested in department.—All duties performed and all power and authority possessed or exercised by the head of any executive department in and over any bureau, office, officer, board, branch, or division of the public service transferred to the Department of Commerce, or any business arising therefrom or pertaining thereto, or in relation to the duties performed by and authority conferred by law upon such bureau, officer, office, board, branch or division of the public service, whether of an appellate or revisory character or otherwise, shall be vested in and exercised by the Secretary of Commerce. (Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, § 10, 32 Stat. 829.)

600. Same; merchant vessels, shipping, navigation, etc.—All duties, power, authority and jurisdiction, whether supervisory, appellate, or otherwise, formerly imposed or conferred upon the Secretary of the Treasury by acts of Congress relating to merchant vessels or yachts, their measurement, numbers, names, registers, enrollments, licenses, commissions, records, mortgages, bills of sale, transfers, entry, clearance, movements and transportation of their cargoes and passengers, owners, officers, seamen, passengers, fees, inspection, equipment for the better security of life, and by acts of Congress relating to tonnage tax, boilers on steam vessels, the carrying of inflammable, explosive or dangerous cargo on vessels, the use of petroleum or other similar substances to produce motive power and relating to the remission or refund of fines, penalties, forfeitures, exactions or charges incurred for violating any provision of law relating to vessels or seamen or to informer's shares of such fines, and by acts of Congress relating to the Commissioner and Bureau of Navigation, Shipping Commissioners, their officers and employees, Steamboat Inspection Service and any of the officials thereof, are transferred to and imposed and conferred upon the Secretary of Commerce from and after the time of the transfer of the Bureau of Navigation, the Shipping Commissioners and the Steamboat Inspection Service to the Department of Commerce. (Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, § 10, 32 Stat. 829.)

601. Statistical information.—The Secretary of Commerce shall have control of the work of gathering and distributing statistical information naturally relating to the subjects confided to his department; and he shall have the power and authority to rearrange the statistical work of the bureaus and offices confided to the Department of Commerce, and to consolidate any of the statistical bureaus and offices above described. He shall also have authority to call upon other departments of the Government for statistical data and results obtained by them; and he may collate, arrange, and publish such statistical information so obtained in such manner as to him may seem wise. (Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, § 4, 32 Stat. 826.)

602. Transfer of statistical or scientific work.—The President is authorized, by order in writing, to transfer at any time the whole or any part of any office, bureau, division or other branch of the public service engaged in statistical or scientific work, from the Department of State, the Department of the Treasury, the Department of War, the Department of Justice, the Post Office Department, the Department of the Navy or the Department of the Interior, to the Department of Commerce; and in every such case the duties and authority performed by and conferred by law upon such office, bureau, division or other branch of the public service, or the part thereof so transferred, shall be thereby transferred with such office, bureau, division or other branch of the public service, or the part thereof which is so transferred. All power and authority conferred by law, both supervisory and appellate, upon the department from which such transfer is made, or the Secretary thereof, in relation to the said office, bureau, division or other branch of the public service, or the part thereof so transferred, shall immediately, when such transfer is so ordered by the President, be fully conferred upon and vested in the Department of Commerce, or the Secretary thereof, as the case may be, as to the whole or part of such office, bureau, division or other branch of the public service so transferred. (Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, § 12, 32 Stat. 830.)

603. Custody of buildings; officers transferred.—The Secretary of Commerce shall have charge, in the buildings or premises occupied by or appropriated to the Department of Commerce, of the library, furniture, fixtures, records, and other property pertaining to it or acquired for use in its business; and he shall be allowed to expend for periodicals and the purposes of the library, and for the rental of appropriate quarters for the accommodation of the Department of Commerce within the District of Columbia, and for all other incidental expenses, such sums as Congress may provide from time to time. Where any office, bureau, or branch of the public service transferred to the Department of Commerce is occupying rented buildings or premises, it may still continue to do so until other suitable quarters are provided for its use. All officers, clerks, and employees employed on February 14, 1903 in or by any of the bureaus, offices, departments, or branches of the public service transferred to the Department of Commerce are each and all transferred to said department, except where otherwise provided by law. All laws prescribing the work and defining the duties of the several bureaus, offices, departments, or branches of the public service transferred to and made a part of the Department of Commerce shall, so far as the same are not in conflict with the provisions of this chapter, remain in full force and effect until otherwise provided by law. (Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, § 9, 32 Stat. 829.)

604. Annual and special reports.—The Secretary of Commerce shall annually, at the close of each fiscal year, make a report in writing to Congress, giving an account of all moneys received and disbursed by him and his department, and describing the work done by the department in fostering, promoting, and developing the foreign and domestic commerce, the mining, manufacturing, shipping, and fishery industries, and the transportation facilities, of the United States, and making such recommendations as he shall deem necessary for the effective performance of the duties and purposes of the department. He shall also from time to time make such special investigations and reports as he may be required to do by the President, or by either House of Congress, or which he himself may deem necessary and urgent. (Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, § 8, 32 Stat. 829.)

605. Lease of Commerce Building.—The Secretary of Commerce is authorized, in his discretion, to enter into a contract for the lease for a period not to exceed five years with an option for a period of five additional years, of the Commerce Building, occupied on March 1, 1919, by the Department of Commerce, at an annual rental not to exceed $65,500. (Mar. 1, 1919, c. 86, § 1, 40 Stat. 1262.)

Section 631. Regulation of admissions to civil service.—The President is authorized to prescribe such regulations for the admission of persons into the civil service of the United States as may best promote the efficiency thereof, and ascertain the fitness of each candidate in respect to age, health, character, knowledge, and ability for the branch of service into which he seeks to enter; and for this purpose he may employ suitable persons to conduct such inquiries, and may prescribe their duties, and establish regulations for the conduct of persons who may receive appointments in the civil service. (R. S. § 1753.)

632. Civil Service Commission; appointment; removal.—The President is authorized to appoint, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, three persons, not more than two of whom shall be adherents of the same party, as civil service commissioners, and said three commissioners shall constitute the United States Civil Service Commission. Said commissioners shall hold no other official place under the United States.

The President may remove any commissioner; and any vacancy in the position of commissioner shall be so filled by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, as to conform to said conditions for the first selection of commissioners.

Each of said commissioners shall be paid, in addition to his salary, his necessary traveling expenses incurred in the discharge of his duty as a commissioner. (Jan. 16, 1883, c. 27, § 1, 22 Stat. 403.)

633. Rules.—It shall be the duty of said commissioners:

(1) Preparation of.—First. To aid the President, as he may request, in preparing suitable rules for carrying this section and sections 632, 635, 637, 638, and 640 to 642 of this title, into effect, and when said rules shall have been promulgated it shall be the duty of all officers of the United States in the departments and offices to which any such rules may relate to aid, in all proper ways, in carrying said rules, and any modification thereof, into effect.

(2) Provisions of.—Second. Among other things, said rules shall provide and declare, as nearly as the conditions of good administration will warrant, as follows:

1. Competitive examinations.

First. For open, competitive examinations for testing the fitness of applicants for the public service classified on January 16, 1883, or thereafter, or to be classified hereunder. Such examinations shall be practical in their character, and so far as may be shall relate to those matters which will fairly test the relative capacity and fitness of the persons examined to discharge the duties of the service into which they seek to be appointed.

2. Selection of officers, etc., according to results of examinations.

Second. All the offices, places, and employments so arranged or to be arranged in classes shall be filled by selections according to grade from among those graded highest as the results of such competitive examinations.

3. Apportionment of appointments; applications for examinations.

Third. Appointments to the public service aforesaid in the departments at Washington shall be apportioned among the several States and Territories and the District of Columbia upon the basis of population as ascertained at the last preceding census. Every application for an examination shall contain, among other things, a statement, under oath, setting forth his or her actual bona fide residence at the time of making the application, as well as how long he or she has been a resident of such place.

4. Probation before absolute appointment.

Fourth. There shall be a period of probation before any absolute appointment or employment aforesaid.

5. Contributions for political purposes.

Fifth. No person in the public service is for that reason under any obligations to contribute to any political fund, or to render any political service, and that he will not be removed or otherwise prejudiced for refusing to do so.

6. Political coercion by officers.

Sixth. No person in said service has any right to use his official authority or influence to coerce the political action of any person or body.

7. Noncompetitive examinations in certain cases.

Seventh. There shall be noncompetitive examinations in all proper cases before the commission, when competent persons do not compete, after notice has been given of the existence of the vacancy, under such rules as may be prescribed by the commissioners as to the manner of giving notice.

8. Notice of appointments, rejections, transfers, resignations, and removals; exceptions to be set forth with rules.

Eighth. Notice shall be given in writing by the appointing power to said commission of the persons selected for appointment or employment from among those who have been examined, of the place of residence of such persons, of the rejection of any such persons after probation, of transfers, resignations, and removals, and of the date thereof, and a record of the same shall be kept by said commission. Any necessary exceptions from said eight fundamental provisions of the rules shall be set forth in connection with such rules, and the reasons therefor shall be stated in the annual reports of the commission.

(3) Regulations for examinations, and records.—Third. Said commission shall, subject to the rules that may be made by the President, make regulations for, and have control of, such examinations, and, through its members or the examiners, it shall supervise and preserve the records of the same; and said commission shall keep minutes of its own proceedings.

(4) Investigations and reports.—Fourth. Said commission may make investigations concerning the facts, and may report upon all matters touching the enforcement and effects of said rules and regulations, and concerning the action of any examiner or board of examiners hereinafter provided for, and its own subordinates, and those in the public service, in respect to the execution of this section and sections 632, 635, 637, 638, and 640 to 642 of this title.

(5) Annual reports.—Fifth. Said commission shall make an annual report to the President for transmission to Congress, showing its own action, the rules and regulations and the exceptions thereto in force, the practical effects thereof, and any suggestions it may approve for the more effectual accomplishment of the purposes of sections 632, 633, 635, 637, 638 and 640 to 642. (Jan. 16, 1883, c. 27, § 2, 22 Stat. 403.)

634. Oaths to witnesses.—Members of the Civil Service Commission and its duly authorized representatives are authorized to administer oaths to witnesses in any matter depending before the Civil Service Commission. (Aug. 23, 1912, c. 350, § 1, 37 Stat. 372.)

635. Chief examiner; secretary; employees; boards of examiners.—Said commission is authorized to employ a chief examiner, a part of whose duty it shall be, under its direction, to act with the examining boards, so far as practicable, whether at Washington or elsewhere, and to secure accuracy, uniformity, and justice in all their proceedings, which shall be at all times open to him. The chief examiner shall be paid in addition to his salary, his necessary traveling expenses incurred in the discharge of his duty. The commission shall have a secretary, to be appointed by the President. It may, when necessary, employ a stenographer, and a messenger. The commission shall, at Washington, and in one or more places in each State and Territory where examinations are to take place, designate and select a suitable number of persons, not less than three, in the official service of the United States, residing in said State or Territory, after consulting the head of the department or office in which such persons serve, to be members of boards of examiners, and may at any time substitute any other person in said service living in such State or Territory in the place of any one so selected. Such boards of examiners shall be so located as to make it reasonably convenient and inexpensive for applicants to attend before them; and where there are persons to be examined in any State or Territory, examinations shall be held therein at least twice in each year. It shall be the duty of the collector, postmaster, and other officers of the United States, at any place outside of the District of Columbia where examinations are directed by the President or by said board to be held, to allow the reasonable use of the public buildings for holding such examinations, and in all proper ways to facilitate the same. (Jan. 16, 1883, c. 27, § 3, 22 Stat. 404; June 12, 1922, c. 218, 42 Stat. 637.)

636. Detail of employees.—The Civil Service Commission shall have power in case of emergency to transfer or detail any of its employees to or from its office or field force. (Mar. 3, 1925, c. 468, § 1, 43 Stat. 1200.)

637. Violation of duties by commissioners or officers, etc.—Any said commissioner, examiner, copyist, or messenger, or any person in the public service who shall willfully and corruptly, by himself or in cooperation with one or more other persons, defeat, deceive, or obstruct any person in respect of his or her right of examination according to any such rules or regulations, or who shall willfully, corruptly, and falsely mark, grade, estimate, or report upon the examination or proper standing of any person examined hereunder, or aid in so doing, or who shall willfully and corruptly make any false representations concerning the same or concerning the person examined, or who shall willfully and corruptly furnish to any person any special or secret information for the purpose of either improving or injuring the prospects or chances of any person so examined, or to be examined, being appointed, employed, or promoted, shall for each such offense be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine of not less than $100, nor more than $1,000, or by imprisonment not less than ten days, nor more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment. (Jan. 16, 1883, c. 27, § 5, 22 Stat. 405.)

638. Appointments and promotions in classified service; examinations.—No officer or clerk shall be appointed, and no person shall be employed to enter or be promoted in either of the classes of employees existing on January 16, 1883, or that may thereafter exist, until he has passed an examination, or is shown to be specially exempted from such examination in conformity herewith. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to take from those honorably discharged from the military or naval service any preference conferred by section 35 of this title, nor to take from the President any authority not inconsistent with sections 632, 633, 635, 637, 638, 640 to 642 of this title, conferred by section 631 of this title; nor shall any officer not in the executive branch of the government, or any person merely employed as a laborer or workman, be required to be classified hereunder; nor, unless by direction of the Senate, shall any person who has been nominated for confirmation by the Senate be required to be classified or to pass an examination. (Jan. 16, 1883, c. 27, § 7, 22 Stat. 406.)

639. Deputy collectors of internal revenue and deputy marshals.—Any deputy collector of internal revenue or deputy marshal who may be required by law or by authority or direction of the collector of internal revenue or the United States marshal to execute a bond to the collector of internal revenue or United States marshal to secure faithful performance of official duty may be appointed by the said collector or marshal, who may require such bond without regard to the provisions of sections 632, 633, 635, 637, 638, 640, 641, and 642 of this title, or any rule or regulation made in pursuance thereof, and the officer requiring said bond shall have power to revoke the appointment of any subordinate officer or employee and appoint his successor at his discretion without regard to said sections, rules, or regulations aforesaid. (Oct. 22, 1913, c. 32, 38 Stat. 208.)

640. Habitual users of intoxicants.—No person habitually using intoxicating beverages to excess shall be appointed to, or retained in, any office, appointment, or employment to which the provisions of sections 632, 633, 635, 637, 638, and 640 to 642 of this title are applicable. (Jan. 16, 1883, c. 27, § 8, 22 Stat. 406.)

641. Members of same family.—Whenever there are already two or more members of a family in the public service in the grades covered by sections 632, 633, 635, 637, 638, and 640 to 642 of this title, no other member of such family shall be eligible to appointment to any of said grades. (Jan. 16, 1883, c. 27, § 9, 22 Stat. 406.)

642. Recommendations by Senators or Representatives.—No recommendation of any person who shall apply for office or place under the provisions of sections 632, 633, 635, 637, 638, and 640 to 642 of this title which may be given by any Senator or Member of the House of Representatives, except as to the character or residence of the applicant, shall be received or considered by any person concerned in making any examination or appointment under said sections. (Jan. 16, 1883, c. 27, § 10, 22 Stat. 406.)

643. Applications for examinations; certificate of residence.—Every application for examination before the Civil Service Commission for appointment in the departmental service in the District of Columbia, shall be accompanied by a certificate of an officer, with his official seal attached, of the county and State of which the applicant claims to be a citizen, that such applicant was, at the time of making such application, an actual and bona fide resident of said county, and had been such resident for a period of not less than six months next preceding; but this provision shall not apply to persons who may be in the service and seek promotion or appointment in other branches of the Government. (July 11, 1890, c. 667, § 1, 26 Stat. 235.)

644. Place of examinations; persons afflicted with tuberculosis; certificate of health; appointments from same family.—All examinations of applicants for positions in the Government service, from any State or Territory, shall be had in the State or Territory in which such applicant resides, and no person shall be eligible for such examination or appointment unless he or she shall have been actually domiciled in such State or Territory for at least one year previous to such examination. The Civil Service Commission shall hold examinations of applicants temporarily absent from the places of their legal residence or domicile in the District of Columbia and elsewhere in the United States where examinations are usually held, upon proof satisfactory to the commission that such applicants are bona fide residents of the States or Territories in which such applicants claim to have legal residence or domicile. Nothing herein shall be so construed as to abridge the existing law of apportionment or change the requirements of existing law as to legal residence or domicile of such applicants. No person afflicted with tuberculosis shall be appointed and each applicant for appointment shall accompany his or her application with a certificate of health from some reputable physician. In no instance shall more than one person be appointed from the same family. (July 2, 1909, c. 2, § 7, 36 Stat. 3; Mar. 27, 1918, c. 27, 40 Stat. 459; Mar. 3, 1919, c. 97, § 7, 40 Stat. 1293.)

645. Civil service status of soldiers, sailors, and marines.—The period of time during which soldiers, sailors, and marines, both enlisted and drafted men, who, prior to entering the service of their country, had a civil service status, and whose names appear upon the eligible list of the Civil Service Commission, shall not be counted against them in the determination of their eligibility for appointment under the law, rules and regulations of the Civil Service Commission in effect on March 1, 1919, and at the time of demobilization their civil service status shall be the same as when they entered the service. (Mar. 1, 1919, c. 86, § 1, 40 Stat. 1224.)

646. Bureau of Efficiency.—The division of efficiency of the Civil Service Commission shall be an independent establishment and shall be known as the Bureau of Efficiency. (Feb. 28, 1916, c. 37, § 1, 39 Stat. 15.)

647. Same; chief of bureau reports.—The Chief of the Bureau of Efficiency shall be appointed by the President and shall report to Congress at the beginning of each regular session, through the President, the nature and progress of work undertaken by the division together with a detailed statement of expenditures showing the persons employed, their duties, and the compensation paid to each. (Mar. 4, 1915, c. 141, § 1, 38 Stat. 1007, 1008.)

648. Same; efficiency ratings for classified service in executive departments.—The Bureau of Efficiency shall, subject to the approval of the President, establish a system of efficiency ratings for the classified service in the several executive departments in the District of Columbia based upon records kept in each department and independent establishment with such frequency as to make them as nearly as possible records of fact. Such system shall provide a minimum rating of efficiency which must be attained by an employee before he may be promoted; it shall also provide a rating below which no employee may fall without being demoted; it shall further provide for a rating below which no employee may fall without being dismissed for inefficiency. All promotions, demotions, or dismissals shall be governed by provisions of the civil-service rules. Copies of all records of efficiency shall be furnished by the departments and independent establishments to the Bureau of Efficiency for record in accordance with the provisions of this section. In the event of reductions being made in the force in any of the executive departments no honorably discharged soldier or sailor whose record in said department is rated good shall be discharged or dropped or reduced in rank or salary.

Any person knowingly violating the provisions of this section shall be summarily removed from office, and may also upon conviction thereof be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year. (Aug. 23, 1912, c. 350, § 4, 37 Stat. 413; Feb. 28, 1916, c. 37, § 1, 39 Stat. 15.)

649. Same; reports as to needs of personnel in departments.—The Bureau of Efficiency shall investigate and report to the President, with its recommendations, as to the administrative needs of the service relating to personnel in the several executive departments and independent establishments in the District of Columbia, and report to Congress details of expenditure and of progress of work at the beginning of each regular session. (Mar. 4, 1913, c. 142, § 1, 37 Stat. 750; Feb. 28, 1916, c. 37, § 1, 39 Stat. 15.)

650. Same; information furnished to by departments.—Officers and employees of the executive departments and other establishments shall furnish authorized representatives of the Bureau of Efficiency with all information that the bureau may require for the performance of the duties imposed on it by law, and shall give such representatives access to all records and papers that may be needed for that purpose. (Mar. 3, 1917, c. 163, § 1, 39 Stat. 1081.)

651. Same; records and papers transferred to.—Not later than June 30, 1919, all books, records, and papers relating to the investigations of duplication of statistical and other work and to the work of the statistical clearing house of the Central Bureau of Planning and Statistics shall be transferred to the Bureau of Efficiency. (July 11, 1919, c. 6, § 1, 41 Stat. 36.)

86270°—26——5

652. Removals from classified civil service only for cause.—No person in the classified civil service of the United States shall be removed therefrom except for such cause as will promote the efficiency of said service and for reasons given in writing, and the person whose removal is sought shall have notice of the same and of any charges preferred against him, and be furnished with a copy thereof, and also be allowed a reasonable time for personally answering the same in writing; and affidavits in support thereof; but no examination of witnesses nor any trial or hearing shall be required except in the discretion of the officer making the removal; and copies of charges, notice of hearing, answer, reasons for removal, and of the order of removal shall be made a part of the records of the proper department or office, as shall also the reasons for reduction in rank or compensation; and copies of the same shall be furnished to the person affected upon request, and the Civil Service Commission also shall, upon request, be furnished copies of the same. Membership in any society, association, club, or other form of organization of postal employees not affiliated with any outside organization imposing an obligation or duty upon them to engage in any strike, or proposing to assist them in any strike, against the United States, having for its objects, among other things, improvements in the condition of labor of its members, including hours of labor and compensation therefor and leave of absence, by any person or groups of persons in said Postal Service, or the presenting by any such person or groups or persons of any grievance or grievances to the Congress or any Member thereof shall not constitute or be cause for reduction in rank or compensation or removal of such person or groups of persons from said service. The right of persons employed in the civil service of the United States, either individually or collectively, to petition Congress, or any Member thereof, or to furnish information to either House of Congress, or to any committee or member thereof, shall not be denied or interfered with. (Aug. 24, 1912, c. 389, § 6, 37 Stat. 555.)

Section 661. Citation.—This chapter may be cited as "The Classification Act of 1923." (Mar. 4, 1923, c. 265, § 1, 42 Stat. 1488.)

662. Definitions.—The term "compensation schedules" means the schedules of positions, grades, and salaries, as contained in section 673 of this title.

The term "department" means an executive department of the United States Government, a governmental establishment in the executive branch of the United States Government which is not a part of an executive department, the municipal government of the District of Columbia, the Botanic Garden, Library of Congress, Library Building and Grounds, Government Printing Office, and the Smithsonian Institution.

The term "the head of the department" means the officer or group of officers in the department who are not subordinate or responsible to any other officer of the department.

The term "board" means the Personnel Classification Board established by section 663.

The term "position" means a specific civilian office or employment, whether occupied or vacant, in a department other than the following: Offices or employments in the Postal Service; teachers, librarians, school attendance officers, and employees of the community center department under the Board of Education of the District of Columbia; officers and members of the metropolitan police, the fire department of the District of Columbia, and the United States park police; and the commissioned personnel of the Coast Guard, the Public Health Service, and the Coast and Geodetic Survey.

The term "employee" means any person temporarily or permanently in a position.

The term "service" means the broadest division of related offices and employments.

The term "grade" means a subdivision of a service, including one or more positions for which approximately the same basic qualifications and compensation are prescribed, the distinction between grades being based upon differences in the importance, difficulty, responsibility, and value of the work.

The term "class" means a group of positions to be established under this chapter sufficiently similar in respect to the duties and responsibilities thereof that the same requirements as to education, experience, knowledge, and ability are demanded of incumbents, the same tests of fitness are used to choose qualified appointees, and the same schedule of compensation is made to apply with equity.

The term "compensation" means any salary, wage, fee, allowance, or other emolument paid to an employee for service in a position. (Mar. 4, 1923, c. 265, § 2, 42 Stat. 1488.)

663. Personnel Classification Board; members; chairman; details to board; cooperation of Civil Service Commission, etc.; rules and regulations; grades and subdivisions thereof.—There is established an ex officio board, to be known as the Personnel Classification Board, to consist of the Director of the Bureau of the Budget or an alternate from that bureau designated by the director, a member of the Civil Service Commission or an alternate from that commission designated by the commission, and the Chief of the United States Bureau of Efficiency or an alternate from that bureau designated by the chief of the bureau. The Director of the Bureau of the Budget or his alternate shall be chairman of the board.

Subject to the approval of the President, the heads of the departments shall detail to the board, at its request, for temporary service under its direction, officers or employees possessed of special knowledge, ability, or experience required in the classification and allocation of positions. The Civil Service Commission, the Bureau of the Budget, and the Bureau of Efficiency shall render the board such cooperation and assistance as the board may require for the performance of its duties under this chapter.

The board shall make all necessary rules and regulations not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter and provide such subdivisions of the grades contained in section 673 of this title and such titles and definitions as it may deem necessary according to the kind and difficulty of the work. Its regulations shall provide for ascertaining and recording the duties of positions and the qualifications required of incumbents, and it shall prepare and publish an adequate statement giving (1) the duties and responsibilities involved in the classes to be established within the several grades, illustrated where necessary by examples of typical tasks, (2) the minimum qualifications required for the satisfactory performance of such duties and tasks, and (3) the titles given to said classes. In performing the foregoing duties, the board shall follow as nearly as practicable the classification made pursuant to the Executive order of October 24, 1921. The board may from time to time designate additional classes within the several grades and may combine, divide, alter, or abolish existing classes. Department heads shall promptly report the duties and responsibilities of new positions to the board. The board shall make necessary adjustments in compensation for positions carrying maintenance and for positions requiring only part-time service. (Mar. 4, 1923, c. 265, § 3, 42 Stat. 1489.)

664. Allocation of positions to grades and fixing of rates of compensation by department heads; review and revision by board.—After consultation with the board, and in accordance with a uniform procedure prescribed by it, the head of each department shall allocate all positions in his department in the District of Columbia to their appropriate grades in the compensation schedules and shall fix the rate of compensation of each employee thereunder, in accordance with the rules prescribed in section 666 of this title. Such allocations shall be reviewed and may be revised by the board and shall become final upon their approval by said board. Whenever an existing position or a position created by law after March 4, 1923 shall not fairly and reasonably be allocable to one of the grades of the several services described in the compensation schedules, the board shall adopt for such position the range of compensation prescribed for a grade, or a class thereof, comparable therewith as to qualifications and duties.

In determining the rate of compensation which an employee shall receive, the principle of equal compensation for equal work irrespective of sex shall be followed. (Mar. 4, 1923, c. 265, § 4, 42 Stat. 1489.)

665. Application of compensation schedules.—The compensation schedules shall apply only to civilian employees in the departments within the District of Columbia and shall not apply to employees in positions the duties of which are to perform or assist in apprentice, helper, or journeyman work in a recognized trade or craft and skilled and semiskilled laborers, except such as are under the direction and control of the custodian of a public building or perform work which is subordinate, incidental, or preparatory to work of a professional, scientific, or technical character. (Mar. 4, 1923, c. 265, § 5, 42 Stat. 1489.)

666. Rules governing fixing of compensation schedules.—In determining the compensation to be established initially for the several employees the following rules shall govern:

1. In computing the existing compensation of an employee, any bonus which the employee receives shall be included.

2. If the employee is receiving compensation less than the minimum rate of the grade or class thereof in which his duties fall, the compensation shall be increased to that minimum rate.

3. If the employee is receiving compensation within the range of salary prescribed for the appropriate grade at one of the rates fixed therein, no change shall be made in the existing compensation.

4. If the employee is receiving compensation within the range of salary prescribed for the appropriate grade, but not at one of the rates fixed therein, the compensation shall be increased to the next higher rate.

5. If the employee is not a veteran of the Civil War, or a widow of such veteran, and is receiving compensation in excess of the range of salary prescribed for the appropriate grade, the compensation shall be reduced to the rate within the grade nearest the present compensation.

6. All new appointments shall be made at the minimum rate of the appropriate grade or class thereof. (Mar. 4, 1923, c. 265, § 6, 42 Stat. 1490.)

667. Increases in compensation.—Increases in compensation shall be allowed upon the attainment and maintenance of the appropriate efficiency ratings, to the next higher rate within the salary range of the grade. In no case shall the compensation of any employee be increased unless Congress has appropriated money from which the increase may lawfully be paid, nor shall the rate for any employee be increased beyond the maximum rate for the grade to which his position is allocated. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent the promotion of an employee from one class to a vacant position in a higher class at any time in accordance with civil service rules, and when so promoted the employee shall receive compensation according to the schedule established for the class to which he is promoted. (Mar. 4, 1923, c. 265, § 7, 42 Stat. 1490.)

668. Existing preferences in appointments, etc., not affected.—Nothing in this chapter shall modify or repeal any existing preference in appointment or reduction in the service of honorably discharged soldiers, sailors, or marines under any existing law or any Executive order in force March 4, 1923. (Mar. 4, 1923, c. 265, § 8, 42 Stat. 1490.)

669. Efficiency ratings.—The board shall review and may revise uniform systems of efficiency rating established or to be established for the various grades or classes thereof, which shall set forth the degree of efficiency which shall constitute ground for (a) increase in the rate of compensation for employees who have not attained the maximum rate of the class to which their positions are allocated, (b) continuance at the existing rate of compensation without increase or decrease, (c) decrease in the rate of compensation for employees who at the time are above the minimum rate for the class to which their positions are allocated, and (d) dismissal.

The head of each department shall rate in accordance with such systems the efficiency of each employee under his control or direction. The current ratings for each grade or class thereof shall be open to inspection by the representatives of the board and by the employees of the department under conditions to be determined by the board after consultation with the department heads.

Reductions in compensation and dismissals for inefficiency shall be made by heads of departments in all cases whenever the efficiency ratings warrant, as provided herein, subject to the approval of the board.

The board may require that one copy of such current ratings shall be transmitted to and kept on file with the board. (Mar. 4, 1923, c. 265, § 9, 42 Stat. 1490.)

670. Transfer or promotion of employees.—Subject to such rules and regulations as the President may from time to time prescribe, and regardless of the department or independent establishment in which the position is located, an employee may be transferred from a position in one grade to a vacant position within the same grade at the same rate of compensation, or promoted to a vacant position in a higher grade at a higher rate of compensation, in accordance with civil service rules, any provision of existing statutes to the contrary notwithstanding. Nothing herein shall be construed to authorize or permit the transfer of an employee of the United States to a position under the municipal government of the District of Columbia, or an employee of the municipal government of the District of Columbia to a position under the United States. (June 22, 1906, c. 3514, § 5, 34 Stat. 449; Oct. 6, 1917, c. 79, §§ 6, 7, 40 Stat. 383; Mar. 28, 1918, c. 28, § 2, 40 Stat. 459; Mar. 4, 1923, c. 265, § 10, 42 Stat. 1491.)

671. Temporary appointments not made permanent.—Nothing contained in this chapter shall be construed to make permanent any temporary appointments under existing law. (Mar. 4, 1923, c. 265, § 11, 42 Stat. 1491.)

672. Readjustment of rates of compensation.—It shall be the duty of the board to make a study of the rates of compensation provided in this chapter for the various services and grades with a view to any readjustment deemed by said board to be just and reasonable. Said board shall, after such study and at such subsequent times as it may deem necessary, report its conclusions to Congress with any recommendations it may deem advisable. (Mar. 4, 1923, c. 265, § 12, 42 Stat. 1491.)

673. Compensation schedules enumerated.—The compensation schedules be as follows:

PROFESSIONAL AND SCIENTIFIC SERVICE

The professional and scientific service shall include all classes of positions the duties of which are to perform routine, advisory, administrative, or research work which is based upon the established principles of a profession or science, and which requires professional, scientific, or technical training equivalent to that represented by graduation from a college or university of recognized standing.

Grade one, in this service, which may be referred to as the junior professional grade, shall include all classes of positions the duties of which are to perform, under immediate supervision, simple and elementary work requiring professional, scientific, or technical training as herein specified, but little or no experience.

The annual rates of compensation for positions in this grade shall be $1,860, $1,920, $2,000, $2,100, $2,200, $2,300, and $2,400.

Grade two, in this service, which may be referred to as the assistant professional grade, shall include all classes of positions the duties of which are to perform, under immediate or general supervision, individually or with a small number of subordinates, work requiring professional, scientific, or technical training as herein specified, previous experience, and, to a limited extent, the exercise of independent judgment.

The annual rates of compensation for positions in this grade shall be $2,400, $2,500, $2,600, $2,700, $2,800, $2,900, and $3,000.

Grade three, in this service, which may be referred to as the associate professional grade, shall include all classes of positions the duties of which are to perform, individually or with a small number of trained assistants, under general supervision but with considerable latitude for the exercise of independent judgment, responsible work requiring extended professional, scientific, or technical training and considerable previous experience.

The annual rates of compensation for positions in this grade shall be $3,000, $3,100, $3,200, $3,300, $3,400, $3,500, and $3,600.

Grade four, in this service, which may be referred to as the full professional grade, shall include all classes of positions the duties of which are to perform, under general administrative supervision, important specialized work requiring extended professional, scientific, or technical training and experience, the exercise of independent judgment, and the assumption of responsibility for results, or for the administration of a small scientific or technical organization.

The annual rates of compensation for positions in this grade shall be $3,800, $4,000, $4,200, $4,400, $4,600, $4,800, and $5,000, unless a higher rate is specifically authorized by law.

Grade five in this service, which may be referred to as the senior professional grade, shall include all classes of positions the duties of which are to act as assistant head of a large professional or scientific organization, or to act as administrative head of a major subdivision of such an organization, or to act as head of a small professional or scientific organization, or to serve as consulting specialist, or independently to plan, organize, and conduct investigations in original research or development work in a professional, scientific, or technical field.

The President shall have power, in his discretion, to exclude from the operation of said sections any employee or group of employees in the classified civil service whose tenure of office or employment is intermittent or of uncertain duration. (May 22, 1920, c. 195, § 1, 41 Stat. 614.)

693. Same; employees of District of Columbia.—All regular annual employees of the municipal government of the District of Columbia, appointed directly by the commissioners, or by other competent authority including those receiving per diem compensation paid out of general appropriations, but whose services are continuous, and including public-school employees, excepting school officers and teachers, shall be included in the provisions of sections 691 to 693 and 697 to 731 of this title, but members of the police and fire departments shall be excluded therefrom. (May 22, 1920, c. 195, § 1, 41 Stat. 614.)

694. Same; definitions.—In the administration of sections 691 to 693 and 697 to 731 of this title the expression "all employees in the classified civil service of the United States," as used in sections 691 to 693 and 697 of this title shall be construed to include all persons who have been or may be given a competitive status in the classified civil service, with or without competitive examination, by legislative enactment, or under the civil service rules promulgated by the President, or by Executive orders covering groups of employees with their positions into the competitive classified service or authorizing the appointment of individuals to positions within such service.

The expression "classified civil service" as the same occurs in other acts of Congress shall receive a like construction to that herein given. (Mar. 27, 1922, c. 116, 42 Stat. 470.)

695. Same; temporary employees of Treasury Department; payments to.—The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, the agreed compensation in each case to all persons temporarily employed by the Department of the Treasury, prior to January 14, 1925, who had, before such employment, reached the age for retirement, or who had been retired, from the Government service under the provisions of sections 691 to 693 and 697 to 731 of this title. In case of the death (either before or after January 14, 1925) of any person entitled to compensation under the provisions of this section, and section 696 of this title, the amount of such compensation shall be paid to the widow, or if no widow, then to the children, or if no children, then to the estate of such person. (Jan. 14, 1925, c. 77, § 1, 43 Stat. 748.)

696. Same; credit to accounts of disbursing officers for such payments.—The Comptroller General is authorized and directed, notwithstanding the provisions of sections 691 to 693 and 697 to 731 of this title, to credit the accounts of all disbursing officers or agents of the Department of the Treasury with the amounts paid prior to January 14, 1925 in good faith for temporary services to such persons who had reached the age for retirement or who had been retired. (Jan. 14, 1925, c. 77, § 2, 43 Stat. 749.)

697. Same; other employees excluded.—Postmasters, and such employees of the Lighthouse Service as come within the provisions of section 763 of Title 33 shall not be included in the provisions of sections 691 to 693 and 697 to 731 of this title. (May 22, 1920, c. 195, § 1, 41 Stat. 614.)

698. Classifications and rates.—For the purpose of determining the amount of annuity which retired employees shall receive, the following classifications and rates shall be established: (May 22, 1920, c. 195, § 2, 41 Stat. 614.)

699. Class A; amount of annuity.—Class A shall include all employees to whom sections 691 to 693 and 697 to 731 apply who shall have served the United States for a total period of thirty years or more. The annuity to a retired employee in this class shall equal 60 per centum of such employee's average annual basic salary, pay, or compensation from the United States for the ten years next preceding the date on which he or she shall retire. In no case shall an annuity in this class exceed $720 per annum or be less than $360 per annum. (May 22, 1920, c. 195, § 2, 41 Stat. 614.)

700. Class B; amount of annuity.—Class B shall include all employees to whom sections 691 to 693 and 697 to 731 of this title apply who shall have served the United States for a total period of twenty-seven years or more, but less than thirty years. The annuity to a retired employee in this class shall equal 54 per centum of such employee's average annual basic salary, pay, or compensation from the United States for the ten years next preceding the date on which he or she shall retire. In no case shall an annuity in this class exceed $648 per annum, or be less than $324 per annum. (May 22, 1920, c. 195, § 2, 41 Stat. 615.)

701. Class C; amount of annuity.—Class C shall include all employees to whom sections 691 to 693 and 697 to 731 of this title apply who shall have served the United States for a total period of twenty-four years or more, but less than twenty-seven years. The annuity to a retired employee in this class shall equal 48 per centum of such employee's average annual basic salary, pay, or compensation from the United States for the ten years next preceding the date on which he or she shall retire. In no case shall an annuity in this class exceed $576 per annum, or be less than $288 per annum. (May 22, 1920, c. 195, § 2, 41 Stat. 615.)

702. Class D; amount of annuity.—Class D shall include all employees to whom sections 691 to 693 and 697 to 731 of this title apply who shall have served the United States for a total period of twenty-one years or more, but less than twenty-four years. The annuity to a retired employee in this class shall equal 42 per centum of such employee's average annual basic salary, pay, or compensation from the United States for the ten years next preceding the date on which he or she shall retire. In no case shall an annuity in this class exceed $504 per annum, or be less than $252 per annum. (May 22, 1920, c. 195, § 2, 41 Stat. 615.)

703. Class E; amounts of annuity.—Class E shall include all employees to whom sections 691 to 693 and 697 to 731 of this title apply who shall have served the United States for a total period of eighteen years or more, but less than twenty-one years. The annuity to a retired employee in this class shall equal 36 per centum of such employee's average annual basic salary, pay, or compensation from the United States for the ten years next preceding the date on which he or she shall retire. In no case shall an annuity in this class exceed $432 per annum or be less than $216 per annum. (May 22, 1920, c. 195, § 2, 41 Stat. 615.)

704. Class F; amount of annuity.—Class F shall include all employees to whom sections 691 to 693 and 697 to 731 of this title apply who shall have served the United States for a total period of fifteen years or more, but less than eighteen years. The annuity to a retired employee in this class shall equal 30 per centum of such employee's average annual basic salary, pay, or compensation from the United States for the ten years next preceding the date on which he or she shall retire. In no case shall an annuity in this class exceed $360 per annum, or be less than $180 per annum. (May 22, 1920, c. 195, § 2, 41 Stat. 615.)

705. Class G; amount of annuity.—Class G shall include charwomen, laborers, and other employees whether classified or unclassified, who are employed on a regular annual basis and whose basic salary, pay, or compensation is at a rate less than $600 per annum. The annuity to any retired employee shall be determined according to the method prescribed in the foregoing schedules, except that no annuity shall be granted after May 22, 1920 to exceed the per centum nor the maximum provided for the respective periods of service. It is provided that this class of employees shall otherwise be subject to the provisions of sections 691 to 693 and 697 to 731 of this title. (May 22, 1920, c. 195, § 2; June 17, 1922, c. 222, 42 Stat. 651.)

706. Basic salary, pay, or compensation defined.—The term "basic salary, pay, or compensation" wherever used in sections 691 to 693 and 697 to 731 of this title, shall be so construed as to exclude from the operation of said sections all bonuses, allowances, overtime pay, or salary, pay, or compensation given in addition to the base pay of the positions as fixed by law or regulation. (May 22, 1920, c. 195, § 2, 41 Stat. 615.)

707. Computation of period of service.—For the purposes of sections 691 to 693 and 697 to 731 of this title and subject to the provisions of section 723 of this title, the period of service shall be computed from the date of original employment, whether as a classified or unclassified employee in the civil service of the United States, and shall include periods of service at different times and services in one or more departments, branches, or independent offices of the Government, and shall also include service performed under authority of the United States beyond seas, and honorable service in the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, or Coast Guard of the United States. In the case of an employee who is eligible for and elects to receive a pension under any law, or compensation under the provisions of chapter 11 of title 38, the period of his or her military or naval service upon which such pension or compensation is based shall not be included for the purpose of assignment to classes defined in sections 698 to 706 of this title, but nothing contained in sections 691 to 693 and 697 to 731 of this title shall be so construed as to affect in any manner his or her right to a pension, or to compensation under the provisions of chapter 11 of title 38, in addition to the annuity herein provided. (May 22, 1920, c. 195, § 3, 41 Stat. 615.)

708. Same; exclusion of periods of separation from service.—In computing length of service for the purposes of sections 691 to 693 and 697 to 731 of this title, all periods of separation from the service and so much of any period of leave of absence as may exceed six months shall be excluded, and in the case of substitutes in the Postal Service only periods of active employment shall be included. (May 22, 1920, c. 195, § 3, 41 Stat. 616.)

709. Powers and duties of Commissioner of Pensions; appeal to Secretary of Interior.—For the purpose of administration, except as otherwise provided herein, the Commissioner of Pensions, under the direction of the Secretary of the Interior, is authorized and directed to perform, or cause to be performed, any and all acts and to make such rules and regulations as may be necessary and proper for the purpose of carrying the provisions of sections 691 to 693 and 697 to 731 of this title into full force and effect. An appeal to the Secretary of the Interior shall lie from the final action or order of the Commissioner of Pensions affecting the rights or interests of any person or of the United States under sections 691 to 693 and 697 to 731 of this title, the procedure on appeal to be as prescribed by the Commissioner of Pensions, with the approval of the Secretary of the Interior. (May 22, 1920, c. 195, § 4, 41 Stat. 616.)

710. Retirement for disability; employees entitled to; application; medical examination.—Any employee to whom sections 691 to 693 and 697 to 731 of this title apply who shall have served for a total period of not less than fifteen years, and who, before reaching the retirement age as fixed in sections 691 to 693 and 697 of this title, becomes totally disabled for useful and efficient service by reason of disease or injury not due to vicious habits, intemperance, or willful misconduct on the part of the employee, shall upon his or her own application or upon the request or order of the head of the department, branch, or independent office concerned, be retired on an annuity under the provisions of sections 698 to 706 of this title. No employee shall be retired under the provisions of this section and sections 711 to 714 until examined by a medical officer of the United States or a duly qualified physician or surgeon or board of physicians or surgeons designated by the Commissioner of Pensions for that purpose and found to be disabled in the degree and in the manner specified herein. (May 22, 1920, c. 195, § 5, 41 Stat. 616.)

711. Same; medical examination; restoration to service.—Every annuitant retired under the provisions of sections 710 to 714, unless the disability for which retired is permanent in character, shall, at the expiration of one year from the date of such retirement and annually thereafter until reaching the retirement age as defined in sections 691 to 693 and 697 of this title, be examined under direction of the Commissioner of Pensions by a medical officer of the United States, or a duly qualified physician or surgeon or board of physicians or surgeons designated by the Commissioner of Pensions for that purpose, in order to ascertain the nature and degree of the annuitant's disability, if any; if the annuitant recovers and is restored to his or her former earning capacity before reaching the retirement age, payment of the annuity shall be discontinued from the date of the medical examination showing such recovery; if the annuitant fails to appear for examination as required under sections 710 to 714, payment of the annuity shall be suspended until continuance of the disability has been satisfactorily established. The Commissioner of Pensions is authorized to order or direct at any time such medical or other examination as he shall deem necessary to determine the facts relative to the nature and degree of disability of any employee retired on an annuity under sections 710 to 714. (May 22, 1920, c. 195, § 5, 41 Stat. 616.)

712. Same; medical examination; fees for.—Fees for examinations made under the provisions of sections 710 to 714 of this title by physicians or surgeons who are not medical officers of the United States shall be fixed by the Commissioner of Pensions, and such fees, together with the employee's reasonable traveling and other expenses incurred in order to submit to such examinations, shall be paid out of the appropriations for the cost of administering sections 691 to 693 and 697 to 731 of this title. (May 22, 1920, c. 195, § 5, 41 Stat. 616.)

713. Same; discontinuance of annuity; refund of excess of contributions over.—In all cases where the annuity is discontinued under the provisions of sections 710 to 714 of this title before the annuitant has received a sum equal to the total amount of his or her contributions with accrued interest, the difference shall be paid to the retired employee, or to his or her estate, upon application therefore in such form and manner as the Commissioner of Pensions may direct. (May 22, 1920, c. 195, § 5, 41 Stat. 617.)

714. Compensation under chapter and compensation for injuries for same period not allowed.—No person shall be entitled to receive an annuity under the provisions of sections

691 to 693 and 697 to 731 of this title, and compensation under the provisions of chapter 15 of this title covering the same period of time; but this provision shall not be so construed as to bar the right of any claimant to the greater benefit conferred by either said sections 691 to 693 and 697 to 731 or said chapter 15 for any part of the same period of time. (May 22, 1920, c. 195, § 5, 41 Stat. 617.)

715. Notice to employee of retirement; retention in service after reaching retirement age.—All employees to whom sections 691 to 693 and 697 to 731 of this title apply shall, on August 20, 1920, if of retirement age, or thereafter on arriving at retirement age as defined in sections 691 to 693 and 697 of this title, be automatically separated from the service, and all salary, pay, or compensation shall cease from that date, and it shall be the duty of the head of each department, branch, or independent office of the Government to notify such employees under his direction of the date of such separation from the service at least sixty days in advance thereof. No person employed in the executive departments within the District of Columbia, retired under the provisions of sections 691 to 693 and 697 to 731 during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1921, shall be replaced by additional employees, but if the exigencies of the service so require, places made vacant by such retirement may be filled by promotion or transfer of eligible employees already in the service. If before July 21, 1920, or not less than thirty days before the arrival of an employee at the age of retirement, the head of the department, branch, or independent office of the Government in which he or she is employed certifies to the Civil Service Commission that by reason of his or her efficiency and willingness to remain in the civil service of the United States the continuance of such employee therein would be advantageous to the public service, such employee may be retained for a term not exceeding two years upon approval and certification by the Civil Service Commission, and at the end of the two years he or she may, by similar approval and certification, be continued for an additional term not exceeding two years, and so on. After August 20, 1930, no employee shall be continued in the civil service of the United States beyond the age of retirement defined in sections 691 to 693 and 697 of this title for more than four years. (May 22, 1920, c. 195, § 6, 41 Stat. 617.)

716. Application for retirement; when to be made.—Every employee who becomes eligible for retirement because of age as provided in sections 691 to 693 and 697 to 731 of this title shall, before July 21, 1920, or 30 days before reaching the retirement age, or at any time thereafter, file with the Commissioner of Pensions, in such form as he may prescribe, an application for an annuity, supported by a certificate from the head of the department, branch, or independent office of the Government in which the applicant has been employed, stating the age and period or periods of service of the applicant and salary, pay, or compensation received during such periods, as shown by the official records. In the case of an employee who is to be continued in the civil service of the United States beyond the retirement age as provided in section 715 of this title, he or she may make application for retirement at any time within such period of continuance in the service; but nothing contained in sections 691 to 693 and 697 to 731 of this title shall be construed to prevent the compulsory retirement of such employee when in the judgment of the head of the department, branch, or independent office in which he or she is employed such retirement would promote the best interests of the service. (May 22, 1920, c. 195, § 7, 41 Stat. 617.)

717. Same; determination; certificate of retirement.—Upon receipt of satisfactory evidence the Commissioner of Pensions shall forthwith adjudicate the claim of the applicant, and if title to annuity be established, a proper certificate shall be issued to the annuitant under the seal of the Department of the Interior. (May 22, 1920, c. 195, § 7, 41 Stat. 618.)

718. Commencement and duration of annuity.—Annuities granted under sections 691 to 693 and 697 to 731 of this title for retirement on account of age shall commence from the date of separation from the service on or after August 20, 1920, and shall continue during the life of the annuitant. Annuities granted for disability under the provisions of sections 710 to 714 of this title shall be subject to the limitations specified in said sections. (May 22, 1920, c. 195, § 7, 41 Stat. 618.)

719. Deductions from salaries; amount; civil-service retirement and disability fund.—There shall be deducted and withheld monthly from the basic salary, pay, or compensation of each employee to whom sections 691 to 693 and 697 to 731 of this title apply, a sum equal to 2½ per centum of such employee's basic salary, pay, or compensation. The Secretary of the Treasury shall cause the said deductions to be withheld from all specific appropriations for the particular salaries or compensation from which the deductions are made and from all allotments out of lump-sum appropriations for payments of such salaries or compensation for each fiscal year, and said sums shall be transferred on the books of the Treasury Department to the credit of a special fund to be known as "the civil-service retirement and disability fund," and said fund is hereby appropriated for the payment of annuities, refunds, and allowances as provided in sections 691 to 693 and 697 to 731 of this title. (May 22, 1920, c. 195, § 8, 41 Stat. 618.)

720. Investment of fund.—The Secretary of the Treasury is directed to invest from time to time, in interest-bearing securities of the United States, such portions of the "civil-service retirement and disability fund" hereby created as in his judgment may not be immediately required for the payment of annuities, refunds, and allowances as herein provided, and the income derived from such investments shall constitute a part of said fund for the purpose of paying annuities and of carrying out the provisions of section 724 of this title. (May 22, 1920, c. 195, § 8, 41 Stat. 618.)

721. Contributions, donations, etc., to supplement contributions by employees.—The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and empowered in carrying out the provisions of sections 691 to 693 and 697 to 731 of this title to supplement the individual contributions of employees with moneys received in the form of donations, gifts, legacies, bequests, or otherwise, and to receive, invest, and disburse for the purposes of sections 691 to 693 and 697 to 731 of this title all moneys which may be contributed by private individuals or corporations or organizations for the benefit of civil-service employees generally or any special class of employees. (May 22, 1920, c. 195, § 8, 41 Stat. 618.)

722. Consent of employees to deductions deemed given.—Every employee coming within the provisions of sections 691 to 693 and 697 to 731 of this title shall be deemed to consent and agree to the deductions from salary, pay, or compensation as provided in sections 719 to 721 of this title, and payment less such deductions shall be a full and complete discharge and acquittance of all claims and demands whatsoever for all regular services rendered by such employee during the period covered by such payment, except the right to the benefits to which he or she shall be entitled under the provisions of sections 691 to 693 and 697 to 731, notwithstanding the provisions of section 43 of this title or of any law, rule, or regulations affecting the salary, pay, or compensation of any person or persons employed in the civil service to whom sections 691 to 693 and 697 to 731 apply. (May 22, 1920, c. 195, § 9, 41 Stat. 618.)

723. Transfer of employee from unclassified to classified status or reinstatement of former employee; deposit of deductions from salaries.—Upon the transfer of any employee from an unclassified to a classified status, or upon the reinstatement of a former employee, credit for past service rendered subsequent to August 20, 1920, or for any part thereof, shall be granted only upon deposit with the Treasurer of the United States of the amount of such deductions with interest as provided in sections 691 to 693 and 697 to 731 of this title as would have been made for the periods of actual service, or part thereof, for which credit is to be given, but such interest shall not be computed for periods of separation from the service. Failure to make such deposit shall not deprive the employee of credit for any past service rendered prior to May 22, 1920, and to which he or she would otherwise be entitled. (May 22, 1920, c. 195, § 10, 41 Stat. 618.)

724. Return of deductions to employee on transfer from classified to unclassified status or separation from service or death of employee; records; application for return of deductions; rules and regulations.—In the case of an employee in the classified civil service of the United States who shall be transferred to an unclassified position, and in the case of any employee to whom sections 691 to 693 and 697 to 731 of this title apply who shall become absolutely separated from the service before becoming eligible for retirement on an annuity, the total amount of deductions of salary, pay, or compensation with accrued interest computed at the rate of 4 per centum per annum, compounded on June 30 of each fiscal year shall, upon application, be returned to such employee. All moneys so returned to an employee must be redeposited with interest before such employee may derive any benefit under the provisions of said sections, upon reinstatement or retransfer to a classified position; and in case an annuitant shall die without having received in annuites an amount equal to the total amount of the deductions from his or her salary, pay, or compensation, together with interest thereon at 4 per centum per annum compounded as herein provided up to the time of his or her death, the excess of the said accumulated deductions over the said annuity payments shall be paid in one sum to his or her legal representatives upon the establishment of a valid claim therefor; and in case an employee shall die without having reached the retirement age or without having established a valid claim for annuity, the total amount of deductions with accrued interest as herein provided shall be paid to the legal representatives of such employee. If in case of death the amount of deductions to be paid under the provisions of this section does not exceed $300, and if there has been no demand upon the Commissioner of Pensions by a duly appointed executor or administrator, the payment may be made, after the expiration of three months from date of death, to such person or persons as may appear in the judgment of the Commissioner of Pensions to be legally entitled to the proceeds of the estate, and such payment shall be a bar to recovery by any other person. The refund provided for in this section shall be paid to all members of the United States park police force, who, on May 27, 1924, are entitled to such refund, by reason of contributions previously made by them to the civil service retirement fund.

Each executive department, and each independent establishment of the Government not within the jurisdiction of any executive department, shall establish and maintain such record as will enable it to determine the amount deducted within each fiscal year from the basic salary, pay, or compensation of each employee within its jurisdiction to whom said sections apply. When such employee is transferred from one office to another a certified abstract of his official record shall be transmitted to the office to which the transfer is made.

When application is made to the Commissioner of Pensions for return of deductions and accrued interest, as provided in this section, such application shall be accompanied by a certificate from the proper officer showing the complete record of deductions, by fiscal years, and other data necessary to the proper adjustment of the claim.

The Commissioner of Pensions, with the approval of the Secretary of the Interior, shall establish rules and regulations for crediting and reporting deductions and for computing interest hereunder. (May 22, 1920, c. 195, § 11, 41 Stat. 619; Feb. 14, 1922, c. 51, § 1, 42 Stat. 364; May 27, 1924, c. 199, § 8, 43 Stat. 176.)

725. Times for payment of annuities.—Annuities granted under the terms of sections 691 to 693 and 697 to 731 of this title shall be due and payable monthly on the first business day of the month following the month or other period for which the annuity shall have accrued, and payment of all annuities, refunds, and allowances granted hereunder shall be made by checks drawn and issued by the disbursing clerk for the payment of pensions in such form and manner and with such safeguards as shall be prescribed by the Secretary of the Interior in accordance with the laws, rules, and regulations governing accounting that may be found applicable to such payments. (May 22, 1920, c. 195, § 12, 41 Stat. 619.)

726. Reports by heads of executive departments and independent establishments of names and grades of employees.—It shall be the duty of the head of each executive department and the head of each independent establishment of the Government not within the jurisdiction of any executive department to report to the Civil Service Commission, in such manner as said commission may prescribe, the name and grade of each employee to whom sections 691 to 693 and 697 to 731 of this title apply in or under said department or establishment who shall be at any time in a nonpay status, showing the dates such employee was in a nonpay status, and the amount of salary, pay, or compensation lost by the employee by reason of such absence. (May 22, 1920, c. 195, § 13, 41 Stat. 619; Feb. 14, 1922, c. 51, § 2, 42 Stat. 365.)

727. Record by commission of appointments, transfers, changes in grades, etc.—The Civil Service Commission shall keep a record of appointments, transfers, changes in grade, separations from the service, reinstatements, loss of pay, and such other information concerning individual service as may be deemed essential to a proper determination of rights under sections 691 to 693 and 697 to 731 of this title, and shall furnish the Commissioner of Pensions such reports therefrom as he shall from time to time request as necessary to the proper adjustment of any claim for annuity hereunder, and shall prepare and keep all needful tables and records required for carrying out the provisions of said sections, including data showing the mortality experience of the employees in the service and the percentage of withdrawal from such service, and any other information that may serve as a guide for future valuations and adjustments of the plan for the retirement of employees under said sections. (May 22, 1920, c. 195, § 13, 41 Stat. 619; Feb. 14, 1922, c. 51, § 2, 42 Stat. 365.)

728. Report of Commissioner of Pensions.—The Commissioner of Pensions shall make a detailed comparative report annually showing all receipts and disbursements on account of refunds, allowances, and annuities, together with the total number of persons receiving annuities and the amounts paid them. (May 22, 1920, c. 195, § 13, 41 Stat. 620; Feb. 14, 1922, c. 51, § 2, 42 Stat. 365.)

729. Annuities not subject to assignment, execution, levy, or other legal process.—None of the moneys mentioned in sections 691 to 693 and 697 to 731 of this title shall be assignable, either in law or equity, or be subject to execution, levy, or attachment, garnishment, or other legal process. (May 22, 1920, c. 195, § 14, 41 Stat. 620.)

730. Estimates of appropriations necessary.—The Secretary of the Interior shall submit annually to the Secretary of the Treasury estimates of the appropriations necessary to continue sections 691 to 693 and 697 to 731 of this title in full force and effect. (May 22, 1920, c. 195, § 15, 41 Stat. 620.)

731. Board of actuaries; duties, etc.—The Commissioner of Pensions, with the approval of the Secretary of the Interior, is authorized and directed to select three actuaries, one of whom shall be the Government actuary, to be known as the board of actuaries, whose duty it shall be to annually report upon the actual operations of sections 691 to 693 and 697 to 731 of this title, with authority to recommend to the Commissioner of Pensions such changes as in its judgment may be deemed necessary to protect the public interest and maintain the system upon a sound financial basis. It shall be the duty of the Commissioner of Pensions to submit with his annual report to Congress the recommendations of the board of actuaries. It shall be the duty of the board of actuaries to make a valuation of the "civil-service retirement and disability fund" at the end of the first year following May 22, 1920, and at intervals of every five years thereafter, or oftener, if deemed necessary by the Commissioner of Pensions. The compensation of the members of the board of actuaries, exclusive of the Government actuary, shall be fixed by the Commissioner of Pensions with the approval of the Secretary of the Interior. (May 22, 1920, c. 195, § 16, 41 Stat. 620.)

732. Actuaries; compensation; traveling expenses of board of actuaries.—The Commissioner of Pensions, with the approval of the Secretary of the Interior, is authorized to fix the compensation of two actuaries, exclusive of the Government actuary, within the amount of the appropriation made therefor by Congress. The actual necessary travel and other expenses of the board of actuaries shall be paid within the amount appropriated therefor by Congress. (June 5, 1924, c. 264, 43 Stat. 414; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 462, 43 Stat. 1164.)

733. Annuities to employees involuntarily separated from the service before reaching age of 70 years; deferred annuity; persons entitled to; deductions.—Any employee fifty-five years of age or over to whom the provisions of sections 691 to 693 and 697 to 731 of this title apply, who shall have served for a total period of not less than fifteen years and who, before reaching the retirement age as fixed in sections 691 to 693 and 697 of this title shall become involuntarily separated from the service, unless removed for cause on charges of misconduct or delinquency preferred against him, shall be granted an annuity certificate in the manner provided in sections 716 to 718 which will entitle said employee, upon reaching retirement age, to an annuity as provided in sections 697 to 706 equal to the annuity he would have received upon such separation from the service had he been of full retirement age. The deductions made under the provisions of sections 719 to 721, from such employee's salary, pay, or compensation prior to separation from the service shall remain in the "civil-service retirement and disability fund" subject to the provisions of section 724. Sept. 22, 1922, c. 428, § 1, 42 Stat. 1047.)

734. Same; immediate annuity in lieu of deferred annuity; conditions and computation.—Any employee coming within the provisions of section 733 of this title shall have the right to apply for an immediate annuity in lieu of deferred annuity at the age of retirement; and if otherwise entitled, such immediate annuity shall be granted under the following conditions:

If the employee is eligible for retirement upon reaching the age of seventy years, his immediate annuity is to be found by multiplying the annuity which he would receive were he then seventy years of age by the decimal 0.951945 raised to a power the exponent of which is the number of years his age at such separation from the service is less than seventy years.

For mechanics, city and rural letter carriers, and post-office clerks, who are eligible for retirement at sixty-five years of age, the immediate annuity is found by deducting 47/900 of the annuity he would receive were he then sixty-five years of age for each year his age at such separation is less than sixty-five years.

For railway postal clerks, who are eligible for retirement at sixty-two years of age, the immediate annuity is to be found by deducting 47/630 of the annuity he would receive were he then sixty-two years of age for each year his age at separation is less than sixty-two years.

For the purpose of computing annuities as provided in this section fractional parts of a year in respect to the age of the applicant shall be disregarded. (Sept. 22, 1922, c. 428, § 2, 42 Stat. 1047.)

735. Same; effect of reemployment.—In case such former employee be reemployed by the Government in a position affected by the provisions of sections 691 to 693 and 697 to 731 of this title, the annuity certificate issued under the provisions of sections 733 to 738 shall be canceled and all rights and benefits under sections 733 to 738 shall terminate from and after the date of such reemployment. (Sept. 22, 1922, c. 428, § 3, 42 Stat. 1048.)

736. Same; application to employees separated from the service subsequent to August 20, 1920.—Sections 733 to 738 of this title shall include former employees coming within the provisions of sections 691 to 693 and 697 to 731, who have been separated from the service subsequent to August 20, 1920, under the conditions defined in section 733 of this title. In the case of an employee who has withdrawn from the "civil service retirement and disability fund" his deductions under the provisions of section 724 of this title, such employee shall be required to return the amount so withdrawn with interest compounded at the rate of 4 per centum per annum before he shall be entitled to the benefits of sections 733 to 738. (Sept. 22, 1922, c. 428, § 4, 42 Stat. 1048.)

737. Employees continued in service without approval of Civil Service Commission or reemployed subsequent to retirement; credit for service, but no annuity; removal of suspension of annuity.—Any employee otherwise entitled to the benefits of sections 691 to 693 and 697 to 731 of this title, who, prior to September 22, 1922, has been continued in the service without the approval of the Civil Service Commission as provided in section 715 of this title, or, who has been reemployed in the civil service subsequent to retirement, shall be entitled to credit for such subsequent service and to receive salary, pay, or compensation therefor at the regular rates, but shall not be entitled to annuity covering the same time; and sections 691 to 693 and 697 to 731 of this title shall operate as a direction to the Commissioner of Pensions to remove suspension of annuity in all such cases, and shall be warrant for the proper fiscal officer of the Government to make payment or adjustment of salary, pay, or compensation, earned by such employee. (Sept. 22, 1922, c. 428, § 5, 42 Stat. 1048.)

738. Disability retirement not affected.—Nothing contained in sections 733 to 738 of this title shall modify the provisions of sections 710 to 714 of this title. (Sept. 22, 1922, c. 428, § 6, 42 Stat. 1048.)

794. Chapter applicable to employees of District of Columbia.
795. Compensation paid to employees of United States Shipping Board Emergency Fleet Corporation.

Section 751. Disability or death of employee; willful misconduct.—The United States shall pay compensation as hereinafter specified for the disability or death of an employee resulting from a personal injury sustained while in the performance of his duty, but no compensation shall be paid if the injury or death is caused by the willful misconduct of the employee or by the employee's intention to bring about the injury or death of himself or of another, or if intoxication of the injured employee is the proximate cause of the injury or death. (Sept. 7, 1916, c. 458, § 1, 39 Stat. 742.)

752. Time of accrual of right.—During the first three days of disability the employee shall not be entitled to compensation except as provided in section 759 of this title. No compensation shall at any time be paid for such period. (Sept. 7, 1916, c. 458, § 2, 39 Stat. 743.)

753. Total disability.—If the disability is total the United States shall pay to the disabled employee during such disability a monthly compensation equal to 66⅔ per centum of his monthly pay, except as hereinafter provided. (Sept. 7, 1916, c. 458, § 3, 39 Stat. 743.)

754. Partial disability; affidavit.—If the disability is partial the United States shall pay to the disabled employee during such disability a monthy compensation equal to 66⅔ per centum of the difference between his monthly pay and his monthly wage-earning capacity after the beginning of such partial disability. The commission may, from time to time, require a partially disabled employee to make an affidavit as to the wages which he is then receiving. In such affidavit the employee shall include a statement of the value of housing, board, lodging, and other advantages which are received from the employer as a part of his remuneration and which can be estimated in money. If the employee, when required, fails to make such affidavit, he shall not be entitled to any compensation while such failure continues, and the period of such failure shall be deducted from the period during which compensation is payable to him. (Sept. 7, 1916, c. 458, § 4, 39 Stat. 743.)

755. Same; employee to seek other employment.—If a partially disabled employee refuses to seek suitable work or refuses or neglects to work after suitable work is offered to, procured by, or secured for him, he shall not be entitled to any compensation. (Sept. 7, 1916, c. 458, § 5, 39 Stat. 743.)

756. Monthly compensation for total and for partial disability; increase on basis of expectancy of productive capacity; decrease on account of age.—The monthly compensation for total disability shall not be more than $66.67 nor less than $33.33, unless the employee's monthly pay is less than $33.33, in which case his monthly compensation shall be the full amount of his monthly pay. The monthly compensation for partial disability shall not be more than $66.67. In the case of persons who at the time of the injury were minors or employed in a learner's capacity and who were not physically or mentally defective, the commission shall, on any review after the time when the monthly wage-earning capacity of such persons would probably, but for the injury, have increased, award compensation based on such probable monthly wage-earning capacity. The commission may, on any review after the time when the monthly wage-earning capacity of the disabled employee would probably, irrespective of the injury, have decreased on account of old age, award compensation based on such probable monthly wage-earning capacity. (Sept. 7, 1916, c. 458, § 6, 39 Stat. 743.)

757. Person receiving not to be paid for other services; pensions.—As long as the employee is in receipt of compensation under this chapter, or, if he has been paid a lump sum in commutation of installment payments, until the expiration of the period during which such installment payments would have continued, he shall not receive from the United States any salary, pay, or remuneration whatsoever except in return for services actually performed, and except pensions for service in the Army or Navy of the United States. (Sept. 7, 1916, c. 458, § 7, 39 Stat. 743.)

758. Employee having annual or sick leave to his credit.—If at the time the disability begins the employee has annual or sick leave to his credit he may, subject to the approval of the head of the department, use such leave until it is exhausted, in which case his compensation shall begin on the fourth day of disability after the annual or sick leave has ceased. (Sept. 7, 1916, c. 458, § 8, 39 Stat. 743.)

759. Medical, surgical, and hospital service; transportation expenses.—Immediately after an injury sustained by an employee while in the performance of his duty, whether or not disability has arisen, and for a reasonable time thereafter, the United States shall furnish to such employee reasonable medical, surgical, and hospital services and supplies unless he refuses to accept them. Such services and supplies shall be furnished by United States medical officers and hospitals, but where this is not practicable shall be furnished by private physicians and hospitals designated or approved by the commission and paid for from the employees' compensation fund. If necessary for the securing of proper medical, surgical, and hospital treatment, the employee, in the discretion of the commission, may be furnished transportation at the expense of the employees' compensation fund. (Sept. 7, 1916, c. 458, § 9, 39 Stat. 743.)

760. Compensation to heirs in case of death.—If death results from the injury within six years the United States shall pay to the following persons for the following periods a monthly compensation equal to the following percentages of the deceased employee's monthly pay, subject to the modification that no compensation shall be paid where the death takes place more than one year after the cessation of disability resulting from such injury, or, if there has been no disability preceding death, more than one year after the injury:

(A) To the widow, if there is no child, 35 per centum. This compensation shall be paid until her death or marriage.

(B) To the widower, if there is no child, 35 per centum if wholly dependent for support upon the deceased employee at the time of her death. This compensation shall be paid until his death or marriage.

(C) To the widow or widower, if there is a child, the compensation payable under clause (A) or clause (B) and in addition thereto 10 per centum for each child, not to exceed a total of 66⅔ per centum for such a widow or widower and children. If a child has a guardian other than the surviving widow or widower, the compensation payable on account of such child shall be paid to such guardian. The compensation payable on account of any child shall cease when he dies, marries, or reaches the age of eighteen, or, if over eighteen, and incapable of self-support, becomes capable of self-support.

(D) To the children, if there is no widow or widower, 25 per centum for one child and 10 per centum additional for each additional child, not to exceed a total of 66⅔ per centum, divided among such children share and share alike. The compensation of each child shall be paid until he dies, marries, or reaches the age of eighteen, or, if over eighteen and incapable of self-support, becomes capable of self-support. The compensation of a child under legal age shall be paid to its guardian.

(E) To the parents, if one is wholly dependent for support upon the deceased employee at the time of his death and the other is not dependent to any extent, 25 per centum; if both are wholly dependent, 20 per centum to each; if one is or both are partly dependent, a proportionate amount in the discretion of the commission.

The above precentages shall be paid if there is no widow, widower, or child. If there is a widow, widower, or child, there shall be paid so much of the above percentages as, when added to the total percentages payable to the widow, widower, and children, will not exceed a total of 66⅔ per centum.

(F) To the brothers, sisters, grandparents, and grandchildren, if one is wholly dependent upon the deceased employee for support at the time of his death, 20 per centum to such dependent; if more than one are wholly dependent, 30 per centum, divided among such dependents share and share alike; if there is no one of them wholly dependent, but one or more partly dependent, 10 per centum divided among such dependents share and share alike.

The above percentages shall be paid if there is no widow, widower, child, or dependent parent. If there is a widow, widower, child, or dependent parent, there shall be paid so much of the above percentages as, when added to the total percentage payable to the widow, widower, children, and dependent parents, will not exceed a total of 66⅔ per centum.

(G) The compensation of each beneficiary under clauses (E) and (F) shall be paid for a period of eight years from the time of the death, unless before that time he, if a parent or grandparent, dies, marries, or ceases to be dependent, or, if a brother, sister, or grandchild, dies, marries, or reaches the age of eighteen, or, if over eighteen and incapable of self-support, becomes capable of self-support. The compensation of a brother, sister, or grandchild under legal age shall be paid to his or her guardian.

(H) As used in this section, the term "child" includes stepchildren, adopted children, and posthumous children, but does not include married children. The terms "brother" and "sister" include stepbrothers and stepsisters, half brothers and half sisters, and brothers and sisters by adoption, but do not include married brothers or married sisters. All of the above terms and the term "grandchild" include only persons who at the time of the death of the deceased employee are under eighteen years of age or over that age and incapable of self-support. The term "parent" includes stepparents and parents by adoption. The term "widow" includes only the decedent's wife living with or dependent for support upon him at the time of his death. The term "widower" includes only the decedent's husband dependent for support upon her at the time of her death. The terms "adopted" and "adoption" as used in this clause include only legal adoption prior to the time of the injury.

(I) Upon the cessation of compensation under this section to or on account of any person, the compensation of the remaining persons entitled to compensation for the unexpired part of the period during which their compensation is payable shall be that which such persons would have received if they had been the only persons entitled to compensation at the time of the decedent's death.

(J) In case there are two or more classes of persons entitled to compensation under this section and the apportionment of such compensation, above provided, would result in injustice, the commission may, in its discretion, modify the apportionment to meet the requirements of the case.

(K) In computing compensation under this section, the monthly pay shall be considered not to be more than $100 nor less than $50, but the total monthly compensation shall not exceed the monthly pay computed as provided in section 762.

(L) If any person entitled to compensation under this section, whose compensation by the terms of this section ceases upon his marriage, accepts any payments of compensation after his marriage he shall be punished by a fine of not more than $2,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment. (Sept. 7, 1916, c. 458, § 10, 39 Stat. 744.)

761. Payment to personal representative where death results within six years; transportation of remains; burial expenses.—If death results from the injury within six years the United States shall pay to the personal representative of the deceased employee burial expenses not to exceed $100, in the discretion of the commission. In the case of an employee whose home is within the United States, if his death occurs away from his home office or outside of the United States, and if so desired by his relatives, the body shall, in the discretion of the commission, be embalmed and transported in a hermetically sealed casket to the home of the employee. Such burial expenses shall not be paid and such transportation shall not be furnished where the death takes place more than one year after the cessation of disability resulting from such injury, or, if there has been no disability preceding death, more than one year after the injury. (Sept. 7, 1916, c. 458, § 11, 39 Stat. 745.)

762. Computation of monthly pay of employee.—In computing the monthly pay the usual practice of the service in which the employee was employed shall be followed. Subsistence and the value of quarters furnished an employee shall be included as part of the pay, but overtime pay shall not be taken into account. (Sept. 7, 1916, c. 458, § 12, 39 Stat. 746.)

763. Wage-earning capacity.—In the determination of the employee's monthly wage-earning capacity after the beginning of partial disability, the value of housing, board, lodging, and other advantages which are received from his employer as a part of his remuneration and which can be estimated in money shall be taken into account. (Sept. 7, 1916, c. 458, § 13, 39 Stat. 746.)

764. Payment of lump sum; determination of amount.—In cases of death or of permanent total or permanent partial disability, if the monthly payment to the beneficiary is less than $5 a month, or if the beneficiary is or is about to become a nonresident of the United States, or if the commission determines that it is for the best interests of the beneficiary, the liability of the United States for compensation to such beneficiary may be discharged by the payment of a lump sum equal to the present value of all future payments of compensation computed at 4 per centum true discount compounded annually. The probability of the beneficiary's death before the expiration of the period during which he is entitled to compensation shall be determined according to the American Experience Table of Mortality; but in case of compensation to the widow or widower of the deceased employee, such lump sum shall not exceed sixty months' compensation. The probability of the happening of any other contingency affecting the amount or duration of the compensation shall be disregarded. (Sept. 7, 1916, c. 458, § 14, 39 Stat. 746.)

765. Notice of injury.—Every employee injured in the performance of his duty, or some one on his behalf, shall, within forty-eight hours after the injury, give written notice thereof to the immediate superior of the employee. Such notice shall be given by delivering it personally or by depositing it properly stamped and addressed in the mail. (Sept. 7, 1916, c. 458, § 15, 39 Stat. 746.)

766. Same; requisites.—The notice shall state the name and address of the employee, the year, month, day, and hour when and the particular locality where the injury occurred, and the cause and nature of the injury, and shall be signed by and contain the address of the person giving the notice. (Sept. 7, 1916, c. 458, § 16, 39 Stat. 746.)

767. Same; failure to give.—Unless notice is given within the time specified or unless the immediate superior has actual knowledge of the injury, no compensation shall be allowed, but for any reasonable cause shown, the commission may allow compensation if the notice is filed within one year after the injury. (Sept. 7, 1916, c. 458, § 17, 39 Stat. 746.)

768. Written claim.—No compensation under this chapter shall be allowed to any person, except as provided in section 788 of this title, unless he or some one on his behalf shall, within the time specified in section 770 of this title, make a written claim therefor. Such claim shall be made by delivering it at the office of the commission or to any commissioner or to any person whom the commission may by regulation designate, or by depositing it in the mail properly stamped and addressed to the commission or to any person whom the commission may by regulation designate. (Sept. 7, 1916, c. 458, § 18, 39 Stat. 746.)

769. Same; form and requisites; waiver.—Every claim shall be made on forms to be furnished by the commission and shall contain all the information required by the commission. Each claim shall be sworn to by the person entitled to compensation or by the person acting on his behalf, and, except in case of death, shall be accompanied by a certificate of the employee's physician stating the nature of the injury and the nature and probable extent of the disability. For any reasonable cause shown the commission may waive the provisions of this section. (Sept. 7, 1916, c. 458, § 19, 39 Stat. 746.)

770. Time for making claims.—All original claims for compensation for disability shall be made within sixty days after the injury. All original claims for compensation for death shall be made within one year after the death. For any reasonable cause shown the commission may allow original claims for compensation for disability to be made at any time within one year. (Sept. 7, 1916, c. 458, § 20, 39 Stat. 747; June 13, 1922, c. 219, 42 Stat. 650.)

771. Physical examinations; refusal to submit to.—After the injury the employee shall, as frequently and at such times and places as may be reasonably required, submit himself to examination by a medical officer of the United States or by a duly qualified physician designated or approved by the commission. The employee may have a duly qualified physician designated and paid by him present to participate in such examination. For all examinations after the first the employee shall, in the discretion of the commission, be paid his reasonable traveling and other expenses and loss of wages incurred in order to submit to such examination. If the employee refuses to submit himself for or in any way obstructs any examination, his right to claim compensation under this chapter shall be suspended until such refusal or obstruction ceases. No compensation shall be payable while such refusal or obstruction continues, and the period of such refusal or obstruction shall be deducted from the period for which compensation is payable to him. (Sept. 7, 1916, c. 458, § 21, 39 Stat. 747.)

772. Same; disagreement between physicians.—In case of any disagreement between the physician making an examination on the part of the United States and the employee's physician the commission shall appoint a third physician, duly qualified, who shall make an examination. (Sept. 7, 1916, c. 458, § 22, 39 Stat. 747.)

773. Same; physicians' fees.—Fees for examinations made on the part of the United States under sections 771 and 772 of this title by physicians who are not already in the service of the United States shall be fixed by the commission. Such fees, and any sum payable to the employee under section 771, shall be paid out of the appropriation for the work of the commission. (Sept. 7, 1916, c. 458, § 23, 39 Stat. 747.)

774. Report to commission as to injury.—Immediately after an injury to an employee resulting in his death or in his probable disability, his immediate superior shall make a report to the commission containing such information as the commission may require, and shall thereafter make such supplementary reports as the commission may require. (Sept. 7, 1916, c. 458, § 24, 39 Stat. 747.)

775. Assignment of claim for compensation.—Any assignment of a claim for compensation under this chapter shall be void and all compensation and claims therefor shall be exempt from all claims of creditors. (Sept. 7, 1916, c. 458, § 25, 39 Stat. 747.)

776. Subrogation of United States to employee's right of action; assignment by employee; disposition of moneys collected from person liable.—If an injury or death for which compensation is payable under this chapter is caused under circumstances creating a legal liability upon some person other than the United States to pay damages therefor, the commission may require the beneficiary to assign to the United States any right of action he may have to enforce such liability of such other person or any right which he may have to share in any money or other property received in satisfaction of such liability of such other person, or the commission may require said beneficiary to prosecute said action in his own name.

If the beneficiary shall refuse to make such assignment or to prosecute said action in his own name when required by the commission, he shall not be entitled to any compensation under this chapter.

The cause of action when assigned to the United States may be prosecuted or compromised by the commission, and if the commission realizes upon such cause of action, it shall apply the money or other property so received in the following manner: After deducting the amount of any compensation already paid to the beneficiary and the expense of such realization or collection, which sum shall be placed to the credit of the employees' compensation fund, the surplus, if any, shall be paid to the beneficiary and credited upon any future payments of compensation payable to him on account of the same injury. (Sept. 7, 1916, c. 458, § 26, 39 Stat. 747.)

777. Adjustment in case of receipt by employee of money or property in satisfaction of liability of third person.—If an injury or death for which compensation is payable under this chapter is caused under circumstances creating a legal liability in some person other than the United States to pay damages therefor, and a beneficiary entitled to compensation from the United States for such injury or death receives, as a result of a suit brought by him or on his behalf, or as a result of a settlement made by him or on his behalf, any money or other property in satisfaction of the liability of such other person, such beneficiary shall, after deducting the costs of suit and a reasonable attorney's fee, apply the money or other property so received in the following manner:

(A) If his compensation has been paid in whole or in part, he shall refund to the United States the amount of compensation which has been paid by the United States and credit any surplus upon future payments of compensation payable to him on account of the same injury. Any amount so refunded to the United States shall be placed to the credit of the employees' compensation fund.

(B) If no compensation has been paid to him by the United States, he shall credit the money or other property so received upon any compensation payable to him by the United States on account of the same injury. (Sept. 7, 1916, c. 458, § 27, 39 Stat. 747.)

778. United States Employees' Compensation Commission.—The United States Employees' Compensation Commission shall be composed of three commissioners appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, one of whom shall be designated by the President as chairman. No commissioner shall hold any other office or position under the United States. No more than two of said commissioners shall be members of the same political party. One of said commissioners shall be appointed for a term of two years, one for a term of four years, and one for a term of six years, and at the expiration of each of said terms, the commissioner then appointed shall be appointed for a period of six years. The principal office of said commission shall be in Washington, District of Columbia, but the said commission is authorized to perform its work at any place deemed necessary by said commission, subject to the restrictions and limitations of this chapter. (Sept. 7, 1916, c. 458, § 28, 39 Stat. 748.)

779. Same; other official bodies discontinued; reports from other departments to; transfer of clerks and employees.—Upon the organization of said commission and notification to the heads of all executive departments that the commission is ready to take up the work devolved upon it by this chapter, all commissions and independent bureaus, by or in which payments for compensation were provided, on September 7, 1916, together with the adjustment and settlement of such claims, shall cease and determine, and such executive departments, commissions, and independent bureaus shall transfer all pending claims to said commission to be administered by it. The said commission may obtain, in all cases, in addition to the reports provided in section 774 of this title, such information and such reports from employees of the departments as may be agreed upon by the commission and the heads of the respective departments. All clerks and employees on September 7, 1916, exclusively engaged in carrying on said work in the various executive departments, commissions, and independent bureaus, are transferred to, and become employees of, the commission at their present grades and salaries. (Sept. 7, 1916, c. 458, § 28a, 39 Stat. 748.)

780. Same; subpœnas for witnesses.—The commission, or any commissioner by authority of the commission, shall have power to issue subpœnas for and compel the attendance of witnesses within a radius of one hundred miles, to require the production of books, papers, documents, and other evidence, to administer oaths, and to examine witnesses, upon any matter within the jurisdiction of the commission. (Sept. 7, 1916, c. 458, § 29, 39 Stat. 748.)

781. Same; assistants, clerks, and other employees; civil service.—Assistants, clerks, and other employees of the commission shall be appointed from lists of eligibles to be supplied by the Civil Service Commission, and in accordance with the civil service law. (Sept. 7, 1916, c. 458, § 30, 39 Stat. 748.)

782. Same; estimates of appropriations.—The commission shall submit annually to the Secretary of the Treasury estimates of the appropriations necessary for the work of the commission. (Sept. 7, 1916, c. 458, § 31, 39 Stat. 749.)

783. Same; rules and regulations.—The commission is authorized to make necessary rules and regulations for the enforcement of this chapter, and shall decide all questions arising under this chapter. (Sept. 7, 1916, c. 458, § 32, 39 Stat. 749.)

784. Same; reports.—The commission shall make to Congress at the beginning of each regular session a report of its work for the preceding fiscal year, including a detailed statement of appropriations and expenditures, a detailed statement showing receipts of and expenditures from the employees' compensation fund, and its recommendations for legislation. (Sept. 7, 1916, c. 458, § 33, 39 Stat. 749.)

785. Employees' compensation fund.—There is authorized to be appropriated, from any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of $500,000, to be set aside as a separate fund in the Treasury, to be known as the employees' compensation fund. To this fund there shall be added such sums as Congress may from time to time appropriate for the purpose. Such fund, including all additions that may be made to it, is authorized to be permanently appropriated for the payment of the compensation provided by this chapter, including the medical, surgical, and hospital services and supplies provided by section 759 of this title, and the transportation and burial expenses provided by sections 759 and 761 of this title. The commission shall submit annually to the Secretary of the Treasury estimates of the appropriations necessary for the maintenance of the fund. (Sept. 7, 1916, c. 458, § 35, 39 Stat. 749.)

786. Findings and award by commission; payment of compensation.—The commission, upon consideration of the claim presented by the beneficiary, and the report furnished by the immediate superior and the completion of such investigation as it may deem necessary, shall determine and make a finding of facts thereon and make an award for or against payment of the compensation provided for in this chapter. Compensation when awarded shall be paid from the employees' compensation fund. (Sept. 7, 1916, c. 458, § 36, 39 Stat. 749.)

787. Same; review.—If the original claim for compensation has been made within the time specified in section 770 of this title, the commission may, at any time, on its own motion or on application, review the award, and, in accordance with the facts found on such review, may end, diminish, or increase the compensation previously awarded, or, if compensation has been refused or discontinued, award compensation. In the absence of fraud or mistake in mathematical calculation, the finding of facts in, and the decision of the commission upon, the merits of any claim presented under or authorized by this chapter if supported by competent evidence shall not be subject to review by any other administrative or accounting officer, employee, or agent of the United States. Any award made by the Compensation Commission for disability or death resulting from a personal injury sustained prior to June 5, 1924, shall be valid, if such award would be valid if made in respect to an injury sustained thereafter. (Sept. 7, 1916, c. 458, § 37, 39 Stat. 749; June 5, 1924, c. 261, § 1, 43 Stat. 389.)

788. Same; cancellation; recovery of compensation paid.—If any compensation is paid under a mistake of law or of fact, the commission shall immediately cancel any award under which such compensation has been paid and shall recover, as far as practicable, any amount which has been so paid. Any amount so recovered shall be placed to the credit of the employees' compensation fund. (Sept. 7, 1916, c. 458, § 38, 39 Stat. 749.)

789. Penalty for perjury.—Whoever makes, in any affidavit required under section 754 of this title or in any claim for compensation, any statement, knowing it to be false, shall be guilty of perjury and shall be punished by a fine of not more than $2,000, or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment. (Sept. 7, 1916, c. 458, § 39, 39 Stat. 749.)

790. Terms defined.—Wherever used in this chapter—

The singular includes the plural and the masculine includes the feminine.

The term "employee" includes all civil employees of the United States and of the Panama Railroad Company.

The term "commission" shall be taken to refer to the United States Employees' Compensation Commission provided for in section 778 of this title.

The term "physician" includes surgeons.

The term "monthly pay" shall be taken to refer to the monthly pay at the time of the injury.

The term "injury" includes, in addition to injury by accident, any disease proximately caused by the employment.

The term "compensation" includes the money allowance payable to an employee or his dependents and any other benefits paid for out of the compensation fund: Provided, however, That this shall not in any way reduce the amount of the monthly compensation payable in case of disability or death. (Sept. 7, 1916, c. 458, § 40, 39 Stat. 750; June 5, 1924, c. 261, § 2, 43 Stat. 389.)

791. Injuries which occurred prior to September 7, 1916; injuries for which Panama Railroad Company liable.—For injuries which occurred prior to September 7, 1916, compensation shall be paid under the law then in force. If an injury or death for which compensation is payable under this chapter is caused under circumstances creating a legal liability in the Panama Railroad Company to pay damages therefor under the laws of any State, Territory, or possession of the United States or of the District of Columbia or of any foreign country, no compensation shall be payable until the person entitled to compensation releases to the Panama Railroad Company any right of action which he may have to enforce such liability of the Panama Railroad Company, or until he assigns to the United States any right which he may have to share in any money or other property received in satisfaction of such liability of the Panama Railroad Company. (Sept. 7, 1916, c. 458, § 41, 39 Stat. 750.)

792. Transfer of administration of chapter as concerning employees of Alaska Railroad.—The President may, from time to time, transfer the administration of this chapter, so far as employees of the Alaska Railroad are concerned, to the officer designated by him as the successor of the chairman of the Alaskan Engineering Commission, including the powers and duties of the chairman of said commission, provided in section 793 of this title; in which case the payments authorized in said section to be made out of appropriations for the Alaskan Engineering Commission shall be made out of appropriations for the Alaska Railroad, such appropriations to be reimbursed for such payments by the transfer of funds from the employees' compensation fund. (Mar. 4, 1925, c. 561, § 5, 43 Stat. 1356.)

793. Transfer of administration of chapter to other bodies; regulations as to payment; employees of Panama Canal and of Alaskan Engineering Commission.—The President may, from time to time, transfer the administration of this chapter so far as employees of the Panama Canal and of the Panama Railroad Company are concerned to the governor of the Panama Canal, and so far as employees of the Alaskan Engineering Commission are concerned to the chairman of that commission, in which cases the words "commission" and "its" wherever they appear in this chapter shall, so far as necessary to give effect to such transfer, be read "governor of the Panama Canal" or "chairman of the Alaskan Engineering Commission," as the case may be, and "his"; and the expenses of medical examinations under sections 771 and 772 of this title, and the reasonable traveling and other expenses and loss of wages payable to employees under section 771, shall be paid out of appropriations for the Panama Canal or for the Alaskan Engineering Commission or out of funds of the Panama Railroad, as the case may be, instead of out of the appropriation for the work of the commission.

In the case of compensation to employees of the Panama Canal or of the Panama Railroad Company for temporary disability, either total or partial, the President may authorize the governor of the Panama Canal to waive, at his discretion, the making of the claim required by section 768. In the case of alien employees of the Panama Canal or of the Panama Railroad Company, or of any class or classes of them, the President may remove or modify the minimum limit established by section 756 of this title on the monthly compensation for disability and the minimum limit established by clause (K) of section 760 of this title on the monthly pay on which death compensation is to be computed. The President may authorize the governor of the Panama Canal and the chairman of the Alaskan Engineering Commission to pay the compensation provided by this chapter, including the medical, surgical, and hospital services and supplies provided by section 759 of this title and the transportation and burial expenses provided by sections 759 and 761 of this title, out of the appropriations for the Panama Canal and for the Alaskan Engineering Commission, such appropriations to be reimbursed for such payments by the transfer of funds from the employees' compensation fund. (Sept. 7, 1916, c. 458, § 42, 39 Stat. 750.)

794. Chapter applicable to employees of District of Columbia.—All of the provisions of this chapter are extended to employees of the government of the District of Columbia so far as they may be applicable, except to those members of the police and fire departments of the District of Columbia who are pensioned or pensionable under the provisions of the District of Columbia Appropriation Act approved September 1, 1916. Such compensation as the commission may award to employees of the government of the District of Columbia shall be paid in the manner provided by law for the payment of the general expenses of the government of the District of Columbia. The Commissioners of the District of Columbia shall submit annually to Congress, through the Secretary of the Treasury, estimates of appropriations necessary for the foregoing purposes. (July 11, 1919, c. 7, § 11, 41 Stat. 104.)

795. Compensation paid to employees of United States Shipping Board Emergency Fleet Corporation.—The compensation paid by the United States Shipping Board Emergency Fleet Corporation to or on account of employees for disability or death resulting from personal injuries sustained while in the performance of their duties shall be in full satisfaction of the claims of such employees or their legal representatives against the United States. (Dec. 24, 1919, c. 17, 41 Stat. 377.)

TITLE 6.—OFFICIAL AND PENAL BONDS

Sec.
1. Custody.
2. Examination as to sufficiency of sureties.
3. Renewal; continuance of liability.
4. Notice of delinquency of principal.
5. Limitation of actions against sureties.
6. Surety companies as sureties.
7. Same; appointment of agents; service of process.
8. Same; deposit of copy of charter.
9. Same; quarterly statements.
10. Same; jurisdiction of suits on bonds.
11. Same; nonpayment of judgment.
12. Same; estoppel to deny corporate powers.
13. Same; failure to comply with sections 6 to 13.
14. Rate of premium on bond; premiums not to be paid by United States.
15. Bonds or notes of United States in lieu of recognizance, stipulation, bond, guaranty, or undertaking; place of deposit; return to depositor; contractors' bonds.

Section 1. Custody.—All bonds of the Treasurer of the United States, collectors of internal revenue, collectors, comptrollers of customs, surveyors, and other officers of the customs, either as such officers or as disbursing officers of the Treasury, bonds of the Secretary of the Senate, Clerk of the House of Representatives, and the Sergeant at Arms of the House of Representatives, shall be placed in the custody of the Secretary of the Treasury and filed as he may direct; and the duties required by law on March 2, 1895 of the Comptroller of the Treasury in regard to such bonds, as the successor of the Commissioner of Customs and First Comptroller of the Treasury, shall be performed by the Secretary of the Treasury. (Mar. 2, 1895, c. 177, § 5, 28 Stat. 807; Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 523, 42 Stat. 974.)

2. Examination as to sufficiency of sureties.—Every officer required by law to take and approve official bonds shall cause the same to be examined at least once every two years for the purpose of ascertaining the sufficiency of the sureties thereon; and every officer having power to fix the amount of an official bond shall examine it to ascertain the sufficiency of the amount thereof and approve or fix said amount at least once in two years and as much oftener as he may deem it necessary. (Mar. 2, 1895, c. 177, § 5, 28 Stat. 807.)

3. Renewal; continuance of liability.—Every officer whose duty it is to take and approve official bonds shall cause all such bonds to be renewed every four years after their dates, but he may require such bonds to be renewed or strengthened oftener if he deem such action necessary. In the discretion of such officer the requirement of a new bond may be waived for the period of service of a bonded officer after the expiration of a four-year term of service pending the appointment and qualification of his successor. The nonperformance of any requirement of the provisions of sections 1 to 3 of this title, or of that part of section 27 of title 19 relating to transmitting copies of oaths to the Secretary of the Treasury, on the part of any official of the Government shall not be held to affect in any respect the liability of principal or sureties on any bond made or to be made to the United States. The liability of the principal and sureties on all official bonds shall continue and cover the period of service ensuing until the appointment and qualification of the successor of the principal. Nothing in said sections shall be construed to repeal or modify section 38 of Title 39. (Mar. 2, 1895, c. 177, § 5, 28 Stat. 807.)

4. Notice of delinquency of principal.—Whenever any deficiency shall be discovered in the accounts of any official of the United States, or of any officer disbursing or chargeable with public money, it shall be the duty of the accounting officers making such discovery to at once notify the head of the department having control over the affairs of said officer of the nature and amount of said deficiency, and it shall be the immediate duty of said head of department to at once notify all obligors upon the bond or bonds of such official of the nature of such deficiency and the amount thereof. Said notification shall be deemed sufficient if mailed at the post office in the city of Washington, District of Columbia, addressed to said sureties respectively and directed to the respective post offices where said obligors may reside, if known; but a failure to give or mail such notice shall not discharge the surety or sureties upon such bond. (Aug. 8, 1888, c. 787, § 1, 25 Stat. 387.)

5. Limitation of actions against sureties.—If, upon the statement of the account of any official of the United States, or of any officer disbursing or chargeable with public money, by the accounting officers of the Treasury, it shall thereby appear that he is indebted to the United States, and suit therefor shall not be instituted within five years after such statement of said account, the sureties on his bond shall not be liable for such indebtedness. (Aug. 8, 1888, c. 787, § 2, 25 Stat. 387.)

6. Surety companies as sureties.—Whenever any recognizance, stipulation, bond, or undertaking conditioned for the faithful performance of any duty, or for doing or refraining from doing anything in such recognizance, stipulation, bond, or undertaking specified, is by the laws of the United States required or permitted to be given with one surety or with two or more sureties, the execution of the same or the guaranteeing of the performance of the condition thereof shall be sufficient when executed or guaranteed solely by a corporation incorporated under the laws of the United States, or of any State having power to guarantee the fidelity of persons holding positions of public or private trust, and to execute and guarantee bonds and undertakings in judicial proceedings. Such recognizance, stipulation, bond, or undertaking shall be approved by the head of department, court, judge, officer, board, or body executive, legislative, or judicial required to approve or accept the same. No officer or person having the approval of any bond shall exact that it shall be furnished by a guarantee company or by any particular guarantee company. (Aug. 13, 1894, c. 282, § 1, 28 Stat. 279.)

7. Same; appointment of agents; service of process.—No such company shall do business under the provisions of sections 6 to 13 of this title beyond the limits of the State or Territory under whose laws it was incorporated and in which its principal office is located, nor beyond the limits of the District of Columbia, when such company was incorporated under its laws or the laws of the United States and its principal office is located in said District, until it shall by a written power of attorney appoint some person residing within the jurisdiction of the court for the judicial district wherein such suretyship is to be undertaken, who shall be a citizen of the State, Territory, or District of Columbia, wherein such court is held, as its agent, upon whom may be served all lawful process against such company, and who shall be authorized to enter an appearance in its behalf. A copy of such power of attorney, duly certified and authenticated, shall be filed with the clerk of the district court of the United States for such district at each place where a term of such court is or may be held, which copy, or a certified copy thereof, shall be legal evidence in all controversies arising under sections 6 to 13. If any such agent shall be removed, resign, or die, become insane, or otherwise incapable of acting, it shall be the duty of such company to appoint another agent in his place as hereinbefore prescribed, and until such appointment shall have been made, or during the absence of any agent of such company from such district, service of process may be upon the clerk of the court wherein such suit is brought, with like effect as upon an agent appointed by the company. The officer executing such process upon such clerk shall immediately transmit a copy thereof by mail to the company, and state such fact in his return. A judgment, decree, or order of a court entered or made after service of process as aforesaid shall be as valid and binding on such company as if served with process in said district. (Aug. 13, 1894, c. 282, § 2, 28 Stat. 279.)

8. Same; deposit of copy of charter.—Every company, before transacting any business under sections 6 to 13 of this title, shall deposit with the Secretary of the Treasury of the United States a copy of its charter or articles of incorporation, and a statement, signed and sworn to by its president and secretary, showing its assets and liabilities. If the said Secretary of the Treasury shall be satisfied that such company has authority under its charter to do the business provided for in sections 6 to 13, and that it has a paid-up capital of not less than $250,000, in cash or its equivalent, and is able to keep and perform its contracts, he shall grant authority in writing to such company to do business under sections 6 to 13. (Aug. 13, 1894, c. 282, § 3, 28 Stat. 279; Mar. 23, 1910, c. 109, 36 Stat. 241.)

9. Same; quarterly statements.—Every such company shall, in the months of January, April, July, and October of each year, file with the said Secretary of the Treasury a statement, signed and sworn to by its president and secretary, showing its assets and liabilities, as is required by section 8. The said Secretary of the Treasury shall have the power, and it shall be his duty, to revoke the authority of any such company to transact any new business under sections 6 to 13 of this title whenever in his judgment such company is not solvent or is conducting its business in violation of sections 6 to 13. He may institute inquiry at any time into the solvency of said company and may require that additional security be given at any time by any principal when he deems such company no longer sufficient security. (Aug. 13, 1894, c. 282, § 4, 28 Stat. 279; Mar. 23, 1910, c. 109, 36 Stat. 241.)

10. Same; jurisdiction of suits on bonds.—Any surety company doing business under the provisions of sections 6 to 13 of this title may be sued in respect thereof in any court of the United States which has or may have jurisdiction of actions or suits upon such recognizance, stipulation, bond, or undertaking, in the district in which such recognizance, stipulation, bond, or undertaking was made or guaranteed, or in the district in which the principal office of such company is located. For the purposes of sections 6 to 13 such recognizance, stipulation, bond, or undertaking shall be treated as made or guaranteed in the district in which the office is located, to which it is returnable, or in which it is filed, or in the district in which the principal in such recognizance, stipulation, bond, or undertaking resided when it was made or guaranteed. (Aug. 13, 1894, c. 282, § 5, 28 Stat. 280.)

11. Same; nonpayment of judgment.—If any such company shall neglect or refuse to pay any final judgment or decree rendered against it upon any such recognizance, stipulation, bond, or undertaking made or guaranteed by it under the provisions of sections 6 to 13 of this title, from which no appeal, writ of error, or supersedeas has been taken for thirty days after the rendition of such judgment or decree, it shall forfeit all right to do business under sections 6 to 13. (Aug. 13, 1894, c. 282, § 6, 28 Stat. 280.)

12. Same; estoppel to deny corporate powers.—Any company which shall execute or guarantee any recognizance, stipulation, bond, or undertaking under the provisions of sections 6 to 13 of this title shall be estopped in any proceeding to enforce the liability which it shall have assumed to incur, to deny its corporate power to execute or guarantee such instrument or assume such liability. (Aug. 13, 1894, c. 282, § 7, 28 Stat. 280.)

13. Same; failure to comply with sections 6 to 13.—Any company doing business under the provisions of sections 6 to 13 of this title which shall fail to comply with any of its provisions shall forfeit to the United States for every such failure not less than $500 nor more than $5,000, to be recovered by suit in the name of the United States in the same courts in which suit may be brought against such company under the provisions of sections 6 to 13, and such failure shall not affect the validity of any contract entered into by such company. (Aug. 13, 1894, c. 282, § 8, 28 Stat. 280.)

14. Rate of premium on bond; premiums not to be paid by United States.—Until otherwise provided by law no bond shall be accepted from any surety or bonding company for any officer or employee of the United States which shall cost more than 35 per centum in excess of the rate of premium charged for a like bond during the calendar year 1908. The United States shall not pay any part of the premium or other cost of furnishing a bond required by law or otherwise of any officer or employee of the United States. (Aug. 5, 1909, c. 7, 36 Stat. 125.)

15. Bonds or notes of United States in lieu of recognizance, stipulation, bond, guaranty, or undertaking; place of deposit; return to depositor; contractors' bonds.—Wherever by the laws of the United States or regulations made pursuant thereto, any person is required to furnish any recognizance, stipulation, bond, guaranty, or undertaking, hereinafter called "penal bond," with surety or sureties, such person may, in lieu of such surety or sureties, deposit as security with the official having authority to approve such penal bond, United States Liberty bonds or other bonds or notes of the United States in a sum equal at their par value to the amount of such penal bond required to be furnished, together with an agreement authorizing such official to collect or sell such bonds or notes so deposited in case of any default in the performance of any of the conditions or stipulations of such penal bond. The acceptance of such United States bonds or notes in lieu of surety or sureties required by law shall have the same force and effect as individual or corporate sureties, or certified checks, bank drafts, post-office money orders, or cash, for the penalty or amount of such penal bond. The bonds or notes deposited hereunder, and such other United States bonds or notes as may be substituted therefor from time to time as such security, may be deposited with the Treasurer of the United States, a Federal reserve bank, or other depositary duly designated for that purpose by the Secretary, which shall issue receipt therefor, describing such bonds or notes so deposited. As soon as security for the performance of such penal bond is no longer necessary, such bonds or notes so deposited shall be returned to the depositor. In case a person or persons supplying a contractor with labor or material as provided by section 270 of Title 40 shall file with the obligee, at any time after a default in the performance of any contract subject to said section 270, the application and affidavit therein provided, the obligee shall not deliver to the obligor the deposited bonds or notes nor any surplus proceeds thereof until the expiration of the time limited by said section 270 for the institution of suit by such person or persons, and, in case suit shall be instituted within such time, shall hold said bonds or notes or proceeds subject to the order of the court having jurisdiction thereof. Nothing herein contained shall affect or impair the priority of the claim of the United States against the bonds or notes deposited or any right or remedy granted by said section 270 or by this section to the United States for default upon any obligation of said penal bond. All laws inconsistent with this section are hereby so modified as to conform to the provisions hereof. Nothing contained herein shall affect the authority of courts over the security, where such bonds are taken as security in judicial proceedings, or the authority of any administrative officer of the United States to receive United States bonds for security in cases authorized by existing laws. The Secretary may prescribe rules and regulations necessary and proper for carrying this section into effect. The term "person" in this section means an individual, a trust or estate, a partnership, or a corporation; the term "Secretary" means the Secretary of the Treasury. (Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 1320, 40 Stat. 1148; Nov. 23, 1921, c. 136, § 1329, 42 Stat. 318; June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, §§ 2, 1029, 43 Stat. 253, 349.)

14. Violations previous to November 1, 1922, not punishable.
15. Provisions of Interstate Commerce Act made applicable.
16. Cooperation by Secretary with other agencies, Government, State, etc.; appointment, removal and compensation of officers and agents; expenses; appropriation.
17. Effect of partial invalidity of chapter.

Section 1. Short title of chapter.—This chapter shall be known by the short title of "The Grain Futures Act." (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 369, § 1, 42 Stat. 998.)

2. Definitions; "contract of sale"; "person"; "grain"; "future delivery"; "board of trade"; "interstate commerce."—For the purposes of this chapter "contract of sale" shall be held to include sales, agreements of sale, and agreements to sell. The word "person" shall be construed to import the plural or singular, and shall include individuals, associations, partnerships, corporations, and trusts. The word "grain" shall be construed to mean wheat, corn, oats, barley, rye, flax, and sorghum. The term "future delivery," as used herein, shall not include any sale of cash grain for deferred shipment or delivery. The words "board of trade" shall be held to include and mean any exchange or association, whether incorporated or unincorporated, of persons who shall be engaged in the business of buying or selling grain or receiving the same for sale on consignment. The words "interstate commerce" shall be construed to mean commerce between any State, Territory, or possession, or the District of Columbia, and any place outside thereof; or between points within the same State, Territory, or possession, or the District of Columbia, but through any place outside thereof, or within any Territory or possession, or the District of Columbia. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 369, § 2, 42 Stat. 998.)

3. When transaction deemed in interstate commerce; "State" defined.—For the purposes of this chapter (but not in any wise limiting the definition of interstate commerce in the preceding section) a transaction in respect to any article shall be considered to be in interstate commerce if such article is part of that current of commerce usual in the grain trade whereby grain and grain products and by-products thereof are sent from one State with the expectation that they will end their transit, after purchase, in another, including in addition to cases within the above general description, all cases where purchase or sale is either for shipment to another State, or for manufacture within the State and the shipment outside the State of the products resulting from such manufacture. Articles normally in such current of commerce shall not be considered out of such commerce through resort being had to any means or device intended to remove transactions in respect thereto from the provisions of this chapter. For the purpose of this section the word "State" includes Territory, the District of Columbia, possession of the United States, and foreign nation. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 369, § 2, 42 Stat. 998.)

4. Liability of principal for act of agent.—The act, omission, or failure of any official, agent, or other person acting for any individual, association, partnership, corporation, or trust within the scope of his employment or office shall be deemed the act, omission, or failure of such individual, association, partnership, corporation, or trust, as well as of such official, agent, or other person. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 369, § 2, 42 Stat. 998.)

5. Resolution declaring dangerous tendency of dealings in grain futures.—Transactions in grain involving the sale thereof for future delivery as commonly conducted on boards of trade and known as "futures" are affected with a national public interest; that such transactions are carried on in large volume by the public generally and by persons engaged in the business of buying and selling grain and the products and by-products thereof in interstate commerce; that the prices involved in such transactions are generally quoted and disseminated throughout the United States and in foreign countries as a basis for determining the prices to the producer and the consumer of grain and the products and by-products thereof and to facilitate the movements thereof in interstate commerce; that such transactions are utilized by shippers, dealers, millers, and others engaged in handling grain and the products and by-products thereof in interstate commerce as a means of hedging themselves against possible loss through fluctuations in price; that the transactions and prices of grain on such boards of trade are susceptible to speculation, manipulation, and control, and sudden or unreasonable fluctuations in the prices thereof frequently occur as a result of such speculation, manipulation, or control, which are detrimental to the producer or the consumer and the persons handling grain and products and by-products thereof in interstate commerce, and that such fluctuations in prices are an obstruction to and a burden upon interstate commerce in grain and the products and by-products thereof and render regulation imperative for the protection of such commerce and the national public interest therein. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 369, § 3, 42 Stat. 999.)

6. Prohibition against dealings in grain futures; general exceptions.—It shall be unlawful for any person to deliver for transmission through the mails or in interstate commerce by telegraph, telephone, wireless, or other means of communication any offer to make or execute, or any confirmation of the execution of, or any quotation or report of the price of, any contract of sale of grain for future delivery on or subject to the rules of any board of trade in the United States, or for any person to make or execute such contract of sale, which is or may be used for (a) hedging any transaction in interstate commerce in grain or the products or by-products thereof, or (b) determining the price basis of any such transaction in interstate commerce, or (c) delivering grain sold, shipped, or received in interstate commerce for the fulfillment thereof, except—

(a) Where the seller is at the time of the making of such contract the owner of the actual physical property covered thereby, or is the grower thereof, or in case either party to the contract is the owner or renter of land on which the same is to be grown, or is an association of such owners, or growers of grain, or of such owners or renters of land; or

(b) Where such contract is made by or through a member of a board of trade which has been designated by the Secretary of Agriculture as a "contract market," as hereinafter provided in this chapter, and if such contract is evidenced by a record in writing which shows the date, the parties to such contract and their addresses, the property covered and its price, and the terms of delivery: Provided, That each board member shall keep such record for a period of three years from the date thereof, or for a longer period if the Secretary of Agriculture shall so direct, which record shall at all times be open to the inspection of any representative of the United States Department of Agriculture or the United States Department of Justice. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 369, § 4, 42 Stat. 999.)

7. Designation of board of trade as "contract market"; conditions and requirements.—The Secretary of Agriculture is hereby authorized and directed to designate any board of trade as a "contract market" when, and only when, such board of trade complies with and carries out the following conditions and requirements:

(a) When located at a terminal market where cash grain of the kind specified in the contracts of sale of grain for future delivery to be executed on such board is sold in sufficient volumes and under such conditions as fairly to reflect the general value of the grain and the differences in value between the various grades of such grain, and where there is available to such board of trade official inspection service approved by the Secretary of Agriculture for the purpose.

(b) When the governing board thereof provides for the making and filing by the board or any member thereof, as the Secretary of Agriculture may direct, of reports in accordance with the rules and regulations, and in such manner and form and at such times as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Agriculture, showing the details and terms of all transactions entered into by the board, or the members thereof, either in cash transactions consummated at, on or in a board of trade, or transactions for future delivery, and when such governing board provides, in accordance with such rules and regulations, for the keeping of a record by the board or the members of the board of trade, as the Secretary of Agriculture may direct, showing the details and terms of all cash and future transactions entered into by them, consummated at, on, or in a board of trade, such record to be in permanent form, showing the parties to all such transactions, including the persons for whom made, any assignments or transfers thereof, with the parties thereto, and the manner in which said transactions are fulfilled, discharged, or terminated. Such record shall be required to be kept for a period of three years from the date thereof, or for a longer period if the Secretary of Agriculture shall so direct, and shall at all times be open to the inspection of any representative of the United States Department of Agriculture or United States Department of Justice.

(c) When the governing board thereof provides for the prevention of dissemination by the board or any member thereof, of false or misleading or knowingly inaccurate reports concerning crop or market information or conditions that affect or tend to affect the price of grain in interstate commerce.

(d) When the governing board thereof provides for the prevention of manipulation of prices or the cornering of any grain by the dealers or operators upon such board.

(e) When the governing board thereof does not exclude from membership in, and all privileges on, such board of trade, any duly authorized representative of any lawfully formed and conducted cooperative association of producers having adequate financial responsibility which is engaged in cash grain business, if such association has complied, and agrees to comply, with such terms and conditions as are or may be imposed lawfully on other members of such board: Provided, That no rule of a contract market shall forbid or be construed to forbid the return on a patronage basis by such cooperative association to its bona fide members of moneys collected in excess of the expense of conducting the business of such association.

(f) When the governing board provides for making effective the final orders or decisions entered pursuant to the provisions of section 9 of this chapter. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 369, § 5, 42 Stat. 1000.)

8. Application for designation as "contract market"; suspension or revocation of designation; composition of commission; review by circuit court of appeals.—Any board of trade desiring to be designated a "contract market" shall make application to the Secretary of Agriculture for such designation and accompany the same with a showing that it complies with the above conditions, and with a sufficient assurance that it will continue to comply with the above requirements.

A commission composed of the Secretary of Agriculture, the Secretary of Commerce, and the Attorney General is authorized to suspend for a period not to exceed six months or to revoke the designation of any board of trade as a "contract market" upon a showing that such board of trade has failed or is failing to comply with any of the above requirements or is not enforcing its rules of government made a condition of its designation as set forth in section 7 of this chapter. Such suspension or revocation shall only be after a notice to the officers of the board of trade affected and upon a hearing: Provided, That such suspension or revocation shall be final and conclusive unless within fifteen days after such suspension or revocation by the said commission such board of trade appeals to the circuit court of appeals for the circuit in which it has its principal place of business by filing with the clerk of such court a written petition praying that the order of the said commission be set aside or modified in the manner stated in the petition, together with a bond in such sum as the court may determine, conditioned that such board of trade will pay the costs of the proceedings if the court so directs. The clerk of the court in which such a petition is filed shall immediately cause a copy thereof to be delivered to the Secretary of Agriculture, chairman of said commission, or any member thereof, and the said commission shall forthwith prepare, certify, and file in the court a full and accurate transcript of the record in such proceedings, including the notice to the board of trade, a copy of the charges, the evidence, and the report and order. The testimony and evidence taken or submitted before the said commission duly certified and filed as aforesaid as a part of the record shall be considered by the court as the evidence in the case. The proceedings in such cases in the circuit court of appeals shall be made a preferred cause and shall be expedited in every way. Such a court may affirm or set aside the order of the said commission or may direct it to modify its order. No such order of the said commission shall be modified or set aside by the circuit court of appeals unless it is shown by the board of trade that the order is unsupported by the weight of the evidence or was issued without due notice and a reasonable opportunity having been afforded to such board of trade for a hearing, or infringes the Constitution of the United States, or is beyond the jurisdiction of said commission: Provided further, That if the Secretary of Agriculture shall refuse to designate as a contract market any board of trade that has made application therefor, then such board of trade may appeal from such refusal to the commission described therein, consisting of the Secretary of Agriculture, the Secretary of Commerce, and the Attorney General of the United States, with the right to appeal as provided for in other cases in this section, the decision on such appeal to be final and binding on all parties interested. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 369, § 6, 42 Stat. 1001.)

9. Exclusion of persons from privilege of "contract markets"; procedure for exclusion; review by circuit court of appeals.—If the Secretary of Agriculture has reason to believe that any person is violating any of the provisions of this chapter, or is attempting to manipulate the market price of any grain in violation of the provisions of section 7 of this chapter, or of any of the rules or regulations made pursuant to its requirements, he may serve upon such person a complaint stating his charge in that respect, to which complaint shall be attached or contained therein a notice of hearing, specifying a day and place not less than three days after the service thereof, requiring such person to show cause why an order should not be made directing that all contract markets until further notice of the said commission refuse all trading privileges thereon to such person. Said hearing may be held in Washington, District of Columbia, or elsewhere, before the said commission, or before a referee designated by the Secretary of Agriculture, who shall cause all evidence to be reduced to writing and forthwith transmit the same to the Secretary of Agriculture as chairman of the said commission. Upon evidence received the said commission may require all contract markets to refuse such person all trading privileges thereon for such period as may be specified in said order. Notice of such order shall be sent forthwith by registered mail or delivered to the offending person and to the governing boards of said contract markets. After the issuance of the order by the commission, as aforesaid, the person against whom it is issued may obtain a review of such order or such other equitable relief as to the court may seem just by filing in the United States circuit court of appeals of the circuit in which the petitioner is doing business a written petition praying that the order of the commission be set aside. A copy of such petition shall be forthwith served upon the commission by delivering such copy to its chairman or to any member thereof, and thereupon the commission shall forthwith certify and file in the court a transcript of the record theretofore made, including evidence received. Upon the filing of the transcript the court shall have jurisdiction to affirm, to set aside, or modify the order of the commission, and the findings of the commission as to the facts, if supported by the weight of evidence, shall in like manner be conclusive. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 369, § 6, 42 Stat. 1001.)

10. Review by Supreme Court on certiorari.—In proceedings under sections 8 and 9 of this chapter the judgment and decree of the court shall be final, except that the same shall be subject to review by the Supreme Court upon certiorari, as provided in section 347 of Title 28, Judicial Code and Judiciary. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 369, § 6, 42 Stat. 1001.)

11. Vacation on request of designation as "contract market"; redesignation.—Any board of trade that has been designated a contract market in the manner provided in this chapter may have such designation vacated and set aside by giving notice in writing to the Secretary of Agriculture requesting that its designation as a contract market be vacated, which notice shall be served at least ninety days prior to the date named therein as the date when the vacation of designation shall take effect. Upon receipt of such notice the Secretary of Agriculture shall forthwith order the vacation of the designation of such board of trade as a contract market, effective upon the day named in the notice, and shall forthwith send a copy of the notice and his order to all other contract markets. From and after the date upon which the vacation became effective the said board of trade can thereafter be designated again a contract market by making application to the Secretary of Agriculture in the manner in this chapter provided for an original application. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 369, § 7, 42 Stat. 1002.)

12. Investigations and reports by Secretary, generally.—For the efficient execution of the provisions of this chapter, and in order to provide information for the use of Congress, the Secretary of Agriculture may make such investigations as he may deem necessary to ascertain the facts regarding the operations of boards of trade, whether prior or subsequent to the enactment of this chapter, and may publish from time to time, in his discretion, the result of such investigation and such statistical information gathered therefrom as he may deem of interest to the public, except data and information which would separately disclose the business transactions of any person and trade secrets or names of customers: Provided, That nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit the Secretary of Agriculture from making or issuing such reports as he may deem necessary relative to the conduct of any board of trade or of the transactions of any person found guilty of violating the provisions of this chapter under the proceedings prescribed in section 9 of this chapter: Provided further, That the Secretary of Agriculture in any report may include the facts as to any actual transaction. The Secretary of Agriculture, upon his own initiative or in cooperation with existing governmental agencies, shall investigate marketing conditions of grain and grain products and by-products, including supply and demand for these commodities, cost to the consumer, and handling and transportation charges. He shall likewise compile and furnish to producers, consumers, and distributors, by means of regular or special reports, or by such methods as he may deem most effective, information respecting the grain markets, together with information on supply, demand, prices and other conditions in this and other countries that affect the markets. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 369, § 8, 42 Stat. 1003.)

13. Violations generally; false reports; punishment.—Any person who shall violate the provisions of section 6 of this chapter, or who shall fail to evidence any contract mentioned in said section by a record in writing as therein required, or who shall knowingly or carelessly deliver for transmission through the mails or in interstate commerce by telegraph, telephone, wireless, or other means of communication false or misleading or knowingly inaccurate reports concerning crop or market information or conditions that affect or tend to affect the price of grain in interstate commerce, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction thereof, be fined not more than $10,000 or imprisoned for not more than one year, or both, together with the costs of prosecution. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 369, § 9, 42 Stat. 1003.)

14. Violations previous to November 1, 1922, not punishable.—No fine or imprisonment shall be imposed for any violation of this chapter occurring before the 1st day of November, 1922. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 369, § 11, 42 Stat. 1003.)

15. Provisions of Interstate Commerce Act made applicable.—For the purpose of securing effective enforcement of the provisions of this chapter, the provisions, including penalties, of section 12 of Title 49, Transportation, relating to the attendance and testimony of witnesses, the production of documentary evidence, and the immunity of witnesses, are made applicable to the power, jurisdiction, and authority of the Secretary of Agriculture, the said commission, or said referee in proceedings under this chapter, and to persons subject to its provisions. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 369, § 6, 42 Stat. 1101.)

16. Cooperation by Secretary with other agencies, Government, State, etc.; appointment, removal, and compensation of officers and agents; expenses; appropriation.—The Secretary of Agriculture may cooperate with any department or agency of the Government, any State, Territory, District, or possession, or department, agency, or political subdivision thereof, or any person; and shall have the power to appoint, remove, and fix the compensation of such officers and employees, not in conflict with existing law, and make such expenditures for rent outside the District of Columbia, printing, telegrams, telephones, law books, books of reference, periodicals, furniture, stationery, office equipment, travel, and other supplies and expenses as shall be necessary to the administration of this chapter in the District of Columbia and elsewhere, and there are hereby authorized to be appropriated, out of any moneys in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, such sums as may be necessary for such purposes. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 369, § 12, 42 Stat. 1003.)

17. Effect of partial invalidity of chapter.—If any provision of this chapter or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of the chapter and of the application of such provision to other persons and circumstances shall not be affected thereby. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 369, § 10, 42 Stat. 1003.)

Chapter 2.—COTTON STANDARDS ACT.

Sec.
51. Short title of chapter.
52. Use of nonofficial standards prohibited; sales by sample excepted.
53. Licensing classifiers; revocation and suspension of license.
54. Classification by Department of Agriculture; certification thereof; effect of certificate; regulations for classification.
55. Charges for licenses and classifications; disposition of moneys.
56. Establishment of cotton standards; furnishing copies of established standards sold.
57. Disposition of proceeds of sale of cotton and of copies of standards.
58. General inspection and sampling of cotton.
59. Offenses in relation to cotton standards.
60. Penalties for violations.
61. General regulations, investigations, tests, etc., by Secretary.
62. Definitions; "person"; "commerce"; "cotton."
63. Liability of principal for act of agent.
64. Appropriation for expenses; appointed by Secretary of officers and agents; compensation.
65. Effect of partial invalidity.

Section 51. Short title of chapter.—This chapter shall be known by the short title of "United States Cotton Standards Act." (Mar. 4, 1923, c. 288, § 1, 42 Stat. 1517.)

52. Use of nonofficial standards prohibited; sales by sample excepted.—It shall be unlawful (a) in or in connection with any transaction or shipment in commerce made after August 1, 1923, or (b) in any publication of a price or quotation determined in or in connection with any transaction or shipment in commerce after August 1, 1923, or (c) in any classification for the purposes of or in connection with a transaction or shipment in commerce after August 1, 1923, for any person to indicate for any cotton a grade or other class which is of or within the official cotton standards of the United States then in effect under this chapter by a name, description, or designation, or any system of names, description, or designation not used in said standards: Provided, That nothing herein shall prevent a transaction otherwise lawful by actual sample or on the basis of a private type which is used in good faith and not in evasion of or substitution for said standards. (Mar. 4, 1923, c. 288, § 2, 42 Stat. 1517.)

53. Licensing classifiers; revocation and suspension of license.—The Secretary of Agriculture may, upon presentation of satisfactory evidence of competency, issue to any person a license to grade or otherwise classify cotton and to certificate the grade or other class thereof in accordance with the official cotton standards of the United States. Any such license may be suspended or revoked by the Secretary of Agriculture whenever he is satisfied, after reasonable opportunity afforded to the licensee for a hearing, that such licensee is incompetent or has knowingly or carelessly classified cotton improperly, or has violated any provision of this chapter or the regulations thereunder so far as the same may relate to him, or has used his license or allowed it to be used for any improper purpose. Pending investigation the Secretary of Agriculture, whenever he deems necessary, may suspend a license temporarily without a hearing. (Mar. 4, 1923, c. 288, § 3, 42 Stat. 1517.)

54. Classification by Department of Agriculture; certification thereof; effect of certificate; regulations for classification.—Any person who has custody of or a financial interest in any cotton may submit the same or samples thereof, drawn in accordance with the regulations of the Secretary of Agriculture, to such officer or officers of the Department of Agriculture, as may be designated for the purpose pursuant to the regulations of the Secretary of Agriculture for a determination of the true classification of such cotton or samples, including the comparison thereof, if requested, with types or other samples submitted for the purpose. The final certificate of the Department of Agriculture showing such determination shall be binding on officers of the United States and shall be accepted in the courts of the United States as prima facie evidence of the true classification or comparison of such cotton or samples when involved in any transaction or shipment in commerce. The Secretary of Agriculture shall fix rules and regulations for submitting samples of cotton for classification providing that all samples shall be numbered so that no one interested in the transaction involved shall be known by any classifier engaged in the classification of such cotton samples. (Mar. 4, 1923, c. 288, § 4, 42 Stat. 1517.)

55. Charges for licenses and classifications; disposition of moneys.—The Secretary of Agriculture may cause to be collected such charges as he may find to be reasonable for licenses issued to classifiers of cotton under section 53 and for determinations made under section 54 of this chapter, and the amounts so collected shall be used by the Secretary of Agriculture in paying expenses of the Department of Agriculture connected therewith. (Mar. 4, 1923, c. 288, § 5, 42 Stat. 1518.)

56. Establishment of cotton standards; furnishing copies of established standards sold.—The Secretary of Agriculture is authorized to establish from time to time standards for the classification of cotton by which its quality or value may be judged or determined for commercial purposes, which shall be known as the official cotton standards of the United States. Any such standard or change or replacement thereof shall become effective only on and after a date specified in the order of the Secretary of Agriculture establishing the same, which date shall be not less than one year after the date of such order: Provided, That the official cotton standards established, effective August 1, 1923, under the United States Cotton Futures Act, constituting chapter 13 of Title 26, Internal Revenue, shall be at the same time the official cotton standards for the purpose of this chapter unless and until changed or replaced under this chapter. Whenever any standard or change or replacement thereof shall become effective under this chapter, it shall also, when so specified in the order of the Secretary of Agriculture, become effective for the purposes of the United States Cotton

Futures Act constituting chapter 13 of Title 26, Internal Revenue, and supersede any inconsistent standard established under said sections. Whenever the official cotton standards of the United States established under this chapter shall be represented by practical forms the Department of Agriculture shall furnish copies thereof, upon request, to any person, and the cost thereof, as determined by the Secretary of Agriculture, shall be paid by the person making the request. The Secretary of Agriculture may cause such copies to be certified under the seal of the Department of Agriculture and may attach such conditions to the purchase and use thereof, including provision for the inspection, condemnation, and exchange thereof by duly authorized representatives of the Department of Agriculture, as he may find to be necessary to the proper application of the official cotton standards of the United States. (Mar. 4, 1923, c. 288, § 6, 42 Stat. 1518.)

57. Disposition of proceeds of sale of cotton and of copies of standards.—Any moneys received from or in connection with the sale of cotton purchased for the preparation of the copies mentioned in the preceding section, and condemned as unsuitable for such use or with the sale of such copies may be expended for the purchase of other cotton for such use. (Mar. 4, 1923, c. 288, § 6, 42 Stat. 1518.)

58. General inspection and sampling of cotton.—In order to carry out the provisions of this chapter, the Secretary of Agriculture is authorized to cause the inspection, including the sampling, of any cotton involved in any transaction or shipment in commerce, wherever such cotton may be found, or of any cotton with respect to which a determination of the true classification is requested under section 54 of this chapter. (Mar. 4, 1923, c. 288, § 7, 42 Stat. 1518.)

59. Offenses in relation to cotton standards.—It shall be unlawful for any person (a) with intent to deceive or defraud, to make, receive, use, or have in his possession any simulate or counterfeit practical form or copy of any standard or part thereof established under this chapter; or (b) without the written authority of the Secretary of Agriculture, to make, alter, tamper with, or in any respect change any practical form or copy of any standard established under this chapter; or (c) to display or use any such practical form or copy after the Secretary of Agriculture shall have caused it to be condemned. (Mar. 4, 1923, c. 288, § 8, 42 Stat. 1519.)

60. Penalties for violations.—(a) Any person who shall knowingly violate any provision of sections 52 or 59 of this chapter, or (b) any person licensed under this chapter who, for the purposes of or in connection with any transaction or shipment in commerce, shall knowingly classify cotton improperly, or shall knowingly falsify or forge any certificate of classification, or shall accept money or other consideration, either directly or indirectly, for any neglect or improper performance of duty as such licensee, or (c) any person who shall knowingly influence improperly or attempt to influence improperly any person licensed under this chapter in the performance of his duties as such licensee relating to any transaction or shipment in commerce, or (d) any person who shall forcibly assault, resist, impede, or interfere with or influence improperly or attempt to influence improperly any person employed under this chapter in the performance of his duties, shall, upon conviction thereof, be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be fined not exceeding $1,000, or imprisoned not exceeding six months, or both, in the discretion of the court. (Mar. 4, 1923, c. 288, § 9, 42 Stat. 1519.)

61. General regulations, investigations, tests, etc., by Secretary.—For the purposes of this chapter the Secretary of Agriculture shall cause to be promulgated such regulations, may cause such investigations, tests, demonstrations, and publications to be made, including the investigation and determination of some practical method whereby repeated and unnecessary sampling and classification of cotton may be avoided, and may cooperate with any department or agency of the Government, any State, Territory, District, or possession, or department, agency, or political subdivision thereof, or any person, as he shall find to be necessary. (Mar. 4, 1923, c. 288, § 10, 42 Stat. 1519.)

62. Definitions; "person"; "commerce"; "cotton."—Wherever used in this chapter, (a) the word "person" imports the plural or the singular, as the case demands, and includes an individual, a partnership, a corporation, or two or more persons having a joint or common interest; (b) the word "commerce" means commerce between any State or the District of Columbia and any place outside thereof, or between points within the same State or the District of Columbia but through any place outside thereof, or within the District of Columbia; and (c) the word "cotton" means cotton of any variety produced within the continental United States, including linters. (Mar. 4, 1923, c. 288, § 11, 42 Stat. 1519.)

63. Liability of principal for act of agent.—When construing and enforcing the provisions of this chapter, the act, omission, or failure of any agent, officer, or other person acting for or employed by any person, within the scope of his employment or office, shall in every case be deemed also the act, omission, or failure of such person as well as that of such agent, officer, or other person. (Mar. 4, 1923, c. 288, § 11, 42 Stat. 1519.)

64. Appropriation for expenses; appointment by Secretary of officers and agents; compensation.—There are hereby authorized to be appropriated out of any moneys in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, such sums as may be necessary for carrying out the provisions of this chapter; and the Secretary of Agriculture is authorized, within the limits of such appropriations, to appoint, remove, and fix the compensations of such officers and employees, not in conflict with existing law, and make such expenditures for rent outside the District of Columbia, printing, telegrams, telephones, law books, books of reference, periodicals, furniture, stationery, office equipment, travel, and other supplies and expenses as shall be necessary to the administration of this chapter in the District of Columbia and elsewhere. (Mar. 4, 1923, c. 288, § 12, 42 Stat. 1519.)

