Part E.

Hendin's C. G.

This is the beginning of the document. It seems to be discussing a military or historical context, possibly involving tactics or strategies. The text is not fully visible due to the cropping of the image, but it likely contains detailed information relevant to the reader's interest in military or historical contexts.
Trin. 8 Jacobi.

The Book of Thamsta's Celi.

A 11-page bound part of the Book, the Rules of the Church, and a description of the land in the parish of Trin. 8 Jacobi, by the clergy of the parish, and the bishops of the diocese.

The gothic script is clear, and the text is well spaced, indicating it is a manuscript.