65. Effect of partial invalidity.—If any provision of this chapter or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of the chapter and the application of such provision to other persons and circumstances shall not be affected thereby. (Mar. 4, 1923, c. 288, § 13, 42 Stat. 1520.)

80. Revocation and suspension of license.
81. Disqualification to act as inspector or departmental agent.
82. Records and reports by inspectors.
83. Semiannual reports by Secretary.
84. Adoption by Secretary of rules and regulations generally.
85. Violations generally; punishment.
86. Interference with execution of official duties; punishment.
87. Effect of partial invalidity of chapter.

Section 71. Short title of chapter.—This chapter shall be known by the short title of the "United States Grain Standards Act." (Aug. 11, 1916, c. 313, § 1, 39 Stat. 482.)

72. Definitions; "person"; "interstate or foreign commerce."—The word "person," wherever used in this chapter, shall be construed to import the plural or singular, as the case demands, and shall include individuals, associations, partnerships, and corporations; the words "in interstate or foreign commerce," wherever used in this chapter, mean, "from any State, Territory, or District to or through any other State, Territory, or District, or to or through any foreign country, or within any Territory or District." (Aug. 11, 1916, c. 313, § 1, 39 Stat. 482.)

73. Liability of principal for act of agent.—When construing and enforcing the provisions of this chapter, the act, omission, or failure of any official, agent, or other person acting for or employed by any association, partnership, or corporation within the scope of his employment or office shall, in every case, also be deemed the act, omission, or failure of such association, partnership, or corporation as well as that of the person. (Aug. 11, 1916, c. 313, § 1, 39 Stat. 482.)

74. Establishment of grain standards by Secretary; promulgation.—The Secretary of Agriculture is hereby authorized to investigate the handling, grading, and transportation of grain and to fix and establish standards of quality and condition for corn (maize), wheat, rye, oats, barley, flaxseed, and such other grains as in his judgment the usages of the trade may warrant and permit, and the Secretary of Agriculture shall have power to alter or modify such standards whenever the necessities of the trade may require. In promulgating the standards, or any alteration or modification of such standards, the Secretary shall specify the date or dates when the same shall become effective, and shall give public notice, not less than ninety days in advance of such date or dates, by such means as he deems proper. (Aug. 11, 1916, c. 313, § 2, 39 Stat. 482.)

75. Designation of official grain standards.—The standards fixed and established as authorized in the preceding section shall be known as the official grain standards of the United States. (Aug. 11, 1916, c. 313, § 3, 39 Stat. 483.)

76. Compulsory use of official standards; exceptions; inspection and grading after shipment; appeal.—Whenever standards shall have been fixed and established under this chapter for any grain no person thereafter shall ship or deliver for shipment in interstate or foreign commerce any such grain which is sold, offered for sale, or consigned for sale by grade unless the grain shall have been inspected and graded by an inspector licensed under this chapter and the grade by which it is sold, offered for sale, or consigned for sale be one of the grades fixed therefor in the official grain standards of the United States: Provided, That any person may sell, offer for sale, or consign for sale, ship or deliver for shipment in interstate or foreign commerce any such grain by sample or by type, or under any name, description, or designation which is not false or misleading, and which name, description, or designation does not include in whole or in part the terms of any official grain standard of the United States: Provided further, That any such grain sold, offered for sale, or consigned for sale by grade may be shipped or delivered for shipment in interstate or foreign commerce without inspection at point of shipment by an inspector licensed under this chapter, to or through any place at which an inspector licensed under this chapter is located, subject to be inspected by a licensed inspector at the place to which shipped or at some convenient point through which shipped for inspection, which inspection shall be under such rules and regulations as the Secretary of Agriculture shall prescribe, and subject further to the right of appeal from such inspection, as provided in section 78 of this chapter: And provided further, That any such grain sold, offered for sale, or consigned for sale by any of the grades fixed therefor in the official grain standards may, upon compliance with the rules and regulations prescribed by the Secretary of Agriculture, be shipped in interstate or foreign commerce without inspection from a place at which there is no inspector licensed under this chapter to a place at which there is no such inspector, subject to the right of either party to the transaction to refer any dispute as to the grade of the grain to the Secretary of Agriculture, who may determine the true grade thereof. No person shall in any certificate or in any contract or agreement of sale or agreement to sell by grade, either oral or written, involving, or in any invoice or bill of lading or other shipping document relating to, the shipment or delivery for shipment, in interstate or foreign commerce, of any grain for which standards shall have been fixed and established under this chapter, described, or in any way refer to, any of such grain as being of any grade other than a grade fixed therefor in the official grain standards of the United States. (Aug. 11, 1916, c. 313, § 4, 39 Stat. 483.)

77. Misrepresentation respecting grade; reexamination by Secretary of inspected grain; hearing and publication of findings.—No person, except as permitted in section 76 of this chapter, shall represent that any grain shipped or delivered for shipment in interstate or foreign commerce is of a grade fixed in the official grain standards other than as shown by a certificate therefor issued in compliance with this chapter; and the Secretary of Agriculture is authorized to cause examinations to be made of any grain for which standards shall have been fixed and established under this chapter, and which has been certified to conform to any grade fixed therefor in such official grain standards, or which has been shipped or delivered for shipment in interstate or foreign commerce. Whenever, after opportunity for hearing is given to the owner or shipper of the grain involved, and to the inspector thereof if the same has been inspected, it is determined by the Secretary that any quantity of grain has been incorrectly certified to conform to a specified grade, or has been sold, offered for sale, or consigned for sale under any name, description, or designation which is false or misleading, he may publish his findings. (Aug. 11, 1916, c. 313, § 5, 39 Stat. 483.)

78. Appeal to Secretary from official grading; fees for reinspection; conclusiveness of findings on appeal.—Whenever standards shall have been fixed and established under this chapter for any grain and any quantity of such grain sold, offered for sale, or consigned for sale, or which has been shipped, or delivered for shipment in interstate or foreign commerce shall have been inspected and a dispute arises as to whether the grade as determined by such inspection of any such grain in fact conforms to the standard of the specified grade, any interested party may, either with or without reinspection, appeal the question to the Secretary of Agriculture, and the Secretary of Agriculture is authorized to cause such investigation to be made and such tests to be applied as he may deem necessary and to determine the true grade: Provided, That any appeal from such inspection and grading to the Secretary of Agriculture shall be taken before the grain leaves the place where the inspection appealed from was made and before the identity of the grain has been lost, under such rules and regulations as the Secretary of Agriculture shall prescribe. Whenever an appeal shall be taken or a dispute referred to the Secretary of Agriculture under this chapter, he shall charge and assess, and cause to be collected, a reasonable fee, in amount to be fixed by him, which fee, in case of an appeal, shall be refunded if the appeal is sustained. All such fees, not so refunded, shall be deposited and covered into the Treasury as miscellaneous receipts. The findings of the Secretary of Agriculture as to grade, signed by him or by such officer or officers, agent or agents, of the Department of Agriculture as he may designate, made after the parties in interest have had opportunity to be heard, shall be accepted in the courts of the United States as prima facie evidence of the true grade of the grain determined by him at the time and place specified in the findings. (Aug. 11, 1916, c. 313, § 6, 39 Stat. 484.)

79. License to inspect and grade; State inspectors.—The Secretary of Agriculture may issue a license to any person, upon presentation to him of satisfactory evidence that such person is competent, to inspect and grade grain and to certificate the grade thereof for shipment or delivery for shipment in interstate or foreign commerce, under this chapter and the rules and regulations prescribed thereunder. No person authorized or employed by any State, county, city, town, board of trade, chamber of commerce, corporation, society, partnership, or association to inspect or grade grain shall certify, or otherwise state or indicate in writing, that any grain for shipment or delivery for shipment in interstate or foreign commerce, which has been inspected or graded by him, or by any person acting under his authority, is of one of the grades of the official grain standards of the United States, unless he holds an unsuspended and unrevoked license issued by the Secretary of Agriculture: Provided, That in any State which has, or which may hereafter have a State grain inspection department established by the laws of such State, the Secretary of Agriculture shall issue licenses to the persons duly authorized and employed to inspect and grade grain under the laws of such State. (Aug. 11, 1916, c. 313, § 7, 39 Stat. 484.)

80. Revocation and suspension of license.—The Secretary of Agriculture may suspend or revoke any license issued by him under this chapter whenever, after opportunity for hearing has been given to the licensee, the Secretary shall determine that such licensee is incompetent or has knowingly or carelessly graded grain improperly or by any other standard than is authorized under this chapter, or has issued any false certificate of grade, or has accepted any money or other consideration, directly or indirectly, for any neglect or improper performance of duty, or has violated any provision of this chapter or of the rules and regulations made thereunder. Pending investigation the Secretary of Agriculture, whenever he deems necessary, may suspend a license temporarily without hearing. (Aug. 11, 1916, c. 313, § 7, 39 Stat. 484.)

81. Disqualification to act as inspector or departmental agent.—No person licensed by the Secretary of Agriculture to inspect or grade grain or employed by him in carrying out any of the provisions of this chapter shall, during the term of such license or employment, be interested, financially or otherwise, directly or indirectly, in any grain elevator or warehouse, or in the merchandising of grain, nor shall he be in the employment of any person or corporation owning or operating any grain elevator or warehouse. (Aug. 11, 1916, c. 313, § 7, 39 Stat. 484.)

82. Records and reports by inspectors.—The Secretary of Agriculture shall require every inspector licensed under this chapter to keep complete and correct records of all grain graded and inspected by him and to make reports to the Secretary of Agriculture, in such forms and at such times as he may require, showing the place of inspection, the date of inspection, the name of the elevator or warehouse, if any, to which the grain was delivered or from which it was shipped, the kind of grain, the quantity of each kind, the grade thereof, and such other information as the Secretary of Agriculture may deem necessary. (Aug. 11, 1916, c. 313, § 7, 39 Stat. 484.)

83. Semiannual reports by Secretary.—The Secretary of Agriculture, on each first Tuesday in January and each first Tuesday in July of each year shall make publication of a summary of such facts as are ascertained, showing in as great detail as possible all the facts, including a summary as to the amount and grade of grain delivered to any elevator or warehouse and the amount and grade of grain delivered from such elevator or warehouse, and the estimated amount received on sample or type by such elevator or warehouse, and the estimated amount delivered therefrom on sample or type. (Aug. 11, 1916, c. 313, § 7, 39 Stat. 484.)

84. Adoption by Secretary of rules and regulations generally.—The Secretary of Agriculture shall, from time to time, make such rules and regulations as he may deem necessary for the efficient execution of the provisions of this chapter. (Aug. 11, 1916, c. 313, § 8, 39 Stat. 485.)

85. Violations generally; punishment.—Any person who shall knowingly violate any of the provisions of sections 76 or 79 to 83, inclusive, of this chapter, or any inspector licensed under this chapter who shall knowingly inspect or grade improperly any grain which has been shipped or delivered for shipment in interstate or foreign commerce, or shall knowingly give any false certificate of grade, or shall accept money or other consideration, directly or indirectly, for any neglect or improper performance of duty, and any person who shall improperly influence or attempt to improperly influence any such inspector in the performance of his duty, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not more than $1,000, or be imprisoned not more than one year, or both. (Aug. 11, 1916, c. 313, § 9, 39 Stat. 485.)

86. Interference with execution of official duties; punishment.—Every person who forcibly assaults, resists, impedes, or interferes with any officer or employee of the United States Department of Agriculture in the execution of any duties authorized to be performed by this chapter or the rules and regulations made thereunder shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined not more than $1,000, or be imprisoned not more than one year, or both. (Aug. 11, 1916, c. 313, § 10, 39 Stat. 485.)

87. Effect of partial invalidity of chapter.—If any clause, sentence, paragraph, or part of this chapter shall, for any reason, be adjudged by any court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, such judgment shall not affect, impair, or invalidate the remainder thereof, but shall be confined in its operation to the clause, sentence, paragraph, or part thereof directly involved in the controversy in which such judgment shall have been rendered. (Aug. 11, 1916, c. 313, § 11, 39 Stat. 485.)

Chapter 4.—NAVAL STORES ACT.

Sec.
91. Short title of chapter.
92. Definitions.
93. Establishment of "official naval stores standards."
94. Supplying duplicates of standards; examination, etc., of naval stores and certification thereof.
95. Prohibition of acts deemed injurious to commerce in naval stores.
96. Punishment for violation of prohibition.
97. Purchase and analysis by Secretary of samples of spirits of turpentine to detect violations; reports to Department of Justice; publication of results of analysis, etc.
98. Appropriation for and expenses in enforcement of chapter.
99. Effect of partial invalidity of chapter.

Section 91. Short title of chapter.—For convenience of reference, this chapter may be designated and cited as "The Naval Stores Act." (Mar. 3, 1923, c. 217, § 1, 42 Stat. 1435.)

92. Definitions.—When used in this chapter—

(a) "Naval stores" means spirits of turpentine and rosin.

(b) "Spirits of turpentine" includes gum spirits of turpentine and wood turpentine.

(c) "Gum spirits of turpentine" means spirits of turpentine made from gum (oleoresin) from a living tree.

(d) "Wood turpentine" includes steam distilled wood turpentine and destructively distilled wood turpentine.

(e) "Steam distilled wood turpentine" means wood turpentine distilled with steam from the oleoresin within or extracted from the wood.

(f) "Destructively distilled wood turpentine" means wood turpentine obtained in the destructive distillation of the wood.

(g) "Rosin" includes gum rosin and wood rosin.

(h) "Gum rosin" means rosin remaining after the distillation of gum spirits of turpentine.

(i) "Wood rosin" means rosin remaining after the distillation of steam distilled wood turpentine.

(j) "Package" means any container of naval stores, and includes barrel, tank, tank car, or other receptacle.

(k) "Person" includes partnerships, associations, and corporations, as well as individuals.

(l) The term "commerce" means commerce between any State, Territory, or possession, or the District of Columbia, and any place outside thereof; or between points within the same State, Territory, or possession, or the District of Columbia, but through any place outside thereof; or within any Territory or possession or the District of Columbia. (Mar. 3, 1923, c. 217, § 2, 42 Stat. 1435.)

93. Establishment of official naval stores standards.—For the purposes of this chapter the kinds of spirits of turpentine defined in subdivisions (c), (e), and (f) of section 92 hereof and the rosin types, prepared, prior to March 3, 1923, and recommended under existing laws, by or under authority of the Secretary of Agriculture, are hereby made the standards for naval stores until otherwise prescribed as hereinafter provided. The Secretary of Agriculture is authorized to establish and promulgate standards for naval stores for which no standards are herein provided, after at least three months' notice of the proposed standard shall have been given to the trade, so far as practicable, and due hearings or reasonable opportunities to be heard shall have been afforded those favoring or opposing the same. No such standard shall become effective until after three months from the date of the promulgation thereof. Any standard made by this chapter or established and promulgated by the Secretary of Agriculture in accordance therewith may be modified by said Secretary whenever, for reasons and causes deemed by him sufficient, the interests of the trade shall so require, after at least six months' notice of the proposed modifications shall have been given to the trade, so far as practicable, and due hearings or reasonable opportunities to be heard shall have been afforded those favoring or opposing the same; and no such modification so made shall become effective until after six months from the date when made.

The various grades of rosin, from highest to lowest, shall be designated, unless and until changed, as hereinbefore provided, by the following letters, respectively: X, WW, WG, N, M, K, I, H, G, F, E, D, and B, together with the designation "gum rosin" or "wood rosin," as the case may be.

The standards herein made and authorized to be made shall be known as the "Official Naval Stores Standards of the United States," and may be referred to by the abbreviated expression "United States Standards," and shall be the standards by which all naval stores in commerce shall be graded and described. (Mar. 3, 1923, c. 217, § 3, 42 Stat. 1435.)

94. Supplying duplicates of standards; examination, etc., of naval stores and certification thereof.—The Secretary of Agriculture shall provide, if practicable, any interested persons with duplicates of the official naval stores standards of the United States upon request accompanied by tender of satisfactory security for the return thereof, under such regulations as he may prescribe. The Secretary of Agriculture shall examine, if practicable, upon request of any interested person, any naval stores and shall analyze, classify, or grade the same on tender of the cost thereof as required by him, under such regulations as he may prescribe. He shall furnish a certificate showing the analysis, classification, or grade of such naval stores, which certificate shall be prima facie evidence of the analysis, classification, or grade of such naval stores and of the contents of any package from which the same may have been taken, as well as of the correctness of such analysis, classification, or grade and shall be admissible as such in any court. (Mar. 3, 1923, c. 217, § 4, 42 Stat. 1436.)

95. Prohibition of acts deemed injurious to commerce in naval stores.—The following acts are hereby declared injurious to commerce in naval stores and are hereby prohibited and made unlawful:

(a) The sale in commerce of any naval stores, or of anything offered as such, except under or by reference to United States standards.

(b) The sale of any naval stores under or by reference to United States standards which is other than what it is represented to be.

(c) The use in commerce of the word "turpentine" or the word "rosin," singly or with any other word or words, or of any compound, derivative, or imitation of either such word, or of any misleading word, or of any word, combination of words, letter, or combination of letters, provided herein or by the Secretary of Agriculture to be used to designate naval stores of any kind or grade, in selling, offering for sale, advertising, or shipping anything other than naval stores of the United States standards.

(d) The use in commerce of any false, misleading, or deceitful means or practice in the sale of naval stores or of anything offered as such. (Mar. 3, 1923, c. 217, § 5, 42 Stat. 1436.)

96. Punishment for violation of prohibition.—Any person willfully violating any provision of section 95 of this chapter shall, on conviction, be punished for each offense by a fine not exceeding $5,000 or by imprisonment for not exceeding one year or both. (Mar. 3, 1923, c. 217, § 6, 42 Stat. 1436.)

97. Purchase and analysis by Secretary of samples of spirits of turpentine to detect violations; reports to Department of Justice; publication of results of analysis, etc.—The Secretary of Agriculture is hereby authorized to purchase from time to time in open market samples of spirits of turpentine and of anything offered for sale as such for the purpose of analysis, classification, or grading and of detecting any violation of this chapter. He shall report to the Department of Justice for appropriate action any violation of this chapter coming to his knowledge. He is also authorized to publish from time to time results of any analysis, classification, or grading of spirits of turpentine and of anything offered for sale as such made by him under any provision of this chapter. (Mar. 3, 1923, c. 217, § 7, 42 Stat. 1436.)

98. Appropriation for and expenses in enforcement of chapter.—There are hereby authorized to be appropriated, out of any moneys in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, such sums as may be necessary for the administration and enforcement of this chapter, and within the limits of such sums the Secretary of Agriculture is authorized to employ such persons and means and make such expenditures for printing, telegrams, telephones, books of reference, periodicals, furniture, stationery, office equipment, travel and supplies, and all other expenses as shall be necessary in the District of Columbia and elsewhere. (Mar. 3, 1923, c. 217, § 8, 42 Stat. 1436.)

99. Effect of partial invalidity of chapter.—If any provision of this chapter or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of the chapter and of the application of such provision to other persons and circumstances shall not be affected thereby. (Mar. 3, 1923, c. 217, § 9, 42 Stat. 1437.)

Chapter 5.—IMPORTATION OF ADULTERATED SEEDS ACT.

Sec.
111. General prohibition against importation; exceptions.
112. When seed deemed adulterated.
113. When seed deemed unfit for seeding.
114. Violations of chapter; punishment; sale of seeds imported for manufacture.

Section 111. General prohibition against importation; exceptions.—The importation into the United States of seeds of alfalfa, barley, Canadian blue grass, Kentucky blue grass, awnless brome grass, buckwheat, clover, field corn, Kafir corn, meadow fescue, flax, millet, oats, orchard grass, rape, redtop, rye, sorghum, timothy, vetch, rye grass, and wheat, or mixtures of seeds containing any of such seeds as one of the principal component parts, which are adulterated or unfit for seeding purposes under the terms of this chapter, is hereby prohibited; and the Secretary of the Treasury and the Secretary of Agriculture shall, jointly or severally, make such rules and regulations as will prevent the importation of such seeds into the United States: Provided, however, That such seed may be delivered to the owner or consignee thereof under bond, to be recleaned in accordance with and subject to such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe, and when cleaned to the standard of purity specified in this chapter for admission into the United States such seed may be released to the owner or consignee thereof after the screenings and other refuse removed from such seed shall have been disposed of in a manner prescribed by the Secretary of Agriculture: Provided further, That this chapter shall not apply to the importation of barley, buckwheat, field corn, Kafir corn, sorghum, flax, oats, rye, or wheat not intended for seeding purposes, when shipped in bond through the United States or imported for the purpose of manufacture. (Aug. 24, 1912, c. 382, § 1, 37 Stat. 506; Aug. 11, 1916, c. 313, 39 Stat. 453.)

112. When seed deemed adulterated.—Seed shall be considered adulterated within the meaning of this chapter—

First. When seed of red clover contains more than 3 per centum by weight of seed of yellow trefoil or any other seed of similar appearance to and of lower market value than seed of red clover.

Second. When seed of alfalfa contains more than 3 per centum by weight of seed of yellow trefoil, burr clover, and sweet clover, singly or combined.

Third. When any kind or variety of the seeds, or any mixture described in section 111 of this chapter, contains more than 5 per centum by weight of seed of another kind or variety of lower market value and of similar appearance: Provided, That the mixture of the seed of white and alsike clover, red and alsike clover, or alsike clover and timothy, shall not be deemed an adulteration under this section. (Aug. 24, 1912, c. 382, § 2, 37 Stat. 507.)

113. When seed deemed unfit for seeding.—Seed shall be considered unfit for seeding purposes within the meaning of this chapter—

First. When any kind or variety of clover or alfalfa seed contains more than one seed of dodder to 5 grams of clover or alfalfa seed, respectively.

Second. When any kind or variety of the seeds or any mixture described in section 111 of this chapter contains more than 3 per centum by weight of seeds of weeds.

Third. When any kind or variety or mixture of the seeds described in section 111 of this chapter contains less than 65 per centum of live pure seed as distinguished from dead seed, chaff, dirt, other seeds, or foreign matter: Provided, however, That seed of Kentucky blue grass and seed of Canada blue grass shall not be considered unfit for seeding purposes when they contain 50 per centum or more of live pure seed. (Aug. 24, 1912, c. 382, § 3, 37 Stat. 507; Aug. 11, 1916, c. 313, 39 Stat. 453.)

114. Violations of chapter; punishment; sale of seed imported for manufacture.—Any person or persons who shall knowingly violate the provisions of this chapter shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall pay a fine of not exceeding $500 and not less than $200: Provided, That any person or persons who shall knowingly sell for seeding purposes seeds or grain which were imported under the provisions of this chapter for the purpose of manufacture shall be deemed guilty of a violation of this chapter. (Aug. 24, 1912, c. 382, § 4, 37 Stat. 507.)

Chapter 6.—INSECTICIDES ACT.

Sec.
121. Short title of chapter.
122. Definitions generally; "insecticide"; "Paris green"; "lead arsenate"; "fungicide."
123. "Territory"; "person"; defined.
124. Liability of principal for act of agent.
125. Manufacture of adulterated or misbranded articles prohibited; punishment.
126. Transportation or sale of adulterated or misbranded articles prohibited; punishment; exception; articles for export.
127. General rules and regulations; collection and examination of specimens.
128. Examinations of specimens; notice to interested party and hearing; certification to district attorney; publication.
129. District attorney to prosecute violations.
130. When articles deemed adulterated.
131. When articles deemed "misbranded"; labels.
132. Guaranty of wholesaler, etc., as protection to retailer; liability of guarantor.
133. Seizure and condemnation of adulterated or misbranded articles; disposition of articles or proceeds; procedure; jury trial.
134. Importation of articles; examination of samples; exclusion if adulterated, etc.; destruction or exportation; provisional delivery to consignee; bond; charges and lien.

Section 121. Short title of chapter.—This chapter shall be known and referred to as "The Insecticide Act". (Apr. 26, 1910, c. 191, § 13, 36 Stat. 335.)

122. Definitions generally; "insecticide"; "Paris green"; "lead arsenate"; "fungicide."—The term "insecticide" as used in this chapter shall include any substance or mixture of substances intended to be used for preventing, destroying, repelling, or mitigating any insects which may infest vegetation, man or other animals, or households, or be present in any environment whatsoever. The term "Paris green" as used in this chapter shall include the product sold in commerce as Paris green and chemically known as the aceto-arsenite of copper. The term "lead arsenate" as used in this chapter shall include the product or products sold in commerce as lead arsenate and consisting chemically of products derived from arsenic acid (H_3AsO_4) by replacing one or more hydrogen atoms by lead. The term "fungicide" as used in this chapter shall include any substance or mixture of substances intended to be used for preventing, destroying, repelling, or mitigating any and all fungi that may infest vegetation or be present in any environment whatsoever. (Apr. 26, 1910, c. 191, § 6, 36 Stat. 332.)

123. "Territory"; "person"; defined.—The term "Territory," as used in this chapter, shall include the District of Alaska and the insular possessions of the United States. The word "person," as used in this chapter, shall be construed to import both the plural and the singular, as the case demands, and shall include corporations, companies, societies, and associations. (Apr. 26, 1910, c. 191, § 12, 36 Stat. 335.)

124. Liability of principal for act of agent.—When construing and enforcing the provisions of this chapter, the act, omission, or failure of any officer, agent, or other person acting for or employed by any corportation, company, society, or association, within the scope of his employment or office, shall in every case be also deemed to be the act, omission, or failure of such corporation, company, society, or association, as well as that of the other person. (Apr. 26, 1910, c. 191, § 12, 36 Stat. 335.)

125. Manufacture of adulterated or misbranded articles prohibited; punishment.—It shall be unlawful for any person to manufacture within any Territory or the District of Columbia any insecticide, Paris green, lead arsenate, or fungicide which is adulterated or misbranded within the meaning of this chapter; and any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined not to exceed $200 for the first offense, and upon conviction for each subsequent offense be fined not to exceed $300, or sentenced to imprisonment for not to exceed one year, or both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court. (Apr. 26, 1910, c. 191, § 1, 36 Stat. 331.)

126. Transportation or sale of adulterated or misbranded articles prohibited; punishment; exception; articles for export.—The introduction into any State or Territory or the District of Columbia from any other State or Territory or the District of Columbia, or from any foreign country, or shipment to any foreign country, of any insecticide, or Paris green, or lead arsenate, or fungicide which is adulterated or misbranded within the meaning of this chapter is hereby prohibited; and any person who shall ship or deliver for shipment from any State or Territory or the District of Columbia to any other State or Territory or the District of Columbia, or to a foreign country, or who shall receive in any State or Territory or the District of Columbia from any other State or Territory or the District of Columbia, or foreign country, and having so received, shall deliver, in original unbroken packages, for pay or otherwise, or offer to deliver, to any other person, any such article so adulterated or misbranded within the meaning of this chapter, or any person who shall sell or offer for sale in the District of Columbia or any Territory of the United States any such adulterated or misbranded insecticide, or Paris green, or lead arsenate, or fungicide, or export or offer to export the same to any foreign country, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and for such offense be fined not exceeding $200 for the first offense, and upon conviction for each subsequent offense not exceeding $300, or be imprisoned not exceeding one year, or both, in the discretion of the court: Provided, That no article shall be deemed misbranded or adulterated within the provisions of this chapter when intended for export to any foreign country and prepared or packed according to the specifications or directions of the foreign purchaser; but if said articles shall be in fact sold or offered for sale for domestic use or consumption, then this proviso shall not exempt said article from the operation of any of the other provisions of this chapter. (Apr. 26, 1910, c. 191, § 2, 36 Stat. 331.)

127. General rules and regulations; collection and examination of specimens.—The Secretary of the Treasury, the Secretary of Agriculture, and the Secretary of Commerce shall make uniform rules and regulations for carrying out the provisions of this chapter, including the collection and examination of specimens of insecticides, Paris greens, lead arsenates, and fungicides manufactured or offered for sale in the District of Columbia or in any Territory of the United States, or which shall be offered for sale in unbroken packages in any State other than that in which they shall have been respectively manufactured or produced, or which shall be received from any foreign country or intended for shipment to any foreign country, or which may be submitted for examination by the director of the experiment station of any State, Territory, or the District of Columbia (acting under the direction of the Secretary of Agriculture), or at any domestic or foreign port through which such product is offered for interstate commerce, or for export or import between the United States and any foreign port or country. (Apr. 26, 1910, c. 191, § 3, 36 Stat. 331.)

128. Examinations of specimens; notice to interested party and hearing; certification to district attorney; publication.—The examination of specimens of insecticides, Paris greens, lead arsenates, and fungicides shall be made in the Department of Agriculture, by such bureau or bureaus as may be directed by the Secretary, for the purpose of determining from such examination whether such articles are adulterated or misbranded within the meaning of this chapter; and if it shall appear from any such examination that any of such specimens are adulterated or misbranded within the meaning of this chapter, the Secretary of Agriculture shall cause notice thereof to be given to the party from whom such sample was obtained. Any party so notified shall be given an opportunity to be heard, under such rules and regulations as may be prescribed as aforesaid, and if it appears that any of the provisions of this chapter have been violated by such party, then the Secretary of Agriculture shall at once certify the facts to the proper United States district attorney, with a copy of the results of the analysis or the examination of such article duly authenticated by the analyst or officer making such examination, under the oath of such officer. After judgment of the court, notice shall be given by publication in such manner as may be prescribed by the rules and regulations aforesaid. (Apr. 26, 1910, c. 191, § 4, 36 Stat. 332.)

129. District attorney to prosecute violations.—It shall be the duty of each district attorney to whom the Secretary of Agriculture shall report any violation of this chapter, or to whom any director of experiment station or agent of any State, Territory, or the District of Columbia, under authority of the Secretary of Agriculture, shall present satisfactory evidences of any such violation, to cause appropriate proceedings to be commenced and prosecuted in the proper courts of the United States, without delay, for the enforcement of the penalties as provided in this chapter. (Apr. 26, 1910, c. 191, § 5, 36 Stat. 332.)

130. When articles deemed adulterated.—For the purpose of this chapter an article shall be deemed to be adulterated—

Paris green.—In the case of Paris green: First, if it does not contain at least 50 per centum of arsenious oxide; second, if it contains arsenic in water-soluble forms equivalent to more than 3½ per centum of arsenious oxide; third, if any substance has been mixed and packed with it so as to reduce or lower or injuriously affect its quality or strength.

Lead arsenate.—In the case of lead arsenate: First, if it contains more than 50 per centum of water; second, if it contains total arsenic equivalent to less than 12½ per centum of arsenic oxid (As_2O_5); third, if it contains arsenic in water-soluble forms equivalent to more than 0.75 per centum of arsenic oxid (As_2O_5); fourth, if any substances have been mixed and packed with it so as to reduce, lower, or injuriously affect its quality or strength: Provided, however, That extra water may be added to lead arsenate (as described in this paragraph) if the resulting mixture is labeled lead arsenate and water, the percentage of extra water being plainly and correctly stated on the label.

Other insecticides or fungicides.—In the case of insecticides or fungicides, other than Paris green and lead arsenate: First, if its strength or purity fall below the professed standard or quality under which it is sold; second, if any substance has been substituted wholly or in part for the article; third, if any valuable constituent of the article has been wholly or in part abstracted; fourth, if it is intended for use on vegetation and shall contain any substance or substances which, although preventing, destroying, repelling or mitigating insects, shall be injurious to such vegetation when used. (Apr. 26, 1910, c. 191, § 7, 36 Stat. 332.)

131. When articles deemed "misbranded"; labels.—The term "misbranded" as used in this chapter shall apply to all insecticides, Paris greens, lead arsenates, or fungicides, or articles which enter into the composition of insecticides or fungicides, the package or label of which shall bear any statement, design, or device regarding such article or the ingredients or substances contained therein which shall be false or misleading in any particular, and to all insecticides, Paris greens, lead arsenates, or fungicides which are falsely branded as to the State, Territory, or country in which they are manufactured or produced.

For the purpose of this chapter an article shall be deemed to be misbranded—

Insecticides, Paris greens, lead arsenates, and fungicides; imitation of other article, or misleading label or brand.—In the case of insecticides, Paris greens, lead arsenates, and fungicides: First, if it be an imitation or offered for sale under the name of another article; second, if it be labeled or branded so as to deceive or mislead the purchaser, or if the contents of the package as originally put up shall have been removed in whole or in part and other contents shall have been placed in such package; third, if in package form, and the contents are stated in terms of weight or measure, they are not plainly and correctly stated on the outside of the package.

Insecticides (other than Paris greens and lead arsenates) and fungicides; statements on labels.—In the case of insecticides (other than Paris greens and lead arsenates) and fungicides: First, if it contains arsenic in any of its combinations or in the elemental form and the total amount of arsenic present (expressed as per centum of metallic arsenic) is not stated on the label; second, if it contains arsenic in any of its combinations or in the elemental form and the amount of arsenic in water-soluble forms (expressed as per centum of metallic arsenic) is not stated on the label; third, if it consists partially or completely of an inert substance or substances which do not prevent, destroy, repel, or mitigate insects or fungi and does not have the names and percentage amounts of each and every one of such inert ingredients plainly and correctly stated on the label: Provided, however, That in lieu of naming and stating the percentage amount of each and every inert ingredient the producer may at his discretion state plainly upon the label the correct names and percentage amounts of each and every ingredient of the insecticide or fungicide having insecticidal or fungicidal properties, and make no mention of the inert ingredients, except in so far as to state the total percentage of inert ingredients present. (Apr. 26, 1910, c. 191, § 8, 36 Stat. 333.)

132. Guaranty of wholesaler, etc., as protection to retailer; liability of guarantor.—No dealer shall be prosecuted under the provisions of this chapter when he can establish a guaranty signed by the wholesaler, jobber, manufacturer, or other party residing in the United States, from whom he purchased such articles, to the effect that the same is not adulterated or misbranded within the meaning of this chapter, designating it. Said guaranty, to afford protection, shall contain the name and address of the party or parties making the sale of such articles to such dealer, and in such case said party or parties shall be amenable to the prosecutions, fines, and other penalties which would attach in due course to the dealer under the provisions of this chapter. (Apr. 26, 1910, c. 191, § 9, 36 Stat. 334.)

133. Seizure and condemnation of adulterated or misbranded articles; disposition of articles or proceeds; procedure; jury trial.—Any insecticide, Paris green, lead arsenate, or fungicide that is adulterated or misbranded within the meaning of this chapter and is being transported from one State, Territory, or District, to another for sale, or, having been transported, remains unloaded, unsold, or in original unbroken packages, or if it be sold or offered for sale in the District of Columbia or any Territory of the United States, or if it be imported from a foreign country for sale, shall be liable to be proceeded against in any district court of the United States within the district wherein the same is found and seized for confiscation by a process of libel for condemnation. And if such article is condemned as being adulterated or misbranded, within the meaning of this chapter, the same shall be disposed of by destruction or sale as the said court may direct, and the proceeds thereof, if sold, less the legal costs and charges, shall be paid into the Treasury of the United States, but such goods shall not be sold in any jurisdiction contrary to the provisions of this chapter or the laws of that jurisdiction: Provided, however, That upon the payment of the costs of such libel proceedings and the execution and delivery of a good and sufficient bond to the effect that such articles shall not be sold or otherwise disposed of contrary to the provisions of this chapter or the laws of any State, Territory, or District, the court may by order direct that such articles be delivered to the owner thereof. The proceedings of such libel cases shall conform, as near as may be, to the proceedings in admiralty, except that either party may demand trial by jury of any issue of fact joined in any such case, and all such proceedings shall be at the suit of and in the name of the United States. (Apr. 26, 1910, c. 191, § 10, 36 Stat. 334.)

134. Importation of articles; examination of samples; exclusion if adulterated, etc.; destruction or exportation; provisional delivery to consignee; bond; charges and lien.—The Secretary of the Treasury shall deliver to the Secretary of Agriculture, upon his request, from time to time, samples of insecticides, Paris greens, lead arsenates, and fungicides which are being imported into the United States or offered for import, giving notice thereof to the owner or consignee, who may appear before the Secretary of Agriculture and have the right to introduce testimony; and if it appear from the examination of such samples that any insecticide, or Paris green, or lead arsenate, or fungicide offered to be imported into the United States is adulterated or misbranded within the meaning of this chapter, or is otherwise dangerous to the health of the people of the United States, or is of a kind forbidden entry into or forbidden to be sold or restricted in sale in the country in which it is made or from which it is exported, or is otherwise falsely labeled in any respect, the said article shall be refused admission, and the Secretary of the Treasury shall refuse delivery to the consignee and shall cause the destruction of any goods refused delivery which shall not be exported by the consignee within three months from the date of notice of such refusal under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe: Provided, That the Secretary of the Treasury may deliver to the consignee such goods pending examination and decision in the matter on execution of a penal bond for the amount of the full invoice value of such goods, together with the duty thereon, and on refusal to return such goods for any cause to the custody of the Secretary of the Treasury, when demanded, for the purpose of excluding them from the country, or for any other purpose, said consignee shall forfeit the full amount of the bond: And provided further, That all charges for storage, cartage, and labor on goods which are refused admission or delivery shall be paid by the owner or consignee, and in default of such payment shall constitute a lien against any future importation made by such owner or consignee. (Apr. 26, 1910, c. 191, § 11, 36 Stat. 334.)

Chapter 7.—INSECT PESTS GENERALLY.

Sec.
141. Transportation or removal of insect pests prohibited.
142. Mailing parcels, etc., containing insect pests; punishment.
143. Regulations for mailing, transportation, etc., for scientific purposes.
144. Punishment for unlawful transportation or removal.
145. Mexican pink bollworm; establishment of zones free from cotton culture; cooperation with Mexican officials.

Section 141. Transportation or removal of insect pests prohibited.—No railroad, steamboat, express, stage, or other transportation company shall knowingly transport from one State or Territory into any other State or Territory, or from the District of Columbia into a State or Territory, or from a State or Territory into the District of Columbia, or from a foreign country into the United States, the gypsy moth, brown-tail moth, leopard moth, plum curculio, hop plant louse, boll weevil, or any of them in a live state, or other insect in a live state which is notoriously injurious to cultivated crops, including vegetables, field crops, bush fruits, orchard trees, forest trees, or shade trees; or the eggs, pupæ, or larvæ of any insect injurious as aforesaid, except when shipped for scientific purposes under the regulations hereinafter provided for; nor shall any person remove from one State or Territory into another State or Territory, or from a foreign country into the United States, or from a State or Territory into the District of Columbia, or from the District of Columbia into any State or Territory, except for scientific purposes under the regulations hereinafter provided for, the gypsy moth, brown-tail moth, leopard moth, plum curculio, hop plant louse, boll weevil, or any of them in a live state, or other insect in a live state which is notoriously injurious to cultivated crops, including vegetables, field crops, bush fruits, orchard trees, forest trees, or shade trees; or the eggs, pupæ, or larvæ of any insect injurious as aforesaid. (Mar. 3, 1905, c. 1501, § 1, 33 Stat. 1269.)

142. Mailing parcels, etc., containing insect pests; punishment.—Any letter, parcel, box, or other package containing the gypsy moth, brown-tail moth, leopard moth, plum curculio, hop plant louse, boll weevil, or any of them in a live state, or other insect in a live state which is notoriously injurious to cultivated crops, including vegetables, field crops, bush fruits, orchard trees, forest trees, or shade trees, or any letter, parcel, box, or package which contains the eggs, pupæ, or larvæ of any insect injurious as aforesaid, whether sealed as first-class matter or not, is hereby declared to be nonmailable matter, except when mailed for scientific purposes under the regulations hereinafter provided for, and shall not be conveyed in the mails, nor delivered from any post office, nor by any letter carrier, except when mailed for scientific purposes under the regulations hereinafter provided for; and any person who shall knowingly deposit, or cause to be deposited, for mailing or delivery, anything declared by this section to be nonmailable matter, or cause the same to be taken from the mails for the purpose of retaining, circulating, or disposing of, or of aiding in the retention, circulation, or disposition of the same shall, for each and every offense, be fined, upon conviction thereof, not more than $5,000 or imprisoned at hard labor not more than five years, or both, at the discretion of the court: Provided, That nothing in this chapter shall authorize any person to open any letter or sealed matter of the first class not addressed to himself. (Mar. 3, 1905, c. 1501, § 2, 33 Stat. 1270.)

143. Regulations for mailing, transportation, etc., for scientific purposes.—It shall be the duty of the Secretary of Agriculture, and he is hereby authorized and directed to prepare and promulgate rules and regulations under which the insects covered by sections 141 and 142 of this chapter may be mailed, shipped, transported, delivered, and removed, for scientific purposes, from one State or Territory into another State or Territory, or from the District of Columbia into a State or Territory, or from a State or Territory into the District of Columbia, and any insects covered by sections 141 and 142 of this chapter may be so mailed, shipped, transported, delivered, and removed, for scientific purposes, under the rules and regulations of the Secretary of Agriculture: Provided, That the rules and regulations of the Secretary of Agriculture, in so far as they affect the method of mailing insects, shall be approved by the Postmaster General, and nothing in this chapter shall be construed to prevent any State from making and enforcing laws in furtherance of the purposes of this chapter, prohibiting or regulating the admission into that State of insects from a foreign country. (Mar. 3, 1905, c. 1501, § 3, 33 Stat. 1270.)

144. Punishment for unlawful transportation or removal.—Any person, company, or corporation who shall knowingly violate the provisions of section 141 of this chapter shall, for each offense, be fined, upon conviction thereof, not more than $5,000 or imprisoned at hard labor not more than five years, or both, at the discretion of the court. (Mar. 3, 1905, c. 1501, § 4, 33 Stat. 1270.)

145. Mexican pink bollworm; establishment of zones free from cotton culture; cooperation with Mexican officials.—On account of the menace to cotton culture in the United States arising from the existence of the pink bollworm in Mexico, the Secretary of Agriculture, in order to prevent the establishment and spread of such worm in Texas and other parts of the United States, is authorized to make surveys to determine its actual distribution in Mexico; to establish, in cooperation with the States concerned, a zone or zones free from cotton culture on or near the border of any State or States adjacent to Mexico; and to cooperate with the Mexican Government or local Mexican authorities in the extermination of local infestations near the border of the United States. (Oct. 6, 1917, c. 79, § 1, 40 Stat. 374.)

Chapter 8.—NURSERY STOCK AND OTHER PLANTS AND PLANT PRODUCTS.

Sec.
151. "Person" defined.
152. "Nursery stock" defined.
153. Liability of principal for act of agent.
154. General restriction on importation of nursery stock; exceptions.
155. Importation for scientific purposes permitted.
156. Notification of arrival at port of entry; forwarding without notification forbidden; inspection before shipment.
157. Marking packages, etc., for entry.
158. Marking packages, etc., for interstate shipment; inspection.
159. Regulations by Secretary restricting importation of plants, etc., other than "nursery stock"; notice and hearing before adoption of regulations.
160. Regulations by Secretary restricting importation from insect-infested locality; hearing and promulgation of regulations; when quarantine effective.
161. Interstate quarantine; shipments or removals from quarantined localities forbidden; regulations by Secretary for shipment, etc., from quarantined localities; notice and hearings; promulgation.
162. General rules and regulations by Secretary.
163. General violations of chapter; forgery, alterations, etc., of certificates; punishment; proof of violations by common carrier.
164. Duty of United States attorneys to prosecute.
165. Federal Horticultural Board.
166. State terminal inspection; transmission of mailed packages for State inspection; nonmailable matter; punishment for violations; rules and regulations by Postmaster General.
167. Provision relating to District of Columbia regarding shipment, inspection, seizure, destruction, etc., of plants, etc.; punishment.

Section 151. "Person" defined.—The word "person" as used in this chapter shall be construed to import both the plural and the singular, as the case demands, and shall include corporations, companies, societies, and associations. (Aug. 20, 1912, c. 308, § 11, 37 Stat. 319.)

152. "Nursery stock" defined.—For the purpose of this chapter the term "nursery stock" shall include all field-grown florists' stock, trees, shrubs, vines, cuttings, grafts, scions, buds, fruit pits and other seeds of fruit and ornamental trees or shrubs, and other plants and plant products for propagation, except field, vegetable, and flower seeds, bedding plants, and other herbaceous plants, bulbs, and roots. (Aug. 20, 1912, c. 308, § 6, 37 Stat. 317.)

153. Liability of principal for act of agent.—When construing and enforcing the provisions of this chapter, the act, omission, or failure of any officer, agent, or other person acting for or employed by any corporation, company, society, or association, within the scope of his employment or office, shall in every case be also deemed to be the act, omission, or failure of such corporation, company, society, or association as well as that of the person. (Aug. 20, 1912, c. 308, § 11, 37 Stat. 319.)

154. General restriction on importation of nursery stock; exceptions.—It shall be unlawful for any person to import or offer for entry into the United States any nursery stock unless and until a permit shall have been issued therefor by the Secretary of Agriculture, under such conditions and regulations as the said Secretary of Agriculture may prescribe, and unless such nursery stock shall be accompanied by a certificate of inspection, in manner and form as required by the Secretary of Agriculture, of the proper official of the country from which the importation is made, to the effect that the stock has been thoroughly inspected and is believed to be free from injurious plant diseases and insect pests: Provided, That the Secretary of Agriculture shall issue the permit for any particular importation of nursery stock when the conditions and regulations as prescribed in this chapter shall have been complied with: Provided further, That nursery stock may be imported for experimental or scientific purposes by the Department of Agriculture upon such conditions and under such regulations as the said Secretary of Agriculture may prescribe: And provided further, That nursery stock imported from countries where no official system of inspection for such stock is maintained may be admitted upon such conditions and under such regulations as the Secretary of Agriculture may prescribe. (Aug. 20, 1912, c. 308, § 1, 37 Stat. 315.)

155. Importation for scientific purposes permitted.—Any class of nursery stock or of any other class of plants, fruits, vegetables, roots, bulbs, seeds, or other plant products of which the importation may be forbidden from any country or locality under the provisions of section 160 of this chapter may be imported for experimental or scientific purposes by the Department of Agriculture upon such conditions and under such regulations as the said Secretary of Agriculture may prescribe. (Mar. 4, 1913, c. 145, 37 Stat. 853.)

156. Notification of arrival at port of entry; forwarding without notification forbidden; inspection before shipment.—It shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Treasury promptly to notify the Secretary of Agriculture of the arrival of any nursery stock at port of entry. The person receiving such stock at port of entry shall, immediately upon entry and before such stock is delivered for shipment or removed from the port of entry, advise the Secretary of Agriculture or, at his direction, the proper State, Territorial, or District official of the State or Territory or the District to which such nursery stock is destined, or both, as the Secretary of Agriculture may elect, of the name and address of the consignee, the nature and quantity of the stock it is proposed to ship, and the country and locality where the same was grown. No person shall ship or offer for shipment from one State or Territory or District of the United States into any other State or Territory or District, any nursery stock imported into the United States without notifying the Secretary of Agriculture or, at his direction, the proper State, Territorial, or District official of the State or Territory or District to which such nursery stock is destined, or both, as the Secretary of Agriculture may elect, immediately upon the delivery of the said stock for shipment, of the name and address of the consignee, of the nature and quantity of stock it is proposed to ship, and the country and locality where the same was grown, unless and until such imported stock has been inspected by the proper official of a State, Territory, or District of the United States. (Aug. 20, 1912, c. 308, § 2, 37 Stat. 316.)

157. Marking packages, etc., for entry.—No person shall import or offer for entry into the United States any nursery stock unless the case, box, package, crate, bale, or bundle thereof shall be plainly and correctly marked to show the general nature and quantity of the contents, the country and locality where the same was grown, the name and address of the shipper, owner, or person shipping or forwarding the same, and the name and address of the consignee. (Aug. 20, 1912, c. 308, § 3, 37 Stat. 316.)

158. Marking packages, etc., for interstate shipment; inspection.—No person shall ship or deliver for shipment from one State or Territory or District of the United States into any other State or Territory or District any such imported nursery stock the case, box, package, crate, bale, or bundle whereof is not plainly marked so as to show the general nature and quantity of the contents, the name and address of the consignee, and the country and locality where such stock was grown, unless and until such imported stock has been inspected by the proper official of a State, Territory, or District of the United States. (Aug. 20, 1912, c. 308, § 4, 37 Stat. 316.)

159. Regulations by Secretary restricting importation of plants, etc., other than "nursery stock"; notice and hearing before adoption of regulations.—Whenever the Secretary of Agriculture shall determine that the unrestricted importation of any plants, fruits, vegetables, roots, bulbs, seeds, or other plant products not included by the term "nursery stock" as defined in section 152 of this chapter may result in the entry into the United States or any of its Territories or Districts of injurious plant diseases or insect pests, he shall promulgate his determination, specifying the class of plants and plant products the importation of which shall be restricted and the country and locality where they are grown, and thereafter, and until such promulgation is withdrawn, such plants and plant products imported or offered for import into the United States or any of its Territories or Districts shall be subject to all the provisions of the foregoing sections of this chapter: Provided, That before the Secretary of Agriculture shall promulgate his determination that the unrestricted importation of any plants, fruits, vegetables, roots, bulbs, seeds, or other plant products not included by the term "nursery stock" as defined in section 152 of this chapter may result in the entry into the United States or any of its Territories or Districts of injurious plant diseases or insect pests he shall, after due notice, give a public hearing, under such rules and regulations as he shall prescribe, at which hearing any interested party may appear and be heard, either in person or by attorney. (Aug. 20, 1912, c. 308, § 5, 37 Stat. 316.)

160. Regulations by Secretary restricting importation from insect-infested locality; hearing and promulgation of regulations; when quarantine effective.—Whenever, in order to prevent the introduction into the United States of any tree, plant, or fruit disease or of any injurious insect, new to or not theretofore widely prevalent or distributed within and throughout the United States, the Secretary of Agriculture shall determine that it is necessary to forbid the importation into the United States of any class of nursery stock or of any other class of plants, fruits, vegetables, roots, bulbs, seeds, or other plant products from a country or locality where such disease or insect infestation exists, he shall promulgate such determination, specifying the country and locality and the class of nursery stock or other class of plants, fruits, vegetables, roots, bulbs, seeds, or other plant products which, in his opinion, should be excluded. Following the promulgation of such determination by the Secretary of Agriculture, and until the withdrawal of the said promulgation by him, the importation of the class of nursery stock or of other class of plants, fruits, vegetables, roots, bulbs, seeds, or other plant products specified in the said promulgation from the country and locality therein named, regardless of the use for which the same is intended, is hereby prohibited; and until the withdrawal of the said promulgation by the Secretary of Agriculture, and notwithstanding that such class of nursery stock, or other class of plants, fruits, vegetables, roots, bulbs, seeds, or other plant products be accompanied by a certificate of inspection from the country of importation, no person shall import or offer for entry into the United States from any country or locality specified in such promulgation, any of the class of nursery stock or of other class of plants, fruits, vegetables, roots, bulbs, seeds, or other plant products named therein, regardless of the use for which the same is intended: Provided, That before the Secretary of Agriculture shall promulgate his determination that it is necessary to forbid the importation into the United States of the articles named in this section he shall, after due notice to interested parties, give a public hearing, under such rules and regulations as he shall prescribe, at which hearing any interested party may appear and be heard, either in person or by attorney: Provided further, That the quarantine provisions of this section, as applying to the white-pine blister rust, potato wart, and the Mediterranean fruit fly, shall become and be effective on August 20, 1912. (Aug. 20, 1912, c. 308, § 7, 37 Stat. 317.)

161. Interstate quarantine; shipments or removals from quarantined localities forbidden; regulations by Secretary for shipment, etc., from quarantined localities; notice and hearings; promulgation.—The Secretary of Agriculture is authorized and directed to quarantine any State, Territory, or District of the United States, or any portion thereof, when he shall determine that such quarantine is necessary to prevent the spread of a dangerous plant disease or insect infestation, new to or not theretofore widely prevalent or distributed within and throughout the United States; and the Secretary of Agriculture is directed to give notice of the establishment of such quarantine to common carriers doing business in or through such quarantined area, and shall publish in such newspapers in the quarantined area as he shall select notice of the establishment of quarantine. No person shall ship or offer for shipment to any common carrier, nor shall any common carrier receive for transportation or transport, nor shall any person carry or transport from any quarantined State or Territory or District of the United States, or from any quarantined portion thereof, into or through any other State or Territory or District, any class of nursery stock or any other class of plants, fruits, vegetables, roots, bulbs, seeds, or other plant products, or any class of stone or quarry products, or any other article of any character whatsoever, capable of carrying any dangerous plant disease or insect infestation, specified in the notice of quarantine except as hereinafter provided. It shall be unlawful to move, or allow to be moved, any class of nursery stock or any other class of plants, fruits, vegetables, roots, bulbs, seeds, or other plant products, or any class of stone or quarry products or any other article of any character whatsoever, capable of carrying any dangerous plant disease or insect infestation, specified in the notice of quarantine hereinbefore provided, and regardless of the use for which the same is intended, from any quarantined State or Territory or District of the United States or quarantined portion thereof, into or through any other State or Territory or District, in manner or method or under conditions other than those prescribed by the Secretary of Agriculture. It shall be the duty of the Secretary of Agriculture, when the public interests will permit, to make and promulgate rules and regulations which shall permit and govern the inspection, disinfection, certification, and method and manner of delivery and shipment of the class of nursery stock or of any other class of plants, fruits, vegetables, roots, bulbs, seeds, or other plant products, or any class of stone or quarry products, or any other article of any character whatsoever, capable of carrying any dangerous plant disease or insect infestation, specified in the notice of quarantine hereinbefore provided, and regardless of the use for which the same is intended, from a quarantined State or Territory or District of the United States, or quarantined portion thereof, into or through any other State or Territory or District; and the Secretary of Agriculture shall give notice of such rules and regulations as hereinbefore provided in this section for the notice of the establishment of quarantine: Provided, That before the Secretary of Agriculture shall promulgate his determination that it is necessary to quarantine any State, Territory, or District of the United States, or portion thereof, under the authority given in this section, he shall, after due notice to interested parties, give a public hearing under such rules and regulations as he shall prescribe, at which hearing any interested party may appear and be heard, either in person or by attorney. (Mar. 4, 1917, c. 179, 39 Stat. 1165.)

162. General rules and regulations by Secretary.—The Secretary of Agriculture shall make and promulgate such rules and regulations as may be necessary for carrying out the purposes of this chapter. (Aug. 20, 1912, c. 308, § 9, 37 Stat. 318.)

163. General violations of chapter; forgery, alterations, etc., of certificates; punishment; proof of violations by common carrier.—Any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this chapter, or who shall forge, counterfeit, alter, deface, or destroy any certificate provided for in this chapter or in the regulations of the Secretary of Agriculture, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by a fine not exceeding $500 or by imprisonment not exceeding one year, or both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court: Provided, That no common carrier shall be deemed to have violated the provisions of any of the foregoing sections of this chapter on proof that such carrier did not knowingly receive for transportation or transport nursery stock or other plants or plant products as such from one State, Territory, or District of the United States into or through any other State, Territory, or District. (Aug. 20, 1912, c. 308, § 10, 37 Stat. 318.)

164. Duty of United States attorneys to prosecute.—It shall be the duty of the United States attorneys diligently to prosecute any violations of this chapter which are brought to their attention by the Secretary of Agriculture or which come to their notice by other means. (Aug. 20, 1912, c. 308, § 10, 37 Stat. 318.)

165. Federal Horticultural Board.—For the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this chapter there shall be appointed by the Secretary of Agriculture from bureaus and offices in the Department of Agriculture existing August 20, 1912, including the Bureau of Entomology, the Bureau of Plant Industry, and the Forest Service, a Federal Horticultural Board consisting of five members, of whom not more than two shall be appointed from any one bureau or office, and who shall serve without additional compensation. (Aug. 20, 1912, c. 308, § 12, 37 Stat. 319.)

166. State terminal inspection; transmission of mailed packages for State inspection; nonmailable matter; punishment for violations; rules and regulations by Postmaster General.—When any State shall provide for terminal inspection of plants and plant products, and shall establish and maintain, at the sole expense of the State, such inspection at one or more places therein, the proper officials of said State may submit to the Secretary of Agriculture a list of plants and plant products and the plant pests transmitted thereby, that in the opinion of said officials should be subject to terminal inspection in order to prevent the introduction or dissemination in said State of pests injurious to agriculture. Upon his approval of said list, in whole or in part, the Secretary of Agriculture shall transmit the same to the Postmaster General, and thereafter all packages containing any plants or plant products named in said approved lists shall, upon payment of postage therefor, be forwarded by the postmaster at the destination of said package to the proper State official at the nearest place where inspection is maintained. If the plant or plant products are found upon inspection to be free from injurious pests, or if infected shall be disinfected by said official, they shall upon payment of postage therefor be returned to the postmaster at the place of inspection to be forwarded to the person to whom they are addressed; but if found to be infected with injurious pests and incapable of satisfactory disinfection the State inspector shall so notify the postmaster at the place of inspection, who shall promptly notify the sender of said plants or plant products that they will be returned to him upon his request and at his expense, or in default of such request that they will be turned over to the State authorities for destruction.

It shall be unlawful for any person, firm, or corporation to deposit in the United States mails any package containing any plant or plant product addressed to any place within a State maintaining inspection thereof, as herein defined, without plainly marking the package so that its contents may be readily ascertained by an inspection of the outside thereof. Whoever shall fail to so mark said packages shall be punished by a fine of not more than $100.

The Postmaster General is hereby authorized and directed to make all needful rules and regulations for carrying out the purposes hereof. (Mar. 4, 1915, c. 144, 38 Stat. 1113.)

167. Provision relating to District of Columbia regarding shipment, inspection, seizure, destruction, etc., of plants, etc.; punishment.—Prohibition against shipment generally.—In order further to control and eradicate and to prevent the dissemination of dangerous plant diseases and insect infections and infestations no plant or plant products for or capable of propagation, including nursery stock, hereinafter referred to as plants and plant products, shall be moved or allowed to be moved, shipped. transported, or carried by any means whatever into or out of the District of Columbia, except in compliance with such rules and regulations as shall be prescribed by the Secretary of Agriculture as hereinafter provided.

Eradication by owner.—Whenever the Secretary of Agriculture, after investigation, shall determine that any plants and plant products in the District of Columbia are infested or infected with insect pests and diseases and that any place, articles, and substances used or connected therewith are so infested or infected, written notice thereof shall be given by him to the owner or person in possession or control thereof, and such owner or person shall forthwith control or eradicate and prevent the dissemination of such insect pest or disease and shall remove, cut, or destroy such infested and infected plants, plant products, and articles and substances used or connected therewith, which are hereby declared to be nuisances, within the time and in the manner required in said notice or by the rules and regulations of the Secretary of Agriculture.

Eradication by Secretary of Agriculture.—Whenever such owner or person can not be found, or shall fail, neglect, or refuse to comply with the foregoing provisions of this section, the Secretary of Agriculture is hereby authorized and required to control and eradicate and prevent dissemination of such insect pest or disease and to remove, cut, or destroy infested or infected plants and plant products and articles and substances used or connected therewith, and the United States shall have an action of debt against such owner or persons for expenses incurred by the Secretary of Agriculture in that behalf.

Inspection.—Employees of the Federal Horticultural Board are hereby authorized and required to inspect places, plants, and plant products and articles and substances used or connected therewith whenever the Secretary of Agriculture shall determine that such inspections are necessary for the purposes of this section.

Entry upon premises; opening packages; destruction of plants, etc.—For the purpose of carrying out the provisions and requirements of this section and of the rules and regulations of the Secretary of Agriculture made hereunder, and the notices given pursuant thereto, employees of the Federal Horticultural Board shall have power with a warrant to enter into or upon any place and open any bundle, package, or other container of plants or plant products whenever they shall have cause to believe that infections or infestations of plant pests and diseases exist therein or thereon, and when such infections or infestations are found to exist, after notice by the Secretary of Agriculture to the owner or person in possession or control thereof and an opportunity by said owner or person to be heard, to destroy the infected or infested plants or plant products contained therein.

Search warrants.—The Police Court or the Municipal Court of the District of Columbia shall have power, upon information supported by oath or affirmation showing probable cause for believing that there exists in any place, bundle, package, or other container in the District of Columbia any plant or plant product which is infected or infested with plant pests or disease, to issue warrants for the search for and seizure of all such plants and plant products.

Rules and regulations.—It shall be the duty of the Secretary of Agriculture, and he is hereby required, from time to time, to make and promulgate such rules and regulations as shall be necessary to carry out the purposes of this section, and any person who shall move or allow to be moved, or shall ship, transport, or carry, by any means whatever, any plant or plant products from or into the District of Columbia, except in compliance with the rules and regulations prescribed under this section, shall be punished, as is provided in section 163 of this chapter. (May 31, 1920, c. 217, 41 Stat. 727.)

GENERAL DEFINITIONS

Section 181. Short title of chapter.—This chapter may be cited as the "Packers and Stockyards Act." (Aug. 15, 1921, c. 64, § 1, 42 Stat. 159.)

182. "Person"; "Secretary"; "meat food products"; "livestock"; "livestock products"; "commerce"; defined.—When used in this chapter—

(1) The term "person" includes individuals, partnerships, corporations, and associations;

(2) The term "Secretary" means the Secretary of Agriculture;

(3) The term "meat food products" means all products and by-products of the slaughtering and meat-packing industry—if edible;

(4) The term "livestock" means cattle, sheep, swine, horses, mules, or goats—whether live or dead;

(5) The term "livestock products" means all products and by-products (other than meats and meat food products) of the slaughtering and meat-packing industry derived in whole or in part from livestock; and

(6) The term "commerce" means commerce between any State, Territory, or possession, or the District of Columbia, and any place outside thereof; or between points within the same State, Territory, or possession, or the District of Columbia, but through any place outside thereof; or within any Territory or possession, or the District of Columbia. (Aug. 15, 1921, c. 64, § 2, 42 Stat. 159.)

183. When transaction deemed in commerce; "State" defined.—For the purpose of this chapter (but not in any wise limiting the definition in the preceding section) a transaction in respect to any article shall be considered to be in commerce if such article is part of that current of commerce usual in the livestock and meat-packing industries, whereby livestock, meats, meat food products, livestock products, dairy products, poultry, poultry products, or eggs, are sent from one State with the expectation that they will end their transit, after purchase, in another, including, in addition to cases within the above general description, all cases where purchase or sale is either for shipment to another State, or for slaughter of livestock within the State and the shipment outside the State of the products resulting from such slaughter. Articles normally in such current of commerce shall not be considered out of such current through resort being had to any means or device intended to remove transactions in respect thereto from the provisions of this chapter. For the purpose of this section the word "State" includes Territory, the District of Columbia, possession of the United States, and foreign nation. (Aug. 15, 1921, c. 64, § 2, 42 Stat. 159.)

PACKERS GENERALLY

191. Packer defined.—When used in this chapter—

The term "packer" means any person engaged in the business (a) of buying livestock in commerce for purposes of slaughter, or (b) of manufacturing or preparing meats or meat food products for sale or shipment in commerce, or (c) of manufacturing or preparing livestock products for sale or shipment in commerce, or (d) of marketing meats, meat food products, livestock products, dairy products, poultry, poultry products, or eggs, in commerce; but no person engaged in such business of manufacturing or preparing livestock products or in such marketing business shall be considered a packer unless—

(1) Such person is also engaged in any business referred to in clause (a) or (b) above, or unless

(2) Such person owns or controls, directly or indirectly, through stock ownership or control or otherwise, by himself or through his agents, servants, or employees, any interest in any business referred to in clause (a) or (b) above, or unless

(3) Any interest in such business of manufacturing or preparing livestock products, or in such marketing business is owned or controlled, directly or indirectly, through stock ownership or control or otherwise, by himself or through his agents, servants, or employees, by any person engaged in any business referred to in clause (a) or (b) above, or unless

(4) Any person or persons jointly or severally, directly or indirectly, through stock ownership or control or otherwise, by themselves or through their agents, servants, or employees, own or control in the aggregate 20 per centum or more of the voting power or control in such business of manufacturing or preparing livestock products, or in such marketing business and also 20 per centum or more of such power or control in any business referred to in clause (a) or (b) above. (Aug. 15, 1921, c. 64, § 201, 42 Stat. 160.)

192. Unlawful practices enumerated.—It shall be unlawful for any packer to:

(a) Engage in or use any unfair, unjustly discriminatory, or deceptive practice or device in commerce; or

(b) Make or give, in commerce, any undue or unreasonable preference or advantage to any particular person or locality in any respect whatsoever, or subject, in commerce, any particular person or locality to any undue or unreasonable prejudice or disadvantage in any respect whatsoever; or

(c) Sell or otherwise transfer to or for any other packer, or buy or otherwise receive from or for any other packer, any article for the purpose or with the effect of apportioning the supply in commerce between any such packers, if such apportionment has the tendency or effect of restraining commerce or of creating a monopoly in commerce; or

(d) Sell or otherwise transfer to or for any other person, or buy or otherwise receive from or for any other person, any article for the purpose or with the effect of manipulating or controlling prices in commerce, or of creating a monopoly in the acquisition of, buying, selling, or dealing in, any article in commerce, or of restraining commerce; or

(e) Engage in any course of business or do any act for the purpose or with the effect of manipulating or controlling prices in commerce, or of creating a monopoly in the acquisition of, buying, selling, or dealing in, any article in commerce, or of restraining commerce; or

(f) Conspire, combine, agree, or arrange with any other person (1) to apportion territory for carrying on business in commerce, or (2) to apportion purchases or sales of any article in commerce, or (3) to manipulate or control prices in commerce; or

(g) Conspire, combine, agree or arrange with any other person to do, or aid or abet the doing of, any act made unlawful by subdivision (a), (b), (c), (d), or (e). (Aug. 15, 1921, c. 64, § 202, 42 Stat. 161.)

193. General procedure before Secretary for violations; complaint; hearing; intervention; report and order; service of process.—(a) Whenever the Secretary has reason to believe that any packer has violated or is violating any provision of sections 191 to 195 inclusive of this chapter, he shall cause a complaint in writing to be served upon the packer, stating his charges in that respect, and requiring the packer to attend and testify at a hearing at a time and place designated therein, at least thirty days after the service of such complaint; and at such time and place there shall be afforded the packer a reasonable opportunity to be informed as to the evidence introduced against him (including the right of cross-examination), and to be heard in person or by counsel and through witnesses, under such regulations as the Secretary may prescribe. Any person for good cause shown may on application be allowed by the Secretary to intervene in such proceeding, and appear in person or by counsel. At any time prior to the close of the hearing the Secretary may amend the complaint; but in case of any amendment adding new charges the hearing shall, on the request of the packer, be adjourned for a period not exceeding fifteen days.

(b) If, after such hearing, the Secretary finds that the packer has violated or is violating any provisions of sections 191 to 195 inclusive of this chapter covered by the charges, he shall make a report in writing in which he shall state his findings as to the facts, and shall issue and cause to be served on the packer an order requiring such packer to cease and desist from continuing such violation. The testimony taken at the hearing shall be reduced to writing and filed in the records of the Department of Agriculture.

(c) Until a transcript of the record in such hearing has been filed in a circuit court of appeals of the United States, as provided in section 194 of this chapter, the Secretary at any time, upon such notice and in such manner as he deems proper, but only after reasonable opportunity to the packer to be heard, may amend or set aside the report or order, in whole or in part.

(d) Complaints, orders, and other processes of the Secretary under this section may be served in the same manner as provided in section 45 of Title 15, COMMERCE AND TRADE. (Aug. 15, 1921, c. 64, § 203, 42 Stat. 161.)

194. Conclusiveness of order; appeal and review; temporary and final injunction.—(a) An order made under section 193 of this chapter shall be final and conclusive unless within thirty days after service the packer appeals to the circuit court of appeals for the circuit in which he has his principal place of business, by filing with the clerk of such court a written petition praying that the Secretary's order be set aside or modified in the manner stated in the petition, together with a bond in such sum as the court may determine, conditioned that such packer will pay the costs of the proceedings if the court so directs.

(b) The clerk of the court shall immediately cause a copy of the petition to be delivered to the Secretary, and the Secretary shall forthwith prepare, certify, and file in the court a full and accurate transcript of the record in such proceedings, including the complaint, the evidence, and the report and order. If before such transcript is filed the Secretary amends or sets aside his report or order, in whole or in part, the petitioner may amend the petition within such time as the court may determine, on notice to the Secretary.

(c) At any time after such transcript is filed the court, on application of the Secretary, may issue a temporary injunction restraining, to the extent it deems proper, the packer and his officers, directors, agents, and employees, from violating any of the provisions of the order pending the final determination of the appeal.

(d) The evidence so taken or admitted, duly certified and filed as aforesaid as a part of the record, shall be considered by the court as the evidence in the case. The proceedings in such cases in the circuit court of appeals shall be made a preferred cause and shall be expedited in every way.

(e) The court may affirm, modify, or set aside the order of the Secretary.

(f) If the court determines that the just and proper disposition of the case requires the taking of additional evidence, the court shall order the hearing to be reopened for the taking of such evidence, in such manner and upon such terms and conditions as the court may deem proper. The Secretary may modify his findings as to the facts, or make new findings, by reason of the additional evidence so taken, and he shall file such modified or new findings and his recommendations, if any, for the modification or setting aside of his order, with the return of such additional evidence.

(g) If the circuit court of appeals affirms or modifies the order of the Secretary, its decree shall operate as an injunction to restrain the packer, and his officers, directors, agents, and employees from violating the provisions of such order or such order as modified.

(h) The circuit court of appeals shall have exclusive jurisdiction to review, and to affirm, set aside, or modify, such orders of the Secretary, and the decree of such court shall be final except that it shall be subject to review by the Supreme Court of the United States upon certiorari, as provided in section 347 of Title 28, JUDICIAL CODE AND JUDICIARY, if such writ is duly applied for within sixty days after entry of the decree. The issue of such writ shall not operate as a stay of the decree of the circuit court of appeals, in so far as such decree operates as an injunction unless so ordered by the Supreme Court.

(i) For the purposes of sections 191 to 195 of this chapter the term "circuit court of appeals," in case the principal place of business of the packer is in the District of Columbia, means the Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia. (Aug. 15, 1921, c. 64, § 204, 42 Stat. 162.)

195. Punishment for violation of order.—Any packer, or any officer, director, agent, or employee of a packer, who fails to obey any order of the Secretary issued under the provisions of section 193 of this chapter, or such order as modified—

(1) After the expiration of the time allowed for filing a petition in the circuit court of appeals to set aside or modify such order, if no such petition has been filed within such time; or

(2) After the expiration of the time allowed for applying for a writ of certiorari, if such order, or such order as modified, has been sustained by the circuit court of appeals and no such writ has been applied for within such time; or

(3) After such order, or such order as modified, has been sustained by the courts as provided in section 194 of this chapter; shall on conviction be fined not less than $500 nor more than $10,000, or imprisoned for not less than six months nor more than five years, or both. Each day during which such failure continues shall be deemed a separate offense. (Aug. 15, 1921, c. 64, § 205, 42 Stat. 163.)

STOCKYARDS AND STOCKYARD DEALERS

201. "Stockyard owner"; "stockyard services"; "market agency"; "dealer"; defined.—When used in this chapter—

(a) The term "stockyard owner" means any person engaged in the business of conducting or operating a stockyard;

(b) The term "stockyard services" means services or facilities furnished at a stockyard in connection with the receiving, buying or selling on a commission basis or otherwise, marketing, feeding, watering, holding, delivery, shipment, weighing, or handling in commerce, of livestock:

(c) The term "market agency" means any person engaged in the business of (1) buying or selling in commerce livestock at a stockyard on a commission basis or (2) furnishing stockyard services; and

(d) The term "dealer" means any person, not a market agency, engaged in the business of buying or selling in commerce livestock at a stockyard, either on his own account or as the employee or agent of the vendor or purchaser. (Aug. 15, 1921, c. 64, § 301, 42 Stat. 163.)

202. "Stockyard" defined; determination by Secretary as to particular yard.—(a) When used in sections 201 to 217, inclusive, of this chapter the term "stockyard" means any place, establishment, or facility commonly known as stockyards, conducted or operated for compensation or profit as a public market, consisting of pens, or other inclosures, and their appurtenances, in which live cattle, sheep, swine, horses, mules, or goats are received, held, or kept for sale or shipment in commerce. Sections 201 to 217 inclusive of this chapter shall not apply to a stockyard of which the area normally available for handling livestock, exclusive of runs, alleys, or passage ways, is less than twenty thousand square feet.

(b) The Secretary shall from time to time ascertain, after such inquiry as he deems necessary, the stockyards which come within the foregoing definition, and shall give notice thereof to the stockyard owners concerned, and give public notice thereof by posting copies of such notice in the stockyard, and in such other manner as he may determine. After the giving of such notice to the stockyard owner and to the public, the stockyard shall remain subject to the provisions of sections 201 to 217 inclusive of this chapter until like notice is given by the Secretary that such stockyard no longer comes within the foregoing definition. (Aug. 15, 1921, c. 64, § 302, 42 Stat. 163.)

203. Registration of stockyard dealer or market agency; penalty for failure to register.—After the expiration of thirty days after the Secretary has given public notice that any stockyard is within the definition of section 202 of this chapter by posting copies of such notice in the stockyard, no person shall carry on the business of a market agency or dealer at such stockyard unless he has registered with the Secretary under such rules and regulations as the Secretary may prescribe, his name and address, the character of business in which he is engaged, and the kinds of stockyard services, if any, which he furnishes at such stockyard. Whoever violates the provisions of this section shall be liable to a penalty of not more than $500 for each such offense and not more than $25 for each day it continues, which shall accrue to the United States and may be recovered in a civil action brought by the United States. (Aug. 15, 1921, c. 64, § 303, 42 Stat. 163.)

204. Bond and suspension of registrants.—The Secretary of Agriculture may require reasonable bonds from every market agency and dealer, under such rules and regulations as he may prescribe, to secure the performance of their obligations, and whenever, after due notice and hearing the Secretary finds any registrant is insolvent or has violated any provision of this chapter he may issue an order suspending such registrant for a reasonable specified period. Such order of suspension shall take effect within not less than five days, unless suspended or modified or set aside by the Secretary of Agriculture or a court of competent jurisdiction. (Feb. 10, 1925, c. 200, 43 Stat. 851.)

205. General duty as to services.—It shall be the duty of every stockyard owner and market agency to furnish upon reasonable request, without discrimination, reasonable stockyard services at such stockyard. (Aug. 15, 1921, c. 64, § 304, 42 Stat. 164.)

206. Rates and charges generally; discrimination.—All rates or charges made for any stockyard services furnished at a stockyard by a stockyard owner or market agency shall be just, reasonable, and nondiscriminatory, and any unjust, unreasonable, or discriminatory rate or charge is prohibited and declared to be unlawful. (Aug. 15, 1921, c. 64, § 305, 42 Stat. 164.)

207. Schedule of rates; filing and exhibition; change in rates; suspension; penalties.—(a) Within sixty days after the Secretary has given public notice that a stockyard is within the definition of section 202 of this chapter, by posting copies of such notice in the stockyard, the stockyard owner and every market agency at such stockyard shall file with the Secretary, and print and keep open to public inspection at the stockyard, schedules showing all rates and charges for the stockyard services furnished by such person at such stockyard. If a market agency commences business at the stockyard after the expiration of such sixty days such schedules must be filed before any stockyard services are furnished.

(b) Such schedules shall plainly state all such rates and charges in such detail as the Secretary may require, and shall also state any rules or regulations which in any manner change, affect, or determine any part or the aggregate of such rates or charges, or the value of the stockyard services furnished. The Secretary may determine and prescribe the form and manner in which such schedules shall be prepared, arranged, and posted, and may from time to time make such changes in respect thereto as may be found expedient.

(c) No changes shall be made in the rates or charges so filed and published, except after ten days' notice to the Secretary and to the public filed and published as aforesaid, which shall plainly state the changes proposed to be made and the time such changes will go into effect; but the Secretary may, for good cause shown, allow changes on less than ten days' notice, or modify the requirements of this section in respect to publishing, posting, and filing of schedules, either in particular instances or by a general order applicable to special or peculiar circumstances or conditions.

(d) The Secretary may reject and refuse to file any schedule tendered for filing which does not provide and give lawful notice of its effective date, and any schedule so rejected by the Secretary shall be void and its use shall be unlawful.

(e) Whenever there is filed with the Secretary any schedule, stating a new rate or charge, or a new regulation or practice affecting any rate or charge, the Secretary may either upon complaint or upon his own initiative without complaint, at once, and if he so orders without answer or other formal pleading by the person filing such schedule, but upon reasonable notice, enter upon a hearing concerning the lawfulness of such rate, charge, regulation, or practice, and pending such hearing and decision thereon the Secretary, upon filing with such schedule and delivering to the person filing it a statement in writing of his reasons for such suspension, may suspend the operation of such schedule and defer the use of such rate, charge, regulation, or practice, but not for a longer period than thirty days beyond the time when it would otherwise go into effect; and after full hearing, whether completed before or after the rate, charge, regulation, or practice goes into effect, the Secretary may make such order with reference thereto as would be proper in a proceeding initiated after it had become effective. If any such hearing can not be concluded within the period of suspension the Secretary may extend the time of suspension for a further period not exceeding thirty days, and if the proceeding has not been concluded and an order made at the expiration of such thirty days, the proposed change of rate, charge, regulation, or practice shall go into effect at the end of such period.

(f) After the expiration of the sixty days referred to in subdivision (a) no person shall carry on the business of a stockyard owner or market agency unless the rates and charges for the stockyard services furnished at the stockyard have been filed and published in accordance with this section and the orders of the Secretary made thereunder; nor charge, demand, or collect a greater or less or different compensation for such services than the rates and charges specified in the schedules filed and in effect at the time; nor refund or remit in any manner any portion of the rates or charges so specified (but this shall not prohibit a cooperative association of producers from bona fide returning to its members, on a patronage basis, its excess earnings on their livestock, subject to such regulations as the Secretary may prescribe); nor extend to any person at such stockyard any stockyard services except such as are specified in such schedules.

(g) Whoever fails to comply with the provisions of this section or of any regulation or order of the Secretary made thereunder shall be liable to a penalty of not more than $500 for each such offense, and not more than $25 for each day it continues, which shall accrue to the United States and may be recovered in a civil action brought by the United States.

(h) Whoever willfully fails to comply with the provisions of this section or of any regulation or order of the Secretary made thereunder shall on conviction be fined not more than $1,000, or imprisoned not more than one year, or both. (Aug. 15, 1921, c. 64, § 306, 42 Stat. 164.)

208. Unreasonable or discriminatory practices generally.—It shall be the duty of every stockyard owner and market agency to establish, observe, and enforce just, reasonable, and nondiscriminatory regulations and practices in respect to the furnishing of stockyard services, and every unjust, unreasonable, or discriminatory regulation or practice is prohibited and declared to be unlawful. (Aug. 15, 1921, c. 64, § 307, 42 Stat. 165.)

209. Liability to individuals for violations; enforcement generally.—(a) If any stockyard owner, market agency, or dealer, violates any of the provisions of sections 205, 206, 207, or 208 of this chapter, or of any order of the Secretary made under sections 201 to 217 inclusive of this chapter, he shall be liable to the person or persons injured thereby for the full amount of damages sustained in consequence of such violation.

(b) Such liability may be enforced either (1) by complaint to the Secretary as provided in section 210 of this chapter, or (2) by suit in any district court of the United States of competent jurisdiction; but this section shall not in any way abridge or alter the remedies now existing at common law or by statute, but the provisions of this chapter are in addition to such remedies. (Aug. 15, 1921, c. 64, § 308, 42 Stat. 165.)

210. Proceedings before Secretary for violations generally; action to enforce order of Secretary.—(a) Any person complaining of anything done or omitted to be done by any stockyard owner, market agency, or dealer (hereinafter in this section referred to as the "defendant") in violation of the provisions of sections 205, 206, 207, or 208 of this chapter, or of an order of the Secretary made under sections 201 to 217 inclusive of this chapter, may, at any time within ninety days after the cause of action accrues, apply to the Secretary by petition which shall briefly state the facts, whereupon the complaint thus made shall be forwarded by the Secretary to the defendant, who shall be called upon to satisfy the complaint, or to answer it in writing, within a reasonable time to be specified by the Secretary. If the defendant within the time specified makes reparation for the injury alleged to be done he shall be relieved of liability to the complainant only for the particular violation thus complained of. If the defendant does not satisfy the complaint within the time specified, or there appears to be any reasonable ground for investigating the complaint, it shall be the duty of the Secretary to investigate the matters complained of in such manner and by such means as he deems proper.

(b) The Secretary, at the request of the livestock commissioner, board of agriculture, or other agency of a State or Territory, having jurisdiction over stockyards in such State or Territory, shall investigate any complaint forwarded by such agency in like manner and with the same authority and powers as in the case of a complaint made under subdivision (a).

(c) The Secretary may at any time institute an inquiry on his own motion, in any case and as to any matter or thing concerning which a complaint is authorized to be made to or before the Secretary, by any provision of sections 201 to 217 inclusive of this chapter, or concerning which any question may arise under any of the provisions of sections 201 to 217 inclusive of this chapter, or relating to the enforcement of any of the provisions of sections 201 to 217 inclusive of this chapter. The Secretary shall have the same power and authority to proceed with any inquiry instituted upon his own motion as though he had been appealed to by petition, including the power to make and enforce any order or orders in the case or relating to the matter or thing concerning which the inquiry is had, except orders for the payment of money.

(d) No complaint shall at any time be dismissed because of the absence of direct damage to the complainant.

(e) If after hearing on a complaint the Secretary determines that the complainant is entitled to an award of damages, the Secretary shall make an order directing the defendant to pay to the complainant the sum to which he is entitled on or before a day named.

(f) If the defendant does not comply with an order for the payment of money within the time limit in such order, the complainant, or any person for whose benefit such order was made, may within one year of the date of the order file in the district court of the United States for the district in which he resides or in which is located the principal place of business of the defendant or in any State court having general jurisdiction of the parties, a petition setting forth briefly the causes for which he claims damages and the order of the Secretary in the premises. Such suit in the district court shall proceed in all respects like other civil suits for damages except that the findings and orders of the Secretary shall be prima facie evidence of the facts therein stated, and the petitioner shall not be liable for costs in the district court nor for costs at any subsequent stage of the proceedings unless they accrue upon his appeal. If the petitioner finally prevails, he shall be allowed a reasonable attorney's fee to be taxed and collected as a part of the costs of the suit. (Aug. 15, 1921, c. 64, § 309, 42 Stat. 165.)

211. Order of Secretary as to charges or practices; prescribing rates and practices generally.—Whenever after full hearing upon a complaint made as provided in section 210 of this chapter, or after full hearing under an order for investigation and hearing made by the Secretary on his own initiative, either in extension of any pending complaint or without any complaint whatever, the Secretary is of the opinion that any rate, charge, regulation, or practice of a stockyard owner or market agency, for or in connection with the furnishing of stockyard services, is or will be unjust, unreasonable, or discriminatory, the Secretary—

(a) May determine and prescribe what will be the just and reasonable rate or charge, or rates or charges, to be thereafter observed in such case, or the maximum or minimum, or maximum and minimum, to be charged, and what regulation or practice is or will be just, reasonable, and nondiscriminatory to be thereafter followed; and

(b) May make an order that such owner or operator (1) shall cease and desist from such violation to the extent to which the Secretary finds that it does or will exist; (2) shall not thereafter publish, demand, or collect any rate or charge for the furnishing of stockyard services other than the rate or charge so prescribed, or in excess of the maximum or less than the minimum so prescribed, as the case may be; and (3) shall conform to and observe the regulation or practice so prescribed. (Aug. 15, 1921, c. 64, § 310, 42 Stat. 166.)

212. Prescribing rates and practices to prevent discrimination between intrastate and interstate commerce.—Whenever in any investigation under the provisions of sections 210 to 217 inclusive of this chapter, or in any investigation instituted by petition of the stockyard owner or market agency concerned, which petition is hereby authorized to be filed, the Secretary after full hearing finds that any rate, charge, regulation, or practice of any stockyard owner or market agency, for or in connection with the buying or selling on a commission basis or otherwise, receiving, marketing, feeding, holding, delivery, shipment, weighing, or handling, not in commerce, of livestock, causes any undue or unreasonable advantage, prejudice, or preference as between persons or localities in intrastate commerce in livestock on the one hand and interstate or foreign commerce in livestock on the other hand, or any undue, unjust, or unreasonable discrimination against interstate or foreign commerce in livestock, which is hereby forbidden and declared to be unlawful, the Secretary shall prescribe the rate, charge, regulation, or practice thereafter to be observed, in such manner as, in his judgment, will remove such advantage, preference, or discrimination. Such rates, charges, regulations, or practices shall be observed while in effect by the stockyard owners or market agencies parties to such proceeding affected thereby, the law of any State or the decision or order of any State authority to the contrary notwithstanding. (Aug. 15, 1921, c. 64, § 311, 42 Stat. 167.)

213. Prevention of unfair, discriminatory, or deceptive practices.—(a) It shall be unlawful for any stockyard owner, market agency, or dealer to engage in or use any unfair, unjustly discriminatory, or deceptive practice or device in connection with the receiving, marketing, buying or selling on a commission basis or otherwise, feeding, watering, holding, delivery, shipment, weighing or handling, in commerce at a stockyard, of livestock.

(b) Whenever complaint is made to the Secretary by any person, or whenever the Secretary has reason to believe, that any stockyard owner, market agency, or dealer is violating the provisions of subdivision (a), the Secretary after notice and full hearing may make an order that he shall cease and desist from continuing such violation to the extent that the Secretary finds that it does or will exist. (Aug. 15, 1921, c. 64, § 312, 42 Stat. 167.)

214. When orders effective generally.—Except as otherwise provided in this chapter all orders of the Secretary under sections 201 to 217 inclusive of this chapter, other than orders for the payment of money, shall take effect within such reasonable time, not less than five days, as is prescribed in the order, and shall continue in force until his further order, or for a specified period of time, according as is prescribed in the order, unless such order is suspended or modified or set aside by the Secretary or is suspended or set aside by a court of competent jurisdiction. (Aug. 15, 1921, c. 64, § 313, 42 Stat. 167.)

215. Failure to obey orders generally; punishment.—(a) Any stockyard owner, market agency, or dealer who knowingly fails to obey any order made under the provisions of sections 211, 212, or 213 of this chapter shall forfeit to the United States the sum of $500 for each offense. Each distinct violation shall be a separate offense, and in case of a continuing violation each day shall be deemed a separate offense. Such forfeiture shall be recoverable in a civil suit in the name of the United States.

(b) It shall be the duty of the various district attorneys, under the direction of the Attorney General, to prosecute for the recovery of forfeitures. The costs and expense of such prosecution shall be paid out of the appropriation for the expenses of the courts of the United States. (Aug. 15, 1921, c. 64, § 314, 42 Stat. 167.)

216. Court proceedings to enforce orders; injunction.—If any stockyard owner, market agency, or dealer fails to obey any order of the Secretary other than for the payment of money while the same is in effect, the Secretary, or any party injured thereby, or the United States by its Attorney General, may apply to the district court for the district in which such person has his principal place of business for the enforcement of such order. If after hearing the court determines that the order was lawfully made and duly served and that such person is in disobedience of the same, the court shall enforce obedience to such order by a writ of injunction or other proper process, mandatory or otherwise, to restrain such person, his officers, agents, or representatives from further disobedience of such order or to enjoin upon him or them obedience to the same. (Aug. 15, 1921, c. 64, § 315, 42 Stat. 167.)

217. Proceedings for suspension of orders.—For the purposes of sections 201 to 217 inclusive of this chapter, the provisions of all laws relating to the suspending or restraining the enforcement, operation, or execution of, or the setting aside in whole or in part the orders of the Interstate Commerce Commission, are made applicable to the jurisdiction, powers, and duties of the Secretary in enforcing the provisions of sections 201 to 217 inclusive of this chapter, and to any person subject to the provisions of sections 201 to 217 inclusive of this chapter. (Aug. 15, 1921, c. 64, § 316, 42 Stat. 168.)

COMMON PROVISIONS

221. Accounts and records of business; punishment for failure to keep.—Every packer, stockyard owner, market agency, and dealer shall keep such accounts, records, and memoranda as fully and correctly disclose all transactions involved in his business, including the true ownership of such business by stockholding or otherwise. Whenever the Secretary finds that the accounts, records, and memoranda of any such person do not fully and correctly disclose all transactions involved in his business, the Secretary may prescribe the manner and form in which such accounts, records, and memoranda shall be kept, and thereafter any such person who fails to keep such accounts, records, and memoranda in the manner and form prescribed or approved by the Secretary shall upon conviction be fined not more than $5,000, or imprisoned not more than three years, or both. (Aug. 15, 1921, c. 64, § 401, 42 Stat. 168.)

222. Federal Trade Commission powers adopted for enforcement of chapter.—For the efficient execution of the provisions of this chapter, and in order to provide information for the use of Congress, the provisions (including penalties) of sections 46, 48, 49, and 50 of Title 15, Commerce and Trade, are made applicable to the jurisdiction, powers, and duties of the Secretary in enforcing the provisions of this chapter and to any person subject to the provisions of this chapter, whether or not a corporation. The Secretary, in person or by such agents as he may designate, may prosecute any inquiry necessary to his duties under this chapter in any part of the United States. (Aug. 15, 1921, c. 64, § 402, 42 Stat. 168.)

223. Responsibility of principal for act or omission of agent.—When construing and enforcing the provisions of this chapter, the act, omission, or failure of any agent, officer, or other person acting for or employed by any packer, stockyard owner, market agency, or dealer, within the scope of his employment or office, shall in every case also be deemed the act, omission, or failure of such packer, stockyard owner, market agency, or dealer, as well as that of such agent, officer, or other person. (Aug. 15, 1921, c. 64, § 403, 42 Stat. 168.)

224. Attorney General to institute court proceedings for enforcement.—The Secretary may report any violation of this chapter to the Attorney General of the United States, who shall cause appropriate proceedings to be commenced and prosecuted in the proper courts of the United States without delay. (Aug. 15, 1921, c. 64, § 404, 42 Stat. 168.)

225. Other laws unaffected.—Nothing contained in this chapter, except as otherwise provided herein, shall be construed—

(a) To prevent or interfere with the enforcement of, or the procedure under, the provisions of sections 1 to 27 inclusive, sections 61 to 65 inclusive, Title 15, "Commerce and Trade," or the provisions of chapter 1, Title 49, "Transportation," or

(b) To alter, modify, or repeal such sections or any part or parts thereof, or

(c) To prevent or interfere with any investigation, proceeding, or prosecution begun and pending on August 15, 1921. (Aug. 15, 1921, c. 64, § 405, 42 Stat. 168.)

226. Powers of Interstate Commerce Commission unaffected.—Nothing in this chapter shall affect the power or jurisdiction of the Interstate Commerce Commission, nor confer upon the Secretary concurrent power or jurisdiction over any matter within the power or jurisdiction of such commission. (Aug. 15, 1921, c. 64, § 406, 42 Stat. 169.)

227. Powers of Federal Trade Commission restricted.—So long as this chapter remains in effect, the Federal Trade Commission shall have no power or jurisdiction so far as relating to any matter which by this chapter is made subject to the jurisdiction of the Secretary except when the Secretary of Agriculture, in the exercise of his duties hereunder, shall request of the said Federal Trade Commission that it make investigations and report in any case. (Aug. 15, 1921, c. 64, § 406, 42 Stat. 169.)

228. General authority of Secretary as to rules, regulations, and expenditures.—The Secretary may make such rules, regulations and orders as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this chapter and may cooperate with any department or agency of the Government, any State, Territory, District, or possession, or department, agency or political subdivision thereof, or any person; and shall have the power to appoint, remove, and fix the compensation of such officers and employees, not in conflict with existing law, and make such expenditures for rent outside the District of Columbia, printing, telegrams, telephones, law books, books of reference, periodicals, furniture, stationery, office equipment, travel and other supplies and expenses as shall be necessary to the administration of this chapter in the District of Columbia and elsewhere, and as may be appropriated for by Congress, and there is hereby authorized to be appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated such sums as may be necessary for such purpose. (Aug. 15, 1921, c. 64, § 407, 42 Stat. 169.)

229. Effect of partial invalidity.—If any provision of this chapter or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of the chapter and of the application of such provision to other persons and circumstances shall not be affected thereby. (Aug. 15, 1921, c. 64, § 408, 42 Stat. 169.)

Section 241. Short title of chapter.—This chapter shall be known by the short title of "United States Warehouse Act." (Aug. 11, 1916, c. 313, § 1, 39 Stat. 486.)

242. Terms defined; "warehouse"; "person"; "warehouseman"; "receipt."—The term "warehouse" as used in this chapter shall be deemed to mean every building, structure, or other protected inclosure in which any agricultural product is or may be stored for interstate or foreign commerce, or, if located within any place under the exclusive jurisdiction of the United States, in which any agricultural product is or may be stored. As used in this chapter, "person" includes a corporation or partnership or two or more persons having a joint or common interest; "warehouseman" means a person lawfully engaged in the business of storing agricultural products; and "receipt" means a warehouse receipt. (Feb. 23, 1923, c. 106, 42 Stat. 1282.)

243. Investigation of warehousing, weighing, classifying, and certification of agricultural products; inspection of warehouses; prescribing duties of warehousemen.—The Secretary of Agriculture is authorized to investigate the storage, warehousing, classifying according to grade and otherwise, weighing, and certification of agricultural products; upon application to him by any person applying for license to conduct a warehouse under this chapter, to inspect such warehouse or cause it to be inspected; at any time, with or without application to him, to inspect or cause to be inspected all warehouses licensed under this chapter; to determine whether warehouses for which licenses are applied for or have been issued under this chapter are suitable for the proper storage of any agricultural product or products; to classify warehouses licensed or applying for a license in accordance with their ownership, location, surroundings, capacity, conditions, and other qualities, and as to the kinds of licenses issued or that may be issued for them pursuant to this chapter; and to prescribe, within the limitations of this chapter, the duties of the warehousemen conducting warehouses licensed under this chapter with respect to their care of and responsibility for agricultural products stored therein. (Aug. 11, 1916, c. 313, § 8, 39 Stat. 486.)

244. License to warehouseman generally.—The Secretary of Agriculture is authorized, upon application to him, to issue to any warehouseman a license for the conduct of a warehouse or warehouses in accordance with this chapter and such rules and regulations as may be made thereunder: Provided, That each such warehouse be found suitable for the proper storage of the particular agricultural product or products for which a license is applied for, and that such warehouseman agree, as a condition to the granting of the license, to comply with and abide by all the terms of this chapter and the rules and regulations prescribed thereunder. (Aug. 11, 1916, c. 313, § 4, 39 Stat. 486.)

245. Term of license; renewal.—Each license issued under sections 244 and 248 of this chapter shall terminate as therein provided, or in accordance with the terms of this chapter and the regulations thereunder, and may from time to time be modified or extended by written instrument. (Feb. 23, 1923, c. 106, 42 Stat. 1282.)

246. Suspension and revocation of license of warehouseman generally.—The Secretary of Agriculture may, after opportunity for hearing has been afforded to the licensee concerned, suspend or revoke any license issued to any warehouseman conducting a warehouse under this chapter, for any violation of or failure to comply with any provision of this chapter or of the rules and regulations made thereunder or upon the ground that unreasonable or exorbitant charges have been made for services rendered. Pending investigation, the Secretary of Agriculture, whenever he deems necessary, may suspend a license temporarily without hearing. (Aug. 11, 1916, c. 313, 39 Stat. 490.)

247. Bond of applicant for warehouse license; additional bond.—Each warehouseman applying for a license to conduct a warehouse in accordance with this chapter, shall, as a condition to the granting thereof, execute and file with the Secretary of Agriculture a good and sufficient bond to the United States to secure the faithful performance of his obligations as a warehouseman under the laws of the State, District, or Territory in which he is conducting such warehouse, as well as under the terms of this chapter and the rules and regulations prescribed thereunder, and of such additional obligations as a warehouseman as may be assumed by him under contracts with the respective depositors of agricultural products in such warehouse. Said bond shall be in such form and amount, shall have such surety or sureties, subject to service of process in suits on the bond within the State, District, or Territory in which the warehouse is located, and shall contain such terms and conditions as the Secretary of Agriculture may prescribe to carry out the purposes of this chapter, and may, in the discretion of the Secretary of Agriculture, include the requirements of fire insurance. Whenever the Secretary of Agriculture shall determine that a bond approved by him is, or for any cause has become, insufficient, he may require an additional bond or bonds to be given by the warehouseman concerned, conforming with the requirements of this section, and unless the same be given within the time fixed by a written demand therefor the license of such warehouseman may be suspended or revoked. (Feb. 23, 1923, c. 106, 42 Stat. 1283.)

248. License to person not warehouseman; bond; general duties of person so licensed.—The Secretary of Agriculture may, under such rules and regulations as he shall prescribe, issue a license to any person not a warehouseman to accept the custody of agricultural products and to store the same in a warehouse or warehouses owned, operated, or leased by any State, upon condition that such person agree to comply with and abide by the terms of this chapter and the rules and regulations prescribed thereunder. Each person so licensed shall issue receipts for the agricultural products placed in his custody, and shall give bond, in accordance with the provisions of this chapter and the rules and regulations thereunder affecting warehousemen licensed under this chapter, and shall otherwise be subject to this chapter and such rules and regulations to the same extent as is provided for warehousemen licensed thereunder. (Aug. 11, 1916, c. 313, 39 Stat. 487.)

249. Action on bond by person injured.—Any person injured by the breach of any obligation to secure which a bond is given, under the provisions of sections 247 or 248 of this chapter, shall be entitled to sue on the bond in his own name in any court of competent jurisdiction to recover the damages he may have sustained by such breach. (Aug. 11, 1916, c. 313, 39 Stat. 487.)

250. Designation as bonded warehouse.—Upon the filing with and approval by the Secretary of Agriculture of a bond, in compliance with this chapter, for the conduct of a warehouse, such warehouse shall be designated as bonded thereunder; but no warehouse shall be designated as bonded under this chapter, and no name or description conveying the impression that it is so bonded, shall be used, until a bond, such as provided for in section 247, has been filed with and approved by the Secretary of Agriculture, nor unless the license issued under this chapter for the conduct of such warehouse remains unsuspended and unrevoked. (Aug. 11, 1916, c. 313, 39 Stat. 487.)

251. Fee for inspection of warehouse or for license; disposition of moneys.—The Secretary of Agriculture shall charge, assess, and cause to be collected a reasonable fee for every examination or inspection of a warehouse under this chapter when such examination or inspection is made upon application of a warehouseman, and a fee not exceeding $2 per annum for each license or renewal thereof issued to a warehouseman under this chapter. All such fees shall be deposited and covered into the Treasury as miscellaneous receipts. (Aug. 11, 1916, c. 313, 39 Stat. 487.)

252. License to classify, grade, or weigh agricultural products.—The Secretary of Agriculture may upon presentation of satisfactory proof of competency, issue to any person a license to inspect, sample or classify any agricultural product or products, stored or to be stored in a warehouse licensed under this chapter, according to condition, grade or otherwise and to certificate the condition, grade or other class thereof, or to weigh the same and certificate the weight thereof, or both to inspect, sample or classify and weigh the same and to certificate the condition, grade or other class and the weight thereof, upon condition that such person agree to comply with and abide by the terms of this chapter and of the rules and regulations prescribed thereunder so far as the same relate to him. (Feb. 23, 1923, c. 106, 42 Stat. 1283.)

253. Suspension and revocation of license to classify, grade, or weigh.—Any license issued to any person to inspect, sample or classify or to weigh any agricultural product or products under this chapter may be suspended, or revoked by the Secretary of Agriculture whenever he is satisfied, after opportunity afforded to the licensee concerned for a hearing, that such licensee has failed to inspect, sample, or classify or to weigh any agricultural product or products correctly, or has violated any of the provisions of this chapter or of the rules and regulations prescribed thereunder, so far as the same may relate to him, or that he has used his license or allowed it to be used for any improper purpose whatever. Pending investigation, the Secretary of Agriculture, whenever he deems necessary, may suspend a license temporarily without hearing. (Feb. 23, 1923, c. 106, 42 Stat. 1283.)

254. Discrimination by warehouseman prohibited.—Every warehouseman conducting a warehouse licensed under this chapter shall receive for storage therein, so far as its capacity permits, any agricultural product of the kind customarily stored therein by him which may be tendered to him in a suitable condition for warehousing, in the usual manner in the ordinary and usual course of business, without making any discrimination between persons desiring to avail themselves of warehouse facilities. (Aug. 11, 1916, c. 313, 39 Stat. 488.)

255. Deposits of products deemed made subject to chapter.—Any person who deposits agricultural products for storage in a warehouse licensed under this chapter shall be deemed to have deposited the same subject to the terms of this chapter and the rules and regulations prescribed thereunder. (Aug. 11, 1916, c. 313, 39 Stat. 488.)

256. Inspection and grading of products stored.—Any fungible agricultural product stored for interstate or foreign commerce, or in any place under the exclusive jurisdiction of the United States, in a warehouse licensed under this chapter shall be inspected and graded by a person duly licensed to grade the same under this chapter. (Feb. 23, 1923, c. 106, 42 Stat. 1283.)

257. Standards for agricultural products.—The Secretary of Agriculture is authorized, from time to time, to establish and promulgate standards for agricultural products by which their quality or value may be judged or determined: Provided, That the standards for any agricultural products which have been, or which in future may be, established by or under authority or any other Act of Congress shall be, and are hereby, adopted for the purposes of this chapter as the official standards of the United States for the agricultural products to which they relate. (Feb. 23, 1923, c. 106, 42 Stat. 1284.)

258. Mingling products stored.—Every warehouseman conducting a warehouse licensed under this chapter shall keep the agricultural products therein of one depositor so far separate from agricultural products of other depositors, and from other agricultural products of the same depositor for which a separate receipt has been issued, as to permit at all times the identification and redelivery of the agricultural products deposited; but if authorized by agreement or by custom, a warehouseman may mingle fungible agricultural products with other agricultural products of the same kind and grade, and shall be severally liable to each depositor for the care and redelivery of his share of such mass, to the same extent and under the same circumstances as if the agricultural products had been kept separate, but he shall at no time while they are in his custody mix fungible agricultural products of different grades. (Aug. 11, 1916, c. 313, 39 Stat. 488.)

259. Receipts for products stored generally.—For all agricultural products stored for interstate or foreign commerce, or in any place under the exclusive jurisdiction of the United States, in a warehouse licensed under this chapter original receipts shall be issued by the warehouseman conducting the same, but no receipts shall be issued except for agricultural products actually stored in the warehouse at the time of the issuance thereof. (Aug. 11, 1916, c. 313, 39 Stat. 488.)

260. Contents of receipts.—Every receipt issued for agricultural products stored in a warehouse licensed under this chapter shall embody within its written or printed terms (a) the location of the warehouse in which the agricultural products are stored; (b) the date of issue of the receipt; (c) the consecutive number of the receipt; (d) a statement whether the agricultural products received will be delivered to the bearer, to a specified person, or to a specified person or his order; (e) the rate of storage charges; (f) a description of the agricultural products received, showing the quantity thereof, or, in case of agricultural products customarily put up in bales or packages, a description of such bales or packages by marks, numbers, or other means of identification and the weight of such bales or packages; (g) the grade or other class of the agricultural products received and the standard or description in accordance with which such classification has been made: Provided, That such grade or other class shall be stated according to the official standard of the United States applicable to such agricultural products as the same may by fixed and promulgated under authority of law: Provided further, That until such official standards of the United States for any agricultural product or products have been fixed and promulgated, the grade or other class thereof may be stated in accordance with any recognized standard or in accordance with such rules and regulations not inconsistent herewith as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Agriculture; (h) a statement that the receipt is issued subject to the United States Warehouse Act and the rules and regulations prescribed thereunder; (i) if the receipt be issued for agricultural products of which the warehouseman is owner, either solely or jointly or in common with others, the fact of such ownership; (j) a statement of the amount of advances made and of liabilities incurred for which the warehouseman claims a lien: Provided, That if the precise amount of such advances made or of such liabilities incurred be at the time of the issue of the receipt unknown to the warehouseman or his agent who issues it, a statement of the fact that advances have been made or liabilities incurred and the purpose thereof shall be sufficient; (k) such other terms and conditions within the limitations of this chapter as may be required by the Secretary of Agriculture; and (l) the signature of the warehouseman, which may be made by his authorized agent: Provided, That unless otherwise required by the law of the State in which the warehouse is located, when requested by the depositor of other than fungible agricultural products, a receipt omitting compliance with subdivision (g) of this section may be issued: Provided, however, That the Secretary of Agriculture may in his discretion require that such receipt have plainly and conspicuously embodied in its written or printed terms a provision that such receipt is not negotiable. (Feb. 23, 1923, c. 106, 42 Stat. 1284.)

261. Issuance of further receipt, original outstanding.—While an original receipt issued under this chapter is outstanding and uncanceled by the warehouseman issuing the same no other or further receipt shall be issued for the agricultural product covered thereby or for any part thereof, except that in the case of a lost or destroyed receipt a new receipt, upon the same terms and subject to the same conditions and bearing on its face the number and date of the receipt in lieu of which it is issued, may be issued upon compliance with the statutes of the United States applicable thereto in places under the exclusive jurisdiction of the United States or upon compliance with the laws of any State applicable thereto in any place not under the exclusive jurisdiction of the United States: Provided, That if there be in such case no statute of the United States or law of a State applicable thereto such new receipts may be issued upon the giving of satisfactory security in compliance with the rules and regulations made pursuant to this chapter. (Aug. 11, 1916, c. 313, 39 Stat. 489.)

262. Delivery of products stored on demand; conditions to delivery.—A warehouseman conducting a warehouse licensed under this chapter, in the absence of some lawful excuse, shall, without unnecessary delay, deliver the agricultural products stored therein upon a demand made either by the holder of a receipt for such agricultural products or by the depositor thereof if such demand be accompanied with (a) an offer to satisfy the warehouseman's lien; (b) an offer to surrender the receipt, if negotiable, with such indorsements as would be necessary for the negotiation of the receipt; and (c) a readiness and willingness to sign, when the products are delivered, an acknowledgment that they have been delivered if such signature is requested by the warehouseman. (Aug. 11, 1916, c. 313, 39 Stat. 489.)

263. Cancellation of receipt on delivery of product stored.—A warehouseman conducting a warehouse licensed under this chapter shall plainly cancel upon the face thereof each receipt returned to him upon the delivery by him of the agricultural products for which the receipt was issued. (Aug. 11, 1916, c. 313, 39 Stat. 490.)

264. Records of products stored; reports to Secretary of Agriculture; general compliance with provisions of chapter, rules, and regulations.—Every warehouseman conducting a warehouse licensed under this chapter shall keep in a place of safety complete and correct records of all agricultural products stored therein and withdrawn therefrom, of all warehouse receipts issued by him, and of the receipts returned to and canceled by him, shall make reports to the Secretary of Agriculture concerning such warehouse and the condition, contents, operation, and business thereof in such form and at such times as he may require, and shall conduct said warehouse in all other respects in compliance with this chapter and the rules and regulations made thereunder. (Aug. 11, 1916, c. 313, 39 Stat. 490.)

265. Examination of stored products; publication of findings.—The Secretary of Agriculture is authorized to cause examinations to be made of any agricultural product stored in any warehouse licensed under this chapter. Whenever, after opportunity for hearing is given to the warehouseman conducting such warehouse, it is determined that he is not performing fully the duties imposed on him by this chapter and the rules and regulations made thereunder, the Secretary may publish his findings. (Aug. 11, 1916, c. 313, 39 Stat. 490.)

266. Publication of general investigation of warehousing, names and locations of bonded warehouses, and revocation of licenses.—The Secretary of Agriculture from time to time may publish the results of any investigations made under section 243 of this chapter; and he shall publish the names and locations of warehouses licensed and bonded and the names and addresses of persons licensed under this chapter and list of all licenses terminated under this chapter and the causes therefor. (Aug. 11, 1916, c. 313, 39 Stat. 490.)

267. Examination of books, records, etc., of warehousemen.—The Secretary of Agriculture is authorized through officials, employees, or agents of the Department of Agriculture designated by him to examine all books, records, papers, and accounts of warehouses licensed under this chapter and of the warehousemen conducting such warehouses relating thereto. (Aug. 11, 1916, c. 313, 39 Stat. 490.)

268. Rules and regulations by Secretary of Agriculture.—The Secretary of Agriculture shall from time to time make such rules and regulations as he may deem necessary for the efficient execution of the provisions of this chapter. (Aug. 11, 1916, c. 313, 39 Stat. 490.)

269. State and other laws not affected; enforcement of State laws.—Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to conflict with, or to authorize any conflict with, or in any way to impair or limit the effect or operation of the laws of any State relating to warehouses, warehousemen, weighers, graders, inspectors, samplers, or classifiers; but the Secretary of Agriculture is authorized to cooperate with such officials as are charged with the enforcement of such State laws in such States and through such cooperation to secure the enforcement of the provisions of this chapter; nor shall this chapter be construed so as to limit the operation of any statute of the United States relating to warehouses or warehousemen, weighers, graders, inspectors, samplers, or classifiers in force February 23, 1923, in the District of Columbia or in any Territory or other place under the exclusive jurisdiction of the United States. (Feb. 23, 1923, c. 106, 42 Stat. 1285.)

270. Punishment generally for violation of provisions of chapter; reimbursement of owner of products converted.—Every person who shall forge, alter, counterfeit, simulate, or falsely represent, or shall without proper authority use, any license issued by the Secretary of Agriculture under this chapter, or who shall violate or fail to comply with any provision of section 250 of this chapter, or who shall issue or utter a false or fraudulent receipt or certificate, or any person who, without lawful authority, shall convert to his own use, or use for purposes of securing a loan, or remove from a licensed warehouse contrary to this chapter or the regulations promulgated thereunder, any agricultural products stored or to be stored in such warehouse and for which licensed receipts have been or are to be issued, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not more than $10,000, or double the value of the products involved if such double value exceeds $10,000, or imprisoned not more than one year, or both, in the discretion of the court, and the owner of the agricultural products so converted, used, or removed may, in the discretion of the Secretary of Agriculture, be reimbursed for the value thereof out of any fine collected hereunder, by check drawn on the Treasury at the direction of the Secretary of Agriculture, for the value of such products to the extent that such owner has not otherwise been reimbursed. Any person who shall draw with intent to deceive a false sample of, or who shall willfully mutilate or falsely represent a sample drawn under this chapter, or who shall classify, grade or weigh fraudulently, any agricultural products stored or to be stored under the provisions of this chapter, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof fined not more than $500 or imprisoned for not more than six months, or both, in the discretion of the court. (Feb. 23, 1923, c. 106, 42 Stat. 1285.)

271. Employment by Secretary of temporary assistance.—The Secretary of Agriculture is authorized, in his discretion, to employ qualified persons not regularly in the service of the United States for temporary assistance in carrying out the purposes of this chapter. (Aug. 11, 1916, c. 313, 39 Stat. 491.)

272. Effect of partial invalidity of chapter.—If any clause, sentence, paragraph, or part of this chapter shall, for any reason, be adjudged by any court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, such judgment shall not affect, impair, or invalidate the remainder thereof, but shall be confined in its operation to the clause, sentence, paragraph, or part thereof directly involved in the controversy in which such judgment shall have been rendered. (Aug. 11, 1916, c. 313, 39 Stat. 491.)

273. Rights reserved.—The right to amend, alter, or repeal this chapter is hereby expressly reserved. (Aug. 11, 1916, c. 313, 39 Stat. 491.)

Chapter 11.—HONEYBEES.

Sec.
281. Importations of honeybees prohibited; exceptions.
282. Punishment for unlawful importation.

Section 281. Importation of honeybees prohibited; exceptions.—In order to prevent the introduction and spread of diseases dangerous to the adult honeybee, the importation into the United States of the honeybee (Apis mellifica) in its adult stage is hereby prohibited, and all adult honeybees offered for import into the United States shall be destroyed if not immediately exported: Provided, That such adult honeybees may be imported into the United States for experimental or scientific purposes by the United States Department of Agriculture: And provided further, That such adult honeybees may be imported into the United States from countries in which the Secretary of Agriculture shall determine that no diseases dangerous to adult honeybees exist, under rules and regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury and the Secretary of Agriculture. (Aug. 31, 1922, c. 301, § 1, 42 Stat. 833.)

282. Punishment for unlawful importation.—Any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this chapter shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by a fine not exceeding $500 or by imprisonment not exceeding one year, or both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court. (Aug. 31, 1922, c. 301, § 2, 42 Stat. 834)

Chapter 12.—ASSOCIATIONS OF PRODUCERS OF AGRICULTURAL PRODUCTS.

Sec.
291. Authorization of associations; powers generally.
292. Monopolizing or restraining trade and unduly enhancing prices prohibited; remedy and procedure.

Section 291. Authorization of associations; powers generally.—Persons engaged in the production of agricultural products as farmers, planters, ranchmen, dairymen, nut or fruit growers may act together in associations, corporate or otherwise, with or without capital stock, in collectively processing, preparing for market, handling, and marketing in interstate and foreign commerce, such products of persons so engaged. Such associations may have marketing agencies in common; and such associations and their members may make the necessary contracts and agreements to effect such purposes: Provided, however, That such associations are operated for the mutual benefit of the members thereof, as such producers, and conform to one or both of the following requirements:

First. That no member of the association is allowed more than one vote because of the amount of stock or membership capital he may own therein, or,

Second. That the association does not pay dividends on stock or membership capital in excess of 8 per centum per annum.

And in any case to the following:

Third. That the association shall not deal in the products of nonmembers to an amount greater in value than such as are handled by it for members. (Feb. 18, 1922, c. 57 § 1, 42 Stat. 388.)

292. Monopolizing or restraining trade and unduly enhancing prices prohibited; remedy and procedure.—If the Secretary of Agriculture shall have reason to believe that any such association monopolizes or restrains trade in interstate or foreign commerce to such an extent that the price of any agricultural product is unduly enhanced by reason thereof, he shall serve upon such association a complaint stating his charge in that respect, to which complaint shall be attached, or contained therein, a notice of hearing, specifying a day and place not less than thirty days after the service thereof, requiring the association to show cause why an order should not be made directing it to cease and desist from monopolization or restraint of trade. An association so complained of may at the time and place so fixed show cause why such order should not be entered. The evidence given on such a hearing shall be taken under such rules and regulations as the Secretary of Agriculture may prescribe, reduced to writing, and made a part of the record therein. If upon such hearing the Secretary of Agriculture shall be of the opinion that such association monopolizes or restrains trade in interstate or foreign commerce to such an extent that the price of any agricultural product is unduly enhanced thereby, he shall issue and cause to be served upon the association an order reciting the facts found by him, directing such association to cease and desist from monopolization or restraint of trade. On the request of such association or if such association fails or neglects for thirty days to obey such order, the Secretary of Agriculture shall file in the district court in the judicial district in which such association has its principal place of business a certified copy of the order and of all the records in the proceeding, together with a petition asking that the order be enforced, and shall give notice to the Attorney General and to said association of such filing. Such district court shall thereupon have jurisdiction to enter a decree affirming, modifying, or setting aside said order, or enter such other decree as the court may deem equitable, and may make rules as to pleadings and proceedings to be had in considering such order. The place of trial may, for cause or by consent of parties, be changed as in other causes.

The facts found by the Secretary of Agriculture and recited or set forth in said order shall be prima facie evidence of such facts, but either party may adduce additional evidence. The Department of Justice shall have charge of the enforcement of such order. After the order is so filed in such district court and while pending for review therein the court may issue a temporary writ of injunction forbidding such association from violating such order or any part thereof. The court may, upon conclusion of its hearing, enforce its decree by a permanent injunction or other appropriate remedy. Service of such complaint and of all notices may be made upon such association by service upon any officer or agent thereof engaged in carrying on its business, or on any attorney authorized to appear in such proceeding for such association, and such service shall be binding upon such association, the officers, and members thereof. (Feb. 18, 1922, c. 57, § 2, 42 Stat. 388.)

348. Power to amend, repeal, etc., reserved.

COLLEGE-AID LAND APPROPRIATION

Section 301. Land grant in aid of colleges generally.—There is granted, July 2, 1862, to the several States, for the purposes hereinafter mentioned in sections 302 to 308, inclusive, of this chapter, an amount of public land, to be apportioned to each State a quantity equal to thirty thousand acres for each Senator and Representative in Congress to which the States are respectively entitled by the apportionment under the census of 1860: Provided, That no mineral lands shall be selected or purchased under the provisions of sections 301 to 308, inclusive, of this chapter. (July 2, 1862, c. 130, § 1, 12 Stat. 503.)

302. Method of apportionment and selection; issuance of land scrip.—The land aforesaid, after being surveyed, shall be apportioned to the several States in sections or subdivisions of sections, not less than one-quarter of a section; and whenever there are public lands in a State subject to sale at private entry at $1.25 per acre, the quantity to which said State shall be entitled shall be selected from such lands within the limits of such State, and the Secretary of the Interior is directed to issue to each of the States in which there is not the quantity of public lands subject to sale at private entry at $1.25 per acre, to which said State may be entitled under the provisions of sections 301 to 308, inclusive, this chapter, land scrip to the amount in acres for the deficiency of its distributive share; said scrip to be sold by said States and the proceeds thereof applied to the uses and purposes prescribed in sections 301 to 308, inclusive, of this chapter, and for no other use or purpose whatsoever: Provided, That in no case shall any State to which land scrip may thus be issued be allowed to locate the same within the limits of any other State, or of any Territory of the United States, but their assignees may thus locate said land scrip upon any of the unappropriated lands of the United States subject to sale at private entry at $1.25, or less, per acre: And provided further, That not more than one million acres shall be located by such assignees in any one of the States: And provided further, That no such location shall be made before July 2, 1863. (July 2, 1862, c. 130, § 2, 12 Stat. 503, 504.)

303. Expenses of management, etc., to be paid by State.—All the expenses of management, superintendence, and taxes from date of selection of said lands, previous to their sales, and all expenses incurred in the management and disbursement of the moneys which may be received therefrom, shall be paid by the States to which they may belong, out of the treasury of said States, so that the entire proceeds of the sale of said lands shall be applied without any diminution whatever to the purposes hereinafter in sections 304 to 308, inclusive, of this chapter mentioned. (July 2, 1862, c. 130, § 3, 12 Stat. 504.)

304. Investment of proceeds of sale of land or scrip.—All moneys derived from the sale of lands aforesaid by the States to which the lands are apportioned, and from the sales of land scrip hereinbefore provided for, shall be invested in stocks of the United States or of the States, or some other safe stocks; or the same may be invested by the States having no State stocks, in any other manner after the legislatures of such States shall have assented thereto, and engaged that such funds shall yield not less than 5 per centum upon the amount so invested and that the principal thereof shall forever remain unimpaired: Provided, That the moneys so invested or loaned shall constitute a perpetual fund, the capital of which shall remain forever undiminished (except so far as may be provided in section 305 of this chapter), and the interest of which shall be inviolably appropriated, by each State which may take and claim the benefit of sections 301 to 308, inclusive, of this chapter, to the endowment, support, and maintenance of at least one college where the leading object shall be without excluding other scientific and classical studies, and including military tactics, to teach such branches of learning as are related to agriculture and the mechanic arts, in such manner as the legislatures of the States may respectively prescribe, in order to promote the liberal and practical education of the industrial classes in the several pursuits and professions in life. (Mar. 3, 1883, c. 102, 22 Stat. 484.)

305. Conditions of grant.—The grant of land and land scrip authorized in the foregoing sections of this chapter shall be made on the following conditions, to which, as well as to the provisions hereinbefore in this chapter contained, the previous assent of the several States shall be signified by legislative acts:

First. If any portion of the fund invested, as provided by the foregoing section, or any portion of the interest thereon, shall, by any action or contingency, be diminished or lost, it shall be replaced by the State to which it belongs, so that the capital of the fund shall remain forever undiminished; and the annual interest shall be regularly applied without diminution to the purposes mentioned in section 304 of this chapter, except that a sum, not exceeding 10 per centum upon the amount received by any State under the foregoing provisions of this chapter, may be expended for the purchase of lands for sites or experimental farms, whenever authorized by the respective legislatures of said States.

Second. No portion of said fund, nor the interest thereon, shall be applied, directly or indirectly, under any pretense whatever, to the purchase, erection, preservation, or repair of any building or buildings.

Third. Any State which may take and claim the benefit of the foregoing provisions of this chapter shall provide, within five years from the time of its acceptance as provided in subdivision seven of this section, at least not less than one college, as described in section 304 of this chapter, or the grant to such State shall cease; and said State shall be bound to pay the United States the amount received of any lands previously sold, and the title to purchasers under the State shall be valid.

Fourth. An annual report shall be made regarding the progress of each college, recording any improvements and experiments made, with their cost and results, and such other matters, including State industrial and economical statistics, as may be supposed useful; one copy of which shall be transmitted by mail free, by each, to all the other colleges which may be endowed under the foregoing provisions of this chapter, and also one copy to the Secretary of the Interior.

Fifth. When lands shall be selected from those which have been raised to double the minimum price, in consequence of railroad grants, they shall be computed to the States at the maximum price, and the number of acres proportionally diminished.

Sixth. No State while in a condition of rebellion or insurrection against the Government of the United States shall be entitled to the benefit of the foregoing provisions of this chapter.

Seventh. No State shall be entitled to the benefits of the foregoing provisions of this chapter unless it shall express its acceptance thereof by its legislature within three years from July 2, 1862: Provided, That when any Territory shall become a State and be admitted into the Union, such new State shall be entitled to the benefits of the foregoing provisions of this chapter, by expressing the acceptance therein required within three years from the date of its admission into the Union, and providing the college or colleges within five years after such acceptance, as heretofore prescribed in this chapter: Provided further, That any State which has prior to July 23, 1866, expressed its acceptance of the foregoing provisions of this chapter shall have the period of five years within which to provide at least one college, as described in section 304 of this chapter, after July 2, 1867. (July 2, 1862, c. 130, §5, 12 Stat. 504; July 23, 1866, c. 200, 14 Stat. 208.)

306. Land scrip; time of location.—Land scrip issued under the foregoing provisions of this chapter shall not be subject to location until after the 1st day of January, 1863. (July 2, 1862, c. 130, § 6, 12 Stat. 505.)

307. Fees for locating land scrip.—The land officers shall receive the same fees for locating land scrip issued under the foregoing provisions of this chapter as is on July 2, 1862, allowed for the location of military bounty land warrants under laws existing at that time: Provided, That their maximum compensation shall not be thereby increased. (July 2, 1862, c. 130, § 7, 12 Stat. 505.)

308. Reports by State governors of sale of scrip.—The governors of the several States to which scrip shall be issued under the foregoing provisions of this chapter shall be required to report annually to Congress all sales made of such scrip until the whole shall be disposed of, the amount received for the same, and what appropriation has been made of the proceeds. (July 2, 1862, c. 130, § 8, 12 Stat. 505.)

COLLEGE-AID ANNUAL APPROPRIATION

321. Secretary of Interior to administer annual college-aid appropriation.—The Secretary of the Interior is hereby charged with the proper administration of sections 322 to 328 inclusive of this chapter. (Aug. 30, 1890, c. 841, § 4, 26 Stat. 419.)

322. Annual appropriation generally.—There is annually appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to be paid as provided in section 324 of this chapter, to each State and Territory for the more complete endowment and maintenance of colleges for the benefit of agriculture and the mechanic arts established in accordance with the provisions of sections 301 to 308 and sections 323 to 328, inclusive, of this chapter, $50,000 to be applied only to instruction in agriculture, the mechanic arts, the English language and the various branches of mathematical, physical, natural, and economic science, with special reference to their applications in the industries of life, and to the facilities for such instruction: Provided, That said colleges may use a portion of this money for providing courses for the special preparation of instructors for teaching the elements of agriculture and the mechanic arts. (Aug. 30, 1890, c. 841, § 1, 26 Stat. 417; Mar. 4, 1907, c. 2907, 34 Stat. 1281.)

323. Racial discrimination by colleges restricted.—No money shall be paid out under sections 321 to 328, inclusive, of this chapter to any State or Territory for the support or maintenance of a college where a distinction of race or color is made in the admission of students, but the establishment and maintenance of such colleges separately for white and colored students shall be held to be a compliance with the provisions of sections 321 to 328, inclusive, of this chapter if the funds received in such State or Territory be equitably divided as hereinafter set forth: Provided, That in any State in which there has been one college established in pursuance of sections 301 to 308, inclusive, of this chapter, and also in which an educational institution of like character has been established, or may be hereafter established, and is on August 30, 1890, aided by such State from its own revenue, for the education of colored students in agriculture and the mechanic arts, however named or styled, or whether or not it has received money prior to August 30, 1890, under sections 301 to 308, inclusive, of this chapter, the legislature of such State may propose and report to the Secretary of the Interior a just and equitable division of the fund to be received under sections 321 to 328, inclusive, of this chapter between one college for white students and one institution for colored students established as aforesaid, which shall be divided into two parts and paid accordingly, and thereupon such institution for colored students shall be entitled to the benefits of sections 321 to 328, inclusive, of this chapter and subject to its provisions, as much as it would have been if it had been included under sections 301 to 308 of this chapter, and the fulfillment of the foregoing provisions shall be taken as a compliance with the provision in reference to separate colleges for white and colored students. (Aug. 30, 1890, c. 841, § 1, 26 Stat. 417.)

324. Time, manner, etc., of annual payments.—The sums appropriated by sections 322 to 328, inclusive, of this chapter to the States and Territories for the further endowment and support of colleges shall be annually paid on or before the 31st day of July of each year, by the Secretary of the Treasury, upon the warrant of the Secretary of the Interior, out of the Treasury of the United States, to the State or Territorial treasurer, or to such officer as shall be designated by the laws of such State or Territory to receive the same, who shall, upon the order of the trustees of the college, or the institution for colored students, immediately pay over said sums to the treasurers of the respective colleges or other institutions entitled to receive the same, and such treasurers shall be required to report to the Secretary of Agriculture and to the Secretary of the Interior, on or before the 1st day of September of each year, a detailed statement of the amount so received and of its disbursement. The grants of moneys authorized by sections 322 to 328, inclusive, of this chapter are made subject to the legislative assent of the several States and Territories to the purpose of said grants: Provided, That payments of such installments of the appropriation made by sections 322 to 328, inclusive, of this chapter, as shall become due to any State before the adjournment of the regular session of legislature meeting next after August 30, 1890, shall be made upon the assent of the governor thereof, duly certified to the Secretary of the Treasury. (Aug. 30, 1890, c. 841, § 2, 26 Stat. 418.)

325. State to replace funds misapplied, etc.; restrictions on use of funds; reports by colleges.—If any portion of the moneys received by the designated officer of the State or Territory for the further and more complete endowment, support, and maintenance of colleges, or of institutions for colored students, as provided in sections 322 to 328, inclusive, of this chapter, shall, by any action or contingency, be diminished or lost, or be misapplied, it shall be replaced by the State or Territory to which it belongs, and until so replaced no subsequent appropriation shall be apportioned or paid to such State or Territory; and no portion of said moneys shall be applied, directly or indirectly, under any pretense whatever, to the purchase, erection, preservation, or repair of any building or buildings. An annual report by the president of each of said colleges shall be made to the Secretary of Agriculture, as well as to the Secretary of the Interior, regarding the condition and progress of each college, including statistical information in relation to its receipts and expenditures, its library, the number of its students and professors, and also as to any improvements and experiments made under the direction of any experiment stations attached to said colleges, with their cost and results, and such other industrial and economical statistics as may be regarded as useful, one copy of which shall be transmitted by mail free to all other colleges further endowed under sections 322 to 328, inclusive, of this chapter. (Aug. 30, 1890, c. 841, § 3, 26 Stat. 418.)

326. Ascertainment and certification of amounts due States; certificates withheld from States; appeal to Congress.—On or before the 1st day of July in each year, the Secretary of the Interior shall ascertain and certify to the Secretary of the Treasury as to each State and Territory whether it is entitled to receive its share of the annual appropriation for colleges, or of institutions for colored students, under sections 322 to 328 inclusive of this chapter, and the amount which thereupon each is entitled, respectively, to receive. If the Secretary of the Interior shall withhold a certificate from any State or Territory of its appropriation the facts and reasons therefor shall be reported to the President, and the amount involved shall be kept separate in the Treasury until the close of the next Congress, in order that the State or Territory may, if it should so desire, appeal to Congress from the determination of the Secretary of the Interior. If the next Congress shall not direct such sum to be paid it shall be covered into the Treasury. (Aug. 30, 1890, c. 841, § 4, 26 Stat. 419.)

327. Reports by Secretary of Interior of disbursements and certificates withheld.—The Secretary of the Interior shall annually report to Congress the disbursements which have been made in all the States and Territories, and also whether the appropriation of any State or Territory has been withheld, and if so, the reasons therefor. (Aug. 30, 1890, c. 841, § 5, 26 Stat. 419.)

328. Power to amend, repeal, etc., reserved.—Congress may at any time amend, suspend, or repeal any or all of the provisions of sections 322 to 328, inclusive, of this chapter. (Aug. 30, 1890, c. 841, § 6, 26 Stat. 419.)

AGRICULTURAL EXTENSION WORK APPROPRIATION

341. Cooperative extension work by colleges authorized.—In order to aid in diffusing among the people of the United States useful and practical information on subjects relating to agriculture and home economics, and to encourage the application of the same, there may be inaugurated in connection with the college or colleges in each State receiving, May 8, 1914, or which may thereafter receive, the benefits of the foregoing provisions of this chapter, agricultural extension work which shall be carried on in cooperation with the United States Department of Agriculture: Provided, That in any State in which two or more such colleges have been prior to May 8, 1914, or thereafter may be established the appropriations in section 343 hereinafter made to such State shall be administered by such college or colleges as the legislature of such State may direct: Provided further, That, pending the inauguration and development of the cooperative extension work herein authorized, nothing in sections 341 to 348, inclusive, of this chapter shall be construed to discontinue either the farm management work or the farmers' cooperative demonstration work as conducted May 8, 1914, by the Bureau of Plant Industry of the Department of Agriculture. (May 8, 1914, c. 79, § 1, 38 Stat. 372.)

342. "Cooperative agricultural work" defined; cooperation with Secretary of Agriculture.—Cooperative agricultural extension work shall consist of the giving of instruction and practical demonstrations in agriculture and home economics to persons not attending or resident in said colleges in the several communities, and imparting to such persons information on said subjects through field demonstrations, publications, and otherwise; and this work shall be carried on in such manner as may be mutually agreed upon by the Secretary of Agriculture and the State agricultural college or colleges receiving the benefits of sections 341 to 348, inclusive, of this chapter. (May 8, 1914, c. 79, § 2, 38 Stat. 373.)

343. Appropriation for extension work generally; contribution by State.—For the purpose of paying the expenses of said cooperative agricultural extension work and the necessary printing and distributing of information in connection with the same, there is permanently appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of $480,000 for each year, $10,000 of which shall be paid annually, in the manner hereinafter provided, to each State which shall by action of its legislature assent to the provisions of sections 341 to 348, inclusive, of this chapter: Provided, That there is also permanently appropriated for each year the sum of $4,100,000 in addition to the sum of $480,000 hereinbefore provided: Provided further, That before the funds herein appropriated shall become available to any college for any fiscal year plans for the work to be carried on under sections 341 to 348, inclusive, of this chapter shall be submitted by the proper officials of each college and approved by the Secretary of Agriculture. Such additional sum shall be used only for the purposes hereinbefore stated in the preceding section, and shall be allotted annually to each State by the Secretary of Agriculture and paid in the manner hereinbefore provided, in the proportion which the rural population of each State bears to the total rural population of all the States as determined by the next preceding Federal census: Provided further, That no payment out of the additional appropriation herein provided shall be made in any year to any State until an equal sum has been appropriated for that year by the legislature of such State, or provided by State, county, college, local authority, or individual contributions from within the State, for the maintenance of the cooperative agricultural extension work provided for in sections 341 to 348, inclusive, of this chapter. (May 8, 1914, c. 79, § 3, 38 Stat. 373.)

344. Time and manner of payment; reports by State officers of receipts and disbursements.—The sums appropriated in the preceding section for extension work shall be paid in equal semiannual payments on the 1st day of January and July of each year by the Secretary of the Treasury upon the warrant of the Secretary of Agriculture, out of the Treasury of the United States, to the treasurer or other officer of the State duly authorized by the laws of the State to receive the same; and such officer shall be required to report to the Secretary of Agriculture, on or before the 1st day of September of each year, a detailed statement of the amount so received during the previous fiscal year, and of its disbursement, on forms prescribed by the Secretary of Agriculture. (May 8, 1914, c. 79, § 4, 38 Stat. 374.)

345. State to replace funds misapplied, etc.; restrictions on use of funds; reports by colleges.—If any portion of the moneys received by the designated officer of any State for the support and maintenance of cooperative agricultural extension work, as provided in sections 341 to 348, inclusive, of this chapter, shall by any action or contingency be diminished or lost, or be misapplied, it shall be replaced by said State to which it belongs, and until so replaced no subsequent appropriation shall be apportioned or paid to said State, and no portion of said moneys shall be applied, directly or indirectly, to the purchase, erection, preservation, or repair of any building or buildings, or the purchase or rental of land, or in college-course teaching, lectures in colleges, promoting agricultural trains, or any other purpose not specified in sections 341 to 348, inclusive, of this chapter, and not more than 5 per centum of each annual appropriation shall be applied to the printing and distribution of publications. It shall be the duty of each of said colleges annually, on or before the 1st day of January, to make to the governor of the State in which it is located a full and detailed report of its operations in the direction of extension work as defined in sections 341 to 348, inclusive, of this chapter, including a detailed statement of receipts and expenditures from all sources for this purpose, a copy of which report shall be sent to the Secretary of Agriculture and to the Secretary of the Treasury of the United States. (May 8, 1914, c. 79, § 5, 38 Stat. 374.)

346. Ascertainment and certification of amounts due States; certificates withheld from States; appeal to Congress.—On or before the 1st day of July in each year the Secretary of Agriculture shall ascertain and certify to the Secretary of the Treasury as to each State whether it is entitled to receive its share of the annual appropriation for cooperative agricultural extension work under sections 341 to 348, inclusive, of this chapter, and the amount which it is entitled to receive. If the Secretary of Agriculture shall withhold a certificate from any State of its appropriation, the facts and reasons therefor shall be reported to the President, and the amount involved shall be kept separate in the Treasury until the expiration of the Congress next succeeding a session of the legislature of any State from which a certificate has been withheld, in order that the State may, if it should so desire, appeal to Congress from the determination of the Secretary of Agriculture. If the next Congress shall not direct such sum to be paid, it shall be covered into the Treasury. (May 8, 1914, c. 79, § 6, 38 Stat. 374.)

347. Reports to Congress by Secretary of Agriculture.—The Secretary of Agriculture shall make an annual report to Congress of the receipts, expenditures, and results of the cooperative agricultural extension work in all of the States receiving the benefits of sections 341 to 348, inclusive, of this chapter, and also whether the appropriation of any State has been withheld; and if so, the reasons therefor. (May 8, 1914, c. 79, § 7, 38 Stat. 374.)

348. Power to amend, repeal, etc., reserved.—Congress may at any time alter, amend, or repeal any or all of the provisions of sections 341 to 348, inclusive, of this chapter. (May 8, 1914, c. 79, § 8, 38 Stat. 374.)

366. Annual reports by stations to governors.
367. Secretary to prescribe form of financial report by stations and to coordinate departmental work with that of stations.
368. General advice and assistance by Secretary.
369. General annual appropriation for stations.
370. Additional appropriation.
371. Legislative assent to grant.
372. Governor's assent when legislature not in session.
373. Time and manner of payments; reports of expenditures to Secretary.
374. Replacement by State, etc., of moneys misapplied.
375. Use of funds for purchase, repairs, etc., of buildings, or for purchase or rental of lands, restricted.
376. Certification of amounts due States, etc.; withholding certificate; appeal to Congress.
377. Unexpended part of annual appropriation.
378. Stations established separate from colleges; agricultural college given preference over other colleges.
379. Relation of college to State, etc., unaffected.
380. Report to Congress by Secretary.
381. Expenditures by Secretary in administration of chapter.
382. Power to amend, repeal, etc., reserved.
383. Payment to Georgia Experiment Station authorized.
384. Card index of agricultural literature; copies to be furnished by Secretary.

Section 361. Secretary of Agriculture to administer chapter.—The Secretary of Agriculture is charged with the proper administration of this chapter. (Feb. 24, 1925, c. 308, § 4, 43 Stat. 971.)

362. Authorization of agricultural experiment stations; division of appropriation between colleges of same State.—In order to aid in acquiring and diffusing among the people of the United States useful and practical information on subjects connected with agriculture, and to promote scientific investigation and experiment respecting the principles and applications of agricultural science, there shall be established, under direction of the college or colleges or agricultural department of colleges in each State or Territory established, or which hereafter may be established, in accordance with the provisions of sections 301 to 308 inclusive of chapter 13 of this title, a department to be known and designated as an "agricultural experiment station": Provided, That in any State or Territory in which two such colleges have been or may be so established the appropriation hereinafter in this chapter made to such State or Territory shall be equally divided between such colleges, unless the legislature of such State or Territory shall otherwise direct. (Mar. 2, 1887, c. 314, § 1, 24 Stat. 440.)

363. General scope of researches and experiments.—It shall be the object and duty of agricultural experiment stations to conduct original researches or verify experiments on the physiology of plants and animals; the diseases to which they are severally subject, with the remedies for the same; the chemical composition of useful plants at their different stages of growth; the comparative advantages of rotative cropping as pursued under a varying series of crops; the capacity of new plants or trees for acclimation; the analysis of soils and water; the chemical composition of manures, natural or artificial, with experiments designed to test their comparative effects on crops of different kinds; the adaptation and value of grasses and forage plants; the composition and digestibility of the different kinds of food for domestic animals; the scientific and economic questions involved in the production of butter and cheese; and such other researches or experiments bearing directly on the agricultural industry of the United States as may in each case be deemed advisable, having due regard to the varying conditions and needs of the respective States or Territories. (Mar. 2, 1887, c. 314, § 2, 24 Stat. 440.)

364. Examination of soils.—As far as practicable, all agricultural experiment stations shall devote a portion of their work to the examination and classification of the soils of their respective States and Territories, with a view to securing more extended knowledge and better development of their agricultural capabilities. (Mar. 2, 1889, c. 373, 25 Stat. 840.)

365. Issuance and mailing by stations of bulletins or reports; free postage.—Bulletins or reports of progress shall be published at agricultural experiment stations at least once in three months, one copy of which shall be sent to each newspaper in the States or Territories in which they are respectively located, and to such individuals actually engaged in farming as may request the same, and as far as the means of the station will permit. Such bulletins or reports and the annual reports of said stations shall be transmitted in the mails of the United States free of charge for postage, under such regulations as the Postmaster General may from time to time prescribe. (Mar. 2, 1887, c. 314, § 4, 24 Stat. 441.)

366. Annual reports by stations to governors.—It shall be the duty of agricultural experiment stations, annually, on or before the 1st day of February, to make to the governor of the State or Territory in which it is located a full and detailed report of its operations, including a statement of receipts and expenditures, a copy of which report shall be sent to each of said stations, to the Secretary of Agriculture, and to the Secretary of the Treasury of the United States. (Feb. 24, 1925, c. 308, § 3, 43 Stat. 971.)

367. Secretary to prescribe form of financial report by stations and to coordinate departmental work with that of stations.—The Secretary of Agriculture shall prescribe the form of the annual financial statement required under this chapter, ascertain whether the expenditures are in accordance with its provisions, coordinate the work of the Department of Agriculture with that of the State agricultural colleges and experiment stations in the lines authorized in this chapter, and make report thereon to Congress. (Feb. 10, 1925, c. 200, 43 Stat. 824.)

368. General advice and assistance by Secretary.—In order to secure, as far as practicable, uniformity of methods and results in the work of agricultural experiment stations, it shall be the duty of the Secretary of Agriculture to furnish forms, as far as practicable, for the tabulation of results of investigation or experiments; to indicate, from time to time, such lines of inquiry as to him shall seem most important; and, in general, to furnish such advice and assistance as will best promote the purposes of this chapter. (Mar. 2, 1887, c. 314, § 3, 24 Stat. 441.)

369. General annual appropriation for stations.—There shall be, and hereby is, annually appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to be paid as hereinafter provided, to each State and Territory, for the endowment and maintenance of agricultural experiment stations established prior to March 16, 1906, or which may thereafter be established in accordance with the provisions of this chapter $30,000, to be applied only to paying the necessary expenses of conducting original researches or experiments bearing directly on the agricultural industry of the United States, having due regard to the varying conditions and needs of the respective States or Territories. (Mar. 16, 1906, c. 951, § 1, 34 Stat. 63.)

370. Additional appropriation.—For the more complete endowment and maintenance of agricultural experiment stations, established prior to February 24, 1925, or which may thereafter be established, in accordance with the provisions of this chapter there is hereby authorized to be appropriated, in addition to the amounts received on February 24, 1925, by such agricultural experiment stations the sum of $20,000 for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1926; $30,000 for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1927; $40,000 for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1928; $50,000 for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1929; $60,000 for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1930; and $60,000 for each fiscal year thereafter, to be paid to each State and Territory; and the Secretary of Agriculture shall include the additional sums above authorized to be appropriated in the annual estimates of the Department of Agriculture, or in a separate estimate, as he may deem best. The funds appropriated pursuant to this section shall be applied only to paying the necessary expenses of conducting investigations or making experiments bearing directly on the production, manufacture, preparation, use, distribution, and marketing of agricultural products and including such scientific researches as have for their purpose the establishment and maintenance of a permanent and efficient agricultural industry, and such economic and sociological investigations as have for their purpose the development and improvement of the rural home and rural life, and for printing and disseminating the results of said researches. (Feb. 24, 1925, c. 308, § 1, 43 Stat. 970.)

371. Legislative assent to grant.—The grants of moneys authorized by this chapter are made subject to the legislative assent of the several States and Territories to the purposes of said grants: Provided, That payment of such installments of the appropriations in this chapter made as shall become due to any State before the adjournment of the regular session of its legislature meeting next after February 4, 1925, shall be made upon the assent of the governor thereof duly certified to the Secretary of the Treasury. (Feb. 4, 1925, c. 308, § 2, 43 Stat. 971.)

372. Governor's assent when legislature not in session.—As to such installments of the appropriations as may be due June 7, 1888, or may thereafter become due, when the legislature may not be in session, the governor of the State or Territory to be affected thereby may make the required assent, and upon a duly certified copy thereof to the Secretary of the Treasury he shall cause the same to be paid in the manner provided in this chapter until the termination of the next regular session of the legislature of such State or Territory. (June 7, 1888, c. 373, 25 Stat. 176.)

373. Time and manner of payments; reports of expenditures to Secretary.—The sums by this chapter authorized to be appropriated to the States and Territories for the endowment and support of agricultural experiment stations shall be annually paid in equal quarterly payments on the 1st day of January, April, July, and October of each year by the Secretary of the Treasury upon a warrant of the Secretary of Agriculture out of the Treasury of the United States, to the treasurer or other officer duly appointed by the governing boards of such agricultural experiment stations to receive the same and such officers shall be required to report to the Secretary of Agriculture on or before the 1st day of September of each year a detailed statement of the amount so received and of its disbursement on schedules prescribed by the Secretary of Agriculture. (Feb. 24, 1925, c. 308, § 2, 43 Stat. 971.)

374. Replacement by State, etc., of moneys misapplied.—If any portion of the moneys received by the designated officer of any State or Territory for the endowment, support, and maintenance of agricultural experiment stations as provided in this chapter shall by any action or contingency be diminished or lost or be misapplied, it shall be replaced by said State or Territory to which it belongs, and until so replaced no subsequent appropriation shall be apportioned or paid to such State or Territory. (Feb. 24, 1925, c. 308, § 3, 43 Stat. 971.)

375. Use of funds for purchase, repairs, etc., of buildings, or for purchase or rental of lands, restricted.—No portion of the appropriation authorized by section 369 of this chapter exceeding 5 per centum of each annual appropriation shall be applied, directly or indirectly, under any pretense whatever, to the purchase, erection, preservation, or repair of any building or buildings, or to the purchase or rental of land. No portion of the appropriation authorized by section 370 of this chapter exceeding 10 per centum of each annual appropriation shall be applied directly or indirectly, under any pretense whatever, to the purchase, erection, preservation, or repair of any building or buildings or to the purchase or rental of land. (Mar. 16, 1906, c. 951, § 3, 34 Stat. 63; Feb. 24, 1925, c. 308, § 3, 43 Stat. 971.)

376. Certification of amounts due States, etc.; withholding certificate; appeal to Congress.—On or before the 1st day of July in each year the Secretary of Agriculture shall ascertain and certify to the Secretary of the Treasury as to each State and Territory whether it is complying with the provisions of this chapter and is entitled to receive its share of the annual appropriations for agricultural experiment stations under this chapter and the amount which thereupon each is entitled, respectively, to receive. If the Secretary of Agriculture shall withhold from any State or Territory a certificate of its appropriation, the facts and reasons therefor shall be reported to the President and the amount involved shall be kept separate in the Treasury until the close of the next Congress in order that the State or Territory may, if it shall so desire, appeal to Congress from the determination of the Secretary of Agriculture. If the next Congress shall not direct such sum to be paid, it shall be covered into the Treasury. (Feb. 24, 1925, c. 308, § 4, 43 Stat. 971.)

377. Unexpended part of annual appropriation.—Whenever it shall appear to the Secretary of the Treasury from the annual statement of receipts and expenditures of any agricultural experiment station that a portion of the preceding annual appropriation remains unexpended, such amount shall be deducted from the next succeeding annual appropriation to such station, in order that the amount of money appropriated to any station shall not exceed the amount actually and necessarily required for its maintenance and support. (Mar. 2, 1887, c. 314, § 6, 24 Stat. 441.)

378. Stations established separate from colleges; agricultural college given preference over other colleges.—In States having colleges entitled to the benefits of this chapter and having also agricultural experiment stations established by law separate from said colleges, such States shall be authorized to apply such benefits to experiments at stations so established by such States; and in case any State shall have established under the provisions of sections 301 to 308 of this chapter an agricultural department or experimental station, in connection with any university, college, or institution not distinctly an agricultural college or school, and such State shall have established or shall hereafter establish a separate agricultural college or school, which shall have connected therewith an experimental farm or station, the legislature of such State may apply in whole or in part the appropriation by this chapter made, to such separate agricultural college or school, and no legislature shall by contract express or implied disable itself from so doing. (Mar. 2, 1887, c. 314, § 8, 24 Stat. 441.)

379. Relation of college to State, etc., unaffected.—Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to impair or modify the legal relation existing between any of the colleges affected thereby and the government of the States or Territories in which they are respectively located. (Mar. 2, 1887, c. 314, § 7, 24 Stat. 441.)

380. Report to Congress by Secretary.—The Secretary of Agriculture shall make an annual report to Congress on the receipts and expenditures and work of the agricultural experiment stations in all of the States and Territories, and also whether the appropriation of any State or Territory has been withheld; and if so, the reason therefor. (Feb. 24, 1925, c. 308, § 5, 43 Stat. 972.)

381. Expenditures by Secretary in administration of chapter.—The Secretary of Agriculture is hereby authorized to employ such assistants, clerks, and other persons as he may deem necessary, in the city of Washington and elsewhere, and to incur such other expenses for office fixtures and supplies, stationary, traveling, freight, and express charges, illustration of the Experiment Station Record, bulletins and reports, as he may find essential in carrying out the objects of this chapter. (Mar. 2, 1901, c. 805, 31 Stat. 935.)

382. Power to amend, repeal, etc., reserved.—Congress may at any time amend, suspend, or repeal any and all of the provisions of this chapter. (Feb. 24, 1925, c. 308, § 6, 43 Stat. 972.)

383. Payment to Georgia Experiment Station authorized.—The Secretary of Agriculture is hereby authorized and directed to certify to the Secretary of the Treasury for payment, and the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay all appropriations, to the Georgia Experiment Station, authorized by this chapter in accordance with the Act of the General Assembly of Georgia, approved December 29, 1888, establishing the Georgia Experiment Station, and the Act of August 18, 1906 (Georgia laws, 1906, p. 1161): Provided, That nothing herein shall be construed as limiting the authority of the Secretary of Agriculture over and respecting the supervision of the operation of the said Georgia Experiment Station as set forth in this chapter. (Oct. 1, 1918, c. 178, 40 Stat. 998.)

384. Card index of agricultural literature; copies to be furnished by Secretary.—The Secretary of Agriculture may furnish to such institutions or individuals as may care to buy them copies of the card index of agricultural literature prepared by the Department of Agriculture in connection with its administration of this chapter, and charge for the same a price covering the additional expenses involved in the preparation of these copies, the money received from such sales to be deposited in the Treasury of the United States as miscellaneous receipts. (Mar. 4, 1915, c. 144, 38 Stat. 1109.)

Chapter 15.—BUREAU OF ANIMAL INDUSTRY.

Sec.
391. Establishment of bureau; appointment of chief; general duties.
392. Sale or exchange of animals not needed; disposition of moneys.
393. Sale of pathological and zoological specimens; disposition of moneys.
394. Overtime of employees engaged in enforcement of Meat Inspection Act.

Section 391. Establishment of bureau; appointment of chief; general duties.—There shall be in the Department of Agriculture a Bureau of Animal Industry. The Secretary of Agriculture is authorized to appoint a chief thereof, who shall be a competent veterinary surgeon, and whose duty it shall be to investigate and report upon the condition of the domestic animals of the United States, their protection and use, and also inquire into and report the causes of contagious, infectious, and communicable diseases among them, and the means for the prevention and cure of the same, and to collect such information on these subjects as shall be valuable to the agricultural and commercial interests of the country. (May 29, 1884, c. 60, § 1, 23 Stat. 31.)

392. Sale or exchange of animals not needed; disposition of moneys.—The Secretary of Agriculture is authorized to sell in the open market or to exchange for other breeding animals or animal products to the best advantage, without the usual condemnation proceedings and public auction, such animals or animal products produced or purchased under the appropriations made by Congress for the use of the Bureau of Animal Industry as may not be needed in the work of that bureau: Provided, That all moneys received from the sale of such animals or animal products, or as a bonus in the exchange of the same, shall be deposited in the Treasury as miscellaneous receipts. (Aug. 10, 1912, c. 284, 37 Stat. 274.)

393. Sale of pathological and zoological specimens; disposition of moneys.—The Secretary of Agriculture is authorized to prepare and sell at cost such pathological and zoological specimens as he may deem of scientific or educational value to scientists or others engaged in the work of hygiene and sanitation: Provided, That all moneys received from the sale of such specimens shall be deposited in the Treasury as miscellaneous receipts. (Mar. 4, 1913, c. 145, 37 Stat. 837.)

394. Overtime of employees engaged in enforcement of Meat Inspection Act.—The Secretary of Agriculture is authorized, in his discretion, to pay employees of the Bureau of Animal Industry employed in establishments subject to the provisions of the Meat Inspection Act constituting sections 71 to 93, inclusive, of chapter 4 of Title Food and Drugs Act, for all overtime work performed at such establishments, at such rates as he may determine, and to accept from such establishments wherein such overtime work is performed reimbursement for any sums paid out by him for such overtime work. (July 24, 1919, c. 26, 41 Stat. 241.)

Chapter 16.—BUREAU OF DAIRYING.

Sec.
401. Establishment of bureau.
402. Chief of bureau; appointment and duties.
403. Transfer of activities of Department of Agriculture to bureau; employment of clerks, etc.
404. Appropriation for bureau authorized.

Section 401. Establishment of bureau.—There is established in the Department of Agriculture a bureau to be known as the Bureau of Dairying. (May 29, 1924, c. 208, § 1, 43 Stat. 243.)

402. Chief of bureau; appointment and duties.—A Chief of the Bureau of Dairying shall be appointed by the Secretary of Agriculture, who shall be subject to the general direction of the Secretary of Agriculture. He shall devote his time to the investigation of the dairy industry, and the dissemination of information for the promotion of the dairy industry. (May 29, 1924, c. 208, § 2, 43 Stat. 243.)

403. Transfer of activities of Department of Agriculture to bureau; employment of clerks, etc.—For the purpose of enabling the Secretary of Agriculture and the Chief of the Bureau of Dairying to carry out the purposes of this chapter, the Secretary of Agriculture is hereby authorized to transfer to the Bureau of Dairying such activities of the Department of Agriculture as he may designate which relate primarily to the dairy industry, and to employ such additional persons in the city of Washington and elsewhere, as may be necessary. (May 29, 1924, c. 208, § 3, 43 Stat. 243.)

404. Appropriation for bureau authorized.—For the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this chapter and the activities of the Bureau of Dairying, such sums of money as Congress may deem necessary are hereby authorized to be appropriated. (May 29, 1924, c. 208, § 4, 43 Stat. 243.)

Chapter 17.—MISCELLANEOUS MATTERS.

Sec.
411. Establishment of Bureau of Agricultural Economics; transfer of powers.
412. July acreage cotton crop report.
413. Semimonthly cotton crop reports.
414. Certification of condition, etc., of agricultural products shipped in interstate commerce; certificate as evidence.
415. Purchase of seeds and plants for distribution.
416. Letting contract for packeting, etc., of seeds, etc., for distribution.
417. Distribution of farmers' bulletins.
418. Annual report by Secretary on work of agricultural experiment stations and of college extension work; publication and distribution.
419. Sale by Secretary of Agriculture of products of agricultural experiment stations in Alaska and insular possessions; disposition of moneys.
420. Power to administer oaths, examine witnesses, or require production of books, etc.

Section 411. Establishment of Bureau of Agricultural Economics; transfer of powers.—The powers conferred prior to May 11, 1922, and the duties imposed by law on the Bureau of Markets, Bureau of Markets and Crop Estimates, and the Office of Farm Management and Farm Economics of the Department of Agriculture shall be exercised and performed by the Bureau of Agricultural Economics. (May 11, 1922, c. 185, 42 Stat. 532.)

412. July acreage cotton crop report.—The Secretary of Agriculture is directed to cause the Bureau of Agricultural Economics of the Department of Agriculture to issue a report, on or about the first Monday in July of each year, showing by States and in total the number of acres of cotton then in cultivation in the United States. (May 27, 1912, c. 135, § 1, 37 Stat. 118.)

413. Semimonthly cotton crop reports.—The Secretary of Agriculture shall discontinue acreage reports based upon farmers' intention to plant cotton and shall cause to be issued between July 1 and December 1 semimonthly reports as to the condition, progress, and probable production of cotton. No such report shall be approved and released by the Secretary of Agriculture until it shall have been passed upon by a cotton crop reporting committee or board consisting of five members or more to be designated by him, not less than three of which shall be supervisory field statisticians of the Department of Agriculture located in different sections of the cotton-growing States, experienced in estimating cotton production and who have first-hand knowledge of the condition of the cotton crop based on recent field observations, and a majority of which committee or board shall be familiar with the methods and practices of producing cotton: Provided, That the foregoing reports as of the following dates, August 1, August 16, September 1, September 16, October 1, October 18, November 1, November 14, and December 1, shall be released simultaneously with the cotton-ginning reports of the Bureau of the Census relating to the same dates, the two reports to be issued from the same place at eleven o'clock antemeridian of the eighth day following that to which the respective reports relate. When such date of release falls on Sunday or a legal holiday, the report shall be issued at eleven o'clock antemeridian of the next succeeding workday. (May 3, 1924, c. 149, § 1, 43 Stat. 115.)

414. Certification of condition, etc., of agricultural products shipped in interstate commerce; certificate as evidence.—The Secretary of Agriculture is authorized to investigate and certify to shippers and other interested parties the class, quality, and condition of cotton and fruits, vegetables, poultry, butter, hay, and other perishable farm products when offered for interstate shipment or when received at such important central markets as the Secretary of Agriculture may from time to time designate, or at points which may be conveniently reached therefrom, under such rules and regulations as he may prescribe, including payment of such fees as will be reasonable and as nearly as may be to cover the cost for the service rendered: Provided, That certificates issued by the authorized agents of the department shall be received in all courts of the United States as prima facie evidence of the truth of the statements therein contained. (Feb. 10, 1925, c. 200, 43 Stat. 844.)

415. Purchase of seeds and plants for distribution.—Purchase and distribution by the Secretary of Agriculture of vegetable, field, and flower seeds, plants, shrubs, vines, bulbs, and cuttings shall be of the freshest and best obtainable varieties and adapted to general cultivation. (Apr. 25, 1896, c. 140, § 1, 29 Stat. 106.)

416. Letting contract for packeting, etc., of seeds, etc., for distribution.—The Secretary of Agriculture, after due advertisement and on competitive bids, is authorized to award the contract for the supplying of printed packets and envelopes and the packeting, assembling, and mailing of the seeds, bulbs, shrubs, vines, cuttings, and plants, or any part thereof, for a period of not more than five years nor less than one year, if by such action he can best protect the interests of the United States. (May 11, 1922, c. 185, 42 Stat. 517.)

417. Distribution of farmers' bulletins.—In the distribution of farmers' bulletins, which shall be adapted to the interests of the people of the different sections of the country, an equal proportion of four-fifths shall be delivered to or sent out under the addressed franks furnished by Senators, Representatives, and Delegates in Congress, as such Senators, Representatives, or Delegates shall direct: Provided, That the Secretary of Agriculture shall notify Senators, Representatives, and Delegates in Congress of the title and character of each such bulletin, with the total number to which each Senator, Representative, and Delegate may be entitled for such distribution; and on the face of the envelope inclosing said bulletins shall be printed the title of each bulletin contained therein: Provided further, That all such bulletins included in the quotas of Senators, Representatives, or Delegates not called for on or before the 31st day of May in each fiscal year shall revert to the Secretary of Agriculture, and be available to him, either for miscellaneous distribution, or in making up congressional quotas for the next fiscal year. (June 30, 1906, c. 3913, 34 Stat. 690.)

418. Annual report by Secretary on work of agricultural experiment stations and of college extension work; publication and distribution.—There shall be prepared by the Department of Agriculture an annual report on the work and expenditures of the agricultural experiment stations established under chapter 14 of this title, on the work and expenditures of the Department of Agriculture in connection therewith, and on the cooperative agricultural extension work and expenditures of the Department of Agriculture and of agricultural colleges under sections 341 to 348, inclusive, of chapter 13 of this title, and there shall be printed annually eight thousand copies of said report, of which one thousand copies shall be for the use of the Senate, two thousand copies for the use of the House of Representatives, and five thousand copies for the use of the Department of Agriculture. (Mar. 4, 1915, c. 144, 38 Stat. 1110.)

419. Sale by Secretary of Agriculture of products of agricultural experiment stations in Alaska and insular possessions; disposition of moneys.—The Secretary of Agriculture is authorized to sell such products as are obtained on the land belonging to the agricultural experiment stations in Alaska, Hawaii, Porto Rico, the island of Guam, and the Virgin Islands of the United States, and the amount obtained from the sale thereof shall be covered into the Treasury of the United States as miscellaneous receipts. (Feb. 10, 1925, c. 200, 43 Stat. 824.)

420. Power to administer oaths, examine witnesses, or require production of books, etc.—In the performance of the duties required of the Bureau of Economics in the administration or enforcement of provisions of Acts (United States Cotton Futures Act, chapter 13 of Title 26; United States Grain Standards Act, chapter 3 of this title; United States Warehouse Act, chapter 10 of this title; Standard Container Act, Title 15, Commerce and Trade, sections 251 to 256, inclusive, and the Acts making annual appropriations for the Department of Agriculture) relating to the Department of Agriculture, the Secretary of Agriculture, or any representative specifically authorized in writing by him for the purpose, shall have power to administer oaths, examine witnesses, and call for the production of books and papers. (July 24, 1919, c. 26, 41 Stat. 267.)

14. Release of citizens imprisoned by foreign governments.
15. Expatriation; right of.
16. Same; during time of war.
17. Same; presumption.
18. Repatriation of expatriated citizens.

Section 1. Citizens; who are.—All persons born in the United States and not subject to any foreign power are declared to be citizens of the United States. (R. S. § 1992.)

2. Same; persons born in Oregon.—All persons born in the district of country formerly known as the Territory of Oregon, and subject to the jurisdiction of the United States on the 18th May, 1872, are citizens in the same manner as if born elsewhere in the United States. (R. S. § 1995.)

3. Same; Indians; Indians serving in Military or Naval Establishments during World War.—All Indians born within the territorial limits of the United States are declared to be citizens of the United States. The granting of citizenship to Indians shall not in any manner affect the right of any Indian to tribal or other property.

Every American Indian, who served in the Military or Naval Establishments of the United States during the war against the Imperial German Government, and who has received or may receive an honorable discharge, if not a citizen on November 6, 1919, and if he so desires, shall, on proof of such discharge and after proper identification before a court of competent jurisdiction, and without other examination, except as prescribed by said court, be granted full citizenship with all the privileges pertaining thereto, without in any manner impairing or otherwise affecting the property rights, individual or tribal, of any such Indian, or his interest in tribal or other Indian property. (R. S. § 2312; Feb. 8, 1887, c. 119, § 6, 24 Stat. 390; Mar. 3, 1901, c. 868, 31 Stat. 1447; May 8, 1906, c. 2348, 34 Stat. 182; Nov. 6, 1919, c. 95, 41 Stat. 350; Mar. 3, 1921, c. 119, § 3, 41 Stat. 1250; June 2, 1924, c. 233, 43 Stat. 253.)

4. Same; Hawaiians.—All persons who were citizens of the Republic of Hawaii on August 12, 1898, are declared to be citizens of the United States. (Apr. 30, 1900, c. 339, § 4, 31 Stat. 141.)

5. Same; Porto Ricans.—All citizens of Porto Rico, as defined by section 733 of Title 48, and all natives of Porto Rico who were temporarily absent from that island on April 11, 1899, and have since returned and are permanently residing in that island, and are not citizens of any foreign country, are declared, and shall be deemed and held to be, citizens of the United States: Provided, That any person hereinbefore described retained his political status held on March 2, 1917, by making a declaration, under oath, of his decision to do so within six months from said date before the district court in the district in which he resided, the declaration to be in form as follows:

"I, , being duly sworn, hereby declare my intention not to become a citizen of the United States as provided in the Act of Congress conferring United States citizenship upon citizens of Porto Rico and certain natives permanently residing in said island."

In the case of any such person who may have been absent from the island during said six months the term of this proviso were availed of by transmitting a declaration, under oath, in the form herein provided within six months from March 2, 1917, to the executive secretary of Porto Rico. Any person who was born in Porto Rico of an alien parent and was permanently residing in that island may, if of full age, within six months from March 2, 1917, or if a minor, upon reaching his majority or within one year thereafter, make a sworn declaration of allegiance to the United States before the United States District Court for Porto Rico, setting forth therein all the facts connected with his or her birth and residence in Porto Rico and accompanying due proof thereof, and from and after the making of such declaration shall be considered to be a citizen of the United States. (Mar. 2, 1917, c. 145, § 5, 39 Stat. 953.)

6. Same; children of citizens born outside of United States.—All children born out of the limits and jurisdiction of the United States, whose fathers may be at the time of their birth citizens of the United States, are declared to be citizens of the United States; but the right of citizenship shall not descend to children whose fathers never resided in the United States. All such children who continue to reside outside the United States shall, in order to receive the protection of this Government, be required upon reaching the age of eighteen years to record at an American consulate their intention to become residents and remain citizens of the United States and shall be further required to take the oath of allegiance to the United States upon attaining their majority. Duplicates of any evidence, registration, or other acts required by this section shall be filed with the Department of State for record. (R. S. § 1993; Mar. 2, 1907, c. 2534, §§ 6, 7, 34 Stat. 1229.)

7. Citizenship of children of persons naturalized under certain laws.—The children of persons who have been duly naturalized under any law of the United States, or who, previous to the passing of any law on that subject, by the Government of the United States, may have become citizens of any one of the States, under the laws thereof, being under the age of twenty-one years at the time of the naturalization of their parents, shall, if dwelling in the United States, be considered as citizens thereof; and the children of persons who now are, or have been, citizens of the United States, shall, though born out of the limits and jurisdiction of the United States, be considered as citizens thereof. (R. S. § 2172.)

8. Same; children, born abroad, of alien parents, by naturalization of parent.—A child born without the United States of alien parents shall be deemed a citizen of the United States by virtue of the naturalization of or resumption of American citizenship by the parent, where such naturalization or resumption takes place during the minority of such child. The citizenship of such minor child shall begin at the time such minor child begins to reside permanently in the United States. (Mar. 2, 1907, c. 2534, § 5, 34 Stat. 1229.)

9. Same; citizenship of women citizens of United States as affected by marriage; marriage to alien ineligible to citizenship; citizenship at termination of marriage status; effect of continuous residence outside of United States; expatriation laws not affected.—A woman citizen of the United States shall not cease to be a citizen of the United States by reason of her marriage, unless she makes a formal renunciation of her citizenship before a court having jurisdiction over naturalization of aliens: Provided, That any woman citizen who marries an alien ineligible to citizenship shall cease to be a citizen of the United States. If at the termination of the marital status she is a citizen of the United States she shall retain her citizenship regardless of her residence. If during the continuance of the marital status she resides continuously for two years in a foreign State of which her husband is a citizen or subject, or for five years continuously outside the United States, she shall thereafter be subject to the same presumption as is a naturalized citizen of the United States under section 17 of this title. Nothing herein shall be construed to repeal or amend the provisions of section 15 of this title or of section 17 with reference to expatriation. The repeal of section 8 of Act March 2, 1907, chapter 2534, Thirty-fourth Statutes, page 1228, which provided that "any American woman who marries a foreigner shall take the nationality of her husband," and that "at the termination of the marital relation she may resume her American citizenship, if abroad, by registering as an American citizen within one year with a consul of the United States, or by returning to reside in the United States, or, if residing in the United States at the termination of the marital relation, by continuing to reside therein," shall not restore citizenship lost thereunder, nor terminate citizenship resumed thereunder; and any woman who had resumed thereunder citizenship lost by marriage shall, from September 22, 1922, have for all purposes the citizenship status as immediately preceding her marriage. (Sept. 22, 1922, c. 411, §§ 3, 7, 42 Stat. 1022.)

10. Same; women marrying citizens; effect of repeal of former law.—The repeal of section 1994 of the Revised Statutes of 1874, providing that "any woman who is now or may hereafter be married to a citizen of the United States, and who might herself be lawfully naturalized, shall be deemed a citizen", shall not terminate citizenship acquired or retained thereunder. Nor shall the repeal of section 4 of Act March 2, 1907, chapter 2534, Thirty-fourth Statutes, page 1229, providing that "any foreign woman who acquires American citizenship by marriage to an American shall be assumed to retain the same after the termination of the marital relation if she continue to reside in the United States, unless she makes formal renunciation thereof before a court having jurisdiction to naturalize aliens, or if she resides abroad she may retain her citizenship by registering as such before a United States consul within one year after the termination of such marital relation", terminate citizenship acquired or retained thereunder, nor restore citizenship lost thereunder. (Sept. 22, 1922, c. 411, § 6, 42 Stat. 1022.)

11. Forfeiture of citizenship for desertion or avoidance of draft.—Every person who deserts the military or naval service of the United States, or who, being duly enrolled, departs the jurisdiction of the district in which he is enrolled, or goes beyond the limits of the United States, with intent to avoid any draft into the military or naval service, lawfully ordered, shall be liable to all the penalties and forfeitures of section 12 of this title. The provisions of this section and said section 12 shall not apply to any person deserting the military or naval service of the United States in time of peace. The loss of rights of citizenship heretofore imposed by law upon deserters from the military or naval service may be mitigated or remitted by the President where the offense was committed in time of peace and where the exercise of such clemency will not be prejudicial to the public interests. (R. S. § 1998; Aug. 22, 1912, c. 336, § 1, 37 Stat. 356.)

12. Same; Civil War.—All persons who deserted the military or naval service of the United States and did not return thereto or report themselves to a provost marshal within sixty days after the issuance of the proclamation by the President, dated March 11, 1865, are deemed to have voluntarily relinquished and forfeited their rights of citizenship, as well as their right to become citizens; and such deserters shall be forever incapable of holding any office of trust or profit under the United States, or of exercising any rights of citizens thereof. No soldier or sailor, however, who faithfully served according to his enlistment until April 19, 1865, and who, without proper authority or leave first obtained, quit his command or refused to serve after that date, shall be held to be a deserter from the Army or Navy; and this section shall be construed solely as a removal of any disability such soldier or sailor may have incurred, by the loss of citizenship and of the right to hold office, in consequence of his desertion. (R. S. §§ 1996, 1997.)

13. Protection to naturalized citizens abroad.—All naturalized citizens of the United States, while in foreign countries, are entitled to and shall receive from this Government the same protection of persons and property which is accorded to native-born citizens. (R. S. § 2000.)

14. Release of citizens imprisoned by foreign governments.—Whenever it is made known to the President that any citizen of the United States has been unjustly deprived of his liberty by or under the authority of any foreign government, it shall be the duty of the President forthwith to demand of that government the reasons of such imprisonment; and if it appears to be wrongful and in violation of the rights of American citizenship, the President shall forthwith demand the release of such citizen, and if the release so demanded is unreasonably delayed or refused, the President shall use such means, not amounting to acts of war, as he may think necessary and proper to obtain or effectuate the release; and all the facts and proceedings relative thereto shall as soon as practicable be communicated by the President to Congress. (R. S. § 2001.)

15. Expatriation; right of.—Whereas the right of expatriation is a natural and inherent right of all people, indispensable to the enjoyment of the rights of life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness; and whereas in the recognition of this principle this Government has freely received emigrants from all nations, and invested them with the rights of citizenship; and whereas it is claimed that such American citizens, with their descendants, are subjects of foreign states, owing allegiance to the governments thereof; and whereas it is necessary to the maintenance of public peace that this claim of foreign allegiance should be promptly and finally disavowed: Therefore any declaration, instruction, opinion, order, or decision of any officer of the United States which denies, restricts, impairs, or questions the right of expatriation, is declared inconsistent with the fundamental principles of the Republic. (R. S. § 1999.)

16. Same; during time of war.—No American citizen shall be allowed to expatriate himself when the country is at war. (Mar. 2, 1907, c. 2534, § 2, 34 Stat. 1228.)

17. Same; presumption.—Any American citizen shall be deemed to have expatriated himself when he has been naturalized in any foreign State in conformity with its laws, or when he has taken an oath of allegiance to any foreign State.

When any naturalized citizen shall have resided for two years in the foreign State from which he came, or for five years in any other foreign State it shall be presumed that he has ceased to be an American citizen, and the place of his general abode shall be deemed his place of residence during said year. Such presumption may be overcome on the presentation of satisfactory evidence to a diplomatic or consular officer of the United States, under such rules and regulations as the Department of State may prescribe. Duplicates of any evidence, registration, or other acts required by this section shall be filed with the Department of State for record. (Mar. 2, 1907, c. 2534, §§ 2, 7, 34 Stat. 1229.)

18. Repatriation of expatriated citizens.—Any person who, while a citizen of the United States and during the World War in Europe, entered the military or naval service of any country at war with a country against whom the United States declared war, who shall be deemed to have lost his citizenship by reason of any oath or obligation taken by him for the purpose of entering such service, may resume his citizenship by taking the oath of allegiance to the United States prescribed by the naturalization law and regulations, and such oath may be taken before any court of the United States or of any State authorized by law to naturalize aliens or before any consul of the United States, and certified copies thereof shall be sent by such court or consul to the Department of State and the Bureau of Naturalization. (June 29, 1906, c. 3592, § 4, 34 Stat. 596; June 25, 1910, c. 401, § 3, 36 Stat. 830; May 9, 1918, c. 69, §§ 1-3, 40 Stat. 542-548.)

Chapter 2.—ELECTIVE FRANCHISE.

Sec.
31. Race, color, or previous condition not to affect right to vote.
32. Interference with freedom of elections.

Section 31. Race, color, or previous condition not to affect right to vote.—All citizens of the United States who are otherwise qualified by law to vote at any election by the people in any State, Territory, district, county, city, parish, township, school district, municipality, or other territorial subdivision, shall be entitled and allowed to vote at all such elections, without distinction of race, color, or previous condition of servitude; any constitution, law, custom, usage, or regulation of any State or Territory, or by or under its authority, to the contrary notwithstanding. (R. S. § 2004.)

32. Interference with freedom of elections.—No officer of the Army or Navy of the United States shall prescribe or fix, or attempt to prescribe or fix, by proclamation, order, or otherwise, the qualifications of voters in any State, or in any manner interfere with the freedom of any election in any State, or with the exercise of the free right of suffrage in any State. (R. S. § 2003.)

Chapter 3.—CIVIL RIGHTS.

Sec.
41. Equal rights under the law.
42. Property rights of citizens.
43. Civil action for deprivation of rights.
44. Exclusion of jurors on account of race or color.
45. Same; jurisdiction of prosecutions.
46. Same; review of proceedings.
47. (1) Conspiracies; preventing officer from performing duties. (2) Same; to intimidate party, witness or juror, or obstruct justice. (3) Same; to deprive citizen of rights or privileges.
48. Same; action for neglect to prevent.
49. Prosecution of violation of certain laws.
50. Commissioners; appointment of persons to execute warrants.
51. Marshal; to obey precepts; refusing to receive or execute process.
52. Fees; certain officers.
53. Same; persons appointed to execute process.
54. Speedy trial.
55. Aid of military and naval forces.
56. Peonage abolished.

Section 41. Equal rights under the law.—All persons within the jurisdiction of the United States shall have the same right in every State and Territory to make and enforce contracts, to sue, be parties, give evidence, and to the full and equal benefit of all laws and proceedings for the security of persons and property as is enjoyed by white citizens, and shall be subject to like punishment, pains, penalties, taxes, licenses, and exactions of every kind, and to no other. (R. S. § 1977.)

42. Property rights of citizens.—All citizens of the United States shall have the same right, in every State and Territory, as is enjoyed by white citizens thereof to inherit, purchase, lease, sell, hold, and convey real and personal property. (R. S. § 1978.)

43. Civil action for deprivation of rights.—Every person who, under color of any statute, ordinance, regulation, custom, or usage, of any State or Territory, subjects, or causes to be subjected, any citizen of the United States or other person within the jurisdiction thereof to the deprivation of any rights, privileges, or immunities secured by the Constitution and laws, shall be liable to the party injured in an action at law, suit in equity, or other proper proceeding for redress. (R. S. § 1979.)

44. Exclusion of jurors on account of race or color.—No citizen possessing all other qualifications which are or may be prescribed by law shall be disqualified for service as grand or petit juror in any court of the United States, or of any State, on account of race, color, or previous condition of servitude; and any officer or other person charged with any duty in the selection or summoning of jurors who shall exclude or fail to summon any citizen for the cause aforesaid shall, on conviction thereof, be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and be fined not more than $5,000. (Mar. 1, 1875, c. 114, § 4, 18 Stat. 336.)

45. Same; jurisdiction of prosecutions.—The district courts of the United States shall have, exclusively of the courts of the several States, cognizance of all crimes and offenses against, and violations of, the provisions of the preceding section. The district attorneys, marshals, and deputy marshals of the United States, and United States commissioners with powers of arresting and imprisoning or bailing offenders against the laws of the United States, are hereby specially authorized and required to institute proceedings against every person who shall violate the provisions of the preceding section, and cause him to be arrested and imprisoned or bailed, as the case may be, for trial before such court of the United States, or Territorial court, as by law has cognizance of the offense, and such district attorneys shall cause such proceedings to be prosecuted to their termination as in other cases. Nothing contained in this section shall be construed to deny or defeat any right of civil action accruing to any person, whether by reason of this act or otherwise; and any district attorney who shall willfully fail to institute and prosecute the proceedings herein required, shall, for every such offense, forfeit and pay the sum of $500 to the person aggrieved thereby, to be recovered by an action of debt, with full costs, and shall, on conviction thereof, be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and be fined not less than $1,000 nor more than $5,000. Judgment for the penalty in favor of the party aggrieved against any such district attorney, or a judgment upon an indictment against any such district attorney, shall be a bar to either prosecution respectively. (Mar. 1, 1875, c. 114, § 3, 18 Stat. 336.)

46. Same; review of proceedings.—All cases arising under the provisions of section 44 of this title in the courts of the United States shall be reviewable by the Supreme Court of the United States, without regard to the sum in controversy, under the same provisions and regulations as are provided by law for the review of other causes in said court. (Mar. 1, 1875, c. 114, § 5, 18 Stat. 337.)

47. (1) Conspiracies; preventing officer from performing duties.—If two or more persons in any State or Territory conspire to prevent, by force, intimidation, or threat, any person from accepting or holding any office, trust, or place of confidence under the United States, or from discharging any duties thereof; or to induce by like means any officer of the United States to leave any State, district, or place, where his duties as an officer are required to be performed, or to injure him in his person or property on account of his lawful discharge of the duties of his office, or while engaged in the lawful discharge thereof, or to injure his property so as to molest, interrupt, hinder, or impede him in the discharge of his official duties;

(2) Same; to intimidate party, witness or juror, or obstruct justice.—If two or more persons in any State or Territory conspire to deter, by force, intimidation, or threat, any party or witness in any court of the United States from attending such court, or from testifying to any matter pending therein, freely, fully, and truthfully, or to injure such party or witness in his person or property on account of his having so attended or testified, or to influence the verdict, presentment, or indictment of any grand or petit juror in any such court, or to injure such juror in his person or property on account of any verdict, presentment, or indictment lawfully assented to by him, or of his being or having been such juror; or if two or more persons conspire for the purpose of impeding, hindering, obstructing, or defeating, in any manner, the due course of justice in any State or Territory, with intent to deny to any citizen the equal protection of the laws, or to injure him or his property for lawfully enforcing, or attempting to enforce, the right of any person, or class of persons, to the equal protection of the laws;

(3) Same; to deprive citizen of rights or privileges.—If two or more persons in any State or Territory conspire or go in disguise on the highway or on the premises of another, for the purpose of depriving, either directly or indirectly, any person or class of persons of the equal protection of the laws, or of equal privileges and immunities under the laws; or for the purpose of preventing or hindering the constituted authorities of any State or Territory from giving or securing to all persons within such State or Territory the equal protection of the laws; or if two or more persons conspire to prevent by force, intimidation, or threat, any citizen who is lawfully entitled to vote, from giving his support or advocacy in a legal manner, toward or in favor of the election of any lawfully qualified person as an elector for President or Vice President, or as a Member of Congress of the United States; or to injure any citizen in person or property on account of such support or advocacy; in any case of conspiracy set forth in this section, if one or more persons engaged therein do, or cause to be done, any act in furtherance of the object of such conspiracy, whereby another is injured in his person or property, or deprived of having and exercising any right or privilege of a citizen of the United States, the party so injured or deprived may have an action for the recovery of damages, occasioned by such injury or deprivation, against any one or more of the conspirators. (R. S. § 1980.)

48. Same; action for neglect to prevent.—Every person who, having knowledge that any of the wrongs conspired to be done, and mentioned in the preceding section, are about to be committed, and having power to prevent or aid in preventing the commission of the same, neglects or refuses so to do, if such wrongful act be committed, shall be liable to the party injured, or his legal representatives, for all damages caused by such wrongful act, which such person by reasonable diligence could have prevented; and such damages may be recovered in an action on the case; and any number of persons guilty of such wrongful neglect or refusal may be joined as defendants in the action; and if the death of any party be caused by any such wrongful act and neglect, the legal representatives of the deceased shall have such action therefor, and may recover not exceeding $5,000 damages therein, for the benefit of the widow of the deceased, if there be one, and if there be no widow, then for the benefit of the next of kin of the deceased. But no action under the provisions of this section shall be sustained which is not commenced within one year after the cause of action has accrued. (R. S. § 1981.)

49. Prosecution of violation of certain laws.—The district attorneys, marshals, and deputy marshals, the commissioners appointed by the district and territorial courts, with power to arrest, imprison, or bail offenders, and every other officer who is especially empowered by the President, are authorized and required, at the expense of the United States, to institute prosecutions against all persons violating any of the provisions of chapter 3 of Title 18, or of sections 246, 428, 443 to 445 of said Title 18, or of section 51 of this title, and to cause such persons to be arrested, and imprisoned or bailed, for trial before the court of the United States or the territorial court having cognizance of the offense. (R. S. § 1982.)

50. Commissioners; appointment of persons to execute warrants.—The district courts of the United States and the district courts of the Territories, from time to time, shall increase the number of commissioners, so as to afford a speedy and convenient means for the arrest and examination of persons charged with the crimes referred to in the preceding section; and such commissioners are authorized and required to exercise all the powers and duties conferred on them herein with regard to such offenses in like manner as they are authorized by law to exercise with regard to other offenses against the laws of the United States. Said commissioners are empowered, within their respective counties, to appoint, in writing, under their hands, one or more suitable persons, from time to time, who shall execute all such warrants or other process as the commissioners may issue in the lawful performance of their duties, and the persons so appointed shall have authority to summon and call to their aid the bystanders or posse comitatus of the proper county, or such portion of the land or naval forces of the United States, or of the militia, as may be necessary to the performance of the duty with which they are charged; and such warrants shall run and be executed anywhere in the State or Territory within which they are issued. (R. S. §§ 1983, 1984.)

51. Marshal; to obey precepts; refusing to receive or execute process.—Every marshal and deputy marshal shall obey and execute all warrants or other process, when directed to him, issued under the provisions of the preceding section. Every marshal and deputy marshal who refuses to receive any warrant or other process when tendered to him, issued in pursuance of the provisions of this section or refuses or neglects to use all proper means diligently to execute the same, shall be liable to a fine in the sum of $1,000, for the benefit of the party aggrieved thereby. (R. S. §§ 1985, 5517.)

52. Fees; certain officers.—The district attorneys, marshals, their deputies, and the clerks of the courts of the United States and territorial courts shall be authorized to charge and collect, in cases under the foregoing sections the same fees as they are allowed to charge and collect for like services in other cases; and where the proceedings are before a commissioner he shall be entitled to a fee of $10 for his services in each case, inclusive of all services incident to the arrest and examination. (R. S. § 1986; Feb. 26, 1919, c. 49, § 1, 40 Stat. 1182; Feb. 11, 1921, c. 46, 41 Stat. 1099.)

53. Same; persons appointed to execute process.—Every person appointed to execute process under section 50 of this title shall be entitled to a fee of $5 for each party he may arrest and take before any commissioner, with such other fees as may be deemed reasonable by the commissioner for any additional services necessarily performed by him, such as attending at the examination, keeping the prisoner in custody, and providing him with food and lodging during his detention, and until the final determination of the commissioner; such fees to be made up in conformity with the fees usually charged by the officers of the courts of justice within the proper district or county, as near as may be practicable, and paid out of the Treasury of the United States on the certificate of the judge of the district within which the arrest is made, and to be recoverable from the defendant as part of the judgment in case of conviction. (R. S. § 1987.)

54. Speedy trial.—Whenever the President has reason to believe that offenses have been, or are likely to be committed against the provisions of chapter 3 of Title 18, or of sections 246, 428, 443 to 445, of said Title 18, or of section 51 of this title, within any judicial district, it shall be lawful for him, in his discretion, to direct the judge, marshal, and district attorney of such district to attend at such place within the district, and for such time as he may designate, for the purpose of the more speedy arrest and trial of persons so charged, and it shall be the duty of every judge or other officer, when any such requisition is received by him to attend at the place and for the time therein designated. (R. S. § 1988.)

55. Aid of military and naval forces.—It shall be lawful for the President of the United States, or such person as he may empower for that purpose, to employ such part of the land or naval forces of the United States, or of the militia, as may be necessary to aid in the execution of judicial process issued under any of the preceding sections, or as shall be necessary to prevent the violation and enforce the due execution of the provisions of this title. (R. S. § 1989.)

56. Peonage abolished.—The holding of any person to service or labor under the system known as peonage is abolished and forever prohibited in any Territory or State of the United States; and all acts, laws, resolutions, orders, regulations, or usages of any Territory or State, which have heretofore established, maintained, or enforced, or by virtue of which any attempt shall hereafter be made to establish, maintain, or enforce, directly or indirectly, the voluntary or involuntary service or labor of any persons as peons, in liquidation of any debt or obligation, or otherwise, are declared null and void. (R. S. § 1990.)

Chapter 4.—FREEDMEN.

Sec.
61. Laws continued in force.
62. Laws enforced by Secretary of War.
63. Claims for pay or bounty; payment.
64. Retained bounty fund; application for payments.
65. Who deemed wife and children of colored soldiers.

Section 61. Laws continued in force.—All laws and parts of laws pertaining to the collection and payment of bounty, prize money, and other legitimate claims of colored soldiers, sailors, and marines, or their heirs, shall remain in force until otherwise ordered by Congress. (R. S. § 2032.)

62. Laws enforced by Secretary of War.—The Secretary of War is authorized to carry into effect all laws and parts of laws referred to in the preceding section, and to this end he may employ such clerical force as he deems necessary. (R. S. § 2033.)

63. Claims for pay or bounty; payment.—All sums due upon certificates issued, or which may be issued in settlement of claims for pay, bounty, prize money, or other moneys due to colored soldiers, sailors, or marines, or their legal representatives, shall be paid in the same manner as similar claims are paid to white soldiers, sailors, and marines, but no such certificate shall be issued until it shall have been ascertained that the application is made by the original claimant, or, if he be dead, by his true living legal representative, nor until the identity of such claimant or representative as the case may be, shall have been duly established. If an agent or attorney be employed, the allowance for his services shall not in any case exceed that contemplated in the scale of fees and allowances fixed by joint resolution July 26, 1866, Numbered 86, section 2, Fourteenth Statutes, page 368, and no power of attorney, transfer or assignment of the amount of such claims, or any part thereof, shall in any case be recognized. (Mar. 3, 1879, c. 182, § 2, 20 Stat. 402; Feb. 1, 1888, c. 4, § 1, 25 Stat. 9.)

64. Retained bounty fund; application for payments.—The unexpended balance of the retained fund in the custody of the Freedmen's Bureau prior to July 1, 1902, is covered into the Treasury as "Miscellaneous receipts." Upon application by parties entitled to any portion of the money so covered in, the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay the amount found due in the same manner and from the same appropriation as claims for bounty to volunteer soldiers are now paid. (July 1, 1902, c. 1351, 32 Stat. 556.)

65. Who deemed wife and children of colored soldiers.—In determining who is the wife or child of any colored soldier, within the meaning of this chapter, evidence that the soldier and the woman claimed to be his wife cohabited or associated as husband and wife, and so continued to cohabit or associate at the time of enlistment, or evidence that a form of marriage, whether such marriage was authorized or recognized by law or not, was entered into by them, and that the parties thereafter lived together as husband and wife, and so continued to live together at the time of the enlistment, shall be deemed sufficient proof of marriage; and the children born of any such marriage shall be taken to be the children embraced within the provisions of this chapter, whether such marriage was or was not dissolved at the time of the enlistment. (R. S. § 2037.)

Chapter 5.—ALIEN OWNERSHIP OF LAND.

Sec.
71. Acquisition or ownership of land in Territories by aliens.
72. Same; lands previously acquired.
73. Same; acquisition by inheritance or in collection of debts.
74. Same; conveyance by aliens before escheat proceedings.
75. Same; escheat proceedings.
76. Same; condemnation and sale of lands.
77. Same; public lands.
78. Same; real estate in District of Columbia.
79. Same; real estate in District of Columbia; treaties.
80. Same; real estate in District of Columbia; alien-owned corporations.
81. Same; real estate in District of Columbia; forfeiture of property.
82. Same; real estate in District of Columbia; foreign legations.
83. Public lands in Hawaii; right to acquire in general.
84. Same; conveyance or other transfer to alien.
85. Same; preference right to purchase land to persons declaring intention to become citizens.
86. Same; sale of agricultural land to persons declaring intention to become citizens.

Section 71. Acquisition or ownership of land in Territories by aliens.—No alien or person who is not a citizen of the United States, or who has not declared his intention to become a citizen of the United States in the manner provided by law shall acquire title to or own any land in any of the Territories of the United States except as hereinafter provided. The prohibition of this section shall not apply to cases in which the right to hold or dispose of lands in the United States is secured by existing treaties to citizens or subjects of foreign countries, which rights, so far as they may exist by force of any such treaty, shall continue to exist so long as such treaties are in force, and no longer. (Mar. 2, 1887, c. 363, § 1, 29 Stat. 618.)

72. Same; lands previously acquired.—Sections 71 to 77 of this title shall not apply to land owned in any of the Territories of the United States by aliens, which was acquired on or before March 3, 1887, so long as it is held by the then owners, their heirs or legal representatives, nor to any alien who shall become a bona fide resident of the United States, and any alien who shall become a bona fide resident of the United States, or shall have declared his intention to become a citizen of the United States in the manner provided by law, shall have the right to acquire and hold lands in either of the Territories of the United States upon the same terms as citizens of the United States. If any such resident alien shall cease to be a bona fide resident of the United States then such alien shall have ten years from the time he ceases to be such bona fide resident in which to alienate such lands. This section and sections 71, 73 to 77 shall not be construed to prevent any persons not citizens of the United States from acquiring or holding lots or parcels of lands in any incorporated or platted city, town, or village, or in any mine or mining claim, in any of the Territories of the United States. (Mar. 2, 1897, c. 363, § 2, 29 Stat. 618.)

73. Same; acquisition by inheritance or in collection of debts.—Sections 71 to 77 of this title shall not prevent aliens from acquiring lands or any interests therein by inheritance or in the ordinary course of justice in the collection of debts, nor from acquiring liens on real estate or any interest therein, nor from lending money and securing the same upon real estate or any interest therein; nor from enforcing any such lien, nor from acquiring and holding title to such real estate, or any interest therein, upon which a lien may have heretofore or may hereafter be fixed, or upon which a loan of money may have been heretofore or hereafter may be made and secured. All lands so acquired shall be sold within ten years after title shall be perfected in him under said sale or the same shall escheat to the United States and be forfeited as hereinafter provided. (Mar. 2, 1897, c. 363, § 3, 29 Stat. 618.)

74. Same; conveyance by aliens before escheat proceedings.—Any alien who shall hold lands in any of the Territories of the United States in contravention of the provisions of sections 71 to 77 of this title may nevertheless convey his title thereto at any time before the institution of escheat proceedings as hereinafter provided. If any such conveyance shall be made by such alien, either to an alien or to a citizen of the United States, in trust and for the purpose and with the intention of evading the provisions of said sections, such conveyance shall be null and void, and any such lands so conveyed shall be forfeited and escheat to the United States. (Mar. 2, 1897, c. 363, § 4, 29 Stat. 618.)

75. Same; escheat proceedings.—It shall be the duty of the Attorney General of the United States, when he shall be informed or have reason to believe that land in any of the Territories of the United States are being held contrary to the provisions of sections 71 to 77 of this title, to institute or cause to be instituted suit in behalf of the United States in the district court of the Territory in the district where such land or a part thereof may be situated, praying for the escheat of the same on behalf of the United States to the United States. Before any such suit is instituted the Attorney General shall give or cause to be given ninety days' notice by registered letter of his intention to sue, or by personal notice directed to or delivered to the owner of said land, or the person who last rendered the same for taxation, or his agent, and to all other persons having an interest in such lands of which he may have actual or constructive notice. In the event personal notice can not be obtained in some one of the modes above provided, then said notice shall be given by publication in some newspaper published in the county where the land is situate, and if no newspaper is published in said county then the said notice shall be published in some newspaper nearest said county. (Mar. 2, 1897, c. 363, § 5, 29 Stat. 619.)

76. Same; condemnation and sale of lands.—If it shall be determined upon the trial of any such escheat proceedings that the lands are held contrary to the provisions of sections 71 to 77 of this title, the court trying said cause shall render judgment condemning such lands and shall order the same to be sold as under execution; and the proceeds of such sale, after deducting costs of such suit, shall be paid to the clerk of such court so rendering judgment, and said fund shall remain in the hands of such clerk for one year from the date of such payment, subject to the order of the alien owner of such lands, or his heirs or legal representatives; and if not claimed within the period of one year, such clerk shall pay the same into the treasury of the Territory in which the lands may be situated, for the benefit of the available school fund of said Territory. The defendant in any such escheat proceedings may, at any time, before final judgment, suggest and show to the court that he has conformed with the law, either becoming a bona fide resident of the United States, or by declaring his intention of becoming a citizen of the United States, or by the doing or happening of any other act which, under the provisions of sections 71 to 77, would entitle him to hold or own real estate, which being admitted or proved, such suit shall be dismissed on payment of costs and a reasonable attorney fee to be fixed by the court. (Mar. 2, 1897, c. 363, § 6, 29 Stat. 619.)

77. Same; public lands.—Sections 71 to 76 of this title shall not in any manner be construed to authorize aliens to acquire title from the United States to any of the public lands of the United States or to in any manner affect or change the laws regulating the disposal of the public lands of the United States. (Mar. 2, 1897, c. 363, § 7, 29 Stat. 619.)

78. Same; real estate in District of Columbia.—Aliens shall have the same rights and privileges concerning the acquisition, holding, owning, and disposition of real estate in the District of Columbia as are conferred upon aliens in respect of real estate in the Territories of the United States by sections 71 to 77 of this title. (Feb. 23, 1905, c. 733, 33 Stat. 733.)

79. Same; real estate in District of Columbia; treaties.—It shall be unlawful on and after March 3, 1887, for any person or persons not citizens of the United States, or who have not lawfully declared their intention to become such citizens, or for any corporation not created by or under the laws of the United States or of some State or Territory of the United States, to acquire, hold, or own real estate so acquired, or any interest therein, in the District of Columbia, except such as may be acquired by inheritance or in good faith in the ordinary course of justice in the collection of debts heretofore created. The prohibition of this section shall not apply to cases in which the right to hold or dispose of lands in the United States is secured by existing treaties to the citizens or subjects of foreign countries, which rights, so far as they may exist by force of any such treaty shall continue to exist so long as such treaties are in force, and no longer. (Mar. 3, 1887, c. 340, § 1, 24 Stat. 476.)

80. Same; real estate in District of Columbia; alien-owned corporations.—No corporation or association of which over 50 percentum of the stock is or may be owned by any person or persons, corporation or corporations, association or associations, not citizens of the United States, shall on and after March 3, 1887, acquire or hold or own any real estate so acquired in the District of Columbia. (Mar. 3, 1887, c. 340, § 2, 24 Stat. 477; June 30, 1902, c. 1329, 32 Stat. 530.)

81. Same; real estate in District of Columbia; forfeiture of property.—All property acquired, held, or owned in violation of the provisions of sections 79 and 80 of this title shall be forfeited to the United States, and it shall be the duty of the Attorney General to enforce every such forfeiture by bill in equity or other proper process. In any suit or proceeding that may be commenced to enforce the provisions of said sections, it shall be the duty of the court to determine the very right of the matter without regard to matters of form, joinder of parties, multifariousness, or other matters not affecting the substantial rights either of the United States or of the parties concerned in any such proceeding arising out of the matters in the said sections mentioned. (Mar. 3, 1887, c. 340, § 4, 24 Stat. 477.)

82. Same; real estate in District of Columbia; foreign legations.—Sections 79 to 81 inclusive of this title shall not apply to or operate in the District of Columbia, so far as relates to the ownership of legations, or the ownership of residences by representatives of foreign governments, or attachés thereof. (Mar. 9, 1888, c. 30, 25 Stat. 45.)

83. Public lands in Hawaii; right to acquire in general.—No person, including individuals, partnership, corporation, and association, who is an alien, shall be entitled to receive any certificate of occupation, right of purchase lease, cash freehold agreement, or special homestead agreement in public lands in Hawaii, unless he has declared his intention to become a citizen of the United States as provided by law. No person who has so declared his intention, and taken and held under any such certificate, lease, or agreement, shall continue to hold, or become entitled to a homestead lease or patent to the land, unless he becomes a citizen within five years after so taking. (Apr. 30, 1900, c. 339, § 73, 31 Stat. 154; Apr. 2, 1908, c. 124, 35 Stat. 56; May 27, 1910, c. 258, § 5, 36 Stat. 444; July 9, 1921, c. 42, §§ 304–311, 42 Stat. 116–119.)

84. Same; conveyance or other transfer to alien.—No public land in Hawaii for which any certificate of occupation, right of purchase lease, or cash freehold or special homestead agreement is issued or any part thereof, or interest therein or control thereof, shall, without the written consent of the Commissioner of Public Lands of the Territory of Hawaii, and governor, thereafter, whether before or after a homestead lease or patent has been issued thereon, be or be contracted to be in any way, directly or indirectly, by process of law or otherwise, conveyed, mortgaged, leased, or otherwise, transferred to, or acquired or held by, or for the benefit of any alien. The prohibitions of this section shall not apply to transfers or acquisitions by inheritance or between tenants in common. (Apr. 30, 1900, c. 339, § 73, 31 Stat. 154; Apr. 2, 1908, c. 124, 35 Stat. 56; May 27, 1910, c. 258, § 5, 36 Stat. 444; July 9, 1921, c. 42, §§ 304–311, 42 Stat. 116–119.)

85. Same; preference right to purchase land to persons declaring intention to become citizens.—The Commissioner of Public Lands of the Territory of Hawaii, with the approval of the governor, may give to any person who has legally declared his intention to become a citizen of the United States, and thereafter becomes such, and who has, or whose predecessors in interest have improved any parcel of public lands and resided thereon continuously for the ten years next preceding the application to purchase, a preference right to purchase so much of such parcels and such adjoining land as may reasonably be required for a home, at a fair price to be determined by three disinterested citizens to be appointed by the governor. In the determination of such purchase price, the commissioner may, if he deems it just and reasonable, disregard the value of the improvements on such parcel and adjoining land. If such parcel of public lands is reserved for public purposes, either for the use of the United States or the Territory of Hawaii, the commissioner may, with the approval of the governor, grant to such person a preference right to purchase public lands which are of similar character, value, and area, and which are situated in the same land district. The privilege granted by this section shall not extend to any original lessee or to an assignee of an entire lease of public lands. (Apr. 30, 1900, c. 339, § 73, 31 Stat. 154; Apr. 2, 1908, c. 124, 35 Stat. 56; May 27, 1910, c. 258, § 5, 36 Stat. 444; July 9, 1921, c. 42, §§ 304–311, 42 Stat. 116–119.)

86. Same; sale of agricultural land to persons declaring intention to become citizens.—The Commissioner of Public Lands of the Territory of Hawaii shall, with the approval of the board of public lands, sell to any person who has legally declared his intention to become a citizen of the United States, for residence purposes lots and tracts of agricultural lands, not exceeding three acres in area. (Apr. 30, 1900, c. 339, § 73, 31 Stat. 154; Apr. 2, 1908, c. 124, 35 Stat. 56; May 27, 1910, c. 258, § 5, 36 Stat. 444; July 9, 1921, c. 42, §§ 304–311, 42 Stat. 116–119.)

BUREAU OF IMMIGRATION, IMMIGRATION OFFICERS, AND IMMIGRATION STATIONS

Section 101. Commissioner General of Immigration; Assistant Commissioner General of Immigration; appointment; reports; quarters.—The office of the Commissioner General of Immigration is created and established, and the President by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, is authorized and directed to appoint such officer. He shall be an officer in the Department of Labor, and shall perform all his duties under the direction of the Secretary of Labor, to whom he shall make annual reports in writing of the transactions of his office, together with such special reports, in writing as the Secretary of Labor shall require. The Secretary shall provide him with a suitable, furnished office in the city of Washington, and with such books of record and facilities for the discharge of the duties of his office as may be necessary. There shall be an assistant commissioner general who shall act as chief clerk and actuary. (Mar. 3, 1891, c. 551, § 7, 26 Stat. 1085; Mar. 2, 1895, c. 177, § 1, 28 Stat. 780; Apr. 28, 1904, No. 34, 33 Stat. 591; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, § 3, 37 Stat. 737; Feb. 5, 1917, c. 29, § 23, 39 Stat. 892; Mar. 3, 1917, c. 163, § 1, 39 Stat. 1118; Mar. 28, 1922, c. 117, Title II, 42 Stat. 486; Jan. 5, 1923, c. 24, Title II, 42 Stat. 1127.)

102. Same; administration of immigration laws; rules and regulations; contracts for support of distressed aliens; detail of immigration officers.—The Commissioner General of Immigration under the direction of the Secretary of Labor shall have charge of the administration of all laws relating to the immigration of aliens into the United States, and shall have the control, direction, and supervision of all officers, clerks, and employees appointed thereunder. He shall establish such rules and regulations, prescribe such forms of bond, reports, entries, and other papers, and shall issue from time to time such instructions not inconsistent with law, as he shall deem best calculated for carrying out the provisions of this section and sections 105, 108, 109, 113, 115, 116, 132, 134, 136 to 139, 142 to 166, 168, 169, 171, 173, 175, 177, and 178 of this title and for protecting the United States and aliens migrating thereto from fraud and loss, and shall have authority to enter into contract for the support and relief of such aliens as may fall into distress or need public aid, and to remove to their native country, at any time within three years after entry, at the expense of the appropriations for the enforcement of the provisions of such sections, such as fall into distress or need public aid from causes arising subsequent to their entry and are desirous of being so removed; he shall prescribe rules for the entry and inspection of aliens coming to the United States from or through Canada and Mexico, so as not unnecessarily to delay, impede, or annoy persons in ordinary travel between the United States and said countries, and shall have power to enter into contracts with transportation lines for the said purpose. It shall be the duty of the Commissioner General of Immigration to detail officers of the Immigration Service from time to time as may be necessary, in his judgement, to secure information as to the number of aliens detained in the penal, reformatory, and charitable institutions (public and private) of the several States and Territories, the District of Columbia, and other territory of the United States, and to inform the officers of such institutions of the provisions of law in relation to the deportation of aliens who have become public charges. He may, with the approval of the Secretary of Labor, whenever in his judgment such action may be necessary to accomplish the purpose of said sections, detail immigration officers for service in foreign countries; and, upon his request, approved by the Secretary of Labor, the Secretary of the Treasury may detail medical officers of the United States Public Health Service for the performance of duties in foreign countries in connection with their enforcement. (Apr. 28, 1904, No. 34, 33 Stat. 591; Feb. 5, 1917, c. 29, § 23, 39 Stat. 892.)

103. Same; administration of alien contract labor laws.—The Commissioner General of Immigration, in addition to his other duties, shall have charge, under the Secretary of Labor, of the administration of alien contract labor laws. (Mar. 2, 1895, c. 177, § 1, 28 Stat. 780.)

104. Same; administration of Chinese exclusion laws.—The Commissioner General of Immigration, in addition to his other duties, shall have charge, under the supervision and direction of the Secretary of Labor, of the administration of the Chinese exclusion laws. (June 6, 1900, c. 791, § 1, 31 Stat. 611.)

105. Division of information in Bureau of Immigration; distribution of aliens; State agents.—There shall be maintained a division of information in the Bureau of Immigration; and the Secretary of Labor shall provide such clerical and other assistance as may be necessary. It shall be the duty of said division to promote a beneficial distribution of aliens admitted into the United States among the several States and Territories desiring immigration. Correspondence shall be had with the proper officials of the States and Territories, and said division shall gather from all available sources useful information regarding the resources, products and physical characteristics of each State and Territory, and shall publish such information in different languages and distribute the publications among all admitted aliens at the immigrant stations of the United States and to such other persons as may desire the same. When any State or Territory appoints and maintains an agent or agents to represent it at any of the immigrant stations of the United States, such agents shall, under regulations prescribed by the Commissioner General of Immigration, subject to the approval of the Secretary of Labor, have access to aliens who have been admitted to the United States for the purpose of presenting, either orally or in writing, the special inducements offered by such State or Territory to aliens to settle therein. While on duty at any immigrant station such agents shall be subject to all the regulations prescribed by the Commissioner General of Immigration, who, with the approval of the Secretary of Labor, may, for violation of any such regulations, deny to the agent guilty of such violation any of the privileges herein granted. (Feb. 5, 1917, c. 29, § 30, 39 Stat. 895.)

106. Registry of aliens by Bureau of Immigration.—It shall be the duty of the Bureau of Immigration to provide, for use at the various immigration stations throughout the United States, books of record, wherein the commissioners of immigration shall cause a registry to be made in the case of each alien arriving in the United States from and after June 29, 1906, of the name, age, occupation, personal description (including height, complexion, color of hair and eyes), the place of birth, the last residence, the intended place of residence in the United States, and the date of arrival of said alien, and, if entered through a port, the name of the vessel in which he comes. It shall be the duty of said commissioners of immigration to cause to be granted to such alien a certificate of such registry, with the particulars thereof. (June 29, 1906, c. 3592, § 1, 34 Stat. 596.)

107. Commissioners of immigration; appointment.—The commissioners of immigration at the several ports shall be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, to hold their offices for the term of four years, unless sooner removed, and until their successors are appointed. (Aug. 18, 1894, c. 301, § 1, 28 Stat. 390; Aug. 1, 1914, c. 223, § 1, 38 Stat. 666; June 5, 1920, c. 235, § 1, 41 Stat. 936.)

108. Immigration officers; duties.—The duties of commissioners of immigration and other immigration officials in charge of districts, ports, or stations shall be of an administrative character, to be prescribed in detail by regulations prepared under the direction or with the approval of the Secretary of Labor. (Feb. 5, 1917, c. 29, § 23, 39 Stat. 892.)

109. Same; appointment; compensation.—Immigrant inspectors and other immigration officers, clerks, and employees shall be appointed and their compensation fixed and raised or decreased from time to time by the Secretary of Labor, upon the recommendation of the Commissioner General of Immigration and in accordance with the provisions of sections 632, 633, 635, 637, 638, and 640 to 642 of Title 5. The Secretary of Labor, in the enforcement of the law excluding contract laborers and induced and assisted immigrants, may employ, for such purposes and for detail upon additional service when not so engaged, without reference to the provisions of said sections, or to the various laws relative to the compilation of the Official Register, such persons as he may deem advisable and from time to time fix, raise, or decrease their compensation. He may draw annually from the appropriation for the enforcement of the laws regulating the immigration of aliens into the United States $100,000, or as much thereof as may be necessary, to be expended for the salaries and expenses of persons so employed and for expenses incident to such employment; and the accounting officers of the General Accounting Office shall pass to the credit of the proper disbursing officer expenditures from said sum without itemized account whenever the Secretary of Labor certifies that an itemized account would not be for the best interests of the Government. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to alter the mode of appointing commissioners of immigration at the several ports of the United States as provided by section 107 of this title, or the official status of such commissioners appointed prior to February 5, 1917. (Feb. 5, 1917, c. 29, § 24, 39 Stat. 893.)

110. Arrest without warrant of aliens by employees of Bureau of Immigration.—Any employee of the Bureau of Immigration authorized so to do under regulations prescribed by the Commissioner General of Immigration with the approval of the Secretary of Labor, shall have power without warrant (1) to arrest any alien who in his presence or view is entering or attempting to enter the United States in violation of any law or regulation made in pursuance of law regulating the admission of aliens, and to take such alien immediately for examination before an immigrant inspector or other official having authority to examine aliens as to their right to admission to the United States, and (2) to board and search for aliens any vessel within the territorial waters of the United States, railway car, conveyance, or vehicle, in which he believes aliens are being brought into the United States; and such employee shall have power to execute any warrant or other process issued by any officer under any law regulating the admission, exclusion, or expulsion of aliens. (Feb. 27, 1925, c. 364, Title IV, 43 Stat. 1049.)

111. Special immigrant inspectors at Washington.—Special immigrant inspectors, not to exceed three, may be detailed for duty in the bureau at Washington. (Mar. 2, 1895, c. 177, § 1, 28 Stat. 780.)

112. Same; officers and clerk enforcing alien contract labor laws.—Sections 39 or 46 of Title 5 shall not be construed to prevent the Secretary of Labor from detailing two officers and one clerk employed for the special duty of enforcing the alien contract labor provisions of the immigration laws, in pursuance of section 109 of this title for duty at the Department of Labor at Washington. (Mar. 3, 1901, c. 853, 31 Stat. 1155; Mar. 4, 1915, c. 147, § 1, 38 Stat. 1151.)

113. Detail of inspectors and matrons on vessels carrying immigrant or emigrant passengers.—The Secretary of Labor is authorized and directed to enter into negotiations, through the Department of State, with countries vessels of which bring aliens to the United States, with a view to detailing inspectors and matrons of the United States Immigration Service for duty on vessels carrying immigrant or emigrant passengers between foreign ports and ports of the United States. When such inspectors and matrons are detailed for said duty they shall remain in that part of the vessel where immigrant passengers are carried; and it shall be their duty to observe such passengers during the voyage and report to the immigration authorities in charge at the port of landing any information of value in determining the admissibility of such passengers that may have become known to them during the voyage. (Feb. 5, 1917, c. 29, § 11a, 39 Stat. 882.)

114. Lease of immigrant station at Charleston.—The Secretary of Labor is authorized, in his discretion, to lease for other than governmental purposes the property known as the Charleston immigration station, with the improvements thereon; and said Secretary shall fix the amount of rental per annum to be paid therefor, which rental shall be a fair and just sum for property of like character, situation, and value and prescribe such conditions regarding the uses to be made of said property as he shall deem proper. All expenses of maintenance and repairs on the building and dock at said station shall be borne by the lessee or lessees. Any lease executed under this resolution may be terminated and the property reoccupied under such conditions as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe. (Aug. 15, 1919, c. 50, 41 Stat. 280.)

115. Disposal of privileges at immigrant stations; sale of liquors.—All exclusive privileges of exchanging money, transporting passengers or baggage, or keeping eating houses, and all other like privileges in connection with any United States immigrant station, shall be disposed of to the lowest responsible and capable bidder, after public competition, notice of such competitive bidding having been made in two newspapers of general circulation for a period of two weeks subject to such conditions and limitations as the Commissioner General of Immigration, under the direction or with the approval of the Secretary of Labor, may prescribe, and all receipts accruing from the disposal of privileges shall be paid into the Treasury of the United States. No such contract shall be awarded to an alien. No intoxicating liquors shall be sold at any such immigration station. (Feb. 5, 1917, c. 29, § 26, 39 Stat. 894.)

116. Local jurisdiction over immigrant stations.—For the preservation of the peace and in order that arrests may be made for crimes under the laws of the States and Territories of the United States where the various immigrant stations are located, the officers in charge of such stations, as occasion may require, shall admit therein the proper State and municipal officers charged with the enforcement of such laws, and for the purpose of this section the jurisdiction of such officers and of the local courts shall extend over such stations. (Feb. 5, 1917, c. 29, § 27, 39 Stat. 894.)

117. Use of hospital at Ellis Island by Public Health Service.—The Immigration Service shall permit the Public Health Service to use the hospitals at Ellis Island immigration station for the care of Public Health Service patients, free of expense for physical upkeep, but with a charge of actual cost for fuel, light, water, telephone, and similar supplies and services, to be covered into the proper Immigration Service appropriations. (Jan. 3, 1923, c. 22, 42 Stat. 1101; Apr. 4, 1924, c. 84, Title I, 43 Stat. 75; Jan. 22, 1925, c. 87, Title I, 43 Stat. 775.)

118. Motor vehicles for enforcement of immigration and Chinese exclusion laws.—The purchase, exchange, use, maintenance, and operation of motor vehicles, and allowances for horses, including motor vehicles and horses owned by immigration officers when used on official business required in the enforcement of the immigration and Chinese exclusion laws outside of the District of Columbia may be contracted for and the cost thereof paid from the appropriation for the enforcement of those laws, under such terms and conditions as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe. (June 12, 1917, c. 27, § 1, 40 Stat. 170; Mar. 28, 1922, c. 117, Title II, 42 Stat. 487; Jan. 5, 1923, c. 24, Title II, 42 Stat. 1127; May 28, 1924, c. 204, Title IV, 43 Stat. 240; Feb. 27, 1925, c. 364, Title IV, 43 Stat. 1049.)

REGULATION AND RESTRICTION OF IMMIGRATION IN GENERAL

131. Control of immigration.—The jurisdiction, supervision, and control over the immigration of aliens into the United States, its waters, Territories and any place subject to the jurisdiction thereof, are vested in the Department of Labor. (Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, § 7, 32 Stat. 828.)

132. Tax on aliens entering United States; lien of tax on vessels, etc.—There shall be levied, collected, and paid a tax of $8 for every alien, including alien seamen regularly admitted as provided by law to enter the United States; but children under sixteen years of age who accompany their father or their mother shall not be subject to said tax. The said tax shall be paid to the collector of customs of the port or customs district to which said alien shall come, or, if there be no collector at such port or district, then to the collector nearest thereto, by the master, agent, owner, or consignee of the vessel, transportation line, or other conveyance or vehicle bringing such alien to the United States, or by the alien himself if he does not come by a vessel, transportation line, or other conveyance or vehicle or when collection from the master, agent, owner, or consignee of the vessel, transportation line, or other conveyance, or vehicle bringing such alien to the United States is impracticable. The tax imposed by this section shall be a lien upon the vessel or other vehicle of carriage or transportation bringing such aliens to the United States, and shall be a debt in favor of the United States against the owner or owners of such vessel or other vehicle, and the payment of such tax may be enforced by any legal or equitable remedy. The tax shall not be levied on account of aliens who enter the United States after an uninterrupted residence of at least one year immediately preceding such entrance in the Dominion of Canada, Newfoundland, the Republic of Cuba, or the Republic of Mexico, for a temporary stay, nor on account of otherwise admissible residents or citizens of any possession of the United States, nor on account of aliens in transit through the United States, nor upon aliens who have been lawfully admitted to the United States and who later shall go in transit from one part of the United States to another through foreign contiguous territory, and the Commissioner General of Immigration with the approval of the Secretary of Labor shall issue rules and regulations and prescribe the conditions necessary to prevent abuse of these exceptions. The Commissioner General of Immigration, under the direction or with the approval of the Secretary of Labor, by agreement with transportation lines, as provided in section 160 of this title, may arrange in some other manner for the payment of the tax imposed by this section upon any or all aliens seeking admission from foreign contiguous territory. The tax, when levied upon aliens entering the Philippine Islands, shall be paid into the treasury of said islands, to be expended for the benefit of such islands. In the cases of aliens applying for admission from foreign contiguous territory and rejected, the head tax collected shall upon application, upon a blank which shall be furnished and explained to him, be refunded to the alien. (Feb. 5, 1917, c. 29, § 2, 39 Stat. 875.)

133. Head tax on aliens and other moneys covered into Treasury.—All head tax, all fines, rentals collected, and moneys received under the laws regulating the immigration of aliens into the United States, shall be covered into the Treasury to the credit of miscellaneous receipts. (Mar. 4, 1909, c. 299, § 1, 35 Stat. 982.)

134. Refunding head tax.—The Commissioner General of Immigration, with the approval of the Secretary of Labor, shall have power to refund head tax collected under Act March 3, 1903, chapter 1012, section 1, Thirty-second Statutes, page 1213, upon presentation of evidence showing conclusively that such collection was erroneously made. (Feb. 3, 1905, c. 297, § 1, 33 Stat. 684.)

135. No tax or charge by State on immigrants.—No tax or charge shall be imposed or enforced by any State upon any person immigrating thereto from a foreign country, which is not equally imposed and enforced upon every person immigrating to such State from any other foreign country. (R. S. § 2164.)

136. Aliens excluded.—The following classes of aliens shall be excluded from admission into the United States:

(a) Idiots, imbeciles, etc.—All idiots, imbeciles, feeble-minded persons, epileptics, insane persons; persons who have had one or more attacks of insanity at any time previously; persons of constitutional psychopathic inferiority; persons with chronic alcoholism—

(b) Paupers, etc.—Paupers; professional beggars; vagrants—

(c) Tubercular or other diseased persons.—Persons afflicted with tuberculosis in any form or with a loathsome or contagious or dangerous contagious disease—

(d) Mental or physical defectives.—Persons not comprehended within any of the classes enumerated in paragraphs a, b, or c, who are found to be and are certified by the examining surgeon as being mentally or physically defective, such physical defect being of a nature which may affect the ability of such alien to earn a living—

(e) Criminals.—Persons who have been convicted of or admit having committed a felony or other crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude: Provided, That nothing in sections 136 or 137 of this title shall exclude, if otherwise admissible, persons convicted, or who admit the commission, or who teach or advocate the commission of an offense purely political—

(f) Polygamists.—Polygamists or persons who practice polygamy or believe in or advocate the practice of polygamy—

(g) Prostitutes, procurers, or pimps.—Prostitutes, or persons coming into the United States for the purpose of prostitution or for any other immoral purpose; persons who directly or indirectly procure or attempt to procure or import prostitutes or persons for the purpose of prostitution or for any other immoral purpose; persons who are supported by or receive in whole or in part the proceeds of prostitution—

(h) Contract laborers.—Persons hereinafter called contract laborers, who have been induced, assisted, encouraged, or solicited to migrate to this country by offers or promises of employment, whether such offers or promises are true or false, or in consequence of agreements, oral, written or printed, express or implied, to perform labor in this country of any kind, skilled or unskilled; persons who have come in consequence of advertisements for laborers printed, published, or distributed in a foreign country: Provided, That skilled labor, if otherwise admissible, may be imported if labor of like kind unemployed cannot be found in this country, and the question of the necessity of importing such skilled labor in any particular instance may be determined by the Secretary of Labor upon the application of any person interested, such application to be made before such importation, and such determination by the Secretary of Labor to be reached after a full hearing and an investigation into the facts of the case: And provided further, That the provisions of sections 136 to 139 of this title applicable to contract labor shall not be held to exclude professional actors, artists, lecturers, singers, nurses, ministers of any religious denomination, professors for colleges, or seminaries, persons belonging to any recognized learned profession, or persons employed as domestic servants: And provided further, That whenever the President shall be satisfied that passports issued by any foreign Government to its citizens or subjects to go to any country other than the United States, or to any insular possession of the United States or to the Canal Zone, are being used for the purpose of enabling the holder to come to the continental territory of the United States to the detriment of labor conditions therein, the President shall refuse to permit such citizens or subjects of the country issuing such passports to enter the continental territory of the United States from such other country or from such insular possession or from the Canal Zone: And provided further, That nothing in the contract-labor provisions of sections 136 to 139 shall be construed to prevent, hinder, or restrict any alien exhibitor, or holder of concession or privilege for any fair or exposition authorized by Act of Congress, from bringing into the United States, under contract, such otherwise admissable alien mechanics, artisans, agents, or other employees, natives of his country as may be necessary for installing or conducting his exhibit or for preparing for installing or conducting any business authorized or permitted under any concession or privilege which may have been or may be granted by any such fair or exposition in connection therewith, under such rules and regulations as the Commissioner General of Immigration, with the approval of the Secretary of Labor, may prescribe both as to the admission and return of such persons—

(i) Public charges.—Persons likely to become a public charge—

(j) Persons previously deported.—Persons who have been deported under any of the provisions of this subchapter, and who may again seek admission within one year from the date of such deportation, unless prior to their reembarkation at a foreign port or their attempt to be admitted from foreign contiguous territory the Secretary of Labor shall have consented to their reapplying for admission—

(k) Persons whose transportation is paid by others, etc.—Persons whose tickets or passage is paid for with the money of another, or who are assisted by others to come, unless it is affirmatively and satisfactorily shown that such persons do not belong to one of the foregoing excluded classes; persons whose ticket or passage is paid for by any corporation, association, society, municipality, or foreign government, either directly or indirectly: Provided, That the provisions of this subchapter, relating to the payments for tickets or passage by any corporation, association, society, municipality, or foreign government shall not apply to the tickets or passage of aliens in immediate and continuous transit through the United States to foreign contiguous territory—

(l) Stowaways.—Stowaways, except that any such stowaway, if otherwise admissible, may be admitted in the discretion of the Secretary of Labor—

(m) Children under sixteen.—All children under sixteen years of age, unaccompanied by or not coming to one or both of their parents, except that any such children may, in the discretion of the Secretary of Labor, be admitted if in his opinion they are not likely to become a public charge and are otherwise eligible—

(n) Asiatics.—Unless otherwise provided for by existing treaties, persons who are natives of islands not possessed by the United States adjacent to the Continent of Asia, situate south of the twentieth parallel latitude north, west of the one hundred and sixtieth meridian of longitude east from Greenwich, and north of the tenth parallel of latitude south, or who are natives of any country, province, or dependency situate on the Continent of Asia west of the one hundred and tenth meridian of longitude east from Greenwich and east of the fiftieth meridian of longitude east from Greenwich and south of the fiftieth parallel of latitude north, except that portion of said territory situate between the fiftieth and the sixty-fourth meridians of longitude east from Greenwich and the twenty-fourth and thirty-eighth parallels of latitude north, and no alien now in any way excluded from, or prevented from entering, the United States shall be admitted to the United States. The provision next foregoing, however, shall not apply to persons of the following status or occupations: Government officers, ministers or religious teachers, missionaries, lawyers, physicians, chemists, civil engineers, teachers, students, authors, artists, merchants, and travelers for curiosity or pleasure, nor to their legal wives or their children under sixteen years of age who shall accompany them or who subsequently may apply for admission to the United States, but such persons or their legal wives or foreign-born children who fail to maintain in the United States a status or occupation placing them within the excepted classes shall be deemed to be in the United States contrary to law, and shall be subject to deportation as provided in section 155 of this title—

(o) Illiterates.—All aliens over sixteen years of age, physically capable of reading, who can not read the English language, or some other language or dialect, including Hebrew or Yiddish: Provided, That any admissible alien, or any alien heretofore or hereafter legally admitted, or any citizen of the United States, may bring in or send for his father or grandfather over fifty-five years of age, his wife, his mother, his grandmother, or his unmarried or widowed daughter, if otherwise admissible, whether such relative can read or not; and such relative shall be permitted to enter. That for the purpose of ascertaining whether aliens can read the immigrant inspectors shall be furnished with slips of uniform size, prepared under the direction of the Secretary of Labor, each containing not less than thirty nor more than forty words in ordinary use, printed in plainly legible type in some one of the various languages or dialects of immigrants. Each alien may designate the particular language or dialect in which he desires the examination to be made, and shall be required to read the words printed on the slip in such language or dialect. The following classes of persons shall be exempt from the operation of the illiteracy test, to wit: All aliens who shall prove to the satisfaction of the proper immigration officer or to the Secretary of Labor that they are seeking admission to the United States to avoid religious persecution in the country of their last permanent residence, whether such persecution be evidenced by overt acts or by laws or governmental regulations that discriminate against the alien or the race to which he belongs because of his religious faith; all aliens who have been lawfully admitted to the United States and who have resided therein continuously for five years and who return to the United States within six months from the date of their departure therefrom; all aliens in transit through the United States; all aliens who have been lawfully admitted to the United States and who later shall go in transit from one part of the United States to another through foreign contiguous territory: Provided, That nothing in the reading-test provisions of sections 136 or 137 of this title shall be construed to prevent, hinder, or restrict any alien exhibitor, or holder of concession or privilege for any fair or exposition authorized by Act of Congress, from bringing into the United States, under contract, such otherwise admissible alien mechanics, artisans, agents, or other employees, natives of his country as may be necessary for installing or conducting his exhibit or for preparing for installing or conducting any business authorized or permitted under any concession or privilege which may have been or may be granted by any such fair or exposition in connection therewith, under such rules and regulations as the Commissioner General of Immigration, with the approval of the Secretary of Labor, may prescribe both as to the admission and return of such persons: And provided further, That an alien who could not read, if otherwise admissible, was properly admitted where, within five years after June 5, 1920, a citizen of the United States who had served in the military or naval forces of the United States during the war with the Imperial German Government, requested that such alien be admitted, and with the approval of the Secretary of Labor, married such alien at a United States immigration station—

(p) Aliens returning to unrelinquished domicile.—Aliens returning after a temporary absence to an unrelinquished United States domicile of seven consecutive years may be admitted in the discretion of the Secretary of Labor, and under such conditions as he may prescribe—

(q) Bonds for admission and return of inadmissible aliens.—The Commissioner General of Immigration with the approval of the Secretary of Labor shall issue rules and prescribe conditions, including exaction of such bonds as may be necessary, to control and regulate the admission and return of otherwise inadmissible aliens applying for temporary admission—

(r) Accredited officials of foreign governments, etc.—Nothing in sections 132, 136 to 139, 142 to 165, 168, 169, 171,

173, or 175 of this title shall be construed to apply to accredited officials of foreign governments, nor to their suites, families, or guests. (Feb. 5, 1917, c. 29, § 3, 39 Stat. 875; June 5, 1920, c. 243, 41 Stat. 981.)

137. Other aliens excluded.—In addition to the aliens who are by law otherwise excluded from admission into the United States, the following persons shall also be excluded from admission into the United States:

(a) Anarchists.—Aliens who are anarchists—

(b) Aliens opposed to, or disbelieving in, organized forms of government.—Aliens who disbelieve in, or advise, advocate, or teaches, disbelief in or opposition to all organized government, association, society, or group, that advises, advocates, or teaches, disbelief in or opposition to all organized government—

(c) Aliens believing in, advising, etc., overthrow by force or violence of United States Government, or all forms of law, unlawful assaulting or killing of any Government officers, unlawful damage, etc., to property, or sabotage.—Aliens who believe in, advise, advocate, or teach, or who are members of or affiliated with any organization, association, society, or group, that believes in, advises, advocates, or teaches: (1) the overthrow by force or violence of the Government of the United States or of all forms of law, or (2) the duty, necessity, or propriety of the unlawful assaulting or killing of any officer or officers (either of specific individuals or of officers generally) of the Government of the United States, or of any other organized government, because of his or their official character, or (3) the unlawful damage, injury or destruction of property, or (4) sabotage—

(d) Aliens writing, publishing, etc., written or printed matter, advising, etc., opposition to organized forms of government, overthrow by force or violence of United States Government or all forms of law, unlawful assaulting or killing of Government officers, unlawful damage, etc., to property, or sabotage.—Aliens who write, publish, or cause to be written or published, or who knowingly circulate, distribute, print, or display, or knowingly cause to be circulated, distributed, printed, published, or displayed, or who knowingly have in their possession for the purpose of circulation, distribution, publication, or display, any written or printed matter, advising, advocating, or teaching, opposition to all organized government, or advising, advocating, or teaching: (1) the overthrow by force or violence of the Government of the United States or of all forms of law, or (2) the duty, necessity or propriety of the unlawful assaulting or killing of any officer or officers (either of specific individuals or of officers generally) of the Government of the United States or of any other organized government, or (3) the unlawful damage, injury or destruction of property, or (4) sabotage—

(e) Aliens members of or affiliated with organization, etc., writing, etc., written or printed matter described in preceding paragraph.—Aliens who are members of or affiliated with any organization, association, society, or group, that writes, circulates, distributes, prints, publishes, or displays, or causes to be written, circulated, distributed, printed, published, or displayed, or that has in its possession for the purpose of circulation, distribution, publication, issue, or display, any written or printed matter of the character described in paragraph (d).

(f) What constitutes advising, advocacy, teaching, or affiliation.—For the purpose of this section: (1) the giving, loaning, or promising of money or anything of value to be used for the advising, advocacy, or teaching of any doctrine above enumerated shall constitute the advising, advocacy, or teaching of such doctrine; and (2) the giving, loaning, or promising of money or anything of value to any organization, association, society, or group of the character above described shall constitute affiliation therewith; but nothing in this paragraph shall be taken as an exclusive definition of advising, advocacy, teaching, or affiliation.

(g) Deportation.—Any alien who, at any time after entering the United States, is found to have been at the time of entry, or to have become thereafter, a member of any one of the classes of aliens enumerated in this section shall, upon the warrant of the Secretary of Labor, be taken into custody and deported in the manner provided in this subchapter. The provisions of this section shall be applicable to the classes of aliens mentioned therein irrespective of the time of their entry into the United States.

(h) Same; reentry; punishment.—Any alien who shall, after he has been excluded and deported or arrested and deported in pursuance of the provisions of this section, thereafter return to or enter the United States or attempt to return to or enter the United States shall be deemed guilty of a felony, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by imprisonment for a term of not more than five years; and shall, upon the termination of such imprisonment, be taken into custody, upon the warrant of the Secretary of Labor, and deported in the manner provided in this subchapter. (Oct. 16, 1918, c. 186, §§ 1–3, 40 Stat. 1012; June 5, 1920, c. 251, 41 Stat. 1008.)

138. Importation of aliens for immoral purposes; attempt to reenter after deportation; penalty.—The importation into the United States of any alien for the purpose of prostitution, or for any other immoral purpose, is forbidden; and whoever shall, directly or indirectly, import, or attempt to import into the United States any alien for the purpose of prostitution or for any other immoral purpose, or shall hold or attempt to hold any alien for any such purpose in pursuance of such illegal importation, or shall keep, maintain, control, support, employ, or harbor in any house or other place, for the purpose of prostitution or for any other immoral purpose, any alien, in pursuance of such illegal importation, shall in every such case be deemed guilty of a felony, and on conviction thereof shall be punished by imprisonment for a term of not more than ten years and by a fine of not more than $5,000. Jurisdiction for the trial and punishment of the felonies hereinbefore set forth shall be in any district to or into which said alien is brought in pursuance of said importation by the person or persons accused, or in any district in which a violation of any of the foregoing provisions of this section occurs. Any alien who shall, after he has been excluded and deported or arrested and deported in pursuance of the provisions of this subchapter which relate to prostitutes, procurers, or other like immoral persons, attempt thereafter to return to or to enter the United States shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be punished by imprisonment for a term of not more than two years. In all prosecutions under this section the testimony of a husband or wife shall be admissible and competent evidence against each other. (Feb. 5, 1917, c. 29, § 4, 39 Stat. 878.)

139. Contract laborers; prepaying transportation or assisting importation; forfeiture and punishment.—It shall be unlawful for any person, company, partnership, or corporation, in any manner whatsoever, to prepay the transportation or in any way to induce, assist, encourage, or solicit, or attempt to induce, assist, encourage, or solicit the importation or migration of any contract laborer or contract laborers into the United States, unless such contract laborer or contract laborers are exempted under the second proviso of paragraph (h) of section 136 of this title or have been imported with the permission of the Secretary of Labor in accordance with said paragraph (h), and for every violation of any of the provisions of this section the person, partnership, company, or corporation violating the same shall forfeit and pay for every such offense the sum of $1,000, which may be sued for and recovered by the United States, as debts of like amount are now recovered in the courts of the United States. For every violation of the provisions hereof the person violating the same may be prosecuted in a criminal action for a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of $1,000, or by imprisonment for a term of not less than six months nor more than two years; and under either the civil or the criminal procedure mentioned separate suits or prosecutions may be brought for each alien thus offered or promised employment as aforesaid. The Department of Justice, with the approval of the Department of Labor, may from any fines or penalties received pay rewards to persons other than Government employees who may furnish information leading to the recovery of any such penalties, or to the arrest and punishment of any person, as in this section provided. (Feb. 5, 1917, c. 29, § 5, 39 Stat. 879.)

140. Same; reward to informer.—The Secretary of Labor is authorized to pay to an informer who furnishes original information that section 139 preceding has been violated such a share of the penalties recovered as he may deem reasonable and just, not exceeding 50 per centum, where it appears that the recovery was had in consequence of the information thus furnished. (Oct. 19, 1888, c. 1210, § 1, 25 Stat. 566; Apr. 29, 1904, No. 34, 33 Stat. 591.)

141. Contracts for labor or service of aliens, previous to importation, void.—All contracts or agreements, express or implied, parol, or special, which may be made by and between any person, company, partnership, or corporation, and any foreigner or foreigners, alien or aliens, to perform labor or service or having reference to the performance of labor or service by any person in the United States, its Territories, or the District of Columbia previous to the migration or importation of the person or persons whose labor or service is contracted for into the United States, shall be utterly void and of no effect. (Feb. 26, 1885, c. 164, § 2, 23 Stat. 332.)

142. Advertisements of employment to aliens, etc.—It shall be unlawful and be deemed a violation of section 139 of this title to induce, assist, encourage, or solicit, or attempt to induce, assist, encourage, or solicit, any alien to come into the United States by promise of employment through advertisements printed, published, or distributed in any foreign country, whether such promise is true or false, and either the civil or criminal penalty or both imposed by said section shall be applicable to such a case. (Feb. 5, 1917, c. 29, § 6, 39 Stat. 879.)

143. Solicitation of immigration by transportation companies.—It shall be unlawful for any person, association, society, company, partnership, corporation, or others engaged in the business of transporting aliens to or within the United States, including owners, masters, officers, and agents of vessels, directly or indirectly, by writing, printing, oral representation, payment of any commissions to an alien coming into the United States, allowance of any rebates to an alien coming into the United States, or otherwise, to solicit, invite, or encourage or attempt to solicit, invite, or encourage, any alien to come into the United States, and anyone violating any provision hereof shall be subject to either the civil or the criminal prosecution, or both, prescribed by section 139 of this title; or if it shall appear to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that any owner, master, officer, or agent of a vessel has brought or caused to be brought to a port of the United States any alien so solicited, invited, or encouraged to come by such owner, master, officer, or agent, such owner, master, officer, or agent shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located, or in which any vessel of the line may be found, the sum of $400 for each and every such violation; and no vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question of the liability to the payment of such fine, or while the fine imposed remains unpaid, nor shall such fine be remitted or refunded; but clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such questions upon the deposit with the collector of customs of a sum sufficient to cover such fine. Whenever it shall be shown to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that the provisions of this section are persistently violated by or on behalf of any transportation company, it shall be the duty of said Secretary to deny to such company the privilege of landing alien immigrant passengers of any or all classes at United States ports for such a period as in his judgment may be necessary to insure an observance of such provisions. This section shall not be held to prevent transportation companies from issuing letters, circulars, or advertisements, confined strictly to stating the sailing of their vessels and terms and facilities of transportation therein. Under this section and sections 139 and 142 of this title it shall be presumed from the fact that any person, company, partnership, corporation, association, or society induces, assist, encourages, solicits, or invites, or attempts to induce, assist, encourage, solicit, or invite, the importation, migration, or coming of an alien from a country foreign to the United States that the offender had knowledge of such person's alienage. (Feb. 5, 1917, c. 29, § 7, 39 Stat. 879.)

144. Bringing in or harboring or concealing certain aliens.—Any person, including the master, agent, owner, or consignee of any vessel, who shall bring into or land in the United States, by vessel or otherwise, or shall attempt, by himself or through another, to bring into or land in the United States, by vessel or otherwise, or shall conceal or harbor or attempt to conceal or harbor, or assist or abet another to conceal or harbor, in any place, including any building, vessel, railway car, conveyance, or vehicle, any alien not duly admitted by an immigrant inspector or not lawfully entitled to enter or to reside within the United States, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $2,000 and by imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years for each and every alien so landed or brought in or attempted to be landed or brought in. (Feb. 5, 1917, c. 29, § 8, 39 Stat. 880.)

145. Bringing in aliens subject to disability, or afflicted with disease.—It shall be unlawful for any person, including any transportation company other than railway lines entering the United States from foreign contiguous territory, or the owner, master, agent, or consignee of any vessel, to bring to the United States either from a foreign country or any insular possession of the United States any alien afflicted with idiocy, insanity, imbecility, feeble-mindedness, epilepsy, constitutional psychopathic inferiority, chronic alcoholism, tuberculosis in any form, or a loathsome or dangerous contagious disease, and if it shall appear to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that any alien so brought to the United States was afflicted with any of the said diseases or disabilities at the time of foreign embarkation, and that the existence of such disease or disability might have been detected by means of a competent medical examination at such time, such person or transportation company, or the master, agent, owner, or consignee of any such vessel, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000, and in addition a sum equal to that paid by such alien for his transportation from the initial point of departure, indicated in his ticket, to the port of arrival, for each and every violation of the provisions of this section, such latter sum to be delivered by the collector of customs to the alien on whose account assessed. It shall also be unlawful for any such person to bring to any port of the United States any alien afflicted with any mental defect other than those above specifically named, or physical defect of a nature which may affect his ability to earn a living, as contemplated in section 136 of this title, and if it shall appear to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that any alien so brought to the United States was so afflicted at the time of foreign embarkation, and that the existence of such mental or physical defect might have been detected by means of a competent medical examination at such time such person shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $250, and in addition a sum equal to that paid by such alien for his transportation from the initial point of departure, indicated in his ticket, to the port of arrival, for each and every violation of this provision, such latter sum to be delivered by the collector of customs to the alien for whose account assessed. It shall also be unlawful for any such person to bring to any port of the United States any alien who is excluded by the provisions of said section 136 because unable to read, or who is excluded by its terms as a native of that portion of the Continent of Asia and the islands adjacent thereto described in said section, and if it shall appear to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that these disabilities might have been detected by the exercise of reasonable precaution prior to the departure of such aliens from a foreign port, such person shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000, and in addition a sum equal to that paid by such alien for his transportation from the initial point of departure, indicated in his ticket, to the port of arrival, for each and every violation of this provision, such latter sum to be delivered by the collector of customs to the alien on whose account assessed.

If a fine is imposed under this section for the bringing of an alien to the United States, and if such alien is accompanied by another alien who is excluded from admission by the last proviso of section 154 of this title, the person liable for such fine shall pay to the collector of customs, in addition to such fine but as a part thereof, a sum equal to that paid by such accompanying alien for his transportation from his initial point of departure indicated in his ticket, to the point of arrival, such sum to be delivered by the collector of customs to the accompanying alien when deported. No vessel shall be granted clearance papers pending the determination of the question of the liability to the payment of such fines, or while the fines remain unpaid, nor shall such fines be remitted or refunded; but clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fines [or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof, approved by the collector of customs]. Nothing contained in this section shall be construed to subject transportation companies to a fine for bringing to ports of the United States aliens who are by any of the provisions or exceptions to section 136 of this title exempted from the excluding provisions of said section. (Feb. 5, 1917, c. 29, § 9, 39 Stat. 880; May 26, 1924, c. 190, § 26, 43 Stat. 166.)

146. Prevention of unauthorized landing of aliens; prima facie proof of landing.—(a) It shall be the duty of every person, including owners, masters, officers, and agents of vessels of transportation lines, or international bridges or toll roads, other than railway lines which may enter into a contract as provided in section 102 of this title, bringing an alien to, or providing a means for an alien to come to, the United States, to prevent the landing of such alien in the United States at any time or place other than as designated by the immigration officers. Any such person, owner, master, officer, or agent who fails to comply with the foregoing requirements shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and on conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine in each case of not less than $200 nor more than $1,000, or by imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment; or, if in the opinion of the Secretary of Labor, it is impracticable or inconvenient to prosecute the person, owner, master, officer, or agent of any such vessel, such person, owner, master, officer, or agent shall be liable to a penalty of $1,000, which shall be a lien upon the vessel whose owner, master, officer, or agent violates the provisions of this section, and such vessel shall be libeled therefor in the appropriate United States court.

(b) Proof that the alien failed to present himself at the time and place designated by the immigration officers shall be prima facie evidence that such alien has landed in the United States at a time or place other than as designated by the immigration officers. (Feb. 5, 1917, c. 29, § 10, 39 Stat. 881; May 26, 1924, c. 190, § 27, 43 Stat. 167.)

147. Detention of aliens for observation and examination; inspectors to report condition of vessels.—For the purpose of determining whether aliens arriving at ports of the United States belong to any of the classes excluded, either by reason of being afflicted with any of the diseases or mental or physical defects or disabilities mentioned in section 136 of this title, or otherwise, or whenever the Secretary of Labor has received information showing that any aliens are coming from a country or have embarked at a place where any of said diseases are prevalent or epidemic, the Commissioner General of Immigration, with the approval of the Secretary of Labor, may direct that such aliens shall be detained on board the vessel bringing them, or in a United States immigration station at the expense of such vessel, as circumstances may require or justify, a sufficient time to enable the immigration officers and medical officers stationed at such ports to subject aliens to an observation and examination sufficient to determine whether or not they belong to the said excluded classes by reason of being afflicted in the manner indicated. In order to avoid undue delay in landing passengers or interference with commerce, the Commissioner General of Immigration may, with the approval of the Secretary of Labor, issue such regulations, not inconsistent with law, as may be deemed necessary to effect the purposes of this section. It shall be the duty of immigrant inspectors to report to the Commissioner General of Immigration the condition of all vessels bringing aliens to United States ports. (Feb. 5, 1917, c. 29, § 11, 39 Stat. 881.)

148. Lists of alien passengers arriving or departing; record of resident aliens and citizens leaving for foreign country.—Upon the arrival of any alien by water at any port within the United States on the North American Continent from a foreign port or a port of the Philippine Islands, Guam, Porto Rico, or Hawaii, or at any port of the said insular possessions from any foreign port, from a port in the United States on the North American Continent, or from a port of another insular possession of the United States, it shall be the duty of the master or commanding officer, owners, or consignees of the steamer, sailing, or other vessel having said alien on board to deliver to the immigration officers at the port of arrival typewritten or printed lists or manifests made at the time and place of embarkation of such alien on board such steamer or vessel, which shall, in answer to questions at the top of said list, contain full and accurate information as to each alien as follows: Full name, age, and sex; whether married or single; calling or occupation; personal description (including height, complexion, color of hair and eyes, and marks of identification); whether able to read or write; nationality; country of birth; race; country of last permanent residence; name and address of the nearest relative in the country from which the alien came; seaport for landing in the United States; final destination, if any, beyond the port of landing; whether having a ticket through to such final destination; by whom passage was paid; whether in possession of $50, and if less, how much; whether going to join a relative or friend, and, if so, what relative or friend, and his or her name and complete address; whether ever before in the United States, and if so, when and where; whether ever in prison or almshouse or an institution or hospital for the care and treatment of the insane; whether ever supported by charity; whether a polygamist; whether an anarchist; whether a person who believes in or advocates the overthrow by force or violence of the Government of the United States or of all forms of law, or who disbelieves in or is opposed to organized government, or who advocates the assassination of public officials, or who advocates or teaches the unlawful destruction of property, or is a member of or affiliated with any organization entertaining and teaching disbelief in or opposition to organized government, or which teaches the unlawful destruction of property, or who advocates or teaches the duty, necessity, or propriety of the unlawful assaulting or killing of any officer or officers, either of specific individuals or of officers generally, of the Government of the United States or of any other organized government because of his or their official character; whether coming by reason of any offer, solicitation, promise, or agreement, express or implied, to perform labor in the United States; the alien's condition of health, mental and physical; whether deformed or crippled; and if so, for how long and from what cause; whether coming with the intent to return to the country whence such alien comes after temporarily engaging in laboring pursuits in the United States; and such other items of information as will aid in determining whether any such alien belongs to any of the excluded classes enumerated in section 136 of this title; and such master or commanding officer, owners, or consignees shall also furnish information in relation to the sex, age, class of travel, and the foreign port of embarkation of arriving passengers who are United States citizens. It shall further be the duty of the master or commanding officer of every vessel taking passengers from any port of the United States on the North American Continent to a foreign port or a port of the Philippine Islands, Guam, Porto Rico, or Hawaii, or from any port of the said insular possessions to any foreign port, to a port of the United States on the North American Continent, or to a port of another insular possession of the United States to file with the immigration officials before departure a list which shall contain full and accurate information in relation to the following matters regarding all alien passengers, and all citizens of the United States or insular possessions of the United States departing with the stated intent to reside permanently in a foreign country, taken on board: Name, age, and sex; whether married or single; calling or occupation; whether able to read or write; nationality; country of birth; country of which citizen or subject; race; last permanent residence in the United States or insular possessions thereof; if a citizen of the United States or of the insular possessions thereof, whether native born or naturalized; if native born, the place and date of birth, or if naturalized the city or town in which naturalization has been had; intended future permanent residence; and time and port of last arrival in the United States, or insular possessions thereof; and such master or commanding officer shall also furnish information in relation to the sex, age, class of travel, and port of debarkation of the United States citizens departing who do not intend to reside permanently in a foreign country, and no master of any such vessel shall be granted clearance papers for his vessel until he has deposited such list or lists with the immigration officials at the port of departure and made oath that they are full and complete as to the name and other information herein required concerning each person of the classes specified taken on board his vessel; and any neglect or omission to comply with the requirements of this section shall be punishable as provided in section 150 of this title. In the case of vessels making regular trips to ports of the United States the Commissioner General of Immigration, with the approval of the Secretary of Labor, may, when expedient, arrange for the delivery of such lists of outgoing aliens at a later date. It shall be the duty of immigration officials to record the following information regarding every resident alien and citizen leaving the United States by way of the Canadian or Mexican borders for permanent residence in a foreign country: Name, age, and sex; whether married or single; calling or occupation; whether able to read or write; nationality; country of birth; country of which citizen or subject; race; last permanent residence in the United States; intended future permanent residence: and time and port of last arrival in the United States; and if a United States citizen, whether native born or naturalized. (Feb. 5, 1917, c. 29, § 12, 39 Stat. 882.)

149. Grouping of alien passengers in lists; identification tickets.—All aliens arriving by water at the ports of the United States shall be listed in convenient groups, the names of those coming from the same locality to be assembled so far as practicable, and no one list or manifest shall contain more than thirty names. To each alien or head of a family shall be given a ticket on which shall be written his name, a number or letter designating the list in which his name, and other items of information required by law, are contained, and his number on said list, for convenience of identification on arrival. Each list or manifest shall be verified by the signature and the oath or affirmation of the master or commanding officer, or the first or second below him in command, taken before an immigration officer at the port of arrival, to the effect that he has caused the surgeon of said vessel sailing therewith to make a physical and mental examination of each of said aliens, and that from the report of said surgeon and from his own investigation he believes that no one of said aliens is of any of the classes excluded from admission into the United States under sections 136 and 137 of this title, and that also according to the best of his knowledge and belief the information in said lists or manifests concerning each of said aliens named therein is correct and true in every respect. The surgeon of said vessel sailing therewith shall also sign each of said lists or manifest and make oath or affirmation in like manner before an immigration officer at the port of arrival, stating his professional experience and qualifications as a physician and surgeon, and that he has made a personal examination of each of the said aliens named therein, and that the said list or manifest, according to the best of his knowledge and belief, is full, correct, and true in all particulars relative to the mental and physical condition of said aliens. If no surgeon sails with any vessel bringing aliens, the mental and physical examinations and the verifications of the lists or manifests shall be made by some competent surgeon employed by the owners of the said vessels, and the manifests shall be verified by such surgeon before a United States consular officer or other officer authorized to administer oaths. If any changes in the condition of such aliens occur or develop during the voyage of the vessel on which they are traveling, such changes shall be noted on the manifest before the verification thereof. (Feb. 5, 1917, c. 29, § 13, 39 Stat. 884.)

150. Refusal or failure to furnish lists of alien passengers.—It shall be unlawful for the master or commanding officer of any vessel bringing aliens into or carrying aliens out of the United States to refuse or fail to deliver to the immigration officials the accurate and full manifests or statements or information regarding all aliens on board or taken on board such vessel required by this subchapter, and if it shall appear to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that there has been such a refusal or failure, or that the lists delivered are not accurate and full, such master or commanding officer shall pay to the collector of customs at the port of arrival or departure the sum of $10 for each alien concerning whom such accurate and full manifest or statement or information is not furnished, or concerning whom the manifest or statement or information is not prepared and sworn to as prescribed by this subchapter. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question of the liability to the payment of such fine, or while it remains unpaid, nor shall such fine be remitted or refunded; but clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit with the collector of customs of a sum sufficient to cover such fine. (Feb. 5, 1917, c. 29, § 14, 39 Stat. 884.)

151. Inspection of alien passengers on arrival; temporary removal for examination.—Upon the arrival at a port of the United States of any vessel bringing aliens it shall be the duty of the proper immigration officials to go or to send competent assistants to the vessel and there inspect all such aliens, or said immigration officials may order a temporary removal of such aliens for examination at a designated time and place, but such temporary removal shall not be considered a landing, nor shall it relieve vessels, the transportation lines, masters, agents, owners, or consignees of the vessel upon which said aliens are brought to any port of the United States from any of the obligations which, in case such aliens remain on board, would under the provisions of this subchapter bind the said vessels, transportation lines, masters, agents, owners, or consignees. Where removal is made to premises owned or controlled by the United States, said vessels, transportation lines, masters, agents, owners, or consignees, and each of them, shall, so long as detention there lasts, be relieved of responsibility for the safe-keeping of such aliens. Whenever a temporary removal of aliens is made the vessels or transportation lines which brought them and the masters, owners, agents, and consignees of the vessel upon which they arrive shall pay all expenses of such removal and all expenses arising during subsequent detention, pending decision on the aliens' eligibility to enter the United States and until they are either allowed to land or returned to the care of the line or to the vessel which brought them, such expenses to include those of maintenance, medical treatment in hospital or elsewhere, burial in the event of death, and transfer to the vessel in the event of deportation, excepting only where they arise under the terms of any of the provisos of section 154 of this title. Any refusal or failure to comply with the provisions hereof shall be punished in the manner specified in that section. (Feb. 5, 1917, c. 29, § 15, 39 Stat. 885.)

152. Physical and mental examination of alien passengers; regulations.—The physical and mental examination of all arriving aliens shall be made by medical officers of the United States Public Health Service who shall have had at least two years' experience in the practice of their profession since receiving the degree of doctor of medicine, and who shall conduct all medical examinations and shall certify, for the information of the immigration officers and the boards of special inquiry hereinafter provided for, any and all physical and mental defects or diseases observed by said medical officers in any such alien; or, should medical officers of the United States Public Health Service be not available, civil surgeons of not less than four years' professional experience may be employed in such emergency for such service upon such terms as may be prescribed by the Commissioner General of Immigration, under the direction or with the approval of the Secretary of Labor. All aliens arriving at ports of the United States shall be examined by not less than two such medical officers at the discretion of the Secretary of Labor, and under such administrative regulations as he may prescribe and under medical regulations prepared by the Surgeon General of the United States Public Health Service. Medical officers of the United States Public Health Service who have had especial training in the diagnosis of insanity and mental defects shall be detailed for duty or employed at all ports of entry designated by the Secretary of Labor, and such medical officers shall be provided with suitable facilities for the detention and examination of all arriving aliens in whom insanity or mental defect is suspected, and the services of interpreters shall be provided for such examination. Any alien certified for insanity or mental defect may appeal to the board of medical officers of the United States Public Health Service, which shall be convened by the Surgeon General of the United States Public Health Service, and said alien may introduce before such board one expert medical witness at his own cost and expense. The inspection, other than the physical and mental examination, of aliens, including those seeking admission or readmission to or the privilege of passing through or residing in the United States, and the examination of aliens arrested within the United States under this section, shall be conducted by immigrant inspectors, except as hereinafter provided in regard to boards of special inquiry. All aliens arriving at ports of the United States shall be examined by at least two immigrant inspectors at the discretion of the Secretary of Labor and under such regulations as he may prescribe. Immigrant inspectors are hereby authorized and empowered to board and search for aliens any vessel, railway car, or any other conveyance, or vehicle in which they believe aliens are being brought into the United States. Said inspectors shall have power to administer oaths and to take and consider evidence touching the right of any alien to enter, reenter, pass through, or reside in the United States, and, where such action may be necessary, to make a written record of such evidence; and any person to whom such an oath has been administered, under the provisions of this subchapter, who shall knowingly or willfully give false evidence or swear to any false statement in any way affecting or in relation to the right of any alien to admission, or readmission to, or to pass through, or to reside in the United States shall be deemed guilty of perjury and be punished as provided by section 231 of Title 18. All aliens coming to the United States shall be required to state under oath the purposes for which they come, the length of time they intend to remain in the United States, whether or not they intend to abide in the United States permanently and become citizens thereof, and such other items of information regarding themselves as will aid the immigration officials in determining whether they belong to any of the excluded classes enumerated in sections 136 and 137 of this title. Any commissioner of immigration or inspector in charge shall also have power to require by subpœna the attendance and testimony of witnesses before said inspectors and the production of books, papers, and documents touching the right of any alien to enter, reenter, reside in, or pass through the United States, and to that end may invoke the aid of any court of the United States; and any district court within the jurisdiction of which investigations are being conducted by an immigrant inspector may, in the event of neglect or refusal to respond to a subpœna issued by any commissioner of immigration or inspector in charge or refusal to testify before said immigrant inspector, issue an order requiring such person to appear before said immigrant inspector, produce books, papers, and documents if demanded, and testify; and any failure to obey such order of the court may be punished by the court as a contempt thereof. Any person, including employees, officials, or agents of transportation companies, who shall assault, resist, prevent, impede, or interfere with any immigration official or employee in the performance of his duty under this subchapter shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be punished by imprisonment for a term of not more than one year, or by a fine of not more than $2,000, or both; and any person who shall use any deadly or dangerous weapon in resisting any immigration official or employee in the performance of his duty shall be deemed guilty of a felony and shall, on conviction thereof, be punished by imprisonment for not more than ten years. Every alien who may not appear to the examining immigrant inspector at the port of arrival to be clearly and beyond a doubt entitled to land shall be detained for examination in relation thereto by a board of special inquiry. In the event of rejection by the board of special inquiry, in all cases where an appeal to the Secretary of Labor is permitted by this subchapter, the alien shall be so informed and shall have the right to be represented by counsel or other adviser on such appeal. The decision of an immigrant inspector, if favorable to the admission of any alien, shall be subject to challenge by any other immigrant inspector, and such challenge shall operate to take the alien whose right to land is so challenged before a board of special inquiry for its investigation. (Feb. 5, 1917, c. 29, § 16, 39 Stat. 885.)

153. Boards of special inquiry; appointment.—Boards of special inquiry shall be appointed by the commissioner of immigration or inspector in charge at the various ports of arrival as may be necessary for the prompt determination of all cases of immigrants detained at such ports under the provisions of the law. Each board shall consist of three members, who shall be selected from such of the immigrant officials in the service as the Commissioner General of Immigration, with the approval of the Secretary of Labor, shall from time to time designate as qualified to serve on such boards. When in the opinion of the Secretary of Labor the maintenance of a permanent board of special inquiry for service at any sea or land border port is not warranted, regularly constituted boards may be detailed from other stations for temporary service at such port, or, if that be impracticable, the Secretary of Labor shall authorize the creation of boards of special inquiry by the immigration officials in charge at such ports, and shall determine what Government officials or other persons shall be eligible for service on such boards. Such boards shall have authority to determine whether an alien who has been duly held shall be allowed to land or shall be deported. All hearings before such boards shall be separate and apart from the public, but the immigrant may have one friend or relative present under such regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor. Such boards shall keep a complete permanent record of their proceedings and of all such testimony as may be produced before them; and the decisions of any two members of the board shall prevail, but either the alien or any dissenting member of the said board may appeal through the commissioner of immigration at the port of arrival and the Commissioner General of Immigration to the Secretary of Labor, and the taking of such appeal shall operate to stay any action in regard to the final disposal of any alien whose case is so appealed until the receipt by the commissioner of immigration at the port of arrival of such decision which shall be rendered solely upon the evidence adduced before the board of special inquiry. In every case where an alien is excluded from admission into the United States, under any law or treaty now existing or hereafter made, the decision of a board of special inquiry adverse to the admission of such alien shall be final, unless reversed on appeal to the Secretary of Labor. The decision of a board of special inquiry shall be based upon the certificate of the examining medical officer and, except as provided in section 158 of this title, shall be final as to the rejection of aliens affected with tuberculosis in any form or with a loathsome or dangerous contagious disease, or with any mental or physical disability which would bring such aliens within any of the classes excluded from admission to the United States under section 136 of this title. (Feb. 5, 1917, c. 29, § 17, 39 Stat. 887.)

154. Immediate deportation of aliens brought in violation of law; cost of maintenance and return.—All aliens brought to this country in violation of law shall be immediately sent back, in accommodations of the same class in which they arrived, to the country whence they respectively came, on the vessels bringing them, unless in the opinion of the Secretary of Labor immediate deportation is not practicable or proper. The cost of their maintenance while on land, as well as the expense of the return of such aliens, shall be borne by the owner or owners of the vessels on which they respectively came. It shall be unlawful for any master, purser, person in charge, agent, owner, or consignee of any such vessel to refuse to receive back on board thereof, or on board of any other vessel owned or operated by the same interests, such aliens; or to fail to detain them thereon; or to refuse or fail to return them in the manner aforesaid to the foreign port from which they came; or to fail to pay the cost of their maintenance while on land; or to make any charge for the return of any such alien, or to take any security for the payment of such charge; or to take any consideration to be returned in case the alien is landed; or knowingly to bring to the United States at any time within one year from the date of deportation any alien rejected or arrested and deported under any provision of this subchapter, unless prior to reembarkation the Secretary of Labor has consented that such alien shall reapply for admission, as required by section 136 of this title; and if it shall appear to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that such master, purser, person in charge, agent, owner, or consignee has violated any of the foregoing provisions, or any of the provisions of section 151 of this title, such master, purser, person in charge, agent, owner, or consignee shall pay to the collector of customs of the district in which the port of arrival is located, or in which any vessel of the line may be found, the sum of $300 for each and every violation of any provision of said sections; and no vessel shall have clearance from any port of the United States while any such fine is unpaid, nor shall such fine be remitted or refunded: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit with the collector of customs of a sum sufficient to cover such fine. If the vessel by which any alien ordered deported came has left the United States and it is impracticable for any reason to deport the alien within a reasonable time by another vessel owned by the same interests, the cost of deportation may be paid by the Government and recovered by civil suit from any agent, owner, or consignee of the vessel: Provided further, That the Commissioner General of Immigration, with the approval of the Secretary of Labor, may suspend, upon conditions to be prescribed by the Commissioner General of Immigration, the deportation of any aliens found to have come in violation of any provision of this subchapter if, in his judgment, the testimony of such alien is necessary on behalf of the United States Government in the prosecution of offenders against any provision of this subchapter or other laws of the United States; and the cost of maintenance of any person so detained resulting from such suspension of deportation, and a witness fee in the sum of $1 per day for each day such person is so detained, may be paid from the appropriation for the enforcement of this subchapter, or such alien may be released under bond, in the penalty of not less than $500, with security approved by the Secretary of Labor, conditioned that such alien shall be produced when required as a witness and for deportation. No alien certified, as provided in section 152 of this title, to be suffering from tuberculosis in any form, or from a loathsome or dangerous contagious disease other than one of quarantinable nature, shall be permitted to land for medical treatment thereof in any hospital in the United States, unless the Secretary of Labor is satisfied that to refuse treatment would be inhumane or cause unusual hardship or suffering, in which case the alien shall be treated in the hospital under the supervision of the immigration officials at the expense of the vessel transporting him: Provided further, That upon the certificate of an examining medical officer to the effect that the health or safety of an insane alien would be unduly imperiled by immediate deportation, such alien may, at the expense of the appropriation for the enforcement of the laws regulating immigration of aliens into the United States, be held for treatment until such time as such alien may, in the opinion of such medical officer, be safely deported: Provided further, That upon the certificate of an examining medical officer to the effect that a rejected alien is helpless from sickness, mental or physical disability, or infancy, if such alien is accompanied by another alien whose protection or guardianship is required by such rejected alien, such accompanying alien may also be excluded, and the master, agent, owner, or consignee of the vessel in which such alien and accompanying alien are brought shall be required to return said alien and accompanying alien in the same manner as vessels are required to return other rejected aliens. (Feb. 5, 1917, c. 29, § 18, 39 Stat. 887; Feb. 27, 1925, c. 364, Title IV, 43 Stat. 1049.)

155. Deportation within certain time of aliens entering or found in United States in violation of law.—At any time within five years after entry, any alien who at the time of entry was a member of one or more of the classes excluded by law; any alien who shall have entered or who shall be found in the United States in violation of this subchapter, or in violation of any other law of the United States; any alien who at any time after entry shall be found advocating or teaching the unlawful destruction of property, or advocating or teaching anarchy, or the overthrow by force or violence of the Government of the United States or of all forms of law or the assassination of public officials; any alien who within five years after entry becomes a public charge from causes not affirmatively shown to have arisen subsequent to landing; except as hereinafter provided, any alien who, after February 5, 1917, is sentenced to imprisonment for a term of one year or more because of conviction in this country of a crime involving moral turpitude, committed within five years after the entry of the alien to the United States, or who is sentenced more than once to such a term of imprisonment because of conviction in this country of any crime involving moral turpitude, committed at any time after entry; any alien who shall be found an inmate of or connected with the management of a house of prostitution or practicing prostitution after such alien shall have entered the United States, or who shall receive, share in, or derive benefit from any part of the earnings of any prostitute; any alien who manages or is employed by, in, or in connection with any house of prostitution or music or dance hall or other place of amusement or resort habitually frequented by prostitutes, or where prostitutes gather, or who in any way assists any prostitute or protects or promises to protect from arrest any prostitute; any alien who shall import or attempt to import any person for the purpose of prostitution or for any other immoral purpose; any alien who, after being excluded and deported or arrested and deported as a prostitute, or as a procurer, or as having been connected with the business of prostitution or importation for prostitution or other immoral purposes in any of the ways hereinbefore specified, shall return to and enter the United States; any alien convicted and imprisoned for a violation of any of the provisions of section 138 of this title; any alien who was convicted, or who admits the commission, prior to entry, of a felony or other crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude; at any time within three years after entry, any alien who shall have entered the United States by water at any time or place other than as designated by immigration officials, or by land at any place other than one designated as a port of entry for aliens by the Commissioner General of Immigration, or at any time not designated by immigration officials, or who enters without inspection, shall, upon the warrant of the Secretary of Labor, be taken into custody and deported. The marriage to an American citizen of a female of the sexually immoral classes the exclusion or deportation of which is prescribed by this subchapter shall not invest such female with United States citizenship if the marriage of such alien female shall be solemnized after her arrest or after the commission of acts which make her liable to deportation under this subchapter. The provision of this section respecting the deportation of aliens convicted of a crime involving moral turpitude shall not apply to one who has been pardoned, nor shall such deportation be made or directed if the court, or judge thereof, sentencing such alien for such crime shall, at the time of imposing judgment or passing sentence or within thirty days thereafter, due notice having first been given to representatives of the State, make a recommendation to the Secretary of Labor that such alien shall not be deported in pursuance of this subchapter; nor shall any alien convicted as aforesaid be deported until after the termination of his imprisonment. The provisions of this section, with the exceptions hereinbefore noted, shall be applicable to the classes of aliens therein mentioned irrespective of the time of their entry into the United States; and shall also apply to the cases of aliens who come to the mainland of the United States from the insular possessions thereof. Any person who shall be arrested under the provisions of this section, on the ground that he has entered or been found in the United States in violation of any other law thereof which imposes on such person the burden of proving his right to enter or remain, and who shall fail to establish the existence of the right claimed, shall be deported to the place specified in such other law. In every case where any person is ordered deported from the United States under the provisions of this subchapter, or of any law or treaty, the decision of the Secretary of Labor shall be final. (Feb. 5, 1917, c. 29, § 19, 39 Stat. 889.)

156. Ports to which aliens to be deported; cost of deportation.—The deportation of aliens provided for in this subchapter shall, at the option of the Secretary of Labor, be to the country whence they came or to the foreign port at which such aliens embarked for the United States; or, if such embarkation was for foreign contiguous territory, to the foreign port at which they embarked for such territory; or, if such aliens entered foreign contiguous territory from the United States and later entered the United States, or if such aliens are held by the country from which they entered the United States not to be subjects or citizens of such country, and such country refuses to permit their reentry, or imposes any condition upon permitting reentry, then to the country of which such aliens are subjects or citizens, or to the country in which they resided prior to entering the country from which they entered the United States. If deportation proceedings are instituted at any time within five years after the entry of the alien, such deportation, including one-half of the entire cost of removal to the port of deportation, shall be at the expense of the contractor, procurer, or other person by whom the alien was unlawfully induced to enter the United States, or, if that can not be done, then the cost of removal to the port of deportation shall be at the expense of the appropriation for the enforcement of the laws regulating immigration of aliens into the United States, and the deportation from such port shall be at the expense of the owner or owners of such vessels or transportation line by which such aliens respectively came, or, if that is not practicable, at the expense of the appropriation for the enforcement of the laws regulating immigration of aliens into the United States. If deportation proceedings are instituted later than five years after the entry of the alien, or, if the deportation is made by reason of causes arising subsequent to entry, the cost thereof shall be payable from said appropriation. A failure or refusal on the part of the masters, agents, owners, or consignees of vessels to comply with the order of the Secretary of Labor to take on board, guard safely, and transport to the destination specified any alien ordered to be deported under the provisions of this subchapter shall be punished by the imposition of the penalties prescribed in section 154 of this title. When in the opinion of the Secretary of Labor the mental or physical condition of such alien is such as to require personal care and attendance, the said Secretary shall when necessary employ a suitable person for that purpose, who shall accompany such alien to his or her final destination, and the expense incident to such service shall be defrayed in the same manner as the expense of deporting the accompanied alien is defrayed. Pending the final disposal of the case of any alien so taken into custody, he may be released under a bond in the penalty of not less than $500 with security approved by the Secretary of Labor, conditioned that such alien shall be produced when required for a hearing or hearings in regard to the charge upon which he has been taken into custody, and for deportation if he shall be found to be unlawfully within the United States. (Feb. 5, 1917, c. 29, § 20, 39 Stat. 890.)

157. Deportation of certain specified aliens; enumeration of persons to be deported; manner of deportation; decision of Secretary of Labor final; readmission denied.—Aliens of the following classes, in addition to those for whose expulsion from the United States provision is made in the existing law, shall, upon the warrant of the Secretary of Labor, be taken into his custody and deported in the manner provided in sections 155 and 156 of this title, if the Secretary of Labor, after hearing, finds that such aliens are undesirable residents of the United States, to wit:

(1) All aliens who since August 1, 1914, have been or may hereafter be convicted of any violation or conspiracy to violate any of the following sections, the judgment on such conviction having become final, namely:

(a) Act June 15, 1917, chapter 30, Fortieth Statutes, 217, entitled "An Act to punish acts of interference with the foreign relations, the neutrality, and the foreign commerce of the United States, to punish espionage, and better to enforce the criminal laws of the United States, and for other purposes," as amended by Act May 16, 1918, chapter 75, Fortieth Statutes, 553, being sections 25, 27, 31 to 39, 98, 130 to 133, 252 to 255, 270, 362, and 611 to 633 of Title 18, sections 213, 220 to 222, 231 to 235, inclusive, of Title 22 and the provisions of chapter 4 of Title 50;

(b) Act October 6, 1917, chapter 83, Fortieth Statutes, 385, entitled "An Act to prohibit the manufacture, distribution, storage, use, and possession in time of war of explosives, providing regulations for the sale, manufacture, distribution, storage, use, and possession of the same, and for other purposes," being chapter 8 of Title 50;

(c) Act May 22, 1918, chapter 81, Fortieth Statutes, 559, entitled "An Act to prevent in time of war departure from or entry into the United States contrary to the public safety," being sections 223 to 226 of Title 22;

(d) Act April 20, 1918, chapter 59, Fortieth Statutes, 533, entitled "An Act to punish the willful injury or destruction of war material, or of war premises, or utilities used in connection with war material, and for other purposes," being chapter 6 of Title 50;

(e) Act May 18, 1917, chapter 15, Fortieth Statutes, 76 entitled "An Act to authorize the President to increase temporarily the Military Establishment of the United States";

(f) Act February 14, 1917, chapter 64, Thirty-ninth Statutes, 919, entitled "An Act to punish persons who make threats against the President of the United States," being section 89 of Title 18;

(g) Act October 6, 1917, chapter 106, Fortieth Statutes, 411, entitled "An Act to define, regulate, and punish trading with the enemy, and for other purposes," and any amendments thereto;

(h) Section 6 of the Penal Code, being section 6 of Title 18;

(2) All aliens who have been or may hereafter be convicted of any offense against section 25 of Title 18 committed during the period of August 1, 1914, to April 6, 1917, or of a conspiracy occurring within said period to commit an offense under said section 25, or of any offense committed during said period against sections 1 to 6, and 15 of Title 15. In every case in which any such alien is ordered expelled or excluded from the United States under the provisions of this section the decision of the Secretary of Labor shall be final. All persons who shall be expelled under any of the provisions of this section shall be excluded from readmission into the United States. (May 10, 1920, c. 174, §§ 1–3, 41 Stat. 593, 594.)

158. Admission of aliens liable to be excluded on giving bond or cash deposit.—Any alien liable to be excluded because likely to become a public charge or because of physical disability other than tuberculosis in any form or a loathsome or dangerous contagious disease may, if otherwise admissible, nevertheless be admitted in the discretion of the Secretary of Labor upon the giving of a suitable and proper bond or undertaking, approved by said Secretary, in such amount and containing such conditions as he may prescribe, to the United States and to all States, Territories, counties, towns, municipalities, and districts thereof, holding the United States and all States, Territories, counties, towns, municipalities, and districts thereof harmless against such alien becoming a public charge. In lieu of such bond, such alien may deposit in cash with the Secretary of Labor such amount as the Secretary of Labor may require, which amount shall be deposited by said Secretary in the United States Postal Savings Bank, a receipt therefor to be given the person furnishing said sum, showing the fact and object of its receipt and such other information as said Secretary may deem advisable. All accruing interest on said deposit during the time shall be held in the United States Postal Savings Bank shall be paid to the person furnishing the sum for deposit. In the event of such alien becoming a public charge, the Secretary of Labor shall dispose of said deposit in the same manner as if same had been collected under a bond as provided in this section. In the event of the permanent departure from the United States, the naturalization, or the death of such alien, the said sum shall be returned to the person by whom furnished, or to his legal representatives. The admission of such alien shall be a consideration for the giving of such bond, undertaking, or cash deposit. Suit may be brought thereon in the name and by the proper law officers either of the United States Government or of any State, Territory, district, county, town, or municipality in which such alien becomes a public charge. (Feb. 5, 1917, c. 29, § 21, 39 Stat. 891.)

159. Temporary detention and admission or deportation, in case of contagious disorder, of wife or minor child of naturalized alien or resident alien.—Whenever an alien shall have been naturalized or shall have taken up his permanent residence in this country, and thereafter shall send for his wife or minor children to join him, and said wife or any of said minor children shall be found to be affected with any contagious disorder, such wife or minor children shall be held, under such regulations as the Secretary of Labor shall prescribe, until it shall be determined whether the disorder will be easily curable or whether they can be permitted to land without danger to other persons; and they shall not be either admitted or deported until such facts have been ascertained; and if it shall be determined that the disorder is easily curable and the husband or father or other responsible person is willing to bear the expense of the treatment, they may be accorded treatment in hospital until cured and then be admitted, or if it shall be determined that they can be permitted to land without danger to other persons, they may, if otherwise admissible, thereupon be admitted. If the person sending for wife or minor children is naturalized, a wife to whom married or a minor child born subsequent to such husband or father's naturalization shall be admitted without detention for treatment in hospital, and with respect to a wife to whom married or a minor child born prior to such husband or father's naturalization the provisions of this section shall be observed, even though such person is unable to pay the expense of treatment, in which case the expense shall be paid from the appropriation for the enforcement of the laws regulating immigration of aliens into the United States. (Feb. 5, 1917, c. 29, § 22, 39 Stat. 891.)

160. Landing stations for alien passengers transported from Canada or Mexico.—No person, company, or transportation line engaged in carrying alien passengers for hire from Canada or Mexico to the United States, whether by land or water, shall be allowed to land any such passengers in the United States without providing suitable and approved landing stations, conveniently located, at the point or points of entry. The Commissioner General of Immigration is hereby authorized and empowered to prescribe the conditions, not inconsistent with law, under which the above-mentioned landing stations shall be deemed suitable within the meaning of this section. Any person, company, or transportation line landing an alien passenger in the United States without compliance with the requirement herein set forth shall be deemed to have violated section 144 of this title, and upon conviction shall be subject to the penalty therein prescribed. (Feb. 5, 1917, c. 29, § 23, 39 Stat. 892.)

161. Interior immigrant stations.—For the purpose of making effective the provisions of section 102 of this title relating to the protection of aliens from fraud and loss, and also the provisions of section 105 of this title relating to the distribution of aliens, the Secretary of Labor shall establish and maintain immigrant stations at such interior places as may be necessary, and, in the discretion of the said Secretary, aliens in transit from ports of landing to such interior stations shall be accompanied by immigrant inspectors. (Feb. 5, 1917, c. 29, § 23, 39 Stat. 892.)

162. Discrimination in rules and contracts for entry and inspection of aliens.—In prescribing rules and making contracts for the entry and inspection of aliens applying for admission from or through foreign contiguous territory, due care shall be exercised to avoid any discriminatory action in favor of foreign transportation companies transporting to such territory aliens destined to the United States, and all such transportation companies shall be required, as a condition precedent to the inspection or examination under such rules and contracts at the ports of such contiguous territory of aliens brought thereto by them, to submit to and comply with all the requirements of this subchapter which would apply were they bringing such aliens directly to seaports of the United States, and no alien applying for admission from foreign contiguous territory shall be permitted to enter the United States unless upon proving that he was brought to such territory by a transportation company which had submitted to and complied with all the requirements of this subchapter, or that he entered, or has resided in, such territory more than two years prior to the date of his application for admission to the United States. (Feb. 5, 1917, c. 29, § 23, 39 Stat. 893.)

163. Aiding or assisting certain aliens to enter; penalty.—Any person who knowingly aids or assists any anarchist or any person who believes in or advocates the overthrow by force or violence of the Government of the United States, or who disbelieves in or is opposed to organized government, or all forms of law, or who advocates the assassination of public officials, or who is a member of or affiliated with any organization entertaining or teaching disbelief in or opposition to organized government, or who advocates or teaches the duty, necessity, or propriety of the unlawful assaulting or killing of any officer or officers, either of specific individuals or of officers generally, of the Government of the United States or of any other organized government, because of his or their official character, to enter the United States, or who connives or conspires with any person or persons to allow, procure, or permit any such anarchist or person aforesaid to enter therein, shall be deemed guilty of a felony, and on conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $5,000 or by imprisonment for not more than five years, or both.

Any person who knowingly aids or assists any alien who advocates or teaches the unlawful destruction of property to enter the United States shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and on conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000, or by imprisonment for not more than six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment. (Feb. 5, 1917, c. 29, § 28, 39 Stat. 894.)

164. Jurisdiction of district courts; duties of district attorneys.—The district courts of the United States are invested with full jurisdiction of all causes, civil and criminal, arising under any of the provisions of this subchapter. It shall be the duty of the United States district attorney of the proper district to prosecute every such suit when brought by the United States under this subchapter. Such prosecutions or suits may be instituted at any place in the United States at which the violation may occur or at which the person charged with such violation may be found. No suit or proceeding for a violation of the provisions of this subchapter shall be settled, compromised, or discontinued without the consent of the court in which it is pending, entered of record, with the reasons therefor. (Feb. 5, 1917, c. 29, § 25, 39 Stat. 893.)

165. Signing alien on ship's articles with intent to permit landing in violation of laws.—Any person, including the owner, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any foreign port or place, who shall knowingly sign on the ship's articles, or bring to the United States as one of the crew of such vessel, any alien, with intent to permit such alien to land in the United States in violation of the laws and treaties of the United States regulating the immigration of aliens, or who shall falsely and knowingly represent to the immigration authorities at the port of arrival that any such alien is a bona fide member of the crew, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding $5,000, for which sum the said vessel shall be liable and may be seized and proceeded against by way of libel in any district court of the United States having jurisdiction of the offense. (Feb. 5, 1917, c. 29, § 31, 39 Stat. 895.)

166. Landing of excluded seamen prohibited; temporary landing; deportation within three years.—No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or pursuant to such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate departure, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States. Any alien seaman who shall land in a port of the United States contrary to the provisions of this subchapter shall be deemed to be unlawfully in the United States, and shall, at any time within three years thereafter, upon the warrant of the Secretary of Labor, be taken into custody and brought before a board of special inquiry for examination as to his qualifications for admission to the United States, and if not admitted said alien seaman shall be deported at the expense of the appropriation provided in section 156 of this title. (Feb. 5, 1917, c. 29, § 34, 39 Stat. 896; May 26, 1924, c. 190, § 19, 43 Stat. 164.)

167. (a) Detention of seamen on board vessel until after inspection; detention or deportation; penalty; clearance to vessels.—The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who fails to detain on board any alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has inspected such seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiners), or who fails to detain such seaman on board after such inspection or to deport such seaman if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor to do so, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to the payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Prima facie evidence of failure to detain or deport.—Proof that an alien seaman did not appear upon the outgoing manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was reported by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to detain or deport after requirement by the immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor.

(c) Deportation; procedure.—If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor. (May 26, 1924, c. 190, § 20 (a-c), 43 Stat. 164.)

168. Paying off or discharging excluded aliens employed on vessels; landing to allow reshipping.—It shall be unlawful to pay off or discharge any alien employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any foreign port or place, unless duly admitted pursuant to the laws and treaties of the United States regulating the immigration of aliens. In case any such alien intends to reship on board any other vessel bound to any foreign port or place, he shall be allowed to land for the purpose of so reshipping, under such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe to prevent aliens not admissible under any law, convention, or treaty from remaining permanently in the United States, and may be paid off, discharged, and permitted to remove his effects, anything in such laws or treaties or in this subchapter to the contrary notwithstanding, provided due notice of such proposed action be given by the master or the seaman himself to the principal immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival. (Feb. 5, 1917, c. 29, § 33, 39 Stat. 896.)

169. Employment on passenger vessels of aliens afflicted with idiocy, etc.—It shall be unlawful for any vessel carrying passengers between a port of the United States and a port of a foreign country, upon arrival in the United States, to have on board employed thereon any alien afflicted with idiocy, imbecility, insanity, epilepsy, tuberculosis in any form, or a loathsome or dangerous contagious disease, if it appears to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor, from an examination made by a medical officer of the United States Public Health Service, and is so certified by such officer, that any such alien was so afflicted at the time he was shipped or engaged and taken on board such vessel and that the existence of such affliction might have been detected by means of a competent medical examination at such time; and for every such alien so afflicted on board any such vessel at the time of arrival the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $50, and pending departure of the vessel the alien shall be detained and treated in hospital under supervision of immigration officials at the expense of the vessel; and no vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question of the liability to the payment of such fine and while it remains unpaid; but clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine. Such fine may, in the discretion of the Secretary of Labor, be mitigated or remitted. (Feb. 5, 1917, c. 29, § 35, 39 Stat. 896.)

170. Treatment in hospitals of alien seamen afflicted with certain diseases.—Alien seamen found on arrival in ports of the United States to be afflicted with any of the disabilities or diseases mentioned in the preceding section shall be placed in a hospital designated by the immigration official in charge at the port of arrival and treated, all expenses connected therewith, including burial in the event of death, to be borne by the owner, agent, consignee, or master of the vessel, and not to be deducted from the seamen's wages, and no such vessel shall be granted clearance until such expenses are paid or their payment appropriately guaranteed and the collector of customs so notified by the immigration official in charge. Alien seamen suspected of being afflicted with any such disability or disease may be removed from the vessel on which they arrive to an immigration station or other appropriate place for such observation as will enable the examining surgeons definitely to determine whether or not they are so afflicted, all expenses connected therewith to be borne in the manner hereinbefore prescribed. In cases in which it shall appear to the satisfaction of the immigration official in charge that it will not be possible within a reasonable time to effect a cure, the return of the alien seamen shall be enforced on or at the expense of the vessel on which they came, upon such conditions as the Commissioner General of Immigration, with the approval of the Secretary of Labor, shall prescribe, to insure that the aliens shall be properly cared for and protected, and that the spread of contagion shall be guarded against. (Dec. 26, 1920, c. 4, 41 Stat. 1082.)

171. Lists of aliens employed on vessels arriving from foreign ports; reports of aliens illegally landed.—Upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and specifying those to be paid off and discharged in the port of arrival; or lists containing so much of such information as the Secretary of Labor shall by regulation prescribe; and after the arrival of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to report to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has illegally landed from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with any information likely to lead to his apprehension; and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer a further list containing the names of all alien employees who were not employed thereon at the time of the arrival but who will leave port thereon at the time of her departure, and also the names of those, if any, who have been paid off and discharged, and of those, if any, who have deserted or landed; and in case of the failure of such owner, agent, consignee, or master so to deliver either of the said lists of such aliens arriving and departing, respectively, or so to report such cases of desertion or landing, such owner, agent, consignee, or master shall, if required by the Secretary of Labor, pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered or a true report is not made as above required. No such vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question of the liability to the payment of such fine, and, in the event such fine is imposed, while it remains unpaid; nor shall such fine be remitted or refunded. Clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine. (Feb. 5, 1917, c. 29, § 36, 39 Stat. 896.)

172. Posting of laws by agents of steamship companies.—All steamship or transportation companies, and other owners of vessels, regularly engaged in transporting alien immigrants to the United States, shall twice a year file a certificate with the Secretary of Labor that they have furnished to be kept conspicuously exposed to view in the office of each of their agents in foreign countries authorized to sell emigrant tickets, a copy of the laws of this country relative to immigration, printed in large letters, in the language of the country where the copy of the law is to be exposed to view, and that they have instructed their agents to call the attention thereto of persons contemplating emigration before selling tickets to them; and in case of the failure for sixty days of any such company or any such owners to file such a certificate, or in case they file a false certificate, they shall pay a fine of not exceeding $500, to be recovered in the proper United States court, and said fine shall also be a lien upon any vessel of said company or owners found within the United States. (Mar. 3, 1893, c. 206, § 8, 27 Stat. 570; Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, § 7, 32 Stat. 828; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, § 3, 37 Stat. 737.)

173. Definitions; alien; "United States"; seaman; person.—The word "alien" wherever used in this subchapter shall include any person not a native-born or naturalized citizen of the United States; but this definition shall not be held to include citizens of the islands under the jurisdiction of the United States.

The term "United States" shall be construed to mean the United States, and any waters, territory, or other place subject to the jurisdiction thereof, except the Isthmian Canal Zone; but if any alien shall leave the Canal Zone or any insular possession of the United States and attempt to enter any other place under the jurisdiction of the United States, nothing contained in this subchapter shall be construed as permitting him to enter under any other conditions than those applicable to all aliens.

The term "seaman" shall include every person signed on the ship's articles and employed in any capacity on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any foreign port or place.

The word "person" shall be construed to import both plural and the singular, as the case may be, and shall include corporations, companies, and associations.

When construing and enforcing the provisions of this subchapter, the act, omission, or failure of any director, officer, agent, or employee of any corporation, company, or association acting within the scope of his employment or office shall in every case be deemed to be the act, omission, or failure of such corporation, company, or association, as well as that of the person acting for or in behalf of such corporation, company, or association. (Feb. 5, 1917, c. 29, §§ 1, 37, 39 Stat. 874, 897; June 2, 1924, c. 233, 43 Stat. 253.)

174. Finality of decisions of immigration officers.—In every case where an alien is excluded from admission into the United States under any law or treaty, the decision of the appropriate immigration officers, if adverse to the admission of such alien, shall be final, unless reversed on appeal to the Secretary of Labor. (Aug. 18, 1894, c. 301, § 1, 28 Stat. 390; Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, 32 Stat. 828; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, § 3, 37 Stat. 737.)

175. Application of laws to Philippine Islands.—The provisions of this subchapter shall be enforced in the Philippine Islands by officers of the general government thereof, unless and until it is superseded by an act passed by the Philippine Legislature and approved by the President of the United States to regulate immigration in the Philippine Islands as authorized in section 1013 of Title 48. (Feb. 5, 1917, c. 29, § 1, 39 Stat. 874; June 2, 1924, c. 233, 43 Stat. 253.)

176. Disposition of moneys received or paid for expenses of detained aliens.—Moneys collected by the Immigration Service on account of hospital expenses of persons detained under the immigration laws and regulations at Ellis Island Immigration Station shall be covered into the Treasury as miscellaneous receipts. All moneys paid into the Treasury to reimburse the Immigration Service for expenses of detained aliens paid from the appropriation for expenses of regulating immigration, shall be credited to the appropriation for the expenses of regulating immigration for the fiscal year in which the expenses were incurred. (Mar. 4, 1911, c. 285, § 1, 36 Stat. 1442; Jan. 3, 1923, c. 22, 42 Stat. 1101; Apr. 4, 1924, c. 84, Title I, 43 Stat. 75; Jan. 22, 1925, c. 87, Title I, 43 Stat. 775.)

177. International conference for regulation of immigration of aliens; special commissioners.—The President of the United States is authorized, in the name of the Government of the United States, to call, in his discretion, an international conference, to assemble at such point as may be agreed upon, or to send special commissioners to any foreign country, for the purpose of regulating by international agreement, subject to the advice and consent of the Senate of the United States, the immigration of aliens to the United States; of providing for the mental, moral, and physical examination of such aliens by American consuls or other officers of the United States Government at the ports of embarkation, or elsewhere; of securing the assistance of foreign governments in their own territories to prevent the evasion of the laws of the United States governing immigration to the United States; of entering into such international agreements as may be proper to prevent the immigration of aliens who, under the laws of the United States, are or may be excluded from entering the United States, and of regulating any matters pertaining to such immigration. (Feb. 5, 1917, c. 29, § 29, 39 Stat. 894.)

178. Laws unaffected; effect on repealed laws.—This subchapter shall not be construed to repeal, alter, or amend existing laws relating to the immigration or exclusion of Chinese persons or persons of Chinese descent, except as provided in section 155 of this title, nor to repeal, alter or amend section 1013 of Title 48, nor to repeal, alter or amend sections 151 to 162, inclusive, and 171, of Title 46, and the amendments thereto, except as provided in section 147 of this title. Nothing contained in this subchapter shall be construed to affect any prosecution, suit, action, or proceedings brought, or any act, thing, or matter, civil or criminal, done or existing on February 5, 1917, except as mentioned in section 155. As to all such prosecutions, suits, actions, proceedings, acts, things, or matters, the laws or parts of laws repealed or amended by this chapter are continued in force and effect. (Feb. 5, 1917, c. 29, § 38, 39 Stat. 897.)

179. Blank forms of manifests and crew lists.—The Public Printer is authorized to print for sale to the public by the Superintendent of Public Documents, upon prepayment, additional copies of blank forms of manifests and crew lists to be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor pursuant to the provisions of sections 148 to 150 and 171 of this title. (May 26, 1924, c. 190, § 21 (b), 43 Stat. 165.)

QUOTA AND NONQUOTA IMMIGRANTS

201. Citation.—This subchapter may be cited as the "Immigration Act of 1924." (May 26, 1924, c. 190, § 1, 43 Stat. 153.)

202. (a) Immigration visas; authority to issue; contents.—A consular officer upon the application of any immigrant (as defined in the following section) may (under the conditions hereinafter prescribed and subject to the limitations prescribed in this subchapter or regulations made thereunder as to the number of immigration visas which may be issued by such officer) issue to such immigrant an immigration visa which shall consist of one copy of the application provided for in section 207 of this title, visaed by such consular officer. Such visa shall specify (1) the nationality of the immigrant; (2) whether he is a quota immigrant (as defined in section 205 of this title) or a nonquota immigrant (as defined in section 204 of this title); (3) the date on which the validity of the immigration visa shall expire; and (4) such additional information necessary to the proper enforcement of the immigration laws and the naturalization laws as may be by regulations prescribed.

(b) Photograph of immigrant.—The immigrant shall furnish two copies of his photograph to the consular officer. One copy shall be permanently attached by the consular officer to the immigration visa and the other copy shall be disposed of as may be by regulations prescribed.

(c) Period of validity of visa.—The validity of an immigration visa shall expire at the end of such period, specified in the immigration visa, not exceeding four months, as shall be by regulations prescribed. In the case of an immigrant arriving in the United States by water, or arriving by water in foreign contiguous territory on a continuous voyage to the United States, if the vessel, before the expiration of the validity of his immigration visa, departed from the last port outside the United State and outside foreign contiguous territory at which the immigrant embarked, and if the immigrant proceeds on a continuous voyage to the United States, then, regardless of the time of his arrival in the United States, the validity of his immigration visa shall not be considered to have expired.

(d) Notation on passport of number of visa.—If an immigrant is required by any law or regulations or orders made pursuant to law, to secure the visa of his passport by a consular officer before being permitted to enter the United States, such immigrant shall not be required to secure any other visa of his passport than the immigration visa issued under this subchapter, but a record of the number and date of his immigration visa shall be noted on his passport without charge therefor. This subdivision shall not apply to an immigrant who is relieved, under subdivision (b) of section 213 of this title, from obtaining an immigration visa.

(e) Entry on manifests or passenger lists of data concerning visas; surrender of visas at ports of inspection and transmittal to Department of Labor.—The manifest or list of passengers required by the immigration laws shall contain a place for entering thereon the date, place of issuance, and number of the immigration visa of each immigrant. The immigrant shall surrender his immigration visa to the immigration officer at the port of inspection, who shall at the time of inspection indorse on the immigration visa the date, the port of entry, and the name of the vessel, if any, on which the immigrant arrived. The immigration visa shall be transmitted forthwith by the immigration officer in charge at the port of inspection to the Department of Labor under regulations prescribed by the Secretary of Labor.

(f) Visas not to be issued, when.—No immigration visa shall be issued to an immigrant if it appears to the consular officer, from statements in the application, or in the papers submitted therewith, that the immigrant is inadmissible to the United States under the immigration laws, nor shall such immigration visa be issued if the application fails to comply with the provisions of this subchapter, nor shall such immigration visa be issued if the consular officer knows or has reason to believe that the immigrant is inadmissible to the United States under the immigration laws.

(g) Visas not to entitle inadmissible aliens to entry.—Nothing in this subchapter shall be construed to entitle an immigrant, to whom an immigration visa has been issued, to enter the United States, if, upon arrival in the United States, he is found to be inadmissible to the United States under the immigration laws. The substance of this subdivision shall be printed conspicuously upon every immigration visa.

(h) Fee for visa.—A fee of $9 shall be charged for the issuance of each immigration visa, which shall be covered into the Treasury as miscellaneous receipts.

(i) Reduction or abolition of visa fees.—Notwithstanding existing law fixing the fees to be collected for visas of passports of aliens and for executing applications for such visas, the President is authorized, to the extent consistent with the public interest, to reduce such fees or to abolish them altogether, in the case of any class of aliens desiring to visit the United States who are not "immigrants" as defined in this subchapter, and who are citizens or subjects of countries which grant similar privileges to citizens of the United States of a similar class visiting such countries. (May 26, 1924, c. 190, § 2, 43 Stat. 153; Feb. 25, 1925, c. 316, 43 Stat. 976.)

203. "Immigrant" defined.—When used in this subchapter the term "immigrant" means any alien departing from any place outside the United States destined for the United States, except (1) a government official, his family, attendants, servants, and employees, (2) an alien visiting the United States temporarily as a tourist or temporarily for business or pleasure, (3) an alien in continuous transit through the United States, (4) an alien lawfully admitted to the United States who later goes in transit from one part of the United States to another through foreign contiguous territory, (5) a bona fide alien seaman serving as such on a vessel arriving at a port of the United States and seeking to enter temporarily the United States solely in the pursuit of his calling as a seaman, and (6) an alien entitled to enter the United States solely to carry on trade under and in pursuance of the provision of a present existing treaty of commerce and navigation. (May 26, 1924, c. 190, § 3, 43 Stat. 154.)

204. "Nonquota immigrant" defined.—When used in this subchapter the term "nonquota immigrant" means—

(a) An immigrant who is the unmarried child under eighteen years of age, or the wife, of a citizen of the United States who resides therein at the time of the filing of a petition under section 209 of this title;

(b) An immigrant previously lawfully admitted to the United States, who is returning from a temporary visit abroad;

(c) An immigrant who was born in the Dominion of Canada, Newfoundland, the Republic of Mexico, the Republic of Cuba, the Republic of Haiti, the Dominican Republic, the Canal Zone, or an independent country of Central or South America, and his wife, and his unmarried children under eighteen years of age, if accompanying or following to join him;

(d) An immigrant who continuously for at least two years immediately preceding the time of his application for admission to the United States has been, and who seeks to enter the United States solely for the purpose of, carrying on the vocation of minister of any religious denomination, or professor of a college, academy, seminary, or university; and his wife, and his unmarried children under eighteen years of age, if accompanying or following to join him; or

(e) An immigrant who is a bona fide student at least fifteen years of age and who seeks to enter the United States solely for the purpose of study at an accredited school, college, academy, seminary, or university, particularly designated by him and approved by the Secretary of Labor, which shall have agreed to report to the Secretary of Labor the termination of attendance of each immigrant student, and if any such institution of learning fails to make such reports promptly the approval shall be withdrawn. (May 26, 1924, c. 190, § 4, 43 Stat. 155.)

205. "Quota immigrant" defined.—When used in this subchapter the term "quota immigrant" means any immigrant who is not a nonquota immigrant. An alien who is not particularly specified in this subchapter as a nonquota immigrant or a nonimmigrant shall not be admitted as a nonquota immigrant or a nonimmigrant by reason of relationship to any individual who is so specified or by reason of being excepted from the operation of any other law regulating or forbidding immigration. (May 26, 1924, c. 190, § 5, 43 Stat. 155.)

206. (a) Enumeration of preferences within quotas.—In the issuance of immigration visas to quota immigrants preference shall be given—

(1) To a quota immigrant who is the unmarried child under twenty-one years of age, the father, the mother, the husband, or the wife, of a citizen of the United States who is twenty-one years of age or over; and

(2) To a quota immigrant who is skilled in agriculture, and his wife, and his dependent children under the age of sixteen years, if accompanying or following to join him. The preference provided in this paragraph shall not apply to immigrants of any nationality the annual quota for which is less than 300.

(b) Percentage of preferences.—The preference provided in subdivision (a) shall not in the case of quota immigrants of any nationality exceed 50 per centum of the annual quota for such nationality. Nothing in this section shall be construed to grant to the class of immigrants specified in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) a priority in preference over the class specified in paragraph (2).

(c) Time for giving of preference.—The preference provided in this section shall, in the case of quota immigrants of any nationality, be given in the calendar month in which the right to preference is established, if the number of immigration visas which may be issued in such month to quota immigrants of such nationality has not already been issued; otherwise in the next calendar month. (May 26, 1924, c. 190, § 6, 43 Stat. 155.)

207. (a) Duplicate applications for visas; form of.—Every immigrant applying for an immigration visa shall make application therefor in duplicate in such form as shall be by regulations prescribed.

(b) Contents.—In the application the immigrant shall state (1) the immigrant's full and true name; age, sex, and race; the date and place of birth; places of residence for the five years immediately preceding his application; whether married or single, and the names and places of residence of wife or husband and minor children, if any; calling or occupation; personal description (including height, complexion, color of hair and eyes, and marks of identification); ability to speak, read, and write; names and addresses of parents, and if neither parent living, then the name and address of his nearest relative in the country from which he comes; port of entry into the United States; final destination, if any, beyond the port of entry; whether he has a ticket through to such final destination; whether going to join a relative or friend, and, if so, what relative or friend and his name and complete address; the purpose for which he is going to the United States; the length of time he intends to remain in the United States; whether or not he intends to abide in the United States permanently; whether ever in prison or almshouse; whether he or either of his parents has ever been in an institution or hospital for the care and treatment of the insane; (2) if he claims to be a nonquota immigrant, the facts on which he bases such claim; and (3) such additional information necessary to the proper enforcement of the immigration laws and the naturalization laws, as may be by regulations prescribed.

86270°—26——10

(c) Copies of dossier and other records.—The immigrant shall furnish, if available, to the consular officer, with his application, two copies of his "dossier" and prison record and military record, two certified copies of his birth certificate, and two copies of all other available public records concerning him kept by the Government to which he owes allegiance. One copy of the documents so furnished shall be permanently attached to each copy of the application and become a part thereof. An immigrant having an unexpired permit issued under the provisions of section 210 of this title shall not be subject to this subdivision.

(d) Statement as to membership in classes of aliens excluded.—In the application the immigrant shall also state (to such extent as shall be by regulations prescribed) whether or not he is a member of each class of individuals excluded from admission to the United States under the immigration laws, and such classes shall be stated on the blank in such form as shall be by regulations prescribed, and the immigrant shall answer separately as to each class.

(e) Statement as to exemption from exclusion.—If the immigrant is unable to state that he does not come within any of the excluded classes, but claims to be for any legal reason exempt from exclusion, he shall state fully in the application the grounds for such alleged exemption.

(f) Signature to and verification of application; one copy to be immigration visa when visaed; disposition of other copy.—Each copy of the application shall be signed by the immigrant in the presence of the consular officer and verified by the oath of the immigrant administered by the consular officer. One copy of the application, when visaed by the consular officer, shall become the immigration visa, and the other copy shall be disposed of as may be by regulations prescribed.

(g) Verification of application by immigrant under age of eighteen.—In the case of an immigrant under eighteen years of age the application may be made and verified by such individual as shall be by regulations prescribed.

(h) Fee for furnishing and verification of application.—A fee of $1 shall be charged for the furnishing and verification of each application, which shall include the furnishing and verification of the duplicate, and shall be covered into the Treasury as miscellaneous receipts. (May 26, 1924, c. 190, § 7, 43 Stat. 156.)

208. Nonquota immigration visas; when and how issued.—A consular officer may, subject to the limitations provided in sections 202 and 209 of this title, issue an immigration visa to a nonquota immigrant as such upon satisfactory proof, under regulations prescribed under this subchapter, that the applicant is entitled to be regarded as a nonquota immigrant. (May 26, 1924, c. 190, § 8, 43 Stat. 157.)

209. (a) Issuance of nonquota and quota visas to relatives; authority to issue.—In case of any immigrant claiming in his application for an immigration visa to be a nonquota immigrant by reason of relationship under the provisions of subdivision (a) of section 204 of this title, or to be entitled to preference by reason of relationship to a citizen of the United States under the provisions of section 206 of this title, the consular officer shall not issue such immigration visa or grant such preference until he has been authorized to do so as hereinafter in this section provided.

(b) Persons entitled to; petition for; form and contents.—Any citizen of the United States claiming that any immigrant is his relative, and that such immigrant is properly admissible to the United States as a nonquota immigrant under the provisions of subdivision (a) of section 204 or is entitled to preference as a relative under section 206, may file with the Commissioner General a petition in such form as may be by regulations prescribed, stating (1) the petitioner's name and address; (2) if a citizen by birth, the date and place of his birth; (3) if a naturalized citizen, the date and place of his admission to citizenship and the number of his certificate, if any; (4) the name and address of his employer or the address of his place of business or occupation if he is not an employee; (5) the degree of the relationship of the immigrant for whom such petition is made, and the names of all the places where such immigrant has resided prior to and at the time when the petition is filed; (6) that the petitioner is able to and will support the immigrant if necessary to prevent such immigrant from becoming a public charge; and (7) such additional information necessary to the proper enforcement of the immigration laws and the naturalization laws as may be by regulations prescribed.

(c) Verification of petition; documentary evidence accompanying.—The petition shall be made under oath administered by any individual having power to administer oaths, if executed in the United States, but, if executed outside the United States, administered by a consular officer. The petition shall be supported by any documentary evidence required by regulations prescribed under this subchapter. Application may be made in the same petition for admission of more than one individual.

(d) Supporting statements accompanying.—The petition shall be accompanied by the statements of two or more responsible citizens of the United States, to whom the petitioner has been personally known for at least one year, that to the best of their knowledge and belief the statements made in the petition are true and that the petitioner is a responsible individual able to support the immigrant or immigrants for whose admission application is made. These statements shall be attested in the same way as the petition.

(e) Action of Commissioner General, Secretary of Labor, and Secretary of State.—If the Commissioner General finds the facts stated in the petition to be true, and that the immigrant in respect of whom the petition is made is entitled to be admitted to the United States as a nonquota immigrant under subdivision (a) of section 204 or is entitled to preference as a relative under section 206, he shall, with the approval of the Secretary of Labor, inform the Secretary of State of his decision, and the Secretary of State shall then authorize the consular officer with whom the application for the immigration visa has been filed to issue the immigration visa or grant the preference.

(f) Effect on rights of nonquota immigrants.—Nothing in this section shall be construed to entitle an immigrant, in respect of whom a petition under this section is granted, to enter the United States as a nonquota immigrant, if, upon arrival in the United States, he is found not to be a nonquota immigrant. (May 26, 1924, c. 190, § 9, 43 Stat. 157.)

210. (a) Reentry permits; persons entitled to; application for; form and contents; verification; photograph accompanying.—Any alien about to depart temporarily from the United States may make application to the Commissioner General for a permit to reenter the United States, stating the length of his intended absence, and the reasons therefor. Such application shall be made under oath, and shall be in such form and contain such information as may be by regulations prescribed, and shall be accompanied by two copies of the applicant's photograph.

(b) Issue by Commissioner General with approval of Secretary of Labor; life of permit; form and contents of permit; photograph attached.—If the Commissioner General finds that the alien has been legally admitted to the United States, and that the application is made in good faith, he shall, with the approval of the Secretary of Labor, issue the permit, specifying therein the length of time, not exceeding one year, during which it shall be valid. The permit shall be in such form as shall be by regulations prescribed and shall have permanently attached thereto the photograph of the alien to whom issued, together with such other matter as may be deemed necessary for the complete identification of the alien.

(c) Extension of life of permit.—On good cause shown the validity of the permit may be extended for such period or periods, not exceeding six months each, and under such conditions, as shall be by regulations prescribed.

(d) Fee for permit.—For the issuance of the permit, and for each extension thereof, there shall be paid a fee of $3, which shall be covered into the Treasury as miscellaneous receipts.

(e) Surrender of permit on return to United States.—Upon the return of the alien to the United States the permit shall be surrendered to the immigration officer at the port of inspection.

(f) Effect of permit on rights of alien.—A permit issued under this section shall have no effect under the immigration laws, except to show that the alien to whom it is issued is returning from a temporary visit abroad; but nothing in this section shall be construed as making such permit the exclusive means of establishing that the alien is so returning. (May 26, 1924, c. 190, § 10, 43 Stat. 158.)

211. (a) Annual quota based on nationality; national origin; minimum quota.—The annual quota of any nationality shall be 2 per centum of the number of foreign-born individuals of such nationality resident in continental United States as determined by the United States census of 1890, but the minimum quota of any nationality shall be one hundred.

(b) Annual quota for fiscal year beginning July 1, 1927; minimum quota.—The annual quota of any nationality for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1927, and for each fiscal year thereafter, shall be a number which bears the same ratio to one hundred and fifty thousand as the number of inhabitants in continental United States in 1920 having that national origin (ascertained as provided in this section) bears to the number of inhabitants in continental United States in 1920, but the minimum quota of any nationality shall be one hundred.

(c) Determination of national origin.—For the purpose of subdivision (b) national origin shall be ascertained by determining as nearly as may be, in respect of each geographical area which under the following section is to be treated as a separate country (except the geographical areas specified in subdivision (c) of section 204 of this title) the number of inhabitants in continental United States in 1920 whose origin by birth or ancestry is attributable to such geographical area. Such determination shall not be made by tracing the ancestors or descendants of particular individuals, but shall be based upon statistics of immigration and emigration, together with rates of increase of population as shown by successive decennial United States censuses, and such other data as may be found to be reliable.

(d) Inhabitants in continental United States in 1920.—For the purpose of subdivisions (b) and (c) the term "inhabitants in continental United States in 1920" does not include (1) immigrants from the geographical areas specified in subdivision (c) of section 204 or their descendants, (2) aliens ineligible to citizenship or their descendants, (3) the descendants of slave immigrants, or (4) the descendants of American aborigines.

(e) Determination of national origin; by whom made; procedure; presidential proclamation of quotas.—The determination provided for in subdivision (c) of this section shall be made by the Secretary of State, the Secretary of Commerce, and the Secretary of Labor, jointly. In making such determination such officials may call for information and expert assistance from the Bureau of the Census. Such officials shall, jointly, report to the President the quota of each nationality, determined as provided in subdivision (b), and the President shall proclaim and make known the quotas so reported. Such proclamation shall be made on or before April 1, 1927. If the proclamation is not made on or before such date, quotas proclaimed therein shall not be in effect for any fiscal year beginning before the expiration of ninety days after the date of the proclamation. After the making of a proclamation under this subdivision the quotas proclaimed therein shall continue with the same effect as if specifically stated herein, and shall be final and conclusive for every purpose except (1) in so far as it is made to appear to the satisfaction of such officials and proclaimed by the President, that an error of fact has occurred in such determination or in such proclamation, or (2) in the case provided for in subdivision (c) of section 212 of this title. If for any reason quotas proclaimed under this subdivision are not in effect for any fiscal year, quotas for such year shall be determined under subdivision (a) of this section.

(f) Immigration visas limited to quotas; monthly issue.—There shall be issued to quota immigrants of any nationality (1) no more immigration visas in any fiscal year than the quota for such nationality, and (2) in any calendar month of any fiscal year no more immigration visas than 10 per centum of the quota for such nationality, except that if such quota is less than 300 the number to be issued in any calendar month shall be prescribed by the Commissioner General, with the approval of the Secretary of Labor, but the total number to be issued during the fiscal year shall not be in excess of the quota for such nationality.

(g) Issue of visa to nonquota immigrant as quota immigrant.—Nothing in this subchapter shall prevent the issuance (without increasing the total number of immigration visas which may be issued) of an immigration visa to an immigrant as a quota immigrant even though he is a nonquota immigrant. (May 26, 1924, c. 190, § 11, 43 Stat. 159.)

212. (a) Nationality; determination of.—For the purposes of this subchapter nationality shall be determined by country of birth, treating as separate countries the colonies, dependencies, or self-governing dominions, for which separate enumeration was made in the United States census of 1890; except that (1) the nationality of a child under twenty-one years of age not born in the United States, accompanied by its alien parent not born in the United States, shall be determined by the country of birth of such parent if such parent is entitled to an immigration visa, and the nationality of a child under twenty-one years of age not born in the United States, accompanied by both alien parents not born in the United States, shall be determined by the country of birth of the father if the father is entitled to an immigration visa; and (2) if a wife is of a different nationality from her alien husband and the entire number of immigration visas which may be issued to quota immigrants of her nationality for the calendar month has already been issued, her nationality may be determined by the country of birth of her husband if she is accompanying him and he is entitled to an immigration visa, unless the total number of immigration visas which may be issued to quota immigrants of the nationality of the husband for the calendar month has already been issued. An immigrant born in the United States who has lost his United States citizenship shall be considered as having been born in the country of which he is a citizen or subject, or if he is not a citizen or subject of any country, then in the country from which he comes.

(b) Statement of resident individuals of various nationalities.—The Secretary of State, the Secretary of Commerce, and the Secretary of Labor, jointly, shall prepare a statement showing the number of individuals of the various nationalities resident in continental United States as determined by the United States census of 1890, which statement shall be the population basis for the purposes of subdivision (a) of section 211 of this title. In the case of a country recognized by the United States, but for which a separate enumeration was not made in the census of 1890, the number of individuals born in such country and resident in continental United States in 1890, as estimated by such officials jointly, shall be considered for the purposes of subdivision (a) of said section 211 as having been determined by the United States census of 1890. In the case of a colony or dependency existing before 1890, but for which a separate enumeration was not made in the census of 1890 and which was not included in the enumeration for the country to which such colony or dependency belonged, or in the case of territory administered under a protectorate, the number of individuals born in such colony, dependency, or territory, and resident in continental United States in 1890, as estimated by such officials jointly, shall be considered for the purposes of subdivision (a) of said section 211 as having been determined by the United States census of 1890 to have been born in the country to which such colony or dependency belonged or which administers such protectorate.

(c) Effect of changes in political boundaries in foreign countries.—In case of changes in political boundaries in foreign countries occurring subsequent to 1890 and resulting in the creation of new countries, the Governments of which are recognized by the United States, or in the establishment of self-governing dominions, or in the transfer of territory from one country to another, such transfer being recognized by the United States, or in the surrender by one country of territory, the transfer of which to another country has not been recognized by the United States, or in the administration of territories under mandates, (1) such officials, jointly, shall estimate the number of individuals resident in continental United States in 1890 who were born within the area included in such new countries or self-governing dominions or in such territory so transferred or surrendered or administered under a mandate, and revise (for the purposes of subdivision (a) of section 211 of this title) the population basis as to each country involved in such change of political boundary, and (2) if such changes in political boundaries occur after the determination provided for in subdivision (c) of said section 211 has been proclaimed, such officials, jointly, shall revise such determination, but only so far as necessary to allot the quotas among the countries involved in such change of political boundary. For the purpose of such revision and for the purpose of determining the nationality of an immigrant, (A) aliens born in the area included in any such new country or self-governing dominion shall be considered as having been born in such country or dominion, and aliens born in any territory so transferred shall be considered as having been born in the country to which such territory was transferred, and (B) territory so surrendered or administered under a mandate shall be treated as a separate country. Such treatment of territory administered under a mandate shall not constitute consent by the United States to the proposed mandate where the United States has not consented in a treaty to the administration of the territory by a mandatory power.

(d) Statements, etc., made annually.—The statements, estimates, and revisions provided in this section shall be made annually, but for any fiscal year for which quotas are in effect as proclaimed under subdivision (e) of section 211 of this title, shall be made only (1) for the purpose of determining the nationality of immigrants seeking admission to the United States during such year, or (2) for the purposes of clause (2) of subdivision (c) of this section.

(e) Annual report to President of quota of nationalities; proclamation of quotas.—Such officials shall, jointly, report annually to the President the quota of each nationality under subdivision (a) of section 211 of this title, together with the statements, estimates, and revisions provided for in this section. The President shall proclaim and make known the quotas so reported and thereafter such quotas shall continue, with the same effect as if specifically stated herein, for all fiscal years except those years for which quotas are in effect as proclaimed under subdivision (e) of section 211 of this title, and shall be final and conclusive for every purpose. (May 26, 1924, c. 190, § 12, 43 Stat. 160.)

213. (a) Persons not to be admitted.—No immigrant shall be admitted to the United States unless he (1) has an unexpired immigration visa or was born subsequent to the issuance of the immigration visa of the accompanying parent, (2) is of the nationality specified in the visa in the immigration visa, (3) is a nonquota immigrant if specified in the visa in the immigration visa as such, and (4) is otherwise admissible under the immigration laws.

(b) Readmission of legally admitted aliens who have temporarily departed without visas.—In such classes of cases and under such conditions as may be by regulations prescribed immigrants who have been legally admitted to the United States and who depart therefrom temporarily may be admitted to the United States without being required to obtain an immigration visa.

(c) Aliens ineligible to citizenship.—No alien ineligible to citizenship shall be admitted to the United States unless such alien (1) is admissible as a nonquota immigrant under the provisions of subdivision (b), (d), or (e) of section 204 of this title, or (2) is the wife, or the unmarried child under 18 years of age, of an immigrant admissible under such subdivision (d), and is accompanying or following to join him, or (3) is not an immigrant as defined in section 203 of this title.

(d) Aliens inadmissible under clauses 2 and 3 of subdivision (a) of this section.—The Secretary of Labor may admit to the United States any otherwise admissible immigrant not admissible under clause (2) or (3) of subdivision (a) of this section, if satisfied that such inadmissibility was not known to, and could not have been ascertained by the exercise of reasonable diligence by, such immigrant prior to the departure of the vessel from the last port outside the United States and outside foreign contiguous territory, or, in the case of an immigrant coming from foreign contiguous territory, prior to the application of the immigrant for admission.

(e) Same; exhaustion of permitted visas issuable to quota immigrants.—No quota immigrant shall be admitted under subdivision (d) if the entire number of immigration visas which may be issued to quota immigrants of the same nationality for the fiscal year has already been issued. If such entire number of immigration visas has not been issued, then the Secretary of State, upon the admission of a quota immigrant under subdivision (d), shall reduce by one the number of immigration visas which may be issued to quota immigrants of the same nationality during the fiscal year in which such immigrant is admitted; but if the Secretary of State finds that it will not be practicable to make such reduction before the end of such fiscal year, then such immigrant shall not be admitted.

(f) Fines not to be remitted or refunded.—Nothing in this section shall authorize the remission or refunding of a fine, liability to which has accrued under section 216 of this title. (May 26, 1924, c. 190, § 13, 43 Stat. 161.)

214. Deportation; procedure; alien children under age of sixteen.—Any alien who at any time after entering the United States is found to have been at the time of entry not entitled under this subchapter to enter the United States, or to have remained therein for a longer time than permitted under this subchapter or regulations made thereunder, shall be taken into custody and deported in the same manner as provided for in sections 155 and 156 of this title. The Secretary of Labor may, under such conditions and restrictions as to support and care as he may deem necessary, permit permanently to remain in the United States, any alien child who, when under sixteen years of age was prior to May 26, 1924, temporarily admitted to the United States and who was within the United States on that date, and either of whose parents was a citizen of the United States. (May 26, 1924, c. 190, § 14, 43 Stat. 162.)

215. Admission of persons excepted from definition of immigrant and nonquota immigrants; maintenance of exempt status.—The admission to the United States of an alien excepted from the class of immigrants by clause (2), (3), (4), (5), or (6) of section 203 of this title, or declared to be a nonquota immigrant by subdivision (e) of section 204 of this title, shall be for such time as may be by regulations prescribed, and under such conditions as may be by regulations prescribed (including, when deemed necessary for the classes mentioned in clause (2), (3), (4), or (6) of section 203, the giving of bond with sufficient surety, in such sum and containing such conditions as may be by regulations prescribed) to insure that, at the expiration of such time or upon failure to maintain the status under which admitted, he will depart from the United States. (May 26, 1924, c. 190, § 15, 43 Stat. 162.)

216. Unlawful bringing of alien into United States by water; penalty; amount; clearance to vessels; remission or refundment.—(a) It shall be unlawful for any person, including any transportation company, or the owner, master, agent, charterer, or consignee of any vessel, to bring to the United States by water from any place outside thereof (other than foreign contiguous territory) (1) any immigrant who does not have an unexpired immigration visa, or (2) any quota immigrant having an immigration visa the visa in which specifies him as a nonquota immigrant.

(b) If it appears to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that any immigrant has been so brought, such person or transportation company, or the master, agent, owner, charterer, or consignee of any such vessel, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each immigrant so brought, and in addition a sum equal to that paid by such immigrant for his transportation from the initial point of departure, indicated in his ticket, to the port of arrival, such latter sum to be delivered by the collector of customs to the immigrant on whose account assessed. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to the payment of such sums, or while such sums remain unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of an amount sufficient to cover such sums, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(c) Such sums shall not be remitted or refunded, unless it appears to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that such person, and the owner, master, agent, charterer, and consignee of the vessel, prior to the departure of the vessel from the last port outside the United States, did not know, and could not have ascertained by the exercise of reasonable diligence, (1) that the individual transported was an immigrant, if the fine was imposed for bringing an immigrant without an unexpired immigration visa, or (2) that the individual transported was a quota immigrant, if the fine was imposed for bringing a quota immigrant the visa in whose immigration visa specified him as being a nonquota immigrant. (May 26, 1924, c. 190, § 16, 43 Stat. 163.)

217. Contracts with transportation lines; rules and regulations; entry from contiguous territory.—The Commissioner General, with the approval of the Secretary of Labor, shall have power to enter into contracts with transportation lines for the entry and inspection of aliens coming to the United States from or through foreign contiguous territory. In prescribing rules and regulations and making contracts for the entry and inspection of aliens applying for admission from or through foreign contiguous territory due care shall be exercised to avoid any discriminatory action in favor of transportation companies transporting to such territory aliens destined to the United States, and all such transportation companies shall be required, as a condition precedent to the inspection or examination under such rules and contracts at the ports of such contiguous territory of aliens brought thereto by them, to submit to and comply with all the requirements of this subchapter which would apply were they bringing such aliens directly to ports of the United States. No alien applying for admission from or through foreign contiguous territory (except an alien previously lawfully admitted to the United States who is returning from a temporary visit to such territory) shall be permitted to enter the United States unless upon proving that he was brought to such territory by a transportation company which had submitted to and complied with all the requirements of this subchapter, or that he entered, or has resided in, such territory more than two years prior to the time of his application for admission to the United States. (May 26, 1924, c. 190, § 17, 43 Stat. 163.)

218. Unused immigration visas; additional not to issue in lieu of.—If a quota immigrant of any nationality having an immigration visa is excluded from admission to the United States under the immigration laws and deported, or does not apply for admission to the United States before the expiration of the validity of the immigration visa, or if an alien of any nationality having an immigration visa issued to him as a quota immigrant is found not to be a quota immigrant, no additional immigration visa shall be issued in lieu thereof to any other immigrant. (May 26, 1924, c. 190, § 18, 43 Stat. 164.)

219. Reentry permits; preparation, printing and distribution.—Permits issued under section 210 of this title shall be printed on distinctive safety paper and shall be prepared and issued under regulations prescribed under this subchapter. (May 26, 1924, c. 190, § 21 (a), 43 Stat. 165.)

220. (a) Offenses in connection with documents; forging, counterfeiting, etc., immigration visas or permits; penalty.—Any person who knowingly (1) forges, counterfeits, alters, or falsely makes any immigration visa or permit, or (2) utters, uses, attempts to use, possesses, obtains, accepts, or receives any immigration visa or permit, knowing it to be forged, counterfeited, altered, or falsely made, or to have been procured by means of any false claim or statement, or to have been otherwise procured by fraud or unlawfully obtained; or who, except under direction of the Secretary of Labor or other proper officer, knowingly (3) possesses any blank permit, (4) engraves, sells, brings into the United States, or has in his control or possession any plate in the likeness of a plate designed for the printing of permits, (5) makes any print, photograph, or impression in the likeness of any immigration visa or permit, or (6) has in his possession a distinctive paper which has been adopted by the Secretary of Labor for the printing of immigration visas or permits, shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined not more than $10,000 or imprisoned for not more than five years, or both.

(b) False personation of another; using assumed or fictitious name; unlawful sale, etc., of visa or permit; penalty.—Any individual who (1) when applying for an immigration visa or permit, or for admission to the United States, personates another, or falsely appears in the name of a deceased individual, or evades or attempts to evade the immigration laws by appearing under an assumed or fictitious name, or (2) sells or otherwise disposes of, or offers to sell or otherwise dispose of, or utters, an immigration visa or permit, to any person not authorized by law to receive such document, shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined not more than $10,000, or imprisoned for not more than five years, or both.

(c) False statements; penalty.—Whoever knowingly makes under oath any false statement in any application, affidavit, or other document required by the immigration laws or regulations prescribed thereunder, shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined not more than $10,000, or imprisoned for not more than five years, or both. (May 26, 1924, c. 190, § 22, 43 Stat. 165.)

221. Burden of proof upon entry of alien or in deportation proceedings.—Whenever any alien attempts to enter the United States the burden of proof shall be upon such alien to establish that he is not subject to exclusion under any provision of the immigration laws; and in any deportation proceeding against any alien the burden of proof shall be upon such alien to show that he entered the United States lawfully, and the time, place, and manner of such entry into the United States, but in presenting such proof he shall be entitled to the production of his immigration visa, if any, or of other documents concerning such entry, in the custody of the Department of Labor. (May 26, 1924, c. 190, § 23, 43 Stat. 165.)

222. Rules and regulations.—The Commissioner General, with the approval of the Secretary of Labor, shall prescribe rules and regulations for the enforcement of the provisions of this subchapter; but all such rules and regulations, in so far as they relate to the administration by consular officers, shall be prescribed by the Secretary of State on the recommendation of the Secretary of Labor. (May 26, 1924, c. 190, § 24, 43 Stat. 166.)

223. Quota law additional to other immigration laws.—The provisions of this subchapter are in addition to and not in substitution for the provisions of the immigration laws, and shall be enforced as a part of such laws, and all the penal or other provisions of such laws, not inapplicable, shall apply to and be enforced in connection with the provisions of this subchapter. An alien, although admissible under the provisions of this subchapter, shall not be admitted to the United States if he is excluded by any provision of the immigration laws other than this subchapter, and an alien, although admissible under the provisions of the immigration laws other than this subchapter, shall not be admitted to the United States if he is excluded by any provision of this subchapter. (May 26, 1924, c. 190, § 25, 43 Stat. 166.)

224. Definitions.—As used in this subchapter—

(a) The term "United States," when used in a geographical sense, means the States, the Territories of Alaska and Hawaii, the District of Columbia, Porto Rico, and the Virgin Islands; and the term "continental United States" means the States and the District of Columbia;

(b) The term "alien" includes any individual not a native-born or naturalized citizen of the United States, but this definition shall not be held to include citizens of the islands under the jurisdiction of the United States;

(c) The term "ineligible to citizenship," when used in reference to any individual, includes an individual who is debarred from becoming a citizen of the United States under any of sections 11, 12, 359, 363, and 366 of this title, or under law amendatory of, supplementary to, or in substitution for, any of such sections;

(d) The term "immigration visa" means an immigration visa issued by a consular officer under the provisions of this subchapter;

(e) The term "consular officer" means any consular or diplomatic officer of the United States designated, under regulations prescribed under this subchapter, for the purpose of issuing immigration visas under this subchapter. In case of the Canal Zone and the insular possessions of the United States the term "consular officer" (except as used in section 222 of this title) means an officer designated by the President, or by his authority, for the purpose of issuing immigration visas under this subchapter;

(f) The term "immigration laws" includes this chapter and all laws, conventions, and treaties of the United States relating to the immigration, exclusion, or explusion of aliens;

(g) The term "person" includes individuals, partnerships, corporations, and associations;

(h) The term "Commissioner General" means the Commissioner General of Immigration;

(i) The term "application for admission" has reference to the application for admission to the United States and not to the application for the issuance of the immigration visa;

(j) The term "permit" means a permit issued under section 210 of this title;

(k) The term "unmarried," when used in reference to any individual as of any time, means an individual who at such time is not married, whether or not previously married;

(l) The terms "child," "father," and "mother," do not include a child or parent by adoption unless the adoption took place before January 1, 1924;

(m) The terms "wife" and "husband" do not include a wife or husband by reason of a proxy or picture marriage. (May 26, 1924, c. 190, § 28, 43 Stat. 168; June 2, 1924, c. 233, 43 Stat. 253.)

225. Appropriation authorized.—The appropriation of such sums as may be necessary for the enforcement of this subchapter is authorized. (May 26, 1924, c. 190, § 29, 43 Stat. 169.)

226. Partial invalidity; effect of.—If any provision of this subchapter, or the application thereof to any person or circumstances, is held invalid, the remainder thereof, and the application of such provision to other persons or circumstances, shall not be affected thereby. (May 26, 1924, c. 190, § 82, 43 Stat. 169.)

227. Certain aliens temporarily admitted under Act May 19, 1921, and under bond in excess of quotas may remain.—Aliens who entered the United States before March 7, 1922, in excess of quotas fixed under authority of Act May 19, 1921, chapter 8, Forty-second Statutes, page 5, entitled "An Act to limit the immigration of aliens into the United States," and were temporarily admitted under bond, may, if otherwise admissible, and if not subject to deportation for other causes, be permitted by the Secretary of Labor to remain in the United States without regard to the provisions of such Act of May 19, 1921. In the case of any alien so permitted to remain the bond shall be canceled. (Dec. 27, 1922, c. 15, 42 Stat. 1065.)

228. Certain aliens arriving in excess of quota permitted to remain.—The following aliens arriving in excess of quotas fixed under authority of Act May 19, 1921, chapter 8, Forty-second Statutes, page 5, entitled "An Act to limit the immigration of aliens into the United States," as amended and extended, were, if otherwise admissible and if not subject to deportation for other causes, properly permitted to enter and remain in the United States without regard to the provisions of such Act of May 19, 1921, as amended and extended:

(1) Aliens admitted prior to June 7, 1924, in excess of quota and charged to the quota of a later month;

(2) Aliens admitted prior to said date under a construction of such Act of May 19, 1921, required by court decision;

(3) Aliens arriving in the United States after May 26 and before July 1, 1924, who departed for the United States from the last port outside the United States or outside foreign contiguous territory on or before May 26, 1924, believing in good faith that they would be admitted pursuant to a construction of such Act of May 19, 1921, required by court decision; and

(4) Aliens temporarily admitted prior to June 7, 1924, under bond to relieve cases of extreme hardship. (June 7, 1924, c. 379, 43 Stat. 669.)

229. Act May 19, 1921, chapter 8, in force for imposition, collection, and enforcement of penalties; deportation of aliens entering in violation thereof.—Act May 19, 1921, chapter 8, Forty-second Statutes, page 5, entitled "An Act to limit the immigration of aliens into the United States," as amended and extended, shall, notwithstanding its expiration on June 30, 1924, remain in force thereafter for the imposition, collection, and enforcement of all penalties that may have accrued thereunder, and any alien who prior to July 1, 1924, may have entered the United States in violation of such Act or regulations made thereunder may be deported in the same manner as if such Act had not expired. (May 26, 1924, c. 190, § 30, 43 Stat. 169.)

230. Certain alien residents conscripted or volunteering for service during World War lawfully readmitted.—Notwithstanding the provisions of section 136 of this title, aliens lawfully resident in the United States who enlisted or were conscripted for the military or naval service of the United States, or of any one of the nations cobelligerent of the United States in the World War; and aliens lawfully resident in the United States who enlisted for service with Czechoslovak, Polish, or other independent forces attached to the United States Army or to the army or navy of any one of the cobelligerents of the United States in the World War, who within one year after the termination of the war applied for readmission to this country, after being honorably discharged or granted furlough abroad by the proper military or naval authorities, or after being rejected on final examination in connection with their enlistment or conscription were, within two years after the termination of the war, lawfully readmitted into the United States; and any alien of either of the foregoing descriptions who would otherwise have been excluded under said section 136 on the ground that he was idiotic, imbecile, feeble-minded, epileptic, insane, or has had one or more attacks of insanity, or on the ground that he was afflicted with constitutional psychopathic inferiority, tuberculosis, a loathsome or dangerous contagious disease, or mental defect, was lawfully readmitted where it was proved that the disability was acquired while the alien was serving in the military or naval forces of the United States or of any one of the nations cobelligerent of the United States in the World War or in an independent force of the kind hereinbefore described, if such alien returned to a port of the United States within two years after the termination of the war. (Oct. 19, 1918, c. 190, 40 Stat. 1014.)

Section 261. Control of exclusion of Chinese.—The authority, power and jurisdiction by virtue of any law in relation to the exclusion from and the residence within the United States, its territories and the District of Columbia, of Chinese and persons of Chinese descent, are conferred upon the Secretary of Labor, and the authority, power and jurisdiction in relation thereto previously vested by law or treaty in the collectors of customs and the collectors of internal revenue, are vested in such officers under the control of the Commissioner General of Immigration, as the Secretary of Labor may designate therefor. (Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, § 7, 32 Stat. 828.)

262. Same; officer enforcing Chinese exclusion law at Washington.—Nothing in sections 39 or 46 of Title 5 shall be construed to prevent the Secretary of Labor from detailing one officer employed in the enforcement of the Chinese exclusion laws for duty at the Department of Labor at Washington. (June 6, 1900, c. 791, § 1, 31 Stat. 611; Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, § 7, 32 Stat. 828; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, 37 Stat. 736.)

263. Coming of Chinese laborers to United States suspended.—The coming of Chinese laborers to the United States is suspended, and it shall not be lawful for any Chinese laborer to come from any foreign port or place, or having so come to remain within the United States. (May 6, 1882, c. 126, § 1, 22 Stat. 58; July 5, 1884, c. 220, 23 Stat. 115; May 5, 1892, c. 60, § 1, 27 Stat. 25; Apr. 29, 1902, c. 641, § 1, 32 Stat. 176; Apr. 27, 1904, c. 1630, § 5, 33 Stat. 428.)

264. Same; exemptions.—The preceding section shall not apply to Chinese laborers who were in the United States on the 17th day of November, 1880, or who came into the same before the expiration of ninety days after May 6, 1882, nor shall sections 263 and 279 of this title apply to Chinese laborers, who shall produce to such master before going on board such vessel, and shall produce to such officer under the control of the Commissioner General of Immigration as the Secretary of Labor may designate therefor, at the port in the United States at which such vessel shall arrive, the evidence hereinafter in this chapter required of his being one of the laborers in this section mentioned. (May 6, 1882, c. 126, § 3, 22 Stat. 59; July 5, 1884, c. 220, 23 Stat. 115; Sept. 13, 1888, c. 1015, § 10, 25 Stat. 478.)

265. Chinese other than laborers; certificates of identity.—Every Chinese person, other than a laborer, who may be entitled to come within the United States, and who shall be about to come to the United States, shall obtain the permission of and be identified as so entitled by the Chinese Government, or of such other foreign government of which at the time such Chinese person shall be a subject, in each case to be evidenced by a certificate issued by such government, which certificate shall be in the English language, and shall show such permission, with the name of the permitted person in his or her proper signature, and which certificate shall state the individual, family, and tribal name in full, title or official rank, if any, the age, height, and all physical peculiarities, former and present occupation or profession, when and where and how long pursued, and place of residence of the person to whom the certificate is issued, and that such person is entitled by this section to come within the United States. If the person so applying for a certificate shall be a merchant, said certificate shall, in addition to above requirements, state the nature, character, and estimated value of the business carried on by him prior to and at the time of his application as aforesaid. Nothing in this section shall be construed as embracing within the meaning of the word "merchant," hucksters, peddlers, or those engaged in taking, drying, or otherwise preserving shell or other fish for home consumption or exportation. If the certificate be sought for the purpose of travel for curiosity, it shall also state whether the applicant intends to pass through or travel within the United States, together with his financial standing in the country from which such certificate is desired. The certificate provided for in this section, and the identity of the person named therein shall, before such person goes on board any vessel to proceed to the United States, be visaed by the indorsement of the diplomatic representatives of the United States in the foreign country from which said certificate issues, or of the consular representative of the United States at the port or place from which the person named in the certificate is about to depart; and such diplomatic representative or consular representative whose indorsement is so required is empowered, and it shall be his duty, before indorsing such certificate as aforesaid, to examine into the truth of the statements set forth in said certificate, and if he shall find upon examination that said or any of the statements therein contained are untrue it shall be his duty to refuse to indorse the same. Such certificate visaed as aforesaid shall be prima facie evidence of the facts set forth therein, and shall be produced to such officer under the control of the Commissioner General of Immigration as the Secretary of Labor may designate therefor, and afterward produced to the proper authorities of the United States whenever lawfully demanded, and shall be the sole evidence permissible on the part of the person so producing the same to establish a right of entry into the United States; but said certificate may be controverted and the facts therein stated disproved by the United States authorities. (May 6, 1882, c. 126, § 6, 22 Stat. 60; July 5, 1884, c. 220, 23 Stat. 116; Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, § 7, 32 Stat. 828; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, § 3, 37 Stat. 737.)

266. Lists of Chinese passengers by masters of vessels arriving from foreign ports.—The master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any foreign port or place shall, at the same time he delivers a manifest of the cargo, and if there be no cargo, then at the time of making a report of the entry of the vessel pursuant to law, in addition to the other matter required to be reported, and before landing, or permitting to land, any Chinese passengers, deliver and report to such officer under the control of the Commissioner General of Immigration as the Secretary of Labor may designate therefor a separate list of all Chinese passengers taken on board his vessel at any foreign port or place, and all such passengers on board the vessel at that time, such list shall show the names of such passengers (and if accredited officers of the Chinese or of any other foreign government, traveling on the business of that government, or their servants, with a note of such facts), and the names and other particulars as shown by their respective certificates; and such list shall be sworn to by the master in the manner required by law in relation to the manifest of the cargo. Any refusal or willful neglect of any such master to comply with the provisions of this section shall incur the same penalties and forfeiture as are provided for a refusal or neglect to report and deliver a manifest of the cargo. (May 6, 1882, c. 126, § 8, 22 Stat. 60; July 5, 1884, c. 220, 23 Stat. 117; Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, § 7, 32 Stat. 828; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, § 8, 37 Stat. 737.)

267. Same; comparison with certificates before landing allowed.—Before any Chinese passengers are landed from any such vessel, such officers under the control of the Commissioner General of Immigration as the Secretary of Labor may designate therefor shall proceed to examine such passengers, comparing the certificates with the list and with the passengers; and no passenger shall be allowed to land in the United States from such vessel in violation of law. (May 6, 1882, c. 126, § 9, 22 Stat. 60.)

268. Forfeitures of vessels.—Every vessel whose master shall knowingly violate any of the provisions of this chapter shall be deemed forfeited to the United States, and shall be liable to seizure and condemnation in any district of the United States into which such vessel may enter or in which she may be found. (May 6, 1882, c. 126, § 10, 22 Stat. 61; July 5, 1884, c. 220, 23 Stat. 115.)

269. Bringing or landing Chinese persons not entitled to enter; penalty.—Any person who shall knowingly bring into or cause to be brought into the United States by land, or who shall aid or abet the same, or aid or abet the landing in the United States from any vessel, of any Chinese person not lawfully entitled to enter the United States, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall on conviction thereof, be fined in a sum not exceeding $1,000, and imprisoned for a term not exceeding one year. (May 6, 1882, c. 126, § 11, 22 Stat. 61; July 5, 1884, c. 220, 23 Stat. 117.)

270. Certificates of identity under Act May 6, 1882, void.—Every certificate issued prior to October 1, 1888, in pursuance of the provisions of sections 4 and 5 of the Act of May 6, 1882, chapter 126, Twenty-second Statutes, page 59, for the purpose of properly identifying Chinese laborers who were in the United States on the 17th day of November, 1880, or who came into the same before the expiration of ninety days after the passage of said Act is declared void and of no effect, and the Chinese laborer claiming admission, by virtue thereof shall not be permitted to enter the United States. (Oct. 1, 1888, c. 1064, § 2, 25 Stat. 504.)

271. Chinese not to enter by land without certificate; payment of charges for maintenance or return of Chinese persons.—No Chinese person shall be permitted to enter the United States by land without producing to the proper officer as mentioned in section 265 of this title the certificate required by said section of Chinese persons seeking to land from a vessel, and the United States shall pay all costs and charges for the maintenance and return of any Chinese person having the certificate prescribed by law as entitling such Chinese person to come into the United States, who may not have been permitted to land from any vessel by reason of any provision of this chapter. All charges for maintenance or return of Chinese persons applying for admission to the United States shall be paid or reimbursed to the United States by the person, company, partnership or corporation bringing such Chinese to a port of the United States as applicants for admission. (May 6, 1882, c. 126, § 12, 22 Stat. 61; July 5, 1884, c. 220, 23 Stat. 117; Sept. 13, 1888, c. 1015, § 13, 25 Stat. 479; Aug. 24, 1912, c. 355, § 1, 37 Stat. 476.)

272. Persons exempted from application of exclusion law.—The preceding sections of this chapter shall not apply to diplomatic and other officers of the Chinese or other Governments traveling upon the business of that Government, whose credentials shall be taken as equivalent to the certificate mentioned therein, and shall exempt them and their body and household servants from the provisions of such sections as to other Chinese persons. (May 6, 1882, c. 126, § 13, 22 Stat. 61; July 5, 1884, c. 220, 23 Stat. 118.)

273. Persons to whom exclusion law is applicable; "Chinese laborers" defined.—The provisions of the preceding sections of this chapter shall apply to all subjects of China and Chinese, whether subjects of China or any other foreign power; and the words Chinese laborers, wherever used in said sections shall be construed to mean both skilled and unskilled laborers and Chinese employed in mining. (May 6, 1882, c. 126, § 15, 22 Stat. 61; July 5, 1884, c. 220, 23 Stat. 118.)

274. Violations of law punishable.—Any violation of any of the provisions of this chapter, the punishment of which is not otherwise herein provided for, shall be deemed a misdemeanor, and shall be punishable by a fine not exceeding $1,000, or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or both such fine and imprisonment. (May 6, 1882, c. 126, 22 Stat. 58; July 5, 1884, c. 220, 23 Stat. 118.)

275. Return of Chinese laborers after departure permitted conditionally.—No Chinese laborer in the United States shall be permitted, after having left, to return thereto, except under the conditions stated in sections 276 and 277 of this title. (Sept. 13, 1888, c. 1015, § 5, 25 Stat. 477; Oct. 1, 1888, c. 1064, § 1, 25 Stat. 504; Apr. 29, 1902, c. 641, § 1, 32 Stat. 176; Apr. 27, 1904, c. 1630, § 5, 33 Stat. 428.)

276. Same; conditions under which they may return.—No Chinese laborer within the purview of the preceding section shall be permitted to return to the United States unless he has a lawful wife, child, or parent in the United States, or property therein of the value of $1,000, or debts of like amount due him and pending settlement. The marriage to such wife must have taken place at least a year prior to the application of the laborer for a permit to return to the United States, and must have been followed by the continuous cohabitation of the parties as man and wife.

If the right to return be claimed on the ground of property or of debts, it must appear that the property is bona fide and not colorably acquired for the purpose of evading the provisions of this section, or that the debts are unascertained and unsettled, and not promissory notes or other similar acknowledgments of ascertained liability. (Sept. 13, 1888, c. 1015, § 6, 25 Stat. 477; Apr. 29, 1902, c. 641, § 1, 32 Stat. 176; Apr. 27, 1904, c. 1630, § 5, 33 Stat. 428.)

277. Same; identification of laborers; certificates; ports of entry.—A Chinese person claiming the right to be permitted to leave the United States and return thereto on any of the grounds stated in the foregoing section, shall apply to such officer under the control of the Commissioner General of Immigration as the Secretary of Labor may designate therefor, of the district from which he wishes to depart at least a month prior to the time of his departure, and shall make on oath before the said officer a full statement descriptive of his family, or property, or debts, as the case may be, and shall furnish to said officer such proofs of the facts entitling him to return as shall be required by the rules and regulations prescribed from time to time by the Secretary of Labor, and for any false swearing in relation thereto he shall incur the penalties of perjury. He shall also permit the officer to take a full description of his person, which description such officer shall retain and mark with a number. And if, after hearing the proofs and investigating all the circumstances of the case, such officer shall decide to issue a certificate of return, he shall at such time, and place as he may designate, sign and give to the person applying, a certificate containing the number of the description last aforesaid, which shall be the sole evidence given to such person of his right to return. If this last named certificate be transferred, it shall become void, and the person to whom it was given shall forfeit his right to return to the United States.

The right to return under the said certificate shall be limited to one year; but it may be extended for an additional period, not to exceed a year, in cases where, by reason of sickness or other cause of disability beyond his control, the holder thereof shall be rendered unable sooner to return, which facts shall be fully reported to and investigated by the consular representative of the United States at the port or place from which such laborer departs for the United States, and certified by such representative of the United States to the satisfaction of such officer under the control of the Commissioner General of Immigration as the Secretary of Labor may designate therefor at the port where such Chinese person shall seek to land in the United States, such certificate to be delivered by said representative to the master of the vessel on which he departs for the United States. And no Chinese laborer shall be permitted to reenter the United States without producing to the proper officer at the port of such entry the return certificate herein required. A Chinese laborer possessing a certificate under this section shall be admitted to the United States only at the port from which he departed therefrom, and no Chinese person, except Chinese diplomatic or consular officers, and their attendants, shall be permitted to enter the United States except at the ports of San Francisco, Portland, Oregon, Boston, New York, New Orleans, Port Townsend, or such other ports as may be designated by the Secretary of Labor. (Sept. 13, 1888, c. 1015, § 7, 25 Stat. 477; Apr. 29, 1902, c. 641, § 1, 32 Stat. 176; Apr. 27, 1904, c. 1630, § 5, 33 Stat. 428; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, § 8, 37 Stat. 738.)

278. Same; regulations.—The Secretary of Labor is authorized and empowered to make and prescribe, and from time to time to change and amend such rules and regulations, not in conflict with this chapter, as he may deem necessary and proper to conveniently secure to such Chinese persons as are provided for in articles 2 and 3 of the unratified treaty between the United States and the Empire of China, signed March 12, 1888, the rights therein mentioned, and such as shall also protect the United States against the coming and transit of persons not entitled to the benefit of the provisions of said articles. And he is further authorized and empowered to prescribe the form and substance of certificates to be issued to Chinese laborers under and in pursuance of the provisions of said articles, and prescribe the form of the record of such certificate and of the proceedings for issuing the same, and he may require the deposit, as a part of such record, of the photograph of the party to whom any such certificate shall be issued. (Sept. 13, 1888, c. 1015, § 8, 25 Stat. 478; Apr. 29, 1902, c. 641, § 1, 32 Stat. 176; Apr. 27, 1904, c. 1630, § 5, 33 Stat. 428.)

279. Same; landing Chinese in contravention of law.—The master of any vessel who shall knowingly bring within the United States on such vessel, and land, or attempt to land, or permit to be landed any Chinese laborer or other Chinese person, in contravention of the provisions of this chapter, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and, on conviction thereof, shall be punished with a fine of not less than $500 nor more than $1,000, in the discretion of the court, for every Chinese laborer or other Chinese person so brought, and may also be imprisoned for a term of not less than one year, nor more than five years, in the discretion of the court. (Sept. 13, 1888, c. 1015, § 9, 25 Stat. 478; Apr. 29, 1902, c. 641, § 1, 32 Stat. 176; Apr. 27, 1904, c. 1630, § 5, 33 Stat. 428.)

280. Same; masters of vessels in distress excepted from penalty prescribed.—The foregoing section shall not apply to the case of any master whose vessel shall come within the jurisdiction of the United States in distress or under stress of weather, or touching at any port of the United States on its voyage to any foreign port or place. But Chinese laborers or persons on such vessels shall not be permitted to land, except in case of necessity, and must depart with the vessel on leaving port. (May 6, 1882, c. 126, § 3; 22 Stat. 59; July 5, 1884, c. 220, 23 Stat. 115; Sept. 13, 1888, c. 1015, § 10, 25 Stat. 478; Apr. 29, 1902, c. 641, § 1, 32 Stat. 176; Apr. 27, 1904, c. 1630, § 5, 33 Stat. 428.)

281. Same; altering name in or forging certificate, or false personation.—Any person who shall knowingly and falsely alter or substitute any name for the name written in any certificate under sections 265, 277, and 287 of this title, or forge such certificate, or knowingly utter any forged or fraudulent certificate, or falsely personate any person named in any such certificate, and any person other than the one to whom a certificate was issued who shall falsely present any such certificate, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in a sum not exceeding $1,000, and imprisoned in a penitentiary for a term of not more than five years. (Sept. 13, 1888, c. 1015, § 11, 25 Stat. 478; May 6, 1882, c. 126, § 7, 22 Stat. 60; May 5, 1892, c. 60, § 8, 27 Stat. 26; Apr. 29, 1902, c. 641, § 1, 32 Stat. 176; Apr. 27, 1904, c. 1630, § 5, 33 Stat. 428.)

282. Same; arrest and removal of Chinese unlawfully in United States.—Any Chinese person, or person of Chinese descent, found unlawfully in the United States, or its Territories, may be arrested upon a warrant issued upon a complaint, under oath, filed by any party on behalf of the United States, by any justice, judge, or commissioner of any United States court, returnable before any justice, judge, or commissioner of a United States court, or before any United States court, and when convicted, upon a hearing, and found and adjudged to be one not lawfully entitled to be or remain in the United States, such person shall be removed from the United States to the country whence he came. But any such Chinese person convicted before a commissioner of a United States court may, within ten days from such conviction, appeal to the judge of the district court for the district. A certified copy of the judgment shall be the process upon which said removal shall be made, and it may be executed by the marshal of the district or any officer having authority of a marshal under the provisions of this section. And in all such cases the person who brought or aided in bringing such person into the United States shall be liable to the Government of the United States for all necessary expenses incurred in such investigation and removal; and all peace officers of the several States and Territories of the United States are invested with the same authority in reference to carrying out the provisions of sections 275 and 281 to 283 of this title, as a marshal or deputy marshal of the United States, and shall be entitled to the same fees as compensation as marshals and deputy marshals are authorized to charge and collect, to be audited and paid by the same officers. (Sept. 13, 1888, c. 1015, § 13, 25 Stat. 479; Mar. 5, 1892, c. 60, § 2, 27 Stat. 25; Apr. 29, 1902, c. 641, § 1, 32 Stat. 176; Apr. 27, 1904, c. 1630, § 5, 33 Stat. 428.)

283. Same; diplomatic and consular officers excepted.—Sections 275 to 282 of this title shall not apply to Chinese diplomatic or consular officers or their attendants, who shall be admitted to the United States under special instructions of the Department of Labor, without production of other evidence than that of personal identity. (Sept. 13, 1888, c. 1015, § 14, 25 Stat. 479; Apr. 29, 1902, c. 641, § 1, 32 Stat. 176; Apr. 27, 1904, c. 1630, § 5, 33 Stat. 428.)

284. Arrested person to prove right to remain.—Any Chinese person or person of Chinese descent arrested under the provisions of this chapter shall be adjudged to be unlawfully within the United States unless such person shall establish, by affirmative proof, to the satisfaction of such justice, judge, or commissioner, his lawful right to remain in the United States. (May 5, 1892, c. 60, § 3, 27 Stat. 25.)

285. Removal of Chinese not entitled to be or remain in United States.—Any Chinese person or person of Chinese descent, when convicted and adjudged to be not lawfully entitled to be or remain in the United States, shall be removed from the United States to China, unless he or they shall make it appear to the justice, judge, or commissioner before whom he or they are tried that he or they are subjects or citizens of some other country, in which case he or they shall be removed from the United States to such country: Provided, That in any case where such other country of which such Chinese person shall claim to be a citizen or subject shall demand any tax as a condition of the removal of such person to that country, he or she shall be removed to China. (May 5, 1892, c. 60, § 2, 27 Stat. 25.)

286. Habeas corpus by Chinese denied landing; bail.—On an application to any judge or court of the United States in the first instance for a writ of habeas corpus, by a Chinese person seeking to land in the United States, to whom that privilege has been denied, no bail shall be allowed, and such application shall be heard and determined promptly without unnecessary delay. (May 5, 1892, c. 60, § 5, 27 Stat. 25.)

287. Certificates of residence; arrest and deportation of laborers without.—It shall be the duty of all Chinese laborers within the limits of the United States who were entitled to remain in the United States before May 5, 1892, to apply to such officers under the control of the Commissioner General of Immigration as the Secretary of Labor may designate therefor, of their respective districts within six months after November 3, 1893, for a certificate of residence; and any Chinese laborer within the limits of the United States who shall be found within the jurisdiction of the United States without such certificate of residence, shall be deemed and adjudged to be unlawfully within the United States, and may be arrested by any such officers under the control of the Commissioner General of Immigration as the Secretary of Labor may designate therefor, United States marshal or his deputies, and taken before a United States judge, whose duty it shall be to order that he be deported from the United States, as provided hereafter; unless he shall establish clearly to the satisfaction of said judge that by reason of accident, sickness, or other unavoidable cause he has been unable to procure his certificate, and to the satisfaction of said United States judge, and by at least one credible witness other than Chinese, that he was a resident of the United States on the 5th of May, 1892; and if, upon the hearing, it shall appear that he is so entitled to a certificate, it shall be granted upon his paying the cost. Should it appear that said Chinaman had procured a certificate which has been lost or destroyed, he shall be detained and judgment suspended a reasonable time to enable him to procure a duplicate from the officer granting it, and in such cases the cost of said arrest and trial shall be in the discretion of the court; and any Chinese person, other than a Chinese laborer, having a right to be and remain in the United States, desiring such certificate as evidence of such right, may apply for and receive the same without charge. No Chinese person convicted in any court of the States or Territories prior to November 3, 1893, or of the United States of a felony shall be permitted to register under the provisions of this section; but all such persons who were subject to deportation at that date for failure or refusal to comply with this section shall be deported from the United States as provided, upon any appropriate proceedings pending or which may be hereafter instituted. The order of deportation shall be executed by the United States marshal of the district within which such order is made and he shall execute same with all convenient despatch. Pending the execution of such order, such Chinese person shall remain in the custody of the United States marshal and shall not be admitted to bail. (May 5, 1892, c. 60 § 6, 27 Stat. 25; Nov. 3, 1893, c. 14, §§ 1, 2, 28 Stat. 7, 8; Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, § 7, 32 Stat. 828; May 4, 1913, c. 141, § 3, 37 Stat. 737.)

288. Regulations for execution of sections 284 to 287.—The Secretary of Labor shall make such rules and regulations as may be necessary for the efficient execution of this section and sections 284 to 287 of this title, and shall prescribe the necessary forms and furnish the necessary blanks to enable such officers under the control of the Commissioner General of Immigration as the Secretary of Labor shall designate therefor to issue the certificates required hereby, and make such provisions that certificates may be procured in localities convenient to the applicants, such certificates shall be issued without charge to the applicant, and shall contain the name, age, local residence and occupation of the applicant, and such other description of the applicant as shall be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, and a duplicate thereof shall be filed in the office of such officer for the district within which such Chinaman makes application. (May 5, 1892, c. 60, § 7, 27 Stat. 26; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, § 8, 37 Stat. 738.)

289. "Laborer" and "merchant" defined; proof for entrance of merchant.—The words "laborer" or "laborers," wherever used in this section and sections 284 to 288 of this title, shall be construed to mean both skilled and unskilled manual laborers, including Chinese employed in mining, fishing, huckstering, peddling, laundrymen, or those engaged in taking, drying, or otherwise preserving shell or other fish for home consumption or exportation.

The term "merchant," as employed in such sections, shall have the following meaning and none other: A merchant is a person engaged in buying and selling merchandise, at a fixed place of business, which business is conducted in his name, and who during the time he claims to be engaged as a merchant, does not engage in the performance of any manual labor, except such as is necessary in the conduct of his business as such merchant.

Where an application is made by a Chinaman for entrance into the United States on the ground that he was formerly engaged in this country as a merchant, he shall establish by the testimony of two credible witnesses other than Chinese the fact that he conducted such business as hereinbefore defined for at least one year before his departure from the United States, and that during such year he was not engaged in the performance of any manual labor, except such as was necessary in the conduct of his business as such merchant, and in default of such proof shall be refused landing.

The certificate provided for in section 287 of this title shall contain the photograph of the applicant, together with his name, local residence and occupation, and a copy of such certificate, with a duplicate of such photograph attached, shall be filed in the office of such officers under the control of the Commissioner General of Immigration as the Secretary of Labor shall designate therefor.

Such photographs in duplicate shall be furnished by each applicant in such form as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor. (Nov. 3, 1893, c. 14, § 2, 28 Stat. 8; May 4, 1913, c. 141, § 3, 37 Stat. 737.)

290. Commissioner for hearing on arrest of Chinese persons.—It shall be lawful for the district attorney of the district in which any Chinese person may be arrested for being found unlawfully within the United States, or having unlawfully entered the United States, to designate the United States commissioner within such district before whom such Chinese person shall be taken for hearing. (Mar. 3, 1901, c. 845, § 1, 31 Stat. 1093.)

291. Same; fees.—A United States commissioner shall be entitled to receive a fee of $5 for hearing and deciding a case arising under the Chinese-exclusion laws. (Mar. 3, 1901, c. 845, § 2, 31 Stat. 1093.)

292. Warrants of arrest.—No warrant of arrest for violations of the Chinese-exclusion laws shall be issued by United States commissioners excepting upon the sworn complaint of a United States district attorney, assistant United States district attorney, such officers under the control of the Commissioner General of Immigration as the Secretary of Labor may designate therefor, or immigration inspector, United States marshal, or deputy United States marshal, or Chinese inspector, unless the issuing of such warrant of arrest shall first be approved or requested in writing by the United States district attorney of the district in which issued. (Mar. 3, 1901, c. 845, § 3, 31 Stat. 1093; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, § 3, 37 Stat. 737.)

293. Exclusion of Chinese from Hawaii; entry into United States from Hawaii.—There shall be no immigration of Chinese into the Hawaiian Islands, except upon such conditions as are now or may hereafter be allowed by the laws of the United States; no Chinese, by reason of anything contained in the joint resolution providing for the annexing of the Hawaiian Islands approved July 7, 1898, shall be allowed to enter the United States from the Hawaiian Islands. (July 7, 1898, No. 55, § 1, 30 Stat. 751.)

294. Certificates of residence for Chinese in Hawaii at time of annexation.—Chinese in the Hawaiian Islands on April 30, 1900, may within one year thereafter obtain certificates of residence as required by section 287 of this title, and until the expiration of said year shall not be deemed to be unlawfully in the United States if found therein without such certificates. No Chinese laborer, whether he shall hold such certificate or not, shall be allowed to enter any State, Territory, or District of the United States from the Hawaiian Islands. (Apr. 30, 1900, c. 339, § 101, 31 Stat. 161.)

295. Laws made applicable to island territory.—The provisions of law contained in this chapter shall apply to the island territory under the jurisdiction of the United States, and prohibit the immigration of Chinese laborers, not citizens of the United States, from such island territory to the mainland territory of the United States, whether in such island territory at the time of cession or not, and from one portion of the island territory of the United States to another portion of said island territory; but they shall not apply to the transit of Chinese laborers from one island to another island of the same group; and any islands within the jurisdiction of any State or the Territory of Alaska shall be considered a part of the mainland under this section. (Apr. 29, 1902, c. 641, § 1, 32 Stat. 176; Apr. 27, 1904, c. 1630, § 5, 33 Stat. 428.)

296. Regulations for execution of law.—The Secretary of Labor is authorized and empowered to make and prescribe, and from time to time to change, such rules and regulations not inconsistent with the laws of the land as he may deem necessary and proper to execute the provisions of this chapter, and with the approval of the President to appoint such agents as he may deem necessary for the efficient execution of this chapter. (Apr. 29, 1902, c. 641, § 2, 32 Stat. 176; Apr. 28, 1904, No. 34, 33 Stat. 591.)

297. Certificates of residence in insular territory; regulations for Philippines.—It shall be the duty of every Chinese laborer, other than a citizen, rightfully in, and entitled to remain in any of the insular territory of the United States on April 29, 1902 (Hawaii excepted), to obtain within one year thereafter a certificate of residence in the insular territory wherein he resides, which certificate shall entitle him to residence therein, and upon failure to obtain such certificate as herein provided he shall be deported from such insular territory; and the Philippine Legislature is authorized and required to make all regulations and provisions necessary for the enforcement of this section in the Philippine Islands, including the form and substance of the certificate of residence so that the same shall clearly and sufficiently identify the holder thereof and enable officials to prevent fraud in the transfer of the same. (Apr. 29, 1902, c. 641, § 4, 32 Stat. 177; Aug. 29, 1916, c. 416, § 12, 39 Stat. 548.)

298. Bertillon system of identification.—So much of the amounts appropriated to prevent unlawful entry of Chinese into the United States, by the appointment of suitable officers to enforce the laws in relation thereto, and for expenses of returning to China all Chinese persons found to be unlawfully in the United States, including the cost of imprisonment and actual expense of conveyance of Chinese persons to the frontier or seaboard for deportation, as may be necessary shall be available for the establishment and maintenance of the Bertillon system of identification at the various ports of entry; but the foregoing provision shall not apply to officials, teachers, students, merchants, or travelers for curiosity or pleasure, or Chinese laborers in transit across the territory of the United States in the course of their journey to or from other countries. (Apr. 28, 1904, c. 1762, § 1, 33 Stat. 478.)

299. Deportation officer.—All Chinese persons ordered deported under judicial writs shall be delivered by the marshal of the district or his deputy into the custody of any officer designated for that purpose by the Secretary of Labor, for conveyance to the frontier or seaboard for deportation in the same manner as aliens deported under the immigration laws. (June 23, 1913, c. 3, § 1, 38 Stat. 65.)

Chapter 8.—THE COOLY TRADE.

Sec.
331. Cooly trade prohibited.
332. Same; forfeiture of vessels.
333. Building vessels to engage in cooly trade; penalty.
334. Punishment for engaging in cooly trade.
335. Voluntary immigration of "coolies" excepted.
336. Same; inquiry and certificate by consular officer.
337. Examination of vessels.
338. Involuntary transportation of Chinese, Japanese, etc., for purpose of holding to service; penalty; contracts void.
339. Contracting to supply cooly labor.

Section 331. Cooly trade prohibited.—No citizen of the United States, or foreigner coming into or residing within the same, shall, for himself or for any other person, either as master, factor, owner, or otherwise, build, equip, load, or otherwise prepare, any vessel, registered, enrolled, or licensed, in the United States, for the purpose of procuring from any port or place the subjects of China, Japan, or of any other oriental country, known as "coolies," to be transported to any foreign port, or place, to be disposed of, or sold, or transferred, for any time, as servants or apprentices, or to be held to service or labor. (R. S. § 2158.)

332. Same; forfeiture of vessels.—If any vessel, belonging in whole or in part to a citizen of the United States, and registered, enrolled, or otherwise licensed therein, be employed in the "cooly trade," so called, contrary to the provisions of the preceding section, such vessel, her tackle, apparel, furniture, and other appurtenances, shall be forfeited to the United States, and shall be liable to be seized, prosecuted, and condemned in any of the district courts of the United States for the district where the vessel may be found, seized, or carried. (R. S. § 2159.)

333. Building vessels to engage in cooly trade; penalty.—Every person who so builds, fits out, equips, loads, or otherwise prepares, or who sends to sea, or navigates, as owner, master, factor, agent, or otherwise, any vessel, belonging in whole or in part to a citizen of the United States, or registered, enrolled, or licensed within the same, knowing or intending that such vessel is to be or may be employed in that trade, contrary to the provsions of section 331 of this title, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding $2,000, and be imprisoned not exceeding one year. (R. S. § 2160.)

334. Punishment for engaging in cooly trade.—Every citizen of the United States who, contrary to the provisions of section 331 of this title, takes on board of any vessel, or receives or transports any such subjects as are described in that section, for the purpose of disposing of them in any way as therein prohibited, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding $2,000 and be imprisoned not exceeding one year. (R. S. § 2161.)

335. Voluntary emigration of "coolies" excepted.—Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to apply to any voluntary emigration of the subjects specified in section 331 of this title, or to any vessel carrying such person as passenger on board the same, but a certificate shall be prepared and signed by the consul or consular agent of the United States residing at the port from which such vessel may take her departure, containing the name of such person, and setting forth the fact of his voluntary emigration from such port, which certificate shall be given to the master of such vessel; and the same shall not be given until such consul or consular agent is first personally satisfied by evidence of the truth of the facts therein contained. (R. S. § 2162.)

336. Same; inquiry and certificate by consular officer.—In determining whether the immigration of any subject of China, Japan, or any oriental country, to the United States, is free and voluntary, as provided by the preceding section, it shall be the duty of the consul general or consul of the United States residing at the port from which it is proposed to convey such subjects, in any vessels enrolled or licensed in the United States, or any port within the same, before delivering to the masters of any such vessels the permit or certificate provided for in such section, to ascertain whether such immigrant has entered into a contract or agreement for a term of service within the United States, for lewd and immoral purposes; and if there be such contract or agreement, the said consul general or consul shall not deliver the required permit or certificate. (Mar. 3, 1875, c. 141, § 1, 18 Stat. 477.)

337. Examination of vessels.—The President is empowered, in such way and at such time as he may judge proper, to direct the vessels of the United States, and the masters and commanders thereof, to examine all vessels navigated or owned in whole or in part by citizens of the United States, and registered, enrolled, or licensed under the laws thereof, whenever in the judgment of such master or commanding officer, reasonable cause exists to believe that such vessel has on board any subjects of China, Japan, or other oriental country, known as "coolies"; and, upon sufficient proof that such vessel is employed in violation of the preceding provisions, to cause her to be carried, with her officers and crew, into any port or district within the United States, and delivered to the marshal of such district, to be held and disposed of according to law. (R. S. § 2163.)

338. Involuntary transportation of Chinese, Japanese, etc., for purpose of holding to service; penalty; contracts void.—If any citizen of the United States, or other person amenable to the laws of the United States, shall take, or cause to be taken or transported, to or from the United States any subject of China, Japan, or any oriental country, without their free and voluntary consent, for the purpose of holding them to a term of service, such citizen or other person shall be liable to be indicted therefor, and, on conviction of such offense, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $2,000 and be imprisoned not exceeding one year; and all contracts and agreements for a term of service of such persons in the United States, whether made in advance or in pursuance of such illegal importation, and whether such importation shall have been in American or other vessels, are hereby declared void. (Mar. 3, 1875, c. 141, § 2, 18 Stat. 477.)

339. Contracting to supply cooly labor.—If any person shall knowingly and willfully contract, or attempt to contract, in advance or in pursuance of such illegal importation, to supply to another the labor of cooly or other person brought into the United States in violation of section 331 of this title, or of any other section of the laws prohibiting the cooly trade or of this chapter, such person shall be deemed guilty of a felony, and, upon conviction thereof, in any United States court, shall be fined in a sum not exceeding $500 and imprisoned for a term not exceeding one year. (Mar. 3, 1875, c. 141, § 4, 18 Stat. 477.)

BUREAU OF NATURALIZATION AND SERVICE

Section 351. Bureau of Naturalization; commissioner and deputy commissioner.—The Bureau of Naturalization is created and established with a Commissioner of Naturalization and a Deputy Commissioner of Naturalization. (June 29, 1906, c. 3592, § 1, 34 Stat. 596; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, § 3, 37 Stat. 737.)

352. Same; supervision of naturalization of aliens.—The Bureau of Naturalization shall have charge, under the direction and control of the Secretary of Labor, of all matters concerning the naturalization of aliens. (June 29, 1906, c. 3592, § 1, 34 Stat. 596; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, § 3, 37 Stat. 737.)

353. Same; powers of commissioner and deputy commissioner.—The Commissioner of Naturalization or, in his absence, the Deputy Commissioner of Naturalization, shall be the administrative officer in charge of the Bureau of Naturalization and of the administration of the naturalization laws under the immediate direction of the Secretary of Labor, to whom he shall report directly upon all naturalization matters annually and as otherwise required, and the appointments of these two officers shall be made in the same manner as appointments to competitive classified civil-service positions. (June 29, 1906, c. 3592, § 1, 34 Stat. 596; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, § 3, 37 Stat. 737.)

354. Same; administration of oaths by members of bureau and service.—Members of the Naturalization Bureau and Service may be designated by the Secretary of Labor to administer oaths relating to the administration of the naturalization law. (May 9, 1918, c. 69, § 1, 40 Stat. 544.)

355. Same; report of expenditures.—A detailed report of the expenditures under the appropriations for the Bureau of Naturalization shall be annually submitted to Congress at the beginning of each regular session thereof. (Mar. 4, 1900, c. 299, § 1, 35 Stat. 982.)

356. Regulations for execution of law; certified copies of papers as evidence.—The Secretary of Labor shall have power to make such rules and regulations as may be necessary for properly carrying into execution the various provisions of this chapter. Certified copies of all papers, documents, certificates, and records required to be used, filed, recorded, or kept under any and all of the provisions of sections 372 to 383, 386 to 394, 396 to 415 of this title shall be admitted in evidence equally with the originals in any and all proceedings under said sections and in all cases in which the originals thereof might be admissible as evidence. (June 29, 1906, c. 3592, § 26, 34 Stat. 606.)

JURISDICTIONAL

357. Jurisdiction of naturalization courts.—Exclusive jurisdiction to naturalize aliens as citizens of the United States is conferred upon the following specified courts:

United States district courts in the States, United States district courts for the Territories of Hawaii and Alaska, the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia; also all courts of record in any State or Territory having a seal, a clerk, and jurisdiction in actions at law or equity, or law and equity, in which the amount in controversy is unlimited.

The naturalization jurisdiction of all courts herein specified, State, Territorial, and Federal, shall extend only to aliens resident within the respective judicial districts of such courts. (June 29, 1906, c. 3592, § 3, 34 Stat. 596; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 289, 36 Stat. 1167; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, § 3, 37 Stat. 737.)

358. Same; District Court of the United States for Porto Rico; residence in Porto Rico.—The District Court of the United States for Porto Rico shall have jurisdiction for the naturalization of aliens and Porto Ricans, and for this purpose residence in Porto Rico shall be counted in the same manner as residence elsewhere in the United States. (Mar. 2, 1917, c. 145, § 41, 39 Stat. 965.)

GENERAL AND SPECIFIC LIMITATIONS OF NATURALIZATION

359. Racial limitation of naturalization; free white persons and Africans.—The provisions of this chapter shall apply to aliens being free white persons, and to aliens of African nativity and to persons of African descent, and nothing in sections 376 to 378, 387 to 395 or 406 of this title shall repeal or in any way enlarge this section, except as specified in sections 388 to 390, 392 to 394 of this title, and under the limitation therein defined. (R. S. § 2169; Feb. 18, 1875, c. 80, § 1, 18 Stat. 318; May 9, 1918, c. 69, 40 Stat. 547.)

360. Admission of persons not citizens owing permanent allegiance to the United States.—All the applicable provisions of the naturalization laws of the United States shall apply to and be held to authorize the admission to citizenship of all persons not citizens who owe permanent allegiance to the United States, and who may become residents of any State or organized Territory of the United States, with the following modifications: The applicant shall not be required to renounce allegiance to any foreign sovereignty; he shall make his declaration of intention to become a citizen of the United States at least two years prior to his admission; and residence within the jurisdiction of the United States, owing such permanent allegiance, shall be regarded as residence within the United States within the meaning of the five years' residence clause of the existing law. (June 29, 1906, c. 3592, § 30, 34 Stat. 606.)

361. Residence period necessary.—No alien shall be admitted to become a citizen who has not for the continued term of five years next preceding his admission resided within the United States. (R. S. § 2170.)

362. Naturalization within thirty days preceding general election prohibited.—No person shall be naturalized nor shall any certificate of naturalization be issued by any court within thirty days preceding the holding of any general election within its territorial jurisdiction. (June 29, 1906, c. 3592, § 6, 34 Stat. 598.)

PERSONS INADMISSIBLE TO CITIZENSHIP

363. Persons inadmissible to citizenship; Chinese.—No State court or court of the United States shall admit Chinese to citizenship. (May 6, 1882, c. 126, § 14, 22 Stat. 61.)

364. Same; anarchists or polygamists.—No person who disbelieves in or who is opposed to organized government, or who is a member of or affiliated with any organization entertaining and teaching such disbelief in or opposition to organized government, or who advocates or teaches the duty, necessity, or propriety of the unlawful assaulting or killing of any officer or officers, either of specific individuals or of officers generally, of the Government of the United States, or of any other organized government, because of his or their official character, or who is a polygamist, shall be naturalized or be made a citizen of the United States. (June 29, 1906, c. 3592, § 7, 34 Stat. 598.)

365. Same; persons unable to speak English.—No alien shall be naturalized or admitted as a citizen of the United States who can not speak the English language. This requirement shall not apply to aliens who are physically unable to comply therewith, if they are otherwise qualified to become citizens of the United States. The requirements of this section shall not apply to any alien who has prior to June 29, 1906, declared his intention to become a citizen of the United States in conformity with the law in force at the date of making such declaration; nor shall they apply to aliens who shall, after June 29, 1906, declare their intention to become citizens and who shall make homestead entries upon the public lands of the United States and comply in all respects with the laws providing for homestead entries on such lands. (June 29, 1906, c. 3592, § 8, 34 Stat. 599.)

366. Same; aliens withdrawing intention to become citizens to avoid service under Selective Draft Act not to be naturalized.—A citizen or subject of a country neutral in the World War who had declared his intention to become a citizen of the United States, and who was relieved from liability to military service under the Selective Draft Act (Act May 18, 1917, c. 15, 40 Stat. 76) upon his making a declaration, in accordance with regulations prescribed by the President, withdrawing his intention to become a citizen of the United States, which operated to cancel his declaration of intention to become an American citizen, shall forever be debarred from becoming a citizen of the United States. (May 18, 1917, c. 15, § 2, 40 Stat. 77; July 9, 1918, c. 143, subchapter XII, § 4, 40 Stat. 885.)

Cross reference. For immigration restrictions upon persons ineligible to citizenship see section 213 (c) of this title.

NATURALIZATION OF WOMEN

367. Naturalization of women; sex or marriage not a bar.—The right of any woman to become a naturalized citizen of the United States shall not be denied or abridged because of her sex or because she is a married woman. (Sept. 22, 1922, c. 411, § 1, 42 Stat. 1021.)

368. Same; women marrying citizens or persons becoming naturalized; procedure.—Any woman who marries a citizen of the United States after September 22, 1922, or any woman whose husband is naturalized after that date, shall not become a citizen of the United States by reason of such marriage or naturalization; but, if eligible to citizenship, she may be naturalized upon full and complete compliance with all requirements of the naturalization laws, with the following exceptions:

(a) No declaration of intention shall be required;

(b) In lieu of the five-year period of residence within the United States and the one-year period of residence within the State or Territory where the naturalization court is held, she shall have resided continuously in the United States, Hawaii, Alaska, or Porto Rico for at least one year immediately preceding the filing of the petition. (Sept. 22, 1922, c. 411, § 2, 42 Stat. 1022.)

369. Same; women who have lost citizenship by marrying aliens eligible to citizenship; procedure.—A woman who, before September 22, 1922, has lost her United States citizenship by reason of her marriage to an alien eligible for citizenship, may be naturalized as provided in the preceding section. No certificate of arrival shall be required to be filed with her petition if during the continuance of the marital status she shall have resided within the United States. After her naturalization she shall have the same citizenship status as if her marriage had taken place after September 22, 1922. (Sept. 22, 1922, c. 411, § 4, 42 Stat. 1022.)

370. Same; women married to persons ineligible to citizenship.—No woman whose husband is not eligible to citizenship shall be naturalized during the continuance of the marital status. (Sept. 22, 1922, c. 411, § 5, 42 Stat. 1022.)

371. Same; wife of alien declarant becoming insane before naturalization; minor children.—When any alien, who has declared his intention to become a citizen of the United States, becomes insane before he is actually naturalized, and his wife shall thereafter make a homestead entry under the land laws of the United States, she and their minor children may, by complying with the other provisions of the naturalization laws be naturalized without making any declaration of intention. (Feb. 24, 1911, c. 151, 36 Stat. 929.)

NATURALIZATION PROCEEDINGS IN GENERAL

372. Proceedings for naturalization.—An alien may be admitted to become a citizen of the United States in the manner indicated under sections 372 to 394 of this title and not otherwise. (June 29, 1906, c. 3592, § 4, 34 Stat. 596.)

373. Declaration of intention.—He shall declare on oath before the clerk of any court authorized to naturalize aliens, or his authorized deputy, in the district in which such alien resides, at least two years prior to his admission, and after he has reached the age of eighteen years, that it is bona fide his intention to become a citizen of the United States, and to renounce forever all allegiance and fidelity to any foreign prince, potentate, state, or sovereignty, and particularly, by name, to the prince, potentate, state, or sovereignty of which the alien may be at the time a citizen or subject. And such declaration shall set forth the name, age, occupation, personal description, place of birth, last foreign residence and allegiance, the date of arrival, the name of the vessel, if any, in which he came to the United States, and the present place of residence in the United States of said alien. No alien who, in conformity with the law in force at the date of his declaration, has declared his intention to become a citizen of the United States shall be required to renew such declaration. (June 29, 1906, c. 3592, § 4, 34 Stat. 596.)

374. Same; not to be made on election day, etc.—It shall not be lawful to make a declaration of intention before the clerk of any court on election day or during the period of thirty days preceding the day of holding any election in the jurisdiction of the court. (May 9, 1918, c. 69, § 1, 40 Stat. 544.)

375. Same; not required from widow and minor children of aliens dying after declaration of intention.—When any alien who has declared his intention to become a citizen of the United States dies before he is actually naturalized the widow and minor children of such alien may, by complying with the other provisions of this chapter, be naturalized without making any declaration of intention. (June 29, 1906, c. 3592, § 4, 34 Stat. 597.)

376. Same; alien seamen declarants deemed citizens for purposes of protection.—Every seaman, being an alien, shall, after his declaration of intention to become a citizen of the United States, and after he shall have served three years upon merchant or fishing vessels of the United States of more than twenty tons burden, as described under sections 388 and 393 of this title, be deemed a citizen of the United States for the purpose of serving on board any such merchant or fishing vessel of the United States, anything to the contrary in any Act of Congress notwithstanding; but such seaman shall, for all purposes of protection as an American citizen, be deemed such after the filing of his declaration of intention to become such citizen. Nothing contained in this chapter shall be taken nor construed to repeal or modify any portion of sections 365, 366 of Title 33, or of sections 481, 569, 596, 597, 599, 601, 656, 672, 673, 683, 688, 701, 703, 712, or 713 of Title 46, to promote the welfare of American seamen. (May 9, 1918, c. 69, § 1, 40 Stat. 544.)

377. Same; certain aliens erroneously exercising rights and performing duties of citizenship prior to July 1, 1914.—Any person not an alien enemy, who resided uninterruptedly within the United States during the period of five years next preceding July 1, 1914, and was on that date otherwise qualified to become a citizen of the United States, except that he had not made the declaration of intention required by law and who during or prior to that time, because of misinformation regarding his citizenship status erroneously exercised the rights and performed the duties of a citizen of the United States in good faith, may file the petition for naturalization prescribed by law without making the preliminary declaration of intention required of other aliens, and upon satisfactory proof to the court that he has so acted may be admitted as a citizen of the United States upon complying in all respects with the other requirements of the naturalization law. (May 19, 1918, c. 69, § 1, 40 Stat. 545.)

378. Alien enemies to be naturalized only under specified conditions.—No alien who is a native, citizen, subject, or denizen of any country, state, or sovereignty with which the United States is at war shall be admitted to become a citizen of the United States unless he made his declaration of intention not less than two nor more than seven years prior to the existence of the state of war or was at that time entitled to become a citizen of the United States, without making a declaration of intention, or unless his petition for naturalization shall then be pending and is otherwise entitled to admission, notwithstanding he shall be an alien enemy at the time and in the manner prescribed by the laws passed upon that subject. No alien embraced within this subdivision shall have his petition for naturalization called for a hearing, or heard, except after ninety days' notice given by the clerk of the court to the Commissioner or Deputy Commissioner of Naturalization to be present, and the petition shall be given no final hearing except in open court and after such notice to the representative of the Government from the Bureau of Naturalization, whose objection shall cause the petition to be continued from time to time for so long as the Government may require. Nothing herein contained shall be taken or construed to interfere with or prevent the apprehension and removal, agreeably to law, of any alien enemy at any time previous to the actual naturalization of such alien. The President of the United States may, in his discretion, upon investigation and report by the Department of Justice fully establishing the loyalty of any alien enemy not included in the foregoing exemption, except such alien enemy from the classification of alien enemy, and thereupon he shall have the privilege of applying for naturalization. (May 9, 1918, c. 69, § 1, 40 Stat. 545.)

379. Petition for naturalization; when required to be filed; allegations; verification by citizen witnesses.—Not less than two years nor more than seven years after he has made such declaration of intention he shall make and file, in duplicate, a petition in writing, signed by the applicant in his own handwriting and duly verified, in which petition such applicant shall state his full name, his place of residence (by street and number, if possible), his occupation, and, if possible, the date and place of his birth; the place from which he emigrated, and the date and place of his arrival in the United States, and, if he entered through a port, the name of the vessel on which he arrived; the time when and the place and name of the court where he declared his intention to become a citizen of the United States; if he is married he shall state the name of his wife and, if possible, the country of her nativity and her place of residence at the time of filing his petition; and if he has children, the name, date, and place of birth and place of residence of each child living at the time of the filing of his petition: Provided, That if he has filed his declaration before June 29, 1906, he shall not be required to sign the petition in his own handwriting.

The petition shall set forth that he is not a disbeliever in or opposed to organized government, or a member of or affiliated with any organization or body of persons teaching disbelief in or opposed to organized government, a polygamist or believer in the practice of polygamy, and that it is his intention to become a citizen of the United States and to renounce absolutely and forever all allegiance and fidelity to any foreign prince, potentate, state, or sovereignty, and particularly by name to the prince, potentate, state, or sovereignty of which he at the time of filing of his petition may be a citizen or subject, and that it is his intention to reside permanently within the United States, and whether or not he has been denied admission as a citizen of the United States, and, if denied, the ground or grounds of such denial, the court or courts in which such decision was rendered, and that the cause for such denial has since been cured or removed, and every fact material to his naturalization and required to be proved upon the final hearing of his application.

The petition shall also be verified by the affidavits of at least two credible witnesses, who are citizens of the United States, and who shall state in their affidavits that they have personally known the applicant to be a resident of the United States for a period of at least five years continuously, and of the State, Territory, or the District of Columbia in which the application is made for a period of at least one year immediately preceding the date of the filing of his petition, and that they each have personal knowledge that the petitioner is a person of good moral character, and that he is in every way qualified, in their opinion, to be admitted as a citizen of the United States. (June 29, 1906, c. 3592, § 4, 34 Stat. 596.)

380. Same; certificate of arrival and declaration of intention to be made a part.—At the time of filing his petition there shall be filed with the clerk of the court a certificate from the Department of Labor, if the petitioner arrived in the United States after June 29, 1906, stating the date, place, and manner of his arrival in the United States and the declaration of intention of such petitioner which certificate and declaration shall be attached to and made a part of such petition. (June 29, 1906, c. 3592, § 4, 34 Stat. 596.)

Cross reference. For registry of aliens arriving in the United States see section 106 of chapter 6 of this title.

381. Oath renouncing foreign allegiance and to support Constitution and laws.—He shall, before he is admitted to citizenship, declare on oath in open court that he will support the Constitution of the United States, and that he absolutely and entirely renounces and abjures all allegiance and fidelity to any foreign prince, potentate, state, or sovereignty, and particularly by name to the prince, potentate, state, or sovereignty of which he was before a citizen or subject; that he will support and defend the Constitution and laws of the United States against all enemies, foreign and domestic, and bear true faith and allegiance to the same. (June 29, 1906, c. 3592, § 4, 34 Stat. 596.)

382. Evidence of residence, character and attachment to principles of Constitution; evidence of witnesses.—It shall be made to appear to the satisfaction of the court admitting any alien to citizenship that immediately preceding the date of his application he has resided continuously within the United States, five years at least, and within the State or Territory where such court is at the time held one year at least, and that during that time he has behaved as a man of good moral character, attached to the principles of the Constitution of the United States, and well disposed to the good order and happiness of the same. In addition to the oath of the applicant, the testimony of at least two witnesses, citizens of the United States, as to the facts of residence, moral character, and attachment to the principles of the Constitution shall be required, and the name, place of residence, and occupation of each witness shall be set forth in the record. (June 29, 1906, c. 3592, § 4, 34 Stat. 596.)

383. Same; evidence of certain period of residence by deposition.—In case the petitioner has not resided in the State, Territory, or the District of Columbia for a period of five years continuously and immediately preceding the filing of his petition he may establish by two witnesses, both in his petition and at the hearing, the time of his residence within the State, provided that it has been for more than one year, and the remaining portion of his five years' residence within the United States required by law to be established may be proved by the depositions of two or more witnesses who are citizens of the United States, upon notice to the Bureau of Naturalization. (June 29, 1906, c. 3592, § 10, 34 Stat. 599; May 4, 1918, c. 141 § 3, 37 Stat. 737; May 9, 1918, c. 69, §§ 1, 3, 40 Stat. 544, 548.)

384. Same; aliens serving on vessels of foreign registry.—Service by aliens upon vessels other than of American registry, whether continuous or broken, shall not be considered as residence for naturalization purposes within the jurisdiction of the United States, and such aliens can not secure residence for naturalization purposes during service upon vessels of foreign registry. (May 9, 1918, c. 69, § 1, 40 Stat. 544.)

385. Same; residence in Hawaiian Islands prior to April 30, 1900, equivalent to residence in United States; validating records, etc.—For the purposes of naturalization under the laws of the United States residence in the Hawaiian Islands prior to April 30, 1900, shall be deemed equivalent to residence in the United States and in the Territory of Hawaii, and the requirement of a previous declaration of intention to become a citizen of the United States and to renounce former allegiance shall not apply to persons who have resided in said islands at least five years prior to April 30, 1900; but all other provisions of the laws of the United States relating to naturalization shall, so far as applicable, apply to persons in the said islands.

All records relating to naturalization, all declarations of intention to become citizens of the United States, and all certificates of naturalization filed, recorded, or issued prior to June 29, 1906, in or from any circuit court of the Territory of Hawaii, shall for all purposes be deemed to be and to have been made, filed, recorded, or issued by a court with jurisdiction to naturalize aliens, but shall not be by this section further validated or legalized. (Apr. 30, 1900, c. 339, § 100, 31 Stat. 161; May 27, 1910, c. 258, § 9, 36 Stat. 448.)

386. Renunciation of title or orders of nobility.—In case the alien applying to be admitted to citizenship has borne any hereditary title, or has been of any of the orders of nobility in the kingdom or state from which he came, he shall, in addition to the above requisites, make an express renunciation of his title or order of nobility in the court to which his application is made, and his renunciation shall be recorded in the court. (June 29, 1906, c. 3592, § 4, 34 Stat. 596.)

387. Citizenship training of applicants for naturalization; reimbursement for publishing citizenship textbook.—For the purpose of carrying on the work of the Bureau of Naturalization of sending the names of the candidates for citizenship to the public schools and otherwise promoting instruction and training in citizenship responsibilities of applicants for naturalization, as provided in this subdivision, authority is given for the reimbursement of the printing and binding appropriation of the Department of Labor upon the records of the Treasury Department from the naturalization fees deposited in the Treasury through the Bureau of Naturalization for the cost of publishing the citizenship textbook prepared and to be distributed by the Bureau of Naturalization to those candidates for citizenship only who are in attendance upon the public schools, such reimbursement to be made upon statements by the Commissioner of Naturalization of books actually delivered to such student candidates for citizenship, and a monthly naturalization bulletin, and in this duty to secure the aid of and cooperate with the official State and national organizations, including those concerned with vocational education and including personal services in the District of Columbia. (May 9, 1918, c. 69, § 1, 40 Stat. 544.)

388. Filipino declarants honorably discharged from Navy, Marine Corps, or Naval Auxiliary Service; Porto Ricans or aliens serving in Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Coast Guard, or United States Government vessels, etc.; residence.—Any native-born Filipino of the age of twenty-one years and upward who has declared his intention to become a citizen of the United States and who has enlisted or may enlist in the United States Navy or Marine Corps or the Naval Auxiliary Service, and who, after service of not less than three years, may be honorably discharged therefrom, or who may receive an ordinary discharge with recommendation for reenlistment; or any alien, or any Porto Rican not a citizen of the United States, of the age of twenty-one years and upward, who has enlisted or entered or may hereafter enlist in or enter the armies of the United States, either the Regular or the Volunteer Forces, or the National Army, the National Guard or Naval Militia of any State, Territory, or the District of Columbia, or the State militia in Federal service, or in the United States Navy or Marine Corps, or in the United States Coast Guard, or who has served for three years on board of any vessel of the United States Government, or for three years on board of merchant or fishing vessels of the United States of more than twenty tons burden, and while still in the service on a reenlistment or reappointment, or within six months after an honorable discharge or separation therefrom, or while on furlough to the Army Reserve or Regular Army Reserve after honorable service, may, on presentation of the required declaration of intention petition for naturalization without proof of the required five years' residence within the United States if upon examination by the representative of the Bureau of Naturalization, in accordance with the requirements of sections 388 to 390, and 392 to 394 of this title, it is shown that such residence can not be established. (May 9, 1918, c. 69, § 1, 40 Stat. 542.)

389. Alien declarant honorably discharged from Army, Navy, etc., subsequently accepted conditionally in military or naval service; residence considered residence within United States.—Any alien declarant who has served in the United States Army or Navy, or the Philippine Constabulary, and has been honorably discharged therefrom, and has been accepted for service in either the military or naval service of the United States on the condition that he becomes a citizen of the United States, may file his petition for naturalization upon proof of continuous residence within the United States for the three years immediately preceding his petition, by two witnesses, citizens of the United States, and in these cases only residence in the Philippine Islands and the Panama Canal Zone by aliens may be considered residence within the United States, and the place of such military service shall be construed as the place of residence required to be established for purposes of naturalization. (May 9, 1918, c. 69, § 1, 40 Stat. 542.)

390. Aliens in military service of United States on May 9, 1918, filing "overseas petition"; oath of allegiance.—Any alien, who, on May 9, 1918, was in the military service of the United States, and who may not be within the jurisdiction of any court authorized to naturalize aliens, may file his petition for naturalization without appearing in person in the office of the clerk of the court and shall not be required to take the prescribed oath of allegiance in open court. The petition shall be verified by the affidavits of at least two credible witnesses who are citizens of the United States, and who shall prove in their affidavits the portion of the residence that they have personally known the applicant to have resided within the United States. The time of military service may be established by the affidavits of at least two other citizens of the United States, which, together with the oath of allegiance, may be taken in accordance with the terms of section 131 of title 22 after notice from and under regulations of the Bureau of Naturalization. Such affidavits and oath of allegiance shall be admitted in evidence in any original or appellate naturalization proceeding without proof of the genuineness of the seal or signature or of the official character of the officer before whom the affidavits and oath of allegiance were taken, and shall be filed by the representative of the Government from the Bureau of Naturalization at the hearing as provided by section 399 of this title. (May 9, 1918, c. 69, § 1, 40 Stat. 543.)

391. Persons serving in military or naval forces at termination of World War; persons honorably discharged therefrom; residence.—Any person who was serving in the military or naval forces of the United States at the termination of the World War, and any person who before the termination of said war may have been honorably discharged from the military or naval services of the United States on account of disability incurred in line of duty, shall, if he applies to the proper court for admission as a citizen of the United States, be relieved from the necessity of proving that immediately preceding the date of his application he has resided continuously within the United States the time required by law of other aliens, or within the State, Territory, or the District of Columbia for the year immediately preceding the date of his petition for naturalization, but his petition for naturalization shall be supported by the affidavits of two credible witnesses, citizens of the United States, identifying the petitioner as the person named in the certificate of honorable discharge, which said certificate may be accepted as evidence of good moral character required by law, and he shall comply with the other requirements of the naturalization law. (May 9, 1918, c. 69, § 1, 40 Stat. 544.)

392. Aliens serving in military or naval forces during World War; declaration of intention; residence.—Any alien who served in the military or naval service of the United States during the time this country was engaged in the World War, might file his petition for naturalization without making the preliminary declaration of intention and without proof of the required five years' residence within the United States. (May 9, 1918, c. 69, § 1, 40 Stat. 543.)

393. Certain aliens or persons owing permanent allegiance; jurisdiction of courts; evidence of residence, etc.—Any alien, or any person owing permanent allegiance to the United States embraced within sections 388 to 390, 392 to 394 of this title, may file his petition for naturalization in the most convenient court without proof of residence within its jurisdiction, notwithstanding the limitation upon the jurisdiction of the courts specified in section 357 of this title, provided he appears with his two witnesses before the appropriate representative of the Bureau of Naturalization and passes the preliminary examination hereby required before filing his petition for naturalization in the office of the clerk of the court, and in each case the record of this examination shall be offered in evidence by the representative of the Government from the Bureau of Naturalization and made a part of the record at the original and any subsequent hearings; and, except as otherwise herein provided, the honorable discharge certificate of such alien, or person owing permanent allegiance to the United States, or the certificate of service showing good conduct, signed by a duly authorized officer, or by the masters of said vessels, shall be deemed prima facie evidence to satisfy all of the requirements of residence within the United States and within the State, Territory, or the District of Columbia, and good moral character required by law, when supported by the affidavits of two witnesses, citizens of the United States, identifying the applicant as the person named in the certificate or honorable discharge, and in those cases only where the alien is actually in the military or naval service of the United States, the certificate of arrival shall not be filed with the petition for naturalization in the manner prescribed. (May 9, 1918, c. 69, § 1, 40 Stat. 543.)

394. Hearing of certain petitions for naturalization within thirty days of election.—Any petition for naturalization filed under the provisions of sections 388 to 390, 392 to 394 of this title, may be heard immediately, notwithstanding the law prohibits the hearing of a petition for naturalization during thirty days preceding any election in the jurisdiction of the court. (May 9, 1918, c. 69, § 1, 40 Stat. 543.)

395. Effect of repeal of section 2166, Revised Statutes, upon aliens serving in Army prior to January 1, 1900, and honorably discharged therefrom.—As to all aliens who, prior to January 1, 1900, served in the armies of the United States, and who were honorably discharged therefrom, section 2166 of the Revised Statutes of the United States—which read as follows: "Any alien, of the age of twenty-one years and upward, who has enlisted, or may enlist, in the armies of the United States, either the Regular or the Volunteer Forces, and has been, or may be hereafter, honorably discharged, shall be admitted to become a citizen of the United States, upon his petition, without any previous declaration of his intention to become such; and he shall not be required to prove more than one year's residence within the United States previous to his application to become such citizen; and the court admitting such alien shall, in addition to such proof of residence and good moral character, as now provided by law, be satisfied by competent proof of such person's having been honorably discharged from the service of the United States"—shall be and remain in full force and effect. (May 9, 1918, c. 69, § 2, 40 Stat. 547.)

396. Time for filing petition for naturalization; stated days for final action thereon; change of name.—Petitions for naturalization may be made and filed during term time or vacation of the court and shall be docketed the same day as filed, but final action thereon shall be had only on stated days, to be fixed by rule of the court, and in no case shall final action be had upon a petition until at least ninety days have elapsed after filing and posting the notice of such petition. No person shall be naturalized nor shall any certificate of naturalization be issued by any court within thirty days preceding the holding of any general election within its territorial jurisdiction. It shall be lawful, at the time and as a part of the naturalization of any alien, for the court, in its discretion, upon the petition of such alien, to make a decree changing the name of said alien, and his certificate of naturalization shall be issued to him in accordance therewith. (June 29, 1906, c. 3592, § 6, 34 Stat. 598.)

397. Public notice of filing of petition and of hearing thereon; witnesses.—The clerk of the court shall, immediately after filing the petition, give notice thereof by posting in a public and conspicuous place in his office, or in the building in which his office is situated, under an appropriate heading, the name, nativity, and residence of the alien, the date and place of his arrival in the United States, and the date, as nearly as may be, for the final hearing of his petition, and the names of the witnesses whom the applicant expects to summon in his behalf; and the clerk shall, if the applicant requests it, issue a subpœna for the witnesses so named by the said applicant to appear upon the day set for the final hearing, but in case such witnesses can not be produced upon the final hearing other witnesses may be summoned. (June 29, 1906, c. 3592, § 5, 34 Stat. 598.)

398. Final hearing on petition in open court; final order under hand of court; examination of applicant and witnesses.—Every final hearing upon a petition for naturalization shall be had in open court before a judge or judges thereof, and every final order which may be made upon such petition shall be under the hand of the court and entered in full upon a record kept for that purpose, and upon such final hearing of such petition the applicant and witnesses shall be examined under oath before the court and in the presence of the court. (June 29, 1906, c. 3592, § 9, 34 Stat. 599.)

399. Appearance by United States and proceedings in opposition to naturalization.—The United States shall have the right to appear before any court or courts exercising jurisdiction in naturalization proceedings for the purpose of cross-examining the petitioner and the witnesses produced in support of his petition concerning any matter touching or in any way affecting his right to admission to citizenship, and shall have the right to call witnesses, produce evidence, and be heard in opposition to the granting of any petition in naturalization proceedings. (June 29, 1906, c. 3592, § 11, 34 Stat. 599.)

DUTIES OF CLERKS OF COURTS; NATURALIZATION FEES

400. Duties of clerks of courts; filing declaration of intention; forwarding duplicate certificate and names of aliens denied citizenship; penalty.—It shall be the duty of the clerk of each and every court exercising jurisdiction in naturalization matters to keep and file a duplicate of each declaration of intention made before him and to send to the Bureau of Naturalization at Washington, within thirty days after the issuance of a certificate of citizenship, a duplicate of such certificate, and to make and keep on file in his office a stub for each certificate so issued by him, whereon shall be entered a memorandum of all the essential facts set forth in such certificate. It shall also be the duty of the clerk of each of said courts to report to the said bureau, within thirty days after the final hearing and decision of the court, the name of each and every alien who shall be denied naturalization, and to furnish to said bureau duplicates of all petitions within thirty days after the filing of the same, and certified copies of such other proceedings and orders instituted in or issued out of said court affecting or relating to the naturalization of aliens as may be required from time to time by the said bureau.

In case any such clerk or officer acting under his direction shall refuse or neglect to comply with any of the foregoing provisions of this section he shall forfeit and pay to the United States the sum of $25 in each and every case in which such violation or omission occurs, and the amount of such forfeiture may be recovered by the United States in an action of debt against such clerk. (June 29, 1906, c. 3592, § 12, 34 Stat. 599.)

401. Same; responsibility for blank certificates of citizenship; return of defaced certificates; penalty.—Clerks of courts having and exercising jurisdiction in naturalization matters shall be responsible for all blank certificates of citizenship received by them from time to time from the Bureau of Naturalization, and shall account for the same to the said bureau whenever required so to do by such bureau. No certificate of citizenship received by any such clerk which may be defaced or injured in such manner as to prevent its use as herein provided shall in any case be destroyed, but such certificate shall be returned to the said bureau; and in case any such clerk shall fail to return or properly account for any certificate furnished by the said bureau, as herein provided, he shall be liable to the United States in the sum of $50, to be recovered in an action of debt, for each and every certificate not properly accounted for or returned. (June 29, 1906, c. 3592, § 12, 34 Stat. 599.)

402. Fees; disposition of; clerical assistance.—The clerk of each and every court exercising jurisdiction in naturalization cases shall charge, collect, and account for the following fees in each proceeding:

For receiving and filing a declaration of intention and issuing a duplicate thereof, $1.

For making, filing, and docketing the petition of an alien for admission as a citizen of the United States and for the final hearing thereon, $2; and for entering the final order and the issuance of the certificate of citizenship thereunder, if granted, $2.

Except as hereinafter mentioned in this section, the clerk of any court collecting such fees is authorized to retain one-half of the fees collected by him in such naturalization proceeding; the remaining one-half of the naturalization fees in each case collected by such clerks, respectively, shall be accounted for in their quarterly accounts, which they are required to render the Bureau of Naturalization, and paid over to such bureau within thirty days from the close of each quarter in each and every fiscal year, and the moneys so received shall be paid over to the disbursing clerk of the Department of Labor, who shall thereupon deposit them in the Treasury of the United States, rendering an account therefor quarterly to the General Accounting Office, and the said disbursing clerk shall be held responsible under his bond for said fees so received.

In addition to the fees herein required, the petitioner shall, upon the filing of his petition to become a citizen of the United States, deposit with and pay to the clerk of the court a sum of money sufficient to cover the expenses of subpœnaing and paying the legal fees of any witnesses for whom he may request a subpœna, and upon the final discharge of such witnesses they shall receive, if they demand the same from the clerk, the customary and usual witness fees from the moneys which the petitioner shall have paid to such clerk for such purpose, and the residue, if any, shall be returned by the clerk to the petitioner.

The clerks of courts exercising jurisdiction in naturalization proceedings shall be permitted to retain one-half of the fees in any fiscal year up to the sum of $3,000, and all fees received by such clerks in naturalization proceedings in excess of such amount shall be accounted for and paid over to said bureau as in case of other fees to which the United States may be entitled under the provisions of this chapter.

The clerks of the various courts exercising jurisdiction in naturalization proceedings shall pay all additional clerical force that may be required in performing the duties imposed by the naturalization laws upon the clerks of courts from fees received by such clerks in naturalization proceedings.

Payment for the additional clerical assistance herein authorized shall be in the manner and under such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe. In case the clerk of any court exercising naturalization jurisdiction collects fees in excess of the sum of $6,000 in any fiscal year the Secretary of Labor may allow salaries, for naturalization purposes only, to pay for clerical assistance, to be selected and employed by that clerk, additional to the clerical force, for which clerks of courts are required by this section to pay from fees received by such clerks in naturalization proceedings, if in the opinion of said Secretary the naturalization business of such clerk warrants further additional assistance.

The whole amount allowed for a fiscal year to the clerk of a court and his assistants from naturalization fees and any appropriation made for carrying on the work of the Bureau of Naturalization shall be based upon and not exceed the one-half of the gross receipts of said clerk from naturalization fees during the fiscal year immediately preceding, unless the naturalization business of the clerk of any court during the year shall be in excess of the naturalization business of the preceding year, in which event the amount allowed may be increased to an amount equal to one-half the estimated gross receipts of the said clerk from naturalization fees during the current fiscal year. The provisions of this section relating to the retention as compensation by clerks of courts of naturalization fees shall not apply to clerks of United States courts who by law are to receive a salary in lieu of fees or other emoluments. (June 29, 1906, c. 3592, § 13, 34 Stat. 600; June 25, 1910, c. 401, § 1, 36 Stat. 829; June 12, 1917, c. 27, § 1, 40 Stat. 171; Feb. 26, 1919, c. 49, §§ 1, 2, 40 Stat. 1182; Feb. 11, 1921, c. 46, 41 Stat. 1099; Mar. 4, 1921, c. 161, § 1, 41 Stat. 1412.)

403. Same; when United States is at war.—During the time when the United States is at war no clerk of a United States court shall charge or collect a naturalization fee from an alien in the military service of the United States for filing his petition or issuing the certificate of naturalization upon admission to citizenship, and no clerk of any State court shall charge or collect any fee for this service unless the laws of the State require such charge to be made, in which case nothing more than the portion of the fee required to be paid to the State shall be charged or collected. A full accounting for all of these transactions shall be made to the Bureau of Naturalization in the manner provided by section 402 of this title. (May 9, 1918, c. 69, § 1, 40 Stat. 544.)

404. Declarations of intention and petitions as records of court; reference in certificate to record.—The declarations of intention and the petitions for naturalization shall be bound in chronological order in separate volumes, indexed, consecutively numbered, and made part of the records of the court. Each certificate of naturalization issued shall bear upon its face, in a place prepared therefor, the volume number and page number of the petition whereon such certificate was issued, and the volume number and page number of the stub of such certificate. (June 29, 1906, c. 3592, § 14, 34 Stat. 601.)

VALIDATING OR CANCELING NATURALIZATION CERTIFICATES

405. Cancellation of certificates of citizenship fraudulently or illegally procured; aliens returning to country of nativity or residing permanently in foreign country; certified copy of order canceling certificate.—It shall be the duty of the United States district attorneys for the respective districts, or the Commissioner or Deputy Commissioner of Naturalization, upon affidavit showing good cause therefor, to institute proceedings in any court having jurisdiction to naturalize aliens in the judicial district in which the naturalized citizen may reside at the time of bringing the suit, for the purpose of setting aside and canceling the certificate of citizenship on the ground of fraud or on the ground that such certificate of citizenship was illegally procured. In any such proceedings the party holding the certificate of citizenship alleged to have been fraudulently or illegally procured shall have sixty days personal notice in which to make answer to the petition of the United States; and if the holder of such certificate be absent from the United States or from the district in which he last had his residence, such notice shall be given by publication in the manner provided for the service of summons by publication or upon absentees by the laws of the State or the place where such suit is brought.

If any alien who shall have secured a certificate of citizenship under the provisions of this chapter shall, within five years after the issuance of such certificate, return to the country of his nativity, or go to any other foreign country, and take permanent residence therein, it shall be considered prima facie evidence of a lack of intention on the part of such alien to become a permanent citizen of the United States at the time of filing his application for citizenship, and, in the absence of countervailing evidence, it shall be sufficient in the proper proceeding to authorize the cancellation of his certificate of citizenship as fraudulent, and the diplomatic and consular officers of the United States in foreign countries shall from time to time, through the Department of State, furnish the Department of Justice with the names of those within their respective jurisdictions who have such certificates of citizenship and who have taken permanent residence in the country of their nativity, or in any other foreign country, and such statements, duly certified, shall be admissible in evidence in all courts in proceedings to cancel certificates of citizenship.

Whenever any certificate of citizenship shall be set aside or canceled, as herein provided, the court in which such judgment or decree is rendered shall make an order canceling such certificate of citizenship and shall send a certified copy of such order to the Bureau of Naturalization; and in case such certificate was not originally issued by the court making such order it shall direct the clerk of the court to transmit a copy of such order and judgment to the court out of which such certificate of citizenship shall have been originally issued. And it shall thereupon be the duty of the clerk of the court receiving such certified copy of the order and judgment of the court to enter the same of record and to cancel such original certificate of citizenship upon the records and to notify the Bureau of Naturalization of such cancellation.

The provisions of this section shall apply not only to certificates of citizenship issued under the provisions of sections 356, 357, 360, 362, 364, 365, 372 to 383, 386 to 394, 396 to 405, and 407 to 415 of this title, but to all certificates of citizenship which may have been issued prior to ninety days after June 29, 1906, by any court exercising jurisdiction in naturalization proceedings under prior laws. (June 29, 1906, c. 3592, § 15, 34 Stat. 601; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, § 3, 37 Stat. 737; May 9, 1918, c. 69, § 1, 40 Stat. 544.)

406. Validation of certificates of naturalization granted prior to December 31, 1918.—All certificates of naturalization granted by courts of competent jurisdiction prior to December 31, 1918, upon petitions for naturalization filed prior to January 31, 1918, upon declarations of intention filed prior to September 27, 1906, are declared to be valid in so far as the declaration of intention is concerned, but shall not be further validated or legalized by the provisions of this section. (May 9, 1918, c. 69, § 3, 40 Stat.)

407. Certificates of naturalization failing to show compliance with requirements of Act March 3, 1903, validated.—Naturalization certificates issued after the time of the taking effect of Act March 3, 1903, Thirty-second Statutes, page 1222, which fail to show that the courts issuing said certificates complied with the requirements of section 39 of said Act, but which were otherwise lawfully issued, are declared to be as valid as though said certificates complied with said section. In all such cases applications shall be made for new naturalization certificates, and when the same are granted, upon compliance with the provisions of said Act of 1903, they shall relate back to the defective certificates, and citizenship shall be deemed to have been perfected at the date of the defective certificate. (June 29, 1906, c. 3624, § 1, 34 Stat. 630.)

NATURALIZATION FORMS

408. Naturalization forms supplied courts on requisition; certificates to be consecutively numbered.—The courts specified in sections 357 and 358 of this title shall, upon the requisition of the clerks of such courts, be furnished from time to time by the Bureau of Naturalization with such blank forms as may be required in the naturalization of aliens. All certificates of naturalization shall be consecutively numbered and printed on safety paper furnished by said bureau. (June 29, 1906, c. 3592, § 3, 34 Stat. 596.)

409. Forms.—Substantially the following forms shall be used in the proceedings to which they relate:

CROSS REFERENCE

Disputes between carriers and employees; see chapter 6 of Title 45, RAILROADS.

Section 1. "Maritime transactions" and "commerce" defined; exceptions to operation of title.—"Maritime transactions," as herein defined, means charter parties, bills of lading of water carriers, agreements relating to wharfage, supplies furnished vessels or repairs to vessels, collisions, or any other matters in foreign commerce which, if the subject of controversy, would be embraced within admiralty jurisdiction; "commerce," as herein defined, means commerce among the several States or with foreign nations, or in any Territory of the United States or in the District of Columbia, or between any such Territory and another, or between any such Territory and any State or foreign nation, or between the District of Columbia and any State or Territory or foreign nation, but nothing herein contained shall apply to contracts of employment of seamen, railroad employees, or any other class of workers engaged in foreign or interstate commerce. (Feb. 12, 1925, c. 213, § 1, 43 Stat. 883.)

2. Validity, irrevocability, and enforcement of agreements to arbitrate.—A written provision in any maritime transaction or a contract evidencing a transaction involving commerce to settle by arbitration a controversy thereafter arising out of such contract or transaction, or the refusal to perform the whole or any part thereof, or an agreement in writing to submit to arbitration an existing controversy arising out of such a contract, transaction, or refusal, shall be valid, irrevocable, and enforceable, save upon such grounds as exist at law or in equity for the revocation of any contract. (Feb. 12, 1925, c. 213, § 2, 43 Stat. 883.)

3. Stay of proceedings where issue therein referable to arbitration.—If any suit or proceeding be brought in any of the courts of the United States upon any issue referable to arbitration under an agreement in writing for such arbitration, the court in which such suit is pending, upon being satisfied that the issue involved in such suit or proceeding is referable to arbitration under such an agreement, shall on application of one of the parties stay the trial of the action until such arbitration has been had in accordance with the terms of the agreement, providing the applicant for the stay is not in default in proceeding with such arbitration. (Feb. 12, 1925, c. 213, § 3, 43 Stat. 883.)

4. Failure, etc., to arbitrate under agreement; petition to United States court having jurisdiction for order to compel arbitration; notice and service thereof; hearing and determination.—A party aggrieved by the alleged failure, neglect, or refusal of another to arbitrate under a written agreement for arbitration may petition any court of the United States which, save for such agreement, would have jurisdiction under the judicial code at law, in equity, or in admiralty of the subject matter of a suit arising out of the controversy between the parties, for an order directing that such arbitration proceed in the manner provided for in such agreement. Five days' notice in writing of such application shall be served upon the party in default. Service thereof shall be made in the manner provided by law for the service of summons in the jurisdiction in which the proceeding is brought. The court shall hear the parties, and upon being satisfied that the making of the agreement for arbitration or the failure to comply therewith is not in issue, the court shall make an order directing the parties to proceed to arbitration in accordance with the terms of the agreement. The hearing and proceedings under such agreement shall be within the district in which the petition for an order directing such arbitration is filed. If the making of the arbitration agreement or the failure, neglect, or refusal to perform the same be in issue, the court shall proceed summarily to the trial thereof. If no jury trial be demanded by the party alleged to be in default, or if the matter in dispute is within admiralty jurisdiction, the court shall hear and determine such issue. Where such an issue is raised, the party alleged to be in default may, except in cases of admiralty, on or before the return day of the notice of application, demand a jury trial of such issue, and upon such demand the court shall make an order referring the issue or issues to a jury in the manner provided by law for referring to a jury issues in an equity action, or may specially call a jury for that purpose. If the jury find that no agreement in writing for arbitration was made or that there is no default in proceeding thereunder, the proceeding shall be dismissed. If the jury find that an agreement for arbitration was made in writing and that there is a default in proceeding thereunder, the court shall make an order summarily directing the parties to proceed with the arbitration in accordance with the terms thereof. (Feb. 12, 1925, c. 213, § 4, 43 Stat. 883.)

5. Appointment of arbitrators or umpire.—If in the agreement provision be made for a method of naming or appointing an arbitrator or arbitrators or an umpire, such method shall be followed; but if no method be provided therein, or if a method be provided and any party thereto shall fail to avail himself of such method, or if for any other reason there shall be a lapse in the naming of an arbitrator or arbitrators or umpire, or in filling a vacancy, then upon the application of either party to the controversy the court shall designate and appoint an arbitrator or arbitrators or umpire, as the case may require, who shall act under the said agreement with the same force and effect as if he or they had been specifically named therein; and unless otherwise provided in the agreement the arbitration shall be by a single arbitrator. (Feb. 12, 1925, c. 213, § 5, 43 Stat. 884.)

6. Application heard as motion.—Any application to the court hereunder shall be made and heard in the manner provided by law for the making and hearing of motions, except as otherwise herein expressly provided. (Feb. 12, 1925, c. 213, § 6, 43 Stat. 884.)

7. Witnesses before arbitrators; fees; compelling attendance.—The arbitrators selected either as prescribed in this title or otherwise, or a majority of them, may summon in writing any person to attend before them or any of them as a witness and in a proper case to bring with him or them any book, record, document, or paper which may be deemed material as evidence in the case. The fees for such attendance shall be the same as the fees of witnesses before masters of the United States courts. Said summons shall issue in the name of the arbitrator or arbitrators, or a majority of them, and shall be signed by the arbitrators, or a majority of them, and shall be directed to the said person and shall be served in the same manner as subpœnas to appear and testify before the court; if any person or persons so summoned to testify shall refuse or neglect to obey said summons, upon petition the United States court in and for the district in which such arbitrators, or a majority of them, are sitting may compel the attendance of such person or persons before said arbitrator or arbitrators, or punish said person or persons for contempt in the same manner provided on February 12, 1925, for securing the attendance of witnesses or their punishment for neglect or refusal to attend in the courts of the United States. (Feb. 12, 1925, c. 213, § 7, 43 Stat. 884.)

8. Proceedings begun by libel in admiralty and seizure of vessel or property.—If the basis of jurisdiction be a cause of action otherwise justiciable in admiralty, then, notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the party claiming to be aggrieved may begin his proceeding hereunder by libel and seizure of the vessel or other property of the other party according to the usual course of admiralty proceedings, and the court shall then have jurisdiction to direct the parties to proceed with the arbitration and shall retain jurisdiction to enter its decree upon the award. (Feb. 12, 1925, c. 213, § 8, 43 Stat. 884.)

9. Award of arbitrators; confirmation; jurisdiction; procedure.—If the parties in their agreement have agreed that a judgment of the court shall be entered upon the award made pursuant to the arbitration, and shall specify the court, then at any time within one year after the award is made any party to the arbitration may apply to the court so specified for an order confirming the award, and thereupon the court must grant such an order unless the award is vacated, modified, or corrected as prescribed in sections 10 and 11 of this title. If no court is specified in the agreement of the parties, then such application may be made to the United States court in and for the district within which such award was made. Notice of the application shall be served upon the adverse party, and thereupon the court shall have jurisdiction of such party as though he had appeared generally in the proceeding. If the adverse party is a resident of the district within which the award was made, such service shall be made upon the adverse party or his attorney as prescribed by law for service of notice of motion in an action in the same court. If the adverse party shall be a nonresident, then the notice of the application shall be served by the marshal of any district within which the adverse party may be found in like manner as other process of the court. (Feb. 12, 1925, c. 213, § 9, 43 Stat. 885.)

10. Same; vacation; grounds; rehearing.—In either of the following cases the United States court in and for the district wherein the ward was made may make an order vacating the award upon the application of any party to the arbitration—

(a) Where the award was procured by corruption, fraud, or undue means.

(b) Where there was evident partiality or corruption in the arbitrators, or either of them.

(c) Where the arbitrators were guilty of misconduct in refusing to postpone the hearing, upon sufficient cause shown, or in refusing to hear evidence pertinent and material to the controversy; or of any other misbehavior by which the rights of any party have been prejudiced.

(d) Where the arbitrators exceeded their powers, or so imperfectly executed them that a mutual, final, and definite award upon the subject matter submitted was not made.

(e) Where an award is vacated and the time within which the agreement required the award to be made has not expired the court may, in its discretion, direct a rehearing by the arbitrators. (Feb. 12, 1925, c. 213, § 10, 43 Stat. 885.)

11. Same; modification or correction; grounds; order.—In either of the following cases the United States court in and for the district wherein the award was made may make an order modifying or correcting the award upon the application of any party to the arbitration—

(a) Where there was an evident material miscalculation of figures or an evident material mistake in the description of any person, thing, or property referred to in the award.

(b) Where the arbitrators have awarded upon a matter not submitted to them, unless it is a matter not affecting the merits of the decision upon the matter submitted.

(c) Where the award is imperfect in matter of form not affecting the merits of the controversy.

The order may modify and correct the award, so as to effect the intent thereof and promote justice between the parties. (Feb. 12, 1925, c. 213, § 11, 43 Stat. 885.)

12. Notice of motions to vacate or modify; service; stay of proceedings.—Notice of a motion to vacate, modify, or correct an award must be served upon the adverse party or his attorney within three months after the award is filed or delivered. If the adverse party is a resident of the district within which the award was made, such service shall be made upon the adverse party or his attorney as prescribed by law for service of notice of motion in an action in the same court. If the adverse party shall be a nonresident then the notice of the application shall be served by the marshal of any district within which the adverse party may be found in like manner as other process of the court. For the purposes of the motion any judge who might make an order to stay the proceedings in an action brought in the same court may make an order, to be served with the notice of motion, staying the proceedings of the adverse party to enforce the award. (Feb. 12, 1925, c. 213, § 12, 43 Stat. 885.)

13. Papers filed with order on motions; judgment; docketing; force and effect; enforcement.—The party moving for an order confirming, modifying, or correcting an award shall, at the time such order is filed with the clerk for the entry of judgment thereon, also file the following papers with the clerk:

(a) The agreement; the selection or appointment, if any, of an additional arbitrator or umpire; and each written extension of the time, if any, within which to make the award.

(b) The award.

(c) Each notice, affidavit, or other paper used upon an application to confirm, modify, or correct the award, and a copy of each order of the court upon such an application.

The judgment shall be docketed as if it was rendered in an action.

The judgment so entered shall have the same force and effect, in all respects, as, and be subject to all the provisions of law relating to, a judgment in an action; and it may be enforced as if it had been rendered in an action in the court in which it is entered. (Feb. 12, 1925, c. 213, § 13, 43 Stat. 886.)

14. Citation of title.—This title may be referred to as "The United States Arbitration Act." (Feb. 12, 1925, c. 213, § 14, 43 Stat. 886.)

15. Contracts not affected.—This title shall not apply to contracts made prior to February 12, 1925. (Feb. 12, 1925, c. 213, § 15, 43 Stat. 886.)

Section 1. National forces; persons liable to perform military duty.—All able-bodied male citizens of the United States, and persons of foreign birth who shall have declared their intention to become citizens of the United States under and in pursuance of the laws thereof, between the ages of eighteen and forty-five years, are hereby declared to constitute the national forces, and, with such exceptions and under such conditions as may be prescribed by law, shall be liable to perform military duty in the service of the United States. (Apr. 22, 1898, c. 187, § 1, 30 Stat. 361.)

2. Composition of Army of United States.—The Army of the United States shall consist of the Regular Army, the National Guard while in the service of the United States, and the Organized Reserves, including the Officers' Reserve Corps and the Enlisted Reserve Corps. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 1, 41 Stat. 759.)

3. Regular Army defined.—The Regular Army is the permanent military establishment, which is maintained both in peace and war according to law. (Apr. 22, 1898, c. 187, § 3, 30 Stat. 361.)

4. Composition of Regular Army.—The Regular Army of the United States shall consist of the Infantry, the Cavalry, the Field Artillery, the Coast Artillery Corps, the Air Service, the Corps of Engineers, the Signal Corps, which shall be designated as the combatant arms or the line of the Army; the General Staff Corps; The Adjutant General's Department; the Inspector General's Department; the Judge Advocate General's Department; the Quartermaster Corps; the Finance Department; the Medical Department; the Ordnance Department; the Chemical Warfare Service; the officers of the Bureau of Insular Affairs; the officers and enlisted men under the jurisdiction of the Militia Bureau; the chaplains; the professors and cadets of the United States Military Academy; the present military store-keeper; detached officers; detached enlisted men; unassigned recruits; the Indian Scouts; the officers and enlisted men of the retired list; and such other officers and enlisted men as are now or may hereafter be provided for. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 2, 41 Stat. 759.)

5. Organization of Army; corps areas and army areas or departments.—The organized peace establishment, including the Regular Army, the National Guard and the Organized Reserves, shall include all of those divisions and other military organizations necessary to form the basis for a complete and immediate mobilization for the national defense in the event of a national emergency declared by Congress. The Army shall at all times be organized, so far as practicable into brigades, divisions and army corps, and whenever the President may deem it expedient, into armies. For purposes of administration, training and tactical control, the continental area of the United States shall be divided on a basis of military population into corps areas. Each corps area shall contain at least one division of the National Guard or Organized Reserves, and such other tropps as the President may direct. The President is authorized to group any or all corps areas into army areas or departments. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 3, 41 Stat. 759.)

6. Appointment of chiefs and assistant chiefs; term of office.—Except as otherwise herein prescribed, chiefs and assistants to the chiefs of the several branches shall be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, for a period of four years, and such appointments shall not create vacancies. Appointment as chief of any branch shall be made from among officers commissioned in grades not below that of colonel, and as assistant from among officers of not less than fifteen years' commissioned service, who have demonstrated by actual and extended service in such branch or on similar duty that they are qualified for such appointment: Provided, That the chiefs of the several branches shall make recommendations to the Secretary of War for the appointment of their assistants: Provided further, That in making the first appointment to any such office created by this title, the chief of a branch may be selected from among officers of not less than twenty-two years' commissioned service. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 4, 41 Stat. 702.)

7. Filling office of chief during absence.—During the absence of the Quartermaster General, or the chief of any military bureau of the War Department, the President is authorized to empower some officer of the department or corps whose chief is absent to take charge thereof, and to perform the duties of Quartermaster General, or chief of the department or corps, as the case may be, during such absence. (R. S. § 1132; Feb. 27, 1877, c. 69, § 1, 19 Stat. 242.)

8. Assignment of officers and men to branches of Army.—Officers and enlisted men shall be assigned to the several branches of the Army as hereafter directed, a suitable proportion of each grade in each branch, but the President may increase or diminish the number of officers or enlisted men assigned to any branch by not more than a total of 30 per centum of said officers or 15 per centum of said enlisted men: Provided, That the total number authorized in any grade is not exceeded: Provided further, That the number of enlisted men authorized for any branch shall include such number of Philippine Scouts as may be organized in that branch: Provided further, That no officer shall be transferred from one branch of the service to another under the provisions of this section without his own consent. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 4, 41 Stat. 762; June 30, 1922, c. 253, 42 Stat. 723.)

9. Establishment and purpose of Army War College.—The establishment of the Army War College is authorized, having for its object the direction and coordination of the instruction in the various service schools, extension of the opportunities for investigation and study in the Army and militia of the United States, and the collection and dissemination of military information. (May 26, 1900, c. 586, § 1, 31 Stat. 209.)

10. Band leaders.—Nothing contained in section 591 of this title shall prevent the appointment of qualified band leaders for authorized bands. (June 30, 1922, c. 253, Title I, 42 Stat. 723.)

11. Army Band leader.—The Secretary of War is hereby authorized to appoint a warrant officer of the Regular Army leader of the Army Band, who, while holding such appointment, shall receive, in lieu of any and all pay and allowances as warrant officer, the base pay and the allowances of a captain of the Regular Army in the third pay period and shall be entitled to longevity pay provided for an officer for each three years of service under such appointment plus any previous active commissioned service under a Federal appointment which the appointee may have had, but shall not be entitled to pass to a higher pay period. The leader of the Army Band may be relieved from his appointment as such and returned to his former status at the discretion of the Secretary of War. Upon retirement he shall be retired as a warrant officer and shall receive the retired pay to which he would have been entitled had he not been appointed and received the pay and allowances of leader of the Army Band: Provided, That no back pay or allowances shall be allowed to the leader of the Army Band by reason of the provision of this section: And provided further, That nothing contained in this section shall operate to increase the authorized number of commissioned officers or warrant officers of the Regular Army nor to decrease the number of warrant officers authorized by law. (Mar. 3, 1925, c. 412, 43 Stat. 1100.)

12. Bands at recruiting depots.—One of the companies at each recruiting depot shall have the organization of an infantry band, to which recruits showing an aptitude for music may be attached for examination and instruction before assignment to organizations in the Army. (Mar. 3, 1909, c. 252, 35 Stat. 745.)

13. Annual reports as to organization of Army.—The Secretary of War shall annually report to Congress the numbers, grades, and assignments of the officers and enlisted men of the Army, and the number, kinds, and strength of organizations pertaining to each branch of the service. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 4, 41 Stat. 762.)

14. Corporal buglers and buglers first class.—There are created in the Army the grades of corporal bugler, and bugler, first class; and for each battalion and squadron headquarters of units in which the grade of bugler was authorized on July 9, 1918, there shall be one corporal bugler, and for each company, battery, troop, or organization in which the grade of bugler was authorized on July 9, 1918, there shall be one bugler, first class. (July 9, 1918, c. 143, subchapter XX, 40 Stat. 893.)

15. Use of Army as posse comitatus.—It shall not be lawful to employ any part of the Army of the United States, as a posse comitatus, or otherwise, for the purpose of executing the laws, except in such cases and under such circumstances as such employment of said force may be expressly authorized by the Constitution or by act of Congress; and any person willfully violating the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and on conviction thereof shall be punished by fine not exceeding $10,000 or imprisonment not exceeding two years or by both such fine and imprisonment. (June 18, 1878, c. 263, § 15, 20 Stat. 152.)

36. Submission to Congress of plans affecting national defense, etc.; accompaniment by study prepared by War Department General Staff.
37. Plans for initial organization and territorial distribution of Organized Reserves and National Guard.
38. Policies and regulations for government of Organized Reserves and National Guard.

Section 21. Creation of General Staff Corps.—There is established a General Staff Corps, to be composed of officers detailed from the Army at large. (Feb. 14, 1903, c. 553, § 1, 32 Stat. 830.)

22. Composition of General Staff Corps.—The General Staff Corps shall consist of the Chief of Staff, the War Department General Staff and the General Staff with troops. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 5, 41 Stat. 762.)

23. Composition of War Department General Staff.—The War Department General Staff shall consist of the Chief of Staff and four assistants to the Chief of Staff selected by the President from the general officers of the line, and eighty-eight other officers of grades not below that of captain. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, § 5, 41 Stat. 762.)

24. Composition of General Staff with Troops.—The General Staff with troops shall consist of such number of officers not below the grade of captain as may be necessary to perform the General Staff duties of the headquarters of territorial departments, armies, army corps, divisions, and brigades, and as military attachés abroad. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 5, 41 Stat. 763.)

25. Eligibility to detail and period of duty.—In time of peace the detail of an officer as a member of the General Staff Corps shall be for a period of four years, unless sooner relieved, and such details shall be limited to officers whose names are borne on the list of General Staff Corps eligibles. (June 3, 1916, c. 134, § 5, 39 Stat. 167; June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 5, 41 Stat. 763.)

26. General Staff Corps eligible list.—The initial eligible list shall be prepared by a board consisting of the General of the Army, the commandant of the General Staff College, the commandant of the General Service Schools, and two other general officers of the line, selected by the Secretary of War, who are not then members of the General Staff Corps. This board shall select and report the names of all officers of the Regular Army, National Guard, and Officers' Reserve Corps of the following classes who are recommended by them as qualified by education, military experience, and character for General Staff duty;

(a) Those officers graduated from the Army Staff College or the Army War College prior to July 1, 1917, who, upon graduation, were specifically recommended for duty as commander or chief of staff of a division or higher tactical unit, or for detail in the General Staff Corps;

(b) Those officers who, since April 6, 1917, have commanded a division or higher tactical unit, or have demonstrated by actual service in the World War that they are qualified for General Staff duty.

After the completion of the initial General Staff Corps eligible list, the name of no officer shall be added thereto unless upon graduation from the General Staff School he is specifically recommended as qualified for General Staff duty, and no officer of the General Staff Corps, except the Chief of Staff, shall be assigned as a member of the War Department General Staff unless he is a graduate of the General Staff College or his name is borne on the initial eligible list: Provided, That the name of any National Guard or reserve officer who has demonstrated by actual service with the War Department General Staff during a period of not less than six months, as hereinafter provided for, that he is qualified for General Staff duty, may, upon the recommendation of a board consisting of the general officers of the War Department General Staff, assistants to the Chief of Staff, be added to said eligible list at any time. The Secretary of War shall publish annually the list of officers eligible for General Staff duty, and such eligibility shall be noted in the annual Army Register. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 5, 41 Stat. 763; Sept. 22, 1922, c. 423, § 1, 42 Stat. 1032.)

27. Line officers subject to detail; previous service with troops.—In time of peace no officer of the line shall be or remain detailed as a member of the General Staff Corps unless he has served for two of the next preceding six years in actual command of troops of one or more of the combatant arms. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 4, 41 Stat. 762.)

28. Officers commissioned in a staff corps subject to detail in General Staff Corps; previous service with troops.—An officer commissioned in a staff corps shall not be or remain detailed as a member of the General Staff Corps unless he has served for one of the next preceding five years with troops of one or more of the combatant arms. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 4, 41 Stat. 762.)

29. What constitutes duty with troops.—In the administration of the provisions of the two next preceding sections all duty performed between April 6, 1917, and July 1, 1920, inclusive, or as a student at service schools, other than those of the noncombatant branches, at any time, shall be regarded as satisfying the requirements of service with combatant arms. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 4, 41 Stat. 762.)

30. Acting General Staff officers.—If at any time the number of officers available and eligible for detail to the General Staff is not sufficient to fill all vacancies therein, majors or captains may be detailed as acting General Staff officers under such regulations as the President may prescribe. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 5, 41 Stat. 763; Sept. 22, 1922, c. 423, § 1, 42 Stat. 1032.)

31. Additional members of General Staff Corps.—In order to insure intelligent cooperation between the General Staff and the several noncombatant branches, officers of such branches may be detailed as additional members of the General Staff Corps under such special regulations as to eligibility and redetail as may be prescribed by the President, but not more than two officers from each such branch shall be detailed as members of the War Department General Staff. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 5, 41 Stat. 763; Sept. 22, 1922, c. 423, § 1, 42 Stat. 1032.)

32. Restriction on duties of members of General Staff Corps.—Members of the General Staff Corps shall be confined strictly to the discharge of duties of the general nature of those specified for them in this chapter of this title, and they shall not be permitted to assume or engage in work of an administrative nature that pertains to establish bureaus or offices of the War Department, or that, being assumed or engaged in by members of the General Staff Corps, would involve impairment of the responsibility or initiative of such bureaus or offices, or would cause injurious or unnecessary duplication of or delay in the work thereof. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 5, 41 Stat. 764.)

33. Duties of Chief of Staff.—The Chief of Staff shall preside over the War Department General Staff and, under the direction of the President, or of the Secretary of War under the direction of the President, shall cause to be made, by the War Department General Staff, the necessary plans for recruiting, organizing, supplying, equipping, mobilizing, training, and demobilizing the Army of the United States, and for the use of the military forces for national defense. He shall transmit to the Secretary of War the plans and recommendations prepared for that purpose by the War Department General Staff and advise him in regard thereto; upon the approval of such plans or recommendations by the Secretary of War, he shall act as the agent of the Secretary of War in carrying the same into effect. (June 3, 1916, c. 134, § 5, 39 Stat. 167; June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 5, 41 Stat. 764.)

34. Duties of War Department General Staff.—The duties of the War Department General Staff shall be to prepare plans for national defense and the use of the military forces for that purpose, both separately and in conjunction with the naval forces, and for the mobilization of the manhood of the Nation and its material resources in an emergency; to investigate and report upon all questions affecting the efficiency of the Army of the United States, and its state of preparation for military operations; and to render professional aid and assistance to the Secretary of War and the Chief of Staff. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 5, 41 Stat. 763.)

35. Duties of General Staff with Troops.—The duties of the General Staff with troops shall be to render professional aid and assistance to the general officers over them; to act as their agents in harmonizing the plans, duties, and operations of the various organizations and services under their jurisdiction, in preparing detailed instructions for the execution of the plans of the commanding generals, and in supervising the execution of such instructions. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 5, 41 Stat. 764.)

36. Submission to Congress of plans affecting national defense, etc.; accompaniment by study prepared by War Department General Staff.—Whenever any plan or recommendation involving legislation by Congress affecting national defense or the reorganization of the Army is presented by the Secretary of War to Congress, or to one of the committees of Congress, the same shall be accompanied, when not incompatible with the public interest, by a study prepared in the appropriate division of the War Department General Staff, including the comments and recommendations of said division for or against such plan, and such pertinent comments for or against the plan as may be made by the Secretary of War, the Chief of Staff, or individual officers of the division of the War Department General Staff in which the plan was prepared. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 5, 41 Stat. 764.)

37. Plans for initial organization and territorial distribution of Organized Reserves and National Guard.—Subject to revision and approval by the Secretary of War, the plans and regulations under which the initial organization and territorial distribution of the National Guard and the Organized Reserves shall be made, shall be prepared by a committee of the branch or division of the War Department General Staff, hereinafter provided for, which is charged with the preparation of plans for the national defense and for the mobilization of the land forces of the United States. For the purpose of this task said committee shall be composed of members of said branch or division of the General Staff and an equal number of reserve officers, including reserve officers who hold or have held commissions in the National Guard. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 3, 41 Stat. 760.)

38. Policies and regulations for government of Organized Reserves and National Guard.—All policies and regulations affecting the organization, distribution and training of the National Guard and the Organized Reserves, and all policies and regulations affecting the appointment, assignment, promotion, and discharge of reserve officers, shall be prepared by committees of appropriate branches or divisions of the War Department General Staff, to which shall be added an equal number of reserve officers, including reserve officers who hold or have held commissions in the National Guard, and whose names are borne on lists of officers suitable for such duty, submitted by the governors of the several States and Territories. For the purposes specified herein, they shall be regarded as additional members of the General Staff while so serving. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 5, 41 Stat. 763.)

Chapter 3.—ADJUTANT GENERAL'S DEPARTMENT.

Sec.
41. Composition of Adjutant General's Department.
42. Functions of Personnel Bureau.
Returns and muster rolls of volunteer forces rendered to Adjutant General; see section 156 of Title 5.

Section 41. Composition of Adjutant General's Department.—The Adjutant General's Department shall consist of The Adjutant General with the rank of major general, one assistant with the rank of brigadier general, who shall be Chief of the Personnel Bureau, and seventy-one officers in grades from colonel to captain, inclusive. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 6, 41 Stat. 765; June 30, 1922, c. 253, 42 Stat. 723.)

42. Functions of Personnel Bureau.—The Personnel Bureau shall be charged, under such regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of War, with the operating functions of procurement, assignment, promotion, transfer, retirement, and discharge of all officers and enlisted men of the Army: Provided, That territorial commanders and the chiefs of the several branches of the Army shall be charged with such of the above-described duties within their respective jurisdictions as may be prescribed by the Secretary of War. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 6, 41 Stat. 765.)

Chapter 4.—INSPECTOR GENERAL'S DEPARTMENT.

Sec.
51. Composition of Inspector General's Department.
52. Appointment of expert accountant.

Section 51. Composition of Inspector General's Department.—The Inspector General's Department shall consist of one Inspector General with the rank of major general and forty-three officers in grades from colonel to captain, inclusive. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 7, 41 Stat. 765; June 30, 1922, c. 253, 42 Stat. 723.)

52. Appointment of expert accountant.—One expert accountant for the Inspector General's Department, shall be appointed in case of vacancy, by the Secretary of War. (Feb. 24, 1891, c. 284, 26 Stat. 773.)

Chapter 5.—JUDGE ADVOCATE GENERAL'S DEPARTMENT.

Sec.
61. Composition of Judge Advocate General's Department.
62. Duties of Judge Advocate General.
63. Duties of judge advocates.
64. Filling vacancies in grade of captain.

Section 61. Composition of Judge Advocate General's Department.—The Judge Advocate General's Department shall consist of one Judge Advocate General with the rank of major general and eighty officers in grades from colonel to captain, inclusive. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 8, 41 Stat. 765; June 30, 1922, c. 253, 42 Stat. 723.)

62. Duties of Judge Advocate General.—The Judge Advocate General shall receive, revise, and cause to be recorded the proceedings of all courts-martial, courts of inquiry, and military commissions, and perform such other duties as were formerly performed by the Judge Advocate General of the Army. (R. S. § 1199.)

63. Duties of judge advocates.—Judge advocates shall perform their duties under the direction of the Judge Advocate General. (R. S. § 1201.)

64. Filling vacancies in grade of captain.—Any vacancy in the grade of captain in the Judge Advocate General's Department, not filled by transfer or detail from another branch, may, in the discretion of the President, be filled by appointment from reserve judge advocates between the ages of thirty and thirty-six years, and such appointee shall be placed upon the promotion list immediately below the junior captain on said list. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 24, 41 Stat. 774.)

76. Equipment, etc., furnished to landing parties of seamen or marines cooperating with land troops.
77. Technical experts employed in Quartermaster General's office.

Section 71. Composition of Quartermaster Corps.—The Quartermaster Corps shall consist of one Quartermaster General with the rank of major general, three assistants with the rank of brigadier general, seven hundred and thirty-five officers in grades from colonel to second lieutenant, inclusive, and eight thousand nine hundred and twenty-eight enlisted men. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 9, 41 Stat. 766; June 30, 1922, c. 253, 42 Stat. 723.)

72. Duties of Quartermaster General.—The Quartermaster General, under the authority of the Secretary of War, shall be charged with the purchase and procurement for the Army of all supplies of standard manufacture and of all supplies common to two or more branches but not with the purchase or the procurement of special or technical articles to be used or issued exclusively by other supply departments; with the direction of all work pertaining to the construction, maintenance, and repair of buildings, structures, and utilities other than fortifications connected with the Army; with the storage and issue of supplies; with the operation of utilities; with the acquisition of all real estate and the issue of licenses in connection with Government reservations; with the transportation of the Army by land and water, including the transportation of troops and supplies by mechanical or animal means; with the furnishing of means of transportation of all classes and kinds required by the Army; and with such other duties not otherwise assigned by law as the Secretary of War may prescribe: Provided, That special and technical articles used or issued exclusively by other branches of the service may be purchased or procured with the approval of the Assistant Secretary of War by the branches using or issuing such articles, and the chief of each branch may be charged with the storage and issue of property pertaining thereto: Provided further, That utilities pertaining exclusively to any branch of the Army may be operated by such branches. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 9, 41 Stat. 766.)

73. Transportation for National Museum and Government departments.—The Quartermaster General and his officers, under his instructions, wherever stationed, shall receive, transport, and be responsible for all property turned over to them, or any one of them, by the officers or agents of any Government survey, for the National Museum, or for the civil or naval departments of the Government, in Washington or elsewhere, under the regulations governing the transportation of Army supplies, the amount paid for such transportation to be refunded or paid by the bureau to which such property or stores pertain. (July 5, 1884, c. 217, 23 Stat. 111.)

74. Limitations on issue of reserve supplies or equipment.—No issues of reserve supplies or equipment shall be made where such issues would impair the reserves held by the War Department for two field armies or one million men. (June 7, 1924, c. 291, Title I, 43 Stat. 509; Feb. 12, 1925, c. 225, Title I, 43 Stat. 924.)

75. Rations furnished to landing parties of seamen or marines cooperating with land troops.—The officers of the Quartermaster Corps shall, upon the requisition of the naval or marine officer commanding any detachment of seamen or marines under orders to act on shore, in cooperation with the land troops, and during the time such detachment is so acting or proceeding to act, furnish rations to the officers, seamen, and marines of the same. (R. S. § 1143.)

76. Equipment, etc., furnished to landing parties of seamen or marines cooperating with land troops.—The officers of the Quartermaster Corps shall, upon the requisition of the naval or marine officer commanding any detachment of seamen or marines under orders to act on shore, in cooperation with land troops, and during the time such detachment is so acting or proceeding to act, furnish the officers and seamen with camp equipage, together with transportation for said officers, seamen, and marines, their baggage, provisions, and cannon, and shall furnish the naval officer commanding any such detachment, and his necessary aids, with horses, accouterments, and forage. (R. S. § 1135.)

77. Technical experts employed in Quartermaster General's office.—The services of technical experts and such other services as the Secretary of War may deem necessary may be employed in the office of the Quartermaster General, to be paid from the appropriation for "Incidental expenses of the Army": Provided, That there shall be included in the Budget for each fiscal year a statement of the number of persons so employed, their duties, and the amount paid to each. (June 7, 1924, c. 291, Title I, 43 Stat. 490; Feb. 12, 1925, c. 225, Title I, 43 Stat. 904.)

THE DEPARTMENT GENERALLY

Section 81. Composition of Medical Department.—The Medical Department shall consist of one Surgeon General with the rank of major general, two assistants with the rank of brigadier general, the Medical Corps, the Dental Corps, the Veterinary Corps, the Medical Administrative Corps, a number of enlisted men which shall be 5 per centum of the actual strength, commissioned and enlisted, of the Regular Army, the Army Nurse Corps as constituted by law, and such contract surgeons as are authorized by law. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 10, 41 Stat. 766.)

MEDICAL CORPS

91. Composition of Medical Corps.—The Medical Corps shall consist of nine hundred and eighty-three commissioned officers below the grade of brigadier general. (June 3, 1916, c. 134, § 10, 39 Stat. 171; July 9, 1918, c. 143, 40 Stat. 866; June 30, 1922, c. 253, 42 Stat. 721, 722.)

92. Appointment of medical officers.—Appointments in the Medical Corps shall be made in the grade of first lieutenant from reserve medical officers between the ages of twenty-three and thirty-two years. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 24e, 41 Stat. 774.)

93. Examinations for appointment of medical officers.—No person shall receive an appointment as first lieutenant in the Medical Corps unless he shall have been examined and approved by an Army medical board consisting of not less than three officers of the Medical Corps designated by the Secretary of War. (Apr. 23, 1908, c. 150, § 4, 35 Stat. 67.)

94. Assignment of medical officers to duty.—Medical officers of the Army may be assigned by the Secretary of War to such duties as the interests of the service may demand. (July 27, 1892, c. 270, § 3, 27 Stat. 277.)

95. Right of command.—Officers of the Medical Corps of the Army shall not be entitled, in virtue of their rank, to command in the line or in other staff corps. (R. S. § 1169.)

96. Medical attendance for families of officers and men.—The medical officers of the Army and contract surgeons shall whenever practicable attend the families of the officers and soldiers free of charge. (July 5, 1884, c. 217, 23 Stat. 112.)

97. Promotion on completion of specified term of service.—An officer of the Medical Corps shall be promoted to the grade of captain after three years' service, to the grade of major after twelve years' service, to the grade of lieutenant colonel after twenty years' service, and to the grade of colonel after twenty-six years' service. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 10, 41 Stat. 767.)

98. Service credits for purposes of promotion.—For purposes of promotion there shall be credited to officers of the Medical Department all active commissioned service in the Regular Army whenever rendered; and also all such service rendered since April 6, 1917, in the Army or in the National Guard when in active service under a call by the President, except service under a reserve commission while in attendance at a school or camp for the training of candidates for commission. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 10, 41 Stat. 767.)

99. Service credits for purposes of promotion of certain officers.—For purposes of promotion after July 1, 1920, any person appointed in the Medical Corps to fill vacancies existing on July 1, 1920, having served as an officer of the Army at some time between April 6, 1917, and June 4, 1920, shall be considered as having had, on the date of appointment, service equal to that of the junior officer of his grade and corps in the Regular Army on June 4, 1920. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 10, 41 Stat. 767.)

100. Length of service of officers losing files.—The length of service of any officer who shall have lost files by reason of sentence of court-martial or failure in examination for promotion shall be regarded as diminished to the equivalent of the service of the officer of his corps immediately preceding him in relative rank. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 10, 41 Stat. 767.)

101. Examination of officers for promotion.—No officer of the Medical Corps below the rank of lieutenant colonel shall be promoted therein until he shall have successfully passed an examination before an Army medical board consisting of not less than three officers of the Medical Corps, to be designated by the Secretary of War, such examination to be prescribed by the Secretary of War and to be held at such time anterior to the accruing of the right to promotion as may be for the best interests of the service. (Apr. 23, 1908, c. 150, § 5, 35 Stat. 67.)

102. Failure of first lieutenant or captain to pass examination for promotion; honorable discharge or retirement.—Should a first lieutenant or captain of the Medical Corps fail in his physical examination and be found incapacitated for service by reason of physical disability contracted in the line of duty, he shall be retired with the rank to which his seniority entitled him to be promoted; but if he should be found disqualified for promotion for any other reason, a second examination shall not be allowed, but the Secretary of War shall appoint a board of review to consist of three officers of the Medical Corps superior in rank to the officer examined, none of whom shall have served as a member of the board which examined him. If the unfavorable finding of the examining board is concurred in by the board of review, the officer reported disqualified for promotion shall be honorably discharged from the service with one year's pay. If the action of the examining board is disapproved by the board of review, the officer shall be considered qualified and shall be promoted. (Apr. 23, 1908, c. 150, § 5, 35 Stat. 67.)

103. Failure of major to pass examination for promotion; reexamination; retirement on second failure.—Any major of the Medical Corps on the active list of the Army who at his first examination for promotion to the grade of lieutenant colonel in said corps, has been or shall hereafter be found disqualified for such promotion for any reason other than physical disability incurred in the line of duty shall be suspended from promotion and his right thereto shall pass successively to such officers next below him in rank in said corps as are or may become eligible to promotion under existing law during the period of his suspension; and any officer suspended from promotion, as hereinbefore provided, shall be reexamined as soon as practicable after the expiration of one year from the date of the completion of the examination that resulted in his suspension; and if on such reexamination he is found qualified for promotion, he shall again become eligible thereto; but if he is found disqualified by reason of physical disability incurred in line of duty, he shall be retired, with the rank to which his seniority entitles him to be promoted; and if he is not found disqualified by reason of such physical disability, but is found disqualified for promotion for any other reason, he shall be retired without promotion. (Mar. 3, 1909, c. 252, 35 Stat. 737.)

104. Cooperation of medical officers with line officers in superintending cooking by enlisted men.—The officers of the Medical Department of the Army shall unite with the officers of the line under such rules and regulations as shall be prescribed by the Secretary of War in superintending the cooking done by the enlisted men; and the Surgeon General shall promulgate to the officers of said corps such regulations and instructions as may tend to insure the proper preparation of the ration of the soldier. (R. S. § 1174; Feb. 27, 1877, c. 69, § 1, 19 Stat. 243.)

105. Detail of medical officers to military relief division of Red Cross.—The President is authorized to detail not more than five officers of the Medical Department for duty with the military relief division of the American National Red Cross. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 51, 41 Stat. 785.)

106. Detail of medical officer to first-aid department of Red Cross.—The Secretary of War is hereby authorized to detail an officer of the Medical Corps to take charge of the first-aid department of the American Red Cross. (Mar. 3, 1911, c. 209, 36 Stat. 1041.)

107. Appointment of contract surgeons.—In emergencies the Surgeon General of the Army, with the approval of the Secretary of War, may appoint as many contract surgeons as may be necessary. (Feb. 2, 1901, c. 192, § 18, 31 Stat. 752.)

108. Authority of contract surgeon in charge of hospital.—When a contract surgeon is in charge of a hospital he shall have the same authority as a commissioned medical officer. (Apr. 23, 1904, c. 1485, 33 Stat. 266.)

DENTAL CORPS

121. Composition of Dental Corps.—The Dental Corps of the Army shall consist of one hundred and fifty-eight commissioned officers of the same grade and proportionally distributed among such grades as are or may be provided by law for the Medical Corps, who shall have the rank, pay, promotion and allowances of officers of corresponding grades in the Medical Corps, including the right to retirement as in the case of other officers. (Oct. 6, 1917, c. 101, 40 Stat. 397; June 30, 1922, c. 253, 42 Stat. 721.)

122. Appointments in Dental Corps.—Appointments in the Dental Corps shall be made in the grade of first lieutenant from reserve dental officers. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 24e, 41 Stat. 771.)

123. Eligibility for appointment.—To be eligible for appointment in the Dental Corps, a candidate must be a citizen of the United States, of good moral character, between the ages of twenty-three and thirty-two years, a graduate of a recognized dental college, and have been engaged in the practice of his profession for at least two years subsequent to graduation. (Mar. 3, 1911, c. 209, 36 Stat. 1054; June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 24e, 41 Stat. 771.)

124. Examination for appointment.—Appointees in the Dental Corps shall be required to pass the usual physical examination required for appointment in the Medical Corps, and a professional examination which shall include tests of skill in practical dentistry and of proficiency in the usual subjects of a standard dental college course. (Mar. 3, 1911, c. 209, 36 Stat. 1054; Oct. 6, 1917, c. 101, 40 Stat. 397.)

125. Examining and review boards.—Dental examining and review boards shall consist of one officer of the Medical Corps and two officers of the Dental Corps. (Oct. 6, 1917, c. 101, 40 Stat. 397.)

126. Promotion on completing specified term of service.—An officer of the Dental Corps shall be promoted to the grade of captain after three years' service, to the grade of major after twelve years' service, to the grade of lieutenant colonel after twenty years' service, and to the grade of colonel after twenty-six years' service. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 10, 41 Stat. 767.)

127. Credit for service as contract dental surgeons and acting dental surgeons before June 3, 1916.—To officers of the Dental Corps shall be credited their service as contract dental surgeons and acting dental surgeons rendered prior to June 3, 1916. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 10, 41 Stat. 767.)

128. Service credits for purposes of promotion of certain officers.—For purposes of future promotion, any person appointed in the Dental Corps to fill vacancies existing on July 1, 1920, having served as an officer of the Army at some time between April 6, 1917, and June 4, 1920, shall be considered as having had, on the date of appointment, service equal to that of the junior officer of his grade and corps in the Regular Army on June 4, 1920. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 10, 41 Stat. 767.)

129. Length of service of officers losing files.—The length of service of any officer who shall have lost files by reason of sentence of court-martial or failure in examination for promotion shall be regarded as diminished to the equivalent of the service of the officer of his corps immediately preceding him in relative rank. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 10, 41 Stat. 767.)

VETERINARY CORPS

141. Appointments in Veterinary Corps.—Appointments in the Veterinary Corps shall be made in the grade of second lieutenant from reserve veterinary officers between the ages of twenty-one and thirty years. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 24e, 41 Stat. 771.)

142. Number of officers.—The number of officers of the Veterinary Corps shall be one hundred and twenty-six. (June 30, 1922, c. 253, 42 Stat. 716.)

143. Promotion on completion of specified term of service.—An officer of the Veterinary Corps shall be promoted to the grade of first lieutenant after three years' service, to the grade of captain after seven years' service, to the grade of major after fourteen years' service, to the grade of lieutenant colonel after twenty years' service, and to the grade of colonel after twenty-six years' service. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 10, 41 Stat. 767.)

144. Service credits for purposes of promotion.—To officers of the Veterinary Corps shall be credited their governmental veterinary service rendered prior to June 3, 1916. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 10, 41 Stat. 771.)

145. Service credits for purposes of promotion of certain officers.—For purposes of future promotion, any person appointed in the Veterinary Corps to fill vacancies existing on July 1, 1920, having served as an officer of the Army at some time between April 6, 1917, and June 4, 1920, shall be considered as having had, on the date of appointment, sufficient service to bring him to his grade under the rules established in section 143 of this title. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 10, 41 Stat. 767.)

146. Length of service of officers losing files.—The length of service of any officer who shall have lost files by reason of sentence of court-martial or failure in examination for promotion shall be regarded as diminished to the equivalent of the service of the officer of his corps immediately preceding him in relative rank. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 10, 41 Stat. 767.)

MEDICAL ADMINISTRATIVE CORPS

151. Appointment in Medical Administrative Corps.—Appointments in the Medical Administrative Corps shall be made in the grade of second lieutenant from enlisted men of the Medical Department between the ages of twenty-one and thirty-two years, who have had at least two years' service. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 24e, 41 Stat. 774.)

152. Number of officers of corps.—There shall be seventy-two officers of the Medical Administrative Corps. (June 30, 1922, c. 253, 42 Stat. 716.)

153. Promotion on completion of specified term of service.—An officer of the Medical Administrative Corps shall be promoted to the grade of first lieutenant after five years' service, and to the grade of captain after ten years' service. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 10, 41 Stat. 767.)

154. Service credits for purposes of promotion of certain officers.—For purposes of future promotion, any person appointed in the Medical Administrative Corps to fill vacancies existing on July 1, 1920, having served as an officer of the Army at some time between April 6, 1917, and June 4, 1920, shall be considered as having had, on the date of appointment, sufficient service to bring him to his grade under the rules established in section 153 of this title. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 10, 41 Stat. 767.)

155. Length of service of officers losing files.—The length of service of any officer who shall have lost files by reason of sentence of court-martial or failure in examination for promotion shall be regarded as diminished to the equivalent of the service of the officer of his corps immediately preceding him in relative rank. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 10, 41 Stat. 767.)

ARMY NURSE CORPS

CROSS REFERENCE

Members of Nurse Corps as persons subject to military law; see section 1473 of this title.

161. Composition of corps.—The Nurse Corps (female) of the Medical Department of the Army shall be known as the Army Nurse Corps, and shall consist of one superintendent, who shall be a graduate of a hospital-training school having a course of instruction of not less than two years; of as many chief nurses, nurses, and reserve nurses as may from time to time be needed and prescribed or ordered by the Secretary of War, and, in the discretion of the Secretary of War, of not exceeding six assistant superintendents, and, for each Army or separate military force beyond the continental limits of the United States, one director and not exceeding two assistant directors of nursing service, all of whom shall be graduates of hospital-training schools and shall have passed such professional, moral, mental, and physical examination as shall be prescribed by the Secretary of War. (July 9, 1918, c. 143, subchapter V, § 1, 40 Stat. 879.)

162. Appointment and removal.—The superintendent shall be appointed by, and, at his discretion, be removed by, the Secretary of War. All other members of said corps shall be appointed by, and, at his discretion, be removed by, the Surgeon General by and with the approval of the Secretary of War; but the assistant superintendents, the directors, the assistant directors, and the chief nurses shall be appointed by promotion from other members of the corps, and shall, upon being relieved from duty as such, unless removed for incompetency or misconduct, revert to the grades in the corps from which they were promoted. (July 9, 1918, c. 143, subchapter V, § 3, 40 Stat. 879.)

163. Rules and regulations.—Rules and regulations prescribing the duties of the members of the Army Nurse Corps shall be prescribed by the Surgeon General of the United States Army, subject to the approval of the Secretary of War. (July 9, 1918, c. 143, subchapter V, § 2, 40 Stat. 879.)

164. Relative rank of members.—The members of the Army Nurse Corps shall have relative rank as follows: The superintendent shall have the relative rank of major; the assistant superintendents, director and assistant directors, the relative rank of captain; chief nurses, the relative rank of first lieutenant; head nurses and nurses, the relative rank of second lieutenant; and as regards medical and sanitary matters and all other work within the line of their professional duties shall have authority in and about military hospitals next after the officers of the Medical Department. The Secretary of War shall make the necessary regulations prescribing the rights and privileges conferred by such relative rank. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 10, 41 Stat. 767.)

Chapter 8.—FINANCE DEPARTMENT.

Sec.
171. Composition of Finance Department.
172. Duties of Chief of Finance.
173. Delegation of duties by disbursing officers.
174. Supervision of disbursements by disbursing officers.
175. Reports of inspections of disbursements.
176. Right of command.

Section 171. Composition of Finance Department.—There is hereby created a Finance Department. The Finance Department shall consist of one Chief of Finance with the rank of major general, ninety-eight officers in grades from colonel to second lieutenant, inclusive, and four hundred and two enlisted men. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 9, 41 Stat. 766; June 30, 1922, c. 253, 42 Stat. 723; Feb. 24, 1925, c. 307, 43 Stat. 970.)

172. Duties of Chief of Finance.—The Chief of Finance, under the authority of the Secretary, shall be charged with the disbursement of all funds of the War Department, including the pay of the Army and the mileage for officers and the accounting therefor; and with such other fiscal and accounting duties as may be required by law, or assigned to him by the Secretary of War. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 9, 41 Stat. 766.)

173. Delegation of duties by disbursing officers.—Under such regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of War, officers of the Finance Department, accountable for public moneys, may intrust moneys to other officers for the purpose of having them make disbursements as their agents, and the officer to whom the moneys are intrusted, as well as the officer who intrusts the moneys to him, shall be held pecuniarily responsible therefor to the United States. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 9, 41 Stat. 766.)

174. Supervision of disbursements by disbursing officers.—It shall be the duty of the Secretary of War to cause frequent inquiries to be made as to the necessity, economy, and propriety of all disbursements made by disbursing officers of the Army, and as to their strict conformity to the law appropriating the money; also to ascertain whether the disbursing officers of the Army comply with the law in keeping their accounts and making their deposits; such inquiries to be made by officers of the inspection department of the Army, or others detailed for that purpose: Provided, That no officer so detailed shall be in any way connected with the department or corps making the disbursement. (Apr. 20, 1874, c. 117, § 1, 18 Stat. 33.)

175. Reports of inspections of disbursements.—The reports of inspections pursuant to section 174 of this title shall be made out and forwarded to Congress with the annual report of the Secretary of War. (Apr. 20, 1874, c. 117, § 2, 18 Stat. 33.)

176. Right of command.—Officers of the Finance Department shall not be entitled in virtue of their rank to command in the line or in other staff corps. (R. S. § 1183.)

Chapter 9.—CORPS OF ENGINEERS.

Sec.
181. Composition of Corps of Engineers; organization into tactical units.
182. Officers to command tactical units of Engineer Corps.
183. Assignment of officers to other than engineer duty.
184. Training and duties of enlisted men.
185. Disbursement of appropriations for work in charge of Engineer officers.
186. Officers on river and harbor duty paid from appropriation for work in hand.
187. Employment of draftsmen, etc., in office of Chief of Engineers.

Section 181. Composition of Corps of Engineers; organization into tactical units.—The Corps of Engineers shall consist of one Chief of Engineers with the rank of major general, one assistant with the rank of brigadier general, four hundred and twenty officers in grades from colonel to second lieutenant, inclusive, and five thousand three hundred and fifty-seven enlisted men, such part of whom as the President may direct being formed into tactical units organized as he may prescribe. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 11, 41 Stat. 768; June 30, 1922, c. 253, 42 Stat. 723.)

182. Officers to command tactical units of Engineer Corps.—Appropriate officers to command the tactical units of Engineer soldiers shall be detailed from the Corps of Engineers. (R. S. § 1156.)

183. Assignment of officers to other than engineer duty.—Engineers shall not assume nor be ordered on any duty beyond the line of their immediate profession, except by the special order of the President. (R. S. § 1158.)

184. Training and duties of enlisted men.—The enlisted men of the Engineer Corps shall be instructed in and perform the duties of sappers, miners, and pontoniers, and shall aid in giving practical instruction in those branches at the Military Academy. They may be detailed by the Chief of Engineers to oversee and aid laborers upon fortifications and other works in charge of the Engineer Corps, and, as fort keepers, to protect and repair finished fortifications. (R. S. § 1157.)

185. Disbursement of appropriation for work in charge of Engineer officers.—It shall be the duty of the engineer superintending the construction of a fortification, or engaged about the execution of any other public work, to disburse the moneys applicable to the same; but no compensation shall be allowed him for such disbursement. (R. S. § 1153.)

186. Officers on river and harbor duty paid from appropriation for work in hand.—Officers of the Corps of Engineers, when on duty under the Chief of Engineers, connected solely with the work of river and harbor improvements may, while so employed, be paid their pay and rental allowance from the appropriations for the work or works upon which they are employed. (Feb. 27, 1911, c. 166, § 5, 36 Stat. 957.)

187. Employment of draftsmen, etc., in office of Chief of Engineers.—The services of skilled draftsmen, civil engineers, and such other services as the Secretary of War may deem necessary, may be employed only in the office of the Chief of Engineers, to carry into effect the various appropriations for rivers and harbors, fortifications, and surveys and preparation for and the consideration of river and harbor estimates and bills, to be paid from such appropriations: Provided, That the Secretary of War shall each year, in the Budget, report to Congress the number of persons so employed, their duties, and the amount paid to each. (Feb. 12, 1925, c. 225, 43 Stat. 912.)

Chapter 10.—ORDNANCE DEPARTMENT.

Sec.
191. Composition of Ordnance Department.
192. Duties of Chief of Ordnance generally.
193. Depots of ordnance and ordnance stores; establishment.

Section 291. Establishment and composition of Air Service.—There is created an Air Service. The Air Service shall consist of one Chief of the Air Service with the rank of major general, one assistant with the rank of brigadier general, one thousand and sixty officers in grades from colonel to second lieutenant, inclusive, and six thousand two hundred and fifty enlisted men, including not to exceed five hundred flying cadets, such part of whom as the President may direct being formed into tactical units, organized as he may prescribe: Provided, That not to exceed 10 per centum of the officers in each grade below that of brigadier general who fail to qualify as aircraft pilots or as observers within one year after the date of detail or assignment shall be permitted to remain detailed or assigned to the Air Service. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 13, 41 Stat. 768; June 30, 1922, c. 253, 42 Stat. 724.)

292. Number of officers detailed to duty involving flying.—Exclusive of the Army Air Service, the number of officers detailed to duty involving flying shall not at any one time exceed one-half of 1 per centum of the total authorized commissioned strength of the Army. (June 10, 1922, c. 212, § 20, 42 Stat. 632.)

293. Educational qualifications for Air Service.—No person otherwise qualified for service as a flying cadet, pilot, or other officer in the aviation service, shall be barred from such service by reason of not being equipped with a college education. (July 9, 1918, c. 143, 40 Stat. 849.)

294. Command of flying units.—Flying units shall in all cases be commanded by flying officers. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 13, 41 Stat. 768.)

295. Aerial operations controlled by Army Air Service.—The Army Air Service shall control all aerial operations from land bases for construction and experimentation and for the training of personnel. (June 5, 1920, c. 240, 41 Stat. 954.)

296. Aviation schools; instruction for aviation students.—The Secretary of War is authorized and directed to establish and maintain at one or more established flying schools courses of instruction for aviation students. (July 11, 1919, c. 8, 41 Stat. 109.)

297. Aviation students enlisted or appointed as flying cadets; number.—Aviation students shall be enlisted in or appointed to the grade of flying cadet, Air Service, which grade is hereby established: Provided, That the total number of flying cadets shall not at any time exceed one thousand three hundred, of whom five hundred may be enlisted. (July 11, 1919, c. 8, 41 Stat. 109; June 30, 1922, c. 253, Title I, 42 Stat. 724.)

298. Detail of officers for instruction in aeronautic engineering.—The Secretary of War is authorized to detail such officers of the Army as he may select, not exceeding twenty-five at any one time, to attend and pursue courses of aeronautic engineering or associate study at such schools, colleges, and universities as he may select, and to pay tuition for the officers so detailed and to provide them with necessary text-books and technical supplies from any moneys available for the Air Service of the Army not otherwise specifically appropriated. (May 10, 1920, c. 175, §§ 1, 2, 41 Stat. 594.)

299. Commissioning flying cadets on completing course; discharge before completing course.—Upon completion of a course prescribed for flying cadets, each flying cadet, if he so desire, may be discharged and commissioned as a second lieutenant in the Officers' Reserve Corps: Provided, That the Secretary of War is authorized to discharge at any time any flying cadet whose discharge shall have been recommended by a board of not less than three officers. (July 11, 1919, c. 8, 41 Stat. 109.)

300. Additional pay for flying duty.—Officers and enlisted men of the Army shall receive an increase of 50 per centum of their pay while on duty requiring them to participate regularly and frequently in aerial flights; and no person shall receive additional pay for aviation duty except as prescribed in this section, and except flying cadets as prescribed in section 303 of this title. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 13, 41 Stat. 768.)

301. Additional pay for military aviators and junior military aviators.—In lieu of the 50 per centum increase of pay provided for in section 300 of this title any officer or enlisted man upon whom the rating of junior military aviator, or military aviator, was conferred for having specially distinguished himself in time of war in active operations against the enemy, shall, while, on duty which requires him to participate regularly and frequently in aerial flights, have the rank, pay, and allowances of one grade higher than that held by him under his commission if his rank under said commission be not higher than that of captain, and in addition an increase of 50 per centum of the pay of his grade and length of service under his commission in case of a junior military aviator, and 75 per centum of the pay of his grade and length of service under his commission in case of a military aviator. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 51, 41 Stat. 785.)

302. Officers entitled to additional pay for aviation duty.—The authorization for increase of flying pay contained in section 300 of this title, shall be construed to include any officer of any branch of the service who may be ordered by proper authority to perform duty requiring him to participate regularly and frequently in aerial flights. (June 30, 1922, c. 253, Title I, 42 Stat. 724.)

303. Base pay of flying cadets.—The base pay of a flying cadet shall be $75 per month, including extra pay for flying risk as provided by law. (July 11, 1919, c. 8, 41 Stat. 109.)

304. Allowances of flying cadets.—The ration allowance of a flying cadet shall not exceed $1 per day, and his other allowances shall be those of a private, first class, Air Service. (July 11, 1919, c. 8, 41 Stat. 109.)

305. Mileage of officers traveling on aviation duty.—Mileage to officers of the Army traveling on duty in connection with aviation shall be paid from the appropriation for the work in connection with which the travel is performed. (July 9, 1918, c. 143, 40 Stat. 849.)

306. Per diem allowance for additional expenses of fliers making aerial surveys of rivers, harbors, etc.—To cover actual additional expenses to which fliers are subjected when making aerial surveys, hereafter a per diem of $7 in lieu of other travel allowances shall be paid to officers, warrant officers, and enlisted men of the Army, for the actual time consumed while traveling by air, under competent orders, in connection with aerial surveys of rivers and harbors, or other governmental projects, and a per diem of $6 for the actual time consumed in making such aerial surveys, to be paid from appropriations available for the particular improvement or project for which the survey is being made: Provided, That not more than one of the per diem allowances authorized in this section shall be paid for any one day. (Mar. 3, 1925, c. 467, § 5, 43 Stat. 1190.)

307. Bond for indemnity against injuries caused by exhibition flights.—None of the funds appropriated for the Air Service shall be used for the purpose of giving exhibition flights to the public other than those under the control and direction of the War Department and if such flights are given by Army personnel upon other than Government fields, a bond of indemnity, in such sum as the Secretary of War may require for damages to person or property, shall be furnished the Government by the parties desiring the exhibition. (Mar. 2, 1923, c. 178, Title I, 42 Stat. 1398; June 7, 1924, c. 291, Title I, 43 Stat. 492; Feb. 12, 1925, c. 225, Title I, 43 Stat. 908.)

308. Compensation for death by aviation accident.—There shall be paid to the widow of any officer or enlisted man who shall die as the result of an aviation accident, not the result of his own misconduct, or to any other person designated by him in writing, an amount equal to one year's pay at the rate to which such officer or enlisted man was entitled at the time of the accident resulting in his death, but any payment made in accordance with the terms of this section on account of the death of any officer or enlisted man shall be in lieu of and a bar to any payment under section 903 of this title. (July 18, 1914, c. 186, § 3, 38 Stat. 515.)

309. Employment of draftsmen and engineers in Air Service.—The services of aeronautical engineers, skilled draftsmen, and such technical and other services as the Secretary of War may deem necessary may be employed only in the office of the Chief of Air Service to carry into effect the various appropriations for aeronautical purposes, to be paid from such appropriations: Provided, That the Secretary of War shall each year in the Budget report to Congress the number of persons so employed, their duties, and the amount paid to each. (Feb. 12, 1925, c. 225, 43 Stat. 908.)

Chapter 19.—PHILIPPINE SCOUTS.

Sec.
321. Organization.
322. Eligibility as officers of militia.
323. Appointment of officers.
324. Officers commissioned prior to July 1, 1920, and not recommissioned in Regular Army continued in service.
325. Computation of period of service of officers.
326. Promotions; classification and elimination of officers.
327. Retired pay of officers.
328. Attendance on course of preparatory instruction pursuant to detail under section 386 or 1180 as active duty.
329. Ratification of administrative action as to pay of retired officers on duty mentioned in next preceding section.
330. Duty mentioned in section 328 performed prior to March 3, 1925.
331. Detail of retired officers to educational institutions.
332. Promotion on retired list.
333. Number of enlisted men.
334. Pay and allowances of enlisted men.
335. Philippine Scouts cooperating with Philippine Constabulary.

Section 321. Organization.—The President is authorized to form the Philippine Scouts into such branches and tactical units as he may deem expedient, within the limit of strength prescribed by law, organized similarly to those of the Regular Army, the officers to be detailed from those authorized in section 482 of this title. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 22, 41 Stat. 770.)

322. Eligibility as officers of militia.—Officers of the Philippine Scouts shall be eligible to appointment as officers in the militia or other locally created armed forces in the Philippine Islands which may be drafted into the service of the United States; and any such officer of the Philippine Scouts so appointed as an officer in said drafted forces shall not thereby vacate his commission in the Philippine Scouts, and in case his commission in said Philippine Scouts shall terminate while holding a commission in said drafted forces as aforesaid, he shall thereupon be eligible to reappointment as an officer of said Philippine Scouts notwithstanding his retention of a commission in said drafted forces. (Mar. 30, 1918, c. 36, § 1, 40 Stat. 500.)

323. Appointment of officers.—After July 1, 1920, no appointments as officers of Philippine Scouts shall be made except of citizens of the Philippine Islands, who may be appointed in the grade of second lieutenant, under such regulations as the President may prescribe. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 22, 41 Stat. 770.)

324. Officers commissioned prior to July 1, 1920, and not recommissioned in Regular Army continued in service.—Officers of the Philippine Scouts holding commissions as such on July 1, 1920, who were not then recommissioned in the Regular Army shall continue to serve under their commissions as officers of Philippine Scouts. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 22, 41 Stat. 770.)

325. Computation of period of service of officers.—In computing period of service for any purpose officers of the Philippine Scouts shall be credited with all time served as commissioned officers in the drafted forces mentioned in section 322 of this title. (Mar. 30, 1918, c. 36, § 2, 40 Stat. 500.)

326. Promotions; classification and elimination of officers.—Officers commissioned in the Philippine Scouts shall be subject to promotion, classification, and elimination, as hereinafter prescribed for officers of the Regular Army. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 22, 41 Stat. 770.)

327. Retired pay of officers.—Officers of the Philippine Scouts on the retired list on June 4, 1920, shall thereafter receive the same pay as a retired second lieutenant of equal service, except as otherwise provided in section 332 of this title. After June 4, 1920, officers of the Philippine Scouts shall be retired under the same conditions, and those thereafter placed on the retired list shall receive the same retired pay, as other officers of like grades and length of service, and shall be equally eligible for advancement on account of active duty performed since retirement. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 22, 41 Stat. 770.)

328. Attendance on course of preparatory instruction pursuant to detail under section 386 or 1181 as active duty.—Duty performed by retired officers of the Philippine Scouts, pursuant to War Department orders issued under section 386 or section 1181 of this title, respectively, including, in either case, temporary duty for attendance on any course of preparatory instruction required by such order, shall be construed to be active duty for the purpose of increase of longevity pay of such retired officers within the meaning of sections 973 and 974 of this title. (Mar. 3, 1925, c. 411, § 2, 43 Stat. 1099.)

329. Ratification of administrative action as to pay of retired officers on duty mentioned in next preceding section.—Any administrative action taken prior to March 3, 1925, by the War Department dependent for validity upon the construction of sections 973 and 974 of this title mentioned in section 328 of this title, or a like construction of any other statute authorizing the detail of retired officers of the Army to educational institutions, is hereby ratified and confirmed; and any pay otherwise due to any retired officers of the Philippine Scouts but heretofore withheld by reason of a construction of any of the indicated statutes inconsistent with those foregoing shall be considered due and payable. (Mar. 3, 1925, c. 411, § 5, 43 Stat. 1100.)

330. Duty mentioned in section 328 performed prior to March 3, 1925.—Duty performed before March 3, 1925, by retired officers of the Philippine Scouts, pursuant to War Department orders purporting to have been issued under section 386 or section 1181 of this title, respectively, including, in either case, temporary duty for attendance on any course of preparatory instruction required by such order, shall be construed to be active duty for the purpose of increase of longevity pay of such retired officers, within the meaning of sections 973 and 974 of this title. (Mar. 3, 1925, c. 411, § 3, 43 Stat. 1100.)

331. Detail of retired officer to educational institutions.—The authority for detail of retired officers of the Regular Army contained in sections 386 and 1181 of this title shall, in either case, be construed to include authority to so detail retired officers of the Philippine Scouts. (Mar. 3, 1925, c. 411, § 1, 43 Stat. 1099.)

332. Promotion on retired list.—Officers and former officers of the Philippine Scouts who were placed on the retired list prior to June 4, 1920, shall be entitled to promotion on the retired list for active duty performed prior to July 1, 1922, subsequent to retirement, in accordance with the provisions of section 1011 of this title, and to the same pay and benefits received by other officers of the Army of like grade and length of service on the retired list. (June 10, 1922, c. 212, § 17, 42 Stat. 632.)

333. Number of enlisted men.—The total number of enlisted men in the Philippine Scouts shall not exceed twelve thousand. (Feb. 2, 1901, c. 192, § 36, 31 Stat. 757.)

334. Pay and allowances of enlisted men.—The pay, rations, and clothing allowances to be authorized for the enlisted men shall be fixed by the Secretary of War, and shall not exceed those authorized for the Regular Army. (Feb. 2, 1901, c. 192, § 36, 31 Stat. 757.)

335. Philippine Scouts cooperating with Philippine Constabulary.—Any companies of Philippine Scouts ordered to assist the Philippine Constabulary in the maintenance of order in the Philippine Islands may be placed under the command of officers serving as chief or assistant chiefs of the Philippine Constabulary, as herein provided: Provided, That when the Philippine Scouts shall be ordered to assist the Philippine Constabulary said scouts shall not at any time be placed under the command of inspectors or other officers of the constabulary below the grade of assistant chief of constabulary. (Jan. 30, 1903, c. 334, § 2, 32 Stat. 783.)

Preparation of plans, policies, and regulations affecting organization, distribution, training, and so forth; see sections 37 and 38 of this title.

Section 341. Location and designation of units comprised entirely within State or Territory.—Subject to general regulations approved by the Secretary of War, the location and designation of units of the Organized Reserves entirely comprised within the limits of any State or Territory shall be determined by a board, a majority of whom shall be reserve officers, including reserve officers who hold or have held commissions in the National Guard and recommended for this duty by the governor of the State or Territory concerned. (June 3, 1916, c. 134, § 3 [3a]; June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 3, 41 Stat. 760.)

342. Preservation of names, numbers, flags, etc., of units serving in World War.—In the initial organization of the Organized Reserves, the names, numbers and other designations, flags, and records of the divisions and subordinate units thereof that served in the World War between April 6, 1917, and November 11, 1918, shall be preserved as such as far as practicable. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 3a, 41 Stat. 760.)

OFFICERS' RESERVE CORPS

351. Organization of Officers' Reserve Corps.—For the purpose of providing a reserve of officers available for military service when needed there shall be organized an Officers' Reserve Corps consisting of general officers, of sections corresponding to the various branches of the Regular Army, and of such additional sections as the President may direct. The grades in each section and the number in each grade shall be as the President may prescribe. (Sept. 22, 1922, c. 423, § 2, 42 Stat. 1033.)

352. Appointment of reserve officers.—Reserve officers shall be appointed and commissioned by the President alone, except general officers, who shall be appointed by and with the advice and consent of the Senate. (Sept. 22, 1922, c. 423, § 2, 42 Stat. 1033.)

353. Qualifications and eligibility; grade of appointment.—In time of peace a reserve officer must at the time of his appointment be a citizen of the United States or of the Philippine Islands, between the ages of twenty-one and sixty years. Any person who has been an officer of the Army at any time between April 6, 1917, and June 30, 1919, or an officer of the Regular Army at any time, may be appointed as a reserve officer in the highest grade which he held in the Army or any lower grade. Any person commissioned in the National Guard and recognized as a National Guard officer by the Secretary of War may upon his own application be appointed as a reserve officer in the grade held by him in the National Guard. No other person shall in time of peace be originally appointed as a reserve officer of Infantry, Cavalry, Field Artillery, Coast Artillery, or Air Service in a grade above that of second lieutenant. In time of peace appointments in the Infantry, Cavalry, Field Artillery, Coast Artillery, and Air Service shall be limited to former officers of the Army, officers of the National Guard recognized as such by the Secretary of War, graduates of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps, as provided in section 354 of this title, warrant officers and enlisted men of the Regular Army, National Guard, and Enlisted Reserve Corps, and persons who served in the Army at some time between April 6, 1917, and November 11, 1918. (Sept. 22, 1922, c. 423, § 2, 42 Stat. 1033.)

354. Appointment of graduates of Reserve Officers' Training Corps.—The President alone, under such regulations as he may prescribe, is hereby authorized to appoint as a reserve officer of the Army of the United States any graduate of the senior division of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps who shall have satisfactorily completed the further training provided for in section 441 of this title, or any graduate of the junior division who shall have satisfactorily completed the courses of military training prescribed for the senior division and the further training provided for in section 441, and shall have participated in such practical instruction subsequent to graduation as the Secretary of War shall prescribe, who shall have arrived at the age of twenty-one years and who shall agree, under oath in writing, to serve the United States in the capacity of a reserve officer of the Army of the United States during a period of at least five years from the date of his appointment as such reserve officer, unless sooner discharged by proper authority. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 34, 41 Stat. 778.)

355. Form of commission.—All persons appointed reserve officers shall be commissioned in the Army of the United States. (June 6, 1924, c. 275, § 3, 43 Stat. 470.)

356. Contemporaneous commissions in Officers' Reserve Corps and National Guard.—Any reserve officer may hold a commission in the National Guard without thereby vacating his reserve commission. (Sept. 22, 1922, c. 423, § 2, 42 Stat. 1033.)

357. Recommission of officers called for service in grade lower than reserve commission.—Any officer of the Officers' Reserve Corps called for service with his consent in a lower grade than that held by him in said Reserve Corps shall, subject to such physical examination as may be prescribed, be considered eligible for recommission in such lower grade. (May 12, 1917, c. 12, 40 Stat. 74.)

358. Period of service; right to discharge on termination of war.—Appointment in every case except as provided in section 359 of this title shall be for a period of five years, but an appointment in force at the outbreak of war or made in time of war shall continue in force until six months after its termination. Any reserve officer may be discharged at any time in the discretion of the President. A reserve officer appointed during the existence of a state of war shall be entitled to discharge within six months after its termination if he makes application therefor. (Sept. 22, 1922, c. 423, § 2, 42 Stat. 1033.)

359. Period of service by National Guard officer commissioned as reserve officer.—Officers of the National Guard, federally recognized as such under the provisions of Title 32, who are appointed reserve officers under the provisions of section 351 of this title, shall be appointed for the period during which such recognition shall continue in effect and terminating at the expiration thereof in lieu of the five-year period hereinbefore prescribed, and in time of peace shall be governed by such special regulations appropriate for this class of reserve officers as the Secretary of War may prescribe. (June 6, 1924, c. 275, § 3, 43 Stat. 470.)

360. Promotions and transfers.—Promotions and transfers shall be made under such rules as may be prescribed by the President, and shall be based so far as practicable upon recommendations made in the established chain of command. (Sept. 22, 1922, c. 423, § 2, 42 Stat. 1033.)

361. Right of reserve officers to pay and allowances.—A reserve officer shall not be entitled to pay and allowances except when on active duty. When on active duty he shall receive pay and allowances as provided in sections 362 and 366 of this title, and mileage from his home to his first station and from his last station to his home. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 32, 41 Stat. 776.)

362. Rate of pay of reserve officers on active duty.—When officers of the Reserve Force of the Army are authorized by law to receive Federal pay, those serving in grades corresponding to those of colonel, lieutenant colonel, major, captain, first lieutenant, and second lieutenant of the Army shall receive the pay of the sixth, fifth, fourth, third, second, and first periods, respectively. (June 10, 1922, c. 212, § 3, 42 Stat. 627.)

363. Longevity pay for reserve officers.—Reserve officers whenever entitled to Federal pay, except armory drill and administrative function pay, shall receive as longevity pay, in addition to base pay provided but not exceeding the maximum pay prescribed by law, an increase thereof at the per centum and time rates up to thirty years provided in section 681 of this title. In computing the increase of pay for each period of three years' service, such officers shall be credited with full time for all periods during which they have held commissions as officers of the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Coast Guard, Coast and Geodetic Survey or the Public Health Service, or in the Organized Militia prior to July 1, 1916, or in the National Guard, or in the Naval Militia, or in the National Naval Volunteers, or in the Naval Reserve Force or Marine Corps Reserve Force, when confirmed in grade and qualified for all general service, with full time for all periods during which they have performed active duty under reserve commissions, and with one-half time for all other periods during which they have held reserve commissions. (June 10, 1922, c. 212, § 3, 42 Stat. 627; May 31, 1924, c. 224, § 1, 43 Stat. 250.)

364. Right of reserve officers to retirement and retired pay.—No reserve officer appointed pursuant to this chapter of this title shall be entitled to retirement or to retired pay. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, §§ 32, 34, 41 Stat. 775, 776.)

365. Pensions in cases of disability.—Reserve officers appointed pursuant to this chapter of this title shall be eligible for pensions only for disability incurred in line of duty in active service or while serving with the Army pursuant to the provisions of this chapter of this title. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 34, 41 Stat. 778.)

366. Allowances of reserve officers and reserve warrant officers on active duty.—Reserve officers and reserve warrant officers of the Army while on active duty, including duty for training purposes, shall receive the allowances prescribed for officers and warrant officers of the regular service under section 711 et seq. of this title. (Mar. 4, 1923, c. 281, § 1, 42, Stat. 1507.)

367. Mileage allowance limited.—The mileage allowance to members of the Officers' Reserve Corps when called into active service for training for fifteen days or less shall not exceed 4 cents per mile. (June 30, 1922, c. 253, Title I, 42 Stat. 725; Mar. 2, 1923, c. 178, Title I, 42 Stat. 1381; June 7, 1924, c. 291, Title I, 43 Stat. 506; Feb. 12, 1925, c. 225, Title I, 43 Stat. 921.)

368. Mileage exempt from land-grant deductions.—Section 870 of this title providing for land-grant deductions shall not apply to travel at 4 cents per mile performed by members of the Officers' Reserve Corps. (Mar. 2, 1923, c. 178, Title I, 42 Stat. 1381.)

369. Ordering reserve officers to active duty.—To the extent provided for from time to time by appropriations for this specific purpose, the President may order reserve officers to active duty at any time and for any period; but except in time of a national emergency expressly declared by Congress, no reserve officer shall be employed on active duty for more than fifteen days in any calendar year without his own consent. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 32, 41 Stat. 776.)

370. Assignment to duty in locality of residence.—So far as practicable reserve officers shall be assigned to units in the locality of their places of residence. (Sept. 22, 1922, c. 423, § 2, 42 Stat. 1033.)

371. Government employees as reserve officers; leaves of absence when ordered to duty.—All officers and employees of the United States or of the District of Columbia who shall be members of the Officers' Reserve Corps shall be entitled to leave of absence from their respective duties, without loss of pay, time, or efficiency rating, on all days during which they shall be ordered to duty with troops or at field exercises, or for instruction, for periods not to exceed fifteen days in any one calendar year; and when relieved from duty, they shall be restored to the positions held by them when ordered to duty. (May 12, 1917, c. 12, 40 Stat. 72.)

RESERVE OFFICERS' TRAINING CORPS

381. Establishment of training corps.—The President is authorized to establish and maintain in civil educational institutions a Reserve Officers' Training Corps, one or more units in number, which shall consist of a senior division organized at universities and colleges granting degrees, including State universities and those State institutions that are required to provide instruction in military tactics under the act of Congress donating lands for the establishment of colleges where the leading objects shall be practical instruction in agriculture and the mechanic arts, including military tactics, and at those essentially military schools not conferring academic degrees, specially designated by the Secretary of War as qualified, and a junior division organized at all other public and private educational institutions, and each division shall consist of units of the several arms, corps, or services in such number and such strength as the President may prescribe: Provided, That no such unit shall be established or maintained at any institution until an officer of the Regular Army shall have been detailed as professor of military science and tactics, nor until such institution shall maintain under military instruction at least one hundred physically fit male students, except that in the case of units other than infantry, cavalry or artillery, the minimum number shall be fifty: Provided further, That except at State institutions described in this section, no unit shall be established or maintained in an educational institution until the authorities of the same agree to establish and maintain a two years' elective or compulsory course of military training as a minimum for its physically fit male students, which course, when entered upon by any student, shall as regards such student, be a prerequisite for graduation unless he is relieved of this obligation by regulations to be prescribed by the Secretary of War. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 33, 41 Stat. 776.)

382. Eligibility to membership.—Eligibility to membership in the Reserve Officers' Training Corps shall be limited to students of institutions in which units of such corps may be established who are citizens of the United States, who are not less than fourteen years of age, and whose bodily condition indicates that they are physically fit to perform military duty, or will be so upon arrival at military age. (June 3, 1916, c. 134, § 44, 39 Stat. 192.)

383. Admission of medical, dental, and veterinary students to training corps.—Any medical, dental, or veterinary student may be admitted to a Medical, Dental, or Veterinary Corps unit of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps for a course of training at the rate of ninety hours of instruction per annum for the four collegiate years. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 34, 41 Stat. 778.)

384. Admission of reserve officers being medical, dental, or veterinary students.—Any reserve officer who is also a medical, dental, or veterinary student may be admitted to a Medical, Dental, or Veterinary Corps unit for training, under such rules and regulations as the Secretary of War may prescribe. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 34, 41 Stat. 778.)

385. Courses of training.—The Secretary of War is hereby authorized to prescribe standard courses of theoretical and practical military training for units of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps, and no unit of such corps shall be organized or maintained at any educational institution the authorities of which fail or neglect to adopt into their curriculum the prescribed courses of military training or to devote at least an average of three hours per week per academic year to such military training, except as provided in sections 383 and 384 of this title. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 33, 41 Stat. 777.)

386. Detail of instructors.—The President is hereby authorized to detail such numbers of officers, warrant officers, and enlisted men of the Regular Army, either active or retired, as may be necessary for duty as professors of military science and tactics, assistant professors of military science and tactics, and military instructors at educational institutions where one or more units of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps are maintained. In time of peace retired officers, retired warrant officers, or retired enlisted men shall not be detailed under the provisions of this section without their consent, and no officer on the active list shall be detailed for duty at a school or college, not including schools of the service, where officers on the retired list can be secured who are competent for such duty. Retired officers below the grade of brigadier general and retired warrant officers and enlisted men shall, when on active duty, receive full pay and allowances. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 33, 41 Stat. 777.)

387. Commutation of subsistence for members of senior division of training corps.—When any member of the senior division of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps has completed two academic years of service in that division, and has been selected for advanced training by the president of the institution and by the professor of military science and tactics, and has agreed in writing to continue in the Reserve Officers' Training Corps for the remainder of his course at the institution, devoting five hours per week to the military training prescribed by the Secretary of War, and has agreed in writing to pursue the course in camp training prescribed by the Secretary of War, he may be furnished at the expense of the United States commutation of subsistence at such rate, not exceeding the cost of the garrison ration prescribed for the Army, as may be fixed by the Secretary of War, during the remainder of his service in the Reserve Officers' Training Corps, not exceeding two years. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 34, 41 Stat. 778.)

388. Service credits for computing commutation of subsistence.—In the interpretation and execution of section 387 of this title, credit shall be given as for service in the senior division of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps to any member of that division for any period or periods of time during which such member has received or shall have received at an educational institution under the direction of an officer of the Army, detailed as professor of military science and tactics, a course of military training substantially equivalent to that prescribed by regulations under this section for the corresponding period or periods of training of the senior division, Reserve Officers' Training Corps. (Sept. 8, 1916, c. 478, 39 Stat. 853.)

389. Equipment and supplies.—The Secretary of War, under such regulations as he may prescribe, is hereby authorized to issue to institutions at which one or more units of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps are maintained such public animals, transportation, arms, ammunition, supplies, tentage, equipment, and uniforms belonging to the United States as he may deem necessary, and to forage at the expense of the United States public animals so issued, to pay commutation in lieu of uniforms at a rate to be fixed annually by the Secretary of War, and to authorize such expenditures from proper Army appropriations as he may deem necessary for the efficient maintenance of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps. He shall require from each institution to which property of the United States is issued a bond in the value of the property issued for the care and safe-keeping thereof, except for uniforms, expendable articles, and supplies expended in operation, maintenance, and instruction, and for its return when required. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 34, 41 Stat. 777.)

390. Commutation for uniforms.—The Secretary of War may, in his discretion and under such regulations as he may prescribe, permit institutions at which one or more units of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps are maintained to furnish their own uniforms and receive as commutation therefor the sum allotted by the Secretary of War to such institutions for uniforms. (June 5, 1920, c. 240, 41 Stat. 967.)

ENLISTED RESERVE CORPS

421. Composition of Enlisted Reserve Corps.—The Enlisted Reserve Corps shall consist of persons voluntarily enlisted therein. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 35, 41 Stat. 780.)

422. Organization and equipment.—The President may form any or all members of the Enlisted Reserve Corps into tactical organizations similar to those of the Regular Army, similarly armed, uniformed, and equipped, and composed so far as practicable of men residing in the same locality, may officer them by the assignment of reserve officers or officers of the Regular Army, active or retired, and may detail such personnel of the Army as may be necessary for the administration of such organizations and the care of Government property issued to them. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 35, 41 Stat. 780.)

423. Persons eligible for enlistment.—Enlistments shall be limited to persons eligible for enlistment in the Regular Army who have had such military or technical training as may be prescribed by regulations of the Secretary of War. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 35, 41 Stat. 780.)

424. Period of enlistment.—The period of enlistment shall be three years, except in the case of persons who served in the Army, Navy, or Marine Corps at some time between April 6, 1917, and November 11, 1918, who may be enlisted for one year periods and who, in time of peace, shall be entitled to discharge within ninety days if they make application therefor. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 35, 41 Stat. 780.)

425. War as extending enlistment period.—All enlistments in force at the outbreak of war, or entered into during its continuation, whether in the Regular Army or the Enlisted Reserve Corps, shall continue in force until six months after its termination unless sooner terminated by the President. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 35, 41 Stat. 780.)

426. Performance of active duty.—Members of the Enlisted Reserve Corps may be placed on active duty, as individuals or organizations, in the discretion of the President, but except in time of a national emergency expressly declared by Congress no reservist shall be ordered to active duty in excess of the number permissible under appropriations made for this specific purpose, nor for a longer period than fifteen days in any one calendar year without his own consent. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 35, 41 Stat. 780.)

427. Pay and allowances on active duty.—While on active duty members of the Enlisted Reserve Corps shall receive the same pay and allowances as other enlisted men of like grades and length of service. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 35, 41 Stat. 780.)

MILITARY TRAINING CAMPS

441. Reserve Officers' Training Corps camps.—The Secretary of War is hereby authorized to maintain camps for the further practical instruction of the members of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps, no such camps to be maintained for a longer period than six weeks in any one year, except in time of actual or threatened hostilities; to transport members of such corps to and from such camps at the expense of the United States so far as appropriations will permit, to subsist them at the expense of the United States while traveling to and from such camps and while remaining therein so far as appropriations will permit, or in lieu of transporting them to and from such camps and subsisting them while en route, to pay them travel allowances at the rate of 5 cents per mile for the distance by the shortest usually traveled route from the places from which they are authorized to proceed to the camp and for the return travel thereto, and to make the payment of travel allowances for the return journey in advance of the actual performance of the same, and to admission to military hospitals at such camps, and to furnish medical attendance and supplies; to use the troops of the Regular Army, and such Government property as he may deem necessary, for the military training of the members of such corps while in attendance at such camps; and to prescribe regulations for the government of such camps. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 34, 41 Stat. 778.)

442. Civilian military training camps.—The Secretary of War is authorized to maintain, upon military reservations or elsewhere, schools or camps for the military instruction and training, with a view to their appointment as reserve officers or noncommissioned officers, of such warrant officers, enlisted men, and civilians as may be selected upon their own application; to use for the purpose of maintaining said camps and imparting military instruction and training thereat, such arms, ammunition, accoutrements, equipments, tentage, field equipage, and transportation belonging to the United States as he may deem necessary; to furnish at the expense of the United States uniforms, subsistence, transportation by the most usual and direct route within such limits as to territory as the Secretary of War may prescribe, or in lieu of furnishing such transportation and subsistence to pay them travel allowances at the rate of 5 cents per mile for the distance by the shortest usually traveled route from the places from which they are authorized to proceed to the camp, and for the return travel thereto, and to make the payment of travel allowances for the return journey in advance of the actual performance of the same, and medical attendance and supplies to persons receiving instruction at said camps during the period of their attendance thereat, to authorize such expenditures, from proper Army appropriations, as he may deem necessary for water, fuel, light, temporary structures, not including quarters for officers nor barracks for men, screening, and damages resulting from field exercises, and other expenses incidental to the maintenance of said camps, and the theoretical winter instruction in connection therewith; and to sell to persons receiving instructions at said camps, for cash and at cost price, plus 10 per centum, quartermaster and ordnance property, the amount of such property sold to any one person to be limited to that which is required for his proper equipment. All moneys arising from such sales shall remain available throughout the fiscal year following that in which the sales are made, for the purpose of that appropriation from which the property sold was authorized to be supplied at the time for the sale. The Secretary of War is authorized further to prescribe the courses of theoretical and practical instruction to be pursued by persons attending the camps authorized by this section; to fix the periods during which such camps shall be maintained; to prescribe rules and regulations for the government thereof; and to employ thereat officers, warrant officers, and enlisted men of the Regular Army in such numbers and upon such duties as he may designate. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 34, 41 Stat. 779.)

443. Pay for attendance at training camps.—Members of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps, or other persons authorized by the Secretary of War to attend advanced course camps, shall be paid for attendance at such camps at the rate prescribed for soldiers of the seventh grade of the Regular Army. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 34, 41 Stat. 778.)

444. Commutation of subsistence for medical, dental, or veterinary students attending training camps.—If any medical, dental, or veterinary student admitted to a Medical, Dental, or Veterinary Corps unit of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps, as provided in section 383 of this title, has at the end of two years of training been selected by the professor of military science and tactics and the head of the institution for advanced training, and has agreed in writing to continue in the Reserve Officers' Training Corps for the remainder of his course at the institution, and has agreed in writing to pursue the course in camp training prescribed by the Secretary of War, he may be furnished, at the expense of the United States, with commutation of subsistence at such rate not exceeding the cost of the garrison ration prescribed for the Army, as may be fixed by the Secretary of War, during the remainder of his service in the Reserve Officers' Training Corps, not exceeding two years. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 34, 41 Stat. 778.)

445. Members of the graduating class at Military Academy as instructors.—The service of graduates of the Military Academy may be utilized during the months of June, July, August, and September of the year in which they graduate as instructors at the citizens' training camps, and their graduation leave may be taken at the termination of their services as instructors at these camps. (July 9, 1918, c. 143, subchapter XVIII, 40 Stat. 892.)

INJURIES IN LINE OF DUTY

451. Pay and allowances continued during hospital treatment; transportation on discharge.—Members of the Officers' Reserve Corps and of the Enlisted Reserve Corps of the Army injured in line of duty while on active duty under proper orders who may be undergoing hospital treatment for injuries so sustained shall be entitled, under such regulations as the President may prescribe, to medical and hospital treatment at Government expense, and to a continuation of the pay and allowances whether in money or in kind, they were receiving at the time of such injuries, until they are fit for transportation to their homes, and upon termination of such medical and hospital treatment shall be entitled to transportation to their homes at Government expense. (June 3, 1924, c. 244, § 4, 43 Stat. 364.)

452. Hospital treatment, etc., in cases of injury by voluntary participation in flying.—Members of the Officers' Reserve Corps and Enlisted Reserve Corps injured while voluntarily participating in aerial flights in Government-owned aircraft by proper authority as an incident to their military training, shall, under regulations prescribed as aforesaid, be entitled, from the date such injury was sustained, to the same medical and hospital treatment at Government expense, pay and allowances, and transportation to their homes, as if such injury had occurred while on active duty under proper orders. (June 3, 1924, c. 244, § 4, 43 Stat. 364.)

453. Pay and allowances in hospital limited to six months.—Any person described in sections 451 and 452 of this title, injured as aforesaid, who shall remain disabled for more than six months, shall, during the period of disability in excess of six months and until fit for transportation to his home, be entitled to medical and hospital treatment and to subsistence at Government expense, and when fit for transportation shall be entitled to transportation to his home at Government expense, but shall not during such period in excess of six months be entitled to other compensation. Any expenditures heretofore made by the Government in caring for persons injured under the conditions specified herein are hereby validated. (June 3, 1924, c. 244, § 4, 43 Stat. 364.)

454. Hospital treatment, etc., in cases of injury at training camps.—Members of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps and members of the civilian military training camps injured in line of duty while at camps of instruction under the provisions of sections 441 and 442 of this title, shall be entitled to medical and hospital treatment and transportation to their homes as in the case of persons described in sections 451 and 452 of this title, and subsistence at Government expense until furnished such transportation, under such regulations as the President may prescribe. (June 3, 1924, c. 244, § 4, 43 Stat. 364.)

455. Burial expenses of persons dying in hospitals.—If the death of any person mentioned in sections 451 and 452 of this title occurs while he is undergoing the training or medical and hospital treatment contemplated in this section, the United States shall pay for burial expenses and the return of the body to his home a sum not to exceed $100, as may be fixed in regulations prescribed by the President. (June 3, 1924, c. 244, § 4, 43 Stat. 364.)

Section 481. Authorized number of officers in Army.—On and after January 1, 1923, there shall be not to exceed a total of twelve thousand officers in the Army and on and after that date the authorized number in each grade shall be as prescribed. (Sept. 14, 1922, c. 307, § 1, 42 Stat. 840.)

482. Authorized number of officers in the several grades.—On and after January 1, 1923, there shall be twenty-one major generals and forty-six brigadier generals of the line; four hundred and twenty colonels, five hundred and seventy-seven lieutenant colonels, one thousand five hundred and seventy-five majors, three thousand one hundred and fifty captains, two thousand nine hundred and sixty-seven first lieutenants and one thousand seven hundred and seventy-one second lieutenants, and these numbers shall not be exceeded except as hereinafter provided; nine hundred and eighty-three officers of the Medical Corps, one hundred and fifty-eight officers of the Dental Corps, one hundred and twenty-six officers of the Veterinary Corps, seventy-two officers of the Medical Administrative Corps, and one hundred and twenty-five chaplains; professors as authorized by chapter 28 of this title, and the military storekeeper, who shall have the rank, pay and allowances of major; and the numbers herein prescribed shall not be exceeded, and shall include the officers of Philippine Scouts who shall continue to be carried on the promotion list and who shall be promoted to grades from first lieutenant to colonel, inclusive, in the same manner as prescribed by law for other officers on the promotion list. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 4, 41 Stat. 760; June 30, 1922, c. 253, Title I, 42 Stat. 721.)

483. General officers of line and staff.—Officers commissioned to and holding in the Army the office of a general officer shall hereafter be known as general officers of the line. Officers commissioned to and holding in the Army an office other than that of general officer, but to which the rank of a general officer is attached, shall be known as general officers of the staff. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 4, 41 Stat. 760.)

484. Appointments in grade of second lieutenant.—Except as otherwise provided in sections 64, 92, and 122 of this title, appointments shall be made in the grade of second lieutenant, first, from graduates of the United States Military Academy; second, from warrant officers and enlisted men of the Regular Army between the ages of twenty-one and thirty years, who have had at least two years' service; and, third, from reserve officers, and from officers, warrant officers and enlisted men of the National Guard, members of the Enlisted Reserve Corps and graduates of technical institutions approved by the Secretary of War, all between the ages of twenty-one and thirty years. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 24, 41 Stat. 774.)

485. Reappointment of former officers.—Former officers of the Regular Army may be reappointed to the active list, if found competent for active duty, and shall be commissioned in the grades determined by the places assigned to them on the promotion list under the provisions of section 553 of this title. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 24, 41 Stat. 774.)

486. Commissioning graduates of Military Academy.—When any cadet of the United States Military Academy has gone through all its classes and received a regular diploma from the academic staff, he may be promoted and commissioned as a second lieutenant in any arm or corps of the Army in which there may be a vacancy and the duties of which he may have been judged competent to perform; and in case there shall not at the time be a vacancy in such arm or corps, he may, at the discretion of the President, be promoted and commissioned in it as an additional second lieutenant, with the usual pay and allowances of a second lieutenant until a vacancy shall happen. (May 17, 1886, c. 338, 24 Stat. 50.)

487. Officers permanently commissioned in branches of service or detailed for duty therein.—Officers of all grades in the Infantry, Cavalry, Field Artillery, Coast Artillery Corps, Corps of Engineers, and Medical Department; officers above the grade of captain in the Signal Corps, Judge Advocate General's Department, Quartermaster Corps, Ordnance Department and Chemical Warfare Service, all chaplains and professors, and the military storekeeper shall be permanently commissioned in their respective branches. All officers of the General Staff Corps, Inspector General's Department, Bureau of Insular Affairs and Militia Bureau shall be obtained by detail from officers of corresponding grades in other branches. Other officers may be either detailed, or with their own consent, be permanently commissioned, in the branches to which they are assigned for duty. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 4, 41 Stat. 760.)

488. Posthumous commissions for persons dying after appointment or completion of training for commissioned grade.—That the President be, and he is hereby, authorized to issue, or cause to be issued, an appropriate commission in the name of any person who, while in the military service of the United States during the war between the United States and Germany and Austria-Hungary, had been duly appointed to a commissioned grade, or had successfully completed the course at a training school for officers and had been recommended for appointment to a commissioned grade by the officer commanding or in charge of such school and, through no fault of his own, was unable to accept the commission for such grade by reason of his death in line of duty; and any such commission shall issue as of the date of such appointment, and any such person's name shall be carried upon the records of the War Department as of the grade and branch of the service to which he would have been promoted by such commission, from the date of such appointment to the date of his death. (Mar. 3, 1925, c. 484, § 1, 43 Stat. 1255.)

489. Posthumous commissions for persons in service in World War dying after recommendation for appointment or promotion.—That the President be, and he is hereby, authorized to issue, or cause to be issued, an appropriate commission in the name of any person who, while in the military service of the United States during the war between the United States and Germany and Austria-Hungary, may have been officially recommended for appointment or for promotion to a commissioned grade, which recommendation shall have been duly approved by the Secretary of War, or by the commanding general American Expeditionary Forces, as the case may be, and who shall have been unable to receive and accept such commission by reason of his death in line of duty; and any such commission shall issue as of the date of such approval, and any such person's name shall be carried upon the records of the War Department as of the grade and branch of the service to which he would have been promoted by such commission, from the date of such approval to the date of his death. (Mar. 3, 1925, c. 484, § 2, 43 Stat. 1255.)

490. Posthumous commissions for officers dying after passing examination for promotion.—That the President be, and he is hereby, authorized to issue, or cause to be issued, an appropriate commission in the name of any officer of the Army of the United States who, after having been examined and found duly qualified for promotion, died or shall die, in line of duty after the occurrence of the vacancy entitling him, by virtue of seniority, to such promotion and before the issue or acceptance of a commission therefor; and any such commission shall issue with rank as of the date of said vacancy, and any such officer's name shall be carried upon the records of the War Department as of the grade and branch of the service shown in such commission, from the date of such vacancy to the date of his death. (Mar. 3, 1925, c. 484, § 3, 43 Stat. 1255.)

491. Posthumous commissions as affecting right to gratuity, pay, etc.—No person shall be entitled to receive any bonus, gratuity, pay, or allowances by virtue of any provision of sections 488, 489, or 490 of this chapter. (Mar. 3, 1925, c. 484, § 4, 43 Stat. 1256.)

492. Assignments to regiments.—Officers of grades in each arm of the service shall be assigned to regiments, and transferred from one regiment to another, as the interests of the service may require, by orders from the War Department. (Oct. 1, 1890, c. 1241, § 2, 26 Stat. 562.)

493. Transfer of officers.—Upon his own application any officer may be transferred to another branch without loss of rank or change of place on the promotion list. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 24, 41 Stat. 774.)

494. Officers carried as additional numbers.—Any officer appointed under the provisions of law to a grade in which no vacancy exists, shall be an additional number in that grade until absorbed, and no longer. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 51, 41 Stat. 785.)

495. Civil employment interfering with military duties.—No officer of the Army shall be employed on civil works or internal improvements, or be allowed to engage in the service of any incorporated company, or be employed as acting paymaster or disbursing agent of the Indian department, if such extra employment requires that he shall be separated from his company, regiment, or corps, or if it shall otherwise interfere with the performance of the military duties proper. (R. S. § 1224; Feb. 27, 1877, c. 69, § 1, 19 Stat. 243.)

496. Length of tour of duty in Philippines or Canal Zone.—No officer or enlisted man of the Army shall, except upon his own request, be required to serve in a single tour of duty for more than two years in the Philippine Islands, nor more than three years in the Panama Canal Zone, except in case of insurrection or of actual or threatened hostilities: Provided, That the foregoing provision shall not apply to the organization known as the Philippine Scouts. (Mar. 4, 1915, c. 143, § 1, 38 Stat. 1078.)

497. Superintendence of cooking.—The line officers of the Army shall superintend the cooking done for the enlisted men. (R. S. § 1234.)

498. Aides of general officers.—Each major general shall have three aides, who may be selected by him from captains or lieutenants of the Army, and each brigadier general shall have two aides, who may be selected by him from lieutenants of the Army. (R. S. § 1098.)

499. Disabled emergency officers retained in service during treatment.—The President is authorized and directed to retain in service disabled emergency officers until their treatment for physical reconstruction has reached a point where they will not be further benefited by retention in a military hospital or in the military service. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 51, 41 Stat. 786.)

500. Record of service in Army Register.—In every Official Army Register issued, the lineal rank of all officers of the line of the Army shall be given separately for the different arms of the service; and if the officer be promoted from the ranks, or shall have served in the Volunteer Army, either as an enlisted man or officer, his service as a private and noncommissioned officer shall be given, and in addition thereto the record of his service as volunteer. (June 18, 1878, c. 263, § 2, 20 Stat. 149.)

501. Length of service; time spent as cadet at Military or Naval Academy.—In computing for any purpose the length of service of any officer of the Army who was appointed to the United States Military Academy or the United States Naval Academy after August 24, 1912, the time spent at either academy shall not be counted. (June 7, 1924, c. 291, Title I, 43 Stat. 481; Feb. 12, 1925, c. 225, Title I, 43 Stat. 896.)

502. System of examining enlisted men for promotion.—The President is authorized to prescribe a system of examination of enlisted men of the Army, by such boards as may be established by him, to determine their fitness for promotion to the grade of second lieutenant. (July 30, 1892, c. 328, § 1, 27 Stat. 336.)

503. Examining boards.—The members and recorder of such boards as may be established by the President, under the provisions of the preceding section, shall be sworn in every case to discharge their duties honestly and faithfully; and the boards may examine witnesses, and take depositions, for which purpose they shall have such powers of a court of inquiry as may be necessary. (July 30, 1892, c. 328, § 2, 27 Stat. 336.)

504. Certification and appointment of candidates.—The vacancies in the grade of second lieutenant authorized by section 484 of this title to be filled by appointments from the Army, shall be filled by the appointment of competitors favorably recommended under this and the two next preceding sections, in the order of merit established by the final examinations. Each man who passes the final examination shall receive a certificate of eligibility, setting forth the subjects in which he is proficient and the especial grounds upon which the recommendation is based: Provided, That not more than two examinations shall be accorded to the same competitor. (July 30, 1892, c. 328, § 3, 27 Stat. 336.)

RANK AND PRECEDENCE GENERALLY

511. Determination of relative rank in line of Army.—Unless special assignment is made by the President under the provisions of the One hundred and nineteenth Article of War, all officers in the active service of the United States in any grade shall take rank according to date, which, in the case of an officer of the Regular Army, is that stated in his commission or letter of appointment, and, in the case of a reserve officer or an officer of the National Guard called into the service of the United States, shall precede that on which he is placed on active duty by a period equal to the total length of active Federal service and service under the provisions of sections 63, 64 and 65 of Title 32 of which he may have performed in the grade in which called or any higher grade. When dates of rank are the same, precedence shall be determined by length of active commissioned service in the Army. When length of such service is the same, officers of the Regular Army shall take rank among themselves according to their places on the promotion list, preceding reserve and National Guard officers of the same date of rank and length of service, who shall take rank among themselves according to age. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 371, § 5, 43 Stat. 1078.)

512. Service credits in determining relative rank in Army.—In determining relative rank, active duty performed while under appointment from the United States Government, whether in the Regular, provisional, or temporary forces, shall be credited to the same extent as service under a Regular Army commission. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 51, 41 Stat. 785.)

513. Temporary rank in time of war.—In time of war any officer of the Regular Army may be appointed to higher temporary rank without vacating his permanent commission, such appointments in grades below that of brigadier general being made by the President alone, but all other appointments of officers in time of war shall be in the Officers' Reserve Corps. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 51, 41 Stat. 785.)

514. Detail, rating, or assignment as affecting rank of officer.—No detail, rating, or assignment of an officer shall carry advanced rank, except as otherwise specifically provided herein. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 51, 41 Stat. 785.)

BREVET RANK

521. Authority to issue brevet commissions.—The President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, may, in time of war, confer commissions by brevet upon commissioned officers of the Army, for distinguished conduct and public service in presence of the enemy. (R. S. § 1209.)

522. Dating brevet commissions.—Brevet commissions shall bear date from the particular action or service for which the officers were brevetted. (R. S. § 1210.)

523. Precedence and right of command.—Brevet rank shall be considered strictly honorary, and shall confer no privilege of precedence or command not provided for in the statutes which embody the rules and articles governing the Army of the United States. (Feb. 27, 1890, c. 20, § 3, 26 Stat. 14.)

524. Authority to assign officer to command according to brevet rank.—Officers may be assigned to duty or command according to their brevet rank by special assignment of the President. (R. S. § 1211.)

525. Conditions of assignment to command according to brevet rank.—Officers of the Army shall only be assigned to duty or command according to their brevet rank when actually engaged in hostilities. (Mar. 3, 1883, c. 93, § 1, 22 Stat. 457.)

526. Brevet rank for service against Indians.—The President of the United States is authorized and empowered, at his discretion, to nominate, and by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, to appoint to brevet rank all officers of the United States Army, on the active or retired list on February 27, 1890, who by their department commander, and with the concurrence of the commanding general of the Army, have been or may be recommended for gallant service in action against hostile Indians since January 1, 1867. (Feb. 27, 1890, c. 20, § 1, 26 Stat. 13.)

527. Date of brevet commission for service against Indians.—Such brevet commissions as may be issued under section 521 of this title shall bear date only from the 27th day of February, 1890: Provided, however, That the date of the particular heroic act for which the officer is promoted shall appear in his commission. (Feb. 27, 1890, c. 20, § 2, 26 Stat. 13.)

528. Uniform and official title of brevet officers.—No officer shall be entitled, on account of having been brevetted, to wear, while on duty, any uniform other than that of his actual rank; and no officer shall be addressed in orders or official communications by any title other than that of his actual rank. (R. S. § 1212.)

531. Officers carried on detached officers' list.—All officers authorized by law and not assigned to duty with any branch or bureau herein provided for shall be carried on the Detached Officers' List. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 25, 41 Stat. 775.)

532. Service with troops; proportionate amount required.—In time of peace every officer serving in a grade below that of brigadier general shall perform duty with troops of one or more of the combatant arms for at least one year in every period of five consecutive years, except that officers of less than one year's commissioned service in the Regular Army may be detailed as students at service schools. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 4, 41 Stat. 762.)

533. What constitutes service with troops.—In the administration of the provisions of section 532 all duty performed between April 6, 1917, and July 1, 1920, inclusive, or as a student at service schools, other than those of the noncombatant branches, at any time, shall be regarded as satisfying the requirements of service with combatant arms. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 4, 41 Stat. 762.)

534. Exception of certain officers from requirement of service with troops.—When in his judgment efficiency demands such action, the President is authorized to except officers of the Medical Corps, Ordnance Department, and Chemical Warfare Service from the provision of section 532 requiring duty with troops of one or more of the combatant arms. The President is further authorized to except from the provisions of said section requiring duty with troops of one or more of the combatant arms such officers of the Judge Advocate General's Department as were on June 6, 1924, engaged in patent litigation in which the Government is involved. (June 6, 1924, c. 275, § 2, 43 Stat. 470.)

535. Detail of officers as students, observers, and investigators.—The Secretary of War is hereby authorized, in his discretion, to detail not to exceed 2 per centum of the commissioned officers of the Regular Army in any fiscal year as students at such technical, professional, and other educational institutions, or as students, observers, or investigators at such industrial plants, hospitals and other places, as shall be best suited to enable such officers to acquire a knowledge of or experience in the specialties in which it is deemed necessary that such officers shall perfect themselves. The number of officers so detailed shall, as far as practicable, be distributed proportionately among the various branches: Provided, That no expense shall be incurred by the United States in addition to the pay and allowances of the officers so detailed, except for the cost of tuition at such technical, professional, and other educational institutions. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 51, 41 Stat. 786.)

536. Recruiting service.—No officer on the active list shall be detailed for recruiting service where officers on the retired list can be secured who are competent for such duty. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 33, 41 Stat. 777.)

537. Command of Philippine Constabulary.—Officers of the Army of the United States may be detailed for service as chief and assistant chiefs, the said assistant chiefs not to exceed in number four, of the Philippine Constabulary, and that during the continuance of such details the officer serving as chief shall have the rank, pay, and allowances of brigadier general, and the officers serving as assistant chiefs shall have the rank, pay, and allowances of colonel: Provided, That the difference between the pay and allowances of brigadier general and colonel, as herein provided, and the pay and allowances of the officers so detailed in the grades from which they are detailed shall be paid out of the Philippine treasury. (Jan. 30, 1903, c. 334, § 1, 32 Stat. 783.)

538. Work on highways.—See section 643 of this title.

539. Details of officers requested by Cuba or Panama.—The consent of Congress is hereby granted to the acceptance by officers of the Army, in the discretion of the President, of such military details under the Governments of Cuba and Panama as may be requested by the Presidents of these Republics: Provided, That such details shall not exceed five in number: And provided further, That no officer so detailed shall receive any present, emolument, office, or title of any kind whatever from the Government of Cuba or Panama. (Apr. 19, 1910, c. 174, 36 Stat. 324.)

551. Appointment of general officers of the line.—Major generals of the line shall be appointed from officers of the grade of brigadier general of the line, and brigadier generals of the line shall be appointed from officers of the grade of colonel of the line whose names are borne on an eligible list prepared annually by a board of not less than five general officers of the line, not below the grade of major general. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 4, 41 Stat. 760.)

552. Rule of promotion in grades below brigadier general.—Vacancies in grades below that of brigadier general shall be filled by the promotion of officers in the order in which they stand on the promotion list, without regard to the branches in which they are commissioned. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 24, 41 Stat. 774.)

553. Promotion list.—For the purpose of establishing a more uniform system for the promotion of officers, based on equity, merit, and the interests of the Army as a whole, the Secretary of War shall cause to be prepared a promotion list, on which shall be carried the names of all officers of the Regular Army and Philippine Scouts below the grade of colonel, except officers of the Medical Department, chaplains, professors, the military storekeeper and certain second lieutenants of the Quartermaster Corps hereinafter specified. The names on the list shall be arranged, in general, so that the first name on the list shall be that of the officer having the longest commissioned service; the second name that of the officer having the next longest commissioned service, and so on. In computations for the purpose of determining the position of officers on the promotion list there shall be credited all active commissioned service in the Army performed while under appointment from the United States Government, whether in the regular, provisional, or temporary forces, except service under a reserve commission while in attendance at a school or camp for the training of candidates for commission; also commissioned service in the National Guard while in active service since April 6, 1917, under a call by the President; and also commissioned service in the Marine Corps when detached for service with the Army by order of the President. In determining position on the promotion list, and relative rank, commissioned service in the Regular Army or the Philippine Scouts, if continuous to June 4, 1920, shall be counted as having begun on the date of original commission. The original promotion list shall be formed by a board of officers appointed by the Secretary of War, consisting of one colonel of each of six branches of the service in which officers are permanently commissioned under the terms of section 487 of this title, and one officer who, as a member of the personnel branch of the General Staff, has made a special study of merging the present promotion lists into a single list. The steps in the formation of the original promotion list shall be as follows:

First, officers below the grade of colonel in the Corps of Engineers, Signal Corps, Infantry, Cavalry, Field Artillery, Coast Artillery Corps, Porto Rico Regiment, and Philippine Scouts, who were originally appointed in the Regular Army or Philippine Scouts prior to April 6, 1917, shall be arranged without changing the present order of officers on the lineal lists of their own branches, but otherwise as nearly as practicable according to length of commissioned service. The following shall be omitted:

(a) Officers who, as a result of voluntary transfer, occupy positions on the lineal list other than those they would have held if their original commissions had been in their present branches;

(b) Officers of other branches appointed in the Field Artillery or the Coast Artillery Corps to fill vacancies created by the reorganization of the Artillery in the year 1907;

(c) Officers appointed in the Regular Army since January 1, 1903, while serving as officers of the Porto Rico Provisional Regiment of Infantry or Philippine Scouts;

(d) Former officers of the Regular Army or Philippine Scouts who have been reappointed in these forces and who are now below normally placed officers of less commissioned service than theirs.

Officers of classes (a), (b), and (c) shall be placed on the list in the positions they would have occupied if they had remained in their original branches of the service. Officers of class (d) shall be placed on the list in the position that would normally be occupied by an officer of continuous service equal to the total active commissioned service of such officers in the Army.

Second, officers of the Judge Advocate General's Department, Quartermaster Corps, and Ordnance Department shall be placed on the list according to length of commissioned service, except those second lieutenants of the Quartermaster Corps who are found not qualified for promotion as provided in section 571 of this title.

Third, captains and lieutenants of the Regular Army and Philippine Scouts, originally appointed since April 6, 1917, shall be arranged among themselves according to commissioned service rendered prior to November 11, 1918, and shall be placed at the foot of the list as prepared to this point.

Fourth, persons appointed as captains or lieutenants to fill vacancies created by the increase of the commissioned personnel in the year 1920, shall be placed according to commissioned service rendered prior to November 11, 1918, among the officers referred to in the next preceding clause; and where such commissioned service is equal, officers now in the Regular Army shall precede persons appointed to fill said vacancies, and the latter shall be arranged according to age.

Fifth, persons appointed as lieutenant colonels or majors to fill vacancies created by the increase of the commissioned personnel in the year 1920, shall be placed immediately below all officers of the Regular Army who, on July 1, 1920, were promoted to those grades respectively to fill said vacancies: Provided, That the board charged with the preparation of the promotion list may in its discretion, assign to any such officer a position on the list higher than that to which he would otherwise be entitled, but not such as to place him above any officer of greater age, whose commissioned service commenced prior to April 6, 1917, and who would precede him on the list under the general provisions of this section.

Any former officer of the Regular Army and any retired officer who may hereafter be appointed to the active list in the manner provided by law shall be placed on the promotion list in accordance with his total active commissioned service; except that former officers appointed to field grades on July 1, 1920, to fill vacancies as aforesaid, may be placed as provided in the next preceding paragraph of this section. A reserve judge advocate appointed in the Regular Army shall be placed as provided in section 64 of this title.

Other officers on original appointment shall be placed at the foot of the list. The place of any officer on the promotion list once established shall not thereafter be changed, except as the result of the sentence of a court-martial. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 24, 41 Stat. 771.)

554. Promotions limited to vacancies in grades; exceptions to rule.—There shall be no promotions or appointments to any grade or to the branches of the Medical Department or chaplains that would cause the numbers authorized by this title for such grade or branch to be exceeded, except that the colonels, exclusive of those in the Medical Department and professors, remaining on the active list on January 1, 1923, and not included in the four hundred and twenty junior colonels on that date shall be carried as additional numbers so long as they remain in that grade and shall not prevent promotions due to vacancies occurring among the four hundred and twenty authorized colonels. (June 30, 1922, c. 253, Title I, 42 Stat. 722.)

555. Officers discharged in grade of captain and recommissioned in grade of first lieutenant.—So long as there shall remain in the grade of first lieutenant any officer discharged in the grade of captain and recommissioned in the grade of first lieutenant who, having served as an officer of the United States Army at any time between April 6, 1917, and June 4, 1920, was appointed in the grade of captain in the Regular Army in filling the vacancies created by the increase of the commissioned personnel in the year 1920, promotions of officers on the promotion list to the grade of captain shall be made solely from such officers. (Mar. 2, 1923, c. 178, Title I, 42 Stat. 1384.)

556. Examination for promotion.—Officers shall be promoted without examination as to their professional fitness, but physical examination shall be required for promotion to all grades below that of brigadier general: Provided, That officers of the Medical, Dental, and Veterinary Corps shall be examined for promotion. Officers of said three corps shall be examined in accordance with laws governing examination of officers of the Medical Corps, second lieutenants of the Veterinary Corps being subject to the same provisions as first lieutenants. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 24, 41 Stat. 774.)

DISMISSAL OR OTHER TERMINATION OF OFFICE

571. Annual classification; retirement or discharge of officers in class B.—In September of each and every year, the President shall convene a board of not less than five general officers, which shall arrange all officers in two classes, namely: Class A, consisting of officers who should be retained in the service, and class B, of officers who should not be retained in the service. Until otherwise finally classified, all officers shall be regarded as belonging to class A, and shall be promoted according to the provisions of section 553 of this title to fill any vacancies which may occur prior to such final classification. No officer shall be finally classified in class B until he shall have been given an opportunity to appear before a court of inquiry. In such court of inquiry he shall be furnished with a full copy of the official records upon which the proposed classification is based and shall be given an opportunity to present testimony in his own behalf. The record of such court of inquiry shall be forwarded to the final classification board for reconsideration of the case, and after such consideration the finding of said classification board shall be final and not subject to further revision except upon the order of the President. Whenever an officer is placed in class B, a board of not less than three officers shall be convened to determine whether such classification is due to his neglect, misconduct or avoidable habits. If the finding is affirmative, he shall be discharged from the Army; if negative, he shall be placed on the unlimited retired list with pay at the rate of 2½ per centum of his active pay multiplied by the number of complete years of commissioned service, or service which under the provisions of chapter 26 of this title is counted as its equivalent, unless his total commissioned service or equivalent service shall be less than ten years, in which case he shall be honorably discharged with one year's pay. The maximum retired pay of an officer retired under the provisions of this section prior to January 1, 1924, shall be 75 per centum of active pay, and of one retired on or after that date, 60 per centum. If an officer is thus retired before the completion of thirty years' commissioned service, he may be employed on such active duty as the Secretary of War considers him capable of performing until he has completed thirty years' commissioned service. The first board convened under this section shall also report the names of those second lieutenants of the Quartermaster Corps who were commissioned on the reorganization of the Quartermaster Corps in 1916, who are not qualified for further promotion. The officers so reported shall continue in the grade of second lieutenant for the remainder of their service and the others shall be placed upon the promotion list according to their commissioned service, as hereinbefore provided. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 24, 41 Stat. 773.)

572. Court-martial sentence is prerequisite to dismissal from service.—No officer in the military service shall in time of peace be dismissed from service except upon and in pursuance of the sentence of a court-martial to that effect, or in commutation thereof. (R. S. § 1229.)

573. Trial of officers dismissed by President.—When any officer, dismissed by order of the President, makes, in writing, an application for trial, setting forth, under oath, that he has been wrongfully dismissed, the President shall, as soon as the necessities of the service may permit, convene a court-martial, to try such officer on the charges on which he shall have been dismissed. And if a court-martial is not so convened within six months from the presentation of such application for trial, or if such court, being convened, does not award dismissal or death as the punishment of such officer, the order of dismissal by the President shall be void. (R. S. § 1230.)

574. Officers dropped for absence without leave.—The President is authorized to drop from the rolls of the Army any officer who is absent from duty three months without leave, or who has been absent in confinement in a prison or penitentiary for more than three months after final conviction by a civil court of competent jurisdiction; and no officer so dropped shall be eligible for reappointment. (Jan. 19, 1911, c. 22, 36 Stat. 894.)

575. Officers dropped for desertion.—The President is authorized to drop from the rolls of the Army for desertion any officer who is absent from duty three months without leave; and no officer so dropped shall be eligible for reappointment. (R. S. § 1229.)

576. Accepting or holding civil office.—No officer of the Army on the active list shall hold any civil office, whether by election or appointment, and every such officer who accepts or exercises the functions of a civil office shall thereby cease to be an officer of the Army, and his commission shall be thereby vacated. (R. S. § 1222.)

577. Accepting or holding diplomatic or consular office.—Any officer of the Army who accepts or holds any appointment in the Foreign Service of the Government shall be considered as having resigned his place in the Army, and it shall be filled as a vacancy. (R. S. § 1223.)

578. Discharge of supernumerary officers.—Any officer who is supernumerary to the permanent organization of the Army as provided by law may, at his own request, be honorably discharged from the Army, and shall thereupon receive one year's pay for each five years of his service, but no officer shall receive more than three years' pay in all. (June 30, 1882, c. 254, § 1, 22 Stat. 118.)

579. Restoration of dismissed officers.—No officer of the Army who has been or may be dismissed from the service by the sentence of a general court-martial, formally approved by the proper reviewing authority, shall ever be restored to the military service, except by a reappointment confirmed by the Senate. (R. S. § 1228.)

Section 591. Appointment of warrant officers; number authorized.—In addition to those authorized for the Army Mine Planter Service, there shall be not more than six hundred warrant officers, including band leaders, who shall be warrant officers. Appointments shall be made by the Secretary of War from among noncommissioned officers who have had at least ten years' enlisted service; enlisted men who served as officers of the Army at some time between April 6, 1917, and November 11, 1918, and whose total service in the Army, enlisted and commissioned, amounts to five years; persons serving or who have served as Army field clerks or field clerks, Quartermaster Corps; and, in the case of those who are to be assigned to duty as band leaders, from among persons who served as Army band leaders at some time between April 6, 1917, and November 11, 1918, or enlisted men possessing suitable qualifications. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 4, 41 Stat. 761; June 30, 1922, c. 253, Title I, 42 Stat. 723.)

592. Restriction on filling of vacancies in grade.—No vacancies in the grade of warrant officer, exclusive of warrant officers in the Mine Planter Service, shall be filled until the number in such grade is reduced to six hundred, and thereafter the number shall not be increased above six hundred. (June 30, 1922, c. 253, Title I, 42 Stat. 723.)

593. Rank of warrant officers.—Warrant officers other than those of the Army Mine Planter Service shall take rank next below second lieutenants and among themselves according to the dates of their respective warrants. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 4, 41 Stat. 761.)

594. Right to retirement.—Warrant officers, other than those of the Army Mine Planter Service shall be entitled to retirement under the same conditions as commissioned officers. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 4, 41 Stat. 761.)

Section 602. Enlisted strength of Army.—The total authorized number of enlisted men, not including the Philippine Scouts, shall be one hundred and twenty-five thousand. (June 30, 1922, c. 253, Title I, 42 Stat. 724; June 7, 1924, c. 291, Title I, 43 Stat. 481; Feb. 12, 1925, c. 225, Title I, 43 Stat. 896.)

603. Enlisted strength exclusive of soldiers under sentence.—The authorized enlisted strength of the Army and of organizations thereof shall be exclusive of soldiers under sentences which include confinement and dishonorable discharge. (Apr. 27, 1914, c. 72, 38 Stat. 354.)

604. Grades of enlisted men.—On and after July 1, 1920, the grades of enlisted men shall be such as the President may from time to time direct, with monthly base pay at the rate prescribed by section 9 of Title 37, PAY AND ALLOWANCES. Of the total authorized number of enlisted men, those in the first grade shall not exceed 0.79 per centum, those in the second grade 2.1 per centum, those in the third grade 3.4 per centum, those in the fourth grade 9.2 per centum, those in the fifth grade 9.5 per centum, those in the sixth grade 25 per centum. 605. Rating enlisted men as specialists.—Under such regulations as the Secretary of War may prescribe, enlisted men of the sixth and seventh grades may be rated as specialists, and receive extra pay therefor per month, as prescribed in section 9 of Title 37, PAY AND ALLOWANCES. Of the total authorized number of enlisted men in the sixth and seventh grades, those rated as specialists of the first class shall not exceed 0.7 per centum; of the second class, 1.4 per centum; of the third class, 1.9 per centum; of the fourth class, 4.7 per centum; of the fifth class, 5 per centum; of the sixth class, 15.2 per centum. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 4, 41 Stat. 761; June 6, 1924, c. 275, § 1, 43 Stat. 470.)

606. Tour of duty in Canal Zone or Philippine Islands.—No enlisted man of the Army shall, except upon his own request, be required to serve in a single tour of duty for more than two years in the Philippine Islands, nor more than three years in the Panama Canal Zone, except in case of insurrection or of actual or threatened hostilities: Provided, That the foregoing provision shall not apply to the organization known as the Philippine Scouts. (Mar. 4, 1915, c. 143, § 1, 38 Stat. 1078.)

607. Detached enlisted men.—All enlisted men authorized by law and not assigned to duty with any branch or bureau herein provided for shall be carried on the Detached Enlisted Men's List. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 25, 41 Stat. 775.)

608. Officers using enlisted men as servants.—No officer shall use an enlisted man as a servant in any case whatever. (R. S. § 1232.)

609. Employment away from post in competition with local civilians.—No enlisted man in the active service of the United States in the Army, whether a noncommissioned officer, musician, or private, shall be detailed, ordered, or permitted to leave his post to engage in any pursuit, business, or performance in civil life, for emolument, hire, or otherwise, when the same shall interfere with the customary employment and regular engagement of local civilians in the respective arts, trades, or professions. (June 3, 1916, c. 134, § 35, 39 Stat. 188.)

610. Exemption from arrest on civil process.—No enlisted man shall, during his term of service, be arrested on mesne process, or taken or charged in execution for any debt, unless it was contracted before his enlistment, and amounted to $20 when first contracted. (R. S. § 1237.)

611. Indian scouts.—The President is authorized to enlist a force of Indians, not exceeding one thousand, who shall act as scouts in the Territories and Indian country. They shall be discharged when the necessity for their service shall cease, or at the discretion of the department commander: Provided, That a proportionate number of noncommissioned officers may be appointed. (R. S. § 1112; Aug. 12, 1876, c. 263, 19 Stat. 131.)

621. Age limits and general qualifications for enlistment.—Recruits enlisting in the Army must be effective and able-bodied men, and between the ages of eighteen and thirty-five years, at the time of their enlistment. This limitation as to age shall not apply to soldiers reenlisting. (R. S. § 1116; Mar. 2, 1899, c. 352, § 4, 30 Stat. 978.)

622. Character required for enlistment.—No insane or intoxicated person, no deserter from the military service of the United States, and no person who has been convicted of a felony shall be enlisted or mustered into the military service. (R. S. § 1118; Feb. 27, 1877, c. 69, § 1, 19 Stat. 242.)

623. Honest and faithful service as prerequisite to reenlistment.—No soldier shall be again enlisted in the Army whose service during his last preceding term of enlistment has not been honest and faithful. (Aug. 1, 1894, c. 179, § 2, 28 Stat. 216.)

624. Preceding sections construed.—The provisions of sections 622 and 623 of this title shall not be construed to preclude the reenlistment or muster into the Army of any person who has deserted, or may desert, from the military service of the United States in time of peace, or of any soldier whose service during his last preceding term of enlistment has not been honest and faithful, whenever the reenlistment or muster into the military service of such person or soldier shall, in view of the good conduct of such person or soldier subsequent to such desertion or service, be authorized by the Secretary of War. (Aug. 22, 1912, c. 336, § 1, 37 Stat. 356.)

625. Citizenship of recruits.—In time of peace no person (except an Indian) who is not a citizen of the United States, or who has not made legal declaration of his intention to become a citizen of the United States, shall be enlisted for the first enlistment in the Army. (Aug. 1, 1894, c. 179, § 2, 28 Stat. 216.)

626. Citizens of Porto Rico.—Citizens of Porto Rico shall be eligible for enlistment in the Regular Army. (Mar. 2, 1903, c. 975, 32 Stat. 934.)

627. Enlistment of minors.—No person under the age of eighteen years shall be enlisted or mustered into the military service of the United States without the written consent of his parents or guardians, provided that such minor has such parents or guardians entitled to his custody and control. (June 3, 1916, c. 134, § 27, 39 Stat. 186.)

628. Periods of enlistments and reenlistments, respectively.—Original enlistments in the Regular Army shall be for a period of one or three years at the option of the soldier, and reenlistments shall be for a period of three years. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 27, 41 Stat. 775.)

629. Lost time not counted in enlistment period.—An enlistment shall not be regarded as complete until the soldier shall have made good any time in excess of one day lost by unauthorized absences, or on account of disease resulting from his own intemperate use of drugs or alcoholic liquors or other misconduct, or while in confinement awaiting trial or disposition of his case if the trial results in conviction, or while in confinement under sentence. (Apr. 27, 1914, c. 72, 38 Stat. 354.)

630. Rank and grade of noncommissioned officer on reenlistment.—Any noncommissioned officer discharged with an excellent character shall be permitted, at the expiration of three years in the active service, to reenlist in the organization from which discharged with the rank and grade held by him at the time of his discharge if he reenlists within twenty days after the date of such discharge. (June 3, 1916, c. 134, § 27, 39 Stat. 185.)

631. Rank and grade on reenlistment after temporary commissioned service.—Any enlisted man of the Army of the United States who has been, or shall hereafter be, discharged to accept a commission in any component part of the Army of the United States, and who shall tender himself for enlistment within three months after the termination of his commissioned service, shall, subject to such examination for enlistment as is provided by law or regulation, be accepted and be restored to the grade held by him before being discharged to accept such commission. (Mar. 30, 1918, c. 37, 40 Stat. 501.)

632. Temporary sergeants and corporals for recruit depots.—The Secretary of War may authorize the temporary appointment of such number of sergeants and corporals in the companies at the general recruiting depots as may be necessary for the proper control and instruction of the varying number of recruits attached to such companies. (Mar. 3, 1909, c. 252, 35 Stat. 741.)

633. Enlistment allowances.—On and after July 1, 1922, an enlistment allowance equal to $50, multiplied by the number of years served in the enlistment period from which he has last been discharged, shall be paid to every honorably discharged enlisted man of the first three grades who reenlists within a period of three months from the date of his discharge, and an enlistment allowance of $25, multiplied by the number of years served in the enlistment period from which he has last been discharged, shall be paid to every honorably discharged enlisted man of the other grades who reenlists within a period of three months from the date of his discharge. (June 10, 1922, c. 212, § 9, 42 Stat. 629.)

DETAILS

641. Details to recruit depots and Disciplinary Barracks.—The Secretary of War shall be authorized to detach from the Army at large such number of enlisted men as may be necessary to perform duty at the various recruit depots and the United States Disciplinary Barracks, and of the enlisted men so detached, and while performing such duty, there shall be allowed for each depot one who shall have the rank, pay, and allowances of a regimental sergeant major, and for the Disciplinary Barracks one who shall have the rank, pay, and allowances of battalion or squadron sergeant major, and for each recruit and prison company one who shall have the rank, pay, and allowances of first sergeant, five the rank, pay, and allowances of sergeant, and six the rank, pay, and allowances of corporal, of the arm of the service to which they respectively belong. (June 12, 1906, c. 3078, 34 Stat. 242; Aug. 29, 1916, c. 418, § 1, 39 Stat. 624.)

642. Remount detachments at remount depots.—From the enlisted force of the Army provided by law the President may authorize the organization of remount detachments at each of the remount depots, and may authorize the appointment therein of such noncommissioned officers, mechanics, artificers, farriers, horseshoers, and cooks as may be necessary for the administration of such remount depots: Provided, That nothing herein shall be so construed as to authorize an increase in the total number of enlisted men of the Army as authorized by law. (Mar. 3, 1911, c. 209, 36 Stat. 1049.)

643. Work on highways.—No enlisted man of the Army shall be detailed for work on the roads which come within the provisions of the Act of February 28, 1919, chapter 69, Fortieth Statutes 1202, except by his own consent. (Feb. 28, 1919, c. 69, § 9, 40 Stat. 1202.)

644. Detail as reporters for courts-martial, courts of inquiry, etc.—Enlisted men may be detailed to serve as stenographic reporters for general courts-martial, courts of inquiry, military commissions, and retiring boards, and while so serving shall receive extra pay at the rate of not exceeding 5 cents for each one hundred words taken in shorthand and transcribed, such extra pay to be met from the annual appropriation for expenses of courts-martial, and so forth. (Aug. 24, 1912, c. 391, § 1, 37 Stat. 575.)

DISCHARGE FROM ENLISTMENT

CROSS REFERENCE

Rules governing discharge; see section 1580 of this title.

651. Purchase of discharge.—In time of peace the President may, in his discretion and under such rules and upon such conditions as he shall prescribe, permit any enlisted man to purchase his discharge from the Army.

The purchase money to be paid under this section shall be paid to a paymaster of the Army and be deposited in the Treasury to the credit of one or more of the current appropriations for the support of the Army, to be indicated by the Secretary of War, and be available for the payment of expenses incurred during the fiscal year in which the discharge is made. (June 16, 1890, c. 426, § 4, 26 Stat. 158.)

652. Discharge on account of dependent relations.—When by reason of death or disability of a member of the family of an enlisted man, occurring after his enlistment, members of his family become dependent upon him for care or support, he may, in the discretion of the Secretary of War, be discharged from the service of the United States. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 29, 41 Stat. 775.)

653. Discharge of minors.—Upon the presentation of satisfactory evidence as to his age and upon application for discharge by his parent or guardian presented to the Secretary of War within six months after the date of his enlistment, any man enlisted after July 1, 1925, in the Army under twenty-one years of age who has enlisted without the written consent of his parent or guardian, if any, shall be discharged with the form of discharge certificate and the travel and other allowances to which his service after enlistment shall entitle him. (Feb. 12, 1925, c. 225, Title I, 43 Stat. 896.)

723. Heat and light for quarters.—The heat and light actually necessary for the authorized allowance of quarters for officers and enlisted men shall be furnished at the expense of the United States under such regulations as the Secretary of War may prescribe. (Mar. 2, 1907, c. 2511, 34 Stat. 1167.)

724. Rations; determination of component parts.—The President is authorized to prescribe the kinds and quantities of the component articles of the army ration, and to direct the issue of substitutive equivalent articles in place of any such components whenever, in his opinion, economy and a due regard to the health and comfort of the troops may so require. (Feb. 2, 1901, c. 192, § 40, 31 Stat. 758.)

725. Emergency or reserve ration.—The emergency or reserve ration prescribed for use on emergent occasions shall, when issued, be furnished in addition to the regular ration under such regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of War. (Mar. 2, 1907, c. 2511, 34 Stat. 1165.)

726. Sick diet in hospital.—Such quantities of fresh or preserved fruits, milk, butter, and eggs as may be necessary for the proper diet of the sick, may be allowed in hospitals. They shall be provided under such rules as the Surgeon General, with the approval of the Secretary of War, shall prescribe. (R. S. § 1175.)

727. Subsistence of Army patients in Canal Zone hospitals.—The Canal Zone hospitals, having cared for officers, enlisted men, military prisoners, and civilian employees of the Army admitted thereto upon the request of proper military authority, shall be paid the subsistence of the said patients, except commissioned officers, out of the appropriation for subsistence of the Army at the rates provided therein for commutation of rations for enlisted patients in general hospitals. (Feb. 12, 1925, c. 225, Title I, 43 Stat. 909.)

746. Mileage for expert accountant, Inspector General's Department.—The expert accountant, Inspector General's Department, shall receive mileage at the same rates and under the same conditions as is provided by law for officers of the Army. (Aug. 24, 1912, c. 391, § 1, 37 Stat. 575.)

747. Computation of mileage allowance; certificate of necessity for travel.—Mileage of officers of the Army shall be computed over the shortest usually traveled routes between the points named in the order, and the necessity for such travel in the military service shall be certified to by the officer issuing the order and stated in said order. (Mar. 3, 1883, c. 93, § 1, 22 Stat. 456; June 12, 1906, c. 3078, 34 Stat. 246.)

748. Allowance for sea travel.—For all sea travel actual expenses only shall be paid to officers, contract surgeons, and to the expert accountant of the Inspector General's Department, when traveling on duty under competent orders, with or without troops, and the amount so paid shall not include any shore expenses at port of embarkation or debarkation; but for the purpose of determining allowances for all travel under orders, or for officers and enlisted men on discharge, travel in the Philippine Archipelago, the Hawaiian Archipelago, the home waters of the United States, and between the United States and Alaska shall not be regarded as sea travel and shall be paid for at the rates established by law for land travel within the boundaries of the United States. (June 12, 1906, c. 3078, 34 Stat. 246.)

749. Use of Army vehicles.—In the performance of their official and military duties officers of the Army are authorized, under such regulations as may be established by the Secretary of War, to use means of transportation provided for the transportation of the Army and its supplies. (Mar. 3, 1911, c. 209, 36 Stat. 1051.)

750. Expenses of air travel by officers and contract surgeons without troops.—Actual and necessary expenses only, not to exceed $8 per day, shall be paid to officers of the Army and contract surgeons when traveling by air on duty without troops under competent orders. (July 11, 1919, c. 8, 41 Stat. 109.)

751. Travel allowance on discharge of officer; enlisted men discharged in Philippine Islands.—When an officer shall be discharged from the service, except by way of punishment for an offense, he shall receive for travel allowances from the place of his discharge to the place of his residence at the time of his appointment or to the place of his original muster into the service 4 cents per mile: Provided, That any officer or enlisted man in the service of the United States who was discharged in the Philippine Islands and there reentered the service through commission or enlistment shall, when discharged, except by way of punishment for an offense, receive for travel allowances from the place of his discharge to the place in the United States of his last preceding appointment or enlistment, or to his home if he was appointed or enlisted at a place other than his home, 4 cents per mile: Provided further, That for sea travel on discharge actual expenses only shall be paid to officers and transportation and subsistence only shall be furnished to enlisted men. (Mar. 2, 1901, c. 803, 31 Stat. 902.)

752. Travel allowance to enlisted men on discharge.—An enlisted man discharged from the Army, except by way of punishment for an offense, shall receive 5 cents per mile for the distance from the place of his discharge to the place of his acceptance for enlistment, enrollment, or muster into the service: Provided, That for sea travel involved in travel between place of discharge and place of acceptance for enrollment, enlistment, or muster into the service only transportation in kind and subsistence en route shall be allowed: Provided further, That enlisted men under the age of eighteen discharged on the application of either of their parents or legal guardian shall be furnished with transportation in kind from the place of discharge to the railroad station at or nearest to the place of acceptance for enlistment, or to their home if the distance thereto is no greater than from the place of discharge to the place of acceptance for enlistment, but if the difference be greater they may be furnished transportation in kind for a distance equal to that from the place of discharge to the place of acceptance for enlistment. (Sept. 22, 1922, c. 409, 42 Stat. 1021.)

753. Application of preceding section.—The preceding section shall be held to apply to any enlisted man for whom the law authorizes travel allowances as an incident to entry upon and relief from active duty with the Army who was called into active service on or after April 6, 1917. (Sept. 29, 1919, c. 65, 41 Stat. 288.)

754. Travel expenses of enlisted men incident to entry on or relief from active duty.—In the discretion of the Secretary of War, and under such regulations as he may prescribe, travel pay at the rate prescribed by law for discharged soldiers may be given to all enlisted men for whom the law authorizes travel allowances as an incident to their entry upon and relief from active duty with the Army. (July 9, 1918, c. 143, 40 Stat. 860.)

755. Reimbursement of enlisted men for expenses of travel under orders.—Under such regulations and within such maximum rates as may be prescribed by the Secretary of War enlisted men may be reimbursed for actual expenses of travel, including subsistence and lodging, incurred while traveling under competent orders and not embraced in the movement of troops, or they may be paid a flat per diem therefor in lieu of such reimbursement. (Apr. 20, 1918, c. 60, 40 Stat.)

756. Transportation in kind for dependents on change of station.—When any commissioned officer or noncommissioned officer of the grade of color sergeant and above, having a wife or dependent child or children, is ordered to make a permanent change of station, the United States, except as otherwise provided in section 21 of Title 37, shall furnish transportation in kind from funds appropriated for the transportation of the Army, to his new station for the wife and dependent child or children: Provided, That transportation supplied the wife or dependent child or children of such officer, to or from stations beyond the continental limits of the United States, shall not be other than by Government transport, if such transportation is available. (May 18, 1920, c. 190, § 12, 41 Stat. 604.)

757. Money allowance in lieu of transportation in kind for dependents.—See Title 37, PAY AND ALLOWANCES, section 21.

758. Transportation of disabled soldiers traveling on furlough from hospital.—The Secretary of War, under such regulations and restrictions as he may provide, is authorized to issue to all wounded and otherwise disabled soldiers under treatment in any Army or other hospital, who are given furloughs at any time, a furlough certificate, which certificate shall be signed by the commanding officer at such hospital. This furlough certificate when presented by such furloughed soldier to the agent of any railroad or steamship company over whose lines said soldier may travel to and from his home during the furlough period shall entitle said soldier to purchase a ticket from the point of departure to point of destination and return at the rate of 1 cent per mile, and on presentation of such certificate on which such ticket has been issued the railroad or steamship company issuing such ticket shall be entitled to receive from the Treasury of the United States the difference between the amount paid for such ticket at the rate of 1 cent per mile and the regular scheduled rate for such ticket. (June 5, 1920, c. 240, 41 Stat. 975.)

787. Pay and allowances of contract surgeons.—See Title 37, PAY AND ALLOWANCES, section 5.

OFFICERS' MOUNTS

801. Authorized number of mounts.—The number of horses for which forage, bedding, shoeing, shelter, and medicines may be allowed are as follows: To a major general, three horses; to a brigadier general, three horses; to a colonel, two horses; to a lieutenant colonel, two horses; to a major, two horses; to a captain (mounted), two horses; to a lieutenant (mounted), two horses; to an adjutant, two horses. (June 18, 1878, c. 263, § 8, 20 Stat. 150.)

802. Mounts furnished to officers below grade of major.—The United States shall furnish mounts and horse equipments for all officers of the Army below the grade of major required to be mounted. (May 11, 1908, c. 163, 35 Stat. 108.)

803. Money allowance to officers owning mounts.—In case any officer below the grade of major required to be mounted provides himself with suitable mounts at his own expense, he shall receive an addition to his pay of $150 per annum if he provides one mount and $200 per annum if he provides two mounts. (May 11, 1908, c. 163, 35 Stat. 108.)

804. Allowance of forage, bedding, etc.—Officers of the Army, wherever on duty in the military service of the United States, shall be allowed forage, bedding, shoeing, and shelter for their authorized number of horses. (Mar. 3, 1909, c. 252, 35 Stat. 742.)

805. Separation of officer from mounts as affecting allowance of forage, etc.—When an officer is separated from his authorized number of owned horses through the nature of the military service upon which employed, they shall not be deprived of forage, bedding, shelter, shoeing, or medicines therefor, because of such separation. (Mar. 23, 1910, c. 115, 36 Stat. 252.)

806. Commutation of forage, etc.—When forage in kind can not be furnished by the proper departments, then and in all such cases, officers entitled to forage may commute the same according to existing regulations. (R. S. § 1270; Feb. 27, 1877, c. 69, § 1, 19 Stat. 243.)

807. Transportation of mounts in excess of number authorized; reimbursement of Government.—Private mounts of officers in excess of the authorized mounts may be shipped on Government bill of lading with authorized mounts, and reimbursement collected for transportation charges on such excess mounts. (Apr. 27, 1914, c. 72, 38 Stat. 365.)

808. Transportation from point of purchase to station of officer.—Transportation may be furnished for the owned horses of an officer, not exceeding the number authorized by law, from point of purchase to his station, when he would have been entitled to and did not have his authorized number of owned horses shipped upon his last change of station, and when the cost of shipment does not exceed that from his old to his new station. (Mar. 23, 1910, c. 115, 36 Stat. 255.)

809. Mounts of officers ordered for duty to Alaska or overseas; transportation to remount depot.—Under such regulations as the Secretary of War may direct, the authorized horses of mounted officers ordered for duty over the seas or to Alaska may be transported at public expense to remount depots or elsewhere in the United States for safekeeping during the absence of such officers. (July 9, 1918, c. 143, 40 Stat. 859.)

810. Transportation of mounts of deceased officers.—Under such regulations as the Secretary of War may prescribe, authorized mounts of officers who die in the service may, within ninety days after the death of the officer, be transported at public expense from their last duty station to such places within the limits of the United States as may be the home of their families, or as may be designated by their legal representatives or executors, or such mount may be disposed of as directed by such representatives or executors. (July 9, 1918, c. 143, subchapter XVIII, 40 Stat. 892.)

811. Purchase by Quartermaster Corps in lieu of transportation.—When a mounted officer is ordered to duty beyond the seas or to make a change of station in the United States in which the cost of transportation for his authorized number of owned horses exceeds the sum at the time allowed for that purpose in the Army Regulations, the Secretary of War is authorized, under such regulations in respect to inspection and valuation as he may prescribe in his discretion to permit the purchase of said horses by the Quartermaster Corps, at a price not exceeding the average contract price paid for horses during the preceding fiscal year, the exact price to be fixed by a board of officers. (Mar. 23, 1910, c. 115, 36 Stat. 254.)

TRANSPORTATION OF BAGGAGE AND EFFECTS

821. Reimbursement of Government for excess baggage carried.—Baggage in excess of regulation change of station allowances may be shipped with such allowances, and reimbursement collected for transportation charges on such excess. (Mar. 23, 1910, c. 115, 36 Stat. 255.)

822. Baggage of deceased civilian employees.—Under such regulations as the Secretary of War may prescribe, transportation at public expense may be provided for the baggage of civilian employees who die in the service from their last duty station to such places within the limits of the United States as may be the home of their families, or as may be designated by their legal representatives or executors. (July 9, 1918, c. 143, subchapter XVIII, 40 Stat. 892.)

823. Baggage of enlisted men discharged for disability in line of duty.—When an enlisted man having ten or more years' service in the Army is discharged on account of disability incurred in the line of duty, transportation of his authorized change of station allowance of baggage from his last duty station to his home in addition to other travel allowances fixed by law may be authorized by the Secretary of War. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 418, § 1, 39 Stat. 633.)

CLOTHING FOR TROOPS

831. Determination as to quantity and kind of clothing to be issued.—The President may prescribe the quantity and kind of clothing which shall be issued annually to the troops of the United States. (R. S. § 1296.)

832. Commutation in lieu of uniforms.—The Secretary of War shall fix annually the rate of commutation of uniforms. (June 7, 1924, c. 291, Title I, 43 Stat. 507; Feb. 12, 1925, c. 225, Title I, 43 Stat. 922.)

833. Settlement of clothing accounts.—The settlement of clothing accounts of enlisted men, including charges for clothing drawn in excess of clothing allowance and payments of amounts due them when they draw less than their allowance, shall be made at such periods and under such regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of War. (June 30, 1921, c. 33, § 1, 42 Stat. 82.)

834. Replacement of infected clothing destroyed by order of medical officers.—The Secretary of War may, on the recommendation of the Surgeon General, order gratuitous issues of clothing to soldiers who have had contagious diseases, and to hospital attendants who have nursed them, to replace any articles of their clothing destroyed by order of the proper medical officers to prevent contagion. (R. S. § 1298.)

835. Payment of clothing balance on discharge of enlisted man.—Clothing balances accumulating to the soldier's credit under section 833 of this title shall, when payable to him upon his discharge, be paid out of the appropriation for pay of the Army for the then current fiscal year. (R. S. § 1308; June 12, 1906, c. 3078, 34 Stat. 246.)

ABSENCE FROM DUTY AS AFFECTING RIGHT TO PAY

CROSS REFERENCE

Military Academy, leaves of absence to officers; see sections 1143–1145 of this title.

841. Pay of officers during absence from duty generally.—Officers when absent on account of sickness or wounds, or lawfully absent from duty and waiting orders, shall receive full pay; when absent with leave, for other causes, full pay during such absence not exceeding in the aggregate thirty days in one year, and half pay during such absence exceeding thirty days in one year. When absent without leave, they shall forfeit all pay during such absence, unless the absence is excused as unavoidable. (R. S. § 1265.)

842. Leave of absence with pay allowable to officers.—All officers on duty shall be allowed in the discretion of the Secretary of War, sixty days' leave of absence without deduction of pay or allowance: Provided, That the same be taken once in two years: And provided further, That the leave of absence may be extended to three months, if taken once only in three years, or four months if taken only once in four years. (July 29, 1876, c. 239, 19 Stat. 102.)

843. Leave of absence allowable to instructors at service schools.—The provisions of section 1144 of this title, authorizing leaves of absence to certain officers of the Military Academy, during the period of the suspension of the ordinary academic studies, without deduction from pay and allowances, be, and are hereby, extended to include officers on duty exclusively as instructors at the service schools on approval of the officer in charge of said schools. (Mar. 23, 1910, c. 115, 36 Stat. 244.)

844. Travel time added to leave; officers serving in Territorial possessions returning to United States.—Leaves of absence which may be granted officers serving in the Territory of Alaska or without the limits of the United States, for the purpose of returning thereto, shall be regarded as taking effect on the dates such officers reached the United States, and as terminating on the dates of their departure from the United States in returning to their commands, as authorized by an order of the Secretary of War dated October 13, 1898. (Mar. 2, 1901, c. 803, 31 Stat. 902.)

845. Travel time added to leave; officers serving in Philippine Islands not returning to United States.—Leaves to be absent from the Philippine Islands, other than to return to the United States, which may be granted officers of the Army serving in said islands and sailing from Manila, shall be regarded as taking effect on the dates such officers reach Manila, and as terminating on the dates of their departure from Manila in returning to their stations. (Mar. 2, 1907, c. 2511, 34 Stat. 1171.)

846. Pay during captivity.—Every noncommissioned officer and private of the Regular Army, and every officer, noncommissioned officer, and private of any militia or volunteer corps in the service of the United States who is captured by the enemy, shall be entitled to receive during his captivity, notwithstanding the expiration of his term of service, the same pay, subsistence, and allowance to which he may be entitled while in the actual service of the United States; but this provision shall not be construed to entitle any prisoner of war of such militia corps to any pay or compensation after the date of his parole, except the traveling expenses allowed by law. (R. S. § 1288.)

847. Pay during sickness due to misconduct.—No officer, enlisted man or other person in active military service who shall be absent from duty on account of disease resulting from his own intemperate use of drugs or alcoholic liquors or other misconduct shall receive pay for the period of such absence, the time so absent and the cause thereof to be ascertained under such procedure and regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of War. (Apr. 27, 1914, c. 72, 38 Stat. 353.)

848. Pay of officers detailed to service in Bureau of Budget.—No commissioned officer of the Army shall be deprived of his right to pay and allowances while serving on such duty as the President may direct in the coordination of the business of the Government, as now being conducted by him under the general supervision of the Director of the Bureau of the Budget: Provided, That the number of officers detailed to this duty shall not at any time exceed twenty-six. (June 7, 1924, c. 291, Title I, 43 Stat. 481; Feb. 12, 1925, c. 225, Title I, 43 Stat. 895.)

849. Officers dropped from rolls; forfeiture of pay.—Every officer who is dropped by the President from the rolls of the Army, for absence from duty three months without leave, shall forfeit all pay due or to become due. (R. S. § 1266.)

850. Leaves of absence allowable to members of Nurse Corps; sick leave.—Members of the Army Nurse Corps shall be entitled to cumulative leave of absence with pay at the rate of thirty days for each calendar year of service in said corps, not exceeding, however, one hundred and twenty days at one time, and in addition thereto sick leave not exceeding thirty days in any one calendar year in cases of illness or injury incurred in the line of duty. (July 9, 1918, c. 143, subchapter V, § 5, 40 Stat. 879.)

851. Volunteer service counted in computing leave of absence in Regular Army.—Officers appointed to the Regular Army from the Volunteer service, whose service has been continuous, shall, in the computation of leaves of absence after their appointment in the Regular Army, be entitled to the leave credits which accrued to them as Volunteer officers where such leave credits were not availed of during their Volunteer service. (June 30, 1902, c. 1328, 32 Stat. 508.)

852. Accumulated leaves to civilian employees of Ordnance Department.—Hereafter any civilian employee of the Ordnance Department who is a citizen of the United States and employed at any station outside the continental limits of the United States may, in the discretion of the Secretary of War, after at least two years' continuous, faithful, and satisfactory service abroad, and subject to the interests of the public service, be granted accrued leave of absence, with pay, for each year of service, and if an employee should elect to postpone the taking of any or all of the leave to which he may be entitled in pursuance hereof such leave may be allowed to accumulate for a period of not exceeding four years, the rate of pay for accrued leave to be the rate obtaining at the time the leave is granted. (May 12, 1917, c. 12, 40 Stat. 65.)

PAYMENT OF AND DEDUCTIONS FROM PAY OR ALLOWANCES

861. Officers to be paid monthly.—The sums allowed to officer for pay, rental allowances and subsistence shall be paid in monthly payments. (R. S. § 1268.)

862. Promptness required in payment of troops.—The Army shall be paid in such manner that the arrears shall at no time exceed two months, unless circumstances shall render further arrears unavoidable. (R. S. § 1189.)

863. Loss of official papers showing amounts due enlisted men.—The pay due enlisted men of the Army shall not be withheld from them by reason of the fact that their service records or other official papers showing the status of their accounts with respect to pay have been lost or not returned from overseas and, under such regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of War, these men may be paid upon their personal affidavit as to date of last payment and condition of their accounts; and payments made in accordance with such regulations shall be passed by the accounting officers of the Treasury to the credit of the disbursing officers making them. (July 11, 1919, c. 8, 41 Stat. 110.)

864. Advance payment to troops embarking for Philippine Islands.—Troops about to embark for service in the Philippine Islands may, in the discretion of the Secretary of War, be paid one month's wages in advance prior to embarkation. (May 26, 1898, c. 363, § 1, 30 Stat. 420; July 7, 1898, c. 584, 30 Stat. 721.)

865. Computation of pay for month or fraction of month.—Where the compensation of any person in the military service of the United States is annual or monthly the following rules for division of time and computation of pay for services rendered are hereby established: Annual compensation shall be divided into twelve equal installments, one of which shall be the pay for each calendar month; and in making payments for a fractional part of a month one-thirtieth of one of such installments, or of a monthly compensation, shall be the daily rate of pay. For the purpose of computing such compensation and for computing time for services rendered during a fractional part of a month in connection with annual or monthly compensation, each and every month shall be held to consist of thirty days, without regard to the actual number of days in any calendar month, thus excluding the 31st of any calendar month from the computation and treating February as if it actually had thirty days. Any person entering the service of the United States during a thirty-one day month and serving until the end thereof shall be entitled to pay for that month from the date of entry to the 30th day of said month, both days inclusive; and any person entering said service during the month of February and serving until the end thereof shall be entitled to one month's pay, less as many thirtieths thereof as there were days elapsed prior to date of entry: Provided, That for one day's unauthorized absence on the 31st day of any calendar month one day's pay shall be forfeited. (June 12, 1906, c. 3078, 34 Stat. 248.)

866. Arrears of pay, bounty, etc., for service in war with Spain.—No claim for arrears of pay, bounty, or other allowances growing out of the service of volunteers who served in the Army of the United States during the war with Spain shall be received or considered by the accounting officers of the Treasury unless filed in the office of the Auditor for the War Department on or before December 31, 1914. (Dec. 22, 1911, c. 6, 37 Stat. 49.)

867. Arrears of pay, bounty, etc., for Civil War service.—No claim for arrears of pay, bounty, or other allowances growing out of the service of volunteers who served in the Army of the United States during the Civil War shall be received or considered by the accounting officers of the Treasury unless filed in the office of the Auditor for the War Department on or before December 31, 1912: Provided, That no agent or attorney shall demand or accept, for his services in connection with the prosecution of claims for arrears of pay, bounty, or other allowances due on account of the services during the Civil War of an officer or enlisted man of the Regular or Volunteer Armies of the United States, filed after December 22, 1911, any fee for any services rendered in connection therewith. Whoever shall violate this provision upon conviction shall be punished by a fine of not exceeding $500 or imprisonment for a period not exceeding six months, or both, and shall be disbarred from practice before the Treasury Department. (Dec. 22, 1911, c. 6, 37 Stat. 49.)

868. Payment of amount due deceased officer or enlisted man.—Hereafter, in the settlement of the accounts of deceased officers or enlisted men of the Army, where the amount due the decedent's estate is less than $500 and no demand is presented by a duly appointed legal representative of the estate, the accounting officers may allow the amount found due to the decedent's widow or legal heirs in the following order of precedence: First, to the widow; second, if decedent left no widow, or the widow be dead at time of settlement, then to the children or their issue, per stirpes; third, if no widow or descendants, then to the father and mother in equal parts, provided the father has not abandoned the support of his family, in which case to the mother alone; fourth, if either the father or mother be dead then to the one surviving; fifth, if there be no widow, child, father, or mother at the date of settlement, then to the brothers and sisters and children of deceased brothers and sisters, per stirpes: Provided, That this section shall not be so construed as to prevent payment from the amount due the decedent's estate of funeral expenses, provided a claim therefor is presented by the person or persons who actually paid the same before settlement by the accounting officers. (June 30, 1906, c. 3914, § 1, 34 Stat. 750.)

869. Payment to indorsees of officers' pay accounts.—Section 492 of Title 31 shall not be construed as precluding officers of the Finance Department from drawing checks in favor of the person or institution designated by indorsement made on his monthly pay account by any officer of the Army if the pay account has been deposited for payment on maturity in conformity with such regulations as the Secretary of War may prescribe: Provided further, That payment by the United States of a check on the indorsement of the indorsee specified on the pay account shall be a full acquittance for the amount due on the pay account. (Mar. 2, 1913, c. 93, 37 Stat. 710.)

870. Payment and settlement of mileage accounts.—Payment and settlement of mileage accounts of officers shall be made according to distances and deductions computed over routes established and by mileage tables prepared by the Finance Department of the Army under the direction of the Secretary of War. The Secretary of War may determine what shall constitute travel and duty without troops within the meaning of the laws governing the payment of mileage and commutation of quarters to officers of the Army: Provided, That officers who so desire may, upon application to the Quartermaster General, be furnished under their orders transportation requests for the entire journey by land, exclusive of sleeping and parlor car accommodations, or by water; and the transportation so furnished shall, if travel was performed under a mileage status, be a charge against the officer's mileage account, to be deducted at the rate of 3 cents per mile by the officer paying the account, and of the amount so deducted there shall be turned over to an authorized officer of the Quartermaster Corps 3 cents per mile for transportation furnished, except over any railroad which is a free or 50 per centum land-grant railroad, for the credit of the appropriation for the transportation of the Army and its supplies: And provided further, That when the established route of travel shall, in whole or in part, be over the line of any railroad on which the troops and supplies of the United States are entitled to be transported free of charge, or over any 50 per centum land-grant railroad, officers traveling as herein provided for shall, for the travel over such roads, be furnished with transportation requests, exclusive of sleeping and parlor car accommodations, by the Quartermaster Corps: And provided further, That when transportation is furnished by the Quartermaster Corps, or when the established route of travel is over any of the railroads above specified, there shall be deducted from the officer's mileage account by the officer paying the same 3 cents per mile for the distance for which transportation has been or should have been furnished. (June 12, 1906, c. 3078, 34 Stat. 246.)

871. Deductions for damage to arms, equipment, or implements.—The cost of repairs or damages done to arms, equipment, or implements, shall be deducted from the pay of any officer or soldier in whose care or use the same were when such damages occurred, if said damages were occasioned by the abuse or negligence of said officer or soldier. (R. S. § 1303.)

872. Deductions for deficiency of or injury to military supplies.—In case of deficiency of any article of military supplies, on final settlements of the accounts of any officer charged with the issue of the same, the value thereof shall be charged against the delinquent and deducted from his monthly pay, unless he shall show to the satisfaction of the Secretary of War, by one or more depositions setting forth the circumstances of the case, that said deficiency was not occasioned by any fault on his part. And in case of damage to any military supplies, the value of such damage shall be charged against such officer and deducted from his monthly pay, unless he shall, in like manner, show that such damage was not occasioned by any fault on his part. (R. S. § 1304.)

873. Deductions for laundry work and other necessaries for recruits.—Traders and laundrymen at depots for recruits in the Army may furnish such recruits, on credit, with laundry work and such articles as may be necessary for their cleanliness and comfort, at a total cost not to exceed $7 in value per man. Pay rolls shall be made out showing the amounts the recruits respectively owe to the traders and laundrymen, and signed by them before leaving the depot, and the traders and laundrymen shall be paid on such rolls, the amount paid for each recruit to be noted accordingly on the service record of the recruit, in order that it may be withheld, after he joins his company, by the disbursing officer, at the first subsequent payment, under such rules and regulations as may be adopted by the War Department: Provided, That this provision shall apply only to recruits on their enlistment, and the credit shall only be allowed on the written order of the regular recruiting officer at said station. (June 30, 1882, c. 254, § 3, 22 Stat. 122.)

874. Deductions for excess of clothing allowance.—The money value of all clothing overdrawn by the soldier beyond his allowance shall be charged against him every six months on the pay roll, or on his final statements, if sooner discharged, and he shall receive pay for such articles of clothing as have not been issued to him in any year, or which may be due to him at the time of his discharge, according to the annual estimated value thereof. The amount due him for clothing, when he draws less than his allowance, shall not be paid to him until his final discharge from the service. (R. S. § 1302.) And see section 833.

875. Deductions for articles purchased by enlisted men from Army stores on credit.—The amount due from any enlisted man for articles designated by the inspectors general of the Army, and sold to him on credit by officers of the Quartermaster Corps, shall be deducted from the payment made to him next after such sale shall have been reported to the Finance Department. (R. S. § 1300.)

876. Suspended sentence of dishonorable discharge; effect as to accrual of pay.—Pay and allowances shall not accrue to a soldier under sentence of dishonorable discharge, during such period as the execution of the sentence of discharge may be suspended under authority of the Articles of War, and pay which has heretofore been forfeited under such suspended sentence shall not be held to have accrued to the Soldiers' Home under the operation of section 44 of Title 24, but shall be covered back into the Treasury of the United States. (Mar. 4, 1915, c. 143, § 1, 38, Stat. 1065.)

877. Withholding pay of officers.—The pay of officers of the Army may be withheld under section 82 of Title 5 on account of an indebtedness to the United States admitted or shown by the judgment of a court, but not otherwise unless upon a special order issued according to the discretion of the Secretary of War. (July 16, 1892, c. 195, § 1, 27 Stat. 177.)

878. Final payment to officer on discharge; certificates of nonindebtedness to United States.—Officers who at any time were accountable or responsible for public property shall be required, before final payment is made to them on discharge from the service, to obtain certificates of nonindebtedness to the United States from only such of the bureaus of the War Department to which the property for which they were accountable or responsible pertains, and the certificate from the Chief of the Division of Bookkeeping and Warrants, Treasury Department, and such certificates, accompanied by the affidavits of officers, of nonaccountability or nonresponsibility to other bureaus of the War Department, certified to by the commanding officer of the regiment or independent organization, shall warrant their final payment: Provided, That officers who have not been responsible at any time for public property shall be required to make affidavit of that fact, certified to by their commanding officers, which shall be accepted as sufficient evidence to warrant their final payment on their discharge from the service. (Jan. 12, 1899, c. 46, § 2, 30 Stat. 784.)

ASSIGNMENT OF PAY; ALLOTMENTS

891. Assignments by commissioned officers.—All commissioned officers of the Army may transfer or assign their pay accounts, when due and payable, under such regulations and restrictions as the Secretary of War may prescribe. (Mar. 2, 1907, c. 2511, 34 Stat. 1159.)

892. Assignments by contract surgeons.—Contract surgeons and contract dental surgeons on duty in Alaska, Hawaii, the Philippine Islands, and Porto Rico may transfer or assign their pay accounts, when due and payable, in the methods now provided by regulations for commissioned officers of the Army. (Apr. 23, 1904, c. 1485, 33 Stat. 266.)

893. Assignments by noncommissioned officers and privates.—No assignment of pay by a noncommissioned officer or private previous to his discharge shall be valid. (R. S. § 1291.)

894. Allotments authorized.—The Secretary of War is authorized to permit, under such regulations as he may prescribe, any officer or enlisted man on the active list of the Army, any retired officer or enlisted man of the Army on active duty, and any permanent civilian employee under the jurisdiction of the War Department on duty outside of the continental limits of the United States, to make allotments of his pay for the support of his wife, children, or dependent relatives, or for such other purposes as the Secretary of War may deem proper. All allotments of pay of officers, enlisted men, and civilian employees that have been or shall be paid to designated allottees previous to the receipt by disbursing officer of notice of discontinuance of the same from the officer required by regulations to furnish such notice shall pass to the credit of the disbursing officer who has made or shall make such payments; and, if erroneous payment is made because of the failure of an officer to report, in the manner prescribed by the Secretary of War, the death of the grantor, or any fact which renders the allotment not payable, then the amount of such erroneous payment shall be collected by the Chief of Finance from the officer who fails to make such report, if such collection is practicable. Nothing herein shall be construed to invalidate allotments in force on October 6, 1917. (Oct. 6, 1917, c. 81, 40 Stat. 384.)

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

902. Pay and allowances of officer discharged and recommissioned in lower grade.—The discharge and recommission of officers in the next lower grade shall not operate to reduce the pay or allowances which they were receiving at the time of such discharge, or to deprive them of credit for service then counted for purposes of pay. (Sept. 14, 1922, c. 307, § 1, 42 Stat. 841.)

903. Allowance on death of officer or enlisted man to widow or person designated.—Hereafter, immediately upon official notification of the death from wounds or disease, not the result of his own misconduct, of any officer or enlisted man on the active list of the Regular Army or on the retired list when on active duty, the Chief of Finance of the Army shall cause to be paid to the widow, and if there be no widow to the child or children, and if there be no widow or child to any other dependent relative of such officer or enlisted man previously designated by him, an amount equal to six months' pay at the rate received by such officer or enlisted man at the date of his death. The Secretary of War shall establish regulations requiring each officer and enlisted man having no wife or child to designate the proper dependent relative to whom this amount shall be paid in case of his death. Said amount shall be paid from funds appropriated for the pay of the Army: Provided, That nothing in this section shall be construed as making the provisions thereof applicable to officers or enlisted men of any forces or troops of the Army of the United States other than those of the Regular Army, and nothing in this section shall be construed to apply in commissioned grades to any officers except those holding permanent appointments in the Regular Army: And provided further, That none of the funds appropriated for the purposes of this section shall be used for the payment of such six months' pay to any married child or unmarried child over twenty-one years of age of a deceased officer or enlisted man who is not actually a dependent of such deceased officer or enlisted man. (Dec. 17, 1919, c. 6, §§ 1, 2, 41 Stat. 367; Mar. 2, 1923, c. 178, Title I, 42 Stat. 1385.) See section 308 of this title as to death by aviation accident.

904. Uniforms, accouterments, and equipment for officers at cost.—Uniforms, accouterments, and equipment shall, upon the request of any officer of the Army, be furnished by the Government at cost, subject to such restrictions and regulations as the Secretary of War may prescribe. (Aug. 31, 1918, c. 166, § 9, 40 Stat. 957.)

905. Right of Army musicians to furnish music in competition with civilian musicians.—Army bands or members thereof shall not receive remuneration for furnishing music outside the limits of military posts when the furnishing of such music places them in competition with local civilian musicians. (May 11, 1908, c. 163, 35 Stat. 110.)

906. Deposit of soldiers' savings.—Any enlisted man of the Army may deposit his savings, in sums not less than $5, with any finance officer, who shall furnish him a deposit book, in which shall be entered the name of the finance officer and of the soldier, and the amount, date, and place of such deposit. The amount so deposited shall be accounted for in the same manner as other public funds, and shall be deposited in the Treasury of the United States and kept as a separate fund, known as pay of the Army deposit fund, repayment of which to the enlisted man on discharge from the service shall be made out of the fund created by said deposits, and shall not be subject to forfeiture by sentence of court-martial, but shall be forfeited by desertion, and shall not be permitted to be paid until final payment on discharge, or to the heirs or representatives of a deceased soldier, and that such deposits be exempt from liability for such soldier's debts: Provided, That the Government shall be liable for the amount deposited to the person so depositing the same. (R. S. § 1305; June 12, 1906, c. 3078, 34 Stat. 246.)

907. Interest on deposits.—For any sums not less than $5 so deposited for the period of six months, or longer, the soldier, on his final discharge, shall be paid interest at the rate of 4 per centum per annum. (R. S. § 1306; Mar. 3, 1883, c. 93, § 1, 22 Stat. 456.)

908. Regulations governing deposits.—The system of deposits herein established shall be carried into execution under such regulations as may be established by the Secretary of War. (R. S. § 1307.)

909. Dependents defined.—See Title 37, PAY AND ALLOWANCES, section 4.

910. Reduction of pay; provision against.—See Title 37, PAY AND ALLOWANCES, section 16.

911. Application of title to certain persons serving with Army but not as commissioned officers.—See Title 37, PAY AND ALLOWANCES, section 1.

912. Particular provisions in force.—Nothing in this chapter of this title shall operate to change in any way provisions of this title, or regulations made in pursuance of law, governing pay and allowances of the General of the Armies, the enlisted men of the Philippine Scouts, Indian scouts, or flying cadets; nor the allowances in kind for rations, quarters, heat, and light for enlisted men; nor allowances in kind for quarters, heat, and light for officers and warrant officers; nor allowances for private mounts for officers; nor transportation in kind for officers and warrant officers and enlisted men and their dependents; nor transportation and packing allowances for baggage or household effects of officers and warrant officers and enlisted men; nor additional pay for aides; nor extra pay to enlisted men serving as stenographic reporters, or employed as cooks or messmen, or mail clerks, or assistant mail clerks, or engaged in submarine diving; nor money allowances granted to enlisted men on account of awards of medals or decorations expressly authorized by Congress. (June 10, 1922, c. 212, § 21, 42 Stat. 633.)

913. Free tuition for soldiers in schools in District of Columbia.—Soldiers of the United States not residents of the District of Columbia who are on duty at stations adjacent to the District of Columbia shall be admitted for special instruction to the day schools and night schools of the District of Columbia without payment of tuition. (Mar. 28, 1918, c. 28, § 1, 40 Stat. 470.)

914. Free tuition in schools for children of officers and men.—The children of officers and men of the United States Army stationed outside of the District of Columbia shall be admitted to the public schools without payment of tuition. (Mar. 3, 1925, c. 477, § 1, 43 Stat. 1233.)

915. Allowance to Indian scouts for horses.—Indian scouts, when they furnish their own horses and horse-equipments, shall be entitled to receive 40 cents per day for their use and risk so long as thus employed. (Aug. 12, 1876, c. 263, 19 Stat. 131.)

RETIREMENT FOR INCAPACITY

Section 931. Retirement wholly from service or from active service only.—When any officer has become incapable of performing the duties of his office, he shall be either retired from active service, or wholly retired from the service, by the President, as hereinafter provided. (R. S. § 1245.)

932. Failure of officer to pass physical examination for promotion.—Should an officer fail in his physical examination and be found incapacitated for service by reason of physical disability contracted in line of duty he shall be retired with the rank to which his seniority entitled him to be promoted. (Oct. 1, 1890, c. 1241, § 3, 26 Stat. 562.)

933. Disability found by retiring board to be incident of service.—When a retiring board finds that an officer is incapacitated for active service, and that his incapacity is the result of an incident of service, and such decision is approved by the President, said officer shall be retired from active service and placed on the list of retired officers. (R. S. § 1251.)

934. Disability found by retiring board not to be incident of service.—When the board finds that an officer is incapacitated for active service, and that his incapacity is not the result of any incident of service, and its decision is approved by the President, the officer shall be retired from active service, or wholly retired from the service, as the President may determine. The names of officers wholly retired from the service shall be omitted from the Army Register. (R. S. § 1252.)

935. Periodical examination of officers retired for disability.—The Secretary of War shall make a list of all officers of the Army who have been placed on the retired list for disability and shall cause such officers to be examined at intervals as may be advisable, and such officers as shall be found to have recovered from such disabilities or to be able to perform service of value to the Government sufficient to warrant such action shall be assigned to such duty as the Secretary of War may approve. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 418, § 1, 39 Stat. 629.)

936. Restoration of retired officers to active list.—Retired officers of the Regular Army may be reappointed to the active list, if found competent for active duty, and shall be commissioned in the grades determined by the places assigned to them on the promotion list under the provisions of section 554 of this title. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 24, 41 Stat. 774.)

RETIREMENT FOR AGE OR LENGTH OF SERVICE

941. Right to retirement after forty years of commissioned service.—When an officer has served forty consecutive years as a commissioned officer, he shall, if he makes application therefor to the President, be retired from active service and placed upon the retired list. (R. S. § 1243.)

942. Right of officer to retirement after forty years of military service.—When an officer has served forty years either as an officer or soldier in the regular or volunteer service, or both, he shall, if he make application therefor to the President, be retired from active service and placed on the retired list. (June 30, 1882, c. 254, § 1, 22 Stat. 118.)

943. Right of officer to retirement after thirty years of service.—When an officer has been thirty years in service, he may, upon his own application, in the discretion of the President, be retired, and placed on the retired list. (R. S. § 1243.)

944. Power of President to order retirement of officer forty-five years in service or at age of sixty-two.—When any officer has served forty-five years as a commissioned officer, or is sixty-two years old, he may be retired from active service at the discretion of the President. (R. S. § 1244.)

945. Compulsory retirement of officers when sixty-four years old.—When an officer is sixty-four years of age, he shall be retired from active service and placed on the retired list. (June 30, 1882, c. 254, § 1, 22 Stat. 118.)

946. Right of officer to retirement in rank above colonel.—No officer holding a rank above that of colonel shall be retired except for disability or on account of having reached the age of sixty-four years until he shall have served at least one year in such rank. (June 12, 1906, c. 3078, 34 Stat. 245.)

947. Right of enlisted men to retirement.—When an enlisted man shall have served thirty years either in the Army, Navy, or Marine Corps, or in all, he shall, upon making application to the President, be placed upon the retired list: Provided, That in computing the necessary thirty years' time all service in the Army, Navy, and Marine Corps shall be credited. (Mar. 2, 1907, c. 2515, § 1, 34 Stat. 1217.)

SERVICE COUNTED IN DETERMINING RIGHT TO RETIREMENT

951. Service in provisional or temporary forces.—In determining rights of retirement of officers of the Regular Army, active duty performed while under appointment from the United States Government, whether in the Regular, provisional, or temporary forces, shall be credited to the same extent as service under a Regular Army commission. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 51, 41 Stat. 785.)

952. Period of cadetship at Military or Naval Academy.—In computing for any purpose the length of service of any officer of the Army who was appointed to the United States Military Academy or the United States Naval Academy after August 24, 1912, the time spent at either academy shall not be counted. (June 7, 1924, c. 291, Title I, 43 Stat. 481; Feb. 12, 1925, c. 225, Title I, 43 Stat. 896.)

953. Service credits of officers discharged and recommissioned in lower grade.—The discharge and recommission of officers in the next lower grade shall not operate to deprive them of credit for service counted at the time of such discharge for purposes of retirement. (Sept. 14, 1922, c. 307, § 1, 42 Stat. 841.)

954. Service by enlisted men as commissioned officers of Philippine Scouts.—All enlisted men of the Regular Army who have been appointed commissioned officers of Philippine Scouts subsequent to March 2, 1903, and who, upon their muster out, have returned to the ranks of the Regular Army, shall have such period of service counted as if it had been rendered as enlisted men, and they shall be entitled to all continuous service pay and to count, in computing the time necessary to enable them to retire, as enlisted men. (June 12, 1906, c. 3078, 34 Stat. 248.)

955. Temporary commissioned service by enlisted men.—In computing service for retirement, any enlisted man accepted for reenlistment under the provisions of section 632 of this title, shall be credited with all time served with the forces of the United States, and his service shall be deemed continuous, notwithstanding the interruption thereof by the changes of status provided for in said section 632. (Mar. 30, 1918, c. 37, 40 Stat. 501.)

956. Double credits for foreign service by enlisted men.—In computing the length of service for retirement, credit shall be given soldiers for double the time of their actual service in China, Cuba, the Philippine Islands, the island of Guam, Alaska, and Panama; but double credit shall not be given for service rendered subsequent to April 23, 1904, in Porto Rico or the Territory of Hawaii, nor shall credit for double time for foreign service be given to those who enlisted after August 24, 1912: Provided, That nothing in this provision shall be so construed as to forfeit credit for double time accrued prior to August 24, 1912. (Apr. 23, 1904, c. 1485, 33 Stat. 264; Aug. 24, 1912, c. 391, § 1, 37 Stat. 575.)

RETIRING BOARDS

961. Composition of board.—The Secretary of War, under the direction of the President, shall, from time to time, assemble an Army retiring board, consisting of not more than nine nor less than five officers, two-fifths of whom shall be selected from the Medical Corps. The board, excepting the officers selected from the Medical Corps, shall be composed, as far as may be, of seniors in rank to the officer whose disability is inquired of. (R. S. § 1246.)

962. Oath of members of board.—The members of said board shall be sworn in every case to discharge their duties honestly and impartially. (R. S. § 1247.)

963. Inquiry into and determination of facts.—A retiring board may inquire into and determine the facts touching the nature and occasion of the disability of any officer who appears to be incapable of performing the duties of his office, and shall have such powers of a court-martial and of a court of inquiry as may be necessary for that purpose. (R. S. § 1248.)

964. Finding cause of incapacity.—When the board finds an officer incapacitated for active service, it shall also find and report the cause which, in its judgment, has produced his incapacity, and whether such cause is an incident of service. (R. S. § 1249.)

965. Revision by President.—The proceedings and decision of the board shall be transmitted to the Secretary of War, and shall be laid by him before the President for his approval or disapproval and orders in the case. (R. S. § 1250.)

966. Right of officers to hearing.—Except in cases where an officer may be retired by the President upon his own application, or by reason of his having served forty-five years, or of his being sixty-two years old, no officer shall be retired from active service, nor shall an officer, in any case, be wholly retired from the service without a full and fair hearing before an Army retiring board, if, upon due summons, he demands it. (R. S. § 1253.)

971. Rate of pay of retired officers.—Officers retired from active service shall receive 75 per centum of the pay of the rank upon which they are retired. (R. S. § 1274.)

972. Basis for computing retired pay of officers and warrant officers; change of base pay as affecting previous retirements.—On and after July 1, 1922, retired officers and warrant officers shall have their retired pay computed as authorized by section 681 on the basis of pay provided in section 672 of this title: Provided, That nothing contained in this chapter or in chapter 26 of this title shall operate to reduce the pay of officers, warrant officers, and enlisted men on the retired list on June 30, 1922; and nothing contained in the first sentence of this section or in any other section of this chapter shall authorize an increase in the pay of officers or warrant officers on the retired list on June 30, 1922: Provided further, That the pay saved to an officer by section 902 or 916 of this title shall be construed as the pay provided in chapter 26 of this title for the purpose of computing retired pay. (June 10, 1922, c. 212, §§ 1, 17, 42 Stat. 625, 632; May 31, 1924, c. 224, § 6, 43 Stat. 252.)

973. Pay and allowances of retired officers, warrant officers, and men on active duty.—Retired officers of the Army below the grade of brigadier general and retired warrant officers and enlisted men shall, when on active duty, receive full pay and allowances. (June 10, 1922, c. 212, § 17, 42 Stat. 632.)

974. Active duty by retired officer counted in computing retired pay.—Any retired officer of the Army who has been detailed to active duty and who has since his retirement served on active detail shall be entitled to increases of longevity pay, to be computed as provided by law for the computation of longevity pay, for the time of his service before retirement and on active detail since his retirement. (May 12, 1917, c. 12, 40 Stat. 48.)

975. Attendance on course of preparatory instruction pursuant to detail under section 386 or 1181 as active duty.—Duty performed by retired officers of the Regular Army, pursuant to War Department orders issued under section 386 or section 1181 of this title, respectively, including, in either case, temporary duty for attendance on any course of preparatory instruction required by such order, shall be construed to be active duty for the purpose of increase of longevity pay of such retired officers within the meaning of sections 973 and 974 of this title. (Mar. 3, 1925, c. 411, § 2, 43 Stat. 1099.)

976. Ratification of administrative action as to pay of officers on duty mentioned in next preceding section.—Any administrative action taken prior to March 3, 1925, by the War Department dependent for validity upon the construction of sections 973 and 974 of this title mentioned in the next preceding section, or a like construction of any other statute authorizing the detail of retired officers of the Army to educational institutions, is hereby ratified and confirmed; and any pay otherwise due to any retired officers of the Regular Army but heretofore withheld by reason of a construction of any of the indicated statutes inconsistent with those foregoing shall be considered due and payable. (Mar. 3, 1925, c. 411, § 5, 43 Stat. 1100.)

977. Retired pay of certain warrant officers of Mine Planter Service.—Warrant officers of the Army Mine Planter Service retired in reducing the strength of the Army in 1922 shall receive retired pay at the rate of 2½ per centum of their active pay, multiplied by the number of complete years of such service, in case of those of less than twenty years' service, and at the rate of 3 per centum of their active pay, multiplied by the number of complete years of such service, in the case of those of more than twenty years' service, not exceeding 75 per centum of their active pay: Provided, That in computing longevity pay under the provision of this section service on boats in the service of the Quartermaster Department as well as service in the Regular Army shall be counted. (Mar. 3, 1925, c. 413, 43 Stat. 1101.)

978. Pay of officers retired in reduction of commissioned personnel.—The pay of officers retired in the reduction of the commissioned personnel in the year 1922 shall, in case of those of more than ten years' and less than twenty years' commissioned service, be at the rate of 2½ per centum of their active pay multiplied by the number of complete years of such commissioned service; and in case of those of more than twenty years' commissioned service be at the rate of 3 per centum of their active pay multiplied by the number of complete years of such commissioned service, not exceeding 75 per centum. (June 30, 1922, c. 253, Title I, 42 Stat. 722.)

979. Pay of officer retired as warrant officer in lieu of discharge with one year's pay.—Any officer of less than ten years' commissioned service but of more than twenty years' service accredited toward retirement or for increased pay for length of service, having elected retirement as a warrant officer in lieu of discharge with one year's pay in the reduction of the commissioned personnel of the Army in the year 1922, shall receive retired pay at the rate of 2 per centum of the pay of a warrant officer multiplied by the number of years of such accredited service. (June 30, 1922, c. 253, Title I, 42 Stat. 723.)

980. Rate of pay of retired enlisted men.—When an enlisted man is placed on the retired list, pursuant to section 947 of this title, he shall receive 75 per centum of the pay and allowances he may then be in receipt of, and said allowances shall be as follows: $9.50 per month in lieu of rations and clothing and $6.25 per month in lieu of quarters, fuel, and light. (Mar. 2, 1907, c. 2515, § 1, 34 Stat. 1217.)

981. Retired enlisted men with commissioned service in World War.—Retired enlisted men of the Army who served honorably as commissioned officers of the Army of the United States at some time between April 6, 1917, and November 11, 1918, shall be entitled to receive the pay of retired warrant officers of the Army: Provided, That such enlisted men retired prior to July 1, 1922, shall be entitled to receive the pay provided by law for retired warrant officers of equal length of service retired prior to that date, and that any such enlisted man retired subsequent to June 30, 1922, shall be entitled to receive the pay provided by law for retired warrant officers of equal length of service retired subsequent to that date: Provided further, That nothing in this section shall operate to prevent any person from receiving the pay and allowances of his grade, rank, or rating on the retired list when such pay and allowances exceed the pay to which he would be entitled under this section by virtue of his commissioned service. (June 6, 1924, c. 275, § 8, 43 Stat. 472.)

982. Computation of retired pay of enlisted men.—On and after July 1, 1922, retired enlisted men of the Army shall have their retired pay computed as authorized by law on the basis of pay provided in this chapter of this title. (June 10, 1922, c. 212, § 9, 42 Stat. 629.)

991. Duties to which retired officers may be assigned generally.—The Secretary of War may assign retired officers of the Army, with their consent, to active duty in recruiting, for service in connection with the Organized Militia in the several States and Territories upon the request of the governor thereof, as military attachés, upon courts-martial, courts of inquiry and boards, and to staff duties not involving service with troops; and such officers while so assigned shall receive the full pay and allowances of their respective grades. (Apr. 23, 1904, c. 1485, 33 Stat. 264.)

992. Recall of retired officers to active duty in time of war.—In time of war retired officers may be employed on active duty in the discretion of the President, and when so employed they shall receive the full pay and allowances of their grades. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 51, 41 Stat. 785.)

993. Assignment to duty with Quartermaster Corps.—Assignments which have been or may hereafter be made of retired officers of the Army to active duty as acting quartermasters shall be regarded as assignments to staff duties not involving service with troops within the meaning of section 901 of this title. (May 12, 1917, c. 12, 40 Stat. 48.)

994. Assignment to duty as road commissioners for Alaska.—Hereafter the Secretary of War may, in his discretion, assign suitable retired officers of the Army to active duty as members of the board of road commissioners for Alaska, and in the case of any officer so assigned the provisions of so much of section 991 of this title as relates to the assignment of retired officers to active duty shall apply. (Mar. 3, 1911, c. 209, 36 Stat. 1052.)

995. Assignment to command of post temporarily without officers.—When by reason of the movement of troops a post is temporarily left without its regular garrison and with no commissioned officer on duty thereat, the Secretary of War may assign a retired officer of the Army, with his consent, to active duty in charge of such post. The officer so assigned shall perform the duties of commanding officer and also any necessary staff duties at such post, and shall, while in the performance of such duties, receive the full pay and allowances of his grade, subject to the limitations imposed by section 973 of this title. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 418, § 1, 39 Stat. 627.)

996. Assignment to duty at Soldiers' Home.—Retired officers of the Army may be assigned to duty at the Soldiers' Home. (R. S. § 1259; Feb. 27, 1877, c. 69, § 1, 19 Stat. 243; Mar. 3, 1883, c. 134, § 7, 22 Stat. 565.)

997. Eligibility to duty as engineer officers.—When retired officers of the Army, any portion of whose active service was in the Corps of Engineers, are called back into active service they shall be eligible to fill any position required by law to be filled by an officer of the Corps of Engineers. (June 15, 1917, c. 31, 40 Stat. 231.)

998. Detail of retired officer as adjutant general of District of Columbia Militia.—The President of the United States may detail as adjutant general of the District of Columbia Militia any retired officer of the Army who may be nominated to the President by the brigadier general commanding the District of Columbia Militia, said retired officer while so detailed to have the active service pay and allowances of his rank in the Regular Army. (June 6, 1900, c. 811, 31 Stat. 671.)

999. Status of retired officers on active duty.—When any retired officer of the Army is, in the discretion of the President, employed on active duty and assigned to duty in an arm, corps, department, or organization, he shall, for all purposes, except promotion, be considered an officer of such arm, corps, department, or organization while so serving, and shall be an extra number therein. (July 9, 1918, c. 143, subchapter XX, 40 Stat. 893.)

PROMOTION OF OFFICERS ON RETIRED LIST

1011. Active duty performed by retired officers.—Except as provided in the next following section any retired officer, who has been detailed on active duty, shall receive the rank, pay, and allowances of the grade, not above that of colonel, that he would have attained in due course of promotion if he had remained on the active list for a period beyond the date of his retirement equal to the total amount of time during which he has been detailed to active duty since his retirement. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 51, 41 Stat. 785.)

1012. Active duty performed after June 30, 1922.—Active duty performed after June 30, 1922, by an officer on the retired list or its equivalent shall not entitle such officer to promotion. (June 10, 1922, c. 224, § 6, 43 Stat. 252.)

1013. Active duty prior to July 1, 1922; attendance on course of preparatory instructions.—Duty performed prior to July 1, 1922, by retired officers of the Regular Army and duty performed prior to June 10, 1922, by retired officers of the Philippine Scouts, pursuant to War Department orders issued or purporting to have been issued under sections 386 or 1181, respectively, of this title, including, in either case, temporary duty for attendance on any course of preparatory instruction required by such order, shall be construed to be active duty for the purpose of promotion of such retired officers on the retired list, within the meaning of sections 1011 and 1012 of this title. (Mar. 3, 1925, c. 411, § 4, 43 Stat. 1100.)

1014. Commissions to officers promoted on retired list.—Commissioned officers of the Army, Navy, and Marine Corps on the retired list whose rank has been or shall hereafter be advanced by operation of or in accordance with law shall be entitled to and shall receive commissions in accordance with such advanced rank. (Mar. 4, 1911, c. 266, 36 Stat. 1354.)

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

1021. Number of retired officers on limited list.—The whole number of officers of the Army on the retired list shall not at any time exceed three hundred and fifty, and any less number to be allowed thereon may be fixed by the President in his discretion: Provided, That officers who have been placed on the retired list by special authority of Congress and officers retired for physical disability shall not form part of the limited retired list established hereby. (R. S. § 1258; Feb. 16, 1891, c. 238, 26 Stat. 763; Sept. 17, 1919, c. 61, 41 Stat. 286.)

1022. Transfers from limited to unlimited list.—When officers who have been placed on the limited retired list as established by section 1021 of this title, shall have attained the age of sixty-four years they shall be transferred from said limited retired list to the unlimited list of officers retired by operation of law because of having attained said age of sixty-four years. (Feb. 16, 1891, c. 238, 26 Stat. 763.)

1023. Rights and liabilities of retired officers.—Officers retired from active service shall be entitled to wear the uniform of the rank on which they may be retired. They shall continue to be borne on the Army Register, and shall be subject to the rules and articles of war, and to trial by general court-martial for any breach thereof. (R. S. § 1256.)

1024. Status of retired officers.—Officers retired from active service shall be withdrawn from command and from the line of promotion. (R. S. § 1255.)

1025. Rank on retirement generally.—Officers retired from active service shall be retired upon the actual rank held by them at the date of retirement. (R. S. § 1254.)

1026. Rank on retirement after service as chief.—Any officer who shall have served four years as chief of a branch, and who may subsequently be retired, shall be retired with the rank, pay and allowances authorized by law for the grade held by him as such chief. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 4, 41 Stat. 762.)

1027. Advanced rank for service on Panama Canal.—Such officers of the Army and Navy as were detailed for duty with the Isthmian Canal Commission on the Isthmus of Panama for more than three years, and who shall not have been advanced in rank for such service by any provision of law, shall be advanced one grade in rank upon retirement. (Mar. 4, 1915, c. 167, § 3, 38 Stat. 1191.)

1028. Right to retirement for service on Panama Canal.—Any officer of the Army to be benefited by the provisions of section 1027 of this title, may at any time, on his own application, be retired by the President at 75 per centum of the pay of the rank upon which he is retired. (Mar. 4, 1915, c. 167, § 6, 38 Stat. 1191.)

1077. Professor of English and history.—The head of the department of English and history shall have the same status as the professors at the head of the other departments of instruction at the Military Academy, and the President of the United States is authorized, by and with the consent of the Senate, to appoint a civilian in the department of English and history, United States Military Academy, a professor at the Military Academy, with the rank, pay, allowances, title, and status of the other professors: Provided further, That the provisions of law relating to retirement for disability in line of duty shall not apply in the case of this professor until after he shall have served fifteen years at the Military Academy. (Apr. 19, 1910, c. 174, 36 Stat. 312.)

1078. Assistant professors of English and history.—Two assistant professors shall be authorized in the department of English and history, one for English and one for history. (Aug. 9, 1912, c. 275, 37 Stat. 252.)

1079. Rank and right of command of academic staff.—The professors and the associate professor of the United States Military Academy shall have the actual rank in the United States Army assigned to them by assimilation in the regulations of the Military Academy prescribed by the President of the United States, and they shall exercise command only in the academic department of the United States Military Academy. (June 28, 1902, c. 1300, 32 Stat. 409.)

1080. Retirement of professors.—The professors of the Military Academy at West Point are placed on the same footing, as to retirement from active service, as officers of the Army. (R. S. § 1333.)

1081. Right of academic staff to command in Army.—The academic staff as such shall not be entitled to any command in the Army separate from the academy. (R. S. § 1314.)

1082. Custodian of gymnasium.—The custodian of gymnasium shall be selected and appointed by the Superintendent of the Military Academy under Schedule A, classified positions excepted from examination under rule 2, clause 3, civil-service rules, who shall be qualified to act as trainer for the various cadet athletic teams. (Mar. 3, 1911, c. 207, 36 Stat. 1019.)

1083. Chaplain.—The duties of chaplain at the Military Academy shall be performed by a clergyman to be appointed by the President for a term of four years, and the said chaplain shall be eligible for reappointment for an additional term or terms. (Feb. 18, 1896, c. 22, 29 Stat. 8.)

1084. Filling vacancies.—The President of the United States is authorized to fill any vacancy occurring at said academy by reason of death, or other cause, of any person appointed by him. (Mar. 3, 1875, c. 135, § 1, 18 Stat. 466.)

1085. Master of the sword.—The master of the sword shall act as instructor of military gymnastics and physical culture at the Military Academy, and shall have the relative rank and shall be entitled to the pay, allowances, and emoluments of a major: Provided, however, That whenever a vacancy shall occur in the office of master of the sword and instructor of military gymnastics and physical culture the said office shall cease and determine, and the duties thereunto pertaining shall thereafter be performed by an officer of the line of the Army to be selected for that purpose by the Secretary of War. (Mar. 2, 1901, c. 804, 31 Stat. 914; May 29, 1917, c. 22, 40 Stat. 90.)

CADETS

1091. Number, territorial distribution, and appointment.—The Corps of Cadets of the United States Military Academy shall consist of two from each congressional district, two from each Territory, four from the District of Columbia, two from natives of Porto Rico, four from each State at large, and eighty-two from the United States at large, twenty of whom shall be selected from among the honor graduates of educational institutions having officers of the Regular Army detailed as professors of military science and tactics under existing law or any law hereafter enacted for the detail of officers of the Regular Army to such institutions, and which institutions are designated as "honor schools," upon the determination of their relative standing at the last preceding annual inspection regularly made by the War Department, and two of whom shall be selected from persons recommended by the Vice President. They shall be appointed by the President and shall, with the exception of the eighty-two appointed from the United States at large, be actual residents of the congressional or Territorial district, or of the District of Columbia, or of the island of Porto Rico, or of the States, respectively, from which they purport to be appointed. (July 9, 1918, c. 143, subchapter XXII, 40 Stat. 894.)

1092. Appointment of enlisted men of Regular Army and National Guard.—The President is hereby authorized to appoint cadets to the United States Military Academy from among enlisted men in number as nearly equal as practicable of the Regular Army and the National Guard between the ages of nineteen and twenty-two years who have served as enlisted men not less than one year, to be selected under such regulations as the President may prescribe: Provided, That the total number so selected shall not exceed one hundred and eighty at any one time. (May 4, 1916, c. 110, § 2, 39 Stat. 62.)

1093. Filipino cadets authorized.—The Secretary of War is hereby authorized to permit not exceeding four Filipinos, to be designated, one for each class, by the Governor General of the Philippine Islands, to receive instruction at the United States Military Academy at West Point: Provided, That the Filipinos undergoing instruction, as herein authorized, shall receive the same pay, allowances, and emoluments as are authorized by law for cadets at the Military Academy appointed from the United States, to be paid out of the same appropriations: And provided further, That said Filipinos undergoing instruction on graduation shall be eligible only to commissions in the Philippine Scouts. And the provisions of section 1321, Revised Statutes, are modified in the case of the Filipinos undergoing instruction, so as to require them to engage to serve for eight years, unless sooner discharged, in the Philippine Scouts. (May 28, 1908, c. 214, 35 Stat. 441; Aug. 11, 1916, c. 314, 39 Stat. 493.)

1094. Age for admission.—Appointees shall be admitted to the academy only between the ages of seventeen and twenty-two years. (Mar. 30, 1920, c. 112, 41 Stat. 548.)

1095. Physical examination of candidates.—Any candidate designated as principal or alternate for appointment as cadet may present himself at any time for physical examination at West Point, New York, or other prescribed places, as may be designated by the Secretary of War. (Aug. 9, 1912, c. 275, 37 Stat. 252.)

1096. Examination as to preliminary education.—Appointees shall be examined under regulations to be framed by the Secretary of War before they shall be admitted to the academy and shall be required to be well versed in such subjects as he may, from time to time, prescribe. (Mar. 2, 1901, c. 804, 31 Stat. 911.)

1097. Time for admission to academy.—Cadets appointed to the Military Academy at West Point, New York, may be admitted on the 1st day of March in place of the 1st day of June. (Mar. 2, 1907, c. 2508, 34 Stat. 1063.)

1098. Appointment in advance of time of admission.—Cadets shall be appointed one year in advance of the time of their admission to the academy, except in cases where, by reason of death or other cause, a vacancy occurs which cannot be provided for by such appointment in advance; but no pay or other allowance shall be given to any appointee until he shall have been regularly admitted, as herein provided; and all appointments shall be conditional, until such provisions shall have been complied with. (R. S. § 1317.)

1099. Oath or affirmation on admission.—Each cadet shall, previous to his admission to the academy, take and subscribe an oath or affirmation in the following form:

"I, A B, do solemnly swear that I will support the Constitution of the United States, and bear true allegiance to the National Government; that I will maintain and defend the sovereignty of the United States, paramount to any and all allegiance, sovereignty, or fealty I may owe to any State, county, or country whatsoever; and that I will at all times obey the legal orders of my superior officers, and the rules and articles governing the armies of the United States."

And any cadet or candidate for admission who shall refuse to take this oath shall be dismissed from the service. (R. S. § 1320.)

1100. Failure of cadet to graduate with class as affecting admission of successor.—Whenever any member of the graduating class shall fail to complete the course with his class by reason of sickness, or deficiency in his studies, or other cause, such failure shall not operate to delay the admission of his successor. (Mar. 30, 1920, c. 112, 41 Stat. 548.)

1101. Engagement for period of service.—Each cadet shall sign articles, with the consent of his parents or guardian if he be a minor, and if any he have, by which he shall engage to serve eight years unless sooner discharged. (R. S. § 1321.)

1102. Place and character of service.—Cadets shall be subject at all times to do duty in such places and on such service as the President may direct. (R. S. § 1323.)

1103. Reexamination of cadet found deficient in one subject.—Whenever a cadet shall fail to pass any required examination because deficient in any one subject of instruction he shall have the right to apply for a second examination regarding such subject by making written application therefor to the academic board within ten days after being officially notified of such failure. The examination demanded shall be held within sixty days from the date of such application, and if the cadet being otherwise qualified shall pass the same by compliance with the requirements existing at the time of the first examination, he shall be readmitted to the academy: Provided, That any cadet who fails to pass any required examination shall have no more than one reexamination. (Aug. 11, 1916, c. 314, 39 Stat. 493.)

1104. Effect of discharge for deficiency.—No cadet who is reported as deficient, in either conduct or studies, and recommended to be discharged from the academy, shall, unless upon recommendation of the academic board, be returned or reappointed, or appointed to any place in the Army before his class shall have left the academy and received their commissions. (R. S. § 1325.)

1105. Cadet battalion.—The Corps of Cadets shall be arranged into companies, according to the directions of the superintendent, each of which shall be commanded by an officer of the Army, for the purpose of military instruction. To each company shall be added four musicians. The corps shall be taught and trained in all the duties of a private soldier, noncommissioned officer, and officer, shall be encamped at least three months in each year, and shall be taught and trained in all the duties incident to a regular camp. (R. S. § 1322.)

1106. Uniforms, accouterments, and equipment.—Uniforms, accouterments, and equipment shall, upon the request of any cadet at the Military Academy, be furnished by the Government at cost, subject to such restrictions and regulations as the Secretary of War may prescribe. (Aug. 31, 1918, c. 166, § 9, 40 Stat. 957.)

ENLISTED MEN

1111. Number of enlisted men in Engineer detachment.—There shall be maintained at the United States Military Academy an Engineer detachment, which shall consist of one first sergeant, one quartermaster sergeant, eight sergeants, ten corporals, two cooks, two musicians, thirty-eight first-class privates, and thirty-eight second-class privates: Provided, That nothing herein shall be so construed as to authorize an increase in the total number of enlisted men of the Army authorized by law. (Aug. 9, 1912, c. 275, 37 Stat. 254.)

1112. Number of enlisted men in general Army service and Cavalry detachments.—The detachments of enlisted men at the Military Academy, formerly designated as the general Army service (Quartermaster's Department), and the Cavalry detachment, shall be fixed at such numbers, not exceeding two hundred and fifteen enlisted men in both detachments, as in the opinion of the Secretary of War the necessities of the public service may from time to time require; but the number of enlisted men of the Army shall not be increased on account of the provision of this section. (Feb. 10, 1897, c. 214, 29 Stat. 519.)

PROPERTY, BUILDINGS, AND GROUNDS

1121. Purchase of supplies for departments of instruction.—All technical and scientific supplies for the departments of instruction of the Military Academy shall be purchased by contract or otherwise, as the Secretary of War may deem best. (June 30, 1922, c. 253, Title I, 42 Stat. 753; Mar. 2, 1923, c. 178, Title I, 42 Stat. 1414.)

1122. Sale of surplus or unserviceable machinery, supplies, apparatus, etc.—When any machinery, apparatus, implements, supplies, or materials which have been heretofore or may hereafter be purchased or acquired from appropriations made for the support of the United States Military Academy are no longer needed or are no longer serviceable, they may be sold in such manner as the superintendent may direct; and that the proceeds shall be turned into the Treasury as miscellaneous receipts. (Mar. 4, 1919, c. 124, 40 Stat. 1347.)

1123. Charges for use of wharf and ferry slip.—The Secretary of War is authorized to have collected from vessels using the wharf and ferry slip at West Point, New York, such wharfage dues as he may deem just, reasonable, and necessary, the same to be paid at the time of landing to the post quartermaster or his authorized agent. (Mar. 4, 1915, c. 146, 38 Stat. 1137.)

1124. Proceeds of gas.—All proceeds of sales of gas shall be paid into the post fund. (Mar. 1, 1893, c. 186, 27 Stat. 520.)

1125. Memorial hall.—The memorial hall shall be a receptacle of statues, busts, mural tablets, and portraits of distinguished and deceased officers and graduates of the Military Academy, of paintings of battle scenes, trophies of war, and such other objects as may tend to give elevation to the military profession; and to prevent the introduction of unworthy subjects into this hall the selection of each shall be made by not less than two-thirds of the members of the entire academic board of the United States Military Academy, the vote being taken by ayes and nays and to be so recorded. (July 23, 1892, c. 237, § 6, 27 Stat. 263.)

1126. Buildings for religious worship.—The Secretary of War, in his discretion, may authorize the erection of a building for religious worship by any denomination, sect, or religion on the West Point Military Reservation: Provided, That the erection of such building will not interfere with the uses of said reservation for military purposes. Said building shall be erected without any expense whatever to the Government of the United States, and shall be removed from the reservation, or its location changed by the denomination, sect, or religious body erecting the same whenever, in the opinion of the Secretary of War, public or military necessity shall require it, and without compensation for such building or any other expense whatever to the Government. (July 8, 1898, c. 636, 30 Stat. 722.)

1127. Contingent fund.—All funds arising from the rent of the hotel on academy grounds, and other incidental sources, are hereby made a special contingent fund to be expended under the supervision of the superintendent of the academy, and he is required to account for the same annually, accompanied by proper vouchers to the Secretary of War. (May 1, 1888, c. 212, 25 Stat. 112.)

PAY AND ALLOWANCES

1131. Superintendent; commandant of cadets.—The Superintendent of the Military Academy shall have the pay of a colonel, and the commandant of cadets shall have the pay of a lieutenant colonel. (R. S. § 1334.)

1132. Adjutant.—The adjutant of the Military Academy shall have the pay of an adjutant of a Cavalry regiment. (R. S. § 1335.)

1133. Professors and instructors generally.—Each of the professors of the Military Academy whose service as professor at the academy exceeds ten years shall have the pay and allowances of colonel, and all other professors shall have the pay and allowances of lieutenant colonels; and the instructors of ordnance and science of gunnery and of practical engineering shall have the pay and allowances of major; and hereafter there shall be allowed and paid to the said professors 10 per centum of their current yearly pay for each and every term of five years' service in the Army and at the academy: Provided, That such addition shall in no case exceed 40 per centum of said yearly pay; and said professors are hereby placed upon the same footing, as regards restrictions upon pay and retirement from active service, as officers of the Army. (R. S. § 1336; June 23, 1879, c. 35, § 4, 21 Stat. 34.)

1134. Associate professor of mathematics.—The associate professor of mathematics shall have the pay and allowances of a major, and the position shall be filled by the detail of an officer from the Army at large. (Mar. 3, 1905, c. 1404, 33 Stat. 850.)

1135. Assistant professors; senior assistant instructors of tactics.—Each assistant professor and each senior assistant instructor of Cavalry, Artillery, and Infantry tactics shall receive the pay of a captain. (R. S. § 1337; Feb. 27, 1877, c. 69, § 1, 19 Stat. 244.)

1136. Assistant instructors of tactics commanding cadet companies.—The assistant instructors of tactics commanding cadet companies at West Point shall receive the same pay and allowances as assistant professors in the other branches of study. (Mar. 3, 1875, c. 135, 18 Stat. 467.)

1137. Chaplain.—The chaplain of the Military Academy shall, while serving, receive the same pay and allowances as are allowed to a captain mounted. (Feb. 18, 1896, c. 22, 29 Stat. 8.)

1138. Quarters, fuel, and light for civilian instructors.—The civilian instructors employed in the departments of modern languages and tactics shall be entitled to public quarters, fuel, and light. (Feb. 12, 1925, c. 225, Title I, 43 Stat. 919.)

1139. Quarters, fuel, and light for chapel organist and choirmaster.—The chapel organist and choirmaster shall be entitled to public quarters when available and to the same allowances with respect to fuel and light as those of a second lieutenant when occupying public quarters. (Aug. 11, 1916, c. 314, 39 Stat. 497.)

1140. Military Academy band.—The teacher of music shall receive the pay and have the rank of a first lieutenant, not mounted; the enlisted band sergeant and assistant leader shall receive $972 per year; and of the enlisted musicians of the band, fifteen shall each receive $51 per month, fifteen shall receive $44 per month, and the remaining twenty shall each receive $38 per month, and each of the aforesaid enlisted men shall also be entitled to the clothing, fuel, rations, and other allowances of musicians of the Regular Army; and the said teacher of music, the band sergeant and assistant leader, and the enlisted musicians of the band shall be entitled to the same benefits in respect to pay, emoluments, and retirement arising from longevity, reenlistment, and length of service as are, or may hereafter become, applicable to other officers or enlisted men of the Army. (June 27, 1918, c. 108, 40 Stat. 623.)

1141. Overseer of waterworks.—From any appropriation that may be made for waterworks a sum not to exceed 75 cents per day may be paid as extra-duty pay to the overseer, when such overseer is a soldier detailed for that duty. (Mar. 2, 1901, c. 804, 31 Stat. 920.)

1142. Additional pay for enlisted men on special duty.—The noncommissioned officer in charge of mechanics and other labor at the Military Academy, the soldier acting as clerk in the adjutant's office, and the four enlisted men in the philosophical and chemical departments and lithographic office, shall receive $50 a year additional pay. (R. S. § 1341.)

1143. Leave of absence granted by Secretary of War to superintendent.—The Secretary of War may grant the superintendent of the academy leave of absence without deduction from pay or allowances for the same period that the superintendent may grant leave of absence to other officers of the academy under the provisions of section 1144 of this title. (Aug. 9, 1912, c. 275, 37 Stat. 263.)

1144. Leaves of absence granted by superintendent.—Leaves of absence may be granted by the superintendent, under regulations prescribed by the Secretary of War, to the professors, assistant professors, instructors, and other officers of the academy, for the entire period of the suspension of the ordinary academic studies, without deduction from pay or allowances. (R. S. § 1330.)

1145. Leave of absence to constructing quartermaster.—The constructing quartermaster, United States Military Academy, is hereby exempted from all laws and regulations relative to employment and to granting leaves of absence to employees with pay while employed on construction work at the Military Academy. (June 30, 1922, c. 253, Title I, 42 Stat. 754; Mar. 2, 1923, c. 178, Title I, 42 Stat. 1416; June 7, 1924, c. 291, Title I, 43 Stat. 505; Feb. 12, 1925, c. 225, Title I, 43 Stat. 919.)

1146. Pay and allowances of cadets.—Cadets at the Military Academy shall receive the same pay and allowances as are now or may be provided by law for midshipmen in the Navy. (June 10, 1922, c. 212, § 19, 42 Stat. 632.)

1147. Traveling expenses of candidates for cadetships.—The actual and necessary traveling expenses of candidates while proceeding from their homes to the Military Academy for qualification as cadets shall, if admitted, be credited to their accounts and paid after admission from the appropriation for the transportation of the Army and its supplies. (June 28, 1902, c. 1300, 32 Stat. 409.)

1148. Rations or commutation for cadets.—Cadets shall be entitled to one ration per day, or commutation therefor, such commutation to be at the rate of $1.08 per ration. (June 28, 1902, c. 1300, 32 Stat. 409; May 28, 1908, c. 214, 35 Stat. 460; June 30, 1921, c. 33, § 1, 42 Stat. 77.)

1149. Credit to new cadets for clothing and equipment issue.—Each new cadet shall, upon admission to the United States Military Academy, be credited with the sum of $250 to cover the cost of his initial clothing and equipment issue, to be deducted subsequently from his pay. (June 30, 1921, c. 33, § 1, 42 Stat. 95.)

1150. Pay after graduation and before qualification under commission.—Every cadet who has graduated or may graduate at the West Point Military Academy, and who has been or may be commissioned a second lieutenant in the Army of the United States, under the laws appointing such graduates to the Army, shall be allowed full pay as second lieutenant from the date of his graduation to the date of his acceptance of and qualification under his commission and during his graduation leave, in accordance with the uniform practice which has prevailed since the establishment of the Military Academy. (Dec. 20, 1886, c. 2, 24 Stat. 351.)

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

1161. Military Academy band.—The Military Academy band shall hereafter consist of one teacher of music, who shall be the leader of the band, one enlisted band sergeant and assistant leader, and of fifty enlisted musicians. (June 27, 1918, c. 108, 40 Stat. 623.)

1162. Government publications furnished to library.—The library of the United States Military Academy is constituted a designated depository of Government publications, and the Superintendent of Documents shall supply one copy of said publications, in the same form as supplied to other depositories, to said library. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 98, 28 Stat. 624.)

1163. Hazing.—The Superintendent of the United States Military Academy, subject to the approval of the Secretary of War, shall make appropriate regulations for putting a stop to the practice of hazing, such regulations to prescribe dismissal, suspension, or other adequate punishments for infractions of the same, and to embody a clear definition of hazing.

Any cadet who shall be charged with offenses under such regulations which would involve his dismissal from the academy shall be granted, upon his written request, a trial by a general court-martial, and any cadet dismissed from the academy for hazing shall not thereafter be reappointed to the Corps of Cadets nor be eligible for appointment as a commissioned officer in the Army or Navy or Marine Corps until two years after the graduation of the class of which he was a member. (Apr. 19, 1910, c. 174, 36 Stat. 323.)

Chapter 28.—SERVICE SCHOOLS, POST SCHOOLS, AND MILITARY INSTRUCTION IN EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS.

Sec.
1171. Cavalry School at Fort Riley.
1172. Post and garrison schools for enlisted men.
1173. Second lieutenants assigned to Field Artillery School at Fort Sill for instruction.
1174. School detachments of enlisted men at service schools.
1175. Translator for Army service schools.
1176. Instruction of soldiers in addition to military training.
1177. Vocational training.
1178. Application by retired officer for detail as professor in college.
1179. Sale of Army stores to educational institutions.
1180. Military equipment for certain schools and colleges.
1181. Detail of officers, warrant officers, and enlisted men to certain schools and colleges.

Section 1171. Cavalry School at Fort Riley.—The Secretary of War is hereby authorized and directed to establish upon the military reservation at Fort Riley a permanent school of instruction for drill and practice for the Cavalry of the Army of the United States, and which shall be the depot to which all recruits for such service shall be sent. (Jan. 29, 1887, c. 72, § 1, 24 Stat. 372.)

1172. Post and garrison schools for enlisted men.—Schools shall be established at all posts, garrisons, and permanent camps at which troops are stationed, in which the enlisted men may be instructed in the common English branches of education, and especially in the history of the United States; and the Secretary of War may detail such officers and enlisted men as may be necessary to carry out this provision. It shall be the duty of the post or garrison commander to set apart a suitable room or building for school and religious purposes. (R. S. § 1231.)

1173. Second lieutenants assigned to Field Artillery School at Fort Sill for instruction.—Officers in the grade of second lieutenant in the Field Artillery may be assigned, for the period of one year, to batteries stationed at the School of Fire for Field Artillery at Fort Sill, Oklahoma, for the purpose of pursuing courses of practical instruction in Field Artillery. (May 12, 1917, c. 12, 40 Stat. 41.)

1174. School detachments of enlisted men at service schools.—From the enlisted force of the Army provided by law the President may authorize the organization of school detachments at each of the service schools, and may authorize the appointment therein of such noncommissioned officers, mechanics, artificers, farriers, horseshoers, and cooks as may be necessary for the administration of such school: Provided, That nothing herein shall be construed as to authorize an increase in the total number of enlisted men of the Army authorized by law. (Mar. 3, 1909, c. 252, 35 Stat. 733.)

1175. Translator for Army service schools.—Not exceeding $100 per month may be used for the payment of one translator, to be appointed by the commandant of the Army service schools with the approval of the Secretary of War. (May 12, 1917, c. 12, 40 Stat. 41.)

1176. Instruction of soldiers in addition to military training.—In addition to military training, soldiers while in the active service shall hereafter be given the opportunity to study and receive instruction upon educational lines of such character as to increase their military efficiency and enable them to return to civil life better equipped for industrial, commercial, and general business occupations. Civilian teachers may be employed to aid the Army officers in giving such instruction, and part of this instruction may consist of vocational education either in agriculture or the mechanic arts. The Secretary of War, with the approval of the President, shall prescribe rules and regulations for conducting the instruction herein provided for, and the Secretary of War shall have the power at all times to suspend, increase, or decrease the amount of such instruction offered as may in his judgment be consistent with the requirements of military instruction and service of the soldiers. (June 3, 1916, c. 134, § 27, 39 Stat. 186.)

1177. Vocational training.—The Secretary of War may, in his discretion, in order to carry out the provision of section 1176 of this title authorizing vocational education for enlisted men consisting in either agriculture or the mechanic arts, select one or more and not exceeding three regiments of Infantry, Cavalry, or Field Artillery to be stationed at a regimental post within the continental limits of the United States on or before July 1, 1917, and may transfer from such regiment to other organizations any enlisted man or men who do not desire educational or vocational training and instruction such as is contemplated by said section and may transfer thereto from other organizations a number of enlisted men to be selected under such rules and regulations as he may prescribe who do desire such instruction and training or may receive recruits thereto sufficient to bring the enlisted strength of the regiment up to that authorized by law. During such part of the year beginning July 1, 1917, and thereafter as the enlisted men of the regiment so selected shall not be engaged on field service or in field training they shall be under training or instruction nine hours of each day, or as near that number of hours as possible, Sundays and holidays excepted, at least three hours of each day to be devoted to military training and six hours of each day, or as nearly that as possible, to educational and vocational training and instruction such as is contemplated by said section. The educational and vocational training to be had under civilian instructors employed for that purpose under such rules and regulations as the Secretary of War shall prescribe. Said civilian instructors, as well as the discipline of the said post, shall be under the jurisdiction of the military authorities, under such rules and regulations as the Secretary of War may prescribe. (May 12, 1917, c. 12, 40 Stat. 59.)

1178. Application by retired officer for detail as professor in college.—Any retired officer may, on his own application, be detailed to serve as professor in any college. But while so serving such officer shall be allowed no additional compensation. (R. S. § 1260; Feb. 27, 1877, c. 69, § 1, 19 Stat. 242.)

1179. Sale of Army stores to educational institutions.—Under such regulations as the Secretary of War may prescribe, educational institutions to which an officer of the Army is detailed as professor of military science and tactics may purchase from the War Department for cash, for the use of their military students, such stores, supplies, matériel of war, and military publications as are furnished to the Army, such sales to be at the price listed to the Army with the cost of transportation added: Provided, That all moneys received from the sale of stores, supplies, matériel of war, and military publications to educational institutions to which an officer of the Army is detailed as professor of military science and tactics shall respectively revert to that appropriation out of which they were originally expended and shall be applied to the purposes for which they are appropriated by law. (July 17, 1914, c. 149, 38 Stat. 512.)

1180. Military equipment for certain schools and colleges.—The Secretary of War is authorized, under such regulations as he may prescribe, to issue such arms, tentage, and equipment as he shall deem necessary for proper military training to schools and colleges, other than those provided for in section 381 of this title, having a course of military training prescribed by the Secretary of War and having not less than one hundred physically fit male students above the age of fourteen years. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 35, 41 Stat. 780.)

1181. PROCUREMENT OF STORES, SUPPLIES, AND SERVICES

Duties of Quartermaster General as to procurement of supplies, see section 72 of this title.

Section 1191. Authority to make purchases, and so forth; settlement with contractors and purchasing agents.—All purchases and contracts for supplies or services for the military service shall be made by or under the direction of the chief officers of the Department of War. And all agents or contractors for supplies or services as aforesaid shall render their accounts for settlement to the accountant of the proper department for which such supplies or services are required, subject, nevertheless, to the inspection and revision of the General Accounting Office. (R. S. § 3714; Feb. 27, 1877, c. 69, § 1, 19 Stat. 249; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

1192. Regulations governing purchase, transportation, storage, and distribution.—The Secretary of War shall from time to time define and prescribe the kinds as well as the amount of supplies to be purchased by the Quartermaster Corps of the Army, and the duties and powers thereof respecting such purchases; and shall prescribe general regulations for the transportation of the articles of supply from the places of purchase to the several armies, garrisons, posts, and recruiting places, for the safe-keeping of such articles, and for the distribution of an adequate and timely supply of the same to the regimental quartermasters, and to such other officers as may by virtue of such regulations be intrusted with the same; and shall fix and make reasonable allowances for the store rent and storage necessary for the safe-keeping of all military stores and supplies. (R. S. § 219.)

1193. Supervisory authority of Assistant Secretary of War.—In addition to such other duties as may be assigned him by the Secretary of War, the Assistant Secretary of War, under the direction of the Secretary of War, shall be charged with supervision of the procurement of all military supplies and other business of the War Department pertaining thereto and the assurance of adequate provision for the mobilization of matériel and industrial organizations essential to war-time needs. Under the direction of the Secretary of War chiefs of branches of the Army charged with the procurement of supplies for the Army shall report direct to the Assistant Secretary of War regarding all matters of procurement. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 5, 41 Stat. 764, 765.)

1194. Detail of officers and civilian employees to office of Assistant Secretary of War.—There shall be detailed to the office of the Assistant Secretary of War from the branches engaged in procurement such number of officers and civilian employees as may be authorized by regulations approved by the Secretary of War. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 5, 41 Stat. 765.)

1195. Manufacture at Government arsenals and factories.—The Assistant Secretary of War shall cause to be manufactured or produced at the Government arsenals or Government-owned factories of the United States all such supplies or articles needed by the War Department as said arsenals or Government-owned factories are capable of manufacturing or producing upon an economical basis. And all appropriations for manufacture of matériel pertaining to approved projects, which are placed with arsenals of Government-owned factories or other ordnance establishments shall remain available for such purpose until the close of the next ensuing fiscal year. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 5, 41 Stat. 765.)

1196. Purchase of subsistence stores generally.—So much of the appropriation for subsistence of the Army as may be necessary may be applied to the purchase of subsistence stores for sale to officers for the use of themselves and their families, and to commanders of companies or other organizations, for the use of the enlisted men of their companies or organizations, and the proceeds of all sales of subsistence supplies shall hereafter be exempt from being covered into the Treasury and shall be immediately available for the purchase of fresh supplies. (Mar. 3, 1875, c. 131, § 1, 18 Stat. 410. See section 1281 of this title.)

1197. Purchase of exceptional subsistence stores for officers and enlisted men.—Exceptional articles of subsistence stores for officers and enlisted men, which are to be paid for by them, regardless of condition upon arrival at posts, may, under regulations to be prescribed by the Secretary of War, be obtained by open purchase without advertising. (Feb. 12, 1895, c. 83, 28 Stat. 658.)

1198. Stipulation in contract as to place of delivery of subsistence supplies.—Contracts for subsistence supplies for the Army, made by the Quartermaster General, on public notice, shall provide for a complete delivery of such articles, on inspection, at such places as shall be stipulated. (R. S. § 3715; Aug. 24, 1912, c. 391, § 3, 37 Stat. 591; Apr. 27, 1914, c. 72, 38 Stat. 356.)

1199. Secrecy as to ordnance articles purchased.—Whenever proposals are invited for the furnishing of articles of ordnance property, the character of which or the ingredients thereof are of such a nature that the interests of the public service would be injured by publicly divulging them, the Chief of Ordnance is authorized to purchase such articles in such manner as he may deem most economical and efficient. (May 11, 1908, c. 163, 35 Stat. 125.)

1200. Letting contracts for quartermaster supplies; reports to Secretary of War.—All purchases of regular and miscellaneous supplies for the Army furnished by the Quartermaster Corps for immediate use shall be made by the officers of such corps branch, under direction of the Secretary of War, at the places nearest the points where they are needed, the conditions of cost and quality being equal: Provided, That all purchases of said supplies, except in cases otherwise provided for, and except in cases of emergency, which must be at once reported to the Secretary of War for his approval, shall be made by contract after public notice of not less than ten days for small amounts for immediate use, and of not less than from thirty to sixty days whenever, in the opinion of the Secretary of War, the circumstances of the case and conditions of the service shall warrant such extension of time. The award in every case shall be made to the lowest responsible bidder for the best and most suitable article, the right being reserved to reject any and all bids. (July 5, 1884, c. 217, 23 Stat. 109; Aug. 24, 1912, c. 391, § 3, 37 Stat. 591.)

1201. Advertisement for proposals; considerations governing letting of contracts.—Except in cases of emergency or where it is impracticable to secure competition, or in cases otherwise provided for, the purchase of all supplies for the use of the various departments, and posts of the Army and of the branches of the Army service shall only be made after advertisement; and said supplies shall be purchased where the same can be purchased the cheapest, quality and cost of transportation and the interests of the Government considered. (Mar. 2, 1901, c. 803, 31 Stat. 905. See section 218 of Title 5.)

1202. Advertisement for quartermaster supplies; preference given to domestic products.—The Quartermaster Corps of the Army, in obtaining supplies for the military service, shall state in all advertisements for bids for contracts that a preference shall be given to articles of domestic production and manufacture, conditions of price and quality being equal, and that such preference shall be given to articles of American production and manufacture produced on the Pacific coast, to the extent of the consumption required by the public service there. In advertising for Army supplies the Quartermaster Corps shall require all articles which are to be used in the States and Territories of the Pacific coast to be delivered and inspected at points designated in those States and Territories; and the advertisements for such supplies shall be published in newspapers of the cities of San Francisco, in California, and Portland, in Oregon. (R. S. § 3716.)

1203. Advertisement not required for purchase of medical supplies.—So much of section 5 of Title 41 as requires advertisement before purchase shall not apply to the purchase of medicines and medical supplies for the Medical Department of the Army. (Feb. 27, 1893, c. 168, 27 Stat. 485.)

1204. Advertisement not required for purchase of motor ambulances.—The Secretary of War may, in his discretion, select types and makes of motor ambulances for the Army and authorize their purchase without regard to the laws prescribing advertisement for proposals for supplies and materials for the Army. (June 5, 1920, c. 240, 41 Stat. 967.)

1205. Purchase or procurement of supplies or services in open market.—The purchase of supplies and the procurement of services for all branches of the Army service may be made in open market, in the manner common among business men, when the aggregate of the amount required does not exceed $500; but every such purchase exceeding $100 shall be promptly reported to the Secretary of War for approval, under such regulations as he may prescribe. (June 12, 1906, c. 3078, 34 Stat. 258.)

1206. Purchase of horses in open market.—When practicable, horses for public use in the Army shall be purchased in open market at all military posts or stations, when needed, within a maximum price to be fixed by the Secretary of War. (June 30, 1922, c. 253, Title I, 42 Stat. 731.)

1207. Marking supplies with name of contractor.—Every person who shall furnish supplies of any kind to the Army shall be required to mark and distinguish the same with the name of the contractor furnishing such supplies, in such manner as the Secretary of War may direct; and no supplies of any kind shall be received, unless so marked and distinguished. (R. S. § 3731.)

1208. Material for sacks for artillery cartridges imported free of duty.—When, in the opinion of the Secretary of War, it is necessary to purchase material abroad for the manufacture of sacks for artillery cartridges, it shall be admitted free of duty. (Mar. 15, 1898, c. 69, 30 Stat. 326.)

CONTRACTS REQUIRED TO BE IN WRITING

1221. Contracts of Quartermaster Corps.—Whenever contracts which are not to be performed within sixty days are made on behalf of the Government by the Quartermaster General, or by officers of the Quartermaster Corps authorized to make them, and are in excess of $500 in amount, such contracts shall be reduced to writing and signed by the contracting parties. In all other cases contracts shall be entered into under such regulations as may be prescribed by the Quartermaster General. (Mar. 4, 1915, c. 143, § 1, 38 Stat. 1078.)

1222. Contracts of Ordnance Department.—Whenever contracts which are not to be performed within sixty days are made on behalf of the Government by the Chief of Ordnance, or by officers under him authorized to make them, and are in excess of $500 in amount, such contracts shall be reduced to writing and signed by the contracting parties with their names at the end thereof. In all other cases contracts shall be prepared under such regulations as may be prescribed by the Chief of Ordnance. (Mar. 23, 1910, c. 115, 36 Stat. 261.)

1223. Contracts of Signal Corps.—Whenever contracts which are not to be performed within sixty days are made on behalf of the Government by the Chief Signal Officer, or by officers of the Signal Corps authorized to make them, and are in excess of $500 in amount, such contracts shall be reduced to writing and signed by the contracting parties. In all other cases contracts shall be entered into under such regulations as may be prescribed by the Chief Signal Officer. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 418, § 1, 39 Stat. 622.)

1224. Contracts of Medical Department.—Whenever contracts which are not to be performed within sixty days are made on behalf of the Government by the Surgeon General or by officers of the Medical Department authorized to make them, and are in excess of $500 in amount, such contracts shall be reduced to writing and signed by the contracting parties, but in all other cases contracts shall be prepared under such regulations as may be prescribed by the Surgeon General. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 418, § 1, 39 Stat. 639.)

1225. Contracts of Air Service.—Whenever contracts which are not to be performed within six months are made on behalf of the Government by the Chief of Air Service or by officers of the Air Service authorized to make them, and are in excess of $500 in amount, such contracts shall be reduced to writing and signed by the contracting parties. In all other cases contracts shall be entered into under such regulations as may be prescribed by the Chief of Air Service. (June 30, 1922, c. 253, Title I, 42 Stat. 737.)

SALES TO SOLDIERS, VETERANS, AND CIVILIAN EMPLOYEES

1231. Sale price of quartermaster supplies.—Authorized sales of clothing and other quartermaster supplies shall be for cash or on credit at the average current prices, plus all overhead costs, to be determined and fixed by the Secretary of War. (June 30, 1922, c. 253, Title I, 42 Stat. 729.)

1232. Sale of rations to officers in field.—Commissioned officers of the Army, serving in the field, may purchase rations for their own use, from any quartermaster, on credit, at cost prices; and the amounts due for such purchases shall be reported monthly to the Finance Department. (R. S. § 1145.)

1233. Sale of Navy stores to officers and men of Army.—The officers and the enlisted men of the Army shall be permitted to purchase subsistence supplies from the Navy and Marine Corps at the same price as is charged the officers and the enlisted men of the Navy and Marine Corps. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 418, § 1, 39 Stat. 630.)

1234. Sale of quartermaster property to officers of Navy and Marine Corps for use in public service.—Articles of serviceable quartermaster property may be sold by the Quartermaster General of the Army to officers of the Navy and Marine Corps, for their use in the public service, in the same manner as these articles are now sold to officers of the Army. (Mar. 4, 1915, c. 143, § 1, 38 Stat. 1079.)

1235. Sale of subsistence stores to veterans receiving medical treatment.—Honorably discharged officers and enlisted men of the Army who are being cared for and are receiving medical treatment from the Public Health Service shall, while undergoing such care and treatment, be permitted to purchase subsistence stores and articles of other authorized supplies, except articles of the uniform, from the Army, Navy, and Marine Corps at the same price as charged the officers and enlisted men of the Army, Navy, and Marine Corps. (June 5, 1920, c. 240, 41 Stat. 976.)

1236. Sale of medical supplies to civilian employees.—Civilian employees of the Army stationed at military posts may, under regulations to be made by the Secretary of War, purchase necessary medical supplies when prescribed by a medical officer of the Army. (Apr. 23, 1904, c. 1485, 33 Stat. 273.)

SALES, TRANSFERS, AND LOANS TO OTHER DEPARTMENTS, BUREAUS OR ORGANIZATIONS

Transfer of mounted equipment to metropolitan police, see section 214 of Title 5.

Transfer of motor vehicles to branches of Government service, see section 218 of Title 5.

1251. Transfer of surplus explosives to other departments of Government.—The Secretary of War is authorized to turn over on request from other executive departments of the Government, in his discretion, from time to time, without charge therefor, such ammunition, explosives, and other ammunition components as may prove to be or shall become surplus or unsuitable for the purposes of the War Department and as shall be suitable for use in the proper activities of other executive departments. (July 11, 1919, c. 8, subchapter IV, 41 Stat. 130.)

1252. Loan of tents.—No loan of tents shall be made except to the Grand Army of the Republic, the United Confederate Veterans, the United Spanish War Veterans, and to recognized organizations of veterans of the late World War by whatever name they may be known. (Mar. 2, 1913, No. 11, 37 Stat. 1025; July 26, 1919, c. 28, 41 Stat. 272.)

1253. Price charged for subsistence supplies.—When under the Army Regulations subsistence supplies are furnished to another bureau of the War Department, or to another executive department of the Government or employees thereof, payment therefor shall be made in cash by the proper disbursing officer of the bureau, office, or department concerned, or by the employee to whom the sale is made. When the transaction is between two bureaus of the War Department the price to be charged shall be the contract or invoice price of the supplies. When the transaction is between the Quartermaster Corps and another executive department of the Government or employees thereof, the price to be charged shall include the contract or invoice price and 10 per centum additional to cover wastage in transit, and the cost of transportation. (Mar. 3, 1911, c. 209, 36 Stat. 1047.)

1254. Sale of medical supplies and equipment to Red Cross.—With the approval of the Secretary of War and at rates of charge of not less than the contract prices paid therefor plus 25 per centum to cover the cost of purchase, inspection, and so forth, the Medical Department of the Army may sell for cash to the American National Red Cross such medical supplies and equipments as can be spared without detriment to the military service. (Mar. 4, 1915, c. 143, § 1, 38 Stat. 1080.)

1255. Loan to Red Cross of articles required for instruction and practice.—The Secretary of War is authorized to issue, at his discretion and under proper regulations to be prescribed by him, out of equipment for medical and other establishments on hand, belonging to the Government and which can be temporarily spared, such articles as may appear to be required for instruction and practice by organizations formed by the American National Red Cross, for the purpose of rendering aid to the Army and Navy in war. (May 8, 1914, No. 15, § 1, 38 Stat. 771.)

1257. Transfer of material to Chief of Engineers.—The Secretary of War is authorized and empowered, in his discretion, to transfer, free of charge, to the Chief of Engineers, United States Army, for use in the execution, under his direction, of any civil work or works authorized by Congress, such material, supplies, instruments, vehicles, machinery, or other equipment pertaining to the Military Establishment as are or may hereafter be found to be surplus and no longer required for military purposes. (June 5, 1920, c. 252, § 8, 41 Stat. 1015.)

SALES OR LEASES TO PUBLIC

Sale of dental outfits, see section 212 of Title 5.

1261. Stores unsuitable for public service.—The President may cause to be sold any military stores which, upon proper inspection or survey, appear to be damaged, or unsuitable for the public service. Such inspection or survey shall be made by officers designated by the Secretary of War, and the sales shall be made under regulations prescribed by him. (R. S. § 1241.)

1262. Sale of surplus war material to States and foreign governments.—The Secretary of War is hereby authorized, in his discretion, to sell to any State or foreign government with which the United States is at peace, upon such terms as he may deem expedient, any matériel, supplies, or equipment pertaining to the Military Establishment, except foodstuffs, as or may be found to be surplus, which are not needed for military purposes and for which there is no adequate domestic market. (June 5, 1920, c. 240, 41 Stat. 949.)

1263. Real property required for Army storage.—The President is hereby authorized, through the head of any executive department, upon terms and conditions considered advisable by him or such head of department, to sell or lease real property or any interest therein or appurtenant thereto acquired by the United States of America since April 6, 1917, for storage purposes for the use of the Army, which in the judgment of the President or the head of such department is no longer needed for use by the United States of America, and to execute and deliver in the name of the United States and in its behalf any and all contracts, conveyances, or other instruments necessary to effectuate any such sale or lease. (July 11, 1919, c. 8, subchapter II, 41 Stat. 129.)

1264. Disposal of proceeds of sale or lease under section 1263.—All moneys received by the United States as the proceeds of any sale or lease under section 1263 of this title shall be deposited in the Treasury of the United States to the credit of "Miscellaneous receipts" and a full report of the same shall be submitted annually to Congress. (July 11, 1919, c. 8, subchapter II, 41 Stat. 130.)

EXCHANGE AND INTERCHANGE OF PROPERTY

1271. Exchange of used machinery, etc., in part payment for new articles generally.—Sewing machines and other labor-saving machinery used in the manufacture of clothing and equipage, motor trucks and passenger-carrying vehicles, and band instruments, may be exchanged in part payment for new machines, vehicles, and instruments used for the same purpose as those proposed to be exchanged. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 418, § 1, 39 Stat. 635.)

1272. Motor vehicles, aircraft, etc.—Subject to the approval of the Secretary of War, motor-propelled vehicles, airplanes, engines, parts thereof, balloons, and appurtenances may be exchanged in part payment for new equipment of the same or similar character to be used for the same purposes as those proposed to be exchanged. (July 9, 1918, c. 143, 40 Stat. 849.)

1273. Typewriters and adding machines for Signal Corps.—The Signal Corps may exchange typewriters and adding machines in the purchase of similar equipment. (Mar. 4, 1915, c. 143, § 1, 38 Stat. 1064.)

1274. Interchange of supplies between Army and Navy.—The interchange without compensation therefor, of military stores, supplies, and equipment of every character, including real estate owned by the Government, is hereby authorized between the Army and the Navy upon the request of the head of one service and with the approval of the head of the other service. (July 11, 1919, c. 9, 41 Stat. 132.)

DISPOSAL OF PROCEEDS OF SALES, ETC.

1281. Proceeds of subsistence supplies and stores.—All moneys arising from sales of subsistence supplies or stores, authorized by law and regulations, shall be covered into the Treasury to the credit of the proper appropriation and shall remain available throughout the fiscal year following that in which the sales were effected, for the purposes of that appropriation from which such supplies or stores were authorized to be supplied at the time of the sales. (Apr. 27, 1914, c. 72, 38 Stat. 361.) See section 1196 of this title.

1282. Proceeds of serviceable Signal Corps supplies.—All moneys arising from the disposition of serviceable Signal Corps supplies and equipment, authorized by law and regulations, shall constitute one fund on the books of the Treasury Department and be available during the fiscal year in which their disposition was effected and the year following, for the replacement of Signal Corps supplies and equipment. (Apr. 27, 1914, c. 72, 38 Stat. 353.)

1283. Proceeds of serviceable quartermaster's supplies and stores.—All moneys arising from disposition of serviceable quartermaster's supplies or stores other than subsistence supplies authorized by law and regulations, shall remain available throughout the fiscal year following that in which the disposition was effected, for the purposes of that appropriation from which such supplies were authorized to be supplied at the time of the disposition. (Mar. 23, 1910, c. 115, 36 Stat. 257.)

1284. Proceeds of material supplied to Army by Engineer Department.—The provision of section 1283 of this title, making moneys arising from the disposition of serviceable quartermaster material available for the purposes of the appropriation throughout the fiscal year following that in which the disposition was effected, is hereby extended to apply to material supplied to the Army by the Engineer Department. (July 9, 1918, c. 143, subchapter XX, 40 Stat. 893.)

1286. Money from sale of ice, electric current, and laundry work.—All funds derived from the sale of ice or as receipts from the sale of electric current or laundry work under the appropriations of the Quartermaster Corps shall be deposited in the Treasury of the United States as miscellaneous receipts. (Nov. 4, 1918, c. 201, § 1, 40 Stat. 1028.)

1287. Proceeds of operation of public utilities.—In case of actual or threatened hostilities, any proceeds received from the operation of a public utility, in connection with Engineer operations in the field overseas, shall be available for the purpose of such utility until the close of the fiscal year following that in which the proceeds are received, and a detailed report of such proceeds and application thereof shall be rendered to Congress on forms conforming as far as practicable to those used by American companies in reports to the Interstate Commerce Commission. (July 9, 1918, c. 143, subchapter XX, 40 Stat. 893.)

1288. Receipts from transfers of military stores to Insular Department of Philippines.—All funds received as the value of military stores transferred by the several staff departments of the Army to the Insular Department of the Philippines, or work done, shall be deposited in the Treasury of the United States and remain available during the fiscal year in which the transaction occurred and the following year for the procurement of like military stores to replace those so transferred. (June 12, 1906, c. 3078, 34 Stat. 258.)

1289. Deductions from carriers' accounts.—Moneys arising from deductions made from carriers on account of the loss of or damage to military stores in transit shall be credited to the proper appropriation or funds out of which such or similar stores shall be replaced. (Mar. 2, 1905, c. 1307, 33 Stat. 840.)

REPORTS, RETURNS, AND ACCOUNTING

1301. Regulations for accounting.—The accounting for Army supplies or property and the fixing of responsibility therefor shall be according to such regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of War. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 418, § 1, 39 Stat. 635.)

1302. Affidavit of company commander in examination of liability.—In settling the accounts of the commanding officer of a company for clothing and other military supplies, the affidavit of any such officer may be received to show the loss of vouchers or company books, or any matter or circumstance tending to prove that any apparent deficiency was occasioned by unavoidable accident or lost in actual service, without any fault on his part, or that the whole or any part of such clothing and supplies had been properly and legally used and appropriated; and such affidavit may be considered as evidence to establish the facts set forth, with or without other evidence, as may seem to the Secretary of War just and proper under the circumstances of the case. (Feb. 27, 1877, c. 69, § 1, 19 Stat. 241.)

1303. Power to administer oaths to officers settling accounts.—The Secretary of War is authorized to detail one or more of the employees of the War Department for the purpose of administering the oaths required by law in the settlement of officers' accounts for clothing, camp and garrison equipage, quartermaster's stores, and ordnance, which oaths shall be administered without expense to the parties taking them. (R. S. § 225.)

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

1311. Use of surplus war material on civil works.—The Secretary of War is authorized and empowered, in his discretion, to transfer, free of charge, to the Chief of Engineers, United States Army, for use in the execution, under his direction, of any civil work or works authorized by Congress, such material, supplies, instruments, vehicles, machinery, or other equipment pertaining to the Military Establishment as are or may be found to be surplus and no longer required for military purposes. (June 5, 1920, c. 252, § 8, 41 Stat. 1015.)

1312. Fidelity bonds required of certain officers.—All officers of the Quartermaster Corps, and Finance Department, the chief medical purveyor and assistant medical purveyors, and all storekeepers shall, before entering upon the duties of their respective offices, give good and sufficient bonds to the United States, in such sums as the Secretary of War may direct, faithfully to account for all public moneys and property which they may receive. The President may, at any time, increase the sums so prescribed. But the Quartermaster General shall not be liable for any money or property that may come into the hands of the subordinate officers of his department. (R. S. § 1191, Feb. 27, 1877, c. 69, § 1, 19 Stat. 243.)

1313. Waiver of bond.—The provisions of section 1312 of this title may, in the discretion of the Secretary of War, be waived in the cases of officers of the Quartermaster Corps who are not accountable for public funds or public property. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 418, § 1, 39 Stat. 626.)

1314. Renewal of bonds.—All disbursing officers of the Finance Department shall renew their bonds, or furnish additional security, at least once in four years, and as much oftener as the President may direct. (R. S. § 1192.)

1315. Prohibition against officers dealing in quartermaster stores.—No officer belonging to the Quartermaster Corps, or doing the duty of a quartermaster or assistant quartermaster, shall be concerned, directly or indirectly, in the purchase or sale of any article entering into the composition of the ration allowed to troops in the service of the United States, or of any article designated by the inspectors general of the Army, and furnished for sale to officers and enlisted men, or of tobacco furnished for sale to enlisted men, or of any other article intended for or appertaining to said department or service, except on account of the United States; nor shall any such officer take or apply to his own use any gain or emolument for negotiating or transacting any business connected with the duties of his office, other than that which may be allowed by law. (R. S. §§ 1138, 1150.)

1316. Clothing and equipment of soldiers as Government property.—The clothes, arms, military outfits, and accouterments furnished by the United States to any soldier shall not be sold, bartered, exchanged, pledged, loaned, or given away; and no person not a soldier, or duly authorized officer of the United States, who has possession of any such clothes, arms, military outfits, or accouterments, so furnished, and which have been the subjects of any such sale, barter, exchange, pledge, loan, or gift, shall have any right, title, or interest therein; but the same may be seized and taken wherever found by any officer of the United States, civil or military, and shall thereupon be delivered to any quartermaster, or other officer authorized to receive the same. The possession of any such clothes, arms, military outfits, or accouterments by any person not a soldier or officer of the United States shall be presumptive evidence of such a sale, barter, exchange, pledge, loan, or gift. (R. S. § 3748.)

1317. Arms, accouterments, etc., in possession of persons not soldiers.—The clothing, arms, military outfits, and accouterments furnished by the United States to any soldier shall not be sold, bartered, exchanged, pledged, loaned, or given away; and the possession of any such property by any person not a soldier or officer of the United States shall be prima facie evidence of such sale, barter, exchange, pledge, loan, or gift. Such property may be seized and taken from any person, not a soldier or officer of the United States, by any officer, civil or military, of the United States, and shall, thereupon, be delivered to any quartermaster or other officer authorized to receive the same. (R. S. § 1242.)

1318. Encouragement of breeding of horses for Army.—The Secretary of War may, in his discretion, and under such rules and regulations as he may prescribe, accept donations of animals for breeding and donations of money or other property to be used as prizes or awards at agricultural fairs, horse shows, and similar exhibitions, in order to encourage the breeding of riding horses suitable for Army purposes. He shall report annually to Congress at the commencement of each session, a statement of all expenditures under appropriations for horses for the Army and the United States Military Academy, and for the encouragement of the breeding of riding horses suitable for the Army, and full particulars of means adopted and carried into effect for the encouragement of the breeding of such horses. (Feb. 12, 1925, c. 225, Title I, 43 Stat. 901.)

1319. Collecting forwarding charges on Government radiograms or telegrams.—The Signal Corps, in its operation of military telegraph lines, cables, or radio stations, is authorized in the discretion of the Secretary of War to collect forwarding charges due connecting commercial telegraph or radio companies for the transmission of Government radiograms or telegrams over their lines, and to this end, under such regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of War, it can present vouchers to disbursing officers for payment or file claims with the General Accounting Office for the amount of such forwarding charges. (May 12, 1917, c. 12, 40 Stat. 43; June 10, 1921, c. 18, 42 Stat. 23.)

1320. Orders for ordnance material deemed obligations.—All orders or contracts for manufacture of material pertaining to approved projects, which are placed with arsenals or other ordnance establishments and which are chargeable to armament of fortifications appropriations, shall be considered as obligations in all respects in the same manner as provided for similar orders placed with commercial manufacturers. (May 21, 1920, c. 194, § 6, 41 Stat. 613.)

Chapter 30.—MILITARY POSTS AND CAMPS; QUARTERS AND BARRACKS; TRAINING STATIONS.

Sec.

1331. Establishment of military posts.
1332. Location of military headquarters.
1333. Expenditures requiring approval of Secretary of War.
1334. Purposes of expenditures authorized at posts.
1335. Expenditures for post gardens and exchanges.
1336. Letting contracts for erection or repair of buildings, etc.
1337. Limit of cost of officers' quarters.
1338. Limit of cost of Artillery barracks and quarters for seacoast defenses.
1339. Authorization of permanent barracks or quarters and other structures.
1340. Quarters for hospital stewards; designation of posts and letting of contract.
1341. Reservation of public lands for aviation purposes.
1342. Donations of land for aviation fields and remount stations.
1343. Acquisition and improvement of North Island for aviation purposes.
1344. Land for permanent mobilization, training and supply stations.
1345. Rooms for post-office purposes at posts.
1346. Permission to Y. M. C. A. to erect buildings.
1347. Permission to Red Cross to erect buildings.
1348. Roads across and ferry landings on military reservations; driving animals across reservations.
1349. Licenses to take sand and gravel from Fort Douglas Military Reservation.
Abandoned military reservations, see Title 43.

Section 1331. Establishment of military posts.—No military post within the United States shall be established without the express authority of Congress. (Mar. 2, 1905, c. 1307, 33 Stat. 836.)

1332. Location of military headquarters.—When the economy of the service requires, the Secretary of War shall direct the establishment of military headquarters at points where suitable buildings are owned by the Government. (June 23, 1879, c. 35, § 8, 21 Stat. 35.)

1333. Expenditures requiring approval of Secretary of War.—No expenditure exceeding $5,000 shall be made upon any building or military post or grounds about the same without the approval of the Secretary of War, upon detailed estimates submitted to him. (May 12, 1917, c. 12, 40 Stat. 74.)

1334. Purposes of expenditures authorized at posts.—There may be expended from the appropriation for regular supplies the amounts required for the necessary equipments of the bakehouse to carry on post bakeries; for the necessary furniture, textbooks, paper, and equipments of the post schools; for the tableware and mess furniture for kitchens and mess halls; each and all for the use of the enlisted men of the Army. (June 13, 1890, c. 423, 26 Stat. 152.)

1335. Expenditures for post gardens and exchanges.—No money appropriated for the support of the Army shall be expended for post gardens or exchanges, but this proviso shall not be construed to prohibit the use by post exchanges of public buildings or public transportation when, in the opinion of the Quartermaster General, not required for other purposes. (July 16, 1892, c. 195, 27 Stat. 178.)

1336. Letting contracts for erection or repair of buildings, etc.—The erection, construction, and repair of all buildings and other public structures in the charge of the Quartermaster Corps shall, as far as may be practicable, be made by contract, after due legal advertisement. (Feb. 27, 1893, c. 168, 27 Stat. 484.)

1337. Limit of cost of officers' quarters.—No money appropriated for military posts shall be expended for the construction of quarters for officers of the Army, or for barracks and quarters for the artillery the total cost of which, including the heating and plumbing apparatus, wiring and fixtures, shall exceed, in the case of quarters of a general officer, the sum of $15,000, of a colonel or an officer above the rank of captain, $12,000, and of an officer of and below the rank of captain, $9,000. (June 25, 1910, c. 384, § 1, 36 Stat. 721.)

1339. Authorization of permanent barracks or quarters and other structures.—Permanent barracks or quarters and buildings and structures of a permanent nature shall not be constructed unless detailed estimates shall have been previously submitted to Congress, and approved by a special appropriation for the same, except when constructed by the troops; and no such structures, the cost of which shall exceed $20,000, shall be erected unless by special authority of Congress. It shall be the duty of all officers of the United States having any of the title papers (property purchased, or about to be purchased, for erection of public buildings) in their possession, to furnish them forthwith to the Attorney General. No public money shall be expended until the written opinion of the Attorney General shall be had. (R. S. § 1136; Feb. 27, 1877, c. 69, § 1, 19 Stat. 242.)

1340. Quarters for hospital stewards; designation of posts and letting of contracts.—The posts at which quarters for hospital stewards shall be constructed shall be designated by the Secretary of War, and such quarters shall be built by contract, after legal advertisement, whenever the same is practicable. (Feb. 27, 1893, c. 168, 27 Stat. 484.)

1341. Reservation of public lands for aviation purposes.—By order of the President any Government property or unappropriated or reserved public lands may be reserved from entry, designated, and used for such aviation stations or fields for testing and experimental work. (July 9, 1918, c. 143, 40 Stat. 848.)

1342. Donations of land for aviation fields and remount stations.—The Secretary of War is hereby authorized to accept for the United States from any citizen of the United States a donation of a tract or tracts of land suitable and desirable in his judgment for the purposes of an aviation field and remount station, the terms of the donation also to authorize the use of the property donated for any other service of the United States which may hereafter appear desirable. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 418, § 1, 39 Stat. 622.)

1343. Acquisition and improvement of North Island for aviation purposes.—The provisions of section 255 of Title 40 shall not apply to the expenditure of any appropriations for improvements thereon for aviation purposes on North Island, in the harbor of San Diego, California, possession of the whole of which was taken by the President on behalf of the United States for use for national defense and in connection therewith as sites for permanent aviation stations for the Army and Navy and for aviation school purposes.

The Attorney General or the claimants to the said North Island are authorized to make application for the determination and appraisement of any rights private parties may have in the said island over and beyond any rights thereto in the United States to the District Court of the United States for the Southern District of California; the proceedings to be prosecuted in accordance with the laws of the State of California relating to the condemnation of property for public use. Either party may take an appeal from the judgment of such court direct to the Supreme Court of the United States within ninety days after such judgment is rendered. Upon the final ascertainment of the value of any right, title, or interest adjudged to be in any private claimants to the said island there shall be paid into court the value of the same as so determined, together with interest thereon at the rate of 6 per centum per annum from date possession thereof was taken as herein authorized; and thereupon the United States shall be vested with title to said lands. The amount so paid shall by distributed by order of the court to the owner or owners of such right, title, or interest in said island as their respective interests may be determined by the court. The amount necessary to pay the awards in favor of private claimants is appropriated therefor, to be disbursed under orders of the Secretary of War. (July 27, 1917, c. 42, 40 Stat. 247.)

1344. Land for permanent mobilization, training, and supply stations.—The Secretary of War is hereby authorized to accept for the United States from any person such tract or tracts of land suitable and desirable in his judgment for permanent mobilization, training, and supply stations and he is directed to investigate and report to Congress as soon as practicable what additional tracts are necessary for said purposes for use by the National Guard and by the Regular Army, and the probable cost of the same. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 418, § 1, 39 Stat. 623.)

1345. Rooms for post-office purposes at posts.—At all military posts where post offices have been established, the Secretary of War shall assign proper and suitable room or rooms for post-office purposes. (Aug. 1, 1914, c. 223, § 1, 38 Stat. 629.)

1347. Permission to Red Cross to erect buildings.—Authority is given to the Secretary of War to grant permission, by revocable license, to the American National Red Cross to erect and maintain on any military reservations within the jurisdiction of the United States buildings suitable for the storage of supplies, or to occupy for that purpose buildings erected by the United States, under such regulations as the Secretary of War may prescribe, such supplies to be available for the aid of the civilian population in case of serious national disaster. June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 51, 41 Stat. 785.)

1348. Roads across and ferry landings on military reservations; driving animals across reservations.—The Secretary of War shall have authority, in his discretion, to permit the extension of State, county, and Territorial roads across military reservations; to permit the landing of ferries, the erection of bridges thereon; and permit cattle, sheep or other stock animals to be driven across such reservation, whenever in his judgment the same can be done without injury to the reservation or inconvenience to the military forces stationed thereon. (July 5, 1884, c. 214, § 6, 23 Stat. 104.)

1349. Licenses to take sand and gravel from Fort Douglas Military Reservation.—The Secretary of War is hereby authorized to grant revocable licenses for the removal of sand and gravel from the Fort Douglas Military Reservation, Utah, to persons and corporations within said State, to be used for industrial and manufacturing purposes, at such reasonable prices as may be fixed by the Secretary of War. (May 5, 1920, c. 167, 41 Stat. 588.)

1350. Sale of intoxicating liquors.—The sale of or dealing in beer, wine or any intoxicating liquors by any person in any post exchange or canteen or Army transport or upon any premises used for military purposes by the United States, is prohibited. The Secretary of War is hereby directed to carry the provisions of this section into full force and effect. (Feb. 2, 1901, c. 192, § 38, 31 Stat. 758.)

Chapter 31.—TRANSPORTATION OF TROOPS AND SUPPLIES; ARMY TRANSPORT SERVICE.

Sec.
1361. Control of transportation systems in time of war.
1362. Preference to shipments of troops, etc.
1363. Control and supervision of transportation of troops, etc.
1364. Purchase of means of transportation by Quartermaster Corps.
1365. Vessels employed for transporting supplies for Army and Navy.
1366. Inspection of Army transports; detail of naval officers.
1367. Civilian passengers and commercial cargoes on Army transports in trans-Atlantic service.
1368. Commercial cargoes consigned to Guam on Army transports.
1369. Porto Rican officials carried on Army transports.
1370. Officers, etc., of Coast Guard Service and Y. M. C. A. secretaries and supplies carried on Army transports.
1371. Persons carried to Guam on Army transports.
1372. Sale of vessels in transport service.
1373. Discontinuance of transport service.
1374. Transportation of Army stores by private parties.
1375. Charges for transportation by land-grant railroads subject to regulation by Congress.
1376. Transportation without charge by certain land-grant railroads.

Section 1361. Control of transportation systems in time of war.—The President, in time of war, is empowered, through the Secretary of War, to take possession and assume control of any system or systems of transportation, or any part thereof, and to utilize the same, to the exclusion as far as may be necessary of all other traffic thereon, for the transfer or transportation of troops, war material and equipment, or for such other purposes connected with the emergency as may be needful or desirable. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 418, § 1, 39 Stat. 645.)

1362. Preference to shipments of troops, etc.—In time of war or threatened war preference and precedence shall, upon the demand of the President of the United States, be given, over all other traffic, for the transportation of troops and material of war, and carriers shall adopt every means within their control to facilitate and expedite the military traffic. And in time of peace shipments consigned to agents of the United States for its use shall be delivered by the carriers as promptly as possible and without regard to any embargo that may have been declared, and no such embargo shall apply to shipments so consigned. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 604.)

1363. Control and supervision of transportation of troops, etc.—The transportation of troops, munitions of war, equipments, military property, and stores, throughout the United States, shall be under the immediate control and supervision of the Secretary of War and such agents as he may appoint. (R. S. § 220.)

1364. Purchase of means of transportation by Quartermaster Corps.—Except as otherwise provided, all purchases of horses, mules, or oxen, wagons, carts, drays, ships and other seagoing vessels, also all other means of transportation, shall be made by the Quartermaster Corps, by contract, after due legal advertisement except in cases of extreme emergency. (July 5, 1884, c. 217, 23 Stat. 110; Aug. 24, 1912, c. 391, § 3, 37 Stat. 591.)

1365. Vessels employed for transporting supplies for Army and Navy.—Vessels of the United States, or belonging to the United States, and no others, shall be employed in the transportation by sea of coal, provisions, fodder, or supplies of any description, purchased pursuant to law, for the use of the Army or Navy unless the President shall find that the rates of freight charges by said vessels are excessive and unreasonable, in which case contracts shall be made as otherwise provided by law: Provided, That no greater charges be made by such vessels for transportation of articles for the use of the said Army and Navy than are made by such vessels for transportation of like goods for private parties or companies. (Apr. 28, 1904, c. 1766, § 1, 33 Stat. 518.)

1366. Inspection of Army transports; detail of naval officers.—The President may detail, temporarily, three competent naval officers for the service of the War Department in the inspection of transport vessels, and for such other services as may be designated by the Secretary of War. (R. S. § 1437.)

1367. Civilian passengers and commercial cargoes on Army transports in trans-Atlantic service.—In the joint discretion of the Secretary of War and chairman of the Shipping Board, and when space is available, civilian passengers and shipments of commercial cargo may be transported on Army transports in the trans-Atlantic service, at such times as space is not available on commercial lines, at rates not less than those charged by commercial steamship companies, between the same ports, for the same class of accommodations, the receipts from which shall be covered into the Treasury of the United States to the credit of miscellaneous receipts. (June 5, 1920, c. 240, 41 Stat. 960.)

1368. Commercial cargoes consigned to Guam on Army transports.—When there is cargo space available without displacing military supplies, transportation may be provided for merchandise of American production consigned to residents and mercantile firms of the island of Guam, rates and regulations therefor to be prescribed by the Secretary of War. (Mar. 3, 1911, c. 209, 36 Stat. 1051.)

1369. Porto Rican officials carried on Army transports.—When, in the opinion of the Secretary of War, accommodations are available, transportation on Army transports may be provided for the members and employees of the Porto Rican Government and their families on official business without expense to United States. (June 30, 1921, c. 33, § 1, 42 Stat. 81.)

1370. Officers, etc., of Coast Guard Service and Y. M. C. A. secretaries and supplies carried on Army transports.—Hereafter when, in the opinion of the Secretary of War, accommodations are available, transportation on vessels of the Army transport service may be furnished the officers, employees, and enlisted men of the Coast Guard Service, and their families without expense to the United States, and also secretaries and supplies of the Army and Navy department of the Young Men's Christian Association. (Mar. 3, 1911, c. 209, 36 Stat. 1051.)

1371. Persons carried to Guam on Army transports.—When, in the opinion of the Secretary of War, accommodations are available, transportation may be provided for the officers, enlisted men, employees, and supplies of the Navy, the Marine Corps, and for members and employees of the Philippine and Hawaiian governments, officers of the War Department, Members of Congress, other officers of the Government while traveling on official business, and without expense to the United States, for the families of those persons herein authorized to be transported, and when accommodations are available, transportation may be provided for general passengers to the island of Guam, rates, and regulations therefor to be prescribed by the Secretary of War. (Mar. 2, 1907, c. 2511, 34 Stat. 1170.)

1372. Sale of vessels in transport service.—No steamship in the transport service of the United States shall be sold or disposed of without the consent of Congress having been first had or obtained. (Mar. 2, 1905, c. 1307, 33 Stat. 837.)

1373. Discontinuance of transport service.—No action looking to the discontinuance of the transport service shall be taken without further action of Congress. (Mar. 2, 1903, c. 975, 32 Stat. 939.)

1374. Transportation of Army stores by private parties.—All transportation of stores by private parties for the Army shall be done by contract, after due legal advertisement, except in cases of emergency, which must be at once reported to the Secretary of War for his approval. (July 5, 1884, c. 217, 23 Stat. 109.)

1375. Charges for transportation by land-grant railroads subject to regulation by Congress.—Payment shall be made at such rates as the Secretary of War shall deem just and reasonable and shall not exceed 50 per centum of the full amount of compensation, computed on the basis of the tariff or lower special rates for like transportation performed for the public at large, for the transportation of property or troops of the United States over any railroad which under land-grant acts was aided in its construction by a grant of land on condition that said railroad shall be and remain a public highway for the use of the United States, and for which adjustment of compensation is required in accordance with decisions of the Supreme Court construing such land-grant acts, or over any railroad which was aided in its construction by a grant of land on condition that such railroad should be a post route and military road, subject to such regulations as Congress may impose restricting the charge for such Government transportation, and such payment shall be accepted as in full for all demands for such service. (June 7, 1924, c. 291, Title I, 43 Stat. 486.)

1376. Transportation without charge by certain land-grant railroads.—No money shall hereafter be paid to any railroad company for the transportation of any property or troops of the United States over any railroad which in whole or in part was constructed by the aid of a grant of public land on the condition that such railroad should be a public highway for the use of the Government of the United States free from toll or other charge, or upon any other conditions for the use of such road, for such transportation, nor shall any allowance be made for the transportation of officers of the Army over any such road when on duty and under orders as military officers of the United States: Provided, That the foregoing provision shall not apply to roads where the sole condition of transportation is that the company shall not charge the Government higher rates than they do individuals for like transportation, and when the Quartermaster General shall be satisfied that this condition has been faithfully complied with. (Mar. 3, 1875, c. 133, § 1, 18 Stat. 453.)

Chapter 32.—UNIFORM OF ARMY.

Sec.
1391. Power to prescribe uniform.
1392. Right of honorably discharged officers of volunteers to bear title and to wear uniform.
1393. Protection of the uniform.
1394. Right of honorably discharged veterans of World War to retain uniform.

Section 1391. Power to prescribe uniform.—The President may prescribe the uniform of the Army. (R. S. § 1296.)

1392. Right of honorably discharged officers of volunteers to bear title and to wear uniform.—All officers who have served during the rebellion or in the war with Spain, or since, as volunteers in the Army of the United States, and have been honorably mustered out of the volunteer service, shall be entitled to bear the official title, and, upon occasions of ceremony, to wear the uniform of the highest grade they have held, by brevet or other commissions, in the volunteer service. But these privileges shall not entitle any officer to command, pay, or emoluments. (R. S. § 1226; Feb. 2, 1901, c. 192, § 34, 31 Stat. 757.)

1393. Protection of the uniform.—It shall be unlawful for any person not an officer or enlisted man of the United States Army, Navy, or Marine Corps, to wear the duly prescribed uniform of the United States Army, Navy, or Marine Corps, or any distinctive part of such uniform, or a uniform any part of which is similar to a distinctive part of the duly prescribed uniform of the United States Army, Navy, Marine Corps, or Coast Guard: Provided, That the foregoing provision shall not be construed so as to prevent officers or enlisted men of the National Guard from wearing, in pursuance of law and regulations, the uniform lawfully prescribed to be worn by such officers or enlisted men of the National Guard; nor to prevent members of the organization known as the Boy Scouts of America, or the Naval Militia, or such other organizations as the Secretary of War or the Secretary of the Navy may designate, from wearing their prescribed uniforms; nor to prevent persons who in time of war have served honorably as officers of the United States Army, Navy, Marine Corps, or Coast Guard, Regular or Volunteer, and whose most recent service was terminated by an honorable discharge, muster out, or resignation, from wearing, upon occasions of ceremony, the uniform of the highest grade they have held by brevet or other commission in such Regular or Volunteer service; nor to prevent any person who has been honorably discharged from the United States Army, Navy, Marine Corps, or Coast Guard, Regular or Volunteer, from wearing his uniform from the place of his discharge to his home, within three months after the date of such discharge; nor to prevent the members of military societies composed entirely of honorably discharged officers or enlisted men, or both, of the United States Army, Navy, Marine Corps, or Coast Guard, Regular or Volunteer, from wearing, upon occasions of ceremony, the uniform duly prescribed by such societies to be worn by the members thereof; nor to prevent the instructors and members of the duly organized cadet corps of a State university, State college, or public high school offering a regular course in military instruction from wearing the uniform duly prescribed by the authorities of such university, college, or public high school for wear by the instructors and members of such cadet corps; nor to prevent the instructors and members of the duly organized cadet corps of any other institution of learning offering a regular course in military instruction, and at which an officer or enlisted man of the United States Army, Navy, or Marine Corps is lawfully detailed for duty as instructor in military science and tactics, from wearing the uniform duly prescribed by the authorities of such institution of learning for wear by the instructors and members of such cadet corps; nor to prevent civilians attendant upon a course of military or naval instruction authorized and conducted by the military or naval authorities of the United States from wearing, while in attendance upon such course of instruction, the uniform authorized and prescribed by such military or naval authorities for wear during such course of instruction; nor to prevent any person from wearing the uniform of the United States Army, Navy, Marine Corps, or Coast Guard in any playhouse or theater or in moving-picture films while actually engaged in representing therein a military or naval character not tending to bring discredit or reproach upon the United States Army, Navy, Marine Corps, or Coast Guard: Provided further, That the uniforms worn by officers or enlisted men of the National Guard, or by the members of the military societies or the instructors and members of the cadet corps referred to in the preceding proviso shall include some distinctive mark or insignia to be prescribed by the Secretary of War or the Secretary of the Navy to distinguish such uniforms from the uniforms of the United States Army, Navy, and Marine Corps: And provided further, That the members of the military societies and the instructors and members of the cadet corps hereinbefore mentioned shall not wear the insignia of rank prescribed to be worn by officers of the United States Army, Navy, Marine Corps, or Coast Guard, or any insignia of rank similar thereto.

Any person who offends against the provisions of this section shall, on conviction, be punished by a fine not exceeding $300, or by imprisonment not exceeding six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment. (June 3, 1916, c. 134, § 125, 39 Stat. 216; Aug. 29, 1916, c. 418, § 1, 39 Stat. 649; June 4, 1920, c. 228, § 8, 41 Stat. 836.)

1394. Right of honorably discharged veterans of World War to retain uniforms.—Any person who served in the United States Army, Navy, or Marine Corps in the World War may, upon honorable discharge and return to civil life, permanently retain one complete suit of outer uniform clothing, including the overcoat, and such articles of personal apparel and equipment as may be authorized, respectively, by the Secretary of War or the Secretary of the Navy, and may wear such uniform clothing after such discharge: Provided, That the uniform above referred to shall include some distinctive mark or insignia to be prescribed, respectively, by the Secretary of War or the Secretary of the Navy, such mark or insignia to be issued, respectively, by the War Department or Navy Department to all enlisted personnel so discharged. The word "Navy" shall include the officers and enlisted personnel of the Coast Guard who have served with the Navy during the World War. The provisions of this section shall apply to all persons who served in the United States Army, Navy, or Marine Corps during the World War honorably discharged since April 6, 1917. (Feb. 28, 1919, c. 70, §§ 1, 2, 40 Stat. 1202, 1203.)

Section 1401. Rules and regulations governing awards of medals, etc.—The President is authorized to make from time to time any and all rules, regulations, and orders which he shall deem necessary to carry into effect the provisions of this title relating to the award of medals of honor, distinguished-service crosses, distinguished-service medals, bars, rosettes, and other devices hereinafter provided for, and to execute the full purpose and intention thereof. (July 9, 1918, c. 143, 40 Stat. 872.)

1402. Medals of honor authorized.—Three thousand medals of honor shall be prepared, with suitable emblematic devices, upon the design of the medal of honor heretofore issued, or upon an improved design, together with appropriate rosettes or other insignia to be worn in lieu of the medal, and to be presented by direction of the President, and in the name of Congress, to such officers, noncommissioned officers, and privates as have most distinguished, or may most distinguish, themselves by their gallantry in action. (Apr. 23, 1904, c. 1485, 33 Stat. 274.)

1403. Acts justifying award of medal of honor.—The President is authorized to present, in the name of the Congress, a medal of honor only to each person who, while an officer or enlisted man of the Army, shall, in action involving actual conflict with an enemy, distinguish himself conspicuously by gallantry and intrepidity at the risk of his life above and beyond the call of duty. (July 9, 1918, c. 143, 40 Stat. 870.)

1404. Award of medal of honor to Civil War veterans.—Whenever it shall appear from official records in the War Department that any officer or enlisted man of the Army so distinguished himself in action in the Civil War as to entitle him to the award of the congressional medal of honor, the fact that the person who so distinguished himself has since become separated from the military service, or that the award of the medal to him was not specifically recommended or applied for while he was in the said service, shall not be held to prevent the award and presentation of the medal to such person. (Apr. 23, 1904, c. 1485, 33 Stat. 274.)

1405. Rosettes or knots and ribbons for Civil War medal-of-honor men; replacement in case of loss, etc.—The Secretary of War is authorized to issue to any person to whom a medal of honor has been awarded, or may be awarded for meritorious conduct in the Civil War, a rosette or knot to be worn in lieu of the medal, and a ribbon to be worn with the medal; said rosette or knot and ribbon to be each of a pattern to be prescribed and established by the President of the United States, and any appropriation that may hereafter be available for the contingent expenses of the War Department is hereby made available for the purposes of this section: Provided, That whenever a ribbon issued under the provisions of this section shall have been lost, destroyed, or rendered unfit for use, without fault or neglect on the part of the person to whom it was issued, the Secretary of War shall cause a new ribbon to be issued to such person without charge therefor. (May 2, 1896, No. 51, 29 Stat. 473.)

1406. Distinguished-service crosses for extraordinary heroism in war.—The President is authorized to present, but not in the name of Congress, a distinguished-service cross of appropriate design and a ribbon, together with a rosette or other device, to be worn in lieu thereof, to any person who, while serving in any capacity with the Army of the United States since the 6th day of April, 1917, has distinguished, or who shall hereafter distinguish, himself or herself by extraordinary heroism in connection with military operations against an armed enemy. (July 9, 1918, c. 143, 40 Stat. 870.)

1407. Distinguished-service medals for exceptionally meritorious service.—The President is authorized to present, but not in the name of Congress, a distinguished-service medal of appropriate design and a ribbon, together with a rosette or other device, to be worn in lieu thereof, to any person who, while serving in any capacity with the Army of the United States since the 6th day of April, 1917, has distinguished, or who shall distinguish, himself or herself by exceptionally meritorious service to the Government in a duty of great responsibility. (July 9, 1918, c. 143, 40 Stat. 870.)

1408. Distinguished-service medals in lieu of certificates of merit.—The distinguished-service medal shall be issued to all enlisted men of the Army to whom the certificate of merit has been granted up to and including the 9th day of July, 1918, under the provisions of previously existing law, in lieu of such certificate of merit. (July 9, 1918, c. 143, 40 Stat. 870.)

1409. Time limit on award of medals, crosses, etc.—Except as otherwise prescribed herein, no medals of honor, distinguished-service cross, distinguished-service medal, or bar or other suitable device in lieu of either of said medals or of said cross, shall be issued to any person after more than three years from the date of the act justifying the award thereof, nor unless a specific statement or report distinctly setting forth the distinguished service and suggesting or recommending official recognition thereof shall have been made at the time of the distinguished service or within two years thereafter, nor unless it shall appear from official records in the War Department that such person has so distinguished himself as to entitle him thereto; but in case an individual who shall distinguish himself dies before the making of the award to which he may be entitled, the award may nevertheless be made and the medal or cross or the bar or other emblem or device presented, within three years from the date of the act justifying the award thereof, to such representative of the deceased as the President may designate; but no medal, cross, bar, or other device, hereinbefore authorized, shall be awarded or presented to any individual whose entire service subsequent to the time he distinguished himself shall not have been honorable; but in cases of officers and enlisted men in the Army on the 9th day of July, 1918, for whom the award of the medal of honor has been recommended in full compliance with then existing regulations but on account of services which, though insufficient fully to justify the award of the medal of honor, appear to have been such as to justify the award of the distinguished-service cross or distinguished-service medal hereinbefore provided for, such cases may be considered and acted upon under the provisions of this title authorizing the award of the distinguished-service cross and distinguished-service medal, notwithstanding that said services may have been rendered more than three years before said cases shall have been considered as authorized by this title but all consideration of and action upon any of said cases shall be based exclusively upon official records now on file in the War Department; and in the cases of officers and enlisted men in the Army on the 9th day of July, 1918, who have been mentioned in orders, then a part of official records, for extraordinary heroism or especially meritorious services, such as to justify the award of the distinguished-service cross or the distinguished-service medal hereinbefore provided for, such cases may be considered and acted on under the provisions of this title, notwithstanding that said act or services may have been rendered more than three years before said cases shall have been considered as authorized by this title, but all consideration of and action upon any said cases shall be based exclusively upon official records of the War Department. (July 9, 1918, c. 143, 40 Stat. 871.)

1410. Award of medals and crosses by commanding generals.—The President is authorized to delegate, under such conditions, regulations, and limitations as he shall prescribe, to the commanding general of a separate army or higher unit in the field, the power conferred upon him by this title to award the medal of honor, the distinguished-service cross, and the distinguished-service medal. (July 9, 1918, c. 143, 40 Stat. 872.)

1411. Bars to be worn with medals or crosses; additional acts of valor.—No more than one medal of honor or one distinguished-service cross or one distinguished-service medal shall be issued to any one person; but for each succeeding deed or act sufficient to justify the award of a medal of honor or a distinguished-service cross or a distinguished-service medal, respectively, the President may award a suitable bar or other suitable device, to be worn as he shall direct. (Jan. 24, 1920, c. 55, § 1, 41 Stat. 398.)

1412. Star for gallantry not warranting medal or cross.—For each citation of an officer or enlisted man for gallantry in action, published in orders issued from the headquarters of a force commanded by, or which is the appropriate command of, a general officer, not warranting the award of a medal of honor or distinguished-service cross, he shall be permitted to wear, as the President shall direct, a silver star three-sixteenths of an inch in diameter. (Jan. 24, 1920, c. 55, § 1, 41 Stat. 398.)

1413. Spanish War and Mexican border medals for members of National Guard.—The Secretary of War is authorized and directed to procure a bronze medal, with suitable device and ribbon, to be presented to each of the several officers and enlisted men, and families of such as may be dead, of the National Guard who, under the orders of the President of the United States, served not less than ninety days in the War with Spain, and who have received an honorable discharge from the service, and who served on the Mexican border in the years 1916 and 1917 and who are not eligible to receive the Mexican service badge heretofore authorized by the President: Provided, That such medals shall not be issued to men who have, subsequent to such service, been dishonorably discharged from the service or deserted. (July 9, 1918, c. 143, 40 Stat. 873.)

1414. Mexican border medals for service at points other than on Mexican border.—The Mexican border medal and ribbon issued to National Guard officers and enlisted men under the provisions of section 1413 of this title shall be issued to National Guard officers and enlisted men who at the same time served as such in the field under the call of the National Guard to such Mexican border service but were stationed for service at points other than on the Mexican border: Provided, That such medals shall not be issued to men who have subsequent to such service been dishonorably discharged from the service or deserted. (June 5, 1920, c. 240, 41 Stat. 973.)

1415. Medals for members of Texas cavalry brigades.—The Secretary of War is authorized and directed to procure a bronze medal of appropriate design, with a bar and ribbon, together with a rosette or other device to be worn in lieu thereof, to be presented to each of the several officers and enlisted men of the two brigades of cavalry organized by the State of Texas, under authority from the War Department of date of December 8, 1917, who served therein prior to November 11, 1918: Provided, That such medals shall not be presented to men who have, subsequent to such service, been dishonorably discharged from the service, or deserted: Provided further, That the several officers and enlisted men to whom such medals may be presented are hereby authorized to wear, on occasions of ceremony, the uniform lawfully prescribed to be worn by them at the time of their service: Provided, This section shall not be considered as conferring upon the members of said organizations the benefits of part III of chapter 12 of Title 38 or to confer a pensionable status to the members of said organizations, and that this section shall not be deemed to constitute a precedent for the future granting of such rights. (Apr. 16, 1924, c. 117, 43 Stat. 100.)

1416. Replacement of lost medals, crosses, etc.—Whenever a medal, cross, bar, ribbon, rosette, or other device presented under the provisions of this title shall have been lost, destroyed, or rendered unfit for use, without fault or neglect on the part of the person to whom it was awarded, such medal, cross, bar, ribbon, rosette, or device shall be replaced without charge therefor. (July 9, 1918, c. 143, 40 Stat. 871.)

1417. Supply for replacement of Civil War medals of honor.—The Secretary of War is authorized and directed to use so many of the medals and rosettes or other insignia provided for by section 1402 of this title as may be necessary to replace the medals that have been issued for distinguished service in the Civil War. (Apr. 23, 1904, c. 1485, 33 Stat. 274.)

1418. Disposal of replaced medals of honor.—The holders of medals of honor for meritorious conduct in the Civil War, shall not be required to surrender such medals in case such medals are replaced, in pursuance of the provisions of section 1417 of this title; and that wherever the holders of such medals of honor have surrendered them, in order to receive the medals provided for by said section, such medals shall be returned to them: Provided, That no recipient of both medals shall wear both medals at the same time. (Feb. 27, 1907, No. 17, 34 Stat. 1422.)

1419. Eliminations from medal of honor list.—In any case in which the board convened pursuant to law, for the purpose of investigating and reporting upon past awards or issues of the so-called congressional medal of honor by or through the War Department, with a view to ascertain what medals of honor, if any, have been awarded or issued for any cause other than distinguished conduct by an officer or enlisted man in action involving actual conflict with an enemy by such officer or enlisted man or by troops with which he was serving at the time of such action shall have found and reported that said medal was issued for any cause other than that hereinbefore specified, the name of the recipient of the medal so issued shall be stricken permanently from the official medal of honor list. It shall be a misdemeanor for him to wear or publicly display said medal, and, if he shall still be in the Army, he shall be required to return said medal to the War Department for cancellation. (June 3, 1916, c. 134, § 122, 39 Stat. 214.)

1420. Certificates of merit discontinued.—After July 9, 1918, the award of the certificate of merit for distinguished service shall cease. (July 9, 1918, c. 143, 40 Stat. 870.)

1421. Certificates of honorable services for military telegraphers in Civil War.—The Secretary of War is authorized and directed to prepare a roll of all persons who served not less than ninety days in the operation of military telegraph lines during the late Civil War, and to issue to each, upon application, unless it appears that his service was not creditably performed, or to the representatives of those who are dead, suitable certificates of honorable service in the military telegraph corps of the Army of the United States, stating the service rendered, the length of such service, and the dates, as near as may be, between which such service was performed: Provided, That this section shall not be construed to entitle the persons herein mentioned to any pay, pension, bounty, or rights not herein specifically provided for. (Jan. 26, 1897, c. 92, 29 Stat. 497.)

1422. Foreign decorations received before entering military service of United States.—American citizens who have received, since August 1, 1914, decorations or medals for distinguished service in the armies or in connection with the field service of those nations engaged in war against the Imperial German Government, shall, on entering the military service of the United States, be permitted to wear such medals or decorations. (July 9, 1918, c. 143, 40 Stat. 872.

1423. Foreign decorations awarded to officers or men while serving in United States Army.—Any officer or enlisted man of the military forces of the United States is hereby authorized to accept and wear any medal or decoration heretofore bestowed before July 9, 1918, by the Government of any of the nations concurrently engaged with the United States in the World War. (July 9, 1918, c. 143, 40 Stat. 872.) See sections 114 and 115 of Title 5.

1424. Expenditure authorized for medals, crosses, etc.—The Secretary of War is authorized to expend from the appropriations for contingent expenses of his department from time to time so much as may be necessary to defray the cost of the medals of honor, distinguished-service crosses, distinguished-service medals, bars, rosettes, and other devices hereinbefore provided for. (July 9, 1918, c. 143, 40 Stat. 871.)

1425. Unlawful wearing, manufacture, or sale of medals, etc.—The wearing, manufacture, or sale of the congressional medal of honor, distinguished-service cross, distinguished-service medal, or any of the services medals or badges awarded by the War Department, or the ribbon, button, or rosette thereof of the form as is or may hereafter be prescribed by the Secretary of War, or of any colorable imitation thereof, is prohibited, except when authorized under such regulations as the Secretary of War may prescribe.

Any person who offends against the provisions of this section shall, on conviction, be punished by a fine not exceeding $250 or by imprisonment not exceeding six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment. (Feb. 24, 1923, c. 110, 42 Stat. 1286.)

1426. Army corps badges for Civil War service.—All persons who have served as officers, noncommissioned officers, privates, or other enlisted men, in the Regular Army, Volunteer or militia forces of the United States, during the War of the Rebellion, and have been honorably discharged from the service, or still remain in the same, shall be entitled to wear, on occasions of ceremony, the distinctive Army badge ordered for or adopted by the Army corps and division, respectively, in which they served. (R. S. § 1227.)

1427. Right to wear badges of military societies.—The distinctive badges adopted by military societies of men who served in the Armies and Navies of the United States in the War of the Revolution, the War of 1812, the Mexican War, the War of the Rebellion, the Spanish-American War, and the incident insurrection in the Philippines, the Chinese relief expedition of 1900, and the Regular Army and Navy Union, respectively, may be worn upon all occasions of ceremony by officers and enlisted men of the Army and Navy of the United States, who are members of said organizations in their own right. (Sept. 25, 1890, No. 50, 26 Stat. 681; May 11, 1894, No. 26, 28 Stat. 583; Feb. 2, 1901, c. 192, § 41, 31 Stat. 758; Jan. 12, 1903, No. 2, 32 Stat. 1229; Mar. 2, 1907, No. 18, 34 Stat. 1423.)

Chapter 34.—DESERTION.

Sec.
1431. Compensation for arresting deserters.
1432. Forfeiture of right to pension.
1433. Effect of quitting command at termination of Civil War.
1434. Removal of record of charge against soldiers in World War.
1435. Removal of record of charge against soldiers in Civil War.
1436. Charge based on second enlistment by soldier in Civil War before expiration of or discharge from first enlistment.
1437. Return to duty by soldier in Civil War after desertion as restoring right to pension.
1438. Removal of record of charge against soldiers in Mexican War.
1439. Right to pay, allowances and bounty after removal of charge.
1440. Cases excepted from provisions for removal of charge.
1441. Restoration of status by removal of charge.
1442. Applications for removal of charge.

Section 1431. Compensation for arresting deserters.—No greater sum than $50 for each deserter or escaped military prisoner shall, in the discretion of the Secretary of War, be paid to any civil officer or citizen for services in the apprehension, securing and delivering of deserters, and the expenses incident to their pursuit. (Feb. 12, 1925, c. 225, Title I, 43 Stat. 900.)

1432. Forfeiture of right to pension.—Any soldier who deserts shall, besides incurring the penalties attaching to the crime of desertion under section 1530 hereof, forfeit all right to pension which he might otherwise have acquired. (May 11, 1908, c. 163, 35 Stat. 110.)

1433. Effect of quitting command at termination of Civil War.—No soldier shall be taken or held to be a deserter from the Army who faithfully served according to his enlistment until the 19th day of April, 1865, and who, without proper authority or leave first obtained, quit his command or refused to serve after that date; but nothing herein contained shall operate as a remission of any forfeiture incurred by any such soldier of his pension; but this section shall be construed solely as a removal of any disability such soldier may have incurred by the loss of his citizenship in consequence of his desertion. (R. S. § 4749.)

1434. Removal of record of charge against soldiers in World War.—In all cases where it shall be made to appear to the satisfaction of the President that a commissioned or warrant officer or an enlisted man with the charge of desertion standing against him on March 4, 1925, on the rolls and records of the Army, Navy, or Marine Corps has since such charge was entered served honorably in the World War, either in the military or naval forces of the Allies or in the Army, Navy, or Marine Corps or in other branches of the military service of the United States prior to November 11, 1918, the President is hereby authorized, in his discretion, to cause an entry to be made on said rolls and records of the Army, Navy, or Marine Corps, relieving said officer or enlisted man of all the disabilities which he had heretofore or would hereafter suffer by virtue of said charge of desertion thus appearing against him; and upon such action being taken by the President such officer or enlisted man shall be regarded as having been honorably discharged on the date the charge of desertion was entered against him: Provided, That nothing contained in this section shall operate to entitle any officer or enlisted man to back pay or allowances of any kind or to a pension for any service rendered prior to the World War. (Mar. 4, 1925, c. 536, § 2, 43 Stat. 1270.)

1435. Removal of record of charge against soldiers in Civil War.—The Secretary of War is hereby authorized to remove the charge of desertion from the record of any regular or volunteer soldier in the Civil War upon proper application therefor, and satisfactory proof in the following cases:

First. That such soldier, after such charge of desertion was made, and within a reasonable time thereafter, voluntarily returned to his command and served faithfully to the end of his term of service, or until discharged.

Second. That such soldier absented himself from his command or from hospital while suffering from wounds, injuries, or disease, received or contracted in the line of duty, and upon recovery voluntarily returned to his command and served faithfully thereafter, or died from such wounds, injuries, or disease while so absent, and before the date of muster out of his command, or expiration of his term of service, or was prevented from so returning by reason of such wounds, injuries, or diseases before such muster out, or expiration of service.

Third. That such soldier was a minor, and was enlisted without the consent of his parent or guardian, and was released or discharged from such service by the order or decree of any State or United States court on habeas corpus or other judicial proceedings, and in such case such soldier shall not be entitled to any bounty or allowance, or pay for any time such soldier was not in the performance of military duty. (Mar. 2, 1891, c. 498, 26 Stat. 824.)

1436. Charge based on second enlistment by soldier in Civil War before expiration of or discharge from first enlistment.—The charge of desertion now standing on the rolls and records in the office of The Adjutant General of the Army against any Regular or Volunteer soldier who served in the late War of the Rebellion by reason of his having enlisted in any regiment, troop, or company, or in the United States Navy or Marine Corps, without having first received a discharge from the regiment, troop, or company in which he had previously served, shall be removed in all cases wherein it shall be made to appear to the satisfaction of the Secretary of War, from such rolls and records, or from other satisfactory testimony, that such reenlistment was not made for the purpose of securing bounty or other gratuity that he would not have been entitled to, had he remained under his original term of enlistment; that the absence from the service did not exceed four months, and that such soldier served faithfully under his reenlistment. (Mar. 2, 1889, c. 390, § 3, 25 Stat. 870.)

1437. Return to duty by soldier in Civil War after desertion as restoring right to pension.—Whenever it shall appear from the official records in the office of The Adjutant General, United States Army, that any Regular or Volunteer soldier of the Civil War was formally restored to duty from desertion by the commander competent to order his trial for the offense, or, having deserted and being charged with desertion, was, on return to the service, suffered, without such formal restoration, to resume his place in the ranks of his command, serving faithfully thereafter until the expiration of his term, such soldier shall not be deemed to rest under any disability, because of such desertion, in the prosecution of any claim for pension on account of disease contracted, or wounds or injuries received in the line of his duty as a soldier. (Mar. 2, 1889, c. 390, § 4, 25 Stat. 870.)

1438. Removal of record of charge against soldiers in Mexican War.—The Secretary of War be, and he hereby is, authorized and directed to amend the military record of any soldier who enlisted for the war with Mexico, upon proper application, where the rolls and records of The Adjutant General's office show the charge of desertion against him, when such rolls and records show the facts set out in the following cases:

First. That said soldier served faithfully the full term of his enlistment, or having served faithfully for six months or more, and until the 4th day of July, anno Domini 1848, left his command without having received a discharge.

Second. That such soldier, after said charge of desertion was entered on the rolls, voluntarily returned to his command within a reasonable time, and served faithfully until discharged. (Mar. 2, 1889, c. 390, § 6, 25 Stat. 870.)

1439. Right to pay, allowances, and bounty after removal of charge.—When the charge of desertion shall be removed under the provisions of sections 1435–1438 of this title, from the record of any soldier, such soldier, or, in case of his death, the heirs or legal representatives of such soldier, shall receive the pay and bounty due to such soldier: Provided, however, That said provisions shall not be so construed as to give to any such soldier, or, in case of his death, to the heirs or legal representatives of any such soldier, any pay, bounty, or allowance for any time during which such soldier was absent from his command without proper authority, nor shall they be so construed as to give any pay, bounty, or allowance to any soldier, his heirs or legal representatives, who served in the Army a period of less than six months. (Mar. 2, 1889, c. 390, § 5, 25 Stat. 870.)

1440. Cases excepted from provisions for removal of charge.—The provisions of sections 1435–1438 of this title shall not be so construed as to relieve any soldier from the charge of desertion who left his command from disaffection or disloyalty to the Government, or to evade the dangers and hardships of the service, or whilst in the presence of the enemy (not being sick or wounded), or while in arrest or under charges for breach of military duty, or in case of a soldier of the Mexican War, who did not actually reach the seat of war. (Mar. 2, 1889, c. 390, § 7, 25 Stat. 870.)

1441. Restoration of status by removal of charge.—When such charge of desertion is removed under the provisions of sections 1436–1439 of this title, the soldier shall be restored to a status of honorable service, his military record shall be corrected as the facts may require, and an honorable discharge shall be issued in those cases where the soldier has received none; and he shall be restored to all his rights as to pension, pay, or allowances as if the charge of desertion had never been made; and in case of the death of said soldier, his widow or other legal heir shall be entitled to the same rights as in case of other deceased honorably discharged soldiers: Provided, That sections 1436–1439 of this title shall not be construed to give to any soldier, or his legal representatives or heir, any pay or allowance for any period of time he was absent without leave, and not in the performance of military duty. (Mar. 2, 1889, c. 390, § 8, 25 Stat. 870.)

1442. Applications for removal of charge.—All applications for relief under sections 1435–1438 of this title shall be made to and filed with the Secretary of War. (Mar. 2, 1889, c. 390, § 9, 25 Stat. 871; July 27, 1892, c. 273, 27 Stat. 278; Mar. 2, 1895, c. 181, 28 Stat. 814.)

Chapter 35.—UNITED STATES DISCIPLINARY BARRACKS.

Sec.
1451. Name of Military Prison changed to Disciplinary Barracks.
1452. Persons to be confined in penitentiaries and Disciplinary Barracks, respectively.
1453. Government and control of Disciplinary Barracks.
1454. Officers, guards, etc.
1455. Commandant's powers and duties.
1456. Military training of offenders.
1457. Remission of unexecuted portions of sentences; restoration to duty.
1458. Branch disciplinary barracks.
1459. Manufacture of supplies for Army.
1460. Donation to dishonorably discharged prisoners.
1461. Compensation for arrest of escaped prisoners.

Section 1451. Name of Military Prison changed to Disciplinary Barracks.—The United States Military Prison, Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, shall hereafter be known as the United States Disciplinary Barracks. (Mar. 4, 1915, c. 143, § 2, 38 Stat. 1084.).

1452. Persons to be confined in penitentiaries and Disciplinary Barracks, respectively.—Persons sentenced to confinement upon conviction by courts-martial or other military tribunals of crimes or offenses which, under some statute of the United States or under some law of the State, Territory, District, or other jurisdiction in which the crime or offense may be committed, are punishable by confinement in a penitentiary, including persons sentenced to confinement upon conviction by courts-martial or other military tribunals of two or more acts or omissions, any one of which, under the statute or other law hereinbefore mentioned, constitutes or includes a crime or offense punishable by confinement in a penitentiary, may be confined at hard labor, during the entire period of confinement so adjudged, in any United States, State, Territorial, or District penitentiary, or in any other penitentiary directly or indirectly under the jurisdiction of the United States; and all persons sentenced to confinement upon conviction by courts-martial or other military tribunals who are not confined in a penitentiary may be confined and detained in the United States Disciplinary Barracks. (Mar. 4, 1915, c. 143, § 2, 38 Stat. 1084.)

1453. Government and control of Disciplinary Barracks.—The government and control of the United States Disciplinary Barracks and of all offenders sent thereto for confinement and detention therein shall be vested in The Adjutant General of the Army under the direction of the Secretary of War, who shall from time to time make such regulations respecting the same as may be deemed necessary, and who shall submit annually to Congress a full statement of the financial and other affairs of said institution for the preceding fiscal year. (Mar. 4, 1915, c. 143, § 2, 38 Stat. 1085.)

1454. Officers, guards, etc.—The officers of the United States Disciplinary Barracks shall consist of a commandant and such subordinate officers as may be necessary, who shall be detailed by the Secretary of War from the commissioned officers of the Army at large. In addition to detailing for duty at said Disciplinary Barracks such number of enlisted men of the Staff Corps and departments as he may deem necessary, the Secretary of War shall assign a sufficient number of enlisted men of the line of the Army for duty as guards at said Disciplinary Barracks and as noncommissioned officers of the disciplinary organizations hereinafter authorized. Said guards, and also the enlisted men assigned for duty as noncommissioned officers of disciplinary organizations, shall be detached from the line of the Army, or enlisted for the purpose; and said guards shall be organized as infantry, with noncommissioned officers, musicians, artificers, and cooks of the number and grades allowed by law for infantry organizations of like strength: Provided, That at least one of said guards shall have the rank, pay, and allowances of a battalion sergeant major. (Mar. 4, 1915, c. 143, § 2, 38 Stat. 1085.)

1455. Commandant's powers and duties.—The commandant of the United States Disciplinary Barracks shall have command thereof and charge and custody of all offenders sent thereto for confinement and detention therein; shall govern such offenders and cause them to be employed at such labor and in such trades and to perform such duties as may be deemed best for their health and reformation and with a view to their honorable restoration to duty or their reenlistment as hereinafter authorized; shall cause note to be taken and a record to be made of the conduct of such offenders; and may shorten the daily time of hard labor of those who by their obedience, honesty, industry, and general good conduct earn such favors—all under such regulations as the Secretary of War may from time to time prescribe. (Mar. 4, 1915, c. 143, § 2, 38 Stat. 1085.)

1456. Military training of offenders.—The Secretary of War shall provide for placing under military training those offenders sent to the United States Disciplinary Barracks for confinement and detention therein whose record and conduct are such as to warrant the belief that upon the completion of a course of military training they may be worthy of an honorable restoration to duty or of being permitted to reenlist; may provide for the organization of offenders so placed under military training into disciplinary companies and higher units, organized as infantry, with noncommissioned officers, except color sergeants, selected or appointed from the enlisted men assigned to duty for that purpose pursuant to the provisions of section 1454 hereof; and may provide for uniforming, arming, and equipping such organizations. (Mar. 4, 1915, c. 143, § 2, 38 Stat. 1085.)

1457. Remission of unexecuted portions of sentences; restoration to duty.—Whenever he shall deem such action merited the Secretary of War may remit the unexecuted portions of the sentences of offenders sent to the United States Disciplinary Barracks for confinement and detention therein, and in addition to such remission may grant those who have not been discharged from the Army an honorable restoration to duty, and may authorize the reenlistment of those who have been discharged or upon their written application to that end order their restoration to the Army to complete their respective terms of enlistment, and such application and order of restoration shall be effective to revive the enlistment contract for a period equal to the one not served under said contract. (Mar. 4, 1915, c. 143, § 2, 38 Stat. 1085.)

1458. Branch disciplinary barracks.—The Secretary of War may, from time to time, designate any building or structure or any part thereof under the control of the Secretary of War and pertaining to the Military Establishment as a branch disciplinary barracks for the confinement and detention of offenders whom it is impracticable to send to the United States Disciplinary Barracks at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas; and all branch disciplinary barracks and all offenders sent thereto for confinement and detention therein shall be subject to the laws respecting the United States Disciplinary Barracks at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, and the offenders sent thereto for confinement and detention therein. (Mar. 4, 1915, c. 143, § 2, 38 Stat. 1086.)

1459. Manufacture of supplies for Army.—The Secretary of War shall cause to be fabricated at the United States Disciplinary Barracks such supplies for the Army as can be economically and properly manufactured at the said Disciplinary Barracks. (Mar. 3, 1879, c. 182, § 1, 20 Stat. 389.)

1460. Donation to dishonorably discharged prisoners.—A donation of $10 shall be made to each prisoner discharged otherwise than honorably upon his release from confinement under court-martial sentence involving dishonorable discharge. (Feb. 12, 1925, c. 225, Title I, 43 Stat. 900.)

1461. Compensation for arrest of escaped prisoners.—No greater sum than $50 for each escaped military prisoner shall, in the discretion of the Secretary of War, be paid to any civil officer or citizen for services in the apprehension, securing and delivering of escaped military prisoners, and the expenses incident to their pursuit. (Feb. 12, 1925, c. 225, Title I, 43 Stat. 900.)

Section 1471. Enactment of Articles of War.—The articles included in this chapter shall be known as the Articles of War and shall at all times and in all places govern the Armies of the United States. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 787.)

I. PRELIMINARY PROVISIONS

1472. Definitions (article 1).—The following words when used in these articles shall be construed in the sense indicated in this article, unless the context shows that a different sense is intended, namely:

(a) The word "officer" shall be construed to refer to a commissioned officer;

(b) The word "soldier" shall be construed as including a noncommissioned officer, a private, or any other enlisted man;

(c) The word "company" shall be understood as including a troop or battery; and

(d) The word "battalion" shall be understood as including a squadron. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 787.)

1473. Persons subject to military law (article 2).—The following persons are subject to these articles and shall be understood as included in the term "any person subject to military law," or "persons subject to military law," whenever used in these articles: Provided, That nothing contained in this chapter of this title except as specifically provided in article 2, subparagraph (c), shall be construed to apply to any person under the United States naval jurisdiction unless otherwise specifically provided by law.

(a) All officers, members of the Army Nurse Corps, warrant officers, Army field clerks, field clerks Quartermaster Corps, and soldiers belonging to the Regular Army of the United States; all volunteers, from the dates of their muster or acceptance into the military service of the United States; and all other persons lawfully called, drafted, or ordered into, or to duty or for training in, the said service, from the dates they are required by the terms of the call, draft or order to obey the same;

(b) Cadets;

(c) Officers and soldiers of the Marine Corps when detached for service with the Armies of the United States by order of the President: Provided, That an officer or soldier of the Marine Corps when so detached may be tried by military court-martial for an offense committed against the laws for the government of the naval service prior to his detachment, and for an offense committed against these articles he may be tried by a naval court-martial after such detachment ceases;

(d) All retainers to the camp and all persons accompanying or serving with the Armies of the United States without the territorial jurisdiction of the United States, and in time of war all such retainers and persons accompanying or serving with the Armies of the United States in the field, both within and without the territorial jurisdiction of the United States, though not otherwise subject to these articles;

(e) All persons under sentence adjudged by courts-martial;

(f) All persons admitted into the Regular Army Soldiers' Home at Washington, District of Columbia. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 787.)

II. COURTS-MARTIAL

1474. Courts-martial classified (article 3).—Courts-martial shall be of three kinds, namely:

First, general courts-martial;

Second, special courts-martial; and

Third, summary courts-martial. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 788.)

A. Composition

1475. Who may serve on courts-martial (article 4).—All officers in the military service of the United States, and officers of the Marine Corps when detached for service with the Army by order of the President, shall be competent to serve on courts-martial for the trial of any persons who may lawfully be brought before such courts for trial. When appointing courts-martial the appointing authority shall detail as members thereof those officers of the command who, in his opinion, are best qualified for the duty by reason of age, training, experience, and judicial temperament; and officers having less than two years' service shall not, if it can be avoided without manifest injury to the service, be appointed as members of courts-martial in excess of the minority membership thereof. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 788.)

1476. General courts-martial (article 5).—General courts-martial may consist of any number of officers not less than five. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 788.)

1477. Special courts-martial (article 6).—Special courts-martial may consist of any number of officers not less than three. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 788.)

1478. Summary courts-martial (article 7).—A summary court-martial shall consist of one officer. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 788.)

B. By Whom Appointed

1479. General courts-martial (article 8).—The President of the United States, the commanding officer of a territorial division or department, the Superintendent of the Military Academy, the commanding officer of an army, an army corps, a division, or a separate brigade, and, when empowered by the President, the commanding officer of any district or of any force or body of troops may appoint general courts-martial; but when any such commander is the accuser or the prosecutor of the person or persons to be tried, the court shall be appointed by superior competent authority, and no officer shall be eligible to sit as a member of such court when he is the accuser or a witness for the prosecution.

The authority appointing a general court-martial shall detail as one of the members thereof a law member, who shall be an officer of the Judge Advocate General's Department, except that when an officer of that department is not available for the purpose the appointing authority shall detail instead an officer of some other branch of the service selected by the appointing authority as specially qualified to perform the duties of law member. The law member, in addition to his duties as a member, shall perform such other duties as the President may by regulations prescribe. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 788.)

1480. Special courts-martial (article 9).—The commanding officer of a district, garrison, fort, camp, or other place where troops are on duty, and the commanding officer of a brigade, regiment, detached battalion, or other detached command may appoint special courts-martial; but when any such commanding officer is the accuser or the prosecutor of the person or persons to be tried, the court shall be appointed by superior authority, and may in any case be appointed by superior authority when by the latter deemed desirable; and no officer shall be eligible to sit as a member of such court when he is the accuser or a witness for the prosecution. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 788.)

1481. Summary courts-martial (article 10).—The commanding officer of a garrison, fort, camp, or other place where troops are on duty, and the commanding officer of a regiment, detached battalion, detached company, or other detachment may appoint summary courts-martial; but such summary courts-martial may in any case be appointed by superior authority when by the latter deemed desirable: Provided, That when but one officer is present with a command he shall be the summary court-martial of that command and shall hear and determine cases brought before him. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 789.)

1482. Appointment of trial judge advocates and counsel (article 11).—For each general or special court-martial the authority appointing the court shall appoint a trial judge advocate and a defense counsel and for each general court-martial one or more assistant trial judge advocates and one or more assistant defense counsel when necessary: Provided, however, That no officer who has acted as member, trial judge advocate, assistant trial judge advocate, defense counsel, or assistant defense counsel in any case shall subsequently act as staff judge advocate to the reviewing or confirming authority upon the same case. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 789.)

C. Jurisdiction

1483. General courts-martial (article 12).—General courts-martial shall have power to try any person subject to military law for any crime or offense made punishable by these articles, and any other person who by the law of war is subject to trial by military tribunals: Provided, That no officer shall be brought to trial before a general court-martial appointed by the Superintendent of the Military Academy: Provided further, That the officer competent to appoint a general court-martial for the trial of any particular case may, when in his judgment the interest of the service shall so require, cause any case to be tried by a special court-martial notwithstanding the limitations upon the jurisdiction of the special court-martial as to offenses set out in article 13; but the limitations upon jurisdiction as to persons and upon punishing power set out in said article shall be observed. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 789.)

1484. Special courts-martial (article 13).—Special courts-martial shall have power to try any person subject to military law for any crime or offense not capital made punishable by these articles: Provided, That the President may, by regulations, except from the jurisdiction of special courts-martial any class or classes of persons subject to military law.

Special courts-martial shall not have power to adjudge confinement in excess of six months, nor to adjudge forfeiture of more than two-thirds pay per month for a period of not exceeding six months. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 789.)

1485. Summary courts-martial (article 14).—Summary courts-martial shall have power to try any person subject to military law, except an officer, a member of the Army Nurse Corps, a warrant officer, an Army field clerk, a field clerk Quartermaster Corps, a cadet, or a soldier holding the privileges of a certificate of eligibility to promotion, for any crime or offense not capital made punishable by these articles: Provided, That noncommissioned officers shall not, if they object thereto, be brought to trial before a summary court-martial without the authority of the officer competent to bring them to trial before a general court-martial: Provided further, That the President may by regulations except from the jurisdiction of summary courts-martial any class or classes of persons subject to military law.

Summary courts-martial shall not have power to adjudge confinement in excess of one month, restriction to limits for more than three months, or forfeiture or detention of more than two-thirds of one month's pay. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 789.)

1486. Jurisdiction not exclusive (article 15).—The provisions of these articles conferring jurisdiction upon courts-martial shall not be construed as depriving military commissions, provost courts, or other military tribunals of concurrent jurisdiction in respect of offenders or offenses that by statute or by the law of war may be triable by such military commissions, provost courts, or other military tribunals. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 790.)

1487. Officers, how triable (article 16).—Officers shall be triable only by general and special courts-martial, and in no case shall an officer, when it can be avoided, be tried by officers inferior to him in rank. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 790.)

D. Procedure

1488. Trial judge advocate to prosecute; counsel to defend (article 17).—The trial judge advocate of a general or special court-martial shall prosecute in the name of the United States, and shall under the direction of the court prepare the record of its proceedings. The accused shall have the right to be represented in his defense before the court by counsel of his own selection, civil counsel if he so provides, or military if such counsel be reasonably available, otherwise by the defense counsel duly appointed for the court pursuant to article 11. Should the accused have counsel of his own selection, the defense counsel and assistant defense counsel, if any, of the court, shall, if the accused so desires, act as his associate counsel. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 790.)

1489. Challenges (article 18).—Members of a general or special court-martial may be challenged by the accused or the trial judge advocate for cause stated to the court. The court shall determine the relevancy and validity thereof, and shall not receive a challenge to more than one member at a time. Challenges by the trial judge advocate shall ordinarily be presented and decided before those by the accused are offered. Each side shall be entitled to one peremptory challenge; but the law member of the court shall not be challenged except for cause. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 790.)

1490. Oaths (article 19).—The trial judge advocate of a general or special court-martial shall administer to the members of the court, before they proceed upon any trial, the following oath or affirmation: "You, A B, do swear (or affirm) that you will well and truly try and determine, according to the evidence, the matter now before you, between the United States of America and the person to be tried, and that you will duly administer justice, without partiality, favor, or affection, according to the provisions of the rules and articles for the government of the armies of the United States, and if any doubt should arise, not explained by said articles, then according to your conscience, the best of your understanding, and the custom of war in like cases; and you do further swear (or affirm) that you will not divulge the findings or sentence of the court until they shall be published by the proper authority or duly announced by the court, except to the trial judge advocate and assistant trial judge advocate: neither will you disclose or discover the vote or opinion of any particular member of the court-martial upon a challenge or upon the findings or sentence, unless required to give evidence thereof as a witness by a court of justice in due course of law. So help you God."

When the oath or affirmation has been administered to the members of a general or special court-martial the president of the court shall administer to the trial judge advocate and to each assistant trial judge advocate, if any, an oath or affirmation in the following form: "You, A B, do swear (or affirm) that you will faithfully and impartially perform the duties of a trial judge advocate, and will not divulge the findings or sentence of the court to any but the proper authority until they shall be duly disclosed. So help you God."

All persons who give evidence before a court-martial shall be examined on oath or affirmation in the following form: "You swear (or affirm) that the evidence you shall give in the case now in hearing shall be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth. So help you God."

Every reporter of the proceedings of a court-martial shall, before entering upon his duties, make oath or affirmation in the following form: "You swear (or affirm) that you will faithfully perform the duties of reporter to this court. So help you God."

Every interpreter in the trial of any case before a court-martial shall, before entering upon his duties, make oath of affirmation in the following form: "You swear (or affirm) that you will truly interpret in the case now in hearing. So help you God."

In the case of affirmation the closing sentence of adjuration will be omitted. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 790.)

1491. Continuances (article 20).—A court-martial may, for reasonable cause, grant a continuance to either party for such time and as often as may appear to be just. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 791.)

1492. Refusal or failure to plead (article 21).—When an accused arraigned before a court-martial fails or refuses to plead, or answers foreign to the purpose, or after a plea of guilty makes a statement inconsistent with the plea, or when it appears to the court that he entered a plea of guilty improvidently or through lack of understanding of its meaning and effect, the court shall proceed to trial and judgment as if he had pleaded not guilty. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 791.)

1493. Process to obtain witnesses (article 22).—Every trial judge advocate of a general or special court-martial and every summary court-martial shall have power to issue the like process to compel witnesses to appear and testify which courts of the United States, having criminal jurisdiction, may lawfully issue; but such process shall run to any part of the United States, its Territories, and possessions. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 791.)

1494. Refusal to appear or testify (article 23).—Every person not subject to military law who, being duly subpœnaed to appear as a witness before any military court, commission, court of inquiry, or board, or before any officer, military or civil, designated to take a deposition to be read in evidence before such court, commission, court of inquiry, or board, willfully neglects or refuses to appear, or refuses to qualify as a witness, or to testify, or produce documentary evidence which such person may have been legally subpœnaed to produce, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, for which such person shall be punished on information in the district court of the United States or in a court of original criminal jurisdiction in any of the Territorial possessions of the United States, jurisdiction being hereby conferred upon such courts for such purpose; and it shall be the duty of the United States district attorney or the officer prosecuting for the Government in any such court of original criminal jurisdiction, on the certification of the facts to him by the military court, commission, court of inquiry, or board, to file an information against and prosecute the person so offending, and the punishment of such person, on conviction, shall be a fine of not more than $500 or imprisonment not to exceed six months, or both, at the discretion of the court: Provided, That the fees of such witness and his mileage, at the rates allowed to witnesses attending the courts of the United States, shall be duly paid or tendered said witness, such amounts to be paid out of the appropriation for the compensation of witnesses: Provided further, That every person not subject to military law, who before any court-martial, military tribunal, or military board, or in connection with, or in relation to any proceedings or investigation before it or had under any of the provisions of this chapter of this title is guilty of any of the acts made punishable as offenses against public justice by any provision of chapter 6 of Title 18, shall be punished as therein provided. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 791.)

1496. Depositions; when admissible (article 25).—A duly authenticated deposition taken upon reasonable notice to the opposite party may be read in evidence before any military court or commission in any case not capital, or in any proceeding before a court of inquiry or a military board, if such deposition be taken when the witness resides, is found, or is about to go beyond the State, Territory, or district in which the court, commission, or board is ordered to sit, or beyond the distance of one hundred miles from the place of trial or hearing, or when it appears to the satisfaction of the court, commission, board, or appointing authority that the witness, by reason of age, sickness, bodily infirmity, imprisonment, or other reasonable cause, is unable to appear and testify in person at the place of trial or hearing: Provided, That testimony by deposition may be adduced for the defense in capital cases. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 792.)

1497. Depositions; before whom taken (article 26).—Depositions to be read in evidence before military courts, commissions, courts of inquiry, or military boards, or for other use in military administration, may be taken before and authenticated by any officer, military or civil, authorized by the laws of the United States or by the laws of the place where the deposition is taken to administer oaths. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 792.)

1498. Courts of inquiry; records of, when admissible (article 27).—The record of the proceedings of a court of inquiry may, with the consent of the accused, be read in evidence before any court-martial or military commission in any case not capital nor extending to the dismissal of an officer, and may also be read in evidence in any proceeding before a court of inquiry or a military board: Provided, That such evidence may be adduced by the defense in capital cases or cases extending to the dismissal of an officer. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 792.)

1499. Certain acts to constitute desertion (article 28).—Any officer who, having tendered his resignation and prior to due notice of the acceptance of the same, quits his post or proper duties without leave and with intent to absent himself permanently therefrom shall be deemed a deserter.

Any soldier who, without having first received a regular discharge, again enlists in the Army, or in the militia when in the service of the United States, or in the Navy or Marine Corps of the United States, or in any foreign army, shall be deemed to have deserted the service of the United States; and, where the enlistment is in one of the forces of the United States mentioned above, to have fraudulently enlisted therein.

Any person subject to military law who quits his organization or place of duty with the intent to avoid hazardous duty or to shirk important service shall be deemed a deserter. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 792.)

1500. Court to announce action (article 29).—Whenever the court has acquitted the accused upon all specifications and charges, the court shall at once announce such result in open court. Under such regulations as the President may prescribe, the findings and sentence in other cases may be similarly announced. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 792.)

1501. Closed sessions (article 30).—Whenever a general or special court-martial shall sit in closed session, the trial judge advocate and the assistant trial judge advocate, if any, shall withdraw; and when their assistance in referring to the recorded evidence is required, it shall be obtained in open court, and in the presence of the accused and of his counsel, if there be any. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 793.)

1502. Method of voting (article 31).—Voting by members of a general or special court-martial upon questions of challenge, on the findings, and on the sentence shall be by secret written ballot. The junior member of the court shall in each case count the votes, which count shall be checked by the president, who will forthwith announce the result of the ballot to the members of the court. The law member of the court, if any, or if there be no law member of the court, then the president, may rule in open court upon the interlocutory questions, other than challenges, arising during the proceedings: Provided, That unless such ruling be made by the law member of the court if any member object thereto the court shall be cleared and closed and the question decided by a majority vote, viva voce, beginning with the junior in rank: And provided further, That if any such ruling be made by the law member of the court upon any interlocutory question other than an objection to the admissibility of evidence offered during the trial, and any member object to the ruling, the court shall likewise be cleared and closed and the question decided by a majority vote, viva voce, beginning with the junior in rank: Provided further, however, That the phrase, "objection to the admissibility of evidence offered during the trial," as used in the next preceding proviso hereof, shall not be construed to include questions as to the order of the introduction of witnesses or other evidence, nor of the recall of witnesses for further examination, nor as to whether expert witnesses shall be admitted or called upon any question, nor as to whether the court shall view the premises where an offense is alleged to have been committed, nor as to the competency of witnesses, as, for instance, of children, witnesses alleged to be mentally incompetent, and the like, nor as to the insanity of accused, or whether the existence of mental disease or mental derangement on the part of the accused has become an issue in the trial, or accused required to submit to physical examination, nor whether any argument or statement of counsel for the accused or of the trial judge advocate is improper, nor any ruling in a case involving military strategy or tactics or correct military action; but, upon all these questions arising on the trial, if any member object to any ruling of the law member, the court shall be cleared and closed and the question decided by majority vote of the members in the manner aforesaid. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 793.)

1503. Contempts (article 32).—A military tribunal may punish as for contempt any person who uses any menacing words, signs, or gestures in its presence, or who disturbs its proceedings by any riot or disorder: Provided, That such punishment shall in no case exceed one month's confinement, or a fine of $100, or both. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 793.)

1504. Records; general courts-martial (article 33).—Each general court-martial shall keep a separate record of its proceedings in the trial of each case brought before it, and such record shall be authenticated by the signature of the president and the trial judge advocate; but in case the record can not be authenticated by the president and trial judge advocate, by reason of the death, disability, or absence of either or both of them, it shall be signed by a member in lieu of the president and by an assistant trial judge advocate, if there be one, in lieu of the trial judge advocate; otherwise by another member of the court. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 793.)

1505. Records; special and summary courts-martial (article 34).—Each special court-martial and each summary court-martial shall keep a record of its proceedings, separate for each case, which record shall contain such matter and be authenticated in such manner as may be required by regulations which the President may from time to time prescribe. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 794.)

1506. Disposition of records; general courts-martial (article 35).—The trial judge advocate of each general court-martial shall, with such expedition as circumstances may permit, forward to the appointing authority or to his successor in command the original record of the proceedings of such court in the trial of each case. All records of such proceedings shall, after having been acted upon, be transmitted to the Judge Advocate General of the Army. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 794.)

1507. Disposition of records; special and summary courts-martial (article 36).—After having been acted upon by the officer appointing the court, or by the officer commanding for the time being, the record of each trial by special court-martial and a report of each trial by summary court-martial shall be transmitted to such general headquarters as the President may designate in regulations, there to be filed in the office of the judge advocate. When no longer of use, records of summary courts-martial may be destroyed. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 794.)

1508. Irregularities; effect of (article 37).—The proceedings of a court-martial shall not be held invalid, nor the findings or sentence disapproved, in any case on the ground of improper admission or rejection of evidence or for any error as to any matter of pleading or procedure unless in the opinion of the reviewing or confirming authority, after an examination of the entire proceedings, it shall appear that the error complained of has injuriously affected the substantial rights of an accused: Provided, That the act or omission upon which the accused has been tried constitutes an offense denounced and made punishable by one or more of these articles: Provided further, That the omission of the words "hard labor" in any sentence of a court-martial adjudging imprisonment or confinement shall not be construed as depriving the authorities executing such sentence of imprisonment or confinement of the power to require hard labor as a part of the punishment in any case where it is authorized by the Executive order prescribing maximum punishments. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 794.)

1509. President may prescribe rules (article 38).—The President may, by regulations, which he may modify from time to time, prescribe the procedure, including modes of proof, in cases before courts-martial, courts of inquiry, military commissions, and other military tribunals, which regulations shall, in so far as he shall deem practicable, apply the rules of evidence generally recognized in the trial of criminal cases in the district courts of the United States: Provided, That nothing contrary to or inconsistent with these articles shall be so prescribed: Provided further, That all rules made in pursuance of this article shall be laid before the Congress annually. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 794.)

E. LIMITATIONS UPON PROSECUTIONS

1510. As to time (article 39).—Except for desertion committed in time of war, or for mutiny or murder, no person subject to military law shall be liable to be tried or punished by a court-martial for any crime or offense committed more than two years before the arraignment of such person: Provided, That for desertion in time of peace or for any crime or offense punishable under articles 93 and 94 of this Code the period of limitations upon trial and punishment by court-martial shall be three years: Provided further, That the period of any absence of the accused from the jurisdiction of the United States, and also any period during which by reason of some manifest impediment the accused shall not have been amenable to military justice, shall be excluded in computing the aforesaid periods of limitation: And provided further, That this article shall not have the effect to authorize the trial or punishment for any crime or offense barred by the provisions of existing law. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 794.)

1511. As to number (article 40).—No person shall, without his consent, be tried a second time for the same offense; but no proceeding in which an accused has been found guilty by a court-martial upon any charge or specification shall be held to be a trial in the sense of this article until the reviewing and, if there be one, the confirming authority shall have taken final action upon the case.

No authority shall return a record of trial to any court-martial for reconsideration of—

(a) An acquittal; or

(b) A finding of not guilty of any specification; or

(c) A finding of not guilty of any charge, unless the record shows a finding of guilty under a specification laid under that charge, which sufficiently alleges a violation of some article of war; or

(d) The sentence originally imposed, with a view to increasing its severity, unless such sentence is less than the mandatory sentence fixed by law for the offense or offenses upon which a conviction has been had.

And no court-martial, in any proceedings on revision, shall reconsider its finding or sentence in any particular in which a return of the record of trial for such reconsideration is hereinbefore prohibited. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 795.)

F. PUNISHMENTS

1512. Cruel and unusual punishments prohibited (article 41).—Cruel and unusual punishments of every kind, including flogging, branding, marking, or tattooing on the body, are prohibited. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 795.)

1513. Places of confinement; when lawful (article 42).—Except for desertion in time of war, repeated desertion in time of peace, and mutiny, no person shall under the sentence of a court-martial be punished by confinement in a penitentiary unless an act or omission of which he is convicted is recognized as an offense of a civil nature and so punishable by penitentiary confinement for more than one year by some statute of the United States, of general application within the continental United States, excepting section 468 of Title 18, or by the law of the District of Columbia, or by way of commutation of a death sentence, and unless, also, the period of confinement authorized and adjudged by such court-martial is more than one year: Provided, That when a sentence of confinement is adjudged by a court-martial upon conviction of two or more acts or omissions any one of which is punishable under these articles by confinement in a penitentiary, the entire sentence of confinement may be executed in a penitentiary: Provided further, That penitentiary confinement hereby authorized may be served in any penitentiary directly or indirectly under the jurisdiction of the United States: Provided further, That persons sentenced to dishonorable discharge and to confinement not in a penitentiary shall be confined in the United States Disciplinary Barracks or elsewhere as the Secretary of War or the reviewing authority may direct, but not in a penitentiary. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 795.)

1514. Death sentence; when lawful (article 43).—No person shall, by general court-martial, be convicted of an offense for which the death penalty is made mandatory by law, nor sentenced to suffer death, except by the concurrence of all the members of said court-martial present at the time the vote is taken, and for an offense in these articles expressly made punishable by death; nor sentenced to life imprisonment, nor to confinement for more than ten years, except by the concurrence of three-fourths of all of the members present at the time the vote is taken. All other convictions and sentences, whether by general or special court-martial, may be determined by a two-thirds vote of those members present at the time the vote is taken. All other questions shall be determined by a majority vote. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 795.)

1515. Cowardice; fraud; accessory penalty (article 44).—When an officer is dismissed from the service for cowardice or fraud, the crime, punishment, name, and place of abode of the delinquent shall be published in the newspapers in and about the camp and in the State from which the offender came or where he usually resides; and after such publication it shall be scandalous for an officer to associate with him. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 796.)

1516. Maximum limits (article 45).—Whenever the punishment for a crime or offense made punishable by these articles is left to the discretion of the court-martial, the punishment shall not exceed such limit or limits as the President may from time to time prescribe: Provided, That in time of peace the period of confinement in a penitentiary shall in no case exceed the maximum period prescribed by the law which, under article 42 of these articles, permits confinement in a penitentiary, unless in addition to the offense so punishable under such law the accused shall have been convicted at the same time of one or more other offenses. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 796.)

G. ACTION BY APPOINTING OR SUPERIOR AUTHORITY

1517. Action by convening authority (article 46).—Under such regulations as may be prescribed by the President every record of trial by general court-martial or military commission received by a reviewing or confirming authority shall be referred by him, before he acts thereon, to his staff judge advocate or to the Judge Advocate General. No sentence of a court-martial shall be carried into execution until the same shall have been approved by the officer appointing the court or by the officer commanding for the time being. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 796.)

1518. Powers incident to power to approve (article 47).—The power to approve the sentence of a court-martial shall be held to include:

(a) The power to approve or disapprove a finding and to approve only so much of a finding of guilty of a particular offense as involves a finding of guilty of a lesser included offense when, in the opinion of the authority having power to approve, the evidence of record requires a finding of only the lesser degree of guilt; and

(b) The power to approve or disapprove the whole or any part of the sentence.

(c) The power to remand a case for rehearing, under the provisions of article 50½. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 796.)

1519. Confirmation; when required (article 48).—In addition to the approval required by article 46, confirmation by the President is required in the following cases before the sentence of a court-martial is carried into execution, namely:

(a) Any sentence respecting a general officer.

(b) Any sentence extending to the dismissal of an officer, except that in time of war a sentence extending to the dismissal of an officer below the grade of brigadier general may be carried into execution upon confirmation by the commanding general of the Army in the field or by the commanding general of the territorial department or division;

(c) Any sentence extending to the suspension or dismissal of a cadet; and

(d) Any sentence of death, except in the cases of persons convicted in time of war of murder, rape, mutiny, desertion, or as spies; and in such excepted cases a sentence of death may be carried into execution, subject to the provisions of article 50½, upon confirmation by the commanding general of the Army in the field or by the commanding general of the territorial department or division.

When the authority competent to confirm the sentence has already acted as the approving authority no additional confirmation by him is necessary. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 796.)

1520. Powers incident to power to confirm (article 49).—The power to confirm the sentence of a court-martial shall be held to include:

(a) The power to confirm or disapprove a finding, and to confirm so much only of a finding of guilty of a particular offense as involves a finding of guilty of a lesser included offense when, in the opinion of the authority having power to confirm, the evidence of record requires a finding of only the lesser degree of guilt; and

(b) The power to confirm or disapprove the whole or any part of the sentence.

(c) The power to remand a case for rehearing, under the provisions of article 50½. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 797.)

1521. Mitigation or remission of sentences (article 50).—The power to order the execution of the sentence adjudged by a court-martial shall be held to include, inter alia, the power to mitigate or remit the whole or any part of the sentence.

Any unexecuted portion of a sentence adjudged by a court-martial may be mitigated or remitted by the military authority competent to appoint, for the command, exclusive of penitentiaries and the United States Disciplinary Barracks, in which the person under sentence is held, a court of the kind that imposed the sentence, and the same power may be exercised by superior military authority; but no sentence approved or confirmed by the President shall be remitted or mitigated by any other authority, and no approved sentence of loss of files by an officer shall be remitted or mitigated by any authority inferior to the President, except as provided in the fifty-second article.

When empowered by the President so to do, the commanding general of the Army in the field or the commanding general of the territorial department or division, may approve or confirm and commute (but not approve or confirm without commuting), mitigate, or remit and then order executed as commuted, mitigated, or remitted any sentence which under these articles requires the confirmation of the President before the same may be executed.

The power of remission or mitigation shall extend to all uncollected forfeitures adjudged by sentence of court-martial. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 797.)

1522. Review; hearing (article 50½).—The Judge Advocate General shall constitute, in his office, a board of review consisting of not less than three officers of the Judge Advocate General's Department.

Before any record of trial in which there has been adjudged a sentence requiring approval or confirmation by the President under the provisions of article 46, article 48, or article 51 is submitted to the President, such record shall be examined by the board of review. The board shall submit its opinion, in writing, to the Judge Advocate General, who shall, except as herein otherwise provided, transmit the record and the board's opinion, with his recommendations, directly to the Secretary of War for the action of the President.

Except as herein provided, no authority shall order the execution of any other sentence of a general court-martial involving the penalty of death, dismissal not suspended, dishonorable discharge not suspended, or confinement in a penitentiary, unless and until the board of review shall, with the approval of the Judge Advocate General, have held the record of trial upon which such sentence is based legally sufficient to support the sentence; except that the proper reviewing or confirming authority may upon his approval of a sentence involving dishonorable discharge or confinement in a penitentiary order its execution if it is based solely upon findings of guilty of a charge or charges and a specification or specifications to which the accused has pleaded guilty. When the board of review, with the approval of the Judge Advocate General, holds the record in a case in which the order of execution has been withheld under the provisions of this paragraph legally sufficient to support the findings and sentence, the Judge Advocate General shall so advise the reviewing or confirming authority from whom the record was received, who may thereupon order the execution of the sentence. When in a case in which the order of execution has been withheld under the provisions of this paragraph, the board of review holds the record of trial legally insufficient to support the findings or sentence, either in whole or in part, or that errors of law have been committed injuriously affecting the substantial rights of the accused, and the Judge Advocate General concurs in such holding of the board of review, such findings and sentence shall be vacated in whole or in part in accord with such holding and the recommendations of the Judge Advocate General thereon, and the record shall be transmitted through the proper channels to the convening authority for a rehearing or such other action as may be proper. In the event that the Judge Advocate General shall not concur in the holding of the board of review, the Judge Advocate General shall forward all the papers in the case, including the opinion of the board of review and his own dissent therefrom, directly to the Secretary of War for the action of the President, who may confirm the action of the reviewing authority or confirming authority below, in whole or in part with or without remission, mitigation, or commutation, or may disapprove, in whole or in part, any finding of guilty, and may disapprove or vacate the sentence, in whole or in part.

When the President or any reviewing or confirming authority disapproves or vacates a sentence the execution of which has not theretofore been duly ordered, he may authorize or direct a rehearing. Such rehearing shall take place before a court composed of officers not members of the court which first heard the case. Upon such rehearing the accused shall not be tried for any offense of which he was found not guilty by the first court, and no sentence in excess of or more severe than the original sentence shall be enforced unless the sentence be based upon a finding of guilty of an offense not considered upon the merits in the original proceeding: Provided, That such rehearing shall be had in all cases where a finding and sentence have been vacated by reason of the action of the board of review approved by the Judge Advocate General holding the record of trial legally insufficient to support the findings or sentence or that errors of law have been committed injuriously affecting the substantial rights of the accused, unless, in accord with such action, and the recommendations of the Judge Advocate General thereon, the findings or sentence are approved in part only, or the record is returned for revision, or unless the case is dismissed by order of the reviewing or confirming authority. After any such rehearing had on the order of the President, the record of trial shall, after examination by the board of review, be transmitted by the Judge Advocate General, with the board's opinion and his recommendations, directly to the Secretary of War for the action of the President.

Every record of trial by general court-martial, examination of which by the board of review is not hereinbefore in this article provided for, shall nevertheless be examined in the Judge Advocate General's Office; and if found legally insufficient to support the findings and sentence, in whole or in part, shall be examined by the board of review, and the board, if it also finds that such record is legally insufficient to support the findings and sentence, in whole or in part, shall, in writing, submit its opinion to the Judge Advocate General, who shall transmit the record and the board's opinion, with his recommendations, directly to the Secretary of War for the action of the President. In any such case the President may approve, disapprove or vacate, in whole or in part any findings of guilty, or confirm, mitigate, commute, remit, or vacate any sentence, in whole or in part, and direct the execution of the sentence as confirmed or modified, and he may restore the accused to all rights affected by the findings and sentence, or part thereof, held to be invalid; and the President's necessary orders to this end shall be binding upon all departments and officers of the Government.

Whenever necessary, the Judge Advocate General may constitute two or more boards of review in his office, with equal powers and duties.

Whenever the President deems such action necessary, he may direct the Judge Advocate General to establish a branch of his office, under an Assistant Judge Advocate General, with any distant command, and to establish in such branch office a board of review, or more than one. Such Assistant Judge Advocate General and such board or boards of review shall be empowered to perform for that command, under the general supervision of the Judge Advocate General, the duties which the Judge Advocate General and the board or boards of review in his office would otherwise be required to perform in respect of all cases involving sentences not requiring approval or confirmation by the President. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 797.)

1523. Suspension of sentences of dismissal or death (article 51).—The authority competent to order the execution of a sentence of dismissal of an officer or a sentence of death may suspend such sentence until the pleasure of the President be known, and in case of such suspension a copy of the order of suspension, together with a copy of the record of trial, shall immediately be transmitted to the President. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 799.)

1524. Suspension of sentences (article 52).—The authority competent to order the execution of the sentence of a court-martial may, at the time of the approval of such sentence, suspend the execution, in whole or in part, of any such sentence as does not extend to death, and may restore the person under sentence to duty during such suspension; and the Secretary of War or the commanding officer holding general court-martial jurisdiction over any such offender, may at any time thereafter, while the sentence is being served, suspend the execution, in whole or in part, of the balance of such sentence and restore the person under sentence to duty during such suspension. A sentence, or any part thereof, which has been so suspended may be remitted, in whole or in part, except in cases of persons confined in the United States Disciplinary Barracks or its branches, by the officer who suspended the same, by his successor in office, or by any officer exercising appropriate court-martial jurisdiction over the command in which the person under sentence may be serving at the time, and, subject to the foregoing exceptions, the same authority may vacate the order of suspension at any time and order the execution of the sentence or the suspended part thereof in so far as the same shall not have been previously remitted, subject to like power of suspension. The death or honorable discharge of a person under a suspended sentence shall operate as a complete remission of any unexecuted or unremitted part of such sentence. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 799.)

1525. Execution or remission; confinement in disciplinary barracks (article 53).—When a sentence of dishonorable discharge has been suspended until the soldier's release from confinement, the execution or remission of any part of his sentence shall, if the soldier be confined in the United States Disciplinary Barracks, or any branch thereof, be directed by the Secretary of War. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 800.)

III. PUNITIVE ARTICLES

A. Enlistment; Muster; Returns

1526. Fraudulent enlistment (article 54).—Any person who shall procure himself to be enlisted in the military service of the United States by means of willful misrepresentation or concealment as to his qualifications for enlistment, and shall receive pay or allowances under such enlistment, shall be punished as a court-martial may direct. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 800.)

1527. Officer making unlawful enlistment (article 55).—Any officer who knowingly enlists or musters into the military service any person whose enlistment or muster in is prohibited by law, regulations, or orders shall be dismissed from the service or suffer such other punishment as a court-martial may direct. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 800.)

1528. False muster (article 56).—Any officer who knowingly makes a false muster of man or animal, or who signs or directs or allows the signing of any muster roll knowing the same to contain a false muster or false statement as to the absence or pay of an officer or soldier, or who wrongfully takes money or other consideration on mustering in a regiment, company, or other organization, or on signing muster rolls, or who knowingly musters as an officer or soldier a person who is not such officer or soldier, shall be dismissed from the service and suffer such other punishment as a court-martial may direct. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 800.)

1529. False returns; omission to render returns (article 57).—Every officer whose duty it is to render to the War Department or other superior authority a return of the state of the troops under his command, or of the arms, ammunition, clothing, funds, or other property thereunto belonging, who knowingly makes a false return thereof shall be dismissed from the service and suffer such other punishment as a court-martial may direct. And any officer who, through neglect or design, omits to render such return shall be punished as a court-martial may direct. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 800.)

B. DESERTION; ABSENCE WITHOUT LEAVE

1530. Desertion (article 58).—Any person subject to military law who deserts or attempts to desert the service of the United States shall, if the offense be committed in time of war, suffer death or such other punishment as a court-martial may direct, and, if the offense be committed at any other time, any punishment, excepting death, that a court-martial may direct. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 800.)

1531. Advising or aiding another to desert (article 59).—Any person subject to military law who advises or persuades or knowingly assists another to desert the service of the United States shall, if the offense be committed in time of war, suffer death or such other punishment as a court-martial may direct, and, if the offense be committed at any other time, any punishment, excepting death, that a court-martial may direct. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 800.)

1532. Entertaining a deserter (article 60).—Any officer who, after having discovered that a soldier in his command is a deserter from the military or naval service or from the Marine Corps, retains such deserter in his command without informing superior authority or the commander of the organization to which the deserter belongs shall be punished as a court-martial may direct. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 800.)

1533. Absence without leave (article 61).—Any person subject to military law who fails to repair at the fixed time to the properly appointed place of duty, or goes from the same without proper leave, or absents himself from his command, guard, quarters, station, or camp without proper leave, shall be punished as a court-martial may direct. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 801.)

C. DISRESPECT; INSUBORDINATION; MUTINY

1534. Disrespect toward the President, Congress, Secretary of War, governors, legislature (article 62).—Any officer who uses contemptuous or disrespectful words against the President, Vice President, the Congress of the United States, the Secretary of War, or the governor or legislature of any State, Territory, or other possession of the United States in which he is quartered shall be dismissed from the service or suffer such other punishment as a court-martial may direct. Any other person subject to military law who so offends shall be punished as a court-martial may direct. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 801.)

1535. Disrespect toward superior officer (article 63).—Any person subject to military law who behaves himself with disrespect toward his superior officer shall be punished as a court-martial may direct. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 801.)

1536. Assaulting or willfully disobeying superior officer (article 64).—Any person subject to military law who, on any pretense whatsoever, strikes his superior officer or draws or lifts up any weapon or offers any violence against him, being in the execution of his office, or willfully disobeys any lawful command of his superior officer, shall suffer death or such other punishment as a court-martial may direct. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 801.)

1537. Insubordinate conduct toward noncommissioned officer (article 65).—Any soldier who strikes or assaults, or who attempts or threatens to strike or assault, or willfully disobeys the lawful order of a warrant officer or a noncommissioned officer while in the execution of his office, or uses threatening or insulting language, or behaves in an insubordinate or disrespectful manner toward a warrant officer or a noncommissioned officer while in the execution of his office, shall be punished as a court-martial may direct. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 801.)

1538. Mutiny or sedition (article 66).—Any person subject to military law who attempts to create or who begins, excites, causes, or joins in any mutiny or sedition in any company, party, post, camp, detachment, guard, or other command shall suffer death or such other punishment as a court-martial may direct. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 801.)

1539. Failure to suppress mutiny or sedition (article 67).—Any officer or soldier who, being present at any mutiny or sedition, does not use his utmost endeavor to suppress the same, or knowing or having reason to believe that a mutiny or sedition is to take place, does not without delay give information thereof to his commanding officer, shall suffer death or such other punishment as a court-martial may direct. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 801.)

1540. Quarrels; frays; disorders (article 68).—All officers, members of the Army Nurse Corps, warrant officers, Army field clerks, field clerks, Quartermaster Corps, and noncommissioned officers have power to part and quell all quarrels, frays, and disorders among persons subject to military law and to order officers who take part in the same into arrest, and other persons subject to military law who take part in the same into arrest or confinement, as circumstances may require, until their proper superior officer is acquainted therewith. And whosoever, being so ordered, refuses to obey such officer, nurse, band leader, warrant officer, field clerk, or noncommissioned officer, or draws a weapon upon or otherwise threatens or does violence to him, shall be punished as a court-martial may direct. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 801.)

D. ARREST; CONFINEMENT

1541. Arrest or confinement (article 69).—Any person subject to military law charged with crime or with a serious offense under these articles shall be placed in confinement or in arrest as circumstances may require; but when charged with a minor offense only such person shall not ordinarily be placed in confinement. Any person placed in arrest under the provisions of this article shall thereby be restricted to his barracks, quarters, or tent, unless such limits shall be enlarged by proper authority. Any officer or cadet who breaks his arrest or who escapes from confinement, whether before or after trial or sentence and before he is set at liberty by proper authority, shall be dismissed from the service or suffer such other punishment as a court-martial may direct; and any other person subject to military law who escapes from confinement or who breaks his arrest, whether before or after trial or sentence and before he is set at liberty by proper authority, shall be punished as a court-martial may direct. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 802.)

1542. Charges; action upon (article 70).—Charges and specifications must be signed by a person subject to military law, and under oath either that he has personal knowledge of, or has investigated, the matters set forth therein, and that the same are true in fact, to the best of his knowledge and belief.

No charge will be referred for trial until after a thorough and impartial investigation thereof shall have been made. This investigation will include inquiries as to the truth of the matter set forth in said charges, form of charges, and what disposition of the case should be made in the interest of justice and discipline. At such investigation full opportunity shall be given to the accused to cross-examine witnesses against him if they are available and to present anything he may desire in his own behalf either in defense or mitigation, and the investigating officer shall examine available witnesses requested by the accused. If the charges are forwarded after such investigation, they shall be accompanied by a statement of the substance of the testimony taken on both sides.

Before directing the trial of any charge by general court-martial the appointing authority will refer it to his staff judge advocate for consideration and advice.

When any person subject to military law is placed in arrest or confinement immediate steps will be taken to try the person accused or to dismiss the charge and release him. Any officer who is responsible for unnecessary delay in investigating or carrying the case to a final conclusion shall be punished as a court-martial may direct. When a person is held for trial by general court-martial the commanding officer will, within eight days after the accused is arrested or confined, if practicable, forward the charges to the officer exercising general court-martial jurisdiction and furnish the accused a copy of such charges. If the same be not practicable, he will report to superior authority the reasons for delay. The trial judge advocate will cause to be served upon the accused a copy of the charges upon which trial is to be had, and a failure so to serve such charges will be ground for a continuance unless the trial be had on the charges furnished the accused as hereinbefore provided. In time of peace no person shall, against his objection, be brought to trial before a general court-martial within a period of five days subsequent to the service of charges upon him. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 802.)

1543. Refusal to receive and keep prisoners (article 71).—No provost marshal or commander of a guard shall refuse to receive or keep any prisoner committed to his charge by an officer belonging to the forces of the United States, provided the officer committing shall, at the time, deliver an account in writing, signed by himself, of the crime or offense charged against the prisoner. Any officer or soldier so refusing shall be punished as a court-martial may direct. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 802.)

1544. Report of prisoners received (article 72).—Every commander of a guard to whose charge a prisoner is committed shall, within twenty-four hours after such confinement, or as soon as he is relieved from his guard, report in writing to the commanding officer the name of such prisoner, the offense charged against him, and the name of the officer committing him; and if he fails to make such report, he shall be punished as a court-martial may direct. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 803.)

1545. Releasing prisoner without proper authority (article 73).—Any person subject to military law who, without proper authority, releases any prisoner duly committed to his charge, or who through neglect or design suffers any prisoner so committed to escape, shall be punished as a court-martial may direct. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 803.)

1546. Delivery of offenders to civil authorities (article 74).—When any person subject to military law, except one who is held by the military authorities to answer, or who is awaiting trial or result of trial, or who is undergoing sentence for a crime or offense punishable under these articles, is accused of a crime or offense committed within the geographical limits of the States of the Union and the District of Columbia, and punishable by the laws of the land, the commanding officer is required, except in time of war, upon application duly made, to use his utmost endeavor to deliver over such accused person to the civil authorities, or to aid the officers of justice in apprehending and securing him, in order that he may be brought to trial. Any commanding officer who upon such application refuses or willfully neglects, except in time of war, to deliver over such accused person to the civil authorities or to aid the officers of justice in apprehending and securing him shall be dismissed from the service or suffer such other punishment as a court-martial may direct.

When, under the provisions of this article, delivery is made to the civil authorities of an offender undergoing sentence of a court-martial, such delivery, if followed by conviction, shall be held to interrupt the execution of the sentence of the court-martial, and the offender shall be returned to military custody, after having answered to the civil authorities for his offense, for the completion of the said court-martial sentence. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 803.)

E. War Offenses

1547. Misbehavior before the enemy (article 75).—Any officer or soldier who, before the enemy, misbehaves himself, runs away, or shamefully abandons or delivers up or by any misconduct, disobedience, or neglect endangers the safety of any fort, post, camp, guard, or other command which it is his duty to defend, or speaks words inducing others to do the like, or casts away his arms or ammunition, or quits his post or colors to plunder or pillage, or by any means whatsoever occasions false alarms in camp, garrison, or quarters, shall suffer death or such other punishment as a court-martial may direct. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 803.)

1548. Subordinates compelling commander to surrender (article 76).—Any person subject to military law who compels or attempts to compel any commander of any garrison, fort, post, camp, guard, or other command, to give it up to the enemy or to abandon it shall be punishable with death or such other punishment as a court-martial may direct. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 803.)

1549. Improper use of countersign (article 77).—Any person subject to military law who makes known the parole or countersign to any person not entitled to receive it according to the rules and discipline of war, or gives a parole or countersign different from that which he received, shall, if the offense be committed in time of war, suffer death or such other punishment as a court-martial may direct. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 803.)

1550. Forcing a safeguard (article 78).—Any person subject to military law who, in time of war, forces a safeguard shall suffer death or such other punishment as a court-martial may direct. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 803.)

1551. Captured property to be secured for public service (article 79).—All public property taken from the enemy is the property of the United States and shall be secured for the service of the United States, and any person subject to military law who neglects to secure such property or is guilty of wrongful appropriation thereof shall be punished as a court-martial may direct. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 804.)

1552. Dealing in captured or abandoned property (article 80).—Any person subject to military law who buys, sells, trades, or in any way deals in or disposes of captured or abandoned property, whereby he shall receive or expect any profit, benefit, or advantage to himself or to any other person directly or indirectly connected with himself, or who fails whenever such property comes into his possession or custody or within his control to give notice thereof to the proper authority and to turn over such property to the proper authority without delay, shall, on conviction thereof, be punished by fine or imprisonment, or by such other punishment as a court-martial, military commission, or other military tribunal may adjudge, or by any or all of said penalties. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 804.)

1553. Relieving, corresponding with, or aiding the enemy (article 81).—Whosoever relieves or attempts to relieve the enemy with arms, ammunition, supplies, money, or other thing, or knowingly harbors or protects or holds correspondence with or gives intelligence to the enemy, either directly or indirectly, shall suffer death or such other punishment as a court-martial or military commission may direct. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 804.)

1554. Spies (article 82).—Any person who in time of war shall be found lurking or acting as a spy in or about any of the fortifications, posts, quarters, or encampments of any of the armies of the United States, or elsewhere, shall be tried by a general court-martial or by a military commission, and shall, on conviction thereof, suffer death. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 804.)

F. Miscellaneous Crimes and Offenses

1555. Military property; willful or negligent loss, damage, or wrongful disposition (article 83).—Any person subject to military law who willfully, or through neglect, suffers to be lost, spoiled, damaged, or wrongfully disposed of, any military property belonging to the United States shall make good the loss or damage and suffer such punishment as a court-martial may direct. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 804.)

1556. Waste or unlawful disposition of military property issued to soldiers (article 84).—Any soldier who sells or wrongfully disposes of or willfully or through neglect injures or loses any horse, arms, ammunition, accouterments, equipment, clothing, or other property issued for use in the military service, shall be punished as a court-martial may direct. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 804.)

1557. Drunk on duty (article 85).—Any officer who is found drunk on duty shall, if the offense be committed in time of war, be dismissed from the service and suffer such other punishment as a court-martial may direct; and if the offense be committed in time of peace, he shall be punished as a court-martial may direct. Any person subject to military law, except an officer, who is found drunk on duty shall be punished as a court-martial may direct. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 804.)

1558. Misbehavior of sentinel (article 86).—Any sentinel who is found drunk or sleeping upon his post, or who leaves it before he is regularly relieved, shall, if the offense be committed in time of war suffer death or such other punishment as a court-martial may direct; and if the offense be committed in time of peace, he shall suffer any punishment, except death, that a court-martial may direct. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 804.)

1559. Personal interest in sale of provisions (article 87).—Any officer commanding in any garrison, fort, barracks, camp, or other place where troops of the United States may be serving who, for his private advantage, lays any duty or imposition upon or is interested in the sale of any victuals or other necessaries of life brought into such garrison, fort, barracks, camp, or other place for the use of the troops, shall be dismissed from the service and suffer such other punishment as a court-martial may direct. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 804.)

1560. Intimidation of persons bringing provisions (article 88).—Any person subject to military law who abuses, intimidates, does violence to, or wrongfully interferes with any person bringing provisions, supplies, or other necessaries to the camp, garrison, or quarters of the forces of the United States shall suffer such punishment as a court-martial may direct. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 805.)

1561. Good order to be maintained and wrongs redressed (article 89).—All persons subject to military law are to behave themselves orderly in quarters, garrison, camp, and on the march; and any person subject to military law who commits any waste or spoil, or willfully destroys any property whatsoever (unless by order of his commanding officer), or commits any kind of depredation or riot, shall be punished as a court-martial may direct. Any commanding officer who, upon complaint made to him, refuses or omits to see reparation made to the party injured, in so far as the offender's pay shall go toward such reparation, as provided for in article 105, shall be dismissed from the service, or otherwise punished, as a court-martial may direct. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 805.)

1562. Provoking speeches or gestures (article 90).—No person subject to military law shall use any reproachful or provoking speeches or gestures to another; and any person subject to military law who offends against the provisions of this article shall be punished as a court-martial may direct. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 805.)

1563. Dueling (article 91).—Any person subject to military law who fights or promotes or is concerned in or connives at fighting a duel, or who, having knowledge of a challenge sent or about to be sent, fails to report the fact promptly to the proper authority, shall, if an officer, be dismissed from the service or suffer such other punishment as a court-martial may direct; and if any other person subject to military law, shall suffer such punishment as a court-martial may direct. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 805.)

1564. Murder; rape (article 92).—Any person subject to military law who commits murder or rape shall suffer death or imprisonment for life, as a court-martial may direct; but no person shall be tried by court-martial for murder or rape committed within the geographical limits of the States of the Union and the District of Columbia in time of peace. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 805.)

1565. Various crimes (article 93).—Any person subject to military law who commits manslaughter, mayhem, arson, burglary, housebreaking, robbery, larceny, embezzlement, perjury, forgery, sodomy, assault with intent to commit any felony, assault with intent to do bodily harm with a dangerous weapon, instrument, or other thing, or assault with intent to do bodily harm, shall be punished as a court-martial may direct. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 805.)

1566. Frauds against the Government (article 94).—Any person subject to military law who makes or causes to be made any claim against the United States or any officer thereof, knowing such claim to be false or fraudulent; or

Who presents or causes to be presented to any person in the civil or military service thereof, for approval or payment, any claim against the United States, or any officer thereof, knowing such claim to be false or fraudulent; or

Who enters into any agreement or conspiracy to defraud the United States by obtaining, or aiding others to obtain, the allowance or payment of any false or fraudulent claim; or

Who, for the purpose of obtaining, or aiding others to obtain, the approval, allowance, or payment of any claim against the United States or against any officer thereof, makes or uses, or procures, or advises the making or use of, any writing or other paper knowing the same to contain any false or fraudulent statements; or

Who, for the purpose of obtaining, or aiding others to obtain, the approval, allowance, or payment of any claim against the United States or any officer thereof, makes or procures, or advises the making of, any oath to any fact or to any writing or other paper knowing such oath to be false; or

Who, for the purpose of obtaining, or aiding others to obtain, the approval, allowance, or payment of any claim against the United States or any officer thereof, forges or counterfeits, or procures, or advises the forging or counterfeiting of any signature upon any writing or other paper, or uses, or procures, or advises the use of any such signature, knowing the same to be forged or counterfeited; or

Who, having charge, possession, custody, or control of any money or other property of the United States, furnished or intended for the military service thereof, knowingly delivers, or causes to be delivered to any person having authority to receive the same, any amount thereof less than that for which he receives a certificate or receipt; or

Who, being authorized to make or deliver any paper certifying the receipt of any property of the United States furnished or intended for the military service thereof, makes or delivers to any person such writing, without having full knowledge of the truth of the statements therein contained and with intent to defraud the United States; or

Who steals, embezzles, knowingly and willfully misappropriates, applies to his own use or benefit, or wrongfully or knowingly sells or disposes of any ordnance, arms, equipments, ammunition, clothing, subsistence stores, money, or other property of the United States furnished or intended for the military service thereof; or

Who knowingly purchases or receives in pledge for any obligation or indebtedness from any soldier, officer, or other person who is a part of or employed in said forces or service, any ordnance, arms, equipment, ammunition, clothing, subsistence stores, or other property of the United States, such soldier, officer, or other person not having lawful right to sell or pledge the same;

Shall, on conviction thereof, be punished by fine or imprisonment, or by such other punishment as a court-martial may adjudge, or by any or all of said penalties. And if any person, being guilty of any of the offenses aforesaid while in the military service of the United States, receives his discharge or is dismissed from the service, he shall continue to be liable to be arrested and held for trial and sentence by a court-martial in the same manner and to the same extent as if he had not received such discharge nor been dismissed. And if any officer, being guilty, while in the military service of the United States, of embezzlement of ration savings, post exchange, company, or other like funds, or of embezzlement of money or other property intrusted to his charge by an enlisted man or men, receives his discharge, or is dismissed, or is dropped from the rolls, he shall continue to be liable to be arrested and held for trial and sentence by a court-martial in the same manner and to the same extent as if he had not been so discharged, dismissed, or dropped from the rolls. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 805.)

1567. Conduct unbecoming an officer and gentleman (article 95).—Any officer or cadet who is convicted of conduct unbecoming an officer and a gentleman shall be dismissed from the service. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 806.)

1568. General article (article 96).—Though not mentioned in these articles, all disorders and neglects to the prejudice of good order and military discipline, all conduct of a nature to bring discredit upon the military service, and all crimes or offenses not capital, of which persons subject to military law may be guilty, shall be taken cognizance of by a general or special or summary court-martial, according to the nature and degree of the offense, and punished at the discretion of such court. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 806.)

IV. COURTS OF INQUIRY

1569. When and by whom ordered (article 97).—A court of inquiry to examine into the nature of any transaction of or accusation or imputation against any officer or soldier may be ordered by the President or by any commanding officer; but a court of inquiry shall not be ordered by any commanding officer except upon the request of the officer or soldier whose conduct is to be inquired into. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 807.)

1570. Composition (article 98).—A court of inquiry shall consist of three or more officers. For each court of inquiry the authority appointing the court shall appoint a recorder. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 807.)

1571. Challenges (article 99).—Members of a court of inquiry may be challenged by the party whose conduct is to be inquired into, but only for cause stated to the court. The court shall determine the relevancy and validity of any challenge, and shall not receive a challenge to more than one member at a time. The party whose conduct is being inquired into shall have the right to be represented before the court by counsel of his own selection, if such counsel be reasonably available. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41, Stat. 807.)

1572. Oath of members and recorders (article 100).—The recorder of a court of inquiry shall administer to the members the following oath: "You, A. B., do swear (or affirm) that you will well and truly examine and inquire, according to the evidence, into the matter now before you without partiality, favor, affection, prejudice, or hope of reward. So help you God." After which the president of the court shall administer to the recorder the following oath: "You, A. B., do swear (or affirm) that you will, according to your best abilities, accurately and impartially record the proceedings of the court and the evidence to be given in the case in hearing. So help you God."

In case of affirmation the closing sentence of adjuration will be omitted. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 807.)

1573. Powers; procedure (article 101).—A court of inquiry and the recorder thereof shall have the same power to summon and examine witnesses as is given to courts-martial and the trial judge advocate thereof. Such witnesses shall take the same oath or affirmation that is taken by witnesses before courts-martial. A reporter or an interpreter for a court of inquiry shall, before entering upon his duties, take the oath or affirmation required of a reporter or an interpreter for a court-martial. The party whose conduct is being inquired into or his counsel, if any, shall be permitted to examine and cross-examine witnesses so as fully to investigate the circumstances in question. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 807.)

1574. Opinion on merits of case (article 102).—A court of inquiry shall not give an opinion on the merits of the case inquired into unless specially ordered to do so. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 807.)

1575. Record of proceedings; how authenticated (article 103).—Each court of inquiry shall keep a record of its proceedings, which shall be authenticated by the signature of the president and the recorder thereof, and be forwarded to the convening authority. In case the record can not be authenticated by the recorder, by reason of his death, disability, or absence, it shall be signed by the president and by one other member of the court. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 807.)

V. MISCELLANEOUS PROCEEDINGS

1576. Disciplinary powers of commanding officers (article 104).—Under such regulations as the President may prescribe, the commanding officer of any detachment, company, or higher command may, for minor offenses impose disciplinary punishments upon persons of his command without the intervention of a court-martial unless the accused demands trial by court-martial.

The disciplinary punishments authorized by this article may include admonition, reprimand, withholding of privileges for not exceeding one week, extra fatigue for not exceeding one week, restriction to certain specified limits for not exceeding one week, and hard labor without confinement for not exceeding one week, but shall not include forfeiture of pay or confinement under guard; except that in time of war or grave public emergency a commanding officer of the grade of brigadier general or of higher grade may, under the provisions of this article also impose upon an officer of his command below the grade of major a forfeiture of not more than one-half of such officer's monthly pay for one month. A person punished under authority of this article, who deems his punishment unjust or disproportionate to the offense, may, through the proper channel, appeal to the next superior authority, but may in the meantime be required to undergo the punishment adjudged. The commanding officer who imposes the punishment, his successor in command, and superior authority shall have power to mitigate or remit any unexecuted portion of the punishment. The imposition and enforcement of disciplinary punishment under authority of this article for any act or omission shall not be a bar to trial by court-martial for a crime or offense growing out of the same act or omission; but the fact that a disciplinary punishment has been enforced may be shown by the accused upon trial, and when so shown shall be considered in determining the measure of punishment to be adjudged in the event of a finding of guilty. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 808.)

1577. Injuries to property; redress of (article 105).—Whenever complaint is made to any commanding officer that damage has been done to the property of any person or that his property has been wrongfully taken by persons subject to military law, such complaint shall be investigated by a board consisting of any number of officers from one to three, which board shall be convened by the commanding officer and shall have, for the purpose of such investigation, power to summon witnesses and examine them upon oath or affirmation, to receive depositions or other documentary evidence, and to assess the damages sustained against the responsible parties. The assessment of damages made by such board shall be subject to the approval of the commanding officer, and in the amount approved by him shall be stopped against the pay of the offenders. And the order of such commanding officer directing stoppages herein authorized shall be conclusive on any disbursing officer for the payment by him to the injured parties of the stoppages so ordered.

Where the offenders can not be ascertained, but the organization or detachment to which they belong is known, stoppages to the amount of damages inflicted may be made and assessed in such proportion as may be deemed just upon the individual members thereof who are shown to have been present with such organization or detachment at the time the damages complained of were inflicted as determined by the approved findings of the board. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 808.)

1578. Arrest of deserters by civil officials (article 106).—It shall be lawful for any civil officer having authority under the laws of the United States, or of any State, Territory, District, or possession of the United States, to arrest offenders, summarily to arrest a deserter from the military service of the United States and deliver him into the custody of the military authorities of the United States. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 808.)

1579. Soldiers to make good time lost (article 107).—Every soldier who in an existing or subsequent enlistment deserts the service of the United States or without proper authority absents himself from his organization, station, or duty for more than one day, or who is confined for more than one day under sentence, or while awaiting trial and disposition of his case, if the trial results in conviction, or through the intemperate use of drugs or alcoholic liquor, or through disease or injury the result of his own misconduct, renders himself unable for more than one day to perform duty, shall be liable to serve, after his return to a full-duty status, for such period as shall, with the time he may have served prior to such desertion, unauthorized absence, confinement, or inability to perform duty, amount to the full term of that part of his enlistment period which he is required to serve with his organization before being furloughed to the Army reserve. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 809.)

1580. Soldiers; separation from the service (article 108).—No enlisted man, lawfully inducted into the military service of the United States, shall be discharged, from said service without a certificate of discharge, signed by a field officer of the regiment or other organization to which the enlisted man belongs or by the commanding officer when no such field officer is present; and no enlisted man shall be discharged from said service before his term of service has expired, except by order of the President, the Secretary of War, the commanding officer of a department, or by sentence of a general court-martial. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 809.)

1581. Oath of enlistment (article 109).—At the time of his enlistment ever soldier shall take the following oath or affirmation: "I, ————, do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the United States of America; that I will serve them honestly and faithfully against all their enemies whomsoever; and that I will obey the orders of the President of the United States and the orders of the officers appointed over me, according to the Rules and Articles of War." This oath or affirmation may be taken before any officer. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 809.)

1582. Certain articles to be read and explained (article 110).—Articles 1, 2, and 29, 54 to 96, inclusive, and 104 to 109, inclusive, shall be read and explained to every soldier at the time of his enlistment or muster in, or within six days thereafter, and shall be read and explained once every six months to the soldiers of every garrison, regiment, or company in the service of the United States. (June 4, 1920 c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 809.)

1583. Copy of record of trial (article 111).—Every person tried by a general court-martial shall, on demand therefor, made by himself or by any person in his behalf, be entitled to a copy of the record of the trial. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 809.)

1584. Effects of deceased persons; disposition of (article 112).—In case of the death of any person subject to military law the commanding officer of the place of command will permit the legal representative or widow of the deceased, if present, to take possession of all his effects then in camp or quarters; and if no legal representative or widow be present, the commanding officer shall direct a summary court to secure all such effects, and said summary court shall have authority to collect and receive any debts due decedent's estate by local debtors and to pay the undisputed local creditors of decedent in so far as any money belonging to the deceased which may come into said summary court's possession under this article will permit, taking receipts therefor for file with said court's final report upon its transactions to the War Department; and as soon as practicable after the collection of such effects said summary court shall transmit such effects and any money collected, through the Quartermaster Department, at Government expense, to the widow or legal representative of the deceased, if such be found by said court, or to the son, daughter, father, provided the father has not abandoned the support of his family, mother, brother, sister, or the next of kin in the order named, if such be found by said court, or the beneficiary named in the will of the deceased, if such be found by said court, and said court shall thereupon make to the War Department a full report of its transactions; but if there be none of the persons hereinabove named, or such persons or their addresses are not known to or readily ascertainable by said court, and the said court shall so find, said summary court shall have authority to convert into cash, by public or private sale, not earlier than thirty days after the death of the deceased, all effects of deceased except sabers, insignia, decorations, medals, watches, trinkets, manuscripts, and other articles valuable chiefly as keepsakes; and as soon as practicable after converting such effects into cash said summary court shall deposit with the proper officer, to be designated in regulations, any cash belonging to decedent's estate, and shall transmit a receipt for such deposits, any will or other papers of value belonging to the deceased, any sabers, insignia, decorations, medals, watches, trinkets, manuscripts, and other articles valuable chiefly as keepsakes, together with an inventory of the effects secured by said summary court, and a full account of its transactions, to the War Department for transmission to the General Accounting Office for action as authorized by law in the settlement of accounts of deceased officers and enlisted men of the Army.

The provisions of this article shall be applicable to inmates of the United States Soldiers' Home who die in any United States military hospital outside of the District of Columbia where sent from the home for treatment. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 809.)

1585. Inquests (article 113).—When at any post, fort, camp, or other place garrisoned by the military forces of the United States and under the exclusive jurisdiction of the United States, any person shall have been found dead under circumstances which appear to require investigation, the commanding officer will designate and direct a summary court-martial to investigate the circumstances attending the death; and, for this purpose, such summary court-martial shall have power to summon witnesses and examine them upon oath or affirmation. He shall promptly transmit to the post or other commander a report of his investigation and of his findings as to the cause of the death. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 810.)

1586. Authority to administer oaths (article 114).—Any judge advocate or acting judge advocate, the president of a general or special court-martial, any summary court-martial, the trial judge advocate or any assistant trial judge advocate of a general or special court-martial, the president or the recorder of a court of inquiry, or of a military board, any officer designated to take a deposition, any officer detailed to conduct an investigation, and the adjutant of any command shall have power to administer oaths for the purposes of the administration of military justice and for other purposes of military administration; and in foreign places where the Army may be serving shall have the general powers of a notary public or of a consul of the United States in the administration of oaths, the execution and acknowledgment of legal instruments, the attestation of documents, and all other forms of notarial acts to be executed by persons subject to military law. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 810.)

1587. Appointment of reporters and interpreters (article 115).—Under such regulations as the Secretary of War may from time to time prescribe, the president of a court-martial or military commission or a court of inquiry shall have power to appoint a reporter, who shall record the proceedings of and testimony taken before such court or commission and may set down the same, in the first instance, in shorthand. Under like regulations the president of a court-martial or military commission, or court of inquiry, or a summary court, may appoint an interpreter, who shall interpret for the court or commission. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 810.)

1588. Powers of assistant trial judge advocate and of assistant defense counsel (article 116).—An assistant trial judge advocate of a general court-martial shall be competent to perform any duty devolved by law, regulation, or the custom of the service upon the trial judge advocate of the court. An assistant defense counsel shall be competent likewise to perform any duty devolved by law, regulation, or the custom of the service upon counsel for the accused. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 811.)

1589. Removal of civil suits (article 117).—When any civil or criminal prosecution is commenced in any court of a State against any officer, soldier, or other person in the military service of the United States on account of any act done under color of his office or status, or in respect to which he claims any right, title, or authority under any law of the United States respecting the military forces thereof, or under the law of war, such suit or prosecution may at any time before the trial or final hearing thereof be removed for trial into the district court of the United States in the district where the same is pending in the manner prescribed in section 36 of Title 28, and the cause shall thereupon be entered on the docket of said district court and shall proceed therein as if the cause had been originally commenced in said district court and the same proceedings had been taken in such suit or prosecution in said district court as shall have been had therein in said State court prior to its removal, and said district court shall have full power to hear and determine said cause. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 811.)

1590. Officers, separation from service (article 118).—No officer shall be discharged or dismissed from the service except by order of the President or by sentence of a general court-martial; and in time of peace no officer shall be dismissed except in pursuance of the sentence of a general court-martial or in mitigation thereof; but the President may at any time drop from the rolls of the Army any officer who has been absent from duty three months without leave or who has been absent in confinement in a prison or penitentiary for three months after final conviction by a court of competent jurisdiction. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 811.)

1591. Rank and precedence among Regulars, Militia, and Volunteers (article 119).—In time of war or public danger, when two or more officers of the same grade are on duty in the same field, department, or command, or of organizations thereof, the President may assign the command of the forces of such field, department, or command, or of any organization thereof, without regard to seniority of rank in the same grade. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 811.)

1592. Command when different corps or commands happen to join (article 120).—When different corps or commands of the military forces of the United States happen to join or do duty together, the officer highest in rank of the line of the Regular Army, Marine Corps, forces drafted or called into the service of the United States, or Volunteers, there on duty, shall, subject to the provisions of the last preceding article, command the whole and give orders for what is needful in the service, unless otherwise directed by the President. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 811.)

1593. Complaints of wrongs (article 121).—Any officer or soldier who believes himself wronged by his commanding officer, and, upon due application to such commander, is refused redress, may complain to the general commanding in the locality where the officer against whom the complaint is made is stationed. The general shall examine into said complaint and take proper measures for redressing the wrong complained of; and he shall, as soon as possible, transmit to the Department of War a true statement of such complaint, with the proceedings had thereon. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter II, § 1, 41 Stat. 811.)

(9) "creditor" shall include anyone who owns a demand or claim provable in bankruptcy, and may include his duly authorized agent, attorney, or proxy; (10) "date of bankruptcy," or "time of bankruptcy," or "commencement of proceedings," or "bankruptcy," with reference to time, shall mean the date when the petition was filed; (11) "debt" shall include any debt, demand, or claim provable in bankruptcy; (12) "discharge" shall mean the release of a bankrupt from all of his debts which are provable in bankruptcy, except such as are excepted by this title; (13) "document" shall include any book, deed, or instrument in writing; (14) "holiday" shall include Christmas, the Fourth of July, the twenty-second of February, and any day appointed by the President of the United States or the Congress of the United States as a holiday or as a day of public fasting or thanksgiving; (15) a person shall be deemed insolvent within the provisions of this title whenever the aggregate of his property, exclusive of any property which he may have conveyed, transferred, concealed, or removed, or permitted to be concealed or removed, with intent to defraud, hinder, or delay his creditors, shall not, at a fair valuation, be sufficient in amount to pay his debts; (16) "judge" shall mean a judge of a court of bankruptcy, not including the referee; (17) "oath" shall include affirmation; (18) "officer" shall include clerk, marshal, receiver, referee, and trustee, and the imposing of a duty upon or the forbidding of an act by any officer shall include his successor and any person authorized by law to perform the duties of such officer; (19) "persons" shall include corporations, except where otherwise specified, and officers, partnerships, and women, and when used with reference to the commission of acts which are herein forbidden shall include persons who are participants in the forbidden acts, and the agents, officers, and members of the board of directors or trustees, or other similar controlling bodies of corporations; (20) "petition" shall mean a paper filed in a court of bankruptcy or with a clerk or deputy clerk by a debtor praying for the benefits of this title, or by creditors, alleging the commission of an act of bankruptcy by a debtor therein named; (21) "referee" shall mean the referee who has jurisdiction of the case or to whom the case has been referred, or anyone acting in his stead; (22) "conceal" shall include secrete, falsify, and mutilate; (23) "secured creditor" shall include a creditor who has security for his debt upon the property of the bankrupt of a nature to be assignable under this title, or who owns such a debt for which some indorser, surety, or other persons secondarily liable for the bankrupt has such security upon the bankrupt's assets; (24) "States" shall include Alaska, Hawaii, Porto Rico, and the District of Columbia; (25) "transfer" shall include the sale and every other and different mode of disposing of or parting with property, or the possession of property, absolutely or conditionally, as a payment, pledge, mortgage, gift, or security; (26) "trustee" shall include all of the trustees of an estate; (27) "wage earner" shall mean an individual who works for wages, salary, or hire, at a rate of compensation not exceeding $1,500 per year; (28) words importing the masculine gender may be applied to and include corporations, partnerships, and women; (29) words importing the plural number may be applied to and mean only a single person or thing; (30) words importing the singular number may be applied to and mean several persons or things. (July 1, 1898, c. 541, § 1, 30 Stat. 544; Apr. 12, 1900, c. 191, § 34, 31 Stat. 85; Mar. 3, 1909, c. 269, § 1, 35 Stat. 838.)

Chapter 2.—CREATION OF COURTS OF BANKRUPTCY AND THEIR JURISDICTION.

Section 11. Courts; jurisdiction and powers.—The courts of bankruptcy as defined in the previous chapter, viz., the district courts of the United States in the several States, the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, and the United States courts in the District of Alaska, Hawaii, and Porto Rico, are made courts of bankruptcy, and are invested, within their respective territorial limits as established on July 1, 1898, or as they may be thereafter changed, with such jurisdiction at law and in equity as will enable them to exercise original jurisdiction in bankruptcy proceedings, in vacation in chambers and during their respective terms, as they were on July 1, 1898, or may be thereafter held, to (1) adjudge persons bankrupt who have had their principal place of business, resided, or had their domicile within their respective territorial jurisdictions for the preceding six months, or the greater portion thereof, or who do not have their principal place of business, reside, or have their domicile within the United States, but have property within their jurisdictions, or who have been adjudged bankrupts by courts of competent jurisdiction without the United States and have property within their jurisdictions; (2) allow claims, disallow claims, reconsider allowed or disallowed claims, and allow or disallow them against bankrupt estates; (3) appoint receivers or the marshals, upon application of parties in interest, in case the courts shall find it absolutely necessary; for the preservation of estates, to take charge of the property of bankrupts after the filing of the petition and until it is dismissed or the trustee is qualified; (4) arraign, try, and punish bankrupts, officers, and other persons, and the agents, officers, members of the board of directors or trustees, or other similar controlling bodies, of corporations for violations of the provisions contained in this title, in accordance with the laws of procedure of the United States in force on July 1, 1898, or such as may be thereafter enacted, regulating trials for the alleged violation of laws of the United States; (5) authorize the business of bankrupts to be conducted for limited periods by receivers, the marshals, or trustees, if necessary in the best interests of the estates, and allow such officers additional compensation for such services, as provided in section 76 of this title; (6) bring in and substitute additional persons or parties in proceedings in bankruptcy when necessary for the complete determination of a matter in controversy; (7) cause the estates of bankrupts to be collected, reduced to money and distributed, and determine controversies in relation thereto, except as herein otherwise provided; (8) close estates, whenever it appears that they have been fully administered, by approving the final accounts and discharging the trustees, and reopen them whenever it appears they were closed before being fully administered; (9) confirm or reject compositions between debtors and their creditors, and set aside compositions and reinstate the cases; (10) consider and confirm, modify or overrule, or return, with instructions for further proceedings, records and findings certified to them by referees; (11) determine all claims of bankrupts to their exemptions; (12) discharge or refuse to discharge bankrupts and set aside discharges and reinstate the cases; (13) enforce obedience by bankrupts, officers, and other persons to all lawful orders, by fine or imprisonment or fine and imprisonment; (14) extradite bankrupts from their respective districts to other districts; (15) make such orders, issue such process, and enter such judgments in addition to those specifically provided for as may be necessary for the enforcement of the provisions of this title; (16) punish persons for contempts committed before referees; (17) pursuant to the recommendation of creditors, or when they neglect to recommend the appointment of trustees, appoint trustees, and upon complaints of creditors, remove trustees for cause upon hearings and after notices to them; (18) tax costs, whenever they are allowed by law, and render judgments therefor against the unsuccessful party, or the successful party for cause, or in part against each of the parties, and against estates, in proceedings in bankruptcy; (19) transfer cases to other courts of bankruptcy and (20) exercise ancillary jurisdiction over persons or property within their respective territorial limits in aid of a receiver or trustee appointed in any bankruptcy proceedings pending in any other court of bankruptcy.

Nothing in this section contained shall be construed to deprive a court of bankruptcy of any power it would possess were certain specific powers not herein enumerated. (July 1, 1898, c. 541, § 2, 30 Stat. 545; Apr. 12, 1900, c. 191, § 34, 31 Stat. 85; Feb. 5, 1903, c. 487, § 1, 32 Stat. 797; Mar. 3, 1909, c. 269, § 1, 35 Stat. 838; June 25, 1910, c. 412, §§ 1, 2, 36 Stat. 838, 839.)

Section 21. Acts of bankruptcy.—(a) Acts of bankruptcy by a person shall consist of his having (1) conveyed, transferred, concealed, or removed, or permitted to be concealed or removed, any part of his property with intent to hinder, delay, or defraud his creditors, or any of them; or (2) transferred, while insolvent, any portion of his property to one or more of his creditors with intent to prefer such creditors over his other creditors; or (3) suffered or permitted, while insolvent, any creditor to obtain a preference through legal proceedings, and not having at least five days before a sale or final disposition of any property affected by such preference vacated or discharged such preference; or (4) made a general assignment for the benefit of his creditors, or, being insolvent, applied for a receiver or trustee for his property or because of insolvency a receiver or trustee has been put in charge of his property under the laws of a State, of a Territory, or of the United States; or (5) admitted in writing his inability to pay his debts and his willingness to be adjudged a bankrupt on that ground.

(b) A petition may be filed against a person who is insolvent and who has committed an act of bankruptcy within four months after the commission of such act. Such time shall not expire until four months after (1) the date of the recording or registering of the transfer or assignment when the act consists in having made a transfer of any of his property with intent to hinder, delay, or defraud his creditors or for the purpose of giving a preference as hereinbefore provided, or a general assignment for the benefit of his creditors, if by law such recording or registering is required or permitted, or, if it is not, from the date when the beneficiary takes notorious, exclusive, or continuous possession of the property unless the petitioning creditors have received actual notice of such transfer or assignment.

(c) It shall be a complete defense to any proceedings in bankruptcy instituted under the first subdivision of this section to allege and prove that the party proceeded against was not insolvent as defined in this title at the time of the filing the petition against him, and if solvency at such date is proved by the alleged bankrupt the proceedings shall be dismissed, and under said subdivision one the burden of proving solvency shall be on the alleged bankrupt.

(d) Whenever a person against whom a petition has been filed as hereinbefore provided under the second and third subdivisions of this section takes issue with and denies the allegation of his insolvency, it shall be his duty to appear in court on the hearing, with his books, papers, and accounts, and submit to an examination, and give testimony as to all matters tending to establish solvency or insolvency, and in case of his failure to so attend and submit to examination the burden of proving his solvency shall rest upon him.

(e) Whenever a petition is filed by any person for the purpose of having another adjudged a bankrupt, and an application is made to take charge of and hold the property of the alleged bankrupt, or any part of the same, prior to the adjudication and pending a hearing on the petition, the petitioner or applicant shall file in the same court a bond with at least two good and sufficient sureties who shall reside within the jurisdiction of said court, to be approved by the court or a judge thereof, in such sum as the court shall direct, conditioned for the payment, in case such petition is dismissed, to the respondent, his or her personal representatives, all costs, expenses, and damages occasioned by such seizure, taking, and detention of the property of the alleged bankrupt.

If such petition be dismissed by the court or withdrawn by the petitioner, the respondent or respondents shall be allowed all costs, counsel fees, expenses, and damages occasioned by such seizure, taking, or detention of such property. Counsel fees, costs, expenses, and damages shall be fixed and allowed by the court, and paid by the obligors in such bond. (July 1, 1898, c. 541, § 3, 30 Stat. 546; Feb. 5, 1903, c. 487, § 2, 32 Stat. 797.)

22. Bankrupts; who may become.—(a) Any person, except a municipal, railroad, insurance, or banking corporation, shall be entitled to the benefits of this title as a voluntary bankrupt.

(b) Any natural person, except a wage earner or a person engaged chiefly in farming or the tillage of the soil, any unincorporated company, and any moneyed, business, or commercial corporation, except a municipal, railroad, insurance, or banking corporation, owing debts to the amount of $1,000 or over, may be adjudged an involuntary bankrupt upon default or an impartial trial, and shall be subject to the provisions and entitled to the benefits of this title.

The bankruptcy of a corporation shall not release its officers, directors, or stockholders, as such, from any liability under the laws of a State or Territory or of the United States. (July 1, 1898, c. 541, § 4, 30 Stat. 547; Feb. 5, 1903, c. 487, § 3, 32 Stat. 797; June 25, 1910, c. 412, §§ 3, 4, 36 Stat. 839.)

23. Same; partners.—(a) A partnership, during the continuation of the partnership business, or after its dissolution and before the final settlement thereof, may be adjudged a bankrupt.

(b) The creditors of the partnership shall appoint the trustee; in other respects so far as possible the estate shall be administered as herein provided for other estates.

(c) The court of bankruptcy which has jurisdiction of one of the partners may have jurisdiction of all the partners and of the administration of the partnership and individual property.

(d) The trustee shall keep separate accounts of the partnership property and of the property belonging to the individual partners.

(e) The expenses shall be paid from the partnership property and the individual property in such proportions as the court shall determine.

(f) The net proceeds of the partnership property shall be appropriated to the payment of the partnership debts, and the net proceeds of the individual estate of each partner to the payment of his individual debts. Should any surplus remain of the property of any partner after paying his individual debts, such surplus shall be added to the partnership assets and be applied to the payment of the partnership debts. Should any surplus of the partnership property remain after paying the partnership debts, such surplus shall be added to the assets of the individual partners in the proportion of their respective interests in the partnership.

(g) The court may permit the proof of the claim of the partnership estate against the individual estates, and vice versa, and may marshal the assets of the partnership estate and individual estates so as to prevent preferences and secure the equitable distribution of the property of the several estates.

(h) In the event of one or more but not all of the members of a partnership being adjudged bankrupt, the partnership property shall not be administered in bankruptcy, unless by consent of the partner or partners not adjudged bankrupt; but such partner or partners not adjudged bankrupt shall settle the partnership business as expeditiously as its nature will permit, and account for the interest of the partner or partners adjudged bankrupt. (July 1, 1898, c. 541, § 5, 30 Stat. 547.)

24. Same; exemptions.—The provisions of this title shall not affect the allowance to bankrupts of the exemptions which are prescribed by the State laws in force at the time of the filing of the petition in the State wherein they have had their domicile for the six months or the greater portion thereof immediately preceding the filing of the petition. (July 1, 1898, c. 541, § 6, 30 Stat. 548.)

25. Same; duties.—The bankrupt shall (1) attend the first meeting of his creditors, if directed by the court or a judge thereof to do so, and the hearing upon his application for a discharge, if filed; (2) comply with all lawful orders of the court; (3) examine the correctness of all proofs of claims filed against his estate; (4) execute and deliver such papers as shall be ordered by the court; (5) execute to his trustee transfers of all his property in foreign countries; (6) immediately inform his trustee of any attempt, by his creditors or other persons, to evade the provisions of this title, coming to his knowledge; (7) in case of any person having to his knowledge proved a false claim against his estate, disclose that fact immediately to his trustee; (8) prepare, make oath to, and file in court within ten days, unless further time is granted, after the adjudication, if an involuntary bankrupt, and with the petition if a voluntary bankrupt, a schedule of his property, showing the amount and kind of property, the location thereof, its money value in detail, and a list of his creditors, showing their residences, if known, if unknown, that fact to be stated, the amounts due each of them, the consideration thereof, the security held by them, if any, and a claim for such exemptions as he may be entitled to, all in triplicate, one copy of each for the clerk, one for the referee, and one for the trustee; and (9) when present at the first meeting of his creditors, and at such other times as the court shall order, submit to an examination concerning the conducting of his business, the cause of his bankruptcy, his dealings with his creditors and other persons, the amount, kind, and whereabouts of his property, and, in addition, all matters which may affect the administration and settlement of his estate; but no testimony given by him shall be offered in evidence against him in any criminal proceeding.

He shall not be required to attend a meeting of his creditors, or at or for an examination at a place more than one hundred and fifty miles distant from his home or principal place of business, or to examine claims except when presented to him, unless ordered by the court, or a judge thereof, for cause shown, and the bankrupt shall be paid his actual expenses from the estate when examined or required to attend at any place other than the city, town, or village of his residence. (July 1, 1898, c. 541, § 7, 30 Stat. 548.)

26. Same; death or insanity.—The death or insanity of a bankrupt shall not abate the proceedings, but the same shall be conducted and concluded in the same manner, so far as possible, as though he had not died or become insane. In case of death the widow and children shall be entitled to all rights of dower and allowance fixed by the laws of the State of the bankrupt's residence. (July 1, 1898, c. 541, § 8, 30 Stat. 549.)

27. Same; protection and detention.—(a) A bankrupt shall be exempt from arrest upon civil process except in the following cases: (1) When issued from a court of bankruptcy for contempt or disobedience of its lawful orders; (2) when issued from a State court having jurisdiction, and served within such State, upon a debt or claim from which his discharge in bankruptcy would not be a release, and in such case he shall be exempt from such arrest when in attendance upon a court of bankruptcy or engaged in the performance of a duty imposed by the provisions of this title.

(b) The judge may, at any time after the filing of a petition by or against a person, and before the expiration of one month after the qualification of the trustee, upon satisfactory proof by the affidavits of at least two persons that such bankrupt is about to leave the district in which he resides or has his principal place of business to avoid examination, and that his departure will defeat the proceedings in bankruptcy, issue a warrant to the marshal, directing him to bring such bankrupt forthwith before the court for examination. If upon hearing the evidence of the parties it shall appear to the court or a judge thereof that the allegations are true and that it is necessary, he shall order such marshal to keep such bankrupt in custody not exceeding ten days, but not imprison him, until he shall be examined and released or give bail conditioned for his appearance for examination, from time to time, not exceeding in all ten days, as required by the court, and for his obedience to all lawful orders made in reference thereto. (July 1, 1898, c. 541, § 9, 30 Stat. 549.)

28. Same; extradition.—Whenever a warrant for the apprehension of a bankrupt shall have been issued, and he shall have been found within the jurisdiction of a court other than the one issuing the warrant, he may be extradited in the same manner in which persons under indictment were extradited on July 1, 1898, from one district within which a district court has jurisdiction to another. (July 1, 1898, c. 541, § 10, 30 Stat. 549.)

29. Same; suits by and against.—(a) A suit which is founded upon a claim from which a discharge would be a release, and which is pending against a person at the time of the filing of a petition against him, shall be stayed until after an adjudication or the dismissal of the petition; if such person is adjudged a bankrupt, such action may be further stayed until twelve months after the date of such adjudication, or, if within that time such person applies for a discharge, then until the question of such discharge is determined.

(b) The court may order the trustee to enter his appearance and defend any pending suit against the bankrupt.

(c) A trustee may, with the approval of the court, be permitted to prosecute as trustee any suit commenced by the bankrupt prior to the adjudication, with like force and effect as though it had been commenced by him.

(d) Suits shall not be brought by or against a trustee of a bankrupt estate subsequent to two years after the estate has been closed. (July 1, 1898, c. 541, § 11, 30 Stat. 549.)

30. Compositions; when confirmed.—(a) A bankrupt may offer, either before or after adjudication, terms of composition to his creditors after, but not before, he has been examined in open court or at a meeting of his creditors, and has filed in court the schedule of his property and the list of his creditors required to be filed by bankrupts. In compositions before adjudication the bankrupt shall file the required schedules, and thereupon the court shall call a meeting of creditors for the allowance of claims, examination of the bankrupt, and preservation or conduct of estates, at which meeting the judge or referee shall preside; and action upon the petition for adjudication shall be delayed until it shall be determined whether such composition shall be confirmed.

(b) An application for the confirmation of a composition may be filed in the court of bankruptcy after, but not before, it has been accepted in writing by a majority in number of all creditors whose claims have been allowed, which number must represent a majority in amount of such claims, and the consideration to be paid by the bankrupt to his creditors, and the money necessary to pay all debts which have priority and the cost of the proceedings, have been deposited in such place as shall be designated by and subject to the order of the judge.

(c) A date and place, with reference to the convenience of the parties in interest, shall be fixed for the hearing upon each application for the confirmation of a composition, and such objections as may be made to its confirmation.

(d) The judge shall confirm a composition if satisfied that (1) it is for the best interests of the creditors; (2) the bankrupt has not been guilty of any of the acts or failed to perform any of the duties which would be a bar to his discharge; and (3) the offer and its acceptance are in good faith and have not been made or procured except as herein provided, or by any means, promises, or acts herein forbidden.

(e) Upon the confirmation of a composition, the consideration shall be distributed as the judge shall direct, and the case dismissed. Whenever a composition is not confirmed, the estate shall be administered in bankruptcy as herein provided. (July 1, 1898, c. 541, § 12, 30 Stat. 549; June 25, 1910, c. 412, § 5, 36 Stat. 839.)

31. Same; when set aside.—The judge may, upon the application of parties in interest filed at any time within six months after a composition has been confirmed, set the same aside and reinstate the case if it shall be made to appear upon a trial that fraud was practiced in the procuring of such composition, and that the knowledge thereof has come to the petitioners since the confirmation of such composition. (July 1, 1898, c. 541, § 13, 30 Stat. 550.)

32. Discharges; when granted.—(a) Any person may, after the expiration of one month and within the next twelve months subsequent to being adjudged a bankrupt, file an application for a discharge in the court of bankruptcy in which the proceedings are pending; if it shall be made to appear to the judge that the bankrupt was unavoidably prevented from filing it within such time, it may be filed within but not after the expiration of the next six months.

(b) The judge shall hear the application for a discharge and such proofs and pleas as may be made in opposition thereto by the trustee or other parties in interest, at such time as will give the trustee or parties in interest a reasonable opportunity to be fully heard, and investigate the merits of the application and discharge the applicant unless he has (1) committed an offense punishable by imprisonment as herein provided; or (2) with intent to conceal his financial condition, destroyed, concealed, or failed to keep books of account or records from which such condition might be ascertained; or (3) obtained money or property on credit upon a materially false statement in writing, made by him to any person or his representative for the purpose of obtaining credit from such person; or (4) at any time subsequent to the first day of the four months immediately preceding the filing of the petition transferred, removed, destroyed, or concealed, or permitted to be removed, destroyed, or concealed, any of his property, with intent to hinder, delay, or defraud his creditors; or (5) in voluntary proceedings been granted a discharge in bankruptcy within six years; or (6) in the course of the proceedings in bankruptcy refused to obey any lawful order of, or to answer any material question approved by the court. A trustee shall not interpose objections to a bankrupt's discharge until he shall be authorized so to do at a meeting of creditors called for that purpose.

(c) The confirmation of a composition shall discharge the bankrupt from his debts, other than those agreed to be paid by the terms of the composition and those not affected by a discharge. (July 1, 1898, c. 541, § 14, 30 Stat. 550; Feb. 5, 1903, c. 487, § 4, 32 Stat. 797; June 25, 1910, c. 412, § 6, 36 Stat. 839.)

33. Same; when revoked.—The judge may, upon the application of parties in interest who have not been guilty of undue laches, filed at any time within one year after a discharge shall have been granted, revoke it upon a trial if it shall be made to appear that it was obtained through the fraud of the bankrupt, and that the knowledge of the fraud has come to the petitioners since the granting of the discharge, and that the actual facts did not warrant the discharge. (July 1, 1898, c. 541, § 15, 30 Stat. 550.)

34. Co-debtors of bankrupts.—The liability of a person who is a co-debtor with, or guarantor or in any manner a surety for, a bankrupt shall not be altered by the discharge of such bankrupt. (July 1, 1898, c. 541, § 16, 30 Stat. 550.)

35. Debts not affected by a discharge.—A discharge in bankruptcy shall release a bankrupt from all of his provable debts, except such as (first) are due as a tax levied by the United States, the State, county, district, or municipality in which he resides; (second) are liabilities for obtaining property by false pretenses or false representations, or for willful and malicious injuries to the person or property of another, or for alimony due or to become due, or for maintenance or support of wife or child, or for seduction of an unmarried female, or for breach of promise of marriage accompanied by seduction, or for criminal conversation; (third) have not been duly scheduled in time for proof and allowance, with the name of the creditor, if known to the bankrupt, unless such creditor had notice or actual knowledge of the proceedings in bankruptcy; or (fourth) were created by his fraud, embezzlement, misappropriation, or defalcation while acting as an officer or in any fiduciary capacity; or (fifth) are for wages due to workmen, clerks, traveling or city salesmen, or servants, which have been earned within three months before the date of commencement of the proceedings in bankruptcy; or (sixth) are due for moneys of an employee received or retained by his employer to secure the faithful performance by such employee of the terms of a contract of employment. (July 1, 1898, c. 541, § 17, 30 Stat. 550; Feb. 5, 1903, c. 487, § 5, 32 Stat. 798; Mar. 2, 1917, c. 153, 39 Stat. 999; Jan. 7, 1922, c. 22, 42 Stat. 354.)

54. Computation of time.
55. Transfer of cases.

Section 41. Process, pleadings, and adjudications.—(a) Upon the filing of a petition for involuntary bankruptcy, service thereof, with a writ of subpœna, shall be made upon the person therein named as defendant in the same manner that service of such process was had on July 1, 1898, upon the commencement of a suit in equity in the courts of the United States, except that it shall be returnable within fifteen days, unless the judge shall for cause fix a longer time; but in case personal service can not be made, then notice shall be given by publication in the same manner and for the same time as provided by law for notice by publication in suits to enforce a legal or equitable lien in courts of the United States, except that, unless the judge shall otherwise direct, the order shall be published not more than once a week for two consecutive weeks, and the return day shall be ten days after the last publication unless the judge shall for cause fix a longer time.

(b) The bankrupt, or any creditor, may appear and plead to the petition within five days after the return day, or within such further time as the court may allow.

(c) All pleadings setting up matters of fact shall be verified under oath.

(d) If the bankrupt, or any of his creditors, shall appear, within the time limited, and controvert the facts alleged in the petition, the judge shall determine, as soon as may be, the issues presented by the pleadings, without the intervention of a jury, except in cases where a jury trial is given by the provisions of this title, and make the adjudication or dismiss the petition.

(e) If on the last day within which pleadings may be filed none are filed by the bankrupt or any of his creditors, the judge shall on the next day, if present, or as soon thereafter as practicable, make the adjudication or dismiss the petition.

(f) If the judge is absent from the district, or the division of the district in which the petition is pending, on the next day after the last day on which pleadings may be filed, and none have been filed by the bankrupt or any of his creditors, the clerk shall forthwith refer the case to the referee.

(g) Upon the filing of a voluntary petition the judge shall hear the petition and make the adjudication or dismiss the petition. If the judge is absent from the district, or the division of the district in which the petition is filed at the time of the filing, the clerk shall forthwith refer the case to the referee. (July 1, 1898, c. 541, § 18, 30 Stat. 551; Feb. 5, 1903, c. 487, § 6, 32 Stat. 798.)

42. Jury trials.—(a) A person against whom an involuntary petition has been filed shall be entitled to have a trial by jury, in respect to the question of his insolvency, except as herein otherwise provided, and any act of bankruptcy alleged in such petition to have been committed, upon filing a written application therefor at or before the time within which an answer may be filed. If such application is not filed within such time, a trial by jury shall be deemed to have been waived.

(b) If a jury is not in attendance upon the court, one may be specially summoned for the trial, or the case may be postponed.

(c) The right to submit matters in controversy, or an alleged offense under the provisions of this title, to a jury shall be determined and enjoyed, except as provided in this title, according to the United States laws in force in relation to trials by jury. (July 1, 1898, c. 541, § 19, 30 Stat. 551; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 289, 36 Stat. 1167.)

43. Oaths, affirmations.—(a) Oaths required by this title, except upon hearings in court, may be administered by (1) referees; (2) officers authorized to administer oaths in proceedings before the courts of the United States, or under the laws of the State where the same are to be taken; and (3) diplomatic or consular officers of the United States in any foreign country.

(b) Any person conscientiously opposed to taking an oath may, in lieu thereof, affirm. Any person who shall affirm falsely shall be punished as for the making of a false oath. (July 1, 1898, c. 541, § 20, 30 Stat. 551.)

44. Evidence.—(a) A court of bankruptcy may, upon application of any officer, bankrupt, or creditor, by order require any designated person, including the bankrupt and his wife, to appear in court or before a referee or the judge of any State court, to be examined concerning the acts, conduct, or property of a bankrupt whose estate is in process of administration under the provisions of this title. The wife may be examined only touching business transacted by her or to which she is a party, and to determine the fact whether she has transacted or been a party to any business of the bankrupt.

(b) The right to take depositions in proceedings under this title shall be determined and enjoyed according to the United States laws in force relating to the taking of depositions, except as herein provided.

(c) Notice of the taking of depositions shall be filed with the referee in every case. When depositions are to be taken in opposition to the allowance of a claim notice shall also be served upon the claimant, and when in opposition to a discharge notice shall also be served upon the bankrupt.

(d) Certified copies of proceedings before a referee, or of papers, when issued by the clerk or referee, shall be admitted as evidence with like force and effect as certified copies of the records of district courts of the United States are admitted as evidence.

(e) A certified copy of the order approving the bond of a trustee shall constitute conclusive evidence of the vesting in him of the title to the property of the bankrupt, and if recorded shall impart the same notice that a deed from the bankrupt to the trustee if recorded would have imparted had not bankruptcy proceedings intervened.

(f) A certified copy of an order confirming or setting aside a composition, or granting or setting aside a discharge, not revoked, shall be evidence of the jurisdiction of the court, the regularity of the proceedings, and of the fact that the order was made.

(g) A certified copy of an order confirming a composition shall constitute evidence of the revesting of the title of his property in the bankrupt, and if recorded shall impart the same notice that a deed from the trustee to the bankrupt if recorded would impart. (July 1, 1898, c. 541, § 21, 30 Stat. 551; Feb. 5, 1903, c. 487, § 7, 32 Stat. 798.)

45. Reference after adjudication.—(a) After a person has been adjudged a bankrupt the judge may cause the trustee to proceed with the administration of the estate, or refer it (1) generally to the referee or specially with only limited authority to act in the premises or to consider and report upon specified issues; or (2) to any referee within the territorial jurisdiction of the court, if the convenience of parties in interest will be served thereby, or for cause, or if the bankrupt does not do business, reside, or have his domicile in the district.

(b) The judge may, at any time, for the convenience of parties or for cause, transfer a case from one referee to another. (July 1, 1898, c. 541, § 22, 30 Stat. 552.)

46. Jurisdiction; United States and State courts.—(a) The United States district courts shall have jurisdiction of all controversies at law and in equity, as distinguished from proceedings in bankruptcy, between trustees as such and adverse claimants concerning the property acquired or claimed by the trustees, in the same manner and to the same extent only as though bankruptcy proceedings had not been instituted and such controversies had been between the bankrupts and such adverse claimants.

(b) Suits by the trustee shall only be brought or prosecuted in the courts where the bankrupt, whose estate is being administered by such trustee, might have brought or prosecuted them if proceedings in bankruptcy had not been instituted, unless by consent of the proposed defendant, except suits for the recovery of property under section 96, subdivision b, of this title; section 107, subdivision e, of this title; and section 110, subdivision e, of this title. (July 1, 1898, c. 541, § 23, 30 Stat. 552; Feb. 5, 1903, c. 487, § 8, 32 Stat. 798; June 25, 1910, c. 412, § 7, 36 Stat. 840.)

47. Same; appellate jurisdiction.—(a) The circuit courts of appeals of the United States, and the supreme courts of the Territories, in vacation in chambers and during their respective terms are invested with appellate jurisdiction of controversies arising in bankruptcy proceedings from the courts of bankruptcy from which they have appellate jurisdiction in other cases.

(b) The several circuit courts of appeals shall have jurisdiction in equity, either interlocutory or final, to superintend and revise in matter of law the proceedings of the several inferior courts of bankruptcy within their jurisdiction. Such power shall be exercised on due notice and petition by any party aggrieved.

(c) The Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia shall have the same appellate and supervisory jurisdiction over proceedings, controversies, and cases in bankruptcy in the District of Columbia that a circuit court of appeals has over such proceedings, controversies, and cases within its circuit and shall exercise that jurisdiction in the same manner as a circuit court of appeals is required to exercise it. (July 1, 1898, c. 541, § 24, 30 Stat. 553; Feb. 13, 1925, c. 229, §§ 1, 5, 13, 43 Stat. 936, 937, 941.)

48. Appeals and writs of error.—(a) Appeals, as in equity cases, may be taken in bankruptcy proceedings from the courts of bankruptcy to the circuit court of appeals of the United States, in the following cases, to wit, (1) from a judgment adjudging or refusing to adjudge the defendant a bankrupt; (2) from a judgment granting or denying a discharge; and (3) from a judgment allowing or rejecting a debt or claim of $500 or over. Such appeal shall be taken within ten days after the judgment appealed from has been rendered, and may be heard and determined by the appellate court in term or vacation, as the case may be.

(b) Trustees shall not be required to give bond when they take appeals or sue out writs of error.

(c) Controversies may be certified to the Supreme Court of the United States from other courts of the United States, and the former court may exercise jurisdiction thereof and issue writs of certiorari pursuant to the provisions of the United States laws in force on July 1, 1898, or such as may be thereafter enacted. (July 1, 1898, c. 541, § 25, 30 Stat. 553; Feb. 13, 1925, c. 229, §§ 1, 13, 43 Stat. 936, 941.)

49. Arbitration.—(a) The trustee may, pursuant to the direction of the court, submit to arbitration any controversy arising in the settlement of the estate.

(b) Three arbitrators shall be chosen by mutual consent, or one by the trustee, one by the other party to the controversy, and the third by the two so chosen, or if they fail to agree in five days after their appointment the court shall appoint the third arbitrator.

(c) The written finding of the arbitrators, or a majority of them, as to the issues presented, may be filed in court and shall have like force and effect as the verdict of a jury. (July 1, 1898, c. 541, § 26, 30 Stat. 553.)

50. Compromises.—The trustee may, with the approval of the court, compromise any controversy arising in the administration of the estate upon such terms as he may deem for the best interests of the estate. (July 1, 1898, c. 541, § 27, 30 Stat. 553.)

51. Designation of newspapers.—Courts of bankruptcy shall by order designate a newspaper published within their respective territorial districts, and in the county in which the bankrupt resides or the major part of his property is situated, in which notices required to be published by this title and orders which the court may direct to be published shall be inserted. Any court may in a particular case, for the convenience of parties in interest, designate some additional newspaper in which notices and orders in such case shall be published. (July 1, 1898, c. 541, § 28, 30 Stat. 554.)

52. Offenses.—(a) A person shall be punished, by imprisonment for a period not to exceed five years, upon conviction of the offense of having knowingly and fraudulently appropriated to his own use, embezzled, spent, or unlawfully transferred any property or secreted or destroyed any document belonging to a bankrupt estate which came into his charge as trustee.

(b) A person shall be punished, by imprisonment for a period not to exceed two years, upon conviction of the offense of having knowingly and fraudulently (1) concealed while a bankrupt, or after his discharge, from his trustee any of the property belonging to his estate in bankruptcy; or (2) made a false oath or account in, or in relation to, any proceeding in bankruptcy; (3) presented under oath any false claim for proof against the estate of a bankrupt, or used any such claim in composition personally or by agent, proxy, or attorney, or as agent, proxy, or attorney; or (4) received any material amount of property from a bankrupt after the filing of the petition, with intent to defeat the provisions of this title; or (5) extorted or attempted to extort any money or property from any person as a consideration for acting or forbearing to act in bankruptcy proceedings.

(c) A person shall be punished by fine, not to exceed $500, and forfeit his office, and the same shall thereupon become vacant, upon conviction of the offense of having knowingly

(1) acted as a referee in a case in which he is directly or indirectly interested; or (2) purchased, while a referee, directly or indirectly, any property of the estate in bankruptcy of which he is referee; or (3) refused, while a referee or trustee, to permit a reasonable opportunity for the inspection of the accounts relating to the affairs of, and the papers and records of, estates in his charge by parties in interest when directed by the court so to do.

(d) A person shall not be prosecuted for any offense arising under this title unless the indictment is found or the information is filed in court within one year after the commission of the offense. (July 1, 1898, c. 541, § 29, 30 Stat. 554.)

53. Rules, forms, and orders.—All necessary rules, forms, and orders as to procedure and for carrying the provisions of this title into force and effect shall be prescribed, and may be amended from time to time, by the Supreme Court of the United States. (July 1, 1898, c. 541, § 30, 30 Stat. 554.)

54. Computation of time.—Whenever time is enumerated by days in this title, or in any proceeding in bankruptcy, the number of days shall be computed by excluding the first and including the last, unless the last fall on a Sunday or holiday, in which event the day last included shall be the next day thereafter which is not a Sunday or a legal holiday. (July 1, 1898, c. 541, § 31, 30 Stat. 554.)

55. Transfer of cases.—In the event petitions are filed against the same person, or against different members of a partnership, in different courts of bankruptcy each of which has jurisdiction, the cases shall be transferred, by order of the courts relinquishing jurisdiction, to and be consolidated by the one of such courts which can proceed with the same for the greatest convenience of parties in interest. (July 1, 1898, c. 541, § 32, 30 Stat. 554.)

Section 61. Creation of two offices.—The offices of referee and trustee are created. (July 1, 1898, c. 541, § 33, 30 Stat. 555.)

62. Referees; appointment, removal, and districts of.—Courts of bankruptcy shall, within the territorial limits of which they respectively have jurisdiction, (1) appoint referees, each for a term of two years, and may, in their discretion, remove them because their services are not needed or for other cause; and (2) designate, and from time to time change, the limits of the districts of referees, so that each county, where the services of a referee are needed, may constitute at least one district. (July 1, 1898, c. 541, § 34, 30 Stat. 555.)

63. Same; qualifications.—Individuals shall not be eligible to appointment as referees unless they are, respectively, (1) competent to perform the duties of that office; (2) not holding any office of profit or emolument under the laws of the United States or of any State other than commissioners of deeds, justices of the peace, masters in chancery, or notaries public; (3) not related by consanguinity or affinity, within the third degree as determined by the common law, to any of the judges of the courts of bankruptcy, or of the justices or judges of the appellate courts of the districts wherein they may be appointed; and (4) residents of, or have their offices in, the territorial districts for which they are to be appointed. (July 1, 1898, c. 541, § 35, 30 Stat. 555.)

64. Same; oaths.—Referees shall take the same oath of office as that prescribed for judges of United States courts. (July 1, 1898, c. 541, § 36, 30 Stat. 555.)

65. Same; number.—Such number of referees shall be appointed as may be necessary to assist in expeditiously transacting the bankruptcy business pending in the various courts of bankruptcy. (July 1, 1898, c. 541, § 37, 30 Stat. 555.)

66. Same; jurisdiction.—Referees respectively are invested, subject always to a review by the judge, within the limits of their districts as established from time to time, with jurisdiction to (1) consider all petitions referred to them by the clerks and make the adjudications or dismiss the petitions; (2) exercise the powers vested in courts of bankruptcy for the administering of oaths to and the examination of persons as witnesses and for requiring the production of documents in proceedings before them, except the power of commitment; (3) exercise the powers of the judge for the taking possession and releasing of the property of the bankrupt in the event of the issuance by the clerk of a certificate showing the absence of a judge from the judicial district, or the division of the district, or his sickness, or inability to act; (4) perform such part of the duties, except as to questions arising out of the applications of bankrupts for compositions or discharges, as are by this title conferred on courts of bankruptcy and as shall be prescribed by rules or orders of the courts of bankruptcy of their respective districts, except as herein otherwise provided; and (5) upon the application of the trustee during the examination of the bankrupts, or other proceedings, authorize the employment of stenographers at the expense of the estates at a compensation not to exceed 10 cents per folio for reporting and transcribing the proceedings. (July 1, 1898, c. 541, § 38, 30 Stat. 555.)

67. Same; duties.—(a) Referees shall (1) declare dividends and prepare and deliver to trustees dividend sheets showing the dividends declared and to whom payable; (2) examine all schedules of property and lists of creditors filed by bankrupts and cause such as are incomplete or defective to be amended; (3) furnish such information concerning the estates in process of administration before them as may be requested by the parties in interest; (4) give notices to creditors as herein provided; (5) make up records embodying the evidence, or the substance thereof, as agreed upon by the parties in all contested matters arising before them, whenever requested to do so by either of the parties thereto, together with their findings therein, and transmit them to the judges; (6) prepare and file the schedules of property and lists of creditors required to be filed by the bankrupts, or cause the same to be done, when the bankrupts fail, refuse, or neglect to do so; (7) safely keep, perfect, and transmit to the clerks the records, herein required to be kept by them, when the cases are concluded; (8) transmit to the clerks such papers as may be on file before them whenever the same are needed in any proceedings in courts, and in like manner secure the return of such papers after they have been used, or, if it be impracticable to transmit the original papers, transmit certified copies thereof by mail; (9) upon application of any party in interest, preserve the evidence taken or the substance thereof as agreed upon by the parties before them when a stenographer is not in attendance; and (10) whenever their respective offices are in the same cities or towns where the courts of bankruptcy convene, call upon and receive from the clerks all papers filed in courts of bankruptcy which have been referred to them.

(b) Referees shall not (1) act in cases in which they are directly or indirectly interested; (2) practice as attorneys and counselors at law in any bankruptcy proceedings; or (3) purchase, directly or indirectly, any property of an estate in bankruptcy. (July 1, 1898, c. 541, § 39, 30 Stat. 555.)

68. Same; compensation.—(a) Referees shall receive as full compensation for their services, payable after they are rendered, a fee of $15 deposited with the clerk at the time the petition is filed in each case, except when a fee is not required from a voluntary bankrupt, and 25 cents for every proof of claim filed for allowance, to be paid from the estate, if any, as a part of the cost of administration, and from estates which have been administered before them 1 per centum commissions on all moneys disbursed to creditors by the trustee, or one-half of 1 per centum on the amount to be paid to creditors upon the confirmation of a composition.

(b) Whenever a case is transferred from one referee to another the judge shall determine the proportion in which the fee and commissions therefor shall be divided between the referees.

(c) In the event of the reference of a case being revoked before it is concluded, and when the case is specially referred, the judge shall determine what part of the fee and commissions shall be paid to the referee. (July 1, 1898, c. 541, § 40, 30 Stat. 556; Feb. 5, 1903, c. 487, § 9, 32 Stat. 799.)

69. Same; contempts before.—(a) A person shall not, in proceedings before a referee, (1) disobey or resist any lawful order, process, or writ; (2) misbehave during a hearing or so near the place thereof as to obstruct the same; (3) neglect to produce, after having been ordered to do so, any pertinent document; or (4) refuse to appear after having been subpœnaed, or, upon appearing, refuse to take the oath as a witness, or, after having taken the oath, refuse to be examined according to law. No person shall be required to attend as a witness before a referee at a place outside of the State of his residence, and more than one hundred miles from such place of residence, and only in case his lawful mileage and fee for one day's attendance, shall be first paid or tendered to him.

(b) The referee shall certify the facts to the judge, if any person shall do any of the things forbidden in this section. The judge shall thereupon, in a summary manner, hear the evidence as to the acts complained of, and, if it is such as to warrant him in so doing, punish such person in the same manner and to the same extent as for a contempt committed before the court of bankruptcy, or commit such person upon the same conditions as if the doing of the forbidden act had occurred with reference to the process of, or in the presence of, the court. (July 1, 1898, c. 541, § 41, 30 Stat. 556.)

70. Same; records.—(a) The records of all proceedings in each case before a referee shall be kept as nearly as may be in the same manner as records were kept on July 1, 1898, in equity cases in district courts of the United States.

(b) A record of the proceedings in each case shall be kept in a separate book or books, and shall, together with the papers on file, constitute the records of the case.

(c) The book or books containing a record of the proceedings shall, when the case is concluded before the referee, be certified to by him, and, together with such papers as are on file before him, be transmitted to the court of bankruptcy and shall there remain as a part of the records of the court. (July 1, 1989, c. 541, § 42, 30 Stat. 556.)

71. Same; absence or disability.—Whenever the office of a referee is vacant, or its occupant is absent or disqualified to act, the judge may act, or may appoint another referee, or another referee holding an appointment under the same court may, by order of the judge, temporarily fill the vacancy. (July 1, 1898, c. 541, § 43, 30 Stat. 557.)

72. Trustees; appointment.—The creditors of a bankrupt estate shall, at their first meeting after the adjudication or after a vacancy has occurred in the office of trustee, or after an estate has been reopened, or after a composition has been set aside or a discharge revoked, or if there is a vacancy in the office of trustee, appoint one trustee or three trustees of such estate. If the creditors do not appoint a trustee or trustees as herein provided, the court shall do so. (July 1, 1898, c. 541, § 44, 30 Stat. 557.)

73. Same; qualifications.—Trustees may be (1) individuals who are respectively competent to perform the duties of that office, and reside or have an office in the judicial district within which they are appointed, or (2) corporations authorized by their charters or by law to act in such capacity and having an office in the judicial district within which they are appointed. (July 1, 1898, c. 541, § 45, 30 Stat. 557.)

74. Same; death or removal.—The death or removal of a trustee shall not abate any suit or proceeding which he is prosecuting or defending at the time of his death or removal, but the same may be proceeded with or defended by his joint trustee or successor in the same manner as though the same had been commenced or was being defended by such joint trustee alone or by such successor. (July 1, 1898, c. 541, § 46, 30 Stat. 557.)

75. Same; duties.—(a) Trustees shall respectively (1) account for and pay over to the estates under their control all interest received by them on property of such estates; (2) collect and reduce to money the property of the estates for which they are trustees, under the direction of the court, and close up the estate as expeditiously as is compatible with the best interests of the parties in interest; and such trustees, as to all property in the custody or coming into the custody of the bankruptcy court, shall be deemed vested with all the rights, remedies, and powers of a creditor holding a lien by legal or equitable proceedings thereon; and also, as to all property not in the custody of the bankruptcy court, shall be deemed vested with all the rights, remedies, and powers of a judgment creditor holding an execution duly returned unsatisfied; (3) deposit all money received by them in one of the designated depositories; (4) disburse money only by check or draft on the depositories in which it has been deposited; (5) furnish such information concerning the estates of which they are trustees and their administration as may be requested by parties in interest; (6) keep regular accounts showing all amounts received and from what sources and all amounts expended and on what accounts; (7) lay before the final meeting of the creditors detailed statements of the administration of the estates; (8) make final reports and file final accounts with the courts fifteen days before the days fixed for the final meetings of the creditors; (9) pay dividends within ten days after they are declared by the referees; (10) report to the courts, in writing, the condition of the estates and the amounts of money on hand, and such other details as may be required by the courts, within the first month after their appointment and every two months thereafter, unless otherwise ordered by the courts; and (11) set apart the bankrupt's exemptions and report the items and estimated value thereof to the court as soon as practicable after their appointment.

(b) Whenever three trustees have been appointed for an estate. the concurrence of at least two of them shall be necessary to the validity of their every act concerning the administration of the estate.

(c) The trustee shall, within thirty days after the adjudication, file a certified copy of the decree of adjudication in the office where conveyances of real estate are recorded in every county where the bankrupt owns real estate not exempt from execution, and pay the fee for such filing, and he shall receive a compensation of 50 cents for each copy so filed, which, together with the filing fee, shall be paid out of the estate of the bankrupt as a part of the cost and disbursements of the proceedings. (July 1, 1898, c. 541, § 47, 30 Stat. 557; Feb. 5, 1903, c. 487, § 10, 32 Stat. 799; June 25, 1910, c. 412, § 8, 36 Stat. 840.)

76. Compensation of trustees, receivers, and marshals.—(a) Trustees shall receive for their services, payable after they are rendered, a fee of $5 deposited with the clerk at the time the petition is filed in each case, except when a fee is not required from a voluntary bankrupt, and such commissions on all moneys disbursed or turned over to any person, including lien holders, by them, as may be allowed by the courts, not to exceed 6 per centum on the first $500 or less, 4 per centum on moneys in excess of $500 and less than $1,500, 2 per centum on moneys in excess of $1,500 and less than $10,000, and 1 per centum on moneys in excess of $10,000. And in case of the confirmation of a composition after the trustee has qualified the court may allow him, as compensation, not to exceed one-half of 1 per centum of the amount to be paid the creditors on such composition.

(b) In the event of an estate being administered by three trustees instead of one trustee or by successive trustees, the court shall apportion the fees and commissions between them according to the services actually rendered, so that there shall not be paid to trustees for the administering of any estate a greater amount than one trustee would be entitled to.

(c) The court may, in its discretion, withhold all compensation from any trustee who has been removed for cause.

(d) Receivers or marshals appointed pursuant to section 11, subdivision 3, of this title shall receive for their services, payable after they are rendered, compensation by way of commissions upon the moneys disbursed or turned over to any person, including lien holders, by them, and also upon the moneys turned over by them or afterwards realized by the trustees from property turned over in kind by them to the trustees, as the court may allow, not to exceed 6 per centum on the first $500 or less, 4 per centum on moneys in excess of $500 and less than $1,500, 2 per centum on moneys in excess of $1,500 and less than $10,000, and 1 per centum on moneys in excess of $10,000. In case of the confirmation of a composition such commissions shall not exceed one-half of 1 per centum of the amount to be paid creditors on such compositions. When the receiver or marshal acts as a mere custodian and does not carry on the business of the bankrupt as provided in clause 5 of section 11, of this title, he shall not receive nor be allowed in any form or guise more than 2 per centum on the first $1,000 or less, and one-half of 1 per centum on all above $1,000 on moneys disbursed by him or turned over by him to the trustee and on moneys subsequently realized from property turned over by him in kind to the trustee. Before the allowance of compensation notice of application therefor, specifying the amount asked, shall be given to creditors in the manner indicated in section 94 of this title.

(e) Where the business is conducted by trustees, marshals, or receivers, as provided in clause 5 of section 11, the court may allow such officers additional compensation for such services by way of commissions upon the moneys disbursed or turned over to any person, including lien holders, by them, and, in cases of receivers or marshals, also upon the moneys turned over by them or afterwards realized by the trustees from property turned over in kind by them to the trustees; such commissions not to exceed 6 per centum on the first $500 or less, 4 per centum on moneys in excess of $500 and less than $1,500, 2 per centum on moneys in excess of $1,500 and less than $10,000, and 1 per centum on moneys in excess of $10,000. In case of the confirmation of a composition such commissions shall not exceed one-half of 1 per centum of the amount to be paid creditors on such composition. Before the allowance of compensation notice of application therefor, specifying the amount asked, shall be given to creditors in the manner indicated in section 94. (July 1, 1898, c. 541, § 48, 30 Stat. 557; Feb. 5, 1903, c. 487, § 11, 32 Stat. 799; June 25, 1910, c. 412, § 9, 36 Stat. 840.)

77. Accounts and papers of trustees.—The accounts and papers of trustees shall be open to the inspection of officers and all parties in interest. (July 1, 1898, c. 541, § 49, 30 Stat. 558.)

78. Bonds of referees and trustees.—(a) Referees, before assuming the duties of their offices, and within such time as the district courts of the United States having jurisdiction shall prescribe, shall respectively qualify by entering into bond to the United States in such sum as shall be fixed by such courts, not to exceed $5,000, with such sureties as shall be approved by such courts, conditioned for the faithful performance of their official duties.

(b) Trustees, before entering upon the performance of their official duties, and within ten days after their appointment, or within such further time, not to exceed five days, as the court may permit, shall respectively qualify by entering into bond to the United States, with such sureties as shall be approved by the courts, conditioned for the faithful performance of their official duties.

(c) The creditors of a bankrupt estate, at their first meeting after the adjudication, or after a vacancy has occurred in the office of trustee, or after an estate has been reopened, or after a composition has been set aside or a discharge revoked, if there is a vacancy in the office of trustee, shall fix the amount of the bond of the trustee; they may at any time increase the amount of the bond. If the creditors do not fix the amount of the bond of the trustee as herein provided the court shall do so.

(d) The court shall require evidence as to the actual value of the property of sureties.

(e) There shall be at least two sureties upon each bond.

(f) The actual value of the property of the sureties, over and above their liabilities and exemptions, on each bond shall equal at least the amount of such bond.

(g) Corporations organized for the purpose of becoming sureties upon bonds, or authorized by law to do so, may be accepted as sureties upon the bonds of referees and trustees whenever the courts are satisfied that the rights of all parties in interest will be thereby amply protected.

(h) Bonds of referees, trustees, and designated depositories shall be filed of record in the office of the clerk of the court and may be sued upon in the name of the United States for the use of any person injured by a breach of their conditions.

(i) Trustees shall not be liable, personally or on their bonds, to the United States, for any penalties or forfeitures incurred by the bankrupts under this title, of whose estates they are respectively trustees.

(j) Joint trustees may give joint or several bonds.

(k) If any referee or trustee shall fail to give bond, as herein provided and within the time limited, he shall be deemed to have declined his appointment, and such failure shall create a vacancy in his office.

(l) Suits upon referees' bonds shall not be brought subsequent to two years after the alleged breach of the bond.

(m) Suits upon trustees' bonds shall not be brought subsequent to two years after the estate has been closed. (July 1, 1898, c. 541, § 50, 30 Stat. 558.)

79. Duties of clerks.—Clerks shall respectively (1) account for, as for other fees received by them, the clerk's fee paid in each case and such other fees as may be received for certified copies of records which may be prepared for persons other than officers; (2) collect the fees of the clerk, referee, and trustee in each case instituted before filing the petition, except the petition of a proposed voluntary bankrupt which is accompanied by an affidavit stating that the petitioner is without, and can not obtain, the money with which to pay such fees; (3) deliver to the referees upon application all papers which may be referred to them, or, if the offices of such referees are not in the same cities or towns as the offices of such clerks, transmit such papers by mail, and in like manner return papers which were received from such referees after they have been used; (4) and within ten days after each case has been closed pay to the referee, if the case was referred, the fee collected for him, and to the trustee the fee collected for him at the time of filing the petition. (July 1, 1898, c. 541, § 51, 30 Stat. 558.)

80. Fees of clerks and marshals.—(a) Clerks shall respectively charge and collect for their service to each estate, a filing fee of $10, except when a fee is not required from a voluntary bankrupt, which said fee shall be paid into the Treasury of the United States in the manner provided by law.

(b) Marshals shall respectively charge the estate where an adjudication in bankruptcy is made, except as herein otherwise provided, for the performance of their services in proceedings in bankruptcy, the same fees, and account for them in the same way, as they are entitled to charge for the performance of the same or similar services in other cases in accordance with laws in force on July 1, 1898, or such as may be thereafter enacted, fixing the compensation of marshals. (July 1, 1898, c. 541, § 52, 30 Stat. 559; Feb. 26, 1919, c. 49, § 1, 40 Stat. 1182; Feb. 11, 1921, c. 46, 41 Stat. 1099.)

81. Duties of Attorney General.—The Attorney General shall annually lay before Congress statistical tables showing for the whole country, and by States, the number of cases during the year of voluntary and involuntary bankruptcy; the amount of the property of the estates; the dividends paid and the expenses of administering such estates; and such other like information as he may deem important. (July 1, 1898, c. 541, § 53, 30 Stat. 559.)

82. Statistics of bankruptcy proceedings.—Officers shall furnish in writing and transmit by mail such information as is within their knowledge, and as may be shown by the records and papers in their possession, to the Attorney General, for statistical purposes, within ten days after being requested by him to do so. (July 1, 1898, c. 541, § 54, 30 Stat. 559.)

96. Preferred creditors.

Section 91. Creditors' meetings.—(a) The court shall cause the first meeting of the creditors of a bankrupt to be held, not less than ten or more than thirty days after the adjudication, at the county seat of the county in which the bankrupt has had his principal place of business, resided, or had his domicile; or if that place would be manifestly inconvenient as a place of meeting for the parties in interest, or if the bankrupt is one who does not do business, reside, or have his domicile within the United States, the court shall fix a place for the meeting which is the most convenient for parties in interest. If such meeting should by any mischance not be held within such time, the court shall fix the date, as soon as may be thereafter, when it shall be held.

(b) At the first meeting of creditors the judge or referee shall preside, and, before proceeding with the other business, may allow or disallow the claims of creditors there presented, and may publicly examine the bankrupt or cause him to be examined at the instance of any creditor.

(c) The creditors shall at each meeting take such steps as may be pertinent and necessary for the promotion of the best interests of the estate and the enforcement of the provisions of this title.

(d) A meeting of creditors, subsequent to the first one, may be held at any time and place when all of the creditors who have secured the allowance of their claims sign a written consent to hold a meeting at such time and place.

(e) The court shall call a meeting of creditors whenever one-fourth or more in number of those who have proven their claims shall file a written request to that effect; if such request is signed by a majority of such creditors, which number represents a majority in amount of such claims, and contains a request for such meeting to be held at a designated place, the court shall call such meeting at such place within thirty days after the date of the filing of the request.

(f) Whenever the affairs of the estate are ready to be closed a final meeting of creditors shall be ordered. (July 1, 1898, c. 541, § 55, 30 Stat. 559.)

92. Same; voters at.—(a) Creditors shall pass upon matters submitted to them at their meetings by a majority vote in number and amount of claims of all creditors whose claims have been allowed and are present, except as otherwise provided in this title.

(b) Creditors holding claims which are secured or have priority shall not, in respect to such claims, be entitled to vote at creditors' meetings, nor shall such claims be counted in computing either the number of creditors or the amount of their claims, unless the amounts of such claims exceed the values of such securities or priorities, and then only for such excess. (July 1, 1898, c. 541, § 56, 30 Stat. 560.)

93. Proof and allowance of claims.—(a) Proof of claims shall consist of a statement under oath, in writing, signed by a creditor setting forth the claim, the consideration therefor, and whether any, and, if so what, securities are held therefor, and whether any, and, if so what, payments have been made thereon, and that the sum claimed is justly owing from the bankrupt to the creditor.

(b) Whenever a claim is founded upon an instrument of writing, such instrument, unless lost or destroyed, shall be filed with the proof of claim. If such instrument is lost or destroyed, a statement of such fact and of the circumstances of such loss or destruction shall be filed under oath with the claim. After the claim is allowed or disallowed, such instrument may be withdrawn by permission of the court, upon leaving a copy thereof on file with the claim.

(c) Claims after being proved may, for the purpose of allowance, be filed by the claimants in the court where the proceedings are pending or before the referee if the case has been referred.

(d) Claims which have been duly proved shall be allowed, upon receipt by or upon presentation to the court, unless objection to their allowance shall be made by parties in interest, or their consideration be continued for cause by the court upon its own motion.

(e) Claims of secured creditors and those who have priority may be allowed to enable such creditors to participate in the proceedings at creditors' meetings held prior to the determination of the value of their securities or priorities, but shall be allowed for such sums only as to the courts seem to be owing over and above the value of their securities or priorities.

(f) Objections to claims shall be heard and determined as soon as the convenience of the court and the best interests of the estates and the claimants will permit.

(g) The claims of creditors who have received preferences, voidable under section 96, subdivision (b), of this title, or to whom conveyances, transfers, assignments, or incumbrances, void or voidable under section 107, subdivision (e), of this title, have been made or given, shall not be allowed unless such creditors shall surrender such preferences, conveyances, transfers, assignments, or incumbrances.

(h) The value of securities held by secured creditors shall be determined by converting the same into money according to the terms of the agreement pursuant to which such securities were delivered to such creditors or by such creditors and the trustee, by agreement, arbitration, compromise, or litigation, as the court may direct, and the amount of such value shall be credited upon such claims, and a dividend shall be paid only on the unpaid balance.

(i) Whenever a creditor whose claim against a bankrupt estate is secured by the individual undertaking of any person fails to prove such claim, such person may do so in the creditor's name, and if he discharge such undertaking in whole or in part he shall be subrogated to that extent to the rights of the creditor.

(j) Debts owing to the United States, a State, a county, a district, or a municipality as a penalty or forfeiture shall not be allowed, except for the amount of the pecuniary loss sustained by the act, transaction, or proceeding out of which the penalty or forfeiture arose, with reasonable and actual costs occasioned thereby and such interest as may have accrued thereon according to law.

(k) Claims which have been allowed may be reconsidered for cause and reallowed or rejected in whole or in part, according to the equities of the case, before but not after the estate has been closed.

(l) Whenever a claim shall have been reconsidered and rejected, in whole or in part, upon which a dividend has been paid, the trustee may recover from the creditor the amount of the dividend received upon the claim if rejected in whole, or the proportional part thereof if rejected only in part.

(m) The claim of any estate which is being administered in bankruptcy against any like estate may be proved by the trustee and allowed by the court in the same manner and upon like terms as the claims of other creditors.

(n) Claims shall not be proved against a bankrupt estate subsequent to one year after the adjudication; or if they are liquidated by litigation and the final judgment therein is rendered within thirty days before or after the expiration of such time, then within sixty days after the rendition of such judgment. The right of infants and insane persons without guardians, without notice of the proceedings, may continue six months longer. (July 1, 1898, c. 541, § 57, 30 Stat. 560; Feb. 5, 1903, c. 487, § 12, 32 Stat. 799.)

94. Creditors; notices to.—(a) Creditors shall have at least ten days' notice by mail, to their respective addresses as they appear in the list of creditors of the bankrupt, or as afterwards filed with the papers in the case by the creditors, unless they waive notice in writing, of (1) all examinations of the bankrupt; (2) all hearings upon applications for the confirmation of compositions; (3) all meetings of creditors; (4) all proposed sales of property; (5) the declaration and time of payment of dividends; (6) the filing of the final accounts of the trustee, and the time when and the place where they will be examined and passed upon; (7) the proposed compromise of any controversy; (8) the proposed dismissal of the proceedings, and (9) there shall be thirty days' notice of all applications for the discharge of bankrupts.

(b) Notice to creditors of the first meeting shall be published at least once and may be published such number of additional times as the court may direct; the last publication shall be at least one week prior to the date fixed for the meeting. Other notices may be published as the court shall direct.

(c) All notices shall be given by the referee, unless otherwise ordered by the judge. (July 1, 1898, c. 541, § 58, 30 Stat. 561; June 25, 1910, c. 412, § 9½, 36 Stat. 841.)

95. Bankruptcy petitions; filing and dismissal.—(a) Any qualified person may file a petition to be adjudged a voluntary bankrupt.

(b) Three or more creditors who have provable claims against any person which amount in the aggregate, in excess of the value of securities held by them, if any, to $500 or over; or if all of the creditors of such person are less than twelve in number, then one of such creditors whose claim equals such amount may file a petition to have him adjudged a bankrupt.

(c) Petitions shall be filed in duplicate, one copy for the clerk and one for service on the bankrupt.

(d) If it be averred in the petition that the creditors of the bankrupt are less than twelve in number, and less than three creditors have joined as petitioners therein, and the answer avers the existence of a larger number of creditors, there shall be filed with the answer a list under oath of all the creditors, with their addresses, and thereupon the court shall cause all such creditors to be notified of the pendency of such petition and shall delay the hearing upon such petition for a reasonable time, to the end that parties in interest shall have an opportunity to be heard; if upon such hearing it shall appear that a sufficient number have joined in such petition, or if prior to or during such hearing a sufficient number shall join therein, the case may be proceeded with, but otherwise it shall be dismissed.

(e) In computing the number of creditors of a bankrupt for the purpose of determining how many creditors must join in the petition, such creditors as were employed by him at the time of the filing of the petition or are related to him by consanguinity or affinity within the third degree, as determined by the common law, and have not joined in the petition, shall not be counted.

(f) Creditors other than original petitioners may at any time enter their appearance and join in the petition, or file an answer and be heard in opposition to the prayer of the petition.

(g) A voluntary or involuntary petition shall not be dismissed by the petitioner or petitioners or for want of prosecution or by consent of parties until after notice to the creditors, and to that end the court shall, before entertaining an application for dismissal, require the bankrupt to file a list, under oath, of all his creditors, with their addresses, and shall cause notice to be sent to all such creditors of the pendency of such application, and shall delay the hearing thereon for a reasonable time to allow all creditors and parties in interest opportunity to be heard. (July 1, 1898, c. 541, § 59, 30 Stat. 561; June 25, 1910, c. 412, § 10, 36 Stat. 841.)

96. Preferred creditors.—(a) A person shall be deemed to have given a preference if, being insolvent, he has, within four months before the filing of the petition, or after the filing of the petition and before the adjudication, procured or suffered a judgment to be entered against himself in favor of any person, or made a transfer of any of his property, and the effect of the enforcement of such judgment or transfer will be to enable any one of his creditors to obtain a greater percentage of his debt than any other of such creditors of the same class. Where the preference consists in a transfer, such period of four months shall not expire until four months after the date of the recording or registering of the transfer, if by law such recording or registering is required.

(b) If a bankrupt shall have procured or suffered a judgment to be entered against him in favor of any person or have made a transfer of any of his property, and if, at the time of the transfer, or of the entry of the judgment, or of the recording or registering of the transfer if by law recording or registering thereof is required, and being within four months before the filing of the petition in bankruptcy or after the filing thereof and before the adjudication, the bankrupt be insolvent and the judgment or transfer then operate as a preference, and the person receiving it or to be benefited thereby, or his agent acting therein, shall then have reasonable cause to believe that the enforcement of such judgment or transfer would effect a preference, it shall be voidable by the trustee and he may recover the property or its value from such person. And for the purpose of such recovery any court of bankruptcy, as hereinbefore defined, and any State court which would have had jurisdiction if bankruptcy had not intervened, shall have concurrent jurisdiction.

(c) If a creditor has been preferred, and afterwards in good faith gives the debtor further credit without security of any kind for property which becomes a part of the debtor's estates, the amount of such new credit remaining unpaid at the time of the adjudication in bankruptcy may be set off against the amount which would otherwise be recoverable from him.

(d) If a debtor shall, directly or indirectly, in contemplation of the filing of a petition by or against him, pay money or transfer property to an attorney and counselor at law, solicitor in equity, or proctor in admiralty for services to be rendered, the transaction shall be reexamined by the court on petition of the trustee or any creditor and shall only be held valid to the extent of a reasonable amount to be determined by the court, and the excess may be recovered by the trustee for the benefit of the estate. (July 1, 1898, c. 541, § 60, 30 Stat. 562; Feb. 5, 1903, c. 487, § 13, 32 Stat. 799; June 25, 1910, c. 412, § 11, 36 Stat. 842.)

110. Same; title.
111. Records; duty of clerks to keep; inspection.
112. Restriction of compensation of referees, receivers, and trustees.

Section 101. Depositories for money.—Courts of bankruptcy shall designate, by order, banking institutions as depositories for the money of bankrupt estates, as convenient as may be to the residences of trustees, and shall require bonds to the United States, subject to their approval, to be given by such banking institutions, and may from time to time as occasion may require, by like order increase the number of depositories or the amount of any bond or change such depositories. (July 1, 1898, c. 541, § 61, 30 Stat. 562.)

102. Expenses of administration.—The actual and necessary expenses incurred by officers in the administration of estates shall, except where other provisions are made for their payment, be reported in detail, under oath, and examined and approved or disapproved by the court. If approved, they shall be paid or allowed out of the estates in which they were incurred. (July 1, 1898, c. 541, § 62, 30 Stat. 562.)

103. Debts provable against.—(a) Debts of the bankrupt may be proved and allowed against his estate which are (1) a fixed liability, as evidenced by a judgment or an instrument in writing, absolutely owing at the time of the filing of the petition against him, whether then payable or not, with any interest thereon which would have been recoverable at that date or with a rebate of interest upon such as were not then payable and did not bear interest; (2) due as costs taxable against an involuntary bankrupt who was at the time of the filing of the petition against him plaintiff in a cause of action which would pass to the trustee and which the trustee declines to prosecute after notice; (3) founded upon a claim for taxable costs incurred in good faith by a creditor before the filing of a petition in an action to recover a provable debt; (4) founded upon an open account, or upon a contract express or implied; and (5) founded upon provable debts reduced to judgments after the filing of the petition and before the consideration of the bankrupt's application for a discharge, less costs incurred and interest accrued after the filing of the petition and up to the time of the entry of such judgments.

(b) Unliquidated claims against the bankrupt may, pursuant to application to the court, be liquidated in such manner as it shall direct, and may thereafter be proved and allowed against the estate. (July 1, 1898, c. 541, § 63, 30 Stat. 562.)

104. Debts which have priority.—(a) The court shall order the trustee to pay all taxes legally due and owing by the bankrupt to the United States, State, county, district, or municipality in advance of the payment of dividends to creditors, and upon filing the receipts of the proper public officers for such payment he shall be credited with the amount thereof, and in case any question arises as to the amount or legality of any such tax the same shall be heard and determined by the court.

(b) The debts to have priority, except as herein provided, and to be paid in full out of bankrupt estates, and the order of payment shall be (1) the actual and necessary cost of preserving the estate subsequent to filing the petition; (2) the filing fees paid by creditors in involuntary cases, and, where property of the bankrupt, transferred or concealed by him either before or after the filing of the petition, shall have been recovered for the benefit of the estate of the bankrupt by the efforts and at the expense of one or more creditors, the reasonable expenses of such recovery; (3) the cost of administration, including the fees and mileage payable to witnesses as on July 1, 1898, or thereafter provided by the laws of the United States, and one reasonable attorney's fee, for the professional services actually rendered, irrespective of the number of attorneys employed, to the petitioning creditors in involuntary cases, to the bankrupt in involuntary cases while performing the duties herein prescribed, and to the bankrupt in voluntary cases, as the court may allow; (4) wages due to workmen, clerks, traveling or city salesmen, or servants which have been earned within three months before the date of the commencement of proceedings, not to exceed $300 to each claimant; and (5) debts owing to any person who by the laws of the States or the United States is entitled to priority.

(c) In the event of the confirmation of a composition being set aside, or a discharge revoked, the property acquired by the bankrupt in addition to his estate at the time the composition was confirmed or the adjudication was made shall be applied to the payment in full of the claims of creditors for property sold to him on credit, in good faith, while such composition or discharge was in force, and the residue, if any, shall be applied to the payment of the debts which were owing at the time of the adjudication. (July 1, 1898, c. 541, § 64, 30 Stat. 563; Feb. 5, 1903, c. 487, § 14, 32 Stat. 800; June 15, 1906, c. 3333, 34 Stat. 267.)

105. Declaration and payment of dividends.—(a) Dividends of an equal per centum shall be declared and paid on all allowed claims, except such as have priority or are secured.

(b) The first dividend shall be declared within thirty days after the adjudication, if the money of the estate in excess of the amount necessary to pay the debts which have priority and such claims as have not been, but probably will be, allowed equals 5 per centum or more of such allowed claims. Dividends subsequent to the first shall be declared upon like terms as the first and as often as the amount shall equal 10 per centum or more and upon closing the estate. Dividends may be declared oftener and in smaller proportions if the judge shall so order. The first dividend shall not include more than 50 per centum of the money of the estate in excess of the amount necessary to pay the debts which have priority and such claims as probably will be allowed. The final dividend shall not be declared within three months after the first dividend shall be declared.

(c) The rights of creditors who have received dividends, or in whose favor final dividends have been declared, shall not be affected by the proof and allowance of claims subsequent to the date of such payment or declarations of dividends; but the creditors proving and securing the allowance of such claims shall be paid dividends equal in amount to those already received by the other creditors if the estate equals so much before such other creditors are paid any further dividends.

(d) Whenever a person shall have been adjudged a bankrupt by a court without the United States and also by a court of bankruptcy, creditors residing within the United States shall first be paid a dividend equal to that received in the court without the United States by other creditors before creditors who have received a dividend in such court shall be paid any amounts.

(e) A claimant shall not be entitled to collect from a bankrupt estate any greater amount than shall accrue pursuant to the provisions of this title. (July 1, 1898, c. 541, § 65, 30 Stat. 563; Feb. 5, 1903, c. 487, § 15, 32 Stat. 800.)

106. Unclaimed dividends.—(a) Dividends which remain unclaimed for six months after the final dividend has been declared shall be paid by the trustee into court.

(b) Dividends remaining unclaimed for one year shall, under the direction of the court, be distributed to the creditors whose claims have been allowed but not paid in full, and after such claims have been paid in full the balance shall be paid to the bankrupt. In case unclaimed dividends belong to minors such minors may have one year after arriving at majority to claim such dividends. (July 1, 1898, c. 541, § 66, 30 Stat. 564.)

107. Liens, conveyances, transfers, and assignments; validity of.—(a) Claims which for want of record or for other reasons would not have been valid liens as against the claims of the creditors of the bankrupt shall not be liens against his estate.

(b) Whenever a creditor is prevented from enforcing his rights as against a lien created, or attempted to be created, by his debtor, who afterwards becomes a bankrupt, the trustee of the estate of such bankrupt shall be subrogated to and may enforce such rights of such creditor for the benefit of the estate.

(c) A lien created by or obtained in or pursuant to any suit or proceeding at law or in equity, including an attachment upon mesne process or a judgment by confession, which was begun against a person within four months before the filing of a petition in bankruptcy by or against such person shall be dissolved by the adjudication of such person to be a bankrupt if (1) it appears that said lien was obtained and permitted while the defendant was insolvent and that its existence and enforcement will work a preference, or (2) the party or parties to be benefited thereby had reasonable cause to believe the defendant was insolvent and in contemplation of bankruptcy, or (3) that such lien was sought and permitted in fraud of the provisions of this title; or if the dissolution of such lien would militate against the best interests of the estate of such person the same shall not be dissolved, but the trustee of the estate of such person, for the benefit of the estate, shall be subrogated to the rights of the holder of such lien and empowered to perfect and enforce the same in his name as trustee with like force and effect as such holder might have done had not bankruptcy proceedings intervened.

(d) Liens given or accepted in good faith and not in contemplation of or in fraud upon the provisions of this title, and for a present consideration, which have been recorded according to law, if record thereof was necessary in order to impart notice, shall, to the extent of such present consideration only, not be affected by anything herein.

(e) All conveyances, transfers, assignments, or incumbrances of his property or any part thereof, made or given by a person adjudged a bankrupt under the provisions of this title within four months prior to the filing of the petition, with the intent and purpose on his part to hinder, delay, or defraud his creditors, or any of them, shall be null and void as against the creditors of such debtor, except as to purchasers in good faith and for a present fair consideration; and all property of the debtor conveyed, transferred, assigned, or encumbered as aforesaid shall, if he be adjudged a bankrupt, and the same is not exempt from execution and liability for debts by the law of his domicile, be and remain a part of the assets and estate of the bankrupt and shall pass to his said trustee, whose duty it shall be to recover and reclaim the same by legal proceedings or otherwise for the benefit of the creditors. And all conveyances, transfers, or incumbrances of his property made by a debtor at any time within four months prior to the filing of the petition against him, and while insolvent, which are held null and void as against the creditors of such debtor by the laws of the State, Territory, or District in which such property is situate, shall be deemed null and void under the provisions of this title against the creditors of such debtor if he be adjudged a bankrupt, and such property shall pass to the assignee and be by him reclaimed and recovered for the benefit of the creditors of the bankrupt. For the purpose of such recovery any court of bankruptcy as hereinbefore defined, and any State court which would have had jurisdiction if bankruptcy had not intervened, shall have concurrent jurisdiction.

(f) That all levies, judgments, attachments, or other liens, obtained through legal proceedings against a person who is insolvent, at any time within four months prior to the filing of a petition in bankruptcy against him, shall be deemed null and void in case he is adjudged a bankrupt, and the property affected by the levy, judgment, attachment, or other lien shall be deemed wholly discharged and released from the same, and shall pass to the trustee as a part of the estate of the bankrupt, unless the court shall, on due notice, order that the right under such levy, judgment, attachment, or other lien shall be preserved for the benefit of the estate; and thereupon the same may pass to and shall be preserved by the trustee for the benefit of the estate as aforesaid. And the court may order such conveyance as shall be necessary to carry the purposes of this section into effect. Nothing herein contained shall have the effect to destroy or impair the title obtained by such levy, judgment, attachment, or other lien, of a bona fide purchaser for value who shall have acquired the same without notice or reasonable cause for inquiry. (July 1, 1898, c. 541, § 67, 30 Stat. 564; Feb. 5, 1903, c. 487, § 16, 32 Stat. 800; June 25, 1910, c. 412, § 12, 36 Stat. 842.)

108. Set-offs and counterclaims.—(a) In all cases of mutual debts or mutual credits between the estate of a bankrupt and a creditor the account shall be stated and one debt shall be set off against the other, and the balance only shall be allowed or paid.

(b) A set-off or counterclaim shall not be allowed in favor of any debtor of the bankrupt which (1) is not provable against the estate; or (2) was purchased by or transferred to him after the filing of the petition, or within four months before such filing, with a view to such use and with knowledge or notice that such bankrupt was insolvent, or had committed an act of bankruptcy. (July 1, 1898, c. 541, § 68, 30 Stat. 565.)

109. Property; seizure to avoid deterioration.—A judge may, upon satisfactory proof, by affidavit, that a bankrupt against whom an involuntary petition has been filed and is pending has committed an act of bankruptcy, or has neglected or is neglecting, or is about to so neglect his property that it has thereby deteriorated or is thereby deteriorating or is about thereby to deteriorate in value, issue a warrant to the marshal to seize and hold it subject to further orders. Before such warrant is issued the petitioners applying therefor shall enter into a bond in such an amount as the judge shall fix, with such sureties as he shall approve, conditioned to indemnify such bankrupt for such damages as he shall sustain in the event such seizure shall prove to have been wrongfully obtained. Such property shall be released, if such bankrupt shall give bond in a sum which shall be fixed by the judge, with such sureties as he shall approve, conditioned to turn over such property, or pay the value thereof in money to the trustee, in the event he is adjudged a bankrupt pursuant to such petition. (July 1, 1898, c. 541, § 69, 30 Stat. 565.)

110. Same; title.—(a) The trustee of the estate of a bankrupt, upon his appointment and qualification, and his successor or successors, if he shall have one or more, upon his or their appointment and qualification, shall in turn be vested by operation of law with the title of the bankrupt, as of the date he was adjudged a bankrupt, except in so far as it is to property which is exempt, to all (1) documents relating to his property; (2) interests in patents, patent rights, copyrights, and trade-marks; (3) powers which he might have exercised for his own benefit, but not those which he might have exercised for some other person; (4) property transferred by him in fraud of his creditors; (5) property which prior to the filing of the petition he could by any means have transferred or which might have been levied upon and sold under judicial process against him. When any bankrupt shall have any insurance policy which has a cash surrender value payable to himself, his estate, or personal representatives, he may, within thirty days after the cash surrender value has been ascertained and stated to the trustee by the company issuing the same, pay or secure to the trustee the sum so ascertained and stated, and continue to hold, own, and carry such policy free from the claims of the creditors participating in the distribution of his estate under the bankruptcy proceedings, otherwise the policy shall pass to the trustee as assets; and (6) rights of action arising upon contracts or from the unlawful taking or detention of, or injury to, his property.

(b) All real and personal property belonging to bankrupt estates shall be appraised by three disinterested appraisers; they shall be appointed by, and report to, the court. Real and personal property shall, when practicable, be sold subject to the approval of the court; it shall not be sold otherwise than subject to the approval of the court for less than 75 per centum of its appraised value.

(c) The title to property of a bankrupt estate which has been sold, as provided in this title, shall be conveyed to the purchaser by the trustee.

(d) Whenever a composition shall be set aside, or discharge revoked, the trustee shall, upon his appointment and qualification, be vested as provided in this title with the title to all of the property of the bankrupt as of the date of the final decree setting aside the composition or revoking the discharge.

(e) The trustee may avoid any transfer by the bankrupt of his property which any creditor of such bankrupt might have avoided, and may recover the property so transferred, or its value, from the person to whom it was transferred, unless he was a bona fide holder for value prior to the date of the adjudication. Such property may be recovered or its value collected from whoever may have received it, except a bona fide holder for value. For the purpose of such recovery any court of bankruptcy as defined in this title, and any State court which would have had jurisdiction if bankruptcy had not intervened, shall have concurrent jurisdiction.

(f) Upon the confirmation of a composition offered by a bankrupt, the title to his property shall thereupon revest in him. (July 1, 1898, c. 541, § 70, 30 Stat. 565; Feb. 5, 1903, c. 487, § 16, 32 Stat. 800.)

111. Records; duty of clerks to keep; inspection.—The clerks of the several district courts of the United States shall prepare and keep in their respective offices complete and convenient indexes of all petitions and discharges in bankruptcy filed prior to July 1, 1898, or thereafter filed in the said courts, and shall, when requested so to do, issue certificates of search certifying as to whether or not any such petitions or discharges have been filed; and said clerks shall be entitled to charge and collect for such certificates the same fees as now allowed by law for certificates as to judgments in said courts. Bankruptcy indexes and dockets shall at all times be open to inspection and examination by all persons or corporations without any fee or charge therefor. (July 1, 1898, c. 541, § 71; Feb. 5, 1903, c. 487, § 17, 32 Stat. 800; Feb. 11, 1925, c. 204, § 8, 43 Stat. 858.)

112. Restriction of compensation of referees, receivers, and trustees.—Neither the referee, receiver, nor trustee shall in any form or guise receive, nor shall the court allow him, any other or further compensation for his services than that expressly authorized and prescribed in this title. (July 1, 1898, c. 541, § 72; Feb. 5, 1903, c. 487, § 18, 32 Stat. 800; June 25, 1910, c. 412, § 13, 36 Stat. 842.)

Section 1. Bureau of Comptroller of the Currency.—There shall be in the Department of the Treasury a bureau charged with the execution of all laws passed by Congress relating to the issue and regulation of a national currency secured by United States bonds and, under the general supervision of the Federal Reserve Board, of all Federal reserve notes, the chief officer of which bureau shall be called the Comptroller of the Currency and shall perform his duties under the general directions of the Secretary of the Treasury. (R. S. § 324; Dec. 23, 1913, c. 6, § 10, 38 Stat. 261.)

2. Comptroller of the Currency; appointment; term; salary.—The Comptroller of the Currency shall be appointed by the President, on the recommendation of the Secretary of the Treasury, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, and shall hold his office for the term of five years unless sooner removed by the President, upon reasons to be communicated by him to the Senate; and he shall be entitled to a salary of $5,000 a year. (R. S. § 325.)

3. Oath and bond of comptroller.—The Comptroller of the Currency shall, within fifteen days from the time of notice of his appointment, take and subscribe the oath of office; and he shall give to the United States a bond in the penalty of $100,000, with not less than two responsible sureties, to be approved by the Secretary of the Treasury, conditioned for the faithful discharge of the duties of his office. (R. S. § 326.)

4. Deputy comptroller.—There shall be in the Bureau of the Comptroller of the Currency a Deputy Comptroller of the Currency, to be appointed by the Secretary, who shall possess the power and perform the duties attached by law to the office of comptroller during a vacancy in the office or during the absence or inability of the comptroller. The deputy comptroller shall also take the oath of office prescribed by the Constitution and laws of the United States, and shall give a like bond in the penalty of $50,000. (R. S. § 327.)

5. Assistant deputy comptroller.—An assistant deputy comptroller shall be appointed by the Secretary of the Treasury, and shall possess the power and perform the duties attached by law to the office of comptroller during a vacancy in the office of comptroller and deputy comptroller or during the absence or inability of the comptroller and the deputy comptroller, and said assistant deputy comptroller shall give a like bond in the penalty of $50,000. (Mar. 4, 1909, c. 297, § 1, 35 Stat. 867.)

6. Additional deputy comptroller.—In addition to the two Deputy Comptrollers of the Currency provided for in the two preceding sections, there shall be in the Bureau of the Comptroller of the Currency a third Deputy Comptroller of the Currency who shall be appointed in the same manner and shall take a like oath of office and give a like bond as the deputy comptrollers provided for in the two preceding sections. Under the direction of the Comptroller of the Currency, such additional deputy comptroller shall have charge of the administration of the provisions of chapter 9 of this title relating to the organization and operation of national agricultural credit corporations and shall perform such other duties as shall be assigned to him by the Comptroller of the Currency. (Mar. 4, 1923, c. 252, Title II, § 209, 42 Stat. 1467.)

7. Chief of examining division.—The Comptroller of the Currency may designate a national bank examiner to act as chief of the examining division in his office. (Feb. 17, 1922, c. 55, 42 Stat. 375; Jan. 3, 1923, c. 22, 42 Stat. 1096.)

8. Clerks.—The Comptroller of the Currency shall employ, from time to time, the necessary clerks, to be appointed and classified by the Secretary of the Treasury, to discharge such duties as the comptroller shall direct. (R. S. § 328.)

9. Additional examiners, clerks, and other employees.—The Comptroller of the Currency is authorized to employ such additional examiners, clerks, and other employees as he deems necessary to carry out the provisions of chapter 9 and to assign to duty in the office of his bureau in Washington such examiners and assistant examiners as he shall deem necessary to assist in the performance of the work of that bureau. (Mar. 4, 1923, c. 252, Title II, § 209, 42 Stat. 1467.)

10. Salaries of deputy comptrollers, examiners, and other employees as part of administration expenses.—The salaries of the two deputy comptrollers provided for by law, prior to March 4, 1923, and of all national bank examiners and assistant examiners assigned to duty in the office of the bureau in Washington in connection with the supervision of national banks shall be considered part of the expenses of the examinations provided for by section 481 of this title; and the salaries of such additional deputy comptroller and of all examiners, assistant examiners, clerks, and other employees appointed under chapter 9 and assigned to duty in connection with the administration of chapter 9 shall be considered part of the expenses of the administration of this chapter: Provided, however, That the salary of the additional deputy comptroller provided for by section 6 of this title shall be considered partly an expense of the administration of chapter 9 in proportions to be determined from time to time by the Comptroller of the Currency with a view to a fair apportionment of such expense, until such time as it shall be necessary for such additional deputy comptroller to give his full time to the administration of that chapter. (Mar. 4, 1923, c. 252, Title II, § 209, 42 Stat. 1467.)

11. Interest in national banks.—It shall not be lawful for the Comptroller or the Deputy Comptroller of the Currency, either directly or indirectly, to be interested in any association issuing national currency under the laws of the United States. (R. S. § 329.)

12. Seal of comptroller.—The seal devised by the Comptroller of the Currency for his office, and approved by the Secretary of the Treasury, shall continue to be the seal of office of the comptroller, and may be renewed when necessary. A description of the seal, with an impression thereof, and a certificate of approval by the Secretary of the Treasury, shall be filed in the office of the Secretary of State. (R. S. § 330; Feb. 18, 1875, c. 80, § 1, 18 Stat. 317.)

13. Rooms for Currency Bureau.—There shall be assigned, from time to time, to the Comptroller of the Currency, by the Secretary of the Treasury, suitable rooms in the Treasury Building for conducting the business of the Currency Bureau, containing safe and secure fireproof vaults, in which the comptroller shall deposit and safely keep all the plates not necessarily in the possession of engravers or printers, and other valuable things belonging to his department; and the comptroller shall from time to time furnish the necessary furniture, stationery, fuel, lights, and other proper conveniences for the transaction of the business of his office. (R. S. § 331.)

14. Report of comptroller.—The Comptroller of the Currency shall make an annual report to Congress, at the commencement of its session, exhibiting—

First. A summary of the state and condition of every association from which reports have been received the preceding year, at the several dates to which such reports refer, with an abstract of the whole amount of banking capital returned by them, of the whole amount of their debts and liabilities, the amount of circulating notes outstanding, and the total amount of means and resources, specifying the amount of lawful money held by them at the times of their several returns, and such other information in relation to such associations as, in his judgment, may be useful.

Second. A statement of the associations whose business has been closed during the year, with the amount of their circulation redeemed and the amount outstanding.

Third. Any amendment to the laws relative to banking by which the system may be improved, and the security of the holders of its notes and other creditors may be increased.

Fourth. A statement exhibiting under appropriate heads the resources and liabilities and condition of the banks, banking companies, and savings banks organized under the laws of the several States and Territories; such information to be obtained by the comptroller from the reports made by such banks, banking companies, and savings banks to the legislatures or officers of the different States and Territories, and, where such reports can not be obtained, the deficiency to be supplied from such other authentic sources as may be available.

Fifth. The names and compensation of the clerks employed by him, and the whole amount of the expenses of the banking department during the year. (R. S. § 333; Feb. 18, 1875, c. 80, § 1, 18 Stat. 317.)

15. Inclusion in report of expenses of liquidation of national banks.—The Comptroller of the Currency is hereby directed to include in his annual report to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, expenses incurred during each year, in liquidation of each failed national bank separately. (Apr. 28, 1902, c. 594, § 1, 32 Stat. 138.)

ORGANIZATION AND GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section 21. Formation of national banking associations; incorporators; articles of association.—Associations for carrying on the business of banking under this chapter may be formed by any number of natural persons, not less in any case than five. They shall enter into articles of association, which shall specify in general terms the object for which the association is formed, and may contain any other provisions, not inconsistent with law, which the association may see fit to adopt for the regulation of its business and the conduct of its affairs. These articles shall be signed by the persons uniting to form the association, and a copy of them shall be forwarded to the Comptroller of the Currency, to be filed and preserved in his office. (R. S. § 5133.)

22. Organization certificate.—The persons uniting to form such an association shall, under their hands, make an organization certificate, which shall specifically state:

First. The name assumed by such association; which name shall be subject to the approval of the Comptroller of the Currency.

Second. The place where its operations of discount and deposit are to be carried on, designating the State, Territory, or District, and the particular county and city, town, or village.

Third. The amount of capital stock and the number of shares into which the same is to be divided.

Fourth. The names and places of residence of the shareholders and the number of shares held by each of them.

Fifth. The fact that the certificate is made to enable such persons to avail themselves of the advantages of this chapter. (R. S. § 5134.)

23. Acknowledgment and filing of certificate.—The organization certificate shall be acknowledged before a judge of some court of record, or notary public; and shall be, together with the acknowledgment thereof, authenticated by the seal of such court, or notary, transmitted to the Comptroller of the Currency, who shall record and carefully preserve the same in his office. (R. S. § 5135.)

24. Corporate powers of associations.—Upon duly making and filing articles of association and an organization certificate a national banking association shall become, as from the date of the execution of its organization certificate, a body corporate, and as such, and in the name designated in the organization certificate, it shall have power—

First. To adopt and use a corporate seal.

Second. To have succession until ninety-nine years from July 1, 1922, or from the date of its organization if organized after July 1, 1922, unless it shall be sooner dissolved by the act of its shareholders owning two-thirds of its stock, or unless its franchise shall become forfeited by reason of violation of law, or unless it shall be terminated by Act of Congress hereafter enacted.

Third. To make contracts.

Fourth. To sue and be sued, complain and defend, in any court of law and equity, as fully as natural persons.

Fifth. To elect or appoint directors, and by its board of directors to appoint a president, vice president, cashier, and other officers, define their duties, require bonds of them and fix the penalty thereof, dismiss such officers or any of them at pleasure, and appoint others to fill their places.

Sixth. To prescribe, by its board of directors, by-laws not inconsistent with law, regulating the manner in which its stock shall be transferred, its directors elected or appointed, its officers appointed, its property transferred, its general business conducted, and the privileges granted to it by law exercised and enjoyed.

Seventh. To exercise by its board of directors, or duly authorized officers or agents, subject to law, all such incidental powers as shall be necessary to carry on the business of banking; by discounting and negotiating promissory notes, drafts, bills of exchange, and other evidences of debt; by receiving deposits; by buying and selling exchange, coin, and bullion; by loaning money on personal security; and by obtaining, issuing, and circulating notes according to the provisions of this chapter.

But no association shall transact any business except such as is incidental and necessarily preliminary to its organization, until it has been authorized by the Comptroller of the Currency to commence the business of banking. (R. S. § 5136; July 1, 1922, c. 257, § 1, 42 Stat. 767.)

25. Repeal of Acts relating to extension of period of corporate succession; operation of paragraph 2 of preceding section.—All Acts or parts of Acts providing for the extension of the period of succession of national banking associations for twenty years are repealed as of July 1, 1922, and the provisions of paragraph second of the preceding section shall apply to all national banking associations now organized and operating under any law of the United States. (July 1, 1922, c. 257, § 2, 42 Stat. 767.)

26. Comptroller to determine if associations can commence business.—Whenever a certificate is transmitted to the Comptroller of the Currency, as provided in this chapter, and the association transmitting the same notifies the comptroller that at least 50 per centum of its capital stock has been duly paid in, and that such association has complied with all the provisions of this chapter required to be complied with before an association shall be authorized to commence the business of banking, the comptroller shall examine into the condition of such association, ascertain especially the amount of money paid in on account of its capital, the name and place of residence of each of its directors, and the amount of the capital stock of which each is the owner in good faith, and generally whether such association has complied with all the provisions of this chapter required to entitle it to engage in the business of banking; and shall cause to be made and attested by the oaths of a majority of the directors, and by the president or cashier of the association, a statement of all the facts necessary to enable the comptroller to determine whether the association is lawfully entitled to commence the business of banking. (R. S. § 5168.)

27. Certificate of authority to commence banking.—If, upon a careful examination of the facts so reported, and of any other facts which may come to the knowledge of the comptroller, whether by means of a special commission appointed by him for the purpose of inquiring into the condition of such association, or otherwise, it appears that such association is lawfully entitled to commence the business of banking, the comptroller shall give to such association a certificate, under his hand and official seal, that such association has complied with all the provisions required to be complied with before commencing the business of banking, and that such association is authorized to commence such business. But the comptroller may withhold from an association his certificate authorizing the commencement of business, whenever he has reason to suppose that the shareholders have formed the same for any other than the legitimate objects contemplated by this chapter. (R. S. § 5169.)

28. Publication of certificate.—The association shall cause the certificate issued under the preceding section to be published in some newspaper printed in the city or county where the association is located, for at least sixty days next after the issuing thereof; or, if no newspaper is published in such city or county, then in the newspaper published nearest thereto. (R. S. § 5170.)

29. Power to hold real property.—A national banking association may purchase, hold, and convey real estate for the following purposes, and, excepting as provided otherwise in section 371 of this title, for no others:

First. Such as shall be necessary for its immediate accommodation in the transaction of its business.

Second. Such as shall be mortgaged to it in good faith by way of security for debts previously contracted.

Third. Such as shall be conveyed to it in satisfaction of debts previously contracted in the course of its dealings.

Fourth. Such as it shall purchase at sales under judgments, decrees, or mortgages held by the association, or shall purchase to secure debts due to it.

But no such association shall hold the possession of any real estate under mortgage, or the title and possession of any real estate purchased to secure any debts due to it, for a longer period than five years. (R. S. § 5137.)

30. Change of name or location.—Any national banking association may change its name or the place where its operations of discount and deposit are to be carried on, to any other place within the same State, not more than thirty miles distant with the approval of the Comptroller of the Currency, by the vote of shareholders owning two-thirds of the stock of such association. A duly authenticated notice of the vote and of the new name or location selected shall be sent to the office of the Comptroller of the Currency; but no change of name or location shall be valid until the comptroller shall have issued his certificate of approval of the same. (May 1, 1886, c. 73, § 2, 24 Stat. 18.)

31. Rights and liabilities as affected by change of name.—All debts, liabilities, rights, provisions, and powers of the association under its old name shall devolve upon and inure to the association under its new name. (May 1, 1886, c. 73, § 3, 24 Stat. 19.)

32. Liabilities and suits as affected by change of name or location.—Nothing contained in the two preceding sections shall be so construed as in any manner to release any national banking association under its old name or at its old location from any liability, or affect any action or proceeding in law in which said association may be or become a party or interested. (May 1, 1886, c. 73, § 4, 24 Stat. 19.)

33. Consolidation of banks; capital stock; dissenting shareholders.—Any two or more national banking associations located within the same county, city, town, or village may, with the approval of the Comptroller of the Currency, consolidate into one association under the charter of either existing banks, on such terms and conditions as may be lawfully agreed upon by a majority of the board of directors of each association proposing to consolidate, and be ratified and confirmed by the affirmative vote of the shareholders of each such association owning at least two-thirds of its capital stock outstanding, at a meeting to be held on the call of the directors after publishing notice of the time, place, and object of the meeting for four consecutive weeks in some newspaper published in the place where the said association is located, and if no newspaper is published in the place, then in a paper published nearest thereto, and after sending such notice to each shareholder of record by registered mail at least ten days prior to said meeting: Provided, That the capital stock of such consolidated association shall not be less than that required under existing law for the organization of a national bank in the place in which it is located: And provided further, That when such consolidation shall have been effected and approved by the comptroller any shareholder of either of the associations so consolidated who has not voted for such consolidation may give notice to the directors of the association in which he is interested within twenty days from the date of the certificate of approval of the comptroller that he dissents from the plan of consolidation as adopted and approved, whereupon he shall be entitled to receive the value of the shares so held by him, to be ascertained by an appraisal made by a committee of three persons, one to be selected by the shareholder, one by the directors, and the third by the two so chosen; and in case the value so fixed shall not be satisfactory to the shareholder he may within five days after being notified of the appraisal appeal to the Comptroller of the Currency, who shall cause a reappraisal to be made, which shall be final and binding; and if said reappraisal shall exceed the value fixed by said committee, the bank shall pay the expenses of the reappraisal; otherwise the appellant shall pay said expenses, and the value so ascertained and determined shall be deemed to be a debt due and be forthwith paid to said shareholder from said bank, and the share so paid shall be surrendered and after due notice sold at public auction within thirty days after the final appraisement provided for in this section. (Nov. 7, 1918, c. 209, § 1, 40 Stat. 1043.)

34. Effect of consolidation on rights and liabilities.—Associations consolidating with another association under the provisions of the preceding section shall not be required to deposit lawful money for their outstanding circulation, but their assets and liabilities shall be reported by the association with which they have consolidated. And all the rights, franchises, and interests of the said national bank so consolidated in and to every species of property, personal and mixed, and choses in action thereto belonging, shall be deemed to be transferred to and vested in such national bank into which it is consolidated without any deed or other transfer, and the said consolidated national bank shall hold and enjoy the same and all rights of property, franchises, and interests in the same manner and to the same extent as was held and enjoyed by the national bank so consolidated therewith. (Nov. 7, 1918, c. 209, § 2, 40 Stat. 1044.)

35. Organization of State banks as national banking associations.—Any bank incorporated by special law of any State or of the United States or organized under the general laws of any State or of the United States and having an unimpaired capital sufficient to entitle it to become a national banking association under the provisions of the existing laws may, by the vote of the shareholders owning not less than 51 per centum of the capital stock of such bank or banking association, with the approval of the Comptroller of the Currency be converted into a national banking association, with any name approved by the Comptroller of the Currency: Provided, however, That said conversion shall not be in contravention of the State law. In such case the articles of association and organization certificate may be executed by a majority of the directors of the bank or banking institution, and the certificate shall declare that the owners of 51 per centum of the capital stock have authorized the directors to make such certificate and to change or convert the bank or banking institution into a national association. A majority of the directors, after executing the articles of association and the organization certificate, shall have power to execute all other papers and to do whatever may be required to make its organization perfect and complete as a national association. The shares of any such bank may continue to be for the same amount each as they were before the conversion, and the directors may continue to be directors of the association until others are elected or appointed in accordance with the provisions of the statutes of the United States. When the comptroller has given to such bank or banking association a certificate that the provisions of this chapter have been complied with, such bank or banking association, and all its stockholders, officers, and employees, shall have the same powers and privileges, and shall be subject to the same duties, liabilities, and regulations, in all respects, as shall have been prescribed by this and the following chapter for associations originally organized as national banking associations. (R. S. § 5154; Dec. 23, 1913, c. 6, § 8, 38 Stat. 258.)

36. Organization of State banks having branches as national banking associations.—It shall be lawful for any bank or banking association organized under State laws, and having branches, the capital being joint and assigned to and used by the mother bank and branches in definite proportions, to become a national banking association in conformity with existing laws, and to retain and keep in operation its branches, or such one or more of them as it may elect to retain; the amount of the circulation redeemable at the mother bank, and each branch, to be regulated by the amount of capital assigned to and used by each. (R. S. § 5155.)

37. Associations governed by chapter.—The provisions of this chapter, which are expressed without restrictive words, as applying to "national banking associations," or to "associations," apply to all associations organized to carry on the business of banking under any Act of Congress. (R. S. § 5157.)

38. "The National Bank Act."—The Act entitled "An Act to provide a national currency secured by a pledge of United States bonds, and to provide for the circulation and redemption thereof," approved June 3, 1864, shall be known as "The National Bank Act." (June 20, 1874, c. 343, § 1, 18 Stat. 123.)

39. Reservation of rights of associations organized under Act of 1863.—Nothing in this chapter shall affect any appointments made, acts done, or proceedings had or commenced prior to the 3d day of June, 1864, in or toward the organization of any national banking association under the Act of February 25, 1863; but all associations which, on the 3d day of June, 1864, were organized or commenced to be organized under that Act, shall enjoy all the rights and privileges granted, and be subject to all the duties, liabilities, and restrictions imposed by this chapter, notwithstanding all the steps prescribed by this chapter for the organization of associations were not pursued, if such associations were duly organized under that Act. (R. S. § 5156.)

CAPITAL, STOCK, AND STOCKHOLDERS

51. Requisite amount of capital.—No association shall be organized with a less capital than $100,000, except that banks with a capital of not less than $50,000 may, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, be organized in any place the population of which does not exceed six thousand inhabitants, and except that banks with a capital of not less than $25,000 may, with the sanction of the Secretary of the Treasury, be organized in any place the population of which does not exceed three thousand inhabitants. No association shall be organized in a city the population of which exceeds fifty thousand persons with a capital of less than $200,000. (R. S. § 5138; Mar. 14, 1900, c. 41, § 10, 31 Stat. 48.)

52. Par value and incidents of stock; transfer of shares.—The capital stock of each association shall be divided into shares of $100 each, and be deemed personal property, and transferable on the books of the association in such manner as may be prescribed in the by-laws or articles of association. Every person becoming a shareholder by such transfer shall, in proportion to his shares, succeed to all the rights and liabilities of the prior holder of such shares; and no change shall be made in the articles of association by which the rights, remedies, or security of the existing creditors of the association shall be impaired. (R. S. § 5139.)

53. When capital stock paid in; installments; proof.—At least 50 per centum of the capital stock of every association shall be paid in before it shall be authorized to commence business; and the remainder of the capital stock of such association shall be paid in installments of at least 10 per centum each, on the whole amount of the capital, as frequently as one installment at the end of each succeeding month from the time it shall be authorized by the Comptroller of the Currency to commence business; and the payment of each installment shall be certified to the comptroller, under oath, by the president or cashier of the association. (R. S. § 5140.)

54. Failure to pay installments; remedy; effect if reduction of capital results.—Whenever any shareholder, or his assignee, fails to pay any installment on the stock when the same is required by the preceding section to be paid, the directors of such association may sell the stock of such delinquent shareholder at public auction, having given three weeks' previous notice thereof in a newspaper published and of general circulation in the city or county where the association is located, or, if no newspaper is published in said city or county, then in a newspaper published nearest thereto, to any person who will pay the highest price therefor, to be not less than the amount then due thereon, with the expenses of advertisement and sale; and the excess, if any, shall be paid to the delinquent shareholder. If no bidder can be found who will pay for such stock the amount due thereon to the association, and the cost of advertisement and sale, the amount previously paid shall be forfeited to the association, and such stock shall be sold as the directors may order, within six months from the time of such forfeiture, and if not sold it shall be canceled and deducted from the capital stock of the association. If any such cancellation and reduction shall reduce the capital of the association below the minimum of capital required by law, the capital stock shall, within thirty days from the date of such cancellation, be increased to the required amount; in default of which a receiver may be appointed, according to the provisions of section 192 of this title, to close up the business of the association. (R. S. § 5141.)

55. Enforcing payment of deficiency in capital stock; assessments; liquidation; receivership.—Every association which shall have failed to pay up its capital stock, as required by law, and every association whose capital stock shall have become impaired by losses or otherwise, shall, within three months after receiving notice thereof from the Comptroller of the Currency, pay the deficiency in the capital stock, by assessment upon the shareholders pro rata for the amount of capital stock held by each; and the Treasurer of the United States shall withhold the interest upon all bonds held by him in trust for any such association, upon notification from the Comptroller of the Currency, until otherwise notified by him. If any such association shall fail to pay up its capital stock, and shall refuse to go into liquidation, as provided by law, for three months after receiving notice from the comptroller, a receiver may be appointed to close up the business of the association, according to the provisions of section 192 of this title. And provided, That if any shareholder or shareholders of such bank shall neglect or refuse, after three months' notice, to pay the assessment, as provided in this section, it shall be the duty of the board of directors to cause a sufficient amount of the capital stock of such shareholder or shareholders to be sold at public auction (after thirty days' notice shall be given by posting such notice of sale in the office of the bank, and by publishing such notice in a newspaper of the city or town in which the bank is located, or in a newspaper published nearest thereto), to make good the deficiency, and the balance, if any, shall be returned to such delinquent shareholder or shareholders. (R. S. § 5205; June 30, 1876, c. 156, § 4, 19 Stat. 64.)

56. Prohibition on withdrawal of capital; unearned dividends.—No association, or any member thereof, shall, during the time it shall continue its banking operations, withdraw, or permit to be withdrawn, either in the form of dividends or otherwise, any portion of its capital. If losses have at any time been sustained by any such association, equal to or exceeding its undivided profits then on hand, no dividend shall be made; and no dividend shall ever be made by any association, while it continues its banking operations, to an amount greater than its net profits then on hand, deducting therefrom its losses and bad debts. All debts due to any associations, on which interest is past due and unpaid for a period of six months, unless the same are well secured, and in process of collection, shall be considered bad debts within the meaning of this section. But nothing in this section shall prevent the reduction of the capital stock of the association under section 59 of this title. (R. S. § 5204.)

57. Increase of capital by provision in articles of association.—Any association formed under this chapter may, by its articles of association, provide for an increase of its capital from time to time, as may be deemed expedient, subject to the limitations of this chapter. But the maximum of such increase to be provided in the articles of association shall be determined by the Comptroller of the Currency; and no increase of capital shall be valid until the whole amount of such increase is paid in, and notice thereof has been transmitted to the Comptroller of the Currency, and his certificate obtained specifying the amount of such increase of capital stock, with his approval thereof, and that it has been duly paid in as part of the capital of such association. (R. S. § 5142.)

58. Increase of capital by vote of shareholders.—Any national banking association may, with the approval of the Comptroller of the Currency, by the vote of shareholders owning two-thirds of the stock of such association, increase its capital stock, in accordance with existing laws, to any sum approved by the said comptroller, notwithstanding the limit fixed in its original articles of association and determined by said comptroller; and no increase of the capital stock of any national banking association either within or beyond the limit fixed in its original articles of association shall be made except in the manner herein provided. (May 1, 1886, c. 73, § 1, 24 Stat. 18.)

59. Reduction of capital by vote of shareholders.—Any association formed under this chapter may, by the vote of shareholders owning two-thirds of its capital stock, reduce its capital to any sum not below the amount required by this chapter to authorize the formation of associations; but no such reduction shall be allowable which will reduce the capital of the association below the amount required for its outstanding circulation, nor shall any reduction be made until the amount of the proposed reduction has been reported to the Comptroller of the Currency and such reduction has been approved by the said Comptroller of the Currency and by the Federal Reserve Board. (R. S. § 5143; Dec. 23, 1913, c. 6, § 28, 38 Stat. 274.)

60. Dividends and surplus funds.—The directors of any association may, semiannually, declare a dividend of so much of the net profits of the association as they shall judge expedient; but each association shall, before the declaration of a dividend, carry one-tenth part of its net profits of the preceding half year to its surplus fund until the same shall amount to 20 per centum of its capital stock. (R. S. § 5199.)

61. Right of shareholders to vote.—In all elections of directors, and in deciding all questions at meetings of shareholders, each shareholder shall be entitled to one vote on each share of stock held by him. Shareholders may vote by proxies duly authorized in writing; but no officer, clerk, teller, or bookkeeper of such association shall act as proxy; and no shareholder whose liability is past due and unpaid shall be allowed to vote. (R. S. § 5144.)

62. List of shareholders.—The president and cashier of every national banking association shall cause to be kept at all times a full and correct list of the names and residences of all the shareholders in the association, and the number of shares held by each, in the office where its business is transacted. Such list shall be subject to the inspection of all the shareholders and creditors of the association, and the officers authorized to assess taxes under State authority, during business hours of each day in which business may be legally transacted. A copy of such list, on the first Monday of July of each year, verified by the oath of such president or cashier, shall be transmitted to the Comptroller of the Currency. (R. S. § 5210.)

63. Individual liability of shareholders.—The shareholders of every national banking association shall be held individually responsible, equally and ratably, and not one for another, for all contracts, debts, and engagements of such association, to the extent of the amount of their stock therein, at the par value thereof, in addition to the amount invested in such shares; except that shareholders of any banking association now existing under State laws, having not less than $5,000,000 of capital actually paid in, and a surplus of 20 per centum on hand, both to be determined by the Comptroller of the Currency, shall be liable only to the amount invested in their shares; and such surplus of 20 per centum shall be kept undiminished, and be in addition to the surplus provided for in this chapter; and if at any time there is a deficiency in such surplus of 20 per centum, such association shall not pay any dividends to its shareholders until the deficiency is made good; and in case of such deficiency, the Comptroller of the Currency may compel the association to close its business and wind up its affairs under the provisions of this chapter relating to dissolution and receivership. (R. S. § 5151.)

64. Individual liability of shareholders; transfer of shares.—The stockholders of every national banking association shall be held individually responsible for all contracts, debts, and engagement of such association, each to the amount of his stock therein, at the par value thereof in addition to the amount invested in such stock. The stockholders in any national banking association who shall have transferred their shares or registered the transfer thereof within sixty days next before the date of the failure of such association to meet its obligations, or with knowledge of such impending failure, shall be liable to the same extent as if they had made no such transfer, to the extent that the subsequent transferee fails to meet such liability; but this provision shall not be construed to affect in any way any recourse which such shareholders might otherwise have against those in whose names such shares are registered at the time of such failure. (Dec. 23, 1913, c. 6, § 23, 38 Stat. 273.)

65. Enforcement of shareholders' individual liability by creditors on liquidation.—When any national banking association shall have gone into liquidation under the provisions of section 181 of this title, the individual liability of the shareholders provided for by section 63 of this title may be enforced by any creditor of such association, by bill in equity, in the nature of a creditor's bill, brought by such creditor on behalf of himself and of all other creditors of the association, against the shareholders thereof, in any court of the United States having original jurisdiction in equity for the district in which such association may have been located or established. (June 30, 1876, c. 156, § 2, 19 Stat. 63.)

66. Personal liability of representatives of stockholders.—Persons holding stock as executors, administrators, guardians, or trustees, shall not be personally subject to any liabilities as stockholders; but the estates and funds in their hands shall be liable in like manner and to the same extent as the testator, intestate, ward, or person interested in such trust funds would be, if living and competent to act and hold the stock in his own name. (R. S. § 5152.)

DIRECTORS

71. Election.—The affairs of each association shall be managed by not less than five directors, who shall be elected by the shareholders at a meeting to be held at any time before the association is authorized by the Comptroller of the Currency to commence the business of banking; and afterward at meetings to be held on such day in January of each year as is specified therefor in the articles of association. The directors shall hold office for one year, and until their successors are elected and have qualified. (R. S. § 5145.)

72. Qualifications.—Every director must, during his whole term of service, be a citizen of the United States, and at least three-fourths of the directors must have resided in the State, Territory, or District in which the association is located, or within fifty miles of the location of the office of the association, for at least one year immediately preceding their election, and must be residents of such State or within a fifty-mile territory of the location of the association during their continuance in office. Every director must own in his own right at least ten shares of the capital stock of the association of which he is a director, unless the capital of the bank shall not exceed $25,000, in which case he must own in his own right at least five shares of such capital stock. Any director who ceases to be the owner of the required number of shares of the stock, or who becomes in any other manner disqualified, shall thereby vacate his place. (R. S. § 5146; Feb. 28, 1905, c. 1163, 33 Stat. 818; Mar. 1, 1921, c. 100, 41 Stat. 1199.)

73. Oath.—Each director, when appointed or elected, shall take an oath that he will, so far as the duty devolves on him, diligently and honestly administer the affairs of such association, and will not knowingly violate or willingly permit to be violated any of the provisions of this title, and that he is the owner in good faith, and in his own right, of the number of shares of stock required by this title, subscribed by him, or standing in his name on the books of the association, and that the same is not hypotheeated, or in any way pledged, as security for any loan or debt. The oath shall be taken before a notary public, properly authorized and commissioned by the State in which he resides, or before any other officer having an official seal and authorized by the State to administer oaths, except that the oath shall not be taken before any such notary public or other officer who is an officer of the director's bank. The oath, subscribed by the director making it, and certified by the notary public or other officer before whom it is taken, shall be immediately transmitted to the Comptroller of the Currency and shall be filed and preserved in his office for a period of ten years. (R. S. § 5147; Feb. 20, 1925, c. 274, 43 Stat. 955.)

74. Vacancies.—Any vacancy in the board shall be filled by appointment by the remaining directors, and any director so appointed shall hold his place until the next election. (R. S. § 5148.)

75. Proceedings where no election held on proper day.—If, from any cause, an election of directors is not made at the time appointed, the association shall not for that cause be dissolved, but an election may be held on any subsequent day, thirty days' notice thereof in all cases having been given in a newspaper published in the city, town, or county in which the association is located; and if no newspaper is published in such city, town, or county, such notice shall be published in a newspaper published nearest thereto. If the articles of association do not fix the day on which the election shall be held, or if no election is held on the day fixed, the day for the election shall be designated by the board of directors in their by-laws, or otherwise; or if the directors fail to fix the day, shareholders representing two-thirds of the shares may do so. (R. S. § 5149.)

76. Election of president of board.—One of the directors, to be chosen by the board, shall be the president of the board. (R. S. § 5150.)

REGULATION OF THE BANKING BUSINESS; POWERS AND DUTIES OF NATIONAL BANKS

81. Place of business.—The usual business of each national banking association shall be transacted at an office or banking house located in the place specified in its organization certificate. (R. S. § 5190.)

82. Limit on indebtedness incurred by bank.—No national banking association shall at any time be indebted, or in any way liable, to an amount exceeding the amount of its capital stock at such time actually paid in and remaining undiminished by losses or otherwise, except on account of demands of the nature following:

First. Notes of circulation.

Second. Moneys deposited with or collected by the association.

Third. Bills of exchange or drafts drawn against money actually on deposit to the credit of the association, or due thereto.

Fourth. Liabilities to the stockholders of the association for dividends and reserve profits.

Fifth. Liabilities incurred under the provisions of chapter 3.

Sixth. Liabilities incurred under the provisions of chapter 10, of Title 15, COMMERCE AND TRADE.

Seventh. Liabilities created by the indorsement of accepted bills of exchange payable abroad actually owned by the indorsing bank and discounted at home or abroad.

Eighth. Liabilities incurred under the provisions of sections 1031–1034 of this title. (R. S. § 5202; Dec. 23, 1913, c. 6, § 13, 38 Stat. 264; Sept. 7, 1916, c. 461, 39 Stat. 753; Apr. 5, 1918, c. 45, § 20, 40 Stat. 512; Oct. 22, 1919, c. 79, § 2, 41 Stat. 297; Mar. 4, 1923, c. 252, Title V, § 504, 42 Stat. 1481.)

83. Loans on or purchase by bank of own stock.—No association shall make any loan or discount on the security of the shares of its own capital stock, nor be the purchaser or holder of any such shares, unless such security or purchase shall be necessary to prevent loss upon a debt previously contracted in good faith; and stock so purchased or acquired shall, within six months from the time of its purchase, be sold or disposed of at public or private sale; or, in default thereof, a receiver may be appointed to close up the business of the association, according to section 192 of this title. (R. S. § 5201.)

84. Limit of liability of any person to bank.—The total liabilities to any association of any person or of any company, corporation, or firm for money borrowed, including in the liabilities of a company or firm the liabilities of the several members thereof, shall at no time exceed 10 per centum of the amount of the capital stock of such association, actually paid in and unimpaired, and 10 per centum of its unimpaired surplus fund: Provided, however, That (1) the discount of bills of exchange drawn in good faith against actually existing values, including drafts and bills of exchange secured by shipping documents conveying or securing title to goods shipped, and including demand obligations when secured by documents covering commodities in actual process of shipment, and also including bankers' acceptance of the kinds described in section 346, (2) the discount of commercial or business paper actually owned by the person, company, corporation, or firm negotiating the same, (3) the discount of notes secured by shipping documents, warehouse receipts or other such documents conveying or securing title covering readily marketable nonperishable staples, including livestock, when the actual market value of the property securing the obligation is not at any time less than 115 per centum of the face amount of the notes secured by such documents and when such property is fully covered by insurance, and (4) the discount of any note or notes secured by not less than a like face amount of bonds or notes of the United States issued since April 24, 1917, or certificates of indebtedness of the United States, shall not be considered as money borrowed within the meaning of this section. The total liabilities to any association, of any person or of any corporation, or firm, or company, or the several members thereof upon any note or notes purchased or discounted by such association and secured by bonds, notes, or certificates of indebtedness as described in (4) hereof shall not exceed (except to the extent permitted by rules and regulations prescribed by the Comptroller of the Currency, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury) 10 per centum of such capital stock and surplus fund of such association and the total liabilities to any association of any person or of any corporation, or firm, or company, or the several members thereof for money borrowed, including the liabilities upon notes secured in the manner described under (3) hereof, except transactions (1), (2), and (4), shall not at any time exceed 25 per centum of the amount of the association's paid-in and unimpaired capital stock and surplus. The exception made under (3) hereof shall not apply to the notes of any one person, corporation or firm or company, or the several members thereof for more than six months in any consecutive twelve months. (R. S. § 5200, June 22, 1906, c. 3516, 34 Stat. 451; Sept. 24, 1918, c. 176, § 6, 40 Stat. 967; Oct. 22, 1919, c. 79, § 1, 41 Stat. 296.)

"Bonds" as including notes issued under Victory Liberty Loan Act.—See section 753(d) of Title 31, MONEY AND FINANCE.

85. Rate of interest on loans, discounts and purchases.—Any association may take, receive, reserve, and charge on any loan or discount made, or upon any note, bill of exchange, or other evidences of debt, interest at the rate allowed by the laws of the State, Territory, or District where the bank is located, and no more, except that where by the laws of any State a different rate is limited for banks of issue organized under State laws, the rate so limited shall be allowed for associations organized or existing in any such State under this title. When no rate is fixed by the laws of the State, or Territory, or District, the bank may take, receive, reserve, or charge a rate not exceeding 7 per centum, and such interest may be taken in advance, reckoning the days for which the note, bill, or other evidence of debt has to run. And the purchase, discount, or sale of a bona fide bill of exchange, payable at another place than the place of such purchase, discount, or sale, at not more than the current rate of exchange for sight drafts in addition to the interest, shall not be considered as taking or receiving a greater rate of interest. (R. S. § 5197.)

86. Usurious interest; penalty for taking; venue of suit.—The taking, receiving, reserving, or charging a rate of interest greater than is allowed by the preceding section, when knowingly done, shall be deemed a forfeiture of the entire interest which the note, bill, or other evidence of debt carries with it, or which has been agreed to be paid thereon. In case the greater rate of interest has been paid, the person by whom it has been paid, or his legal representatives, may recover back, in an action in the nature of an action of debt, twice the amount of the interest thus paid from the association taking or receiving the same: Provided, That such action is commenced within two years from the time the usurious transaction occurred. (R. S. § 5198.)

87. Restriction on use by bank of its circulating notes.—No association shall, either directly or indirectly, pledge or hypothecate any of its notes of circulation, for the purpose of procuring money to be paid in on its capital stock, or to be used in its banking operations, or otherwise; nor shall any association use its circulating notes, or any part thereof, in any manner or form, to create or increase its capital stock. (R. S. § 5203.)

88. Restriction on use by bank of notes of other banks.—No association shall at any time pay out on loans or discounts, or in purchasing drafts or bills of exchange, or in payment of deposits, or in any other mode pay or put in circulation, the notes of any bank or banking association which are not, at any such time, receivable, at par, on deposit, and in payment of debts by the association so paying out or circulating such notes; nor shall any association knowingly pay out or put in circulation any notes issued by any bank or banking association which at the time of such paying out or putting in circulation is not redeeming its circulating notes in lawful money of the United States. (R. S. § 5206.)

89. Duty of bank to receive circulating notes of other banks in payment of debts.—Every national banking association formed or existing under this chapter, shall take and receive at par, for any debt or liability to it, any and all notes or bills issued by any lawfully organized national banking association. But this provision shall not apply to any association organized for the purpose of issuing notes payable in gold. (R. S. § 5196.)

90. Depositaries of public moneys and financial agents of Government.—All national banking associations, designated for that purpose by the Secretary of the Treasury, shall be depositaries of public money, under such regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary; and they may also be employed as financial agents of the Government; and they shall perform all such reasonable duties, as depositaries of public money and financial agents of the Government, as may be required of them. The Secretary of the Treasury shall require the associations thus designated to give satisfactory security, by the deposit of United States bonds and otherwise, for the safe-keeping and prompt payment of the public money deposited with them, and for the faithful performance of their duties as financial agents of the Government: Provided, That the Secretary shall, on or before the 1st of January of each year, make a public statement of the securities required during that year for such deposits. And every association so designated as receiver or depositary of the public money shall take and receive at par all of the national currency bills, by whatever association issued, which have been paid into the Government for internal revenue, or for loans or stocks: Provided, That the Secretary of the Treasury shall distribute the deposits herein provided for, as far as practicable, equitably between the different States and sections. (R. S. § 5153; Mar. 3, 1901, c. 871, § 1, 31 Stat. 1448; Mar. 4, 1907, c. 2913, § 3, 34 Stat. 1290; Dec. 23, 1913, c. 6, § 27, 38 Stat. 274; Aug. 4, 1914, c. 225, 38 Stat. 682.)

91. Transfers by bank and other acts in contemplation of insolvency.—All transfers of the notes, bonds, bills of exchange, or other evidences of debt owing to any national banking association, or of deposits to its credit; all assignments of mortgages, sureties on real estate, or of judgments or decrees in its favor; all deposits of money, bullion, or other valuable thing for its use, or for the use of any of its shareholders or creditors; and all payments of money to either, made after the commission of an act of insolvency, or in contemplation thereof, made with a view to prevent the application of its assets in the manner prescribed by this chapter, or with a view to the preference of one creditor to another, except in payment of its circulating notes, shall be utterly null and void; and no attachment, injunction or execution, shall be issued against such association or its property before final judgment in any suit, action, or proceeding, in any State, county, or municipal court. (R. S. § 5242.)

92. Acting as insurance agent or broker; procuring loans on real estate.—In addition to the powers now vested by law in national banking associations organized under the laws of the United States any such association located and doing business in any place the population of which does not exceed five thousand inhabitants, as shown by the last preceding decennial census, may, under such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the Comptroller of the Currency, act as the agent for any fire, life, or other insurance company authorized by the authorities of the State in which such bank is located to do business in said State, by soliciting and selling insurance and collecting premiums on policies issued by such company; and may receive for services so rendered such fees or commissions as may be agreed upon between the said association and the insurance company for which it may act as agent; and may also act as the broker or agent for others in making or procuring loans on real estate located within one hundred miles of the place in which said bank may be located, receiving for such services a reasonable fee or commission: Provided, however, That no such bank shall in any case guarantee either the principal or interest of any such loans or assume or guarantee the payment of any premium on insurance policies issued through its agency by its principal: And provided further, That the bank shall not guarantee the truth of any statement made by an assured in his application for insurance. (Sept. 7, 1916, c. 461, 39 Stat. 753.)

93. Violation of provisions of chapter; forfeiture of franchise; personal liability of directors.—If the directors of any national banking association shall knowingly violate, or knowingly permit any of the officers, agents, or servants of the association to violate any of the provisions of this chapter, all the rights, privileges, and franchises of the association shall be thereby forfeited. Such violation shall, however, be determined and adjudged by a proper district, or Territorial court of the United States, in a suit brought for that purpose by the Comptroller of the Currency, in his own name, before the association shall be declared dissolved. And in cases of such violation, every director who participated in or assented to the same shall be held liable in his personal and individual capacity for all damages which the association, its shareholders, or any other person, shall have sustained in consequence of such violation. (R. S. § 5239.)

94. Venue of suits.—Actions and proceedings against any association under this chapter may be had in any district or Territorial court of the United States held within the district in which such association may be established, or in any State, county, or municipal court in the county or city in which said association is located having jurisdiction in similar cases. (R. S. § 5198; Feb. 18, 1875, c. 80, § 1, 18 Stat. 320.)

OBTAINING AND ISSUING CIRCULATING NOTES

101. Delivery of circulating notes; deposit of bonds.—Upon the deposit with the Treasurer of the United States, by any national banking association, of any bonds of the United States in the manner provided by existing law, such association shall be entitled to receive from the Comptroller of the Currency circulating notes in blank, registered and countersigned as provided by law, equal in amount to the par value of the bonds so deposited; and any national banking association now having bonds on deposit for the security of circulating notes, and upon which an amount of circulating notes has been issued less than the par value of the bonds, shall be entitled, upon due application to the Comptroller of the Currency, to receive additional circulating notes in blank to an amount which will increase the circulating notes held by such association to the par value of the bonds deposited, such additional notes to be held and treated in the same way as circulating notes of national banking associations heretofore issued, and subject to all the provisions of law affecting such notes: Provided, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to modify or repeal the provisions of section 175 of this title, authorizing the Comptroller of the Currency to require additional deposits of bonds or of lawful money in case the market value of the bonds held to secure the circulating notes shall fall below the par value of the circulating notes outstanding for which such bonds may be deposited as security: And provided further, That the circulating notes furnished to national banking associations under the provisions of this section shall be of the denominations prescribed by law: And provided further, That the total amount of such notes issued to any such association may equal at any time but shall not exceed the amount at such time of its capital stock actually paid in: And provided further, That under regulations to be prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury any national banking association may substitute the 2 per centum bonds issued under the provisions of section 11 of chapter 41, of Act of March 14, 1900 (Thirty-first Statutes, page 48), for any of the bonds deposited with the Treasurer to secure circulation or to secure deposits of public money. (Mar. 14, 1900, c. 41, § 12, 31 Stat. 49; Oct. 5, 1917, c. 74, § 2, 40 Stat. 342.)

102. "United States bonds" as including registered bonds.—The term "United States bonds," as used throughout this chapter, shall be construed to mean registered bonds of the United States. (R. S. § 5158.)

103. Denominations of notes; limitation on amount of $1 and $2 notes.—Any national banking association, upon compliance with the provisions of law applicable thereto, shall be entitled to receive from the Comptroller of the Currency, or to issue or reissue, or place in circulation notes in denominations of $1, $2, $5, $10, $20, $50, and $100 in such proportion as to each of said denominations as the bank may elect: Provided, however, That no bank shall receive or have in circulation at any one time more than $25,000 in notes of the denominations of $1 and $2. (Oct. 5, 1917, c. 74, § 3, 40 Stat. 342.)

104. Printing notes; form.—In order to furnish suitable notes for circulation, the Comptroller of the Currency shall, under the direction of the Secretary of the Treasury, cause plates and dies to be engraved, in the best manner to guard against counterfeiting and fraudulent alterations, and shall have printed therefrom and numbered such quantity of circulating notes in blank, or bearing engraved signatures of officers as herein provided, of the denominations of $1, $2, $5, $10, $20, $50, $100, $500, and $1,000, as may be required to supply the associations entitled to receive the same. Such notes shall express upon their face that they are secured by United States bonds deposited with the Treasurer of the United States, by the written or engraved signatures of the Treasurer and register, and by the imprint of the seal of the Treasury; and shall also express upon their face the promise of the association receiving the same to pay on demand, attested by the written or engraved signatures of the president or vice president and cashier; and shall bear such devices and such other statements and shall be in such form as the Secretary of the Treasury shall, by regulation, direct. (R. S. § 5172; May 30, 1908, c. 229, § 11, 35 Stat. 551; Dec. 23, 1913, c. 6, § 27, 38 Stat. 274; Aug. 4, 1914, c. 225, 38 Stat. 682; Mar. 3, 1919, c. 101, § 4, 40 Stat. 1315.)

105. Printing charter numbers on notes.—The Comptroller of the Currency shall, under such rules and regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe, cause the charter numbers of the association to be printed upon all national-bank notes which may be hereafter issued by him. (June 20, 1874, c. 343, § 5, 18 Stat. 124.)

106. Distinctive paper for printing.—The national-bank notes shall be printed under the direction of the Secretary of the Treasury, and upon the distinctive or special paper which has been, or may hereafter be, adopted by him for printing United States notes. (Mar. 3, 1875, c. 130, § 1, 18 Stat. 372.)

107. Custody of plates and dies; payment of expenses.—The plates and special dies to be procured by the Comptroller of the Currency for the printing of such circulating notes shall remain under his control and direction, and the expenses necessarily incurred in executing the laws respecting the procuring of such notes, and all other expenses of the bureau of the currency, shall be paid out of the proceeds of the taxes or duties assessed and collected on the circulation of national banking associations under this chapter. (R. S. § 5173.)

108. Examination of plates, dies, and other material; destruction of obsolete material.—The Comptroller of the Currency shall cause to be examined, each year, the plates, dies, bed pieces, and other material from which the national-bank circulation is printed, in whole or in part, and file in his office annually a correct list of the same. Such material as shall have been used in the printing of the notes of associations which are in liquidation, or have closed business, shall be destroyed under such regulations as shall be prescribed by the Comptroller of the Currency and approved by the Secretary of the Treasury. The expenses of any such examination or destruction shall be paid out of any appropriation made by Congress for the special examination of national banks and bank-note plates. (R. S. § 5174; Feb. 27, 1877, c. 69, § 1, 19 Stat. 252.)

109. Issuance of notes by banks; obligation; signatures of officers; demands for which notes shall be received.—Any association receiving circulating notes under this chapter may, if its promise to pay such notes on demand is expressed thereon attested by the written or engraved signatures of the president or vice president and the cashier thereof in such manner as to make them obligatory promissory notes payable on demand at its place of business, issue, and circulate the same as money. Such written or engraved signatures of the president or vice president and the cashier of such association may be attached to such notes either before or after the receipt of such notes by such association. And such notes shall be received at par in all parts of the United States in payment of taxes, excises, public lands, and all other dues to the United States, except duties on imports; and also for all salaries and other debts and demands owing by the United States to individuals, corporations, and associations within the United States, except interest on the public debt, and in redemption of the national currency. (R. S. § 5182; Jan. 13, 1920, c. 38, 41 Stat. 387.)

110. Issue by banks of unauthorized notes; prohibition.—No national banking association shall issue post notes or any other notes to circulate as money than such as are authorized by the provisions of this chapter. (R. S. § 5183; Feb. 18, 1875, c. 80, § 1, 18 Stat. 320.)

REDEMPTION AND REPLACEMENT OF CIRCULATING NOTES

121. Redemption of notes by Treasurer of United States; reserve in Treasury; disposition of notes unfit for use; expenses.—Every national banking association organized under the provisions of this chapter, shall at all times keep and have on deposit in the Treasury of the United States, in lawful money of the United States, a sum equal to 5 per centum of its circulation, to be held and used for the redemption of such circulation, which sum shall in no case be counted as a part of its legal reserve; and when the circulating notes of any such associations, assorted or unassorted, shall be presented for redemption, in sums of $1,000, or any multiple thereof, to the Treasurer of the United States, the same shall be redeemed in United States notes. All notes so redeemed shall be charged by the Treasurer of the United States to the respective associations issuing the same, and he shall notify them severally, on the 1st day of each month, or oftener, at his discretion, of the amount of such redemptions; and whenever such redemptions for any association shall amount to the sum of $500, such association so notified shall forthwith deposit with the Treasurer of the United States a sum in United States notes equal to the amount of its circulating notes so redeemed. And all notes of national banks worn, defaced, mutilated, or otherwise unfit for circulation shall, when received by any assistant treasurer or at any designated depository of the United States, be forwarded to the Treasurer of the United States for redemption as provided herein. And when such redemptions have been so reimbursed, the circulating notes so redeemed shall be forwarded to the respective associations by which they were issued; but if any of such notes are worn, mutilated, defaced, or rendered otherwise unfit for use, they shall be forwarded to the Comptroller of the Currency and destroyed and replaced as now provided by law: Provided, That each of said associations shall reimburse to the Treasury the charges for transportation, and the costs for assorting such notes; and the associations hereafter organized shall also severally reimburse to the Treasury the cost of engraving such plates as shall be ordered by each association respectively; and the amount assessed upon each association shall be in proportion to the circulation redeemed, and be charged to the fund on deposit with the Treasurer. (June 20, 1874, c. 343, § 3, 18 Stat. 123; Dec. 23, 1913, c. 6, § 20, 38 Stat. 271.)

122. Deposits made with Treasurer to redeem circulating notes; disposition.—All deposits received by the Treasurer of the United States from national banks, made to redeem the circulating notes of such banks, shall be covered into the Treasury as a miscellaneous receipt, and the Treasurer of the United States shall redeem from the general cash in the Treasury the circulating notes of said banks which may come into his possession subject to redemption; and upon the certificate of the Comptroller of the Currency that such notes have been received by him and that they have been destroyed and that no new notes will be issued in their place, reimbursement of their amount shall be made to the Treasurer, under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe from the appropriation known as "National-bank notes, redemption account," but the provisions of this section shall not apply to the deposits received under section 121 of this title, requiring every national bank to keep in lawful money with the Treasurer of the United States a sum equal to 5 per centum of its circulation, to be held and used for the redemption of its circulating notes; and the balance remaining of the deposits so covered shall, at the close of each month, be reported on the monthly public-debt statement as debt of the United States bearing no interest. (July 14, 1890, c. 708, § 6, 26 Stat. 289.)

123. Redemption of notes by bank at own counter.—Every national banking association shall redeem its circulating notes at its own counter, at par, in lawful money on demand. (R. S. § 5195, June 20, 1874, c. 343, § 3, 18 Stat. 123.)

124. Destroying and replacing notes unfit for use.—It shall be the duty of the Comptroller of the Currency to receive worn-out or mutilated circulating notes issued by any banking association, and also, on due proof of the destruction of any such circulating notes, to deliver in place thereof to the association other blank circulating notes to an equal amount. Such worn-out or mutilated notes, after a memorandum has been entered in the proper books, in accordance with such regulations as may be established by the comptroller, as well as all circulating notes which shall have been paid or surrendered to be canceled, shall be macerated in presence of four persons, one to be appointed by the Secretary of the Treasury, one by the Comptroller of the Currency, one by the Treasurer of the United States, and one by the association, under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe. A certificate of such maceration, signed by the parties so appointed, shall be made in the books of the comptroller, and a duplicate thereof forwarded to the association whose notes are thus canceled. (R. S. § 5184, June 23, 1874, c. 455, § 1, 18 Stat. 206.)

125. Redemption of lost or stolen notes.—The provisions of this chapter, providing for the redemption of national-bank notes, shall apply to all national-bank notes that have been or may be issued to, or received by, any national bank, notwithstanding such notes may have been lost by or stolen from the bank and put in circulation without the signature or upon the forged signature of the president or vice president and cashier. (July 28, 1892, c. 317, 27 Stat. 322.)

126. Return to Treasury of notes of failed or liquidating banks for redemption.—It shall be the duty of the Treasurer, designated depositaries, and national-bank depositaries of the United States to assort and return to the Treasury for redemption the notes of such national banks as have failed or gone into voluntary liquidation for the purpose of winding up their affairs, and such as shall hereafter so fail or go into liquidation. (June 20, 1874, c. 343, § 8, 18 Stat. 125.)

127. Clerical force for redemption of circulating notes.—That to carry into effect the provisions of section 3 of the Act entitled "An Act fixing the amount of United States notes, providing for a redistribution of the national-bank currency, and for other purposes," approved June 20, 1874, the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to appoint a force to be employed under his direction in the office of the Treasurer of the United States and in the office of the Comptroller of the Currency in connection with the redemption of circulating notes as shall be provided for in the appropriation bill for each fiscal year. At the end of each month the Secretary of the Treasury shall reimburse the Treasury to the full amount paid out under the provisions of this section by transfer of said amount from the deposit of national banking associations with the Treasurer of the United States; and at the end of each fiscal year shall transfer from said deposit to the Treasury of the United States such sum as may have been actually expended under his direction for stationery, rent, fuel, light and other necessary incidental expenses which have been incurred in carrying into effect the provisions of the said section of the above-named Act. (Mar. 3, 1875, c. 130, § 3, 18 Stat. 399.)

PROCEEDINGS ON FAILURE OF BANK TO REDEEM CIRCULATING NOTES

As to receiverships, see section 191 of this title.

131. Protest of notes; waiver.—Whenever any national banking association fails to redeem in the lawful money of the United States any of its circulating notes, upon demand of payment duly made during the usual hours of business, at the office of such association, or at its designated place of redemption, the holder may cause the same to be protested, in one package, by a notary public, unless the president or cashier of the association whose notes are presented for payment offers to waive demand and notice of the protest, and, in pursuance of such offer, makes, signs, and delivers to the party making such demand an admission in writing, stating the time of the demand, the amount demanded, and the fact of the nonpayment thereof. The notary public, on making such protest, or upon receiving such admission, shall forthwith forward such admission or notice of protest to the Comptroller of the Currency, retaining a copy thereof. If, however, satisfactory proof is produced to the notary public that the payment of the notes demanded is restrained by order of any court of competent jurisdiction, he shall not protest the same. When the holder of any notes causes more than one note or package to be protested on the same day, he shall not receive pay for more than one protest. (R. S. § 5226; June 20, 1874, c. 343, § 3, 18 Stat. 123.)

132. Examination of conditions by special agent; forfeiture of bonds.—On receiving notice that any national banking association has failed to redeem any of its circulating notes, as specified in the preceding section, the Comptroller of the Currency, with the concurrence of the Secretary of the Treasury, may appoint a special agent, of whose appointment immediate notice shall be given to such association, who shall immediately proceed to ascertain whether it has refused to pay its circulating notes in the lawful money of the United States, when demanded, and shall report to the comptroller the fact so ascertained. If, from such protest, and the report so made, the comptroller is satisfied that such association has refused to pay its circulating notes and is in default, he shall, within thirty days after he has received notice of such failure, declare the bonds deposited by such association forfeited to the United States, and they shall thereupon be so forfeited. (R. S. § 5227.)